SECTION 104 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope and applicability.
2. Order under S. 95—Cl. (g).
3. Order imposing fine, etc.—Cl. (h).
4. Bar of appeal from appellate order—Sub-s. (2).

1. Scope and applicability. — [1] Section 104 applies only to appeals from orders and not to appeals from decrees. (Vol 29) 1942 Lah 95 (99) : I L R (1942) Lah 491 (FB).

(2) No appeal shall lie from any order passed in appeal under this section.

[a] Clauses (a) to (f) (both inclusive) of sub-s. (1) were repealed by the Arbitration Act, 1940 (10 [X] of 1940), S. 49 and Sch. III. For corresponding provisions in the above Act, see Section 39 thereof. [b] Inserted by the Civil Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1922 (9 [IX] of 1922), Section 3. See also foot-note to the text of Section 35A.

105. (1) Save as otherwise expressly provided, no appeal shall lie from any order made by other orders. a Court in the exercise of its original or appellate jurisdiction; but, where a decree is appealed from, any error, defect or irregularity in any order, affecting the decision of the case, may be set forth as a ground of objection in the memorandum of appeal.

SECTION 105 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Applicability and scope.
2. Compliance with Orders — No bar.
3. "Where a decree is appealed from."
4. "Affecting the decision of the case."
5. Error, defect or irregularity.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any party aggrieved by an order of remand made after the commencement of this Code from which an appeal lies does not appeal therefrom, he shall thereafter be precluded from disputing its correctness.

Objects and Reasons.

"Clause 105. — Though the remarks of the Privy Council in Moheshur v. The Bengal Government (7 Moo. Ind. App. 283) are wide enough to embrace an appeal from an order of remand the Committee think that those orders were probably not in their Lordships' contemplation when they condemned the view that a failure to appeal from an interlocutory order should deprive the person aggrieved of his right to object to such order when subsequently appealing from the decree.

And the Committee think there are good reasons on the score of delay and expense for treating an appeal from order of remand as a special case and precluding an appellant from taking, on an appeal from decree, any objection that might have been urged by way of appeal from an order of remand.

The Committee have deleted the word 'such' to remove a difficulty it creates (10 Moo. Ind. App. 340, 413; 12 Moo. Ind. App. 157)." — S. O. R.

5a. Letters Patent appeals.

6. Orders granting review.

7. Order must be one under the Code.

8. Privy Council appeals.

9. Remand orders.

10. Revision of orders that can be challenged under the section.

1. Applicability and scope.—[1] Section 105 is one of the many rules that come under the heading of res judicata — Findings forming basis of appealable order but not appealed from become res judicata. (Vol 1) 1914 Nag 58 (59, 60) : 10 Nag L R 28.

[2] Sections 105 and 99 are not mutually destructive. (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 150 (154) : 5 Rang 80.

[3] There is not any law or regulation prevailing in India which renders it imperative upon the suitor to appeal from every interlocutory order by which he may conceive himself aggrieved, under the penalty, if he does not do so, of forfeiting for ever the benefit of the consideration of appellate Court. (1857-59) 7 Moo Ind App 283 (302) (P C) & (1868-66) 10 Moo Ind App 413 (423) (P C) & (1868-66) 10 Moo Ind App 340 (359, 360) (P C).

[6] The propriety of an order refusing permission to file written statement can be questioned in an appeal from final decree under S. 105 (1). (1944) 1944 All L Jour 17 (18).

[8] An appealable order can be challenged in an appeal from final decree in the suit. (1896) 18 All 19 (21, 22) (FB) & (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 3 (5).

[9] If a party desires to avail himself of the privilege of an appeal from an interlocutory order of remand he ought to do so before the final disposal of the suit. (1905) 32 Cal 1023 (1029).

[But see (Vol 27) 1940 Nag 104 (106).]

[11] Where an order under the group of sections relating to representatives has been made excluding a person from the record that person must seek his remedy on appeal against the order and is not entitled to appeal against the decree, so long as the order stands. (1890) 12 All 200 (202).

[12] An order setting aside an ex parte decree and restoring the suit to the file is not an order which comes within the purview of this section. (1906) 3 All L Jour 30 (34).

[13] The provisions of this section do not apply to Courts constituted under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, or under the Berar Small Cause Courts Law, 1905; see section 7 (b).

2. Compliance with orders.—No bar.—[1] Compliance with the directions contained in an interlocutory order does not bar a party from objecting to the order in appeal from the final decree. (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 38 (39) : 1 Lah 54 & (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 733 (735).

[2] Interlocutory order — Appeal dismissed as being an unappealable order — Objections against order can be raised in appeal against decree. (Vol 9) 1922 All 118 (119) : 44 All 534.

3. "Where a decree is appealed from." — [1] The word "decree" in the section means a decree passed by the Court which made the order alleged to be defective, erroneous or irregular. (1909) 32 Mad 318 (319).

[2] Appeal lies from a decree even where the only ground of appeal is the defect, error or irregularity of an order made in the suit. (1890) 14 Bom 232 (235) & (Vol 15) 1928 All 194 (196) & (1881) 7 Cal 148 (149) & (1911) 34 Mad 228 (230, 231).

[3] The principle of S. 105 is applicable not only to decrees and interlocutory orders but also to orders and interlocutory orders leading to the final decree. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 404 (405) & (Vol 19) All 392 (393) & (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 936 (937).

[But see (1936) 164 Ind Cas 730 (731) (All).]

4. "Affecting the decision of the case." — [1] "Affecting the decision of the case" means affecting the decision on merits. (Vol 13) 1931 All 294 (297) : 53 All 612 (FB) & (Vol 18) 1931 All 329 (330, 331) & (Vol 12) 1925 All 610 (612) : 48 All 175 (FB) & (Vol 12) 1925 All 426 (427) : 47 All 555 & (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 26 (27) & (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 312 (312). (Order under S. 151 technically wrong — Appellate Court is not bound to interfere in appeal.)

[2] Validity of order setting aside award can be attacked in appeal under S. 105. [4] Order refusing amendment of plaint can be questioned in appeal under S. 105. (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 17 (17) (Vol 1) 1914 Sind 70 (72, 73) : 8 Sind L R 69.

[5] Whether a claim is barred by time or not is a decision of the case on the merits. (Vol 30) 1943 Oudh 288 (290).

[6] Order disallowing interrogatories is not appealable—No revision lies—It can be challenged in appeal on final decision. (Vol 7) 1920 Sind 1 (1, 5) : 14 Sind L R 28.

[7] Though the Munsiff's order refusing leave to sue in his Court is not appealable, still the District Judge can consider the question on the principle of S. 105. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 404 (405).

[8] Dismissal of appeal against some respondents for want of identification of service of notice of appeal—Affidavit sworn in by serving peon but appellant though ordered failing to do so—Transfer of appeal as against other respondents to other Court—Court dismissing entire appeal—Order of dismissal can be raised as ground of appeal in second appeal. (Vol 16) 1929 Pat 609 (610, 611) : 9 Pat 408.

[9] Appeal from order under O. 7, R. 10—Remand ordered on appeal—Order of remand does not affect decision of case and cannot be questioned in second appeal. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 900 (902).

[10] Order refusing to record adjustment does not affect decision of case but merely ensures that merits of case should be determined—It cannot be challenged under S. 105. (Vol 23) 1936 Nag 8 (11) : 31 Nag L R 72.

[11] Order allowing substitution or setting aside abatement passed cannot be questioned in appeal from decree. (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 498 (500) (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 766 (768) : 52 Cal 472 (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 473 (474) (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 152 (153) : 14 Lah 361.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO APPEALS

107. (1) Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed, an Appellate Court Powers of Appellate Court. shall have power —

- (a) to determine a case finally;
- (b) to remand a case;
- (c) to frame issues and refer them for trial;
- (d) to take additional evidence or to require such evidence to be taken.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, the Appellate Court shall have the same powers and shall perform as nearly as may be the same duties as are conferred and imposed by this Code on Courts of original jurisdiction in respect of suits instituted therein.

[5] Points decided by order of remand cannot be reconsidered by lower Court. (Vol 8) 1921 Nag 129 (130)* (Vol 5) 1918 Nag 264 (267).

[6] To prevent obvious injustice High Court can refuse to be bound by remand order of Subordinate Court though neither party can question it. (Vol 16) 1929 All 421 (428) : 51 All 780.

[7] Where an order of remand by the Appellate Court on the question of the maintainability of a suit is not appealed against, the Appellate Court cannot subsequently go into the question of the form of suit as it is not open to discussion any longer. [8] Order remanding not appealed against—Ground of remand cannot subsequently be challenged in appeal. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 706 (708).

[9] Held that the ground of objection in the memorandum of appeal that the lower Appellate Court had no jurisdiction to entertain the appeal which had abated and the order for substitution of names was irregular, was untenable in an appeal from order of remand. Proper stage to take such objection was in an appeal from decree itself. (1936) 1936 All L Jour 538 (539).

[1] The provisions of this section do not apply to Courts constituted under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, or under the Berar Small Cause Courts Law, 1905; see S. 7 (b).

[2] Under the different Civil Courts Acts the appellate jurisdiction of the District Judge extends to the decrees in suits of the value of Rs. 5000 and less. Where, therefore the value of the subject-matter of the suit does not exceed Rs. 5000 an appeal from the order passed lies to the District Judge; but if the value of the suit exceeds Rs. 5000 then the appeal lies to the High Court. 2. Power to take additional evidence.—See O. 41, R. 27.

3. Powers and duties of appellate Court.

4. Addition and substitution of parties.

5. Power to allow amendments.

6. Rejection of memorandum of appeal.

7. Return of plaint or memorandum of appeal for presentation to proper Court.

8. Withdrawal of suit or memorandum of appeal.

1. Applicability of section.—[1] The provisions of this section do not apply to Courts constituted under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, or under the Berar Small Cause Courts Law, 1905; see S. 7 (b).

[2] This section affects only proceedings under the Code and does not extend the operation of any portion of the Limitation Act. (1886) 12 Cal 590 (593) (F B).

1a. Power to remand.—See O. 41, R. 23.

2. Power to take additional evidence.—See O. 41, R. 27.

3. Powers and duties of appellate Court.—[1] S. 107 does not confer any powers not given by O. 41, as cl. (2) is expressly made subject to any conditions and limitations as may be prescribed. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 665 (667).

[3] Under S. 152 read with S. 107 the Appellate Court is entitled, while the appeal is pending before it, to correct any clerical or arithmetical mistake in the decree of the trial Court apparent on the face of the record. (Vol 15) 1928 All 458 (459).

Procedure in appeals from appellate decrees and orders. 108. The provisions of this Part relating to appeals from original decrees shall, so far as may be, apply to appeals —

APPEALS TO THE KING IN COUNCIL

109. Subject to such rules as may, from time to time, be made by His Majesty in Council regarding appeals from the Courts of British India, and to the provisions hereinafter contained, an appeal shall lie to His Majesty in Council —

- (a) from any decree² or final order³ passed on appeal⁴ by a High Court or by any other Court of final appellate jurisdiction;⁵
- (b) from any decree or final order passed by a High Court in the exercise of original civil jurisdiction; and
- (c) from any decree or order, when the case, as hereinafter provided, is certified to be a fit⁶ one for appeal to His Majesty in Council.

[9] Appeals from orders under S. 66, Income-tax Act, are not regulated by Ss. 109 and 110. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 225 (226) : 20 Pat 561 (SB) * (Vol 17) 1930 Rang 274 (276) : 8 Rang 435.

[10] The right of appeal is not confined to the King's subject. (1906) 33 Cal 219 (253) : 33 Ind App 1 (PC).

[11] Petitioner prima facie satisfying conditions prescribed by S. 109 — High Court is bound to grant leave—Chance of success immaterial. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 46 (52).

[12] Leave to appeal to Privy Council by defendant—Considerations that might arise where plaintiff is applicant need not be considered. (Vol 21) 1934 Rang 65 (65) : 12 Rang 164.

[13] Two appeals to Privy Council, one from Division Bench and other from Letters Patent — Both decisions should not be certified. (Vol 18) 1931 P C 104 (106) : 53 Ind App 141 : 58 Cal 1281 (PC).

(a) Originally an award under the Land Acquisition Act of 1894 could not be subject matter of an appeal to the Privy Council—But the Act as amended in 1921 lays down that such award should be treated as a judgment under S. 2 Cl. (2) and S. 2 (9) and therefore an appeal is now competent. (Vol 12) 1925 P C 91 (92) : 6 Lah 69 : 52 Ind App 133 (P C).

(b) Refusal of application under S. 45, Specific Relief Act, to compel reference under S. 51, Income-tax Act—Appeal lies. (Vol 8) 1921 Bom 378 (378).

(c) Order under Presidency Towns Insolvency Act. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 243 (243, 244) * (1913) 40 Cal 685 (691).

5. Any other Court of final appellate jurisdiction. — [1] District Court sitting in appeal under S. 75, Provincial Insolvency Act, is not Court of final appellate jurisdiction—No appeal to Privy Council lies from its decision, whatever may be the value of subject-matter. (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 930 (932, 933).

6. Certificate of fitness—Clause (c). — [1] Under S. 109 (c), Civil P. C., a High Court can, if convinced that a case is a fit one for appeal to the Privy Council grant leave to appeal in any case even upon a question of fact. It is not necessary that the order should be a final one. (Vol 6) 1919 Oudh 7 (8) * (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 624 (624).

17. Valuation of subject-matter in dispute on appeal.

1. Affirmance — Meaning of. — [1] The question whether the judgment of the High Court is a judgment of affirmance or not does not depend upon whether the appellant is the plaintiff or the defendant; it depends upon whether the judgment of the Court is one affirming the judgment of the lower Court. It is immaterial whether the effect of the modification is in favour of the appellant or adds to his detriment. (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 262 (262).

[2] The "affirmance of a decision" means the affirmance of the decree and not necessarily of the judgment; judgment means the statement of the grounds on which the decision is based. Appellate decree is a decree of affirmance though based on grounds different from those adopted by the lower Court. (1903) 25 All 109 (114) : 30 Ind App 35 (PC.) * (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 690 (691) : 14 Lah 609 * (Vol 81) 1944 Mad 269 (270, 271) : I L R (1944) Mad 890. (Fresh right given by new Act — Trial Court and High Court differing whether petitioner is entitled to benefits of Act but High Court dismissing appeal.) * (Vol 14) 1927 Oudh 535 (535) * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 219 (220) * (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 703 (704) (SB) * (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 463 (470). (Notwithstanding absence of concurrent findings of fact, decree may be affirming.) * (Vol 10) 1923 Rang 55 (56) : 11 Low Bur Bul 410.

[3] Any variation in decree is not enough to take it out of S. 110, last para — "Decree" and "decision" in S. 110 used in connection with the High Court and lower Court respectively do not mean the same thing — Decree of High Court held one of affirmance of lower Court. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 67 (68).

[4] The words "affirms the decision of the Court immediately below" relate of the subject-matter of the suit and therefore there is no right of appeal when the two Courts differ only as to costs. (1907) 10 Oudh Cas 65 (68) * (Vol 30) 1943 All 353 (360) : I L R (1943) All 840. (Variation in matters of costs only is not decree of variance.) * (Vol 9) 1922 Cal 316 (316, 317) * (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 368 (369) * (Vol 21) 1934 Oudh 433 (434) * (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 43 (44) * (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 703 (704) (S B) * (Vol 30) 1943 Pesh 81 (81).

[5] A decree of the High Court dismissing an appeal for default is a decree affirming the decision of the Court below. (Vol 2) 1915 All 827 (827).

[6] Order of dismissal of appeal for non-prosecution affirms decision of Court below. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 362 (365) * (1898) 20 All 367 (369) * (Vol 13) 1926 Rang 111 (112) : 3 Rang 656.

[7] A decree of the High Court dismissing an appeal on account of insufficiency of court-fee is one affirming the decree of the first Court. (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 65 (65) : 1 Lah 220.

[8] Order dismissing appeal for appellant's failure to furnish security for costs amounts to affirming decision of Court below. (Vol 19) 1932 All 312 (314) : 54 All 890 (Obiter) * (Vol 1) 1914 All 54 (54) : 36 All 325.

[9] High Court's decree reversing lower Court's decision in part and maintaining it with regard to remainder of claim — High Court's decree cannot be said to affirm lower Court's decision — Appeal to His Majesty is competent even on points of concurrence between lower and appellate Court without showing substantial question of law. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 269 (276) : 20 Pat 459 (S B). ((Vol 23) 1936 Pat 553 : 15 Pat 637, overruled.) * (Vol 33) 1946 All 262 (263, 266) * (Vol 10) 1923 Cal 215 (216). (Decree affirming decree of the Court below with variation is not a decree of affirmance.) * (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 118 (119, 120) * (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 670 (670) * (Vol 16) 1922 Pat 561 (564) : 9 Pat 558. (Part of decree affirmed and part varied — Appeal is not limited to part varied.) * (Vol 30) 1943 Pesh 45 (46).

[10] Decree or order partly maintaining lower Court's decision and partly reversing it — Appeal to His Majesty in Council confined only to part of decree or order which has been affirmed — Decree or order is one of affirmance. (Vol 31) 1944 Lah 458 (460) : I L R (1945) Lah 242 (FB) * (Vol 5) 1918 All 245 (246). (Leave cannot be granted in respect of part affirmed if no question of law is involved.) * (Vol 16) 1929 Bom 359 (360) * (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 146 (146) : 62 Cal 257. (Appellate Court modifying original decree upon single point in appellant's favour — He has no right to appeal on other points.) * (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 761 (764). (Leave cannot be granted to agitate the confirmed portion of the decree.) * (Vol 2) 1915 Lah 113 (114) : 1915 Pun Re No. 22 * (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 881 (883) : I L R (1937) Mad 121. (Appellate Court reversing decree upon single point — Reversal in appellant's favour — He cannot, because of the reversal, have right to appeal on points on which lower Courts have concurred — What is to be regarded is not decision as whole but decision as it affects subject matter in dispute.) * (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 827 (827) * (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 245 (245).

[11] Suit for possession decreed subject to a grant of maintenance of Rs. 800 a year to defendant — On appeal High Court increasing amount to 1200 a year — Leave should be granted even if no substantial question of law is involved. (Vol 12) 1925 P C 60 (60) : 51 Cal 969 : 51 Ind App 319 (P O).

[12] High Court modifying trial Court's decree in appellant's favour — Appellant can challenge High Court's decision by appeal to Privy Council where the amount involved is Rs. 10,000 or upwards. (Vol 28) 1941 All 66 (67, 88) : I L R (1941) All 180 (F B). ((Vol 26) 1939 All 723, overruled.)

[13] High Court varying decree in plaintiff's favour — Decree is not one of affirmance and plaintiff is entitled to appeal as of right even if no substantial question of law is involved. (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 836 (837, 838).

[14] Lower Court's decree affirmed but modified with one variation by the consent of the appellants — Latter appealing to Privy Council must show that substantial question of law is involved. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 81 (82, 83).

[15] Partition suit — Lower Court granting certain share — High Court on appeal increasing it — No further grievance left in that matter — Substantial question of law must be shown before the points on which both Courts have been in agreement can be disputed. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 543 (544, 545).

[16] A decree of High Court affirming a decree for redemption passed by a lower Court but fixing a later date for redemption and allowing the interest at bond rate to run from the expiry of the date fixed by lower Court till the date fixed by the High Court, does not make the decision one of reversal. (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 190 (191) * (Vol 14) 1927 Pat 379 (381). (Mortgage decree — Period of grace extended — Order is not of reversal.)

[18] Several decisions in respect of several subject-matters — Decree embodying those decisions should not be regarded as one and entire. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 631 (633).

[19] Modification of lower Court's decree by High Court of pecuniary nature in appellant's favour — It is variation of lower Court's decree — But appellant cannot make that ground for appeal to Privy Council on grounds unconnected or dissociable from those in which Courts were of one mind. (Vol 19) 1932 Nag 118 (119) : 28 Nag L R 142.

[20] High Court affirming lower Court's decree excepting a slight modification as to rate of interest in favour of applicant — Decree is one of affirmance and applicant is not entitled for leave to appeal. (Vol 9) 1922 All 89 (89, 90) : 44 All 200 * (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 478 (479) : 18 Luck 457.

[21] Suit on mortgage deed — Claim decreed but interest after institution of suit disallowed — Appeal by mortgagor — Cross-appeal against disallowed interest by mortgagee — Decree as to interest modified in favour of mortgagee — Decree is not affirmed. (Vol 16) 1929 Pat 561 (563) : 9 Pat 558.

[22] In the following cases the decree has been held to be one of affirmance: (Vol 26) 1939 All 723 (724). (High Court increasing amount granted by lower Court under Land Acquisition Act.) * (Vol 9) 1922 All 243 (244). (Modification in favour of applicant — Other portions concurrent.) * (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 973 (973) : 43 Cal 90. (Decree of lower appellate Court set aside by single Judge of High Court — Reversal of his judgment by High Court under Cl. 15 of Charter, has effect of affirming decision of lower appellate Court.) * (Vol 31) 1944 Lah 329 (335) : 1 L R (1945) Lah 156 (F B). (Suit under S. 92, Civil P. C. — High Court in second appeal upholding concurrent findings of lower Courts as to nature of trust — Variation of lower Court's decision being merely due to voluntary relinquishment of relief sought for before and granted by lower Court — High Court's decree held one of affirmance and not of variation.) * (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 712 (714) : 1 L R (1937) Lah 268. (Appellate decree modifying lower Court's decree only on single point not disputed in either Court — Point decided completely in favour of applicant) * (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 102 (103) : 10 Lah 688. (Decree based on award not in conformity with award technically as part unenforceable due to lapse of time being omitted — On appeal decree made in conformity with award by modifying decree of trial Court — No substantial alteration — No question of law — Decree is one of affirmance.) * (Vol 16) 1929 Nag 85 (87). (Trifling account adjustments made — Judgment agreeing with findings of the Court below.) * (Vol 31) 1944 Oudh 295 (295) : 20 Luck 256. (Appeal and cross-objections — Appeal dismissed, cross-objections allowed and lower Court's decree modified by High Court.) * (Vol 27) 1940 Oudh 397 (399). (High Court going into evidence regarding possession and concurring with trial Court and rejecting appeal — Order held order of affirmance.) * (Vol 23) 1936 Pat 553 (554, 555) : 15 Pat 637. (Suit for possession — Trial Court holding that plaintiff was entitled to recover possession and defendant's payment of certain sum was forfeited — High Court, on appeal, affirmed judgment as regards main question but reversed it as regards sum.) * (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 555 (556). (Lower Court finding no necessity for whole alienation — High Court finding no necessity only for portion — Decree varied — Decree is one of affirmance.)

[23] In the following cases the decree has been held to be not one of affirmance: (Vol 19) 1932 All 65 (67) : 54 All 146 (S B). (Cross-objection of small value filed in appeal valued at over Rs. 10,000 allowed, but appeal dismissed — Decree drawn up varying decree of Court below does not affirm decree and appellant has right of appeal under S. 110.) * (Vol 8) 1921 All 270 (271) : 43 All 220. (High Court's decree confirming finding as to defendant's liability but slightly altering amount due.) * (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 250 (251). (High Court decree modifying lower Court decree thereby reducing liability of appellant under decree.) * (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 964 (965). (In suit for possession and accounts, trial Court decreeing plaintiff's claim to one fourth share and ordering partial account — High Court dismissing plaintiff's claim with regard to one-fourth share and so not deciding defendants' liability to account — Judgment of High Court held one of reversal on question of accounts.) * (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 46 (48). (Decree for payment of certain amount after taking accounts is one and not series of decrees — High Court's decree not entirely affirming the decision of the Court below — Decree is not one of affirmance.) * (1911) 9 Ind Cas 1040 (1040) (Oudh). (Decree varied only in one particular.) * (Vol 22) 1935 Oudh 489 (490) : 11 Luck 320. (Decision of trial Court relating to question of adoption and also value of movables — On appeal decision relating to adoption against defendant upheld but value regarding movables modified.) * (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 609 (611). (On main question Court affirming decree of trial Court but setting aside finding as to undue influence and on question of deed being illusory.)

2. Applicability, object and scope.—[1] The provisions of this section do not apply to Courts constituted under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, or under the Berar Small Cause Courts Law, 1905; see section 7 (b).

[2] The object of the section is not to encourage appeals to Privy Council where value of subject-matter is small. (1901) 23 All 227 (231, 232) : 28 Ind App 11 (P C).

[See also (Vol 17) 1930 All 87 (37, 38) : 31 Cri. L. Jour 301. (Object of S. 110 is to offer protection to public.)]

[3] The terms of the section should be strictly construed. No real mischief can arise from not allowing a very wide construction of the section inasmuch as cases not coming within the section, if worthy of being tried by a higher tribunal, can always be dealt with under S. 109 (c). (Vol 12) 1925 P C 159 (160) : 52 Cal 650 : 52 Ind App 207 (P C) * (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 46 (52). (High Court is bound by plain words of S. 110.) * (Vol 25) 1938 Rang 415 (416). (Value of subject-matter not upwards of Rs. 10,000 but shown to be about Rs. 9750—Questions of law involved—Leave under Section 109 (c) should be granted.)

[4] Judgment of reversal—Appealability depends on its being decree or final order and the value being Rs. 10,000 or upwards. (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 537 (537) * (1902) 24 All 174 (177) : 29 Ind App 40 (P C).

[5] The word "and" in the first paragraph of section 110 cannot be read as "or". (1902) 24 All 174 (177) : 29 Ind App 40 (P C).

[6] Loss or detriment suffered by applicant by decree which cannot be estimated in money or by pecuniary standard—S. 110 does not apply. (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 113 (114) : 13 Rang 123.

[7] That large stakes are involved in appeal is not by itself ground for granting leave. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 368 (369).

[8] Order in the insolvency—Appeal to Privy Council lies if conditions prescribed in that behalf under the Civil P. C. are satisfied. (Vol 21) 1934 Rang 292 (293) : 12 Rang 355.

[10] Ss. 5 and 12 of the Limitation Act do not apply to applications under this section. (1906) 28 All 391 (392).

3. Concurrent findings of fact.—[1] Privy Council will not interfere with concurrent judgments of the Courts below on matters of fact unless there has been miscarriage of justice or violation of principles of law or procedure. (1901) 28 Cal 1 (4) : 27 Ind App 166 (P C) * (Vol 18) 1931 P C 68 (69) (P C) * (1901) 25 Bom 332 (336) (P C). Section 110 (contd.)

(808, 809) : 80 Ind App 41 (PC). (The rule is none the less applicable though the Courts may not have taken precisely the same view of the weight to be attached to each particular item of evidence—Subordinate Judge relying on oral testimony whilst High Court relying on documentary evidence.)*(1891) 18 Cal 28 (30) : 17 Ind App 122 (P C).

[2] Leave to appeal—Concurrent finding, but for different reasons—Leave will not be granted. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 443 (444).

[3] The principle underlying S. 110 is that when two Courts have concurred on a finding of fact that finding cannot again be attacked. (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 121 (122): 13 Lah 388.

4. Consent decree.—See Note 2 on S. 96.

5. Consolidation of appeals. — See notes on O. 45, R. 4.

6. Cross-appeals.—[1] Two cross appeals filed in High Court separately disposed of—Plaintiff's appeal dismissed—Defendant's appeal allowed—Merely by fact of allowing cross appeal by defendant, decision in plaintiff's appeal which is dismissed does not cease to be one of affirmance. (Vol 22) 1935 All 374 (377) : 57 All 873 (F B)* (Vol 5) 1918 All 245 (246)* (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 916 (917). [2] Plaintiff suing trustee for general account—Plaint alleging eight specific charges of malversation—These charges forming subject-matter of trial in lower Court—Lower Court deciding some charges in favour of, while others against, trustee — Trustee appealing and plaintiff filing cross-objections — High Court holding that no liability for general accounts lay and dismissing whole suit—Appeal and cross-objections cannot be treated as independent appeals, for charges of malversation were not independent but particulars of claim for general account and High Court's decree cannot be split up so as to say that one part was affirming while other reversing judgment. (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 429 (431) : 52 Mad 521.

[3] Mortgagee succeeding in his mortgage suit except on question of interest—Both mortgagor and mortgagee appealing to High Court—Mortgagor's appeal dismissed and that of mortgagee accepted—Mortgagor applying for leave under S. 109—Held that as the decree was varied not on his but mortgagee's appeal, leave could not be granted unless a substantial question of law was shown to be involved. (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 554 (555, 556): 11 Lah 465.

[5] Where High Court while decreeing plaintiff's claim for royalty gave an adverse decision as to his title to lands, and defendants preferred an appeal to Privy Council on the ground of valuation, plaintiff was allowed to prefer a cross-appeal as there were important questions of law. 8. "Decree or final order must involve like amount or value."—[1] Two sets of conditions in two paragraphs of S. 110 are alternative and mutually exclusive — Condition in paragraph 2 is independent and self-sufficient and is not dependent on fulfilment of both or either of conditions in paragraph 1 — Right of appeal exists even on fulfilment of condition in paragraph 2 only. (Vol 24) 1937 All 169 170 (171) : I L R (1937) All 405.

[But see (Vol 10) 1923 Rang 71 (72, 73) : 11 Low Bur Rul 335. (Para 2 is alternative to the second restriction in the first para of the section. To read it otherwise is to render the provision as to the value of the subject-matter in the Court of first instance a dead letter.)]

[2] Though value of property actually involved in litigation was less than Rs. 10,000, decision of High Court held affected interest of person in his entire property worth more than Rs. 10,000—Such person aggrieved by High Court decision held entitled to certificate under second clause of Section 110. (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 742 (743) : I L R (1939) Mad 838.

[3] Decree for ejectment after removing structure — Suit valued at Rs. 330—If loss to defendant on account of decree is Rs. 10,000 or upwards, he is entitled to appeal under S. 110 (2). (Vol 32) 1945 Bom 113 (114, 116) : I L R (1945) Bom 268.

[4] Words "some claim or question to or respecting property" in S. 110 (2) mean claim or question to or respecting property additional to or other than actual subject-matter in appeal. (Vol 24) 1937 Bom 326 (329): I L R (1937) Bom 402 *(Vol 20) 1933 All 177 (177) : 54 All 858. (Para. 2 deals with property outside the subject-matter in dispute).

[5] A suit is not said to involve claim indirectly simply because similar questions may arise in other estates or in connection with other like things in the same province. If the decision of an issue in a particular case makes the decision of the same issue in other case res judicata or some such similar connection can be shown then alone the value of other disputed matters may be taken into account. (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 780 (780) *(Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1178 (1179).

[6] Not clear on the record whether judgment will govern other similar deeds like the one in suit—Property covered by the other deeds is not part of the subject-matter. (Vol 10) 1923 Cal 451 (452).

[7] Suit relating to land valued at Rs. 1000 — Other lands having same history and exceeding Rs. 10,000 in value likely to be affected by decision — No right of appeal under para 2. (Vol 2) 1915 All 446 (446).

[8] Execution—Sum in dispute realised in execution Rs. 1,300 — Further applications time-barred — Leave cannot be granted though the sum yet to be realised was Rs. 10,000. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 611 (613).

[9] Decision on question of impartibility raised as bar to suit for partition is one which affects whole estate notwithstanding that the judgment could take effect as res judicata between parties to litigation. (Vol 22) 1935 Pat 266 (267).

[10] Value of subject-matter in dispute in appeal admittedly below Rs. 10,000 — Value more than Rs. 10,000 if another pending appeal by party affected by decree is taken into consideration — Decision in appeal for which leave is sought, not having any effect on other appeal either by way of res judicata or in any other way—Order passed in appeal cannot be held, directly or indirectly, to involve claim or question to or respecting property involved in other appeal. (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 95 (96).

[11] Claim on legacy — Decision as to, from what source it should be paid—No right of appeal on ground that decision may affect other legatees whose claims may exceed Rs. 10,000. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1178 (1178, 1179).

[13] Words "must involve directly or indirectly some claim or question to or respecting property of Rs. 10,000 or upwards in value" refer to suits in existence and not to prospective suits. (Vol 20) 1933 All 8 (10) : 54 All 431 * (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 34 (34).

[14] A claim or question which is not essential or relevant for the decision or is too remote or is in gremio futuri and may never materialize cannot be said to be involved directly or indirectly in the decree or order. (Vol 30) 1943 Oudh 266 (268) * (Vol 16) 1929 Nag 85 (86) (Claim in suit for less than Rs. 10,000 — Findings on questions relating to other property valued at more than Rs. 10,000 recorded but not necessary for decision of suit — Subject matter of suit is not more than 10,000). * (Vol 23) 1936 Oudh 181 (182):12 Luck 27. (No appeal to Privy Council lies in respect of property for which no claim has ever been made). * (Vol 13) 1926 Rang 123 (123). (Words "directly or indirectly" do not cover distinct claim to which irrelevant reference is made in the plaint).

[15] Claims indirectly connected with subject matter of main suit — Adding claims to make up prescribed valuation — Indirect relation must not be too remote — Phrase "directly or indirectly" refers to existing suits — Indirect relation must be decided from actual circumstances — Possible further suits may be considered if res judicata affects them. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 31 (33).

[16] Leave to appeal — Decree for small property — Merely incidental finding as to large property cannot make decree involve indirectly question regarding large property. (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 125 (126, 127, 128).

[18] Paragraph 2 means that the suit must, to satisfy the conditions, involve rights and claims to property which rights and claims are worth Rs. 10,000 and onwards and not that the rights affect properties whose value is Rs. 10,000 and upwards. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 174 (176)* (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 632 (633). ("Property" means rights in property inferior to full ownership where such inferior rights alone are subject-matter in dispute.)* (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 407 (408, 409) : 16 Luck 737.

[19] The second clause of S. 110 might apply if the matter in dispute is incapable of valuation as in the case of easements. In such a case the value of the matter in suit to the applicant should be considered. (Vol 13) 1926 Rang 198 (139) : 4 Rang 92 (Right to float logs in stream.)

[20] Easement — Value less than Rs. 10,000 — Property affected more than Rs. 10,000 in value — No right of appeal to Privy Council exists. (Vol 8) 1921 Bom 266 (267) * (Vol 16) 1929 Bom 341 (342) : 53

Bom 552. (Value of easement and not of whole property is to be taken.)

[22] Certain suits for declaration of ownership were tried together and were valued in all above Rs. 10,000. They being dismissed, an appeal was filed to the High Court in respect of one suit in which the claim was above Rs. 5,000. On the appeal being allowed, defendant applied for leave to appeal to Privy Council as a claim or question to property above Rs. 10,000 was involved. Leave was not granted as the value of the defendant's interest was less than Rs. 10,000. (Vol 3) 1915 All 486 (488).

[23] To determine the value prescribed by S. 110 of the Civil P. C. the decree has to be looked at, as it affects the interests of the parties prejudiced by it. Where the detriment to the party seeking relief is estimated at less than Rs. 10,000 then the matter in dispute in appeal is not of the prescribed value and the decree itself does not involve any claim or question to or respecting property of the prescribed value. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 305 (307) : 4 Pat L Jour 415.

[24] Right of way declared over land worth Rs. 1,500 forming part of land worth Rs. 10,000 — Decision does not affect property worth Rs. 10,000. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 785 (785).

[25] Where subject-matter of dispute is merely nature of tenancy, value of which is only Rs. 4,000, no right of appeal to Privy Council lies although tenancy affects property worth more than Rs. 10,000. (Vol 17) 1930 Bom 509 (511)* (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 286 (287). (Suit for ejectment — Question in dispute was whether defendant was permanent tenant or tenant at will — No claim to buildings erected on the site by defendant — Value of buildings not to be taken into account.)

[26] Suit for declaration that certain property could not be attached and sold in execution of certificate as same belonged to plaintiff — Suit valued at Rs. 7699 for which certificate was issued — Suit decreed by trial Court but dismissed on appeal by High Court — Appeal also valued at Rs. 7699 — Property in respect of which certificate was issued worth more than Rs. 10,000 — Case held fully covered by S. 110 (2). (Vol:28) 1941 Pat 288 (288).

[27] Suit for partition of property worth more than Rs. 10,000 — Decree of High Court declaring plaintiff's share to be of value less than Rs. 10,000 — Leave by Defendant to appeal to Privy Council challenging decree — Case does not come under cl. (2). (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 666 (667) : 1 L R (1938) Mad 923.

[28] Trial Court gave a decree for partition — High Court reversed the decree and dismissed the suit — Value of the property to be partitioned over Rs. 10,000 — Held value of the subject-matter of the suit is the value of the whole of the estate which it sought to partition, and not merely of the particular share which one of the parties may claim — Leave for appeal to Privy Council can be granted. (1906) 3 Cal L Jour 257 (259).

[29] Partition suit — Decree affecting plaintiff's share and also that of some of the defendants whose interests will be finally determined by appeal — Value is of the whole property. (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 502 (504).

[30] Partition suit — Value of share of plaintiff — Subject-matter less than Rs. 10,000 — Decree in favour of plaintiff and defendant brother — Appeal to High Court by other defendants — Decree reversed — Application by both for leave to appeal to Privy Council — Leave held could be granted as decree of High Court involved question respecting property of value of Rs. 10,000 or upwards taking into consideration shares of both. (Vol 24) 1937 Bom 181 (182) : I L R (1937) Bom 705.

[31] Execution of decree in suit of value of rupees one lakh — Applicants disputing liability to 4/6ths of item of Rs. 11,709 — Permission cannot be granted. (Vol 2) 1915 Lah 150 (151).

[32] Applicant filing affidavit that decree or order involved claim respecting property exceeding Rs. 10,000 — No counter-affidavit filed — Certificate should be granted. (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 416 (416).

[33] The following are illustrative cases where leave was granted as involving some claim or question respecting property of the value of Rs. 10,000 or upwards: (1913) 35 All 445 (447, 448). (Question as to the validity of an award affecting property exceeding Rs. 10,000 raised.) * (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 176 (176) (Order indirectly involving claim over Rs. 10,000.) * (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 59 (59, 60). (Value of subject-matter of suit in trial Court over Rs. 10,000 — But value of subject-matter in dispute in appeal less than Rs. 10,000 but affecting property of greater value — High Court reversing lower Court's decision — Held certificate should be granted.)

[3] A reversal by the High Court in a Letters Patent appeal of the judgment of a single Judge of the High Court, setting aside the decree of a lower appellate Court has the effect of affirming the decision of the latter Court, i. e., the Court immediately below within the meaning of S. 110. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 973 (973) : 43 Cal 90.

10. "Involve." — [1] A question of law is not deemed to be involved in an appeal under S. 110, if it need not be decided for the disposal of appeal or if such question may arise in certain contingencies. The word "involved" in S. 110 implies a considerable degree of necessity. (Vol 3) 1916 Oudh 286 (286, 287) : 19 Oudh Cas 181.

[3] In the face of concurrent findings of fact, leave to appeal to the King in Council can only be given if a substantial question of law is "involved." A question of law is not involved if it would arise only if the Privy Council reversed those findings. (1914) 7 Law Bur Rul 103 (105) * (1894) 16 All 274 (275, 276) (P C).

[11] When the question involved was the subject of a decision by a Full Bench of the High Court, it is not correct to say that because the question of law which it is proposed to raise arose out of the provisions of a certain Act and the provisions clearly support the view taken by the High Court that it should be held that no substantial question of law is involved. (Vol 30) 1943 Oudh 262 (263).

[12] Where both the Judges of the High Court affirm the judgment of the Court below on merit though there is a difference of opinion between them on a certain question having only an academic interest no leave to appeal to His Majesty can be granted. (1938) 178 Ind Cas 203 (203, 204) (Pat).

[13] The proposition that, although the point of law may be obviously untenable that point, if the decision in the case turns upon it would be a substantial point of law is not tenable. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 283 (283).

[14] Words 'substantial question of law' mean substantial question of law as between the parties in the case involved and not merely a question of general importance. [But see (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 862 (862).]

[27] A valuation of the property by the plaintiff which is admitted or not objected to by the defendant cannot be questioned by the defendant subsequently for the purpose of securing or opposing an appeal to Privy Council. (Vol 10) 1923 Oudh 93 (96, 97) : 26 Oudh Cas 24 * (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 418 (419). (Case cannot be referred for report under O. 45, R. 5 at defendants' instance.) * (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 269 (271) : 20 Pat 459 (SB).

[28] Where a plaintiff having discretion to value his claim in alternate ways chooses to value his claim in a particular way, he is not entitled to set up subsequently that his valuation given in the plaint is not real, for the purpose of obtaining leave to appeal to Privy Council. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 809 (810).

[29] Claim for damages valued at Rs. 6000 and for mandatory injunction at Rs. 100 — Contract relations between parties affecting much larger amount — Value of subject-matter of suit exceeded the claim and applicant held could show that value exceeded Rs. 10,000 — Leave held should also be granted under S. 109 (c). (Vol 31) 1944 Sind 190 (192) : I L R (1944) Kar 163.

[30] Plaintiff valuing suit at Rs. 9000 — Defendant's plea that its value is more negatively by Court which found the value was only Rs. 9000 — In view of that

[3] Chief Court of Oudh is High Court within meaning of S. 109 (b), though not under S. 111. (Vol 19) 1932 Oudh 163 (163, 164).

[4] The provisions of this section do not apply to Courts constituted under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, or under the Berar Small Cause Courts Law, 1905; see section 7 (b). As to the meaning of 'decree or order', see section 109.

Section 111A—Note 1.

[1] Section 111A has been omitted by the Federal Court Act, 1941 (21[XXI] of 1941). Act 21 [XXI] of 1941 came into force on 1st September 1942. The omitted S. 111A ran as follows:—

“Where a certificate has been given under S. 205 (1) of the Government of India Act, 1935, the three last preceding sections shall apply in relation to appeals to His Majesty in Council, and accordingly references to His Majesty shall be construed as references to the Federal Court:

Provided that—

(a) so much of the said sections as delimits the cases in which an appeal will lie without the leave of the Federal Court otherwise than on the ground that a substantial question of law as to the interpretation of the said Act, or any Order in Council made thereunder, has been wrongly decided;

(b) in determining under clause (c) of S. 109 whether the case is a fit one for appeal, and, under S. 110, whether the appeal involves a substantial question of law, any question of law as to the interpretation of the said Act, or any Order in Council made thereunder, shall be left out of account.”

The object of repealing S. 111A was to empower the Federal Court itself to make rules for regulating the presentation of appeals lying to that Court. Such Rules have been made; see the Federal Court Rules, 1942.

[2] The following cases were decided under S. 111A before its repeal:

Object of Section 111A is to bring Civil P. C. into line with S. 205, Government of India Act—Provisos to S. 111A make it clear that nothing in the Code shall be read as affecting right given to party to appeal to Federal Court under sub-s. (1) of S. 205 when High Court has passed final judgment, decree or order and has certified that a substantial question of law as to interpretation of Government of India Act is involved. [5] Special leave will be refused where the refusal of the High Court to grant leave is not shown to be wrong. (1891) 15 Bom 155 (158): 18 Ind App 6 (P C).

[6] Special leave to appeal to the Privy Council was granted to decide the question whether, zillah Judge, under the Indian Registration Act, 1872, could review his own order refusing to register a document. (1873-74) 1 Ind App 72 (74, 75) (P C).

[7] Notwithstanding the proviso to R. 7 of O. 45 Privy Council Rules (1920), R. 9 prevails under S. 112 and the High Court has jurisdiction not only to extend the time for making the deposit and for furnishing the security but also to change the form of the security in a fit case for good cause (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 278 (280). PART VIII.

REFERENCE, REVIEW AND REVISION

113. Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed, any Court may state a Reference to High Court. case and refer the same for the opinion of the High Court, and the High Court may make such order thereon as it thinks fit.

[1882—S. 617; 1877—S. 617; 1861—S. 28; See O. 46.]

Review. 114. Subject as aforesaid, any person considering himself aggrieved —

- (a) by a decree or order from which an appeal is allowed by this Code, but from which no appeal has been preferred,
- (b) by a decree or order from which no appeal is allowed by this Code, or
- (c) by a decision on a reference from a Court of Small Causes, may apply for a review of judgment to the Court which passed the decree or made the order, and the Court may make such order thereon as it thinks fit.

115. The High Court may call for the record¹⁵ of any case which has been decided⁴ by any Revision. Court subordinate²⁸ to such High Court and in which no appeal lies thereto,¹² and if such Subordinate Court appears—

- (a) to have exercised a jurisdiction not vested in it by law,⁹ or
 - (b) to have failed to exercise a jurisdiction so vested,¹⁰ or
 - (c) to have acted in the exercise of its jurisdiction illegally or with material irregularity,
- the High Court may make such order in the case as it thinks fit.¹⁶

Section 115 (contd.)

[2] Appeal cannot be converted into revision long after the expiry of limitation for a revision. (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 65 (65).

[3] No second appeal lies for setting aside a sale which has been confirmed — Nor can such appeal be treated as revision though lower Court wrongly holds that time for confirmation cannot be extended without consent of parties. (Vol 23) 1936 Oudh 172 (172).

[4] It would not be proper to utilize the power of the Court in revision in order to entertain an appeal when an appeal is expressly prohibited by Civil Procedure Code or where the appeal has long been barred by limitation. (Vol 22) 1935 Pat 177 (178).

[5] Section 115 is only intended to relate to questions of jurisdiction and not to questions of law or construction of document or a wrong decision by a Judge. These are not matters affecting jurisdiction and cannot constitute sufficient grounds for treating an appeal as an application in revision, when an appeal is expressly prohibited by law. Section 115 is intended only to supplement the Code in relation to matters on which the Code is silent, and not provide the parties with a right of second appeal. (Vol 26) 1939 Sind 360 (360) : I L R (1939) Kar 342 (344).

2. Applicability and scope.—[1] The provisions of this section do not apply to Courts constituted under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, or under the Berar Small Cause Courts Law, 1905; see section 7 (b).

[3] The High Court cannot interfere on the ground of expediency. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 432 (433) * (1912) 34 All 393 (395) * (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 604 (606) : 59 Cal 68 * (Vol 6) 1919 All 328 (329) * (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 484 (435). (This principle is all the more applicable in cases of revision from an order making an award a rule of Court.)

[4] The fact that a case is a very hard one does not permit the High Court to interfere where it has no power so to do. (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 87 (88) : 18 Pat 210.

[6] Requirements of S. 115 not fulfilled — High Court cannot interfere merely on ground that hardship would be caused to applicant and that he would have no other remedy. (Vol 23) 1936 Oudh 22 (24) : 11 Luck 529 (FB).

[7] In doubtful cases, Court should err on side of entertaining revision rather than refusing to do so. (Vol 22) 1935 All 353 (358) : 57 All 459.

[10] The powers under this section should be used with a view to subvert and not to defeat the ends of justice. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 89 (89, 90).

[11] Where substantial justice has been rendered by the lower Court, the High Court will not interfere in revision though the reasons for the order under revision are not correct. (Vol 20) 1933 All 154 (155) * (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 644 (645). (Trial Court having no jurisdiction to try suit — High Court is not bound to interfere in revision if decree of trial Court is correct.) * (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 190 (191) * (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 574 (575).

[13] The revisional Court can look into evidence for seeing whether the lower Court has assumed or failed to exercise jurisdiction or has acted with material irregularity. 3. Application in revision treated as appeal.—

[1] Where an application for revision is filed in a case in which an appeal lies, the Court may treat the petition as an appeal, if it is filed within the time prescribed for filing the appeal. [5] An application for revision to the High Court cannot be returned for presentation as an appeal to another Court. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 657 (658).

4. "Case which has been decided." — [1] The word 'case' has a wider meaning than the words 'suit' or 'appeal'. (Vol 8) 1921 All 1 (2) : 43 All 564 (FB) * (Vol 2) 1915 Bom 269 (271) : 40 Bom 86* (Vol 23) 1936 Sind 205 (205) * (Vol 33) 1946 Nag 5 (7, 8) : I L R (1945) Nag 684.

[2] The word 'case,' is nowhere defined ; but the word should be understood in its broadest and most ordinary sense, unless there were specific reasons for narrowing its meaning. (1885) 7 All 661 (665) (FB).

[3] The word "case" cannot be confined to a litigation in which there is a plaintiff who seeks to obtain particular relief in damages or otherwise against a defendant who is before the Court. It must include an ex parte application praying that persons in the position of trustees or officials should perform their trust or discharge their official duties. [3] The Judicial Commissioner's Court should not hear a revision application against an order in an appeal from a decree, on which the proper court-fee, arising from the decree of the trial Court has not been paid by the applicant. (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 76 (77) : I L R (1942) Kar 61.

[5] Where the decision on a question of court-fee also bears upon the valuation of the suit for purposes of jurisdiction, and the suit may have to be filed in a higher Court if the court-fee question should be decided in a different way, the High Court is justified in interfering in revision, although the point has been decided in plaintiff's favour. (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 411 (411).

6. Error of law or fact.—[1] If a particular jurisdiction originates in some special law or enactment, the High Court can always interfere in the sense that it can construe the law and in accordance with that construction compel the lower Court to exercise such jurisdiction or to refrain from exercising such jurisdiction if not warranted by law or the enactment in question. (Vol 22) 1935 Pat 385 (388) : 14 Pat 488.

[5] Where the Court has jurisdiction over a case, the fact that the conclusion or decision arrived at is erroneous in law or fact is not a ground for revision. [16] Where a particular question of law has been decided in one way by a High Court or by the Privy Council the failure of a subordinate Court to follow such precedent is an illegal or irregular exercise of jurisdiction, with which the High Court will interfere. [4] Suit entertained without permission under O. 1, R. 8 — Revision lies. (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 134 (134).

8. Exercise of jurisdiction illegally or with material irregularity. — [1] "The question then is, did the Judges of the lower Courts in this case, in the exercise of their jurisdiction, act illegally or with material irregularity. It appears that they had perfect jurisdiction to decide the question which was before them, and they did decide it. Whether they decided it rightly or wrongly, they had jurisdiction to decide the case; and even if they decided wrongly, they did not exercise their jurisdiction illegally or with material irregularity." There is a conflict of decisions as to the interpretation of cl. (c) and the above observations of the Privy Council relating thereto. (1885) 11 Cal 6 (8) : 11 Ind App 237 (PC).

[2] It is only when a Court decides a case perversely that it can be said to act illegally or with material irregularity in the exercise of its jurisdiction and that other errors on questions of law or procedure are outside this clause (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 1223 (1233) : 39 Mad 195 (FB) * (1894) 17 Mad 410 (414, 415) (FB).

[4] Though a Court may have jurisdiction to make an order, if the effect of the order is finally to shut out a trial when it ought never to have been so shut out, then such an error must be regarded as a material irregularity although it may not be palpable or gross. An erroneous order of an Appellate Court demanding additional court-fee is an order affected with material irregularity although the error may not be palpable or gross. (Vol 25) 1938 Nag 122 (126) : I L R (1938) Nag 197 (FB) (Overruling (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 107 : 29 Nag L R 125 (FB))

[6] Where the Court exercises its jurisdiction in the manner prescribed but arrives at a conclusion or decision which is erroneous in law or fact, it does not act illegally or with material irregularity but decides erroneously in the proper exercise of jurisdiction. (Vol 30) 1943 Oudh 192 (196) * (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 244 (246) * (Vol 27) 1940 Nag 386 (390) : I L R (1940) Nag 659 * (Vol 27) 1940 Rang 75 (77)(1886) 8 All 519(521, 534)(Vol 21) 1934 All 4 (6) : 55 All 825 *(Vol 24) 1937 Pat 639 (640) *(Vol 26) 1939 Pat 564 (565) *(Vol 26) 1939 Oudh 129 (131) : 14 Luck 442 * (Vol 23) 1936 All 449 (450)(Vol 25) 1928 Lah 357 (358)(Vol 26) 1939 Lah 162 (163) * (Vol 23) 1936 Nag 157 (159) : I L R (1936) Nag 73*(Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 108 (111) * (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 733 (733, 734)*(Vol 23) 1936 Sind 205 (206).

[7] There is nothing in the language of the section, to limit the meaning of the words in Cl. (c) to perverse decisions only. (1904) 2 Low Bur Rul 333 (339, 340).

[8] Where the Court is perverse, i. e., where it wilfully or consciously disregards the provisions of law, it is certainly acting illegally in exercise of its jurisdiction. 11. Interlocutory orders.—[1] There is a conflict of views as to whether an interlocutory application is a "case" and an interlocutory order "a case decided."

(a) It has been held by the Allahabad High Court that an interlocutory order is not "a case decided." (Vol 28) 1941 All 50 (51) : I L R (1941) All 132 * (Vol 8) 1921 All 1 (4, 5) : 48 All 504 (F B) * (Vol 21) 1934 All 620 (622) : 57 All 17 (F B).

(b) The decisions of the Bombay High Court are conflicting.

The following decisions hold that an interlocutory order is not a "case decided." (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 81 (83) * (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 232 (233).

[But see (Vol 31) 1944 Pesh 1 (2).]

imposed by law. (1885) 7 All 345 (350)* (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 388 (390, 391) : 41 Cal 323.

[2] "Jurisdiction" means jurisdiction of the Court and not the competence of the party to sue. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 783 (784).

[3] The section applies to jurisdiction alone, the irregular exercise or non-exercise of it or the illegal assumption of it. The section is not directed against the conclusions of law or fact in which the question of jurisdiction is not involved. (Vol 4) 1917 P O 71 (74) : 40 Mad 793 : 44 Ind App 261 (PC) * (Vol 30) 1943 Bom 42 (43) : I L R (1943) Bom 33. (Distinction between appellate and revisional jurisdiction pointed out.)

[4] Jurisdiction of arbitrators to proceed with arbitration challenged on ground of its subject-matter being subject of pending suit—Question of jurisdiction is involved. (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 41 (41, 42) : I L R (1941) Kar 570.

[5] Judge failing to distinguish conditions in England and India—Instead of considering particular case considered another decision—No question of jurisdiction arises. (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 57 (58) : I L R (1941) Kar 587.

14. Laches in making the application.—[1] There is no limitation for revision applications. (Vol 29) 1942 Pat 251 (254) : 21 Pat 197. (Usual practice of the Court is not to entertain applications presented beyond 90 days.)* (Vol 20) 1933 Pesh 51 (52).

[2] No special period is prescribed for an application for revision and therefore if any article is applicable it is Art. 181, Limitation Act which prescribes a three years' period from the time when the right to apply accrues. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 340 (341).

[3] According to the practice in the Rangoon High Court, revision application may be filed at any time within 90 days of the order. (Vol 27) 1940 Rang 91 (93) : 1940 Rang L R 237.

[4] The period of 90 days provided by the Rules of the Sind Court in case of a revision application is subject to the High Court's discretion. (Vol 23) 1936 Sind 172 (173) : 30 Sind L R 271.

[5] High Court will not interfere where there has been unexplained delay or laches. [6] Ordinarily if an application is filed beyond the period of limitation prescribed for an appeal it ought to be considered to have been unduly delayed. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 392 (393).

[7] Interference in revision being discretionary the practice of Oudh Chief Court is to demand an explanation in case the application is made more than ninety days after the passing of the order. (Vol 23) 1936 Oudh 185 (187) : 12 Luck 52.

[8] Delay—No fault of applicant—Delay excused and revision allowed. (1884) 6 All 125 (126) * (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 528 (530) : 51 Mad 672.

[9] If the applicant was not a party to any of the orders which he seeks to revise and they were all passed behind his back and without notice to him, the delay on the part of the applicant should be condoned. (Vol 23) 1936 Oudh 185 (187) : 12 Luck 52.

[10] Delay excused in view of special circumstances. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 757 (758) * (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 290 (291) * (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 63 (64) * (1869) 11 Suth W R 56 (57).

[18] Where an application for restoration of an application under O. 21, R. 90, not limited to O. 9, is dismissed on the ground that it is not entertainable, without being considered on merits, there is a failure to exercise jurisdiction. (Vol 18) 1931 All 594 (595).

[19] Where the trial Court wrongly entertains a time-barred application under O. 21, R. 90 and sets aside the sale but the decision is reversed on appeal which is incompetent under S. 173, Bengal Tenancy Act, the High Court will not interfere in revision. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 425 (426).

20. Orders under Section 73.—[1] The High Court will not generally interfere with a wrong order of rateable distribution. (Vol 27) 1940 Nag 302 (303); I L R (1942) Nag 139; (Vol 31) 1944 Nag 295 (298); I L R (1944) Nag 806; (Vol 23) 1936 Oudh 132 (133); 12 Luck 19; (Vol 23) 1936 Oudh 185 (187); 12 Luck 52; (Vol 23) 1936 Pesh 52 (53); (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 399 (400); (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 229 (231); 27 Sind L R 261; (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 329 (330); 27 Sind L R 190; (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 96 (97); (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 1030 (1030); (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 547 (548); (1912) 1912 Pun L R No 176, p. 563 (565).

[2] If a Court refuses to amend a decree in conformity with the judgment it amounts to a refusal to exercise jurisdiction. (1886) 8 All 519 (532); (Vol 5) 1918 All 208 (209); (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 621 (622); (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 664 (664); (Vol 18) 1931 Oudh 422 (424); (Vol 2) 1915 All 1 (1). (But not when the refusal arose from a mistake of law or fact.)

[3] Court varying or amending a decree in conformity with the judgment—Revision lies. (1893) 15 All 121 (122); (Vol 21) 1934 All 100 (101); (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 387 (387); (1928) 108 Ind Cas 737 (738) (Lah.).

[4] A refusal to correct clerical or arithmetical errors amounts to a failure to exercise jurisdiction. (Vol 2) 1915 All 188 (189); 37 All 313; (1900) 27 Cal 5 (7); (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 420 (421); (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 400 (401); (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 421 (421); (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 143 (143); (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 373 (373); (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 104 (105); (Vol 22) 1935 Oudh 461 (462); 11 Luck 413; (Vol 23) 1936 Pesh 196 (197); (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 894 (894); (Vol 25) 1938 All 466 (467) (FB). (In the peculiar circumstances of this case, the High Court considered it inexpedient to interfere with the order of the lower Court refusing to amend the decree.) (Vol 2) 1915 Lah 218 (214).

[5] On an application for revision against an order refusing to amend a decree, the High Court cannot direct amendment unless one of the reasons specified in the Code as justifying amendment is established. (1913) 17 Ind Cas 418 (419); 1913 Pun Re No. 47.

[6] The appellate Court alone can amend a decree, after it has been affirmed or varied in appeal. The original Court cannot grant an amendment in such a case. (1910) 32 All 295 (300); 37 Ind App 70 (P C).

22. Orders under Order 33.—[1] There is divergence of opinions on the question whether applications in forma pauperis are open to revision:

I. Allahabad view—

(a) Such applications are not "case decided." (1892) 1882 All W N 39 (39); (1885) 7 All 661 (664) (FB).

(b) If the application is rejected there is a "case decided" but if it is allowed there is no "case decided." (1910) 32 All 623 (624); (Vol 29) 1942 All 319 (319); I L R (1942) All 859; (Vol 29) 1942 All 347 (349); (Vol 18) 1931 All 659 (660).

(c) Even orders rejecting the applications cannot be revised. (Vol 9) 1922 All 1 (1); 44 All 248; (Vol 13) 1926 All 446 (446); 48 All 493; (Vol 9) 1922 All 208 (208).

(d) If a Court enters upon the question of title of the pauper for maintaining the suit revision lies. (Vol 10) 1923 All 577 (578); 45 All 548; (Vol 12) 1925 All 275 (276).

(e) Where the plaintiff is out of Court and the matter is at an end, revision lies. (Vol 17) 1930 All 758 (760); 52 All 927; (Vol 20) 1933 All 295 (296); 53 All 216.

(f) See also the following cases: (Vol 4) 1917 All 355 (355). (Where the lower Court acted within its jurisdiction in refusing an application for leave to sue in forma pauperis, the revision was held not to lie.) (Vol 4) 1917 All 186 (186). (Held that the lower Court had discretion to grant the application or not, and that it was not possible to say that the Court acted illegally and with material irregularity in granting the application.)

II. Lahore view—

(g) An order granting or refusing an application for leave to sue as pauper is a "case decided." (Vol 28) 1941 Lah 128 (131); I L R (1941) Lah 697. ((1912) Pun Re No. 87, overruled.) (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 642 (643).

III. Nagpur and Sind view—

(h) Revision lies only where the application is rejected. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 330 (333, 334); I L R (1942) Nag

[8] An order rejecting the application for failure to furnish security for costs is improper and will be set right in revision. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 960 (960)* (Vol 9) 1922 Lah 87 (88) : 3 Lah 30.

[9] Revision lies from an order disallowing a pauper, whose application is rejected, to pay the necessary court-fee. (Vol 5) 1918 All 194 (194) : 40 All 38 * (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 105 (108) * (1880) 5 Cal 807 (810) : 6 Cal L Rep 223 (227).

23. Orders under Order 45.—[1] This section is applicable to an order granting or refusing a certificate under O. 45. (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 930 (936).

24. Other remedy open.—[1] The High Court will not generally interfere in revision where another remedy is open. (Vol 29) 1942 Pat 251 (258):

[2] Matter still under investigation and not finally decided by lower Court — Revision undesirable. (1940) 187 Ind Cas 838 (839) (Pat).

[3] Dismissal of appeal for non-appearance — Since remedy is by way of application for restoration revision does not lie. (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 625 (625).

[4] Applicant must satisfy the Court that he has no other remedy open to him to set right what he alleges to have been done illegally, irregularly or without jurisdiction by a Subordinate Court. (Vol 23) 1936 Rang 12 (14).

[5] Principle that revision should not be allowed when other remedy is open should be applied before admission of revision application. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 262 (265).

[6] Where an appeal lies against a decision, High Court will not generally interfere in revision. (Vol 23)

1941 Mad 817 (819) : I L R (1942) Mad 60. (Application for final decree in suit for sale on mortgage dismissed — Dismissal being appealable no revision lies.)

[12] The High Courts have interfered in the following cases :—

(a) Where it is not clear whether another remedy is available to the applicant. (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 663 (664) * (Vol 8) 1924 Nag-9 10 * (Vol 8) 1921 Nag 17 (18) * (Vol 33) 1946 Mad 176 (178).

(b) Where the other remedy is barred. (Vol 11) 1921 Nag 298 (299).

(c) Where non interference will lead to multiplicity of proceedings and unnecessary expense and delay. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 614 (616) : I L R (1942) Mad 376 * (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 262 (265) * (1909) 32 Mad 334 (336) * (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 176 (177) * (Vol 20) 1933 Rang 259 (260) * (Vol 15) 1928 Rang 83 (84) : 5 Rang 742 * (Vol 5) 1918 All 405 (405) : 40 All 216 * (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 156 (157) : 53 Cal 913 * (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 425 (430) : 4 Pat L Jour 94 (FB) * (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 52 (53).

[13] The powers of High Court under S. 115 should, however, be liberally utilised where the applicant has no other remedy, though even in such cases the High Court may, in its discretion, refuse to interfere. Where the case does not fall under the terms of this section no revision will lie even though no other remedy may be open. See also Note 2. (Vol 8) 1921 Sind 80 (80) : 15 Sind L R 135 * (Vol 11) 1924 Sind 49 (51).

[15] Where the case does not fall under this section, no revision will lie even where no other remedy is open. (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 102 (106) : 19 Pat 321 (SB).

25. Review and appeal. — [1] By Clause 15 of the present Letters Patent no appeal lies from an order made in the exercise of revisional jurisdiction or of the powers of superintendence under S. 107, Government of India Act, 1915, by a High Court. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 217 (219) * (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 292 (293) : 10 Pat 428 * (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 169 (170) : 51 Mad 165 * (Vol 22) 1935 All 889 (891) * (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 103 (104).

[2] There can be no appeal or review or re-hearing of an application for revision dismissed for default. (1901) 1901 Pun Re No. 54, p. 172 (174) (FB) * (1881) 1881 Pun Re No. 75, p. 169 (170).

[3] Application for revision dismissed for default—A second application for revision may be preferred. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 550 (551) * (1901) 1901 Pun Re No. 54, p. 172 (175) (FB) * (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 685 (686).

[4] An application for review may be treated as one for revision. (1901) 1901 Pun Re No. 54, p. 172 (175) (FB).

26. Revision in cases of discretionary and final orders. — [1] Where the lower Court passes an order in the exercise of its discretion, the High Court will not interfere with it in revision. [2] Reasons for order not stated — High Court was not satisfied whether discretion was exercised judicially—Revision allowed. (Vol 29) 1942 Pat 451 (452).

[3] An improper or wrong exercise of discretion is no ground for interference. (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 690 (692) * (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 1112 (1113) * (1867) 7 Suth W R 519 (520) (F B) * (Vol 5) 1918 All 418 (419) : 40 All 612 * (1928) 111 Ind Cas 141 (142) (Nag) * (1893) 16 Mad 424 (428) * (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 811 (813) : 5 Rang 615 * (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 548 (550) : I L R (1938) Lah 269.

[5] Judge's order as to whether a ballot paper is valid or not held final and cannot be interfered with in revision. (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 793 (793).

[7] Order of District Judge as to validity of election — Rule providing that the order shall be final — Revisional powers will not be exercised unless the order is made without jurisdiction. (Vol 20) 1933 Rang 2 (3) : 10 Rang 517 (S B).

[8] The provision about the finality of the decision of the appellate Court contained in S. 5 (2), U. P. Agriculturists' Relief Act, cannot warrant the inference that the Legislature meant in any way to control or limit the revisional jurisdiction conferred on the High Court by S. 115, Civil P. C. (Vol 25) 1938 All 456 (459) : I L R (1938) All 702 (F B).

27. Revisional powers under other Acts. — [1] See the following provisions :—

- (1) Guardians and Wards Act, 1890, Section 47.
- (2) Punjab Courts Act (VI of 1918), Section 44.
- (3) Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, Section 25.
- (4) Provincial Insolvency Act (V of 1920), Section 75.

28. Subordinate Court. — [1] A person acting in an administrative capacity is not a "Court". (1892) 1882 All W N 143 (143). (An order refusing to discharge a surety.) * (1911) 13 Bom L R 118 (122) * (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 55 (57, 58) : 4 Lah 1. (Proceedings under S. 36 of the Legal Practitioners' Act.) * (Vol 19) 1932 Nag 50 (51) : 28 Nag L R 4. (Do.—But Court can interfere under general powers of superintendence).

[2] The Judge issuing or refusing to issue a notice under S. 167, Bengal Tenancy Act, at the instance of an applicant is not acting merely in a ministerial capacity. He acts as a Court. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 450 (451).

[3] All the orders of Courts under the Succession Act, the Probate and Administration Act, etc., relating to the administration of the assets of deceased persons are in a sense administrative but they are at the same time judicial orders. So also an order passed by a Court under S. 73, Civil P. C., though an administrative order is a judicial order and revision under S. 115 lies. (Vol 27) 1940 Oudh 237 (238) : 15 Luck 332.

[4] A Judge nominated to hear certain appeals by the Governor in his executive capacity is not a Court. (Vol 30) 1943 Cal 247 (249, 250) : ILR (1943) 2 Cal 272.

[5-6] Where special jurisdiction is conferred on an existing Court, it will attract all the incidents of its ordinary jurisdiction. (Vol 31) 1944 Cal 401 (405).

(b) District Judge or Additional District Judge, exercising his powers under S. 40A, Bengal Agricultural Debtors Act, acts as a Court and not as a persona designata. (Vol 30) 1943 Cal 470 (473) : I L R (1943) 2 Cal 462.

(c) The Chief Judge of Bombay Small Cause Court acting under S. 217, City of Bombay Municipal Act as a persona designata. (Vol 26) 1939 Bom 471 (472).

(d) Sub-Judge passing order in capacity of Election Commissioner — No revision lies. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 560 (560).

(e) Judge acting under S. 19, Bombay Local Boards Act, acts as persona designata. (Vol 21) 1934 Sind 110 (111).

(f) Chief Judge of the Rangoon Small Cause Court, when exercising the powers vested in him by S. 18, Rangoon Rent Act (1920), acts as persona designata. (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 1 (3) : 4 Rang 304 (F B) (Overruling (Vol 10) 1923 Rang 94 : 11 Low Bur Rul 387 (F B); also (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 367.)

(g) District Judge trying an election dispute is a persona designata. (Vol 16) 1929 Rang 352 (354).

(h) Judge of Civil Court acting as Commissioner under Workmen's Compensation Act is not a subordinate Court but persona designata. (Vol 24) 1937 Sind 6 (6) : 30 Sind L R 351.

(i) Tribunals constituted by and for purposes of new Act are special — Small Cause Judge passing orders under Ss. 16 and 17 of Karachi City Municipal Act (1938) does not act as Court but as persona designata. (Vol 26) 1939 Sind 165 (167) : I L R (1939) Kar 131. (City of Karachi Municipal Act, 1938, Ss. 16, 17.)

[8] Where a Judge or presiding officer of a Court, as distinguished from the Court itself, is performing any function as vested in him, such a Judge may be considered as a persona designata, and cannot be regarded as a Civil "Court subordinate" to the High Court, within the meaning of S. 115, Civil P. C. In considering whether the Judge acts as a Court or as a persona designata, the important point to be investigated is what is the source of his authority — The nature of the proceedings and the action taken therein may also be relevant and may be considered. (Vol 26) 1939 Bom 279 (281).

[10] Where it is provided that a matter is to be decided by a certain Court, the presiding officer of such Court will act as a Court but where a certain "Judge" is to decide a matter, the entire provisions of the statute will have to be looked into for the purpose of determining whether the judicial officer acts as a Court or as a persona designata. (Vol 30) 1943 Cal 247 (248).

[But see (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 708 (709). (Assumed.)]

[18] A Collector acting under S. 11 of the Land Acquisition Act is not a "Court." (1905) 32 Cal 605 (629) : 32 Ind App 93 (P C) (1910) 38 Cal 230 (241).

[19] The Collector acting under the powers given by S. 69 and Sch. III of this Code is not a "Court." (Vol 20) 1933 Bom 369 (370).

[20] A Revenue Officer when making a settlement of rent under Chapter II of the Madras Estates Land Act is not a Civil Court. Consequently, the Board of Revenue when directing the revision of his proceedings under S. 172 of that Act is also not a Civil Court. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 612 (639, 640) : 55 Mad 883 (FB).

[23] Lower Court impounding document under Stamp Act—S. 115 does not enable the High Court to call in question the action either of the Collector or the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority. (Vol 30) 1943 Nag 97 (98) : I L R (1943) Nag 520.

[24] Deputy Collector acting under S. 3 (5), Madras Estates Land Act, is not subordinate to High Court. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 742 (743).

[25] Order of Collector under S. 20A, Madras Estates Land Act—No revision. (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 901 (901).

[26] A District Magistrate when normally functioning as a Court exercises jurisdiction in criminal matters and not in civil matters—When therefore some new function is imposed upon him by some special Act, although he acts as a Court and not as an individual, that Court is not subject to the civil jurisdiction of the High Court within the contemplation of S. 115. (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 720 (725) : I L R (1938) 1 Cal 146.

[27] An order by the Deputy Collector acting under the Madras Estates Land Act under O. 21, R. 101, Civil P. C., is one revisable by the High Court, and not by the District Collector under S. 205 of the Madras Estates Land Act, and therefore an application to the District Collector for revision is incompetent. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 309 (310).

[28] It is open to the High Court to interfere in revision with an order of the Sub-Collector refusing to set aside a rent sale under S. 131 of the Madras Estates Land Act or with an order of the Collector under S. 205

[1] Code is generally applicable to High Court in the exercise of its ordinary original jurisdiction except where it is specifically excluded or unless the High Court itself has made rules superseding any particular provisions of the Code. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 385 (386).

[2] Section 117 applies the provisions of Civil Procedure Code to Chartered High Courts in the exercise of

118. Where any such High Court considers it necessary that a decree passed in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction should be executed before the amount of the costs incurred in the suit can be ascertained by taxation, the Court may order that the decree shall be executed forthwith, except as to so much thereof as relates to the costs; and, as to so much thereof as relates to the costs, that the decree may be executed as soon as the amount of the costs shall be ascertained by taxation.

119. Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to authorise any person on behalf of another to address the Court in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction, or to examine witnesses, except where the Court shall have in the exercise of the power conferred by its Charter authorised him so to do, or to interfere with the power of the High Court to make rules concerning advocates, vakils and attorneys.

Constitution of Rule Committees in certain Provinces.

123. (1) A Committee, to be called the Rule Committee, shall be constituted at ^a[the town which is the usual place of sitting of each of the High Courts and ^b[Chief Courts] ^c[* * *] referred to in section 122.]

(2) Each such Committee shall consist of the following persons, namely :—

- (a) three Judges of the High Court established at the town at which such Committee is constituted, one of whom at least has served as a District Judge or ^d[* * *] a Divisional Judge for three years,
- (b) a barrister practising in that Court,
- (c) an advocate (not being a barrister) or vakil or pleader enrolled in that Court,
- (d) a Judge of a Civil Court subordinate to the High Court, and
- (e) in the towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, an attorney.

(3) The members of each such Committee shall be appointed by the Chief Justice or Chief Judge, who shall also nominate one of their number to be president :

Provided that, if the Chief Justice or Chief Judge elects to be himself a member of a Committee, the number of other Judges appointed to be members shall be two, and the Chief Justice or Chief Judge shall be the President of the Committee.

(4) Each member of any such Committee shall hold office for such period as may be prescribed by the Chief Justice or Chief Judge in this behalf; and whenever any member retires, resigns, dies or ceases to reside in the province in which the Committee was constituted, or becomes incapable of acting as a member of the Committee, the said Chief Justice or Chief Judge may appoint another person to be a member in his stead.

(5) There shall be a Secretary to each such Committee, who shall be appointed by the Chief Justice or Chief Judge and shall receive such remuneration as may be provided in this behalf ^e[by the Provincial Government].

[a] Substituted by the Amending Act, 1916 (13 [XIII] of 1916), S. 2 and Schedule, for "each of the towns of Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, Lahore and Rangoon". [b] The words "Chief Courts" were substituted for "of the Chief Court" by the Sindh Courts (Supplementary) Act 1926 (34 [XXXIV] of 1926). This Act came into force on 15-4-1940, (see Sind Government Gazette Notification (Home Department Political) No. 1499 H-39 dated 28th March 1940). [c] The words "and of the Chief Court" were repealed by Act 11 [XI] of 1923. Words "of the Chief Court" had been previously substituted for "Chief Courts" by Act 18 [XVIII] of 1919. [d] Brackets and words "(in Burma)" were substituted for "(in the Punjab or Burma)" by Act (18 [XVIII] of 1919), S. 2 and Sch. I, and were subsequently repealed by Act (11 [XI] of 1923), S. 3 and Sch. II. [e] Substituted by A. O. for "by the Governor-General in Council or by the Local Government, as the case may be".

124. Every Rule Committee shall make a report to the High Court established at the town Committee to report at which it is constituted on any proposal to annul, alter or add to the rules to High Court. in the First Schedule or to make new rules, and before making any rules under section 122 the High Court shall take such report into consideration.

[2] The rules made by the High Court under S. 652 (S. 122 of the present Code) have the force of law and if they are ignored by the Courts, the High Court can interfere in revision. (1909) 6 All L Jour 45 (48).

[3] Under S. 122 the High Court can only regulate the procedure of the subordinate Courts, and cannot take away their jurisdiction. (Vol 18) 1931 All 756 (757): 53 All 959.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Exemption of certain women from personal appearance.

132. (1) Women who, according to the customs and manners of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear in public shall be exempt from personal appearance in Court.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to exempt such women from arrest in execution of civil process in any case in which the arrest of women is not prohibited by this Code.

133. (1) The ^a[Provincial Government] may, by ^bnotification in the ^c[Official Gazette], exempt from personal appearance in Court any person whose rank, in the opinion of such Government, entitles him to the privilege of exemption.

(2) The names and residences of the persons so exempted shall, from time to time, be forwarded to the High Court by the ^a[Provincial Government] and a list of such persons shall be kept in such Court, and a list of such persons as reside within the local limits of the jurisdiction of each Court subordinate to the High Court shall be kept in such subordinate Court.

(3) Where any person so exempted claims the privilege of such exemption, and it is consequently necessary to examine him by commission, he shall pay the costs of that commission, unless the party requiring his evidence pays such costs.

SECTION 135—SYNOPSIS.

1. Applicability and scope.
2. Going to, attending and returning from tribunal.
3. Arrest of person while in custody.
4. Tribunal, meaning of.
5. Parties.
6. Civil process.
7. Remedies for illegal arrest.

(2) Where any matter is pending before a tribunal having jurisdiction therein, or believing in good faith that it has such jurisdiction, the parties thereto, their pleaders, mukhtars, revenue-agents and recognized agents, and their witnesses acting in obedience to a summons, shall be exempt from arrest under civil process other than process issued by such tribunal for contempt of Court while going to or attending such tribunal for the purpose of such matter, and while returning from such tribunal.

(3) Nothing in sub-section (2) shall enable a judgment-debtor to claim exemption from arrest under an order for immediate execution or where such judgment-debtor attends to show cause why he should not be committed to prison in execution of a decree.

1. Applicability and scope.—[1] The immunity from arrest is not for the benefit of the individual but for the furtherance of public interest and better administration of justice. (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 426 (426); 5 Luck 302 (F B) (1875) 14 Beng L R (App) 13 (14).

[2] The privilege rests on a principle that freedom from the fear of arrest encourages willing attendance and thus tends to the advancement of justice. (1869) 4 Mad H C R 145 (146).

[3] In order to obtain exemption from arrest for a party, it must be shown, firstly, that the party's attendance before Court was bona fide in relation to the matter pending before it; secondly that the said Court had jurisdiction over the matter pending before it or the party believed in good faith that it had jurisdiction; and thirdly, that he should be exempt from arrest during such period as is reasonably required in going to the tribunal from his ordinary place of residence, in attending that tribunal, and in returning from it to the ordinary place of residence. (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 175 (178): 55 Bom 612.

[4] Arrest under writ from a Small Cause Court—Though this section does not apply, English law, which is approximately the same in this respect, followed. (1880) 5 Cal 106 (110).

2. Going to, attending and returning from tribunal.—[1] A defendant who appears in Court to defend his suit is exempt from arrest under S. 135. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 355 (356): 43 Mad 272.

[2] Exemption can be claimed during such period as is reasonably required in going to the tribunal from his ordinary place of residence, in attending that tribunal, and in returning from it to the place from whence he came. (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 175 (178): 55 Bom 612 (Vol 11) 1924 All 676 (677): 46 All 663 (A few yards out of the way is immaterial deviation.) (Vol 22) 1935 Nag 216 (216) (Vol 22) 1935 Pat 6 (8): 14 Pat 242. (Person having temporary lodgings—Protection extends only from his temporary lodging to Court.)

[3] No party or witness can claim to return by any route he likes. (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 175 (178): 55 Bom 612.

[4] No hard and fast rule can be laid down as to the duration or extent of the privilege. It is a question of fact to be determined in each case. (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 175 (178): 55 Bom 612.

[5] Place of residence may be within or outside the jurisdiction of the Court before which the matter is pending. (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 175 (178): 55 Bom 612.

[6] The exemption is forfeited if there is an unnecessary or excessive deviation in going to or in returning from Court. [8] Decree-holder applying for execution by arrest of judgment-debtor—Judgment-debtor bolting away, but on assurance of Court that he would be exempt from arrest while appearing on fixed date before Receiver for giving accounts, he coming home and then arrested two days before date fixed for appearing—S. 135 (2) held did not apply. (Vol 25) 1938 All 356 (357, 358).

3. Arrest of person while in custody.—[1] A judgment-debtor present in Court at the time of execution of a second decree can be arrested in execution of the second decree though he was already arrested in execution of a first decree. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 900 (901).

4. Tribunal, meaning of.—[1] Word "tribunal" in S. 135 (2) is used to cover tribunal both of British India as well as of Native State. (Vol 22) 1935 Nag 216 (216).

[3] A defendant in suit in the High Court while attending before an arbitrator appointed by the High Court is exempt from arrest. (1880) 5 Cal L Rep 170 (171).

SECTION 141—SYNOPSIS.

1. Proceedings to which section applies.
2. Restitution proceedings.
3. "Procedure provided in this Code."
4. "In regard to suits."
5. "As far as it can be made applicable."
6. "Court of civil jurisdiction."

1. Proceedings to which section applies. — [1] Words "all proceedings in any Court of civil jurisdiction" include all proceedings relating to original matters in the nature of suits. (Vol 30) 1943 Cal 19 (20); I L R (1942) 2 Cal 194 & (1887) 9 All 36 (41) & (Vol 8) 1921 Bom 463 (463). (Such as proceedings in probate, guardianship and so forth but does not include proceedings in execution.) & (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 201 (202); 1941 Rang L R 246. (Original matters mean matters which originate in themselves and not those which spring up from a suit.)

[See also (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 308 (308, 309). (Minor party to award involved in proceedings pending in other Court—Subject-matter of proceedings not covered by award—S. 141 or O. 32, R. 7 held did not apply—Award held valid without permission of such other Court.)

[3] Section 141 does not apply to execution proceedings. (Vol 20) 1933 All 783 (784); 55 All 891 (FB). (Order 9 cannot be made applicable to such proceedings with the aid of S. 141.) & (Vol 28) 1936 All 378 (380); 58 All 797. (Objection under O. 21, R. 58 cannot be held to be an original matter.) & (Vol 24) 1937 Bom 111 (112); I L R (1937) Bom 144. (Reference to arbitration.) & (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 773 (777); 53 Cal 679 & (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 812 (818); 52 Cal 559 & (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 510 (510). (Dissenting from (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 613; (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 221 and (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 50; 45 Cal 950.) & (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 223 (223). (Court however has inherent power under S. 151 to restore application in execution dismissed for default.) & (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 961 (968) & (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 109 (109) & (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 576 (579). (Provisions of O. 26, R. 4.) & (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 757 (761, 762); 52 Mad 899 (FB). (Proceedings under O. 21, R. 97.) & (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 18 (19). (Order 9, R. 9 does not apply to execution proceedings.) & (Vol 9) 1922 Nag 267 (269); 18 Nag L R 152 & (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 346 (347). (Application to set aside sale under

[4] It has been held in the following case that O. 9, R. 9 applies to application under O. 21, R. 100 as it is not execution proceeding. (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 239 (241); 2 Pat 372.

[5] The following case holds that O. 9, R. 9 applies to an order dismissing for default an application under O. 21, R. 90. (Vol 7) 1920 Oudh 177 (178); 23 Oudh Cas 349. (Following (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 613 which is dissented from in later cases.)

[6] Order 9 applies to applications under O. 9 itself by virtue of S. 141. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 325 (326).

[7] When an application to have a suit, decided ex parte, restored to file has been dismissed for default, an application to set aside that dismissal lies under O. 9, R. 9 read with S. 141. (Vol 10) 1923 Oudh 146 (146).

[8] Suit dismissed in default—Application for restoration also dismissed for default—Application for restoration of application is maintainable. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 304 (304); 1 Lah 339 & (Vol 12) 1925 All 773 (774); 47 All 878 & (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 71 (71) & (1911) 7 Nag L R 32 (32, 33).

[9] Where an application under O. 9, R. 4 is itself dismissed for default, a fresh application to restore such application is maintainable. (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 155 (156).

[10] The following have been held to be the original matters contemplated by the section:

(b) Proceedings for the grant of probate or letters of administration. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 863 (864) & (1894) 18 Bom 237 (238). (Application to obtain probate in forma pauperis.) & (Vol 30) 1943 Cal 19 (20); I L R (1942) 2 Cal 194. (Application for letters of administration.) & (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 712 (713) & (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 486 (488) & (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 811 (812); 38 Mad 199.

(c) Proceedings under the Companies Act. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 51 (53); 1 Lah 187. (Ex parte orders—O. 9, R. 13 applies.) & (Vol 23) 1936 All 826 (829); 58 All 742 (F B). (Proceedings under S. 187.) & (1887) 9 All 180 (182) (SB). (Section 24, Civil P. C., applies to cases of winding up of companies.) & (Vol 15) 1923 Lah 376 (377) & (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 62 (63). (Power to review.)

(e) Reference to Court under the Land Acquisition Act. (1886) 16 Cal 31 (32).

(f) Proceedings under Lunacy Act, (1912). (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 353 (355).

(g) Proceeding for the appointment of a common manager under the provisions of Bengal Tenancy Act. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 427 (427); 43 Cal 986.

Orders and notices to be in writing.

[1882—S. 94.]

142. All orders and notices served on or given to any person under the provisions of this Code shall be in writing.

(h) Application to a District Judge for sanction to lease wakf properties. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 327 (328).

(i) Proceedings under S. 78, Madras Hindu Religious Endowments Act. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 612 (614) : 59 Mad 36.

(j) Application to sue in forma pauperis. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 5 (6) * (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 256 (258) * (Vol 16) 1929 Sind 136 (136).

(k) Issue referred by Revenue Court to Civil Court under S. 271, Agra Tenancy Act, 1926. (Vol 21) 1934 All 86 (86) : 56 All 390.

2. Restitution proceedings. — [1] Section 141 does not apply to proceedings under S. 144 which are not original proceedings. (Vol 29) 1942 All 85 (88) : I L R (1941) All 807 * (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 396 (397, 398) : 3 Pat L Jour 367. (Order 2, R. 2 does not apply to restitution proceedings.)

3. "Procedure provided in this Code". — [1] Section is limited to matters of procedure — It cannot be availed of where substantive rights are involved. (Vol 29) 1942 Nag 8 (11) : I L R (1941) Nag 588 * (Vol 28) 1941 All 101 (105) : I L R (1941) All 193 (F B) * (Vol 15) 1928 Rang 137 (138) : 6 Rang 563.

[4] The section does not confer on a Court the power to make a reference under O. 46, R. 1 in a case not coming under that rule. (1913) 36 Mad 16 (17) * (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 391 (392). (Enquiry before Rent Controller is not a suit.)

[5] Rule in S. 86 relating to protection of Ruling Chief is not a rule of procedure. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 244 (246) : I L R (1940) 1 Cal 344.

[6] Sections 10 and 11, Civil P. C., are concerned with law of procedure. Mere use of the word 'suit' in

S. 10 does not restrict its applicability to suits alone. Sections can be extended to civil miscellaneous proceedings by virtue of S. 141. (Vol 9) 1922 Sind 6 (8) : 16 Sind L R 79.

4. "In regard to suits." — [1] "Suit" includes appeal. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 488 (488).

[2] Procedure prescribed by S. 98 is extended to miscellaneous proceedings of the nature of appeals by S. 141. (1879) 3 Bom 204 (206) (S B).

5. "As far as it can be made applicable." — [1] Section 141 does not apply to a matter where a clear procedure is laid down. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 105 (107) * (Vol 11) 1924 All 376 (378) : 46 All 372. (Section 141 does not apply to Succession Certificate Act except so far as Ss. 19 and 26 make it applicable.)

[2] Section does not make the whole of the procedure in regard to suits applicable to other proceedings but only as far as it can be made applicable. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 743 (745). (Probate proceedings — Every rule in O. 32 is not made applicable.) * (Vol 14) 1927 Sind 187 (189) : 22 Sind L R 206.

[3] Section does not apply to proceedings under S. 105, Bengal Tenancy Act, as the Act provides special procedure by S. 107 of that Act. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 104 (106) : 3 Pat 67.

[4] The Civil P. C. does not apply to proceedings under the Mamlatdar Courts Act, which provides summary procedure. (1912) 6 Sind L R 67 (70).

[5] Per Napier J. — Neither S. 141 nor R. 94, Civil Rules of Practice, applies to order under S. 10, Religious Endowments Act. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 268 (271, 272).

[6] Section 141 does not require that O. 2, R. 2 and S. 11, Expl. 4 should be applied to proceedings under S. 144. (Vol 22) 1935 All 195 (197).

[7] Surety bond by guardian and surety under Guardians and Wards Act — Proper course is to assign the bond and to enable assignee to sue on the bond and by issuing execution on the strength of S. 141, Civil P. C. (Vol 14) 1927 Sind 262 (262).

[8] Revisional jurisdiction is peculiar to High Court and there can be no question of returning a revision petition for presentation as an appeal or as a revision petition to any other Court in the Province. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 657 (658).

6. "Court of civil jurisdiction." — [1] Section is applicable only to proceedings of Court exercising civil jurisdiction. (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 115 (117) : 18 Cri L Jour 132 : 1 Pat L Jour 576.

[See also (1890) 12 All 129 (157) (F B). (Decision under S. 5, Court-fees Act — Taxing officer is not a Court — Section 141 (S. 647 old) does not apply.)]

[3] This section does not make applicable the provisions of Civil Procedure Code to proceedings under S. 195, Criminal P. C., which are of a criminal rather than of a civil nature. (1907) 30 Mad 311 (314).

1. Against whom restitution can be granted.—

[2] Party bound to restore possession — Legal representatives of that party are equally bound. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 678 (674).

[3] The judgment-debtor is entitled to restitution

from the assignee of the decree who has realised the decretal amount in execution even though the assignee was not brought on the record in appeal. (Vol 8) 1916 Mad 745 (746) : 38 Mad 36. (23 Mad 203, followed, 24 All 288, dissented.)

[5] Winning party is entitled to be restored to property free from all encumbrances — Restitution can be claimed not only against party but also against persons deriving title from him. (Vol 22) 1935 All 65 (66).

[6] Order for restitution cannot be granted against person receiving no benefit in favour of one losing nothing. (Vol 19) 1932 Rang 148 (150) : 10 Rang 480.

[7] Decree-holder purchaser in rent decree settling land with another lessee—On reversal of decree application for restitution made only against decree-holder, lessee not made party — No objection raised — Restitution with mesne profits held could be ordered against decree-holder. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 550 (551, 552).

[8] Allowances ordered by Court to be paid to parties out of suit property must be deemed to have been paid on condition of their being refunded by party ultimately proving unsuccessful. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 850 (863, 864).

[9] A co-plaintiff in whose favour a decree is not passed is not a decree-holder and restitution cannot be ordered against him. (Vol 4) 1917 All 117 (118).

[10] A suing B for possession — Receiver appointed — Profits pending suit deposited in Court—A claiming those profits — Trial Court refusing A's claim — A appealing — C, obtaining decree during pendency of A's appeal, attaching profits lying in Court in B's name — A's title established on appeal— A's claim for restitution against C is valid. (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 95 (96).

[11] Suit by A against B dismissed with costs—B assigning his decree for costs to C — D in execution of his decree against B attaching decree for costs—C and D dividing costs and taking each half and half—Decree in favour of B reversed—C and D though liable to restitution held not liable for interest. (Vol 27) 1940 Pesh 44 (47).

[12] Suit for ejectment—Suit decreed and possession obtained in execution — Decree finally reversed — Property leased in meantime to third person—Application under S. 144 — Possession can be recovered from lessee and mesne profits from ejector only. (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 590 (591).

[13] Decree in a suit for possession passed in favour of plaintiff against A and his usufructuary mortgagees—Decree reversed on appeal—A getting possession under reversing decree—Mortgagees claimed restitution against A—Remedy held misconceived. (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 634 (635).

2. Restitution against auction-purchaser. —

[2] Purchaser party to suit but getting no benefit under decree—Decree reversed on appeal — Sale should be set aside. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 78 (80, 81) : 48 Mad 767.

[3] The purchaser in court auction in execution of a decree is bound to restore possession to the judgment-debtor on the reversal of the decree in appeal. During the pendency of the appeal the purchaser is a representative of the plaintiffs for the purpose of transference of possession from the plaintiffs to the judgment-debtor. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 229 (230).

[4] Auction sale—Deposit of price by purchaser and subsequent discharge of incumbrance — Sale set aside — Judgment-debtor must refund deposit before claiming restoration of possession, but not money paid for incumbrance. (Vol 9) 1922 P C 269 (271) : 49 Ind App 351 : 2 Pat 10 (P C).

[5] Application to set aside sale under O. 21, R. 90, dismissed — Still application under S. 144 can be entertained. (Vol 18) 1931 All 655 (656).

[6] Decree-holder purchasing property sold in execution of his ex parte decree — Ex parte decree subsequently set aside—Sale stands cancelled and restitution can be claimed against the decree-holder auction-purchaser but not in case of stranger auction-purchaser or transferee from decree-holder. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 1074 (1076).

3. Surety.—[1] Section applies only to the parties or the representatives of the original parties and not to sureties. (Vol 6) 1919 P C 55 (58) : 42 All 158 : 46 Ind App 228 : 22 Oudh Cas 212 (P C) * (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 326 (327). (Decree fixing compensation to be paid on acquisition of land set aside by High Court — But amount paid during interval to nominee of decree-holder on his executing bond binding himself to repay it — No reference to interest made in bond — Government held not entitled to interest — Ss. 144, 145 and 146 held not to apply.) * (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 850 (852). (But they can be made parties to proceedings—Surety's liability can only be determined under S. 145.) * (Vol 25) 1938 Nag 101 (102) : I L R (1938) Nag 354.

[2] P's suit for possession of estate in hands of Court of Wards decreed—During pendency of appeal to High Court P put in possession on furnishing security to the extent of certain sum—Security bond executed by S for liability of plaintiff decree-holder by creating charge on certain properties and in the event of deficiency making him personally liable — Surety not bound to any individual—Decree reversed by High Court and P's suit dismissed — Application under Ss. 145 and 151 claiming mesne profits against P by enforcement of bond against S—S. 145 is not applicable—Hel'd remedy was by way of application under S. 144 to trial Court for assessment of mesne profits and under its inherent powers to enforce the security by making the surety as a proper party. (Vol 30) 1943 P C 189 (191, 192): I L R (1944) Kar P C 16 (P C).

4. Third persons. — [1] Section does not allow restitution to be made against a third party. (Vol 11) 1924 All 273 (273) * (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 29 (33) : 58 Cal 1070 * (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 169 (170) * (1913) 16 Oudh Cas 225 (230, 231).

[2] M obtained possession of certain property in execution of his decree against L — Decree set aside in appeal — L applying for possession of property and K resisting his claim—Proceeding should be treated under O. 21, R. 97, and not under S. 144. (Vol 17) 1930 All 415 (416).

5. Appeal. — [1] The determination of a question under S. 144 is a decree within the meaning of S. 2 (2) and as such is subject to appeal. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 318 (313) : I L R (1941) Nag 662 * (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 102 (103). (There is no distinction between a decree in suit and a decree in a proceeding under S. 144.) * (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 328 (329) : 38 Mad 1120. (Order for restitution is equal to decree.) * (1912) 1912 Mad W N 513 (513) * (Vol 19) 1932 Pat 317 (319) : 11 Pat 553. (Order passed on footing that case is governed by S. 144 is appealable.)

[2] Where the decree for restoration is resisted by a third person and the decree-holder applies under O. 21, R. 97, the mere fact that the application under O. 21, R. 97 is dismissed and is unappealable does not make the order of dismissal the less a refusal of the restitution under S. 144 and as such it is appealable. (Vol 21) 1934 Pat 109 (109) : 13 Pat 108.

[3] An order dismissing an application for restitution under S. 144 is not appealable as it is not a decree. (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 9 (11) : 1914 Pun Re No. 10.

[4] A rejection of a prayer for restitution under S. 144 on the ground of limitation amounts to determination of a question under S. 144 and the order dismissing the application is a decree and therefore appealable. (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 812 (812).

[5] Application under S. 144 — Objection as to limitation overruled by District Judge — Order held to be not decree within S. 2 (2) and hence not appealable. (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 415 (416) : 1913 Pun Re No. 110.

[6] Application for restitution of property — Subsequent application for ascertainment of mesne profits — Order that latter application is not barred by limitation — No appeal lies from such order. (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 498 (499).

[7] Possession obtained in decree against wrong representative — Rightful representative who was never in possession recovered possession — Person ousted applied and obtained status quo — This order is not appealable. (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 398 (399).

[8] Application for mesne profits — Claim to set off not put in trial Court cannot be raised in appeal (Per Stodart J.). (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 850 (868).-

[9] Order passed that party entitled to mesne profits — Another order determining amount — Second order appealed against when appeal against first order time-barred — First order being appealable could not be attacked in appeal against second order. (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 24 (26).

[10] Application on original side of High Court for restitution in execution proceedings—Application made long after suit had been determined and right of parties fully settled by final judgment—It is not application made in suit—Order passed on it is not judgment and is not appealable. (Vol 25) 1938 Rang 446 (446, 447).

[11] Order of restitution under S. 151 is not decree and is not appealable (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 495 (497); 2 Pat L Jour 361; (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 152 (156); ILR (1937) 1 Cal 637. (Appeal may lie if order under S. 151 comes in substance under S. 47 or S. 144.) * (Vol 30) 1943 Nag 172 (174); I L R (1943) Nag 699. (Supratdar returning property to successful objector on orders of Court—Application by him against decree-holder for costs of custody and transport—Order on, is appealable under S. 144 read with S. 151.) * (Vol 26) 1939 Oudh 273 (275) * (Vol 25) 1938 Pat 447 (448, 449). (Third party claimant establishing title to property sold in execution—Order of Court directing decree-holder to restore purchase-money to auction-purchaser comes not under S. 144 but under S. 151 and is therefore not appealable.)

6. Applicability, scope and object.—[1] The doctrine of restitution is based on the principle that the Court will not permit an injustice to be done by reason of an erroneous order made by it when that erroneous order has been reversed and the Court will restore the parties to the position which they would otherwise have occupied. (Vol 16) 1929 Nag 138 (138) * (Vol 25) 1938 Cal 554 (557) * (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 188 (192).

[3] Object of S. 144 is to provide speedy and simple remedy for any party who has suffered by reason of erroneous decree made by a Court of first instance and it does not apply to a case where Court has to decide questions of conflicting rights under different decrees which may be very complicated. (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 814 (815); 57 Cal 226 * (1912) 16 Cal L Jour 135 (136, 137, 138). (Section 144 should be construed liberally.)

[4] "Restitution" implies restoration to a party of what has been lost to him in execution of a decree or directly in consequence of that decree. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 625 (626); 8 Lah 356 * (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 81 (82).

[7] Section 144 is not confined to restitution only but covers case of party who is entitled to any benefit by way of restitution or otherwise and empowers Court to do justice between parties. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 657 (658).

[8] The words 'or otherwise' are inserted to provide for cases where it is not possible to make restitution in the sense of restoring the very property which was lost to the petitioner, and when the Court proceeds to do the next best thing that it could do in the petitioner's behalf in the circumstances. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 81 (83).

[9] Right of party to have and duty of Court to give restitution do not rest on provisions of S. 144—Fiction of implied direction by final Court of appeal reversing decree cannot be introduced—Restitution though dependent upon final result of suit is in a sense independent of proceedings in suit—Order for restitution is in effect new decree and has to be enforced by execution. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 260 (263); I L R (1940) 1 Cal 486.

[11] Order 2, R. 2 does not govern restitution application (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 185 (186); 40 Mad 780.

[12] Restitution proceedings—Schedule II, does not apply. (Vol 29) 1942 All 85 (88); I L R (1941) All 807.

[14] Order under S. 145, Criminal P. C. lasts only until party in whose favour it is made is lawfully evicted—It does not bar restitution under Civil P. C. S. 144. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 29 (31); 58 Cal 1070.

[15] Section 144 of the new Civil Procedure Code does not apply to decrees passed before the Code came into force. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 1204 (1205).

[16] Dismissal of Mahant's claim petition under S. 5, Punjab Sikh Gurdwara's Act—No declaration that property belongs to Gurdwara—Jurisdiction of executing Court under S. 144 is not taken away. (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 798 (801).

[17] Succession certificate obtained by A on death of holder of Post Office cash certificates—Declaratory suit by B that A had no right to them and temporary injunction passed preventing A from cashing certificates—Dismissal of suit—Appeal filed and injunction applied for—Certificates cashed by A before notice of appeal was served—Appeal by B allowed—Application by B for restitution of money comes under S. 144 though it was not a case of actual restitution. (Vol 20) 1933 Pesh 76 (78).

7. Bar of suit.—[1] The right of restitution arising on account of the reversal of a decree on appeal can be enforced only in execution and not by a separate suit. (1912) 22 Mad L Jour 146 (148) * (Vol 9) 1922 All 71 (72); 44 All 283 * (1907) 29 All 343 (350). (Case under old Code.) * (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 713 (714).

[2] Ex parte decree set aside by Court passing it—Section 144 does not apply—Suit for restitution is maintainable. (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 299 (300); 1 Pat L Jour 43.

[3] Ejectment in execution of decree—Decree reversed—Restitution partially allowed—Suit to enforce complete restitution is not maintainable. (Vol 6) 1919 All 212 (213).

[4] A obtaining decree against judgment-debtor and attaching certain properties belonging to him—At auction sale A purchasing interest of judgment-debtor and paying price in Court—Amount rateably distributed among other creditors—Suit by judgment-debtor for declaration against A that sale was void dismissed but decreed in appeal—Application by A for restitution against creditors who had obtained rateable distribution held came neither under S. 144 nor S. 151—Suit held proper remedy. (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 108 (111); I L R (1945) Mad 482.

[5] Suit for damages for wrongful civil suit is not barred by section. (Vol 9) 1922 All 465 (466); 44 All 687.

[6] Suit for assertion of certain rights—Plaintiffs taking advantage of injunction granted and unlawfully taking possession of defendant's property—Proper remedy of defendant is not by way of restitution but by way of suit. (Vol 24) 1987 Mad 815 (816).

[7] Sale set aside under O. 21, R. 90.—Property restored under inherent powers—Decree not varied or reversed — Suit for recovery of mesne profits is maintainable. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 517 (517) : 58 Cal 465.

[8] Waste by mortgagee — Question is to be determined at the time of preparation of decree — Separate suit for the same does not lie. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 654 (656).

[9] Plaintiff's application under S. 144 claiming to be restored to possession and to be paid mesne profits after the defendant's suit for damages and cancellation of the lease was decreed by the Appellate Court granting only the damages—Plaintiff giving up his claim of possession in course of the proceedings — The claim for mesne profits also rejected—He, therefore, filed a fresh suit for mesne profits for period subsequent to expiry of lease on dispossession by the defendant (lessor)—Held, the suit was not maintainable. (Vol 14) 1927 Nag 373 (374).

8. Court of first instance. — [1] Decree varied or reversed — Right to restitution arises automatically and is claimable before trial Court — Trial Court and not Appellate Court should assess mesne profits. (Vol 30) 1943 P C 189 (190) : I L R (1944) Kar P C 16 (P C).

[2] The expression "Court of first instance" as used in S. 144, Civil P. C., is used in contradistinction to the expression "Court of appeal" and means the Court which passed the decree or if that Court has ceased to exist, the Court to which the proceedings are transferred in substitution for the Court which passed the decree. (Vol 24) 1937 All 515 (520) : I L R (1937) All 670.

[3] Decree by lower Court reversed by High Court—Court passing decree abolished and new Court established—Latter Court can order restitution. (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 103 (104).

[4] "Court of first instance" must be interpreted on principles laid down in S. 37 (b), Civil P. C. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 813 (814).

[5] Ejectment decree of Revenue Court reversed by District Judge and confirmed by High Court—Revenue Court is the Court of first instance. (Vol 9) 1922 All 71 (72) : 44 All 283.

[6] Only the Court which executes the decree has jurisdiction to restore property to the judgment-debtor. (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 502 (504).

[7] The Court to which a decree has been transferred for execution can exercise the same powers under S. 144 of the Code as the Court of first instance. (1913) 7 Sind L R 19 (20, 21).

[8] Application for restitution by person who is successful in appeal to Privy Council—Applicant should only approach Court of first instance and need not apply to High Court under O. 45, R. 15—O. 45, R. 15, applies only to applications for execution. (Vol 24) 1937 All 515 (523, 524) : I L R (1937) All 670.

[9] Sum of money in deposit in District Court in execution of decree — Plaintiff claimed it, and on being asked brought suit in Sub-divisional Court for declaration that he was entitled to it—Suit decreed in favour of another who withdrew it from District Court — On remand by Appellate Court suit decreed in favour of plaintiff—Plaintiff applying to District Court in execution proceedings for refund of that money — He is entitled to the refund—"Court of first instance" is Court which does the act which turns out to be wrong. (Vol 18) 1931 Rang 21 (23).

[10] Decree passed by Court A—Purchase of judgment-debtor's property by decree-holder in execution at A—Sale set aside—Decree transferred to Court at B — Appeal against order setting aside sale allowed—Meanwhile decree executed in Court at B — Application by judgment-debtor for restitution in Court B — Proper Court to grant restitution was the Court at A and not B. (Vol 25) 1938 Cal 554 (556, 557).

9. Decree must have been varied or reversed.—

[2] A declaratory decree that a person is a mutwalli is incapable of execution and a mutwalli who is entitled to get property under a declaratory decree could not have his remedy under S. 144, Civil P. C. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 48 (49).

[3] It is not every variation of a decree by an Appellate Court that would entitle a judgment-debtor whose property has been sold in execution of the original decree to put forth a claim for restitution on the basis that the sale is invalid. The extent of variation must be considered in considering how the restitution should be made. (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 133 (134, 135).

[4] Section 144 applies only where a decree is varied or reversed and not where an order which is not a decree is varied or reversed. (Vol 27) 1940 Lah 59 (60, 61). (Order confirming sale is not decree.) * (Vol 22) 1935 All 126 (127) * (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 508 (508). (Sale set aside after confirmation — Application by judgment-debtor for mesne profits—Section 144 is inapplicable.) * (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 456 (456). (Order passed on appeal setting aside sale of judgment-debtor's property is a decree and S. 144 is wide enough to cover such order.) * (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 783 (783). (Variation of order in appeal under S. 75, Provincial Insolvency Act is not variation of decree within S. 144.) * (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 888 (888). (Decree against dead person is nullity — If money is paid under such decree Court should allow restitution under its inherent powers, S. 144 not being applicable.) * (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 99 (99, 100). (Order for rateable distribution is not a decree.) * (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 581 (581); 41 Mad 467. (Order refusing to set aside execution sale reversed in appeal—No restitution under S. 144 can be claimed.) * (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 495 (496) : 2 Pat L Jour 361. (Order setting aside execution sale is not decree.)

[6] Decree for Rs. 3626 made charge on cotton bales of judgment-debtor in possession of decree-holder—Value of bales not stated — In execution decree-holder giving credit to judgment-debtor by presenting application that Rs. 143 were realized by sale of bales—Judgment-debtor objecting to price—Issue framed and price of bales found to be Rs. 5512 — Meanwhile decree-holder recovering from judgment-debtor about Rs. 8151 — Judgment-debtor applying to executing Court for restitution of overpayments to decree-holder—Restitution held could be granted by liberally applying S. 144. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 96 (96, 97).

[7] Injunction by trial Court restraining defendant from interfering with plaintiff's possession — Defendant not restrained from bringing suit for possession — Injunction dissolved by Privy Council—Defendant held not entitled to claim restitution under S. 144 or S. 151. (Vol 32) 1945 PC 5 (7, 8); I LR (1945) Kar P C 43 (P C).

10. Effect of reversal of main decree on dependent decrees. — [1] In general upon the reversal of judgment, order or decree, all connected and dependent judgments or orders fall with it, specially judgments subsequently entered and dependent thereon: but not a distinct and independent judgment or proceeding though it is a part of the same litigation. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 188 (192).

[2] Mortgagee obtaining preliminary decree for foreclosure of mortgaged property — Mortgagee subsequently applying for amendment of plaint and preliminary decree on ground that mortgaged property having changed its form by reason of settlement proceedings, specification of property should be altered accordingly — Application allowed and preliminary decree amended — Judgment-debtor filing revision against the order and getting order of amendment set aside — Mortgagee in the meanwhile obtaining final decree and taking possession of property as specified in amendment — Application by judgment-debtor for restitution held maintainable. (Vol 25) 1938 All 364 (366): I L R (1938) All 494.

[4] When a preliminary decree for partition is set aside on appeal, the final decree which may have been passed pending the appeal from the preliminary decree becomes ineffective. A party from whom any money has been levied under the final decree so rendered inoperative, is entitled to restitution of the amount from the party who levied it on the basis of the final decree. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 457 (457, 458).

11. Ex parte decrees. — [1] Where an ex parte decree is set aside, the judgment-debtor is entitled to restoration of property which has passed out of his hands in execution of that ex parte decree. (Vol 7) 1920 Bom 12 (12): 44 Bom 702 * (Vol 6) 1919 Bom 175 (176): 43 Bom 235 * (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 150 (151). (In such cases there is no variation or reversal of the decree within S. 144 but restitution can be ordered under S. 151.)

[2] A sale held under an ex parte decree must be set aside when the decree itself is set aside. If a subsequent decree is passed against the defendant, original sale is not revived since there is no revival of the original decree. (1910) 14 Cal W N 182 (182, 183).

[3] Ex parte decree on mortgage — Mortgagee purchasing mortgaged property and put in possession — Decree set aside — On retrial decree passed in favour of mortgagee with reservation to apply profits taken by mortgagee under S. 144 — Mortgagee again purchasing property in execution — Mortgagee cannot challenge maintainability of application under S. 144. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 42 (43).

12. Modes of variation or reversal. — [1] Section 144 contains no restriction as to the manner in which a decree should be varied or reversed and none can be read into it except that it be in accordance with law. (Vol 6) 1919 Sind 79 (79): 13 Sind L R 153 * (Vol 6) 1919 Bom 1 (10): 43 Bom 433 and 492 (F B). (Reversal in second appeal.) * (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 488 (488): 7 Lah 232. (Decree reversed by Privy Council.) * (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 476 (477). (Restitution can be applied for even where a decree is reversed by a compromise decree of the Appellate Court.) * (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 70 (71). (Abatement set aside—Restitution can be had of the costs paid as per first Court's order of abatement).

[2] Section 144 contemplates variation or reversal of decree by superior Court in appeal, revision or review—Section does not apply where decree is varied or affected by decision of a Court in another suit. (Vol 24) 1937 All 232 (234) * (Vol 10) 1923 All 394 (395, 396): 45 All 369 * (Vol 24) 1937 Bom 173 (174, 175) * (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 42 (43, 44) * (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 14 (15) * (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 814 (814): 57 Cal 226 * (Vol 31) 1944 Lah 165 (167). (Decree reversed by separate suit—Section 144 does not apply.) * (Vol 26) 1939 Oudh 273 (274).

[5] Section 144 cannot apply where decree is varied or reversed by private compromise entered into by parties whether out of Court or in course of execution proceedings. (Vol 20) 1933 All 743 (744).

13. Extent of power to grant restitution. — [1] The restitution to be made is that which will, so far as may be, place the parties in the position which they would have occupied but for such decree or any part thereof as has been varied or reversed. The true criterion is to consider what would be the position had the Appellate Court's decree been passed by the Court of first instance. (Vol 33) 1946 Mad 258 (260). (If sale held in execution of trial Court's decree is one which would have been held even if the trial Court had decreed only the amount eventually found due in appeal there is no legal or equitable reason for setting aside sale or ordering restitution.) * (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 850 (871, 872) * (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 55 (57, 58). (Section 144 authorises restoration of parties only to their respective positions at the time of the wrong order and not to later positions taken up by them of their own accord, as a consequence of the wrong order.)

[3] Restitution should clear the account between parties and leave no claim on one side or the other. (Vol 18) 1931 Oudh 12 (12).

[4] Relief by way of restitution cannot be obtained unless prejudice results from erroneous original decree. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 303 (307): 59 Cal 647 * (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 96, 96, 97).

[5] In a proceeding in restitution under S. 144 the parties must be placed in the position they were previously in, irrespective of any rights accruing to any of the parties during the period of the litigation. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 814 (315).

[6] Suit for specific performance of contract of sale decreed—Execution delayed for four years owing to objections of other party—Application under S. 144 claiming compensation for loss of profits of property for four years—Claim held not properly consequential and not maintainable by application under S. 144. (Vol 26) 1939 All 66 (69): I L R (1939) All 103.

[7] Decree for specific performance—Property delivered not under specific direction of Court but on account of the decree—Decree set aside in appeal—All property moveable or immoveable obtained because of the decree should be directed to be returned. (Vol 30) 1943 All 202 (203, 204): I L R (1943) All 312.

[8] Sale of property not covered by proclamation set aside—Judgment-debtor can claim restitution only on payment to auction-purchaser of purchase money. (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 55 (57, 58).

[9] Person coming to appear as accused in criminal case is exempt from arrest—Money paid to secure release should be refunded. (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 426 (426): 5 Luck 302 (F B).

[10] Person in possession of property by virtue of execution of decree settling lands on permanent lease and receiving premium—Decree set aside—Rent which can be realized on yearly tenancy should be calculated and not rent fixed for assessing compensation or damages or mesne profits. (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 206 (208): 62 Cal 217.

[11] Wrongful attachment of judgment-debtor's properties—Objection dismissed—Judgment-debtor privately selling the properties and depositing money in Court to set aside auction sale—Loss caused by private sale cannot be claimed in restitution by judgment-debtor. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 353 (354).

[12] Pre-emption decree—Pre-emption money increased in appeal—Decree-holder's failure to deposit enhanced amount—He can withdraw original deposit. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 177 (178).

[13] Ultimate decree-holder can claim compensation only for loss caused by execution of lower Court's decree against him and not for any loss caused prior to such execution. (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 234 (234, 235).

[14] Execution stayed pending hearing of appeal by judgment-debtor upon giving security for mesne profits—Appeal eventually dismissed—Decree-holder is entitled to recover mesne profits in execution proceedings—Court has inherent power to order restitution—Decree-holder is entitled to be restored to position he would have occupied but for stay of execution. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 499 (499).

[15] Suit for pre-emption dismissed—Vendee recovering costs from pre-emptor's deposit—On appeal suit decreed—Deposit is to be treated as intact and only balance should be paid. (Vol 5) 1918 Lah 313 (313).

[16] Restitution proceedings started by judgment-debtor—Failure of surety of decree-holder to pay back certain amount—Final decree passed in favour of decree-holder—He must give credit to judgment-debtor for amount unrecovered from surety. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 911 (913).

[17] Possession obtained by pre-emptor on deposit of amount—Suit by vendees for possession on ground that deposit was not in time and dispossession of pre-emptor ordered by trial Court—Pre-emptor succeeding in appeal is entitled to be restored to possession under S. 144. (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 791 (792).

[18] Suit for possession decreed and mesne profits assessed by trial Court—Amount of Rs. 61,000 deposited by judgment-debtor in Court as sufficient to meet position and soon after taken out by decree-holder—On appeal, High Court increasing amount of mesne profits but Privy Council eventually reducing it to Rs. 75,000—Application by judgment-debtor for restitution, namely payment back to him of Rs. 61,000—S. 144 held did not apply as amount due from judgment-debtor was larger than sum which he had paid in—Amount of Rs. 61,000 taken into account in adjusting decree—No injustice held was done to judgment-debtor. (Vol 29) 1942 P C 30 (31): 69 Ind App 10: I L R (1942) Kar P C 14 (P C).

[19] Decree-holder auction-purchaser—Sale cannot stand if decree reversed or modified and judgment-debtor pays amount finally decreed. (Vol 16) 1929 Rang 157 (157, 158): 7 Rang 107.

[21] Execution application—Court rejecting objection of judgment-debtor that decree is barred by limitation and ordering payment of fund belonging to judgment-debtor to decree-holder—Decision on point of limitation reversed on appeal—Judgment-debtor is entitled to restitution. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 188 (191, 192).

[22] Execution sale—After sale decretal amount substantially reduced in second appeal—Judgment-debtor found not in position to avoid sale by paying in full even reduced decretal amount before date of sale or within thirty days thereafter—Sale proceeds less than reduced decretal amount—S. 144 does not apply—Sale cannot be set aside. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 130 (132).

[23] Nothing in S. 144 can affect decree in another suit in respect of same property between the same parties. (Vol 16) 1929 All 527 (528).

[24] Fact that payment to party's vakil was not certified to Court will not defeat application for restitution. (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 176 (176).

14. Interest. — [1] Where money is recovered in execution of a decree and the decree is subsequently reversed the judgment-debtor is entitled to get back not only the sum recovered but also interest for the period the amount was withheld from him. (Vol 23) 1935 P C 12 (13) (P C) * (Vol 8) 1921 All 241 (241) * (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 313 (315) * (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 188 (194) * (Vol 18) 1926 Lah 488 (488): 7 Lah 232. (Money lying in Court and none deriving benefit from it—No interest is payable.)

[4] A mortgagee decree-holder purchased the mortgaged properties in execution and obtained possession of the same. The purchase money was set off against the amount due under the decree, which contained no provision for future interest on the amount decreed. The sale was ultimately set aside for irregularity. Subsequently, the mortgagors paid the sum found due under the decree, and possession of the property was restored to them. Then the mortgagors applied in execution proceedings for mesne profits and interest thereon during the period of their dispossession. Held, that the claim of the mortgagors to have the question in dispute determined in the execution proceedings was justified by Ss. 144 and 47 and that the claim of the mortgagee to be allowed interest was absurd as the purchase money was not actually paid and as the sale was set aside only owing to his fault. (1909) 31 All 551 (555, 556) : 36 Ind App 197 (P C).

[5] Order for return of costs silent as to interest — No interest can be awarded in restitution under S. 144. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 260 (264) : I L R (1940) 1 Cal 486.

[6] Amount refunded under S. 144 — Executing Court has discretion to allow interest even if refund is occasioned by compromise which does not mention interest. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 604 (604).

[7] Decree varied — Restitution of money paid under original decree — Interest not provided in security bond — Interest can still be awarded. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 577 (578) : 53 Mad 708.

[9] Separate application for interest on money refunded under reversed decree is not barred. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 185 (185) : 40 Mad 780.

[10] Interest granted by trial Court up to date of its decree — Appeals to higher Courts — Trial Court's decree sustained finally — Claim for interest subsequent to original decree, by way of compensation for delay in realising decree money is not claim for restitution within S. 144. (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 275 (277).

15. Mesne profits.—[1] Section 144 makes distinction between restitution which is properly consequential on variation or reversal of decree and restitution which is not—On reversal of decree it cannot always be said that possession taken under original decree is wrongful. (Vol 27) 1940 Bom 30 (32).

[2] Where a decree is reversed the judgment-debtor will be entitled not only to possession of property taken from him in execution of the decree but also to mesne profits during the period he was kept out of possession. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 850 (861) * (1913) 19 Ind Cas 1 (1) (All) * (1910) 32 All 79 (84) * (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 550 (551, 552) * (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 692 (693). (Pre-emption decree by trial Court—Price deposited by plaintiff—Decree reversed by Chief Court and amount withdrawn by plaintiff—Appeal to Privy Council accepted and trial Court decree restored—Plaintiff is entitled to mesne profits under S. 144 for the period the amount was in deposit) * (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 486 (487) * (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 218 (220) * (1892) 15 Mad 203 (212). (Auction-purchaser who preferred an appeal to Privy Council was made to deliver possession on security by third persons for its re-delivery to him with mesne profits in the event of his being successful. In the meanwhile the property was put into custody of Receiver. The purchaser who succeeded in appeal was held entitled to mesne profits).

[3] Suit under O. 21, R. 103 for declaration and possession—decree—Application for mesne profits does not lie under S. 144. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 898 (900).

[5] The first Court passed a decree for redemption of a usufructuary mortgage and the mortgagor obtained possession in pursuance thereof. On appeal by the mortgagee the amount due to him was increased but the mortgagor not having paid the additional sum, the mortgagee obtained possession under orders of Court from the mortgagor. Held, that the first Court had jurisdiction to award mesne profits to the mortgagee during the time he was out of possession. If the mortgagee purchased the equity of redemption in execution of the decree for mesne profits the mortgagor would lose all right to redeem. (Vol 2) 1915 P C 92 (93) : 38 All 163 : 43 Ind App 43 (P C).

[6] In a suit for partition by A, a house given to B—A appealed regarding compensation which he was ordered to pay—High Court allotted to him the house given to B (by first Court)—In pursuance of this decree A obtained possession of house—10 years later, B applied for review and obtained decree for possession and under S. 144 applied for mesne profits—Held that S. 144 had no application—Applicant being grossly negligent should under S. 151 get mesne profits only from date of High Court's decree in review. (1906) 28 All 665 (667, 668, 669).

[7] Decree-holder purchasing property in suit at sale — Sale confirmed during pendency of appeal by judgment-debtor — Possession granted to decree-holder — Appeal compromised — Decree-holder agreeing to give possession on receipt of first instalment from judgment-debtor — Instalment paid but possession not transferred — Application by judgment-debtor for mesne profits from date of delivery of possession by way of restitution — Held that mesne profits could not be granted from date of delivery of possession. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 89 (92) : 56 Cal 550.

[8] Possession of receiver is possession of party ultimately declared successful — Plaintiff succeeding in Court of first instance in suit for possession — Receiver appointed during pendency of appeal by defendant to High Court — Appeal having been allowed defendant got possession from receiver — High Court's decree reversed by Privy Council decree and that of Court of first instance restored — Plaintiff held entitled to restitution of possession and mesne profits under S. 144 — Fact that he was refused decree for mesne profits by Court of first instance and High Court did not deprive him of his right to profits accruing to his opponent after latter dispossessed him in consequence of High Court's decree. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 850 (858, 870, 871, 872) (Per Wadsworth and Stodart JJ. Burn J.; contra).

[9] Mesne profits — Calculation of gross profit — It is amount which person in wrongful possession had or could have realized with due diligence, and not what person finally adjudged rightful owner could have realized. (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 478 (480)* (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 206 (208) : 62 Cal 217.

[10] Claim for mesne profits need not be made in application for reinstatement whether S. 144 applies or not. (Vol 8) 1921 Nag 112 (113) : 17 Nag L R 62.

16. Possession obtained otherwise than in execution. — [1] Section 144 applies even when possession is taken not in execution of the decree but under colour of or in consequence of the decree. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 577 (581) : 20 Pat 346* (Vol 7) 1920 All 190 (191); 42 All 568* (1913) 21 Ind Cas 84 (85) (Cal). * (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 37 (38) : 8 Lah 41* (1910) 5 Ind Cas 776 (776) (Mad).

[3] Section 144 authorises the grant of relief in order to restore the parties to the position they would have occupied but for the decree. It does not apply where possession is taken independent of and in opposition to the decree. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1293 (1294).

17. "Shall cause restitution to be made." — [1] Section 144 is imperative and leaves no discretion to Court. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 673 (674)* (Vol 31) 1944 Nag 59 (62) : I L R (1944) Nag 451* (Vol 15) 1928 Rang 293 (294). (Court must pass the order as a matter of course.)

[2] Section is mandatory — Refusal to order restitution on equitable considerations arising from events subsequent to decree is not warranted. (Vol 18) 1926 Lah 685 (687).

[3] A party realising costs awarded under a decree must refund the amount on reversal of the decree quite apart from the fact that property in the suit was given to a charity or applied to any other purpose. (Vol 7) 1920 All 127 (128).

[4] Where a decree-holder has obtained possession of the mortgaged property through Court on the basis of the decree absolute which was erroneously made, he is bound to make restitution to the mortgagor. (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 502 (503).

[5] Cases not falling strictly within S. 144 — Restitution depends on sound discretion of the Court and will be granted if justice demands it. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 188 (192).

[6] A obtaining decree for possession against B and executing it — Reversal of decree in appeal and suit dismissed — B who was dispossessed sought restitution under S. 144 — A pleaded that he was entitled to remain in possession in spite of the reversal by virtue of certain rights existing in his favour — Held such defence could not be raised and restitution must ensue. (Vol 15) 1928 Oudh 203 (203).

18. Inherent power to grant restitution. — [1] Court has inherent power of restitution, because it is inherent in the general jurisdiction of Court to act rightly and fairly, according to circumstances, towards all parties concerned. (Vol 11) 1924 All 718 (719) : 46 All 767* (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 322 (323)* (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 426 (428) : 1917 Pun Re No. 61* (Vol 25) 1938 Oudh 169 (170) : 14 Luck 106* (Vol 17) 1930 Pat 473 (476)* (1907) 6 Cal L Jour 662 (666).

[2] Power to grant restitution is not confined to cases under S. 144 — To prevent injustice, Court exercises that power under S. 151 when a case is not strictly covered by S. 144. (Vol 20) 1933 All 218 (221) : 55 All 221* (Vol 29) 1942 All 14 (16)* (Vol 31) 1944 Bom 264 (265)* (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 90 (90)* (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 29 (31) : 58 Cal 1070* (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 1023 (1024)* (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 635 (637)* (1940) 42 Pun L R 429 (431)* (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 320 (321) : 57 Mad 849* (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 365 (366)* (Vol 8) 1921 Nag 112 (113) : 17 Nag L R 62* (Vol 21) 1934 Pat 150 (151)* (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 800 (801).

[3] The Court can grant restitution under its inherent powers under S. 151 only when it is made out that it cannot be obtained in any other way. (Vol 24) 1937 All 232 (234)* (Vol 33) 1946 All 329 (330, 331). (Pre-emption decree — Decree-holder obtaining possession — Decree not varied or reversed — Vendee has no right to apply for restitution — Restitution under S. 151 cannot be granted when vendee has failed to avail of remedy open to him.) * (Vol 26) 1939 All 66 (69) : I L R (1939) All 103. (Remedy by way of suit proper — No exercise of inherent power.)

[4] Application for relief which has nothing to do with application for restitution cannot be converted into application for restitution in exercise of the inherent powers. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 453 (453).

[5] Order refusing to set aside sale reversed on appeal — Auction purchaser not a party — Application by judgment-debtor for restitution — Auction-purchaser not a representative of a decree-holder — Held order for restitution could not be granted under S. 151. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 581 (581) : 41 Mad 467.

[6] Application claiming interest on refund of court-fee paid in trial Court in pauper suit — Money paid to Government in pauper suit cannot be dealt with by way of restitution under S. 144 — S. 151 is applicable, but power is discretionary. (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 178 (179).

[7] Attachment by creditor of debtor's property — Insolvency Court asking to deliver property to interim Receiver — Petition allowed to be withdrawn under S. 14, Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920 — Insolvency Court must follow the principle of S. 144, Civil P. C., and return the property not to debtor but to executing Court. (Vol 29) 1942 Nag 132 (133) : I L R (1943) Nag 599.

[8] P obtaining mortgage decree against D and in execution putting mortgage property to sale and purchasing it himself — On deposit by D under O. 21, R. 89 sale set aside — T who held decree against P attaching portion of deposit and obtaining payment — Mortgage decree set aside on appeal by D — Court held could order restitution by ordering T and P to refund amounts withdrawn by them from deposit by D. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 472 (473, 474) : I L R (1942) Mad 949.

[9] The following are further illustrative cases in which the Court exercised its inherent power to grant restitution: (Vol 20) 1933 All 117 (118). (Adjudication annulled yet distribution ordered — Order set aside — Payments under distribution order can be ordered to be refunded.) * (Vol 13) 1926 All 274 (276). (Mortgage

19. Nature of proceedings and limitation.—[1] Proceedings under S. 144, Civil P. C. are not proceedings in execution of a decree and are therefore governed by Art. 181, Limitation Act, 1908. (Vol 26) 1939 All 66 (67, 68) : I L R (1939) All 103 * (Vol 25) 1938 All 552 (554) * (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 260 (262, 263) : I L R (1940) 1 Cal 486 * (Vol 26) 1939 Cal 612 (613) * (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 961 (968) * (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 685 (686) * (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 94 (94) * (Vol 8) 1921 Nag 112 (113) : 17 Nag L R 62 * (Vol 2) 1915 Low Bur 141 (142) : 8 Low Bur Rul 262.

[4] Application for restitution in pursuance of order of Privy Council is governed by Limitation Act, Art. 183. (Vol 15) 1928 All 293 (294) : 50 All 767.

[5] Section 6, Limitation Act applies to proceedings under S. 144. (Vol 13) 1926 Oudh 199 (200) : 1 Luck 40.

[6] Application for restitution — Applicants failing to file Privy Council decree with application — Copy furnished to the trial Court before order — Held, proceedings for restitution are not proceedings in execution and therefore, O. 45, R. 15 did not apply. Also there was no irregularity in procedure. (Vol 14) 1927 Pat 208 (208) : 6 Pat 252.

[7] Proceedings under S. 144 are not proceedings in execution of decree and S. 141 does not apply to such proceedings. Hence order dismissing application for restitution can be set aside and application restored. (Vol 9) 1922 All 223 (225, 226) : 44 All 407.

[8] Application for restitution is neither suit nor execution—Rules applicable to execution apply — Section 141 and O. 2, R. 2 do not apply. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 396 (397, 398) : 3 Pat L Jour 367.

[9] A claim for money in an application for restitution is one for debt within Succession Act. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 445 (445).

[10] Application for restitution under S. 144, need not be by execution petition as required by O. 21, R. 11. (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 173 (175, 176).

20. Court-fee.—[1] An order under S. 144, is an order having the force of a decree, and Art. 11 of Sch. II, Court-Fees Act, has no application when an appeal is preferred from such order. The appeal should be stamped with ad valorem Court-fee under Sch. I, Art. 1. (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 152 (154) : I L R (1937) 1 Cal 637 * (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 24 (25) * (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 313 (316) : I L R (1941) Nag 662 (Order under S. 144 is not for court-fee purposes the same as an order under S. 47—(Vol 9) 1922 Nag 62 : 18 Nag L R 15, overruled.) * (Vol 17) 1930 Rang 241 (242, 243) : 8 Rang 271.

21. Splitting up claim of restitution.—[1] Restitution proceedings — S. 141 does not require that O. 2, R. 2 or S. 11, Expt. 4 should be applied to such proceedings. (Vol 22) 1935 All 195 (197). (Application under S. 144 for principal amount allowed—Subsequent application for interest is not barred.)

[2] An application for restitution under S. 144 of the Code is neither a suit nor a proceeding in execution. It is a miscellaneous proceeding to which the rules applicable to execution proceedings do in substance apply. The provisions of O. 2, R. 2 of the Code are not applicable to such a proceeding. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 396 (397, 398) : 3 Pat L Jour 367.

[3] Suit for declaration that decree is null and void — Omission to ask for restitution — Right is not relinquished — Subsequent application is maintainable. (Vol 6) 1919 Sind 79 (79) : 13 Sind L R 153.

[4] Where on an application for restitution the Court directed delivery of actual possession under O. 21, R. 35 and the applicant accepted such delivery in satisfaction of his claim on a subsequent petition being filed praying for execution in restitution. Held, that the final order of the Court on the previous application was not a nullity and that the second application was barred as the process for delivery issued on the order on the first application had been carried out. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 202 (203).

[5] Decree in favour of A for sale of property—Purchase by himself — Sale set aside on application of B (purchaser pending suit) under O. 21, R. 89—On appeal, decree in favour of A reversed by District Judge—Application by B for restitution of deposit amount — Application granted — Appeal by A to High Court against decree of District Judge — Decision reversed — Letters Patent appeal — Decision restored — Second application for restitution — Application held sustainable. (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 173 (174, 175).

22. Who may apply for restitution. — [1] Section 144 does not apply to person who was not

*Enforcement of liability of surety.145. Where any person has become liable as surety—

- (b) for the restitution⁹ of any property taken in execution of a decree, or
- (c) for the payment of any money, or for the fulfilment of any condition imposed on any person,¹ under an order of the Court in any suit or in any proceedings consequent thereon,¹⁴

the decree or order may be executed against him,⁶ to the extent⁷ to which he has rendered himself personally liable, in the manner herein provided for the execution of decrees, and such person shall, for the purposes of appeal, be deemed a party within the meaning of section 47 :

party to suit. (Vol 28) 1941 All 28 (29) * (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 228 (229, 230).

[But see (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 657 (658).]

[2] "Party" means "party to the application" and not "party to suit." (Vol 9) 1922 All 238 (238) : 44 All 555.

[3] The word "parties" in S. 144 includes their representatives which mean not only a party's legal representative but also his representative-in-interest—Sections 47 and 144 must be read together. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 306 (307) * (Vol 25) 1938 Oudh 169 (170) : 14 Luck 106.

[4] Where an assignment takes place even after the appellate decree which is the basis of the claim for restitution, the assignee is entitled to the benefits of S. 144 of the Code. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 306 (307) * (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 480 (480). (Assignee of mesne profits.)

[5] Not only party can recover possession by restitution, but even son of such person is entitled to represent him after his death unless father's possession terminates with his death. (Vol 19) 1932 All 239 (240).

[6] Suit against A and S for recovery of property decreed—A delivering possession and S alone appealing against the decree—Plaintiff filing objection claiming mesne profits from A—A is entitled to apply under S. 144. (Vol 14) 1927 All 182 (183).

[7] Decree with costs by trial Court against A, B and C—Decree for costs executed against A—Appeal by B and C only—Decree reversed—A is entitled to restitution though not party to appeal. (Vol 24) 1937 Bom 101 (102, 103) : I L R (1937) Bom 150.

[8] Reversal of decree in appeal—Party losing possession by first decision can apply for restitution. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 476 (477).

[9] Immovable property of judgment-debtor sold in execution—Decree modified on appeal—Though judgment-debtor is not entitled to set aside sale, he is entitled to restitution. (Vol 13) 1926 Rang 126 (126).

[10] Joint decree in favour of A and B—Properties put to sale in execution—A's application for substitution in place of B allowed in appeal—Meanwhile B's decree-holder attached and withdrew B's share—Application for restitution of money withdrawn is not maintainable under S. 144 as the attaching decree-holder was neither a party nor representative of the party to the decree in execution of which the sale took place. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 503 (504).

[11] Objector under O. 21, R. 58 is to be deemed as party to suit in objection proceedings and proceedings arising therefrom and therefore can claim restitution. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 657 (658)

23. Auction-purchaser. — [1] Section 144 does not apply to a stranger auction-purchaser as his case is expressly dealt with by O. 21, R. 93. (Vol 27) 1940 Bom 210 (214) : I L R (1940) Bom 370 * (Vol 11) 1924 All 273 (273) * (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 215 (216) : 3 Rang 251.

[2] Right of auction-purchaser to a refund of money paid by him arises both under S. 144 and also on principle of equity and justice. If the case does not come under S. 144 Court can exercise inherent jurisdiction to direct a refund of the money to the auction-purchaser. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 497 (498, 499) * (1931) 1931 Mad W N 1006 (1007).

[3] Where an execution sale is declared a nullity the auction-purchaser is entitled to sue for a refund from the decree-holder of the purchase money with interest. (1918) 15 Bom L R 41 (44, 45).

[4] A purchaser at a sale in execution of a mortgage decree paid Government revenue on the property for 4 years after which period the sale was set aside. Held he was entitled to be reimbursed by the receiver of the mortgaged property. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 554 (555).

24. Party not in possession. — [1] No question of restitution arises where appellant is not deprived of possession owing to lower Court's decree. (Vol 19) 1932 Pat 317 (319) : 11 Pat 553 * (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 769 (771) : 51 Cal 324.

[2] Suit for redemption of four items of mortgaged property—Decree for redemption of three on deposit into Court of balance of mortgage money by mortgagor—Mortgagor after such deposit filing appeal for redemption of fourth item—Appeal decreed—Application under S. 144 for mesne profit—Mortgagor not being in possession of that item at date of trial Court's decree, S. 144 did not apply—Under S. 47, application under S. 144 was allowed to be converted into plaint. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 81 (83).

[3] Applicability—Property held by receiver until one of rival claimants succeeded in establishing his title—Receiver holds on behalf of rightful claimant—Delivery of property to successful party is direct consequence of decree in his favour whether decree is for possession or not—S. 144 applies. (Vol 28) 1941 Lah 343 (343, 344) * (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 850 (870, 871) * (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 260 (262, 263) : 7 Pat 319.

[4] Where at a sale in execution of a decree on a mortgage, the mortgagee decree-holder purchases the property and a final order putting the mortgagee in possession of the properties is made, but subsequently the decree is modified on appeal after sale, the mortgagors are not entitled to get back possession. (1909) 36 Cal 386 (343, 344) : 36 Ind App 27 (P C).

[5] Statement of partition commissioner embodied in final partition decree is not conclusive evidence of prior possession as between parties in proceeding under S. 144—Question must be determined on evidence. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 919 (919, 920).

9. Liability for restitution—Clause (b).

10. Limitation.

11. Notice to surety.

12. Separate suit by or against surety.

13. Surety—Who is.

14. "Under an order . . . thereon"—Clause (c).

1. "Any condition imposed on any person."—Clause (c). [1] Clause (c) is wide in its scope and includes a case where security is given for the production of a judgment-debtor who is arrested in execution of a decree and who is released on furnishing security and on expressing his intention to apply to be declared an insolvent. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 237 (238).

[2] The section refers to a 'condition imposed on any person' and is therefore applicable even to a person who is surety for himself. (Vol 18) 1931 Rang 65 (65).

2. "Any decree"—Cl. (a). [1] "Any decree" covers decree that may be passed after person has become surety. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 189 (190).

3. Appeal and revision.—[1] Surety is not party to suit under S. 47, but S. 145 makes him a party for purpose of appeal. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 75 (77) : 43 Mad 325 * (Vol 12) 1925 All 344 (345) * (1927) 28 Pun L R 525 (536) * (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 105 (106) : 20 Sind L R 362.

[2] Order against surety in respect of execution of decree is appealable. (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 39 (41) * (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 77 (78) * (1888) 12 Bom 71 (76) * (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 237 (237).

[See (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 596 (596) : 2 Pat L Jour 197. (Order directing surety to pay is not decree except for purposes of appeal.) * (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 688 (688). (Surety for release can appeal against his own arrest for failure of condition.)]

[3] Surety asked to produce judgment-debtor—Surety appearing without judgment-debtor—Decree ordered to be executed against surety—No appeal by surety, but producing judgment-debtor and praying for being relieved—Surety not having appealed, held no order inconsistent with previous order could be passed. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 538 (539).

[4] Section 145 does not restrict right of appeal to sureties only—Refusal to enforce surety's liability—Interested party can appeal. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 653 (654) * (Vol 4) 1917 Upp Bur 16 (17) : 2 Upp Bur Rul 103. (Order rejecting application for forfeiture of security bond is appealable.)

[5] Order passed by Court not under S. 145 but under general power against sureties—Surety has right of appeal from such order. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 780 (781) : 56 Mad 909 * (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 215 (216).

[6] There can be no appeal from an order discharging surety, where such order was not made during execution proceedings. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 503 (503).

[9] Attachment before judgment—Property released on third person executing security bond and mortgaging certain property—Application by decree-holder in suit for sale of mortgaged property rejected—Appeal also dismissed—Second appeal held not competent. (Vol 32) 1945 Cal 193 (194) : 1 L R (1944) 1 Cal 563.

[10] Order under S. 145 passed by Sub-Judge is open to revision although appeal lies to District Court. (Vol 20) 1933 Rang 64 (66) : 11 Rang 134.

4. Applicability, scope and object.—[1] The object of S. 145 is two-fold. It provides a summary remedy by way of an application available to the party entitled to enforce the bond and at the same time confers on the surety proceeded against a right of appeal as if he were a party within S. 47. (Vol 30) 1930 Mad 288 (291) : 1 L R (1943) Mad 509 * (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 237 (238) * (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 850 (852).

[2] Section 145 does not profess to define in any way liability of surety. It merely describes procedure when the surety is liable for enforcing his liability. (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 316 (316) : 5 Rang 494.

[3] Provisions analogous to S. 145 apply in cases where S. 145 does not literally apply. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 215 (216).

[4] Section 145 does not apply unless the person sought to be proceeded against has taken upon himself the liability of another. Liability need not be of the judgment-debtor or the decree-holder but it may be of an officer of the Court charged with the conduct of execution proceedings. (Vol 26) 1939 Cal 316 (319).

[5] Surety for successor in interest of party to suit who remained to be brought on record comes under S. 145. (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 294 (294, 295).

[6] Surety for receiver becoming liable under surety bond—Order of Court to pay up amount due on bond can be enforced by procedure under S. 145. (Vol 27) 1940 Rang 151 (151) * (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 331 (333, 334) * (Vol 7) 1920 Low Bur 58 (59) : 10 Low Bur Rul 236 * (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 334 (334).

[7] Bonds should be taken in the name of some officer of the Court and not by the Court itself, which is not a juridical person. (Vol 6) 1919 P C 55 (59) : 42 All 158 : 46 Ind App 228 : 22 Oudh Cas 212 (PC) * (Vol 32) 1945 Sind 146 (148) : 1 L R (1945) Kar 116.

[8] Security bond not binding surety to any individual—Bond can be enforced by Court making order upon application in suit to which surety is party that property charged be sold unless before day named surety finds money. (Vol 30) 1943 P C 189 (191, 192) : 1 L R (1944) Kar P C 16 (P C) * (Vol 6) 1919 P C 55 (59) : 42 All 158 : 46 Ind App 228 : 22 Oudh Cas 212 (P C) * (Vol 11) 1924 All 105 (106, 107) : 45 All 649 * (Vol 15) 1928 Bom 42 (47, 48) : 52 Bom 72 * (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 64 (67) : 60 Cal 1298 * (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 262 (263, 264) : 57 Mad 803.

[9] Execution of certificate under Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act by arrest of certificate debtor—Defendant executing surety bond to certificate officer agreeing to be liable for amount due from certificate debtor on his default—Default—Certificate-holder held could sue on surety bond though it was executed to certificate officer. Security for payment of money.—[10] The following are the provisions of the Code under which security is taken: Section 32 (d); Section 55 (4); Section 94 (b); O. 25

R. 1; O. 32 R. 8; O. 37 R. 3 (2); O. 38 R. 2; O. 38 R. 5; O. 41 R. 5 (3) (c); O. 41 R. 10; O. 45 R. 7; and O. 45 R. 13 (2) (c).

5. Discharge of surety.—[1] Security bond is a contract and can be enforced as such. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 61 (62).

[3] Where there is doubt about construction of security bond it must be considered in light of order directing security to be given. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 569 (570); 61 Cal 890 * (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 229 (231). (Where there is no ambiguity, the clear language of the bond must be enforced.) * (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 186 (188, 189); 57 Mad 688* (Vol 25) 1938 Nag 75 (75); I L R (1939) Nag 371.

[5] Surety agreeing to pay amount withdrawn by decree-holder personally or out of property secured on condition of defendants succeeding in appeal is not liable when only one defendant succeeds. (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 229 (231).

[7] Order of Court changing terms of bond puts an end to surety's obligation. (Vol 13) 1926 Bom 565 (566). (Amount of security changed.)

[10] Surety for performance of decree—Extension of time to judgment-debtor by decree-holder—Discharging surety is entirely within discretion of Court. (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 896 (897).

[12] Surety undertaking to be liable in case a decree was passed against the debtor and the debtor failed to pay—Compromise decree passed granting certain period to debtor for payment—Surety is discharged. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 239 (240)* (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 576 (579). (Security bond by receiver appointed by consent order—Order as it were expresses contract and any variance in term absolves surety.) * (Vol 19) 1932 Pat 313 (315); 11 Pat 590. (Surety for mesne profits in case of decree—Claim compromised and time granted—Both facts discharge surety.)

[13] Surety undertaking to be bound by decree that may be passed—Surety is bound even by consent decree that is passed unless there is fraud or collusion or decree comprises matters beyond litigation. (Vol 22) 1935 Nag 16 (19); 31 Nag L R 172 * (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 55 (56); 55 Bom 97 * (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 858 (861, 863); 59 Cal 1450 * (Vol 5) 1918 Lah 134 (135). [But see (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 84 (85); 51 Bom 81.]

[18] Death of defendant does not discharge his surety if cause of action survives against defendant's legal representatives and they are brought on record. (Vol 3) 1916 Bom 55 (56); 41 Bom 402 * (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 428 (429).

[19] Defendant dying—Person not legal representative brought on record—Decree is not binding on the real heir nor on the surety. (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 63 (65); 50 Bom 802.

[20] Surety for appearance of judgment-debtor—Surety unable to produce him on required date owing to his being in jail for criminal offence—Surety is discharged. (Vol 10) 1923 Rang 26 (26); 4 Upp Bur Rul 99.

[22] Surety for production of judgment-debtor before Court—Fact that in the meantime the judgment-debtor had got a protection order does not absolve the surety of his duty to produce judgment-debtor on the adjourned date. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 958 (959).

[24] Death of judgment-debtor discharges surety under S. 55 (4). (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 162 (163); 41 Cal 50.

[25] Although under S. 55, Cl. (4), judgment-creditor is given alternative and not concurrent remedies against the debtor and the surety, still the mere re-arrest of the judgment-debtor does not have the effect of discharging the surety. (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 444 (446).

[26] Filing false affidavit that judgment-debtor was ill and obtaining adjournment may be ground for proceeding against surety criminally, but production of judgment-debtor on the adjourned date discharges his liability under the section. (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 347 (347).

[27] Surety for judgment-debtor engaging that judgment-debtor would apply for being declared insolvent within 15 days—Judgment-debtor applying within that time — Application rejected as not containing all particulars required by S. 13, Provincial Insolvency Act — Still liability of surety comes to end. (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 444 (446).

[28] Surety for appearance of judgment-debtor — Appearance by judgment-debtor and payment of part of decree debt and acceptance of such amount by decree holder's pleader — Surety is discharged. (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 337 (338) (Vol 1) 1914 Low Bur 54 (55).

[33] Where sureties agreed to produce judgment-debtor on the fixed date but failed, the closing without dismissal of the execution petition does not put an end to their liability. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 241 (241, 242).

[35] Surety in case of arrest before judgment can apply for discharge under O. 38, R. 3, but surety for due performance of decree cannot be discharged. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 435 (436) (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 503 (503) (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 294 (295).

[38] If a consent decree is passed without the knowledge and consent of surety of judgment-debtor, the surety is discharged. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 818 (818).

6. Execution against surety. — [1] The words "in the manner herein provided for the execution of decrees" in S. 145 refer not to mode of applying for execution but to mode of effecting execution in any suitable manner provided under O. 21. (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 134 (135) : I L R (1942) Kar 79 (Vol 21) 1934 Oudh 139 (140) : 9 Luck 534.

[2] The word "decree" in the operative part of section 145 refers only to cls. (a) and (b) and not to cl. (c), to which the word "order" only applies. (Vol 15) 1928 Rang 249 (250) : 6 Rang 474.

[3] Breach of any condition in surety bond empowers Court to proceed against surety even if such breach is not mentioned by judgment-creditor in his execution application. (Vol 23) 1936 Sind 244 (246) : 30 Sind L R 177.

[4] Court has discretion to refuse execution against surety. (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 340 (341) : 46 Bom 702 (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 135 (137) : 2 Rang 567.

[6] Surety for judgment-debtor incurring penalty under his bond—Amount paid by surety should be credited against decree amount only. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 559 560.

[7] In proceedings under S. 145 surety can plead all defences open to him as defendant in a suit. (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 340 (342) (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 618 (618). (Surety can raise plea of fraud) (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 215 (216). (Surety is entitled to raise objections to executability.)

[8] Surety can apply to Court to see whether bond has spent itself and become unenforceable. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 288 (290, 291) : I L R (1943) Mad 509.

[9] Surety executing bond cannot raise objection as to illegality of bond in execution proceedings. (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 143 (145)

[10] Section does not deal with refund of deposit of surety (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 544 (544).

[11] Surety must be deemed to be party to suit as well as to decree for purposes of S. 145, and same considerations which apply to judgment-debtor should apply to him as well. (1940) 1940 Nag L Jour 244 (247).

[12] Decree against judgment-debtor can be executed against his surety to the extent of his liability even if his name is not mentioned in the decree. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 463 (464).

[14] Suit for declaration and permanent injunction — Temporary injunction granted on plaintiff's executing security bond to Court undertaking to make good loss occasioned by grant of temporary injunction—Suit dismissed — Bond can be enforced only under S. 151. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 691 (693) : 56 Mad 989.

7. Extent of surety's liability. — [1] Section 145 applies only to personal liability of surety. (Vol 30) 1943 P C 189 (191) : I L R (1944) Kar P C 16 (P C) (Vol 4) 1917 All 104 (106) : 39 All 225 (Vol 15) 1928 Bom 42 (48) : 52 Bom 72 (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 30 (30) (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 262 (263) : 57 Mad 803.

[21] Giving of security in no way detracts from right of decree-holder to enforce his decree against judgment-debtor — Fact that security is given does not take away any legal right which decree-holder otherwise has. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 384 (385) : 3 Pat L Jour 176.

8 Form of surety bond. — [1] Section 145 does not require that liability of surety must have accrued on an application presented to the Court or on a security bond filed in the proceedings. (1912) 16 Ind Cas 859 (860) (Cal).

[2] Surety bond need not be in writing or in favour of Court. (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 913 (914) : 15 Lah 44.

[3] It is not necessary that surety should have specifically said in bond that the decree could be executed against him. (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 185 (186).

[5] Security bond in favour of decree-holder for release of debtor from jail — Release ordered under S. 53 — Bond must be deemed to be on record and is enforceable in execution (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 527 (528).

9. Liability for restitution — Clause (b). — [1] Property attached and placed in custody of supradar — On failure to return property executing Court has no power to proceed against him — Separate suit must be brought. (Vol 7) 1920 All 245 (245) : 42 All 394 * (1927) 28 Pun L R 525 (533). (Supradar is not a surety within the meaning of S. 145.) * (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 321 (322) * (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 649 (649, 650) * (Vol 5) 1918 Nag 98 (98).

[2] Section 145 applies only in the case of surety for payment of money under Court's order — Surety to produce property attached — Default in producing property — Surety bond can be enforced apart from S. 145 by way of execution. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 1005 (1006, 1007) * (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 342 (342) * (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 219 (220).

[3] Supradar who has given an undertaking to produce the goods when ordered by the Court is a surety and by such undertaking he becomes liable under S. 145. (Vol 18) 1931 All 567 (571) : 54 All 263 (F B) * (Vol 23) 1936 All 555 (557) * (Vol 8) 1921 All 220 (220, 221) * (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 181 (183) * (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 412 (413) * (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 268 (262, 263) : 20 Nag L R 93. (Vol 6) 1919 Nag 23 : 16 Nag L R 178, overruled.)

[4] Attachment under O. 21, R. 43 — Attaching officer using discretion under O. 21-A, R. 3 and leaving goods with custodian — Obligation imposed upon custodian is accessory — But if after attachment Court intervenes and directs attaching officer to deliver goods to custodian on his furnishing bond, liability of custodian is not accessory and he is not surety within meaning of S. 145. (Vol 26) 1939 Cal 316 (319).

10. Limitation.—[1] Surety undertaking to pay on failure of decree-holder to recover from judgment-debtor — Limitation is governed by Art. 181, Limitation Act. (Vol 20) 1933 Oudh 209 (213) : 8 Luck 427* (Vol 7) 1920 Bom 331 (331, 332) : 44 Bom 84.

[2] Application against judgment-debtor alone saves limitation against sureties also. (Vol 9) 1922 All 481 (482, 483) : 44 All 743.

[3] Proceedings taken against judgment-debtor in execution of decree or against one of the sureties for enforcing bond in which other is simply impleaded without any relief being claimed against him, are not steps against other surety to enforce bond so as to save limitation. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 722 (723, 724).

[4] Surety for appearance of judgment-debtor — Execution petition dismissed for default of decree-holder and surety discharged — Application for restoration also dismissed — Appeal from order discharging surety — Extension of time spent in application for restoration cannot be allowed. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 349 (351).

11. Notice to surety.—[1] Notice is essential for enforcing liability against surety. (Vol 15) 1928 Rang 249 (251) : 6 Rang 674* (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 593 (593) : I L R (1938) Lah 624* (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 205 (206)* (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 170 (171)* (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 1078 (1078, 1079)* (Vol 18) 1931 Oudh 311 (311)* (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 135 (136) : 2 Rang 567* (Vol 10) 1923 Rang 26 (26) : 4 Upp Bur Rul 99.

[2] Notice issued to surety under O. 38, R. 2, to produce judgment-debtor — Execution sought to be issued against him on failure — Further notice to show cause why execution should not issue is necessary. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 828 (829).

[4] Condition of notice to judgment-debtor before enforcing liability of surety can be waived. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 237 (239).

[5] It is immaterial whether notice is given by the Court or by decree-holder, or whether it is given by the Court which passed the decree or by the Court to which the decree is sent for execution. (1905) 29 Bom 29 (34)* (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 593 (593) : I L R (1938) Lah 624.

[6] Notice to surety by Court under the proviso to S. 145, along with the warrant for his arrest is not invalid. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 131 (132).

[8] Surety undertaking to produce judgment-debtor on every date fixed and first fixed date in presence of surety and judgment-debtor — No specific notice to surety to produce on that day is necessary — But notice under S. 145, regarding realization of decretal amount is necessary. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 145 (146).

12. Separate suit by or against surety.—[1] The surety is not a party to the suit or to the decree made therein nor does he become a party to the execution proceedings until application is made for an order against him. He is not a party to the suit within S. 47, and S. 145 only makes him a party for a limited purpose, namely, for appeal. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 75 (77) : 43 Mad 325* (Vol 15) 1928 All 527 (530) : 51 All 346 *

[2] Section 145 does not bar regular suit against surety. (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 175 (176) : ILR (1939) Lah 470 * (Vol 22) 1935 All 373 (374)* (Vol 15) 1928 Rang 249 (251) : 6 Rang 474.

[3] Suit against a supradar on ground of damages due to his misappropriating the property is barred. (Vol 16) 1929 All 266 (266).

[4] Surety's property attached and sold in execution — Separate suit to set aside the sale lies. (Vol 15) 1928 All 527 (528, 529) : 51 All 346.

[5] Surety must file separate suit for cancellation of bond on ground of fraud and cannot proceed under S. 47. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 75 (77) : 43 Mad 325.

[6] Surety made party to execution proceedings — Defence raised and decided — He cannot raise it again in separate suit. The principle of res judicata applies. (Vol 29) 1942 Nag 107 (108) : I L R (1942) Nag 779.

13. Surety — Who is. — [1] A surety is one who takes upon himself, and guarantees the performance of an obligation which rests primarily upon another. His obligation is an accessory one. (Vol 26) 1939 Cal 316 (319).

[2] Commissioner appointed to attach goods and asked to keep them in custody — Appointment of watchmen by Commissioner — Some of the goods missing — Watchmen are not liable as sureties. (Vol 20) 1933 All 385 (386).

[3] Objector who in his suit for declaration against decree-holder undertakes to pay him the decretal amount within a particular period is a surety and is liable as judgment-debtor in both suits. (Vol 26) 1939 All 517 (517, 518).

[4] Amin entrusting property attached in execution to supradar is not surety within the meaning of S. 145. (Vol 22) 1935 All 768 (769).

14. "Under an order.....thereon"—Cl. (c).—[1] Order must be enforceable through execution by one party against another — Surety for guardian of minor — Attachment of property of surety for moneys due to minor's estate — Order of attachment of surety's property does not fall under S. 145 as it is passed for protection of minor's interests against his own next friend. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 661 (663) : 41 Mad 40* (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 953 (953). (Suit is the proper means to enforce such bond.)

[2] Words "under an order of the Court" apply equally to payment of money and fulfilment of a condition. (Vol 8) 1921 Nag 99 (100).

[3] Application for stay of execution of decree obtained in another suit pending decision of appeal — Court ordering that if appellant furnished security execution would be stayed — Security bond executed — Appeal dismissed — Property under bond cannot be realized in execution as there is no order capable of execution — Separate suit is necessary. (Vol 20) 1933 All 269 (272) : 55 All 346 (FB).

[4] Section 145 cannot be extended to apply to enforcement of surety bond given in proceedings other than suits. (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 35 (36) : 19 Sind L R 390.

[5] Proceeding for grant of Letters of Administration may take form of suit, but is not in fact suit; nor is it proceeding consequent on suit — Hence, S. 145 does not apply to sureties of administration bond. (Vol 15) 1928 Rang 249 (250, 252) : 6 Rang 474.

Proceedings by or against representative.

146. Save as otherwise provided by this Code or by any law for the time being in force, where any proceeding may be taken or application made by or against any person, then the proceeding may be taken or the application may be made by or against any person claiming under him.

SECTION 146—SYNOPSIS.

1. Application by representative not on record.
2. Application for execution by or against representatives.
3. Application to set aside ex parte decree.
4. "Claiming under"—Meaning of.
5. Person detained in enemy country—Representation.
6. Proceeding or application.
7. Scope.

1. Application by representative not on record. [1] Petition for execution presented by one of the surviving coparceners of deceased decree-holder — Presentation will not invalidate proceedings before the Collector. (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 123 (124, 125) : 51 Bom 143.

[2] Legal representative not actually brought on record can apply under O. 9, R. 13. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 370 (371) : 27 Oudh Cas 299.

2. Application for execution by or against representatives. [1] Order 21, R. 16 is a provision to which S. 146 is subject. Transferee of property during pendency of a suit cannot apply for execution of the decree unless his name is substituted in the suit for his vendor. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 563 (564) * (1912) 17 Ind Cas 512 (513) (All).

[2] Assignment of entire amounts due under promissory notes for consideration during pendency of suits on them — Decrees passed—Assignee can execute them under S. 146, though not under O. 21, R. 16. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 21 (22, 23).

[3] Transferee of a decree is entitled to apply to continue execution proceedings already instituted by his transferor. (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 599 (603) : 44 Mad 919 (FB).

[5] Terms of S. 146 are wide enough to enable the Court to recognise part transfer of a decree. (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 599 (601) : 44 Mad 919 (FB).

[See (Vol 31) 1944 Oudh 280 (280) : 20 Luck 271. (There can be no objection to execution by an assignee where the whole of the decree which can be executed has been assigned and is being executed.)

[7] Execution proceedings, already commenced, can be continued after the death of the judgment-debtor by substitution of the name of the legal representative in place of that of the judgment-debtor in the application for execution. There is no need to have a fresh application under O. 21, R. 11 filed. (1910) 34 Bom 142 (151).

[8] Decree assigned jointly to more than one person — Assignees may be deemed joint decree-holders for application of O. 21, R. 15. (Vol 32) 1945 Bom 380 (381, 382) : 1 L R (1945) Bom 463.

[9] Transferee of property, covered by a decree is not entitled to execute the decree without conforming to O. 21, R. 16—Section 146 does not apply. (Vol 9) 1922 All 98 (99).

3. Application to set aside ex parte decree—[1] Where defendant against whom an ex parte decree has been passed dies, his legal representative can apply for setting aside the ex parte decree under O. 9, R. 13. (1902) 29 Cal 33 (35) * (Vol 10) 1923 All 30 (30).

4. "Claiming under" — Meaning of.—[1] The words "claiming under" in S. 146 include a case where the interest of a person has been assigned to or has devolved upon another under O. 22, R. 10. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 709 (710) * (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 755 (756) : 41 Mad 510.

[2] Principle of devolution underlying O. 22, R. 10 and S. 146 is same — Person claiming must have right to take proceedings. (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 485 (490).

[3] Party to suit creating mortgage during pendency of suit — Mortgagee can appeal from decree passed in such suit. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 245 (245, 246).

[4] Assignee of interest in suit is competent to prefer appeal against decree passed in suit. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 755 (756) : 41 Mad 510.

[5] Compromise in partition suit breaking down — Simple mortgagee subsequent to suit of share of party to partition suit is not necessary or proper party to partition suit nor is he entitled to be impleaded either under O. 22, R. 10 or S. 146. (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 485 (488) 489.

[6] Suit by A against B for recovery of property decreed — Pending suit, A's son C acquiring suit property by final partition decree — Appeal by B — Application by C to be impleaded as respondent — Neither S. 146 nor O. 22, R. 10 held could apply. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 876 (877, 878).

[7] Transfer of preliminary decree — Assignee is not a person claiming under decree-holder. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 1129 (1129).

[8] Section 146 contemplates change of title after decree—Person acquiring mortgagee rights and obtaining possession of mortgaged property from under-proprietor — Long thereafter, arrears of rent falling due for certain year and decree passed against under-proprietor—Rent decree cannot be executed against mortgagee. (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 488 (489, 490) : 13 Luck 554.

[9] Combined effect of S. 154, Oudh Rent Act and S. 146, is to render auction-purchaser of under-proprietary tenure liable to satisfy decree for arrears of rent obtained against original under-proprietor, although such purchaser is not judgment-debtor on record of that decree. (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 353 (354).

Consent or agreement by persons under disability.

147. In all suits to which any person under disability is a party, any consent or agreement, as to any proceeding shall, if given or made with the express leave of the Court by the next friend or guardian for the suit, have the same force and effect as if such person were under no disability and had given such consent or made such agreement.

[10] A sub-mortgagee who is party to a mortgage suit is, on general principle of S. 146, Civil P. C., entitled to apply for a final decree for sale, where the original mortgagee-plaintiff fails to make such application, as a person claiming under him. (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 463 (465).

[13] Puisse mortgagee not a party to a suit on a charge cannot apply for setting aside ex-parte decree either under S. 146 or O. 9, R. 13. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 1015 (1015).

5. Person detained in enemy country — Representation. — [1] Civil P. C. makes no provision for the representation of a person who is still alive by a person who intermeddles with his estate. Where, therefore, a defendant is detained in enemy country, he cannot be represented by the intermeddler of his estate. Substituted service under O. 5, R. 20 is the only remedy in such a case. (Vol 32) 1945 All 45 (46) : 1 L R (1945) All 18.

6. Proceeding or application. — [1] Proceedings contemplated by S. 146 include an appeal. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 755 (756) : 41 Mad 510 * (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 381 (383) : 1 L R (1943) Mad 702. (Person claiming under judgment-debtor can question the correctness of an order passed under O. 21, R. 98 by appeal under S. 47.) * (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 16 (16). (Benamidar releasing right in property claimed by him in suit in favour of real purchaser—Latter can file appeal against dismissal of benamidar's suit.) * (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 409 (410). (New party alleging acquisition of interest taking action after decree and before appeal—O. 22, R. 10 does not apply—Appeal can however be entertained under S. 146, if merits are in favour of appellant.) * (1903) 26 Mad 101 (103). (Decree-holder appellant dying after hearing of appeal but before delivery of judgment — His son applying to High Court to be brought on record and be allowed to present appeal—Procedure held proper — He need not apply to original Court for execution.) * (Vol 4) 1917 Oudh 176 (176, 177) (Assignment of interest between date of decision of first Court and filing of appeal — Order 22, R. 10 does not apply—Assignee should be allowed to join in appeal under S. 146.)

[2] A transferee from an auction-purchaser is competent to apply for possession of the property transferred under O. 21, R. 95 and S. 146. (Vol 5) 1918 All 405 (405) : 40 All 216.

[3] Right to recover mesne profits by way of restitution is assignable and the assignee can apply under S. 144, Civil P. C. The transfer in his favour can be recognised under S. 146, though O. 20 R. 16 may not be strictly applicable. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 480 (480).

[4] Where decree attached and executed by attaching decree-holder is reversed in appeal, restitution proceedings can be allowed against attaching decree-holder, who is representative of original decree-holder even for

[5] Auction-purchaser in execution of a simple money decree is a representative of the judgment-debtor for O. 21 R. 98, against whom proceedings can be taken under S. 146. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 943 (944).

7. Scope. — [1] Section should be interpreted as supplementing the rules. (Vol 4) 1921 Mad 599 (601) : 44 Mad 919 (F B) * (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 21 (23). (Expression "save as otherwise provided by this Code" should be interpreted liberally as permitting applications under S. 146 which do not conflict with the provisions of the Code.) * (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 485 (489) (Section 146 is a residuary provision, which cannot be resorted to where a case falls under a specific provision.)

[4] Section 146 is not limited only to filing fresh suit or appeal already filed. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 573 (574).

(But see (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 507 (508). (Legal representative cannot continue an application already made.)]

[5] Appellant claiming substitution in deceased plaintiff's place under plaintiff's living daughter — Appellant held could apply for substitution of daughter's name but not for his own. (Vol 23) 1936 Pat 123 (125) : 15 Pat 82 * (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1166 (1166, 1167). (Deceased's heirs not brought on record—Assignee from heir cannot apply under O. 22, R. 10.)

[6] Assignment of interest during period intervening between date of trial Court decree and filing of appeal—Assignor cannot file appeal — Nor can assignee be made appellant at the time of hearing of appeal. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 119 (120).

[7] Pauper plaintiff dying pendente lite — Heir impleaded as legal representative—Heir himself not pauper — Heir can be dispaupered under O. 33, R. 9 read with S. 146, (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 324 (324, 325).

Section 147 — Note 1

[1] The section enacts the substantive rule that a minor shall be bound by a compromise entered into by his guardian with the leave of the Court. See Notes on S. 147. A. I. R. Commentaries on Civil P. C. and also O. 32, R. 7.

[2] The leave of the Court must be expressly given. (1906) 28 All 585 (588, 589) : 9 Oudh Cas 219 : 33 Ind App 128 (P C). (Case under old Code).

[3] Section 147 does not place consent decrees obtained against minors on higher footing than decrees obtained after contest—Consent decree against minor can be avoided in same manner as contested decrees in spite of S. 147. (Vol 33) 1946 Lah 233 (237) (F B).

[4] Minor can avoid a decree passed against him on the ground of gross negligence on the part of his guardian ad litem, even if he has not succeeded in proving fraud or collusion. (Vol 38) 1946 Lah 233 (234, 242) (F B). (Vol 26) 1939 Bom 66 : 1 L R (1939) Bom 340 (F B) diss. from; (Vol 29) 1942 Lah 205 : 1 L R (1943) Lah 113 held not correctly decided; Case law discussed.)

[5] See also O. 32, R. 7.

Enlargement of time. 148. Where any period is fixed or granted by the Court for the doing of any act prescribed or allowed by this Code, the Court may, in its discretion, from time to time, enlarge such period, even though the period originally fixed or granted may have expired.

[R. S. C., Order 64 Rule 7.]

SECTION 148 — SYNOPSIS.

1. "Where any period is fixed or granted by Court."
2. Extension of time fixed by decree.
3. Extension of time fixed by consent decree.
4. Extension of time fixed by award. See Notes on S. 28, Arbitration Act, 1940.
5. "Act prescribed or allowed by this Code."
6. Discretion of Court.
7. Implied extension of time.
8. Court to which application for extension should be made.
9. Appeal.
10. Revision.

1. "Where any period is fixed or granted by Court." — [1] The Registrar of a Small Cause Court cannot make an order under S. 148 for extension of time. (1911) 13 Cal L Jour 78 (82).

[2] Section 148 applies only where period is fixed by Court. It does not apply when period is fixed by law. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 112 (113).

[3] Court cannot extend period of one month prescribed by S. 55 (4), Civil P. C. even under S. 148. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 689 (690).

2. Extension of time fixed by decree.—[1] The general principle enacted in the section is that where time is granted by an order of the Court for doing any act prescribed or allowed by the Code, it can be extended by the Court. (Vol 1) 1914 All 55 (56) : 36 All 77. (Order for setting aside ex parte decree on payment of costs within a fixed period) * (Vol 10) 1923 Cal 612 (614). (Time for additional court-fee.) * (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 235 (236). (Order of remand directing payment of additional court-fee within certain time — Time can be extended.) (Vol 23) 1936 Oudh 56 (58) : 11 Luck 567 (Lease for running mill owned by company in liquidation — Money to be deposited by lessee within fixed period, not deposited — Court can extend time under S. 148.) * (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 222 (222) (Do.) * (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 638 (639) (Do.).

[2] The jurisdiction with which a Court is invested by provisions of S. 148 in the matter of enlargement of time is restricted to cases where time for doing an act is fixed by the Court, otherwise than by its decree. Where time is fixed or granted by a decree it cannot be extended by the Court. (Vol 15) 1928 Oudh 32 (33) : 2 Luck 425 * (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 21 (22) * (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 223 (223) * (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 694 (695) : 39 Mad 876 * (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 69 (70). (Application to extend before decree—Court must consider it—Omission to consider through mistake — Mistake must be rectified though decree be required to be re-opened — Party should not suffer for Court's negligence.) * (Vol 5) 1918 Nag 66 (66, 67) :

15 Nag L R 39 * (Vol 10) 1923 Oudh 16 (17) * (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 341 (343). (Court cannot extend time for payment of instalment of decretal amount.)

[3] Decree by trial Court directing that plaint shall stand rejected if certain act is not done within time prescribed—Appeal by party without doing act—Appellate Court can extend time and suspend order made by lower Court by arranging decree under O. 41, R. 32. (Vol 25) 1938 All 150 (150, 151).

[4] Once a decree is signed it cannot, under O. 20, R. 3, be altered or added to, save under S 152 or on review. S. 148 cannot nullify this rule. Section 148 therefore does not apply to decree or order of final character made by Court but applies only to acts preliminary to or during course of trial of a case before the final order is actually made. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 275 (276) * (Vol 23) 1936 All 477 (478). (Suit dismissed for default restored on condition of payment of costs to opposite party within particular time — Application for restoration to stand dismissed if costs not paid within period fixed — No payment made within time — Court ceases to be seized of matter and cannot extend period for payment under S. 148.) * (Vol 20) 1933 All 262 (264) : 55 All 326 (F B) (Time given for production of document by remand order can be extended under S 148, such order not being final order; affirming (Vol 20) 1933 All 261 on Letters Patent appeal.) * (Vol 20) 1933 All 157 (158). (Suit to redeem usufructuary mortgage—Preliminary decree passed conditional on plaintiff's depositing certain amount in Court within six months — In default suit to stand dismissed — No payment within time — Court held did not intend to pass final decree concluding suit and consequently it could extend time.) * (Vol 18) 1931 All 318 (319). (Dismissing from (Vol 4) 1917 All 164 (165) which held that where a decree is passed for possession conditional on the plaintiff's paying a certain sum within one month of the date of the decree, the Court which passed the decree has jurisdiction to extend the time.) * (Vol 26) 1939 Cal 581 (581, 582) : 1 L R (1939) 1 Cal 468 * (Vol 26) 1939 Cal 309 (309). (Application to set aside sale granted subject to applicant's depositing amount within certain period—Application to stand rejected on default — Upon applicant's failure to comply with order, Court has no jurisdiction to extend time for making deposit — S. 148 does not apply.) * (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 6 (7) (F B) * (Vol 23) 1941 Mad 706 (706, 707). (Order that in default of payment of certain sum within specified time, appeal would stand dismissed — Default in payment due to error of Court's officer — Application for extension of time — Court has no power to extend time under S. 148 but it can do so under S. 151 for ends of justice.) * (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 154 (157). for payment of money antecedent to the passing of decree under S. 148) * (Vol 23) 1936 Oudh 125 (125, 126, 128): 11 Luck 241. (Application for restoration of an appeal dismissed in default allowed on condition of applicant depositing or paying to the opposite party certain sum within specific date—On failure to pay, appeal to stand dismissed—Failure by applicant—Court has no jurisdiction to extend time.) * (Vol 15) 1928 Oudh 492 (493). (Decree for pre-emption—Plaintiff to pay certain amount within fixed period—Plaintiff unsuccessfully appealing against decision—No prayer to Appellate Court to extend time — Plaintiff trying to deposit money after expiry of period — Court not accepting — Court is not bound to extend time as S. 148 relates only to proceedings antecedent to the passing of the final decree.) * (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 330 (331). (Time fixed by decree which has become final cannot be extended.) * (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 179 (179). (Section 148 does not apply after final decree is passed.) * (1941) 1941 Pat W N 516 (519). (Suit to stand dismissed if court-fee not paid within date fixed — Order is final — Court becomes functus officio — Time for paying court-fee cannot be extended.) * (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 50 (51, 52). (Court can extend time fixed by its decree when decree is not final.)

[5] The Court should not insert contingent clauses, like "the suit shall stand dismissed if deficient court-fee is not paid within 15 days" in the decree. The proper course is to fix the time and after its expiry make the decree final dismissing the suit. (Vol 21) 1934 Nag 109 (111): 30 Nag L R 258.

[6] Section 148 does not apply to decrees in pre-emption suits and the Court cannot extend the time fixed by the pre-emption decree for payment of the purchase money. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 359 (359)* (1913) 35 All 582 (586)* (1912) 10 All L Jour 520 (521)* (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 162 (163) * (1911) 1911 Pun L R No. 22 p. 135 (136)* (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 210 (211): 19 Nag L R 8* (Vol 21) 1934 Oudh 17 (17, 18): 9 Luck 215* (Vol 7) 1920 Oudh 25 (29): 23 Oudh Cas 254* (Vol 2) 1915 Oudh 197 (197, 198). (Even when application is made before expiry of time fixed by decree, time cannot be extended).

[7] Purchase-money due under a pre-emption decree was to be paid by the 10th December. Money was remitted by the 5th but it was not paid by the post office until the 6th January. Held that, the delay not being due to any fault of decree-holder, Court could extend time. (1913) 1913 Pun L R No. 58 page 208 (209): 1913 Pun Re No. 60.

[8] Pre-emption suit — Conditional decree on payment of certain sum within certain time passed—Appeal within time for payment preferred — Appellate Court can extend time for payment under O. 41, R. 32 (Vol 15) 1928 Oudh 32 (33): 2 Luck 425.

[9] Trial Court cannot extend time fixed by its pre-emption decree for payment of the purchase money. Appellate Court can do so by its decree and not by an interlocutory order under S. 148. (Vol 31) 1944 Pesh 22 (23).

[10] The Court, either original or appellate, has no power to extend the time fixed for payment while decreeing the specific performance of a contract of sale. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 838 (838).

[11] Redemption suit — Court can extend time fixed in decree for payment of decretal amount only under O. 34, R. 8 and not under S. 148. (1912) 34 All 388 (390) * (1910) 7 Ind Cas 36 (38) (All).

[But see (Vol 2) 1915 Low Bur 100 (101). (Section 148 gives Court power to enlarge period of redemption if it thinks fit.)]

[12] Plaintiff in whose favour conditional decree was passed neither fulfilling condition within time allowed nor applying for extension — Plaintiff cannot execute decree. (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 375 (376).

3. Extension of time fixed by consent decree.—

[But see (Vol 16) 1929 All 666 (666, 667). (Consent decree on condition that if defendant deposited certain amount within certain time suit shall stand dismissed or else it shall stand decreed — Defendant depositing amount but after period fixed — Court cannot extend time for making deposit as decree is final.) * (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 817 (818). (If a time stipulated, in a compromise decree, for the performance of an obligation is an essential part of the terms of the contract, embodied in the decree, and not a mere threat of a penal nature, there is no power in the Court to make a new contract for the parties fixing some other time.) * (Vol 21) 1934 Oudh 44 (45): 9 Luck 387. (Court cannot under S. 148 enlarge time fixed by a decree. The same rule applies to time fixed for payment of mortgage-money by a compromise mortgage decree.) * (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 563 (563, 564): 13 Pat 1. (Under S. 148 Court cannot extend time fixed for payment in a compromise decree as the payment is not an act prescribed or allowed by the Code.)]

4. Extension of time fixed by award. — See Notes on S. 28, Arbitration Act, 1940.5. "Act prescribed or allowed by this Code."

—[1] The words "act prescribed by this Code" in S. 148 refer to those matters, which, by the Code, are ordered to be done within a certain time. In those matters the Court has discretion under S. 148 to extend the time. (Vol 17) 1930 Pat 279 (280) * (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 20 (21). (Appellate decree allowing amendment of plaint on condition of payment of additional court-fee and costs of defendant—Time extended for both—Order is correct as to former though not so as to latter.) * (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 424 (425). (Counsel presenting appeal with insufficient stamp without any bona fide mistake — Extension of time cannot be granted.) * (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 563 (564). (Order of stay of delivery of possession conditional on payment of kist and rent by certain date made under inherent powers under S. 151 — S. 148 applies.) * (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 153 (154). (Time fixed for payment of costs on payment of which appeal was accepted cannot be extended as payment is not an act directed by the Code).

[2] Following are the provisions fixing time for doing an act under the Code: — S. 55 (4); S. 143; O. 6 R. 18; O. 7 R. 11 (b) and (c); O. 8 R. 9; O. 9 R. 9; O. 9 R. 13; O. 21 R. 17; O. 23 R. 1; O. 25 R. 1; O. 41 R. 3, 10, 19, 21 and 26; and O. 47, R. 7 (2).

[3] Insolvency Court can extend time fixed for applying for discharge even after the expiry of the period originally fixed. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 416 (416).

[4] Court has no power under S. 148 to extend time fixed for making deposit provided under S. 174, Bengal Tenancy Act. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 275 (276) * (Vol 26) 1939 Cal 30 (31, 32).

[5] Section 148 does not authorise the Court to grant extension of time for doing an act prescribed by Pro-

149. Where the whole or any part of any fee prescribed for any document by the law for the time being in force relating to court-fees has not been paid, the Court may, in its discretion, at any stage, allow the person, by whom such fee is payable, to pay the whole or part, as the case may be, of such court-fee; and upon such payment the document, in respect of which such fee is payable, shall have the same force and effect as if such fee had been paid in the first instance.

vincial Small Cause Courts Act e. g. giving security or making deposit under S. 17 of that Act. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 111 (112).

[6] Section 148 does not apply to the extension of time for deposit of printing charges under R. 13, Oudh Rules of Practice (Vol 6) 1919 Oudh 183 (184): 22 Oudh Cas 13.

6. Discretion of Court. — [1] The power to enlarge time under S. 148 is discretionary. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 542 (543).

[2] The Appellate Court should not interfere with the discretion of the lower Court under S. 148 except in extreme cases. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 299 (302): 4 Pat 190.

[3] Partition suit with prayer to set aside alienation — Final decree of High Court putting plaintiff in possession of share of property conditional on making deposit of certain amount and on failure to do so, suit to be dismissed — Amount not deposited deliberately within time allowed by trial Court and suit dismissed — Appellate Court cannot interfere with exercise of discretion by trial Court and grant further time. (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 82 (84).

[4] Litigants who are guilty of gross laches and who refuse to comply with the orders of the Court ought to be shown no indulgence under S. 148. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 543 (545): 4 Pat L Jour 428.

[5] The discretion conferred by S. 148 of the Code cannot be arbitrarily exercised in matters to which the rules of limitation apply, and in which, by those rules the Court can only extend the time after a proper judicial consideration of the cause shown under S. 5 or the fraud established under S. 18, Limitation Act. A Court arbitrarily granting an application for restoration of a suit long after the period of limitation has expired acts without jurisdiction and its order is open to revision. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 543 (544, 545): 4 Pat L Jour 428. ((Vol 5) 1918 Pat 390: 3 Pat L Jour 376 distinguished.)

7. Implied extension of time. — [1] Where an application for execution was made just within the limitation period but was returned by Court for amendment of certain formal defects within a certain time and the application after amendment was re-filed after that time and beyond the limitation period, with a prayer that the delay might be excused in view of the circumstances stated therein and the Court accepted and acted upon the application, it was held that the Court had in effect enlarged the time in the exercise of its discretion under this section. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 356 (357).

8. Court to which application for extension should be made. — [1] An Appellate Court only can modify the terms of the decree after it is appealed against and it is only that Court that can extend time fixed for execution or suspend the order made in it. (1910) 37 Cal 548 (550).

[2] Where an appeal has been dismissed the trial Court can enlarge the time fixed by the order appealed from. (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 500 (501).

9. Appeal. — [1] No appeal lies from an order under S. 148. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 162 (163) * (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 500 (501).

[2] Under S. 148, Court cannot extend the time fixed by the pre-emption decree for payment of the purchase money. An order extending time fixed for payment comes under S. 47 and is appealable as a decree. (1912) 10 All L Jour 520 (521).

10. Revision. — [1] A revision lies against an order dismissing an application under S. 148 for extension of time fixed for payment under the terms of a decree. (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 330 (330).

[2] Order under S. 148 without jurisdiction — Court should not refuse to interfere in revision merely on ground of hardship to person adversely affected. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 706 (706).

1. Applicability and scope. — [1] Section 6 of Court-fees Act does not bar application of S. 149. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 220 (221): 1 I L R (1941) Nag 467.

[2] Section 4, Court-fees Act, cannot be nullified by S. 149. (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 26 (27): 3 Pat L Jour 74.

[3] Section 149 does not control O 7, R. 11. (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 377 (378): 1917 Pun Re No. 27.

[4] Payment of court-fee after presentation of plaint — Plaint takes effect as if presented with full court-fee on date of its first presentation — No question of limitation arises where plaint as originally filed is within time. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 934 (936) * (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 111 (112) * (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 564 (566) * (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 598 (598, 599): 14 Lah 312. (Proper court-fee not affixed in appeal filed in time — Court giving time for making up court-fee — Dismissal of appeal as being time-barred for not having affixed proper court-fee at time of presentation is wrong.) * (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 21 (22) * (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 560 (562) * (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 136 (137, 138): 1 Pat L Jour 420.

2. Payment of court-fees after the period of limitation. — [1] Appeal presented on unstamped or insufficiently stamped paper — No order granting time passed under S. 149 — Presentation of appeal is not valid presentation. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 316 (317) * (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 796 (797).

[2] Suit presented to Senior Sub-Judge being officer for distributing plaints — Plaintiff being insufficiently stamped he called upon plaintiff to make up deficiency within certain time — Deficiency made up but at such time when suit was barred by time and plaintiff then sent to proper Court — Suit having reached trial Court properly stamped, fact of Senior Subordinate Judge extending time to make up deficiency, though not authorized to do so, held was immaterial — Suit held to be in time. (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 392 (393).

[3] Court calling upon plaintiff to pay deficient court-fee within certain time — Plaintiff failing to do so — Deficiency made good after period of limitation — Suit will be barred. (1911) 13 Cal L Jour 78 (80).

[4] Plaint presented within limitation — Deficiency in court-fee made good beyond limitation — Court accepting same — Court must be deemed to have granted time by such acceptance. (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 111 (112) * (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 701 (703) * (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 170 (170).

3. "Any document." — [1] Section applies to an application to set aside an award. (Vol 15) 1928 Sind 87 (88) : 23 Sind L R 91.

[2] Section 149 applies to written statement claiming set-off. (Vol 22) 1935 Pat 110 (111).

4. "For the time being in force." — [1] Court-fee payable according to the law "for the time being in force" must mean the court-fee payable according to the scale which was in force when the document was filed. (Vol 19) 1932 Oudh 343 (344).

5. Discretion of Court. — [1] Court will not exercise its discretion under S. 149 unless it is satisfied that some grounds exist for the exercise of its discretion and a bona fide mistake has been made in the valuation. [13] Amount of court-fee controversial — Appellant showing reasonable cause for not paying requisite court-fee — Time should be extended. (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 24 (26).

6. "Whole or any part of any fee."—[1] Discretion under S. 149 is given to Court even where no part of court-fee has been paid. (Vol 16) 1929 P C 147 (148); 56 Ind App 232 : 10 Lah 737 (PC) & (Vol 22) 1935 Pat 110 (111). (Court is not debarred from going into question of set-off if proper court-fee is not paid—It can do so and ask party to pay it at any time.)

[2] Section 149 contemplates cases in which payment of duty is insufficient ab initio and not those under S. 11, para. 2, Court-fees Act, (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 224 (227). [See also (1911) 13 Cal L Jour 432 (433). (In such cases under S. 11., Court-fees Act, Court can enlarge time originally fixed.)]

[8] Appeal insufficiently stamped — Court refusing indulgence under S. 149 and dismissing appeal as time barred — Court should have heard appeal so far as court-fee was paid and was within time. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 237 (238).

7. "At any stage."—[1] Under S. 149 Court has power to allow payment of court-fee at any time — Deficiency in court-fee made within time allowed by Court — Plaintiff is validated retrospectively from date of presentation. [5] Execution application in time—Court-fee payable in decree but no time fixed for payment—Court-fee paid late—Application is not time barred and Court can allow time. (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 720 (720).

[6] Decree passed on condition that court-fees were to be deposited—Court accepting court-fees paid more than three years after decree — Limitation starts only from date decree becomes complete by payment of such court-fees. (Vol 25) 1938 All 539 (540); I L R (1938) All 848.

8. Power of appellate or revisional Court to interfere with the discretion of the lower Court. — [1] An Appellate Court cannot question the propriety of an order under S. 149 for the payment of the deficit court-fee if the order is not objected to when made or in the Court which made it. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 281 (282).

[3] Court acting under S. 149 should be presumed to have exercised real discretion and Appellate Court should not go into question whether it exercised discretion. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 542 (544).

[4] Appellate Court not exercising its discretion as regards granting time to make deficiency in court-fees and rejecting memorandum of appeal — Order will be set aside in second appeal. (Vol 10) 1923 All 349 (349).

[5] Suit by plaintiff for possession of his share in house — At advanced stage of suit, defendant raising plea that value of house was much more — Plaintiff is entitled to extension of time to make good deficiency in court-fee — Refusal to grant extension amounts to improper exercise of discretion. SECTION 150 — SYNOPSIS

1a. Object of the section.

1. "Save as otherwise provided."
2. Transfer of business.
3. Abolition of Court.

1a Object of the section.—[1] Section 150 has been framed to meet the difficulties, which sometimes arise, on account of the abolition of any Court, or the transfer of any local area from the jurisdiction of one Court to that of another Court in consequence of which the business of one Court is transferred to another Court. (Vol 24) 1937 All 515 (522): I L R (1937) All 670.

1. "Save as otherwise provided."—[1] The words "save as otherwise provided" in S. 150 only mean that the Court, to which the business is transferred, will have all the powers, unless it is expressly or impliedly provided that no Court, other than the one specified, can exercise the power. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 226 (229): 17 Luck 739. (Oudh Chief Court can amend decree of Judicial Commissioner's Court.)

[2] Words "save as otherwise provided" do not exclude execution cases from purview of section. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 532 (533): 47 Cal 1100. (Preliminary decree passed by Munsif — Successor not having power, final decree passed by Sub-Judge — Munsif in meantime obtaining power—He can execute decree.)

[3] Section 150 enables decree-holder to file execution petition in the first instance in Court to which business has been transferred. (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 152 (155).

151. Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the Court to make such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of the process of the Court.

(Transfer of business must be proved for section to apply.) * (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 260 (262, 263).

[4] Whole business of Court passing ex parte decree transferred to another Court—Latter Court has jurisdiction to set aside ex parte decree. (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 10 (11) : 46 Mad 1.

2. Transfer of business.—[1] Section 150 refers only to case where business is actually transferred. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 746 (749).

[2] High Court notification effecting change of venue and of jurisdiction cannot be interpreted as effecting transfer of past business under S. 150. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 418 (421) : 55 Mad 801 (S B).

[3] Notification regarding re-distribution of territorial jurisdiction made applicable only to future business and not to pending cases—S. 150 does not apply to application under S. 144 arising out of pending suit. (Vol 24) 1937 All 515 (522) : I L R (1937) All 670.

[4] The word "transfer" in S. 150 is not confined only to transfer made under special provisions of Civil P. C., such as S. 24, but it covers transfers of a local area from the jurisdiction of one Court to another. (Vol 24) 1937 All 515 (522) : I L R (1937) All 670.

[5] Court passing decree can execute same although it has lost territorial jurisdiction. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 427 (431) : 42 Mad 821 (F B) * (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 418 (419, 420) : 55 Mad 801 (S B). ((Vol 1) 1914 Mad 162 : 37 Mad 462, held overruled in (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 427 : 42 Mad 821 (F B); (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 627 : 50 Mad 882 which is opposed to (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 427 : 42 Mad 821 (F B) held no longer good law.) * (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 746 (749).

[6] Mortgage decree—Subsequent transfer of territorial jurisdiction—Second Court cannot execute decree without its transmission by first Court. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 418 (419) : 55 Mad 801 (S B) * (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 528 (530) : 53 Mad 378 * (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 746 (750, 751) * (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1140 (1142).

[8] Court which passed decree transferred to another province but property covered by decree retained in original province—Business of former Court held transferred to Court in latter province. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 617 (625).

[9] Section 150 applies not only when the whole of the business of the Court with reference to the whole of its jurisdiction is transferred to another Court, but also to a case of partial adjustment of jurisdiction and transfer of its business with reference to that part alone to another Court (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 10 (11) : 46 Mad 1.

3. Abolition of Court.—[1] Court in which suit was filed abolished—On abolition, Court in which suit might have been instituted has jurisdiction to continue suit. (1912) 13 Ind Cas 542 (543, 544) (Cal).

[2] Court passing decree abolished and re-established—It can execute decree if it can try the suit to which decree relates. (Vol 13) 1926 Pat 209 (209) : 4 Pat 688.

[3] Court passing decree abolished—Court to which its business is transferred is competent to execute decree. (Vol 16) 1929 All 677 (680).

[4] In Punjab Court of District is essentially new Court and not merely successor or transferee of business of Court of former Divisional Judge—Former Court cannot continue proceedings instituted in latter Court. (Vol 2) 1915 Lah 171 (172) : 1915 Pun Re No. 30.

[5] Section 150 only applies to cases of transfer from a Court and not to cases of a Court ceasing to exist. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 627 (628) : 50 Mad 882.

1. Inherent power.—[1] The Court has power to act under this section in cases which are not covered by the express provisions of the Code and where in justice has to be done. [2] The Court may act under this section where prescribed rules of procedure are abused, or used to give a mere formality the significance of substantive effect. (Vol 10) 1923 P C 128 (135) : 50 Ind App 183 : 2 Pat 676 (P C) * (Vol 15) 1928 P C 261 (262) (P C).

[4] Courts are to act upon the principle that every procedure is to be understood as permissible till it is shown to be prohibited by the law. As a matter of general principle prohibitions cannot be presumed. (1838) 5 All 163 (172) (F B).

[5] Every Court must, in the absence of express provision, be deemed to possess all such powers as are necessary to do the right and to undo a wrong. (1856) 6 Moo Ind App 393 (410, 411) (P C).

[6] Where there is no express provision, the Court has inherent power to determine how its proceedings should be conducted. (Vol 20) 1933 P C 43 (44, 45) (P C).

[7] The Court has an inherent power to act according to justice, equity and good conscience, especially in India, where every Court is a Court of equity as well as of law. (Vol 26) 1939 All 668 (669) * (Vol 12) 1925

[9] This section saves the inherent powers of the Courts to make orders necessary for the ends of justice. (1913) 35 All 331 (336, 337) : 40 Ind App 151 : 16 Oudh Cas 194 (P C) * (Vol 22) 1935 All 599 (599) : 57 All 977 (F B) * (Vol 23) 1936 Rang 208 (210) : 14 Rang 173 (F B).

[10] The inherent powers of the Court are very wide and indefinable. (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 11 (13). (It is dangerous to attempt definition of the inherent powers of the Court.)

[11a] Where there are express provisions of law there is no inherent power in the Court to override them. [14] The Court has a special inherent jurisdiction derived from the Crown as parens patrie to protect the interests of minors. (Vol 29) 1942 All 150 (152) : I L R (1942) All 144.

[15] Section 151 does not confer upon a Court the power to exercise a jurisdiction which it does not otherwise possess (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 103 (104).

2. Court cannot override express provisions of law.—[1] The inherent power of a Court exists only where there is no express provision of law applicable to the case. [6] Order of apportionment of compensation awarded for acquisition of land under misapprehension of facts — Decree in conformity with judgment — Section 152 has no application. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 743 (744) : 5 Pat L Jour 253.

[7] Test whether the slip or omission is accidental or not is to see whether the order as it stands represents the intention of the Judge at the time he made it. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 226 (229) : 17 Luck 739 * (Vol 18) 1931 Oudh 422 (423) * (1910) 13 Oudh Cas 114 (118).

[8] Whereby allowing a correct description of property the plaint will be completely altered and also the decree and the deed on which the plaint is based, the correction is not of a clerical mistake. (Vol 21) 1934 All 100 (101).

[See also (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 399 (401). (Question involving identity of property mortgaged cannot be dealt with on an application to amend.)]

[9] Court which amends a decree on account of clerical or accidental slip or omission must be satisfied that such a slip or omission has occurred, either because it was obvious on the face of record or because of evidence adduced before it. (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 230 (230).

[See however (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 203 (205). (Evidence is not admissible to show that there is any arithmetical or clerical error in judgment)]

[10] A judgment once signed shall not afterwards be altered or added to, save as provided by this section or on review : see Order 20 Rule 3.

2. Mistakes originating in pleadings.—[1] Court can amend errors in decree without amending pleadings where errors first appeared. (Error in description of mortgaged property in plaint—Preliminary and final decree drawn up in accordance with it can be amended.) * (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 399 (400). (Error in description of mortgaged property in the plaint—Only preliminary and final decree can be amended—The execution papers cannot be amended.) * (Vol 29) 1942 Rang 56 (57). (Heading of application by mistake stating that an application by the legal representative to record adjustment was by A who was dead. Section 152 applies.)

3. Mistakes anterior to suit. — [1] Accidental mistakes may be amended even though they may have an origin anterior to the suit. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 260 (262, 263) * (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 940 (940). (Section 152 applies to mistakes in document evidencing transaction itself and copied in plaint and decree in suit to enforce transaction.) * (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 275 (278, 279). (Decree may be amended after rectification of deed in the suit.) * (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 104 (104).

4. Inherent powers of Court. — [1] Court can correct any mistake in judgment, decree or order—This power is granted not only under S. 152 but under S. 151 and S. 153 also. (Vol 22) 1935 Oudh 92 (93) : 10 Luck 496 * (Vol 19) 1932 All 587 (589) : 54 All 800 * (1910) 37 Cal 649 (657) * (Vol 21) 1934 Oudh 352 (353) : 8 Luck 734 * (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 135 (138) * (Vol 10) 1923 All 119 (120). (Decree drawn up in terms of interlocutory application instead of according to final order owing to mistake on part of ministerial servant.) * (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 96 (98). (Judgment directing that costs of appeal would be costs in suit—Decree providing that costs of original hearing and re-trial ordered thereby as well as the costs of appeal, to abide result of trial—Decree held could be amended to agree with judgment.) * (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 520 (521). (Judgment giving mortgage decree—Decree wrongly drafted so as to give only a charge—Decree may be amended.)

[2] Courts in India have inherent power to amend or vary decrees so as to bring them in accord with the judgments even if the amendments do not fall within S. 152. (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 30 (31) : 1919 Pun Re No. 92 * (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 216 (216). (Powers are wide to avoid reductio ad absurdum.)

[3] Mistake not clerical nor arithmetical nor arising from accidental slip or omission—Court cannot correct it under S. 152—Ss. 151 and 152 cannot be invoked to correct erroneous judgment or decree—Remedy of aggrieved party is to appeal or apply for review. (Vol 28) 1941 Lah 419 (420) * (1913) 7 Sind L R 186 (187). (Section 152 does not contemplate the practical reversal of the Court's finding on a formal issue.) * (Vol 18) 1931 All 427 (428) * (Vol 29) 1942 Pat 328 (328, 329). (Question of contentious nature—S. 152 cannot be invoked—Execution sale—Question whether description of property by khewat numbers or its description by area should prevail—Question cannot be dealt with under Ss. 151 and 152—It can be decided in separate suit.) * (Vol 33) 1946 Pat 190 (191). (Question of contentious nature—S. 152 cannot be invoked—Usufructuary mortgage right whether sold not determined—Sale certificate cannot be amended by adding reference to mortgage bond.) * (Vol 27) 1940 Oudh 298 (300, 301). (Error in opinion of trial Court not being one arising from accidental slip or omission—Error in opinion of High Court due to negligence of parties—It is not proper for High Court to amend decree and judgment.) * (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 589 (591). (Judgment containing two contradictory directions as regards decree—Decree drawn according to earlier and operative part of judgment—No application under S. 152 for amendment of decree lies.) * (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 290 (292) * (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 381 (382, 383).

[4] A Court cannot amend a decree which is already in conformity with the judgment, so as to make it conform with facts which the plaintiff could have but has not alleged in his plaint. (1909) 2 Ind Cas 551 (551) (All) * (Vol 14) 1927 Pat 405 (406) * (1886) 8 All 377 (380) * (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 403 (404) * (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 29 (30). (Decree following judgment and silent with respect to payment of further interest from date of decree to date of payment—Omission even if accidental cannot be rectified.) * (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 225 (226) * (Vol 4) 1917 All 166 (167). (A decree against one person cannot be amended by adding another as judgment-debtor when no decree has been passed against him.)

[5] The jurisdiction of Privy Council to recommend alteration of a former order on the ground that by inadvertence it does not give effect to its intention as expressed in the judgment is undoubted. (Vol 18) 1931 P C 104 (106) : 58 Ind App 141 : 58 Cal 1281 (P C).

5. "May ... be corrected." — [1] Party has no right to have mistakes corrected—Discretion is left with Court. (Vol 20) 1933 Oudh 529 (530) : 9 Luck 162 * (Vol 12) 1925 All 187 (188) : 47 All 44 * (Vol 12) 1925 All 556 (556). (Court has jurisdiction to refuse amendment of decree.) * (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 4 (6). [2] Mistakes can be corrected unless it is inequitable to do so. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 226 (229, 230) : 17 Luck 739.

[3] Sufficient explanation for delay in amending decree not forthcoming—Amendment was refused. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 563 (564, 566, 568).

6. "At any time." — [1] There is no period of limitation for an amendment of decree to correct an accidental slip or omission under S. 152. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 127 (128) : 1 L R (1940) Mad 349 (FB) * (1887) 10 Mad 51 (52) * (1913) 7 Sind L R 53 (54).

[2] Court can amend decree to conform with judgment at any time—There is no time limit to such amendment. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 895 (897) * (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 414 (415) * (1887) 11 Bom 284 (285) * (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 830 (832). (Payment of decree-money to decree-holder does not disentitle him from applying for amendment of decree.) * (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 908 (908) * (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 226 (230) : 17 Luck 739. (Amendment can be allowed even if limitation for appeal against decree has expired.) * (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 344 (347, 348) * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 418 (419) * (Vol 8) 1921 Oudh 190 (190) * (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 218 (218).

[3] The amendment of a decree the satisfaction of which had been recorded is a nullity unless steps were also taken to have the order of satisfaction set aside. (1902) 12 Mad L Jour 96 (97) * (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 516 (517). (Correction involving a larger sum due by one party to another long after satisfaction of decree cannot be made.)

[But see (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 344 (347).]

[See also (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 96 (99). (Applicant not appearing in appeal which resulted in decree and hence having no knowledge of discrepancy between judgment and decree — Delay in making application in these circumstances held not fatal to granting it.)]

[See however (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 226 (230): 17 Luck 739. (Mistake of Court — No question of laches arises.)]

[5] Even accidental error should not be amended if third parties have acquired rights under the erroneous judgment in the interval. (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 408 (410) * (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 399 (403): 54 Mad 184 * (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 217 (220): 13 Luck 101 (F B) * (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 344 (348) * (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 627 (629): 60 Cal 753 * (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 57 (57) * (1913) 7 Low Bur Rul 81 (82) * (Vol 12) 1925 Bom 389 (390).

7. Court by which amendment can be made.—

[1] Amendment of decree — Lower Court cannot amend after decree has been superseded by that of the superior Court. (Vol 8) 1921 Upp Bur 5 (6): 4 Upp Bur Rul 1 * (Vol 4) 1917 All 417 (418).

[2] Where the decree of the lower Court is confirmed, reversed or varied in appeal it is superseded by the decree of the appellate Court and the Court that can amend decree in such a case is the appellate Court. [3] The dismissal of an appeal on the ground that no appeal lies on the judgment does not amount to the confirmation of the original decree or superseding it, and the lower Court can amend its own decree. [5] Where an appeal is dismissed for default, the dismissal does not amount to a confirmation and an application for amendment of the decree must be made to the Court which passed the decree appealed from and not to the Court which dismissed the appeal. (Vol 4) 1917 Nag 24 (24).

[But see (1911) 10 Ind Cas 96 (97) (Mad). (Appellate Court can amend decree of lower Court and bring it in conformity with its own judgment even though appeal is dismissed in default.)]

[See however (Vol 3) 1916 All 170 (170). (High Court cannot amend a decree which is the subject-matter of an appeal to the Privy Council.)]

[9] Appeal pending — Appellate Court can also correct clerical or arithmetical mistake in the trial Court's decree. (Vol 15) 1928 All 458 (459).

Section 152 (contd.)

[10] The executing Court has no power to go behind the decree and therefore a plaintiff obtaining a decree for specific share will not be entitled to more on the ground of arithmetical error unless the mistake is rectified under S. 152 by the Court which passed the decree. (1911) 9 Ind Cas 433 (434) (Oudh).

[11] "Court" in S. 152, Civil P. C., does not mean only the particular presiding Judge, who may have made the mistakes—"Court" must always mean Court, whoever may be the presiding officer of the Court. (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 306 (307).

[12] Successor of Judge can correct clerical error. (Vol 7) 1920 All 64(65) (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 423(424). [See also (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 184 (185) : 44 Cal 28.]

[14] Insolvency Court has jurisdiction to correct errors under S. 152. (Vol 6) 1919 All 264 (264).

8. "Of its own motion."—[1] Under S. 152 the correction of the decree can be made by the Court of its own motion. (Vol 16) 1929 All 337 (337) : 51 All 672 (Vol 23) 1936 Sind 53 (55) : 29 Sind L R 445 (1913) 7 Sind L R 53 (54) (1897) 11 Bom 284 (285) (Vol 5) 1918 Nag 41 (44).

[2] It is the duty of the Court to amend the decree under this section whenever it is found to be not in conformity with its judgment. (1894) 21 Cal 259 (261).

9. Who may apply.—[1] Non-party can move Court under S. 152 to correct decree. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 226 (229) : 17 Luck 739.

[2] A purchaser of decree purchases the rights in the decree and if one of these rights vesting in the vendor is a right to have the decree amended under the law, this right also passes to vendee. (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 255 (256).

[3] Appeal abating against deceased respondent but decided on merits against other respondents—Legal representatives of deceased respondent should apply to appellate Court for amendment of decree. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 123 (123, 125).

10. Notice of amendment.—[1] Entry in decree made on application of party and after hearing objection of opposite party—Court cannot correct such entry on application of opposite party behind back of applicant. (Vol 22) 1935 All 841 (841) (1865) 25 Suth W R (Misc) 15 (16).

[2] Amendment of decree without giving opportunity to the party against whom it is to operate is open to review. (Vol 13) 1926 All 884 (886) : 48 All 281.

11. Effect of amendment.—[1] General rule is that amendment of decree dates back to date of decree. (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 217 (220) : 13 Luck 101 (F B).

[2] Transferees in good faith for valuable consideration and without notice of mistake are protected—Persons not parties to amendment—Amendment takes effect from date it is made and not date of decree. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 226 (231) : 17 Luck 739.

[3] A correction made in a time-barred decree leaves the decree still time barred. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 127 (128) : 1 L R (1940) Mad 349 (FB).

12. Successive applications for amendment.—

[1] First application for amendment of decree dismissed on merits—Subsequent application for substantially the same relief is ordinarily barred. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 244 (245) (1912) 39 Cal 265 (274). (Application for amendment dismissed for default—There is nothing to prevent Court from hearing another application in the same matter.)

[2] First application for amendment of decree refused erroneously—Second application materially differing from the first is competent. (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 57 (57) : 4 Rang 347.

13. Consent decrees.—[1] Consent order—Clerical or mathematical mistake can be corrected under S. 152. (Vol 24) 1937 Bom 457 (457, 458) : 1 L R (1937) Bom 337.

[2] Section 152, Civil P. C., authorises the Court to remedy errors in formal expression of its order occasioned by its own indolence and if a compromise decree does not embody all the terms of the compromise the decree can be corrected. (1913) 21 Ind Cas 115 (116) (Cal) (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 352 (353) : 9 Lah 176 (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 400 (402). (Judgment-debtor applying for correction of compromise decree—Decree-holder cannot plead that compromise was obtained by fraud.)

[3] Suit compromised—Decree agreed to be realized from assets of deceased in A's hands—Court in the decree making A also personally liable if decree not realized from assets—Court itself has jurisdiction to correct it under S. 152. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 254 (254).

[4] Petition of compromise ambiguous—Clause not contained in compromise petition added in decree with knowledge and consent of parties—Held decree gave expression to true intention of parties and should not be amended. (1903) 7 Cal W N 880 (882, 883) (F B).

[5] Suit for partnership accounts compromised deciding S entitled to three annas share—Decree ordering in terms of compromise, S to be entitled to that share—S seeking execution of decree and praying alternatively to amend decree if it be not in terms of compromise—Decree held was in terms of compromise, merely declaratory and incapable of execution, and it could not be amended. (Vol 16) 1929 Nag 34 (36).

[6] Consent decree—Application to amend consent decree on ground of fraud is entirely outside S. 152. (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 470 (471) : 57 Cal 154.

[7] Amendment of decree under S. 152 is justified only when it is for clerical error or arithmetical mistake. The only remedy in the case of a decree not agreeing with compromise arrived at, is by suit to set it aside either on the ground of fraud, mistake or some other ground. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 232 (232) : 4 Pat L Jour 205.

[8] A consent decree can be varied for reasons not coming under S. 152 only by consent. (Vol 1) 1914 Bom 127 (127) (Vol 1) 1914 Bom 109 (109) (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 51 (51) : 57 Cal 1143.

14. Award.—[1] Section applies to clerical and accidental errors in judgments and decrees based on awards. Court can refer to arbitrator to ascertain whether there was clerical error in the award. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 426 (427) (Vol 19) 1932 Oudh 293 (295).

[See also (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 720 (727).]

[2] Court cannot amend by calling for a report from the arbitrators but should examine them. (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 230 (230).

15. Suit to rectify mistake, if lies.—[1] Where a decree has been passed by a Court of competent jurisdiction no suit will lie to set it aside except on the ground of fraud. (Vol 2) 1915 P C 99 (101) : 37 All 485 : 42 Ind App 171 (P O) (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 816 (817) : 43 Cal 217. (Variation between decree and judgment—Suit does not lie—It is matter for amendment.) (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 296 (298). (Suit for possession based on decree in partition suit—Decree alleged to be incorrect—Action for rectification of decree does not lie.)

[2] It has been held in the undermentioned cases that a suit lies to rectify a decree on the ground of mistake (1904) 8 Cal W N 473 (476) (1911) 11 Ind Cas 537 (539) (Oudh).

[3] The following cases hold that a suit to correct a decree on the ground of mistake does not lie. (1912) 15 Cal L Jour 675 (677) (1906) 10 Cal W N 1024 (1025).

153. The Court may at any time, and on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it may think fit, amend any defect or error in any proceeding in a suit; and all necessary amendments shall be made for the purpose of determining the real question or issue raised by or depending on such proceeding.

[4] Amendment sought on the ground of subsequent change in the circumstances — Suit and not an amendment would be appropriate remedy. (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 696 (698).

16. Appeal. — [1] An order under this section is not a decree. (1901) 28 Cal 177 (180) * (1911) 1911 Pun L R No. 186 page 687 (688) : 1911 Pun Re No. 24.

[2] Order amending or refusing to amend judgment, decree or order under S. 151 or S. 152 is not appealable. (Appeal lies from amended decree where amendment has effect of appreciably adding to right of decree-holder.)

[See also (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 573 (575). (Correction of accidental or clerical mistakes though purporting to be made in review really falls under this section and in such cases no new decree is substituted for the old one and appeal lies from the original decree.)]

17. Revision. — [1] There is no remedy except by revision in respect of an order passed under S. 152. (1885) 7 All 876 (877) (F B) * (Vol 28) 1941 Lah 419 (419, 420) : I L R (1942) Lah 212 * (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 143 (143). (Amendment refused to be considered on merits on ground of decree having been signed by party's pleader.—Revision allowed.)

[2] Wrong refusal to amend decree is failure to exercise jurisdiction and the order is revisable. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 664 (664) * (Vol 22) 1935 Oudh 461 (462) : 11 Luck 413 * (Vol 21) 1934 Oudh 352 (354) : 8 Luck 734 * (Vol 18) 1931 Oudh 422 (424).

[3] Order amending decree without jurisdiction — High Court can in special circumstances entertain revision even when remedy by way of appeal from amended decree is available. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 538 (539). (1901) 24 Mad 646, not approved.

[4] Refusal to amend a decree on the ground that previous applications were dismissed for default is an error in law which will justify a review but not revision. (1887) 10 Mad 51 (52).

[5] Decree-holder applying to have decree amended by bringing description of land contained therein in accordance with that contained in the hypothecation bond — Decree amended — High Court will not interfere merely because lower Court relied on wrong section. (1893) 16 Mad 424 (427, 428).

[6] High Court will not in revision interfere with an order where it is doubtful whether the error can be considered as clerical or arithmetical mistake. (Vol 2) 1915 All 102 (104).

SECTION 153 — SYNOPSIS.

1. "Any proceeding in suit."
2. Applicability and scope.
3. "At any time."
4. "Defect or error."

1. "Any proceeding in suit." — [1] Word 'proceeding' means 'any application to a Court of justice, however made, for aid in enforcement of rights, for relief, for redress of injuries, for damages, or for any remedial object.' (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 342 (343).

[2] "Proceeding" includes an appeal. (Vol 17) 1930 All 131 (132) * (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 305 (306). (Appeal against dead respondent—Legal representative can be substituted and time for substitution can be excused.) * (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1210 (1210) : 49 Mad 18 (F B). (Appeal against dead person—Cause title may be amended by inserting the name of respondent's legal representatives — (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 56, overruled.)

[3] Application for execution. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 337 (337). (Application for execution dismissed — Attachment ceases—Subsequent application for execution by sale only is defective—Defect is curable by amendment.) * (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 342 (343). (Application for challan and application for deposit not containing express prayer for setting aside sale — Amendment by addition of necessary prayer should be allowed.)

[4] Vakalatnama. (Vol 21) 1934 All 810 (811). (Vakil's name omitted in body of vakalatnama by clerical error—Vakil accepting vakalatnama and presenting plaint — Application to correct vakalatnama — Court can do so and presentation of plaint is valid.)

[5] Sale certificate. (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 63 (64, 65). (No notice to judgment-debtor of amendment of sale certificate—Amendment is irregular—But not revisable in absence of injustice to parties.)

2. Applicability and scope. — [1] Powers of amendment under this section are very wide. (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 347 (348) : 1 Pat L Jour 893 * (Vol 19) 1932 All 587 (588, 589) : 54 All 800.

[2] The object of the section is that merest technicalities may not stand in the way of substantial justice. (Vol 30) 1943 Nag 293 (295) : I L R (1943) Nag 603 * (Vol 20) 1933 All 295 (297) : 55 All 216 * (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 282 (283) : 3 Rang 183 (F B). (Amendment should be allowed where the refusal would result in another but successful suit.)

Saving of present right of appeal.

154. Nothing in this Code shall affect any present right of appeal which shall have accrued to any party at its commencement.

Amendment of certain Acts.

155. The enactments mentioned in the Fourth Schedule are hereby amended to the extent specified in the fourth column thereof.

156. [Repeals.] Repealed by the Second Repealing and Amending Act, 1914 (XVII of 1914), Section 3 and Schedule II.

157. Notifications published, declarations and rules made, places appointed, agreements filed, scales prescribed, forms framed, appointments made and powers conferred under Act VIII of 1859 or under any Code of Civil Procedure or any Act amending the same or under any other enactment hereby repealed shall, so far as they are consistent with this Code, have the same force and effect as if they had been respectively published, made, appointed, filed, prescribed, framed and conferred under this Code and by the authority empowered thereby in such behalf.

158. In every enactment or notification passed or issued before the commencement of this Code in which reference is made to or to any Chapter or section of Act VIII of 1859 or any Code of Civil Procedure or any Act amending the same or any other enactment hereby repealed, such reference shall, so far as may be practicable, be taken to be made to this Code or to its corresponding Part, Order, section or rule.

Oudh 369 (371) : 11 Luck 150*(Vol 23) 1936 Pesh 192 (192, 193).

[4] Where there is no prejudice or injustice to the other party, amendment can be allowed. (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 417 (418) * (Vol 8) 1921 All 321 (322) * (Vol 24) 1937 Nag 173 (174) : I L R (1937) Nag 514 * (1887) 19 Q B D 394 (396).

[5] But Court cannot allow an amendment so as to alter the real matter in controversy between the parties. (Vol 9) 1922 P C 249 (250) : 48 Cal 832 : 48 Ind App 214 : 4 Upp Bur Rul 30 (P C). (Suit for specific performance for delivery of certain sites cannot be converted into a claim for damages for breach.)

[6] See also the following decisions : (Vol 12) 1925 All 142 (142). (Overvaluing a suit to get round a previous decision — Proper procedure is to return plaint.) * (Vol 11) 1924 Bom 166 (169). (Rule 258 of Bombay High Court Rules does not bar application for amendment of decree or order that is not final.) * (Vol 30) 1943 Nag 293 (295) : I L R (1943) Nag 603. (Having once chosen a forum the plaintiff cannot alter the forum by relinquishing a part of the claim; and such power cannot be exercised by Court under O. 2, R. 2 or S. 153 or even under S. 151.)

3. "At any time."—[1] Amendment of pleadings by original Court cannot be allowed after the decree has been actually drawn up and sealed.—Review is the only remedy. (Vol 11) 1924 Bom 166 (166, 168).

[2] Amendments of clerical mistakes are allowed even in second appeals. (Vol 9) 1922 All 81 (81).

[3] Pleadings engaged by authorised agent of appellant — Appellant died before presentation of appeal — Memo itself is not existent — Court has no discretion to amend memo of appeal under S. 153. (Vol 21) 1934 Nag 274 (276) : 31 Nag L R 57.

[4] Application returned for amendment — No time fixed — Amended application though presented long after, must be deemed to be a continuation of prior proceeding. (Vol 9) 1922 All 446 (447).

4. "Defect or error."—[1] When the dismissal order was not an error or defect in the proceedings, this section has no application. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 121 (121) : 4 Pat L Jour 287.

Section 154 — Note 1.

[1] The general law that a right of appeal is more than a matter of procedure and an alteration of the law of procedure would not react upon the right of appeal, is superseded by S. 154. (1912) 6 Sind L R 168 (174).

[2] Section 154 does not affect any right of appeal accrued to a party before the new Code came into force and was open to the party at the commencement of the new Code. (1910) 7 All L Jour 1070 (1073) * (1911) 21 Mad L Jour 631 (635) * (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 126 (128).

[3] Section 154 has no bearing on the powers of an Appellate Court in dealing with appeals before it. (1911) 9 Ind Cas 815 (816) (Cal).

Section 155. — [1] As to the applicability of this section to any suit or proceeding in the Court of Small Causes established in the towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, see section 8.

Section 157 — Note 1.

[1] "Rules made" means rules properly and validly framed by proper authority. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 1165 (1166).

THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

ORDER I.

PARTIES TO SUITS.

1. All persons may be joined in one suit as plaintiffs in whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly,³ severally,⁴ or in the alternative,⁵ where, if such persons brought separate suits, any common question of law or fact would arise.

Objects and Reasons.

'Rule 1. — The words 'act or' have been added before the word 'transaction.' — S. C. R.

Order 1 — General.

1. Scope. — [1] Per Jenkins, C. J.—"If we turn to the Code we find, as the essentials of a suit opposing parties, a subject in dispute, a cause of action and a demand of relief." (1907) 31 Bom 393 (398).

[2] This Order deals with the subject of parties to suits and, among other things, with the joinder, misjoinder and nonjoinder of parties and to a certain extent with the joinder of causes of action. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 858 (859) : 45 Cal 111 * (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 573 (574) : 63 Cal 163. (Order 1, R. 1 applies to joinder of parties as well as causes of action.) * (Vol 15) 1928 Cal 199 (200, 201) : 55 Cal 164 * (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 66 (68) : 19 Sind L R 395.

[3] Though Order 1 in terms refers only to 'suits', its provisions are also applicable to joinder of parties to appeals. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 688 (689).

2. Parties. — [1] Parties to suit are persons whose names appear on record as parties. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 263 (264).

[2] Benamidar being party to suit does not make real owner party to suit. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 263 (264).

[3] The same individual, even in different capacities cannot be both a plaintiff and defendant to one and the same action—Hence where an individual is a common partner in two houses of trade, no action can be brought by one house against the other house upon any transaction between them while such individual is a common partner. (1901) 25 Bom 606 (612). [See (Vol 13)

1926 Sind 4 (4). (The above rule was relaxed in this case on grounds of equity.)]

ORDER 1, RULE 1—SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope.
2. What persons may be joined as plaintiffs.
3. Jointly.
4. Severally.
5. In the alternative.
6. Appeal.
7. Necessary and proper parties.—See O. 1 R. 10.

1. Scope. — [1] Under the old law, separate causes of action in respect of several plaintiffs could not be joined. The present Civil P. O. permits different causes of action to be joined in respect of several plaintiffs provided they satisfy the conditions of O. 1, R. 1. (Vol 10) 1928 Mad 331 (332) * (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 650 (651). (Order 1, Rule 1 applies to joinder of causes of action also.)

[2] It is not the law that every plaintiff should be interested in the entire subject-matter of the suit. (Vol 29) 1942 All 122 (126) : I L R (1942) All 103.

[3] The rule is an enabling one allowing a number of plaintiffs, with the same right to relief to join in one suit instead of bringing of separate suits. It should not be read as though all such persons must be joined as plaintiffs. (1897) 24 Cal 385 (388).

O. 1, R. 1 (contd.)

2. What persons may be joined as plaintiffs:—

[1] Decree ordering payment of maintenance to mother and widow of deceased nephew — Joint suit by two women for arrears of maintenance is maintainable. (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 644 (645).

[2] S purchasing property from P — P wrongfully receiving mesne profits — S selling to Y — Y suing P for mesne profits making S pro forma plaintiff but praying decree in his favour only — S applying for amendment for decree for his claim for mesne profits due before transfer to Y — Amendment having no legal bar could be granted. (Vol 16) 1929 Bom 51 (53).

[3] Co-sharers suing lambaradar for profits can join in same suit. (Vol 16) 1929 All 668 (668) : 51 All 994.

[4] The co-sharer landlords can sue the tenants collectively even if they collect rent separately and the rent refers to different periods. (1911) 14 Cal L Jour 373 (374).

[5] In a suit by a presumptive reversioner to declare the invalidity of an adoption or alienation by the widow, the remote reversioner has a right to be joined in the suit along with or on the death of presumptive reversioner. (Vol 2) 1915 P O 124 (125, 126) : 38 Mad 406 : 42 Ind App 125 (P O).

[6] Suit to set aside the attachment and sale of certain property by a widow and her alleged adopted son — Both asserting adoption — Held, their interests were not in any way antagonistic and they could jointly sue. (1892) 16 Bom 119 (123).

[7] Party defendant to an action claiming relief against co-defendants in respect of same transaction can be joined as co-plaintiff. (Vol 26) 1939 Pat 157 (158).

[8] No misjoinder if two different sets of persons join to eject trespasser. (Vol 16) 1929 All 790 (790).

[9] Is no bar to plaintiffs suing in double capacity. (Vol 2) 1915 Bom 284 (285) : 40 Bom 401.

[10] Plaintiff suing to recover certain properties in his personal capacity from certain defendants and to recover another property in the capacity of shebait from one of the defendants in the same suit — Action as framed is justified by O. 1, R. 1. (Vol 15) 1928 Cal 199 (200, 202) : 55 Cal 164. (Plaint should be treated as comprising two suits and they should be tried separately in view of provisions of O. 1, R. 2.)

[11] Where charges of misconduct against the several plaintiff's are not identical and each plaintiff's case has to be dealt with on its own merits, they cannot be joined together as co-plaintiffs. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 57 (57, 58).

[12] The Code does not warrant the joinder of rival claimants as plaintiffs where each of them denies the right of the other. Each plaintiff should be in harmony with his co-plaintiff. (1920) 57 Ind Cas 784 (784) (Nag).

[13] Suit by several plaintiffs — Each plaintiff having separate cause of action in which others not interested — Misjoinder of causes of action arises. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 1140 (1140).

3. Jointly. — [1] Persons having joint right — Some only of them cannot sue without joining others as defendants. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 984 (984) & (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 295 (296). (Suit by some of shebait's — Other shebait's unwilling to join as plaintiffs impleaded as defendants — Procedure is proper.) & (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 585 (586).

[2] Refusal to join as co-plaintiff — The person may be joined as co-defendant. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 71 (72).

[3] Some members of a joint family who should have been joined as plaintiffs were arrayed as co-defendants — The suit should not be dismissed where it is proved that they would not willingly have been made co-plaintiffs to the suit. (1902) 24 All 226 (228).

[4] Joining a co-promisor as defendant — Whether he refused to join as co-plaintiff not known — Suit is not bad for misjoinder. (Vol 10) 1923 Cal 506 (507).

[5] Landlord and tenant — Ejectment — Suit for, by one cosharer — Other cosharers made pro forma defendants — Plaintiff is entitled to decree to the extent of his share jointly with others. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 127 (128).

[6] Zamindars of village on bank of river bringing suit for possession of land which is subject of fluvial action of river and for mesne profits — Zamindars of village on opposite side of river claiming land as their own on basis of custom and tenants holding under them impleaded as defendants — Cosharers of plaintiffs made pro forma defendants — Suit is not bad for misjoinder or nonjoinder. (Vol 26) 1939 All 626 (633).

[7] Where two parties contract with a third party, a suit by one of them making the other a co-defendant ought not to be dismissed, merely because the plaintiff has not proved that the co-defendant had refused to join as a co-plaintiff. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 445 (446).

[8] One of the two co-uralans may bring a suit to redeem a mortgage without averring or proving that the other uralan was asked to join as plaintiff in the suit. (1903) 26 Mad 649 (653) (F B).

[9] Promissory note executed in favour of several persons — In a suit to recover the amount due on promissory note, held, that the suit should not be dismissed when some in whose favour the note was executed are made defendants even though it was not shown that they had refused to be made plaintiffs. (1906) 29 Mad 302 (303).

[10] Trustees should ordinarily be co-plaintiffs — Those not willing to be plaintiffs should be made defendants. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 27 (29).

4. Severally. — [1] Joint suit can be brought by plaintiffs, where each can bring separate suit against all defendants. (Vol 19) 1932 All 401 (402).

5. In the alternative. — [1] Suits by different sets of plaintiffs claiming in the alternative is maintainable provided there is a common question of law or fact. (Vol 8) 1916 Lah 47 (47) : 1916 Pun Re No. 10 & (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 174 (176) & (Vol 8) 1921 Nag 9 (10). (Second plaintiff can be added to provide against first plaintiff being held not entitled to sue).

[2] A plaint praying for a decree in favour of all the plaintiffs or, in the alternative, in favour of one of them if he alone was found entitled is admissible. (1905) 28 Mad 500 (503).

[3] A widow and her alleged adopted son suing the defendant for the recovery of money — They are agreed that either shall take the amount found due — Held, there was no misjoinder of plaintiffs. (1903) 26 Mad 647 (649) (F B).

[4] Suit for money — Person entitled to such money in the alternative joined as defendant to the suit at institution but subsequently made a plaintiff — Joinder as plaintiff is proper. (Vol 14) 1927 Oudh 484 (485) : 3 Luck 241.

[5] Where plaintiff 1 simply stated that she was daughter of N but did not claim property in dispute on the strength of that relation but put up her right along with plaintiff 2 on the ground that plaintiff 2 was the son of N and that she lived with him, it was held suit was not bad for misjoinder of parties. (1904) 28 Bom 94 (99).

2. Where it appears to the Court that any joinder of plaintiffs may embarrass or delay the trial of the suit, the Court may put the plaintiffs to their election or order separate trials or make such other order as may be expedient.

3. All persons² may be joined as defendants against whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same act or transaction⁵ or series of acts or transactions is alleged⁴ to exist, whether jointly,⁶ severally⁸ or in the alternative,⁹ where, if separate suits were brought against such persons, any common question of law or fact would arise.

Objects and Reasons.

The first sentence of S. 28 of the Code of 1882 ran as follows:—“All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative, in respect of the same matter”.

“O. 1, R. 3 (S. 28). — The Committee realise that the words ‘in respect of the same matter’ in R. 3 have given rise to great difficulty, and they think it advisable to follow the wording of the English Rule and to omit them”. — S. O. R.

“Rule 3.—The words ‘act or’ have been added before the word ‘transaction’. Rule 3 has been amplified so as to bring it into line with R. 1”. — S. C. R.

O. 1, R. 1 (contd.)

6 Appeal.—[1] Suit dismissed against defendant 1 and decreed against defendant 2 — Joint appeal by plaintiff and defendant 2 against defendant 1 is maintainable. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 638 (639).

7. Necessary and proper parties. — See O. 1, R. 10.

Order 1, Rule 2 — Note 1

[1] This rule has no application to cases of mis-joinder of parties. It applies only to cases where the plaintiffs are properly joined but separate trials are necessary for the purpose of avoiding inconvenience, embarrassment or delay. (1904) 26 All 218 (220). (Parties with different causes of action joined as co-plaintiffs—Suit is bad for mis-joinder of parties.) * (1913) 18 Ind Cas 181 (182) (Low Bur). (Order 1, R. 2, merely refers to procedure.)

[But see (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 795 (795). (Suit bad for mis-joinder — Court should treat it as one under O. 1, R. 2 and not dismiss it.)]

ORDER 1, RULE 3 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope and object.
2. All persons may be joined as defendants against whom any right to relief exists.
3. Parties must be within jurisdiction of the Court.
4. “Alleged”.
5. Same act or transaction.
6. “Jointly”.
7. Joint tort-feasors.
8. “Severally”.
9. “In the alternative”
10. Ancillary reliefs.
11. Effect of multifariousness.

1. Scope and object. — [1] The object of O. 1, R. 3 seems to be to avoid multiplicity of suits if it could be done without embarrassment to any of the defendants. (1907) 31 Bom 516 (522).

[2] Both the conditions referred to in O. 1, R. 3 must be fulfilled in order to justify the joinder provided for therein. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 334 (335) * (Vol 17) 1930 All 180 (185) * (1910) 84 Bom 358 (366-368) * (1907) 31 Bom 516 (522) * (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 653 (655) * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 75 (76). (Order 1, R. 3 requires that all persons should be joined as defendants against whom any right to relief in respect of, or arising out of the same act is alleged to exist.) * (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 653 (653) * (Vol 21) 1934 Sind 176 (176).

[3] Persons added as defendants need not be interested in all reliefs. (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 449 (453, 454) * (1907) 31 Bom 516 (522) * (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 66 (68) : 19 Sind L R 395. (Plaintiffs must prove that common question arises as regards each.)

[4] It is not necessary that the evidence as regards each of the defendants should be the same or that all questions arising regarding the liability of each of the defendants should be common to them. (Vol 15) 1928 Bom 91 (94).

[5] Order 1, R. 3 applies not only to joinder of parties but also to joinder of causes of action. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 334 (335) * (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 1 (1, 2) * (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 650 (651) * (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 858 (859, 861) : 45 Cal 111 * (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 367 (368) : 57 Mad 1031 * (1908) 31 Mad 252 (257).

[See also (1912) 35 Mad 39 (41, 42). (The test is not whether the cause of action against the defendants is the same but whether relief is sought in the same matter.)]

[7] Rule 3 of O. 2 must be so read as not to clash with the provisions of R. 3 of O. 1. (1911) 7 Nag L R 130 (131).

[8] Order 1, R. 3 is in no way limited by O. 34, R. 1. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 512 (513) : 59 Cal 548.

[9] Decree for damages for breach of contract against one defendant and for damages in tort against another in respect of damages arising in same transaction, can be passed in same action — There is no misjoinder of defendants. (Vol 25) 1933 Rang 185 (188) : 1933 Rang L R 308 (S B).

[10] Where after the death of a Muhammadan, his widow under a compromise with A remained in possession of 1/8 of the estate as her share, and the 7/8 as dower, and she gifted the whole to P who mortgaged it to Q and after her death A sued P for possession while P had sold the property to Q, and Q applied to be joined as defendant, in the suit by A against P; Held, that he could not be joined, as no relief was sought against him and the case against him was not the same as that against other defendants. (1912) 10 All L Jour 387 (389).

[11] Order 1, R. 3 is very similar in terms, in fact almost identical, with O. 16, R. 4, English Procedure Rules, and is probably founded thereon and consequently the opinions expressed on O. 16, R. 4 by the English Judges may well be considered in construing the provisions of O. 1 R. 3. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 935 (936): 42 Cal 1135.

[But see (1908) 31 Mad 252 (256).]

[12] Mortgage suit — Stranger to mortgage claiming by title paramount impleaded — Misjoinder can be pleaded but on ground of inconvenience—Per Rankin, J. — Correct view is to see if case comes under R. 3. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 973 (976, 978).

2. All persons may be joined as defendants against whom any right to relief exists. — [1] The provisions of O. 1 R. 3 are not imperative but they allow discretion. (1882) 8 Cal 238 (245) * (Vol 31) 1944 Mad 98 (102).

[2] Defendants against whom no cause of action exists are not necessary parties. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 369 (369)* (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 1110 (1117). (In an administration action of the property of the deceased, the debtors to the estate are not necessary parties.) * (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 65 (70) : 2 Pat 110.

[3] The cause of action for a suit arises only against the persons who are responsible for the infringement of the right. (Vol 15) 1928 Cal 23 (24).

[5] In order that a party must be considered a necessary party defendant, two conditions must be satisfied, first, that there must be a right to some relief against him in respect of the matter involved in the suit; and, second, that his presence should be necessary in order to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the suit. (1900) 27 Cal 493 (497).

[6] Ejectment suit—Persons in actual physical possession are necessary parties—Persons only receiving rents are not. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 172 (173).

[7] Ejectment suit against three brothers—One brother on field service — Claim reduced and that brother given up — Claim held not bad for misjoinder. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 814 (815).

3. Parties must be within jurisdiction of the Court. — [1] Rule 3 will apply where Court has jurisdiction to entertain the suit — Suit against A and B — Court having jurisdiction against A but none against B — O. 1 R. 3 does not apply. (Vol 9) 1922 Cal 500* (501, 502) : 49 Cal 895 * (Vol 29) 1942 All 387 (389) : I L R (1942) All 862.

4. "Alleged." — [1] The determination as to whether or not the suit is framed is open to objection on the ground of mis-joinder of parties and causes of action, depends upon the allegations in the plaint. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 858 (859, 861) : 45 Cal 111 * (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 329 (330).

[2] Under O. 1 R. 3 the test is not whether the decree awarded to the plaintiff against the defendant is joint but whether it is alleged in the plaint that there is against the said defendants any right to relief in respect of the same act or transaction. (Vol 16) 1919 Sind 55 (56) : 13 Sind L R 133.

5. Same act or transaction. — [1] In R. 3 the word "same" before the words "act" or "transaction" must be read also before "series of acts or transactions" in the same rule. (1910) 34 Bom 353 (365, 366.)

[2] Act or transactions when different should be so connected as to constitute one entity and cause of action against all defendants jointly. (Vol 29) 1942 All 387 (389).

[3] Joinder of parties and causes of action — Joint interest or same transaction is necessary. (Vol 6) 1919 Low Bur 121 (122).

[4] Whether joinder is proper is to be determined with reference to facts of case. (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 367 (369) : 57 Mad 1031.

[5] Contract of sale — Right to possession arises out of contract so as to be covered by O. 1 R. 3. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 681 (690) : 40 Mad 365 (FB).

[6] A suit for declaration of title, mesne profits and possession of the property purchased by different sets of defendants in different lots in auction sale, which was fraudulently brought by the judgment-debtor is bad for multifariousness. (Vol 5) 1918 All 425 (429) : 40 All 7.

[7] Plaintiff aggrieved by decision of survey authorities that certain lands were not in plaintiff's village — Plaintiff suing against the decision and impleading as defendants persons in possession of different plots — Suit is not bad for multifariousness. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1237 (1238) * (1909) 6 All L Jour 456 (457, 458) * (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 228 (232).

[8] The general rule is that all owners of the servient tenement, as regards which there is a cause of action and over which the easement is claimed, should be made parties, e. g., persons who have an interest entitling them to present possession of the servient tenement. (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 882 (884) : 60 Cal 1072* (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 534 (535).

[10] A suit based on distinct causes of action is bad for multifariousness and cannot be tried anywhere. Separate invasions of plaintiff's rights constitute different causes of action. A person was dispossessed of some of his property at Delhi by one person and another property by another person at Almora; his suit in Delhi Court for recovery of possession against both is bad for multifariousness. (1910) 1910 Pun L Re No. 59 p. 149 (158)* (Vol 25) 1938 Rang 420 (421, 422) : 1938 Rang L R 397.

[11] Removal of crops by each individual tenant — Absence of conspiracy or collusion among them — As many causes of action exist as there are tenants and single suit against all is bad for misjoinder. (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 67 (67).

[12] Where a number of persons defame the plaintiff, a suit against all of them to recover damages therefor will not lie, unless it is proved that the defendants acted together in defaming plaintiff. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 586 (587).

[13] Sons of Hindu father suing their father and his creditor for declaration that debts incurred by father are tainted with immorality and are not binding on them — Suit is not bad for misjoinder of defendants and causes of action — Court may order separate trial of different issues affecting particular defendants. (Vol 25) 1938 Nag 461 (461, 462) : I L R (1939) Nag 229.

[14] Suit against fraudulent trustee for embezzlement of money — His several agents who had connived at breach of trust impleaded — There is no misjoinder. (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 367 (373) : 57 Mad 1031.

[15] Suit for accounts—Defendant raising plea that accounts were settled with plaintiff's brothers—Plaintiff's application to join brothers rejected on ground of multifariousness — Held plaintiff's application should be allowed. (Vol 20) 1933 All 957 (958) * (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 405 (405).

[See also (Vol 30) 1943 Oudh 315 (315). (Plaintiffs suing defendants as trespassers — A alleging himself to be co-sharer with plaintiffs and sir holder of suit lands — Defendants alleging to hold as sub tenants of sir of A — A held should be made defendant.)]

tants and subsequent surety can be joined in suit on promissory note. (Vol 24) 1937 Rang 197 (198).

[18] Two properties mortgaged—Suit by vendee from mortgagor for redemption of mortgage—It is not possible in such suit to pass decree for redemption in favour of plaintiff as well as to give him decree against his vendor for another sum charged on one of the properties — Two claims cannot be combined. (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 129 (135).

[20] A claim to direct a trustee to render accounts of trust property for a certain period may be joined with a claim against the trustee and others to render accounts of trust property for another period. (1911) 9 Ind Cas 565 (565, 566) (Mad).

[21] Lease of temple land by trustees in favour of four brothers under separate muchilikas for one year — Even after expiry of lease, lessees continuing in possession as tenants from year to year and after them their descendants—Tenancies terminated by notice—Suit for ejecting all tenants from possession held not bad for multifariousness. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 334 (335, 336).

[22] Suit to eject third persons from trust properties cannot be brought under S. 92—Transfers of trust properties cannot be made parties under O. 1 R. 3 and 10 to suit under S. 92. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 5 (7) (SB) * (Vol 19) 1932 Rang 132 (135) : 10 Rang 342.

(Suit for removal of mutwalli on ground of unlawful alienation of trust property — Alienee may be made a party — In case of alienation being set aside alienee may be declared a trustee and directed to convey property — (Obiter). In such suit no decree for ejectment of alienee can be passed).]

[23] Suit for specific performance of contract by member of Hindu undivided family to sell his share — Joinder of other members as defendants amounts to misjoinder. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 681 (687) : 40 Mad 365 (FB).

6. "Jointly"—[1] In all cases of joint liability or joint and several liability all the persons liable may be joined as defendants. (1896) 19 Mad 60 (61). (Joint covenant for quiet possession by vendor and his benamidar — Suit for damages for breach is maintainable against both).

7. Joint tort-feasors.—[1] Three persons attached certain property and the proceeds of the execution were distributed between them. The plaintiff sued one of them for damages for wrongful attachment. The other two were not necessary parties as the cause of action against each was separate and distinct. (1911) 12 Ind Cas 866 (866, 867) (Low Bur).

8. "Severally." — [1] Several leases granted by trustee — One suit to set aside all leases by receiver against all lessees is not bad for multifariousness. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 911 (912, 913) : 49 Mad 836 (FB).

[2] Suit by adoptee to set aside number of alienations to several alienors by adoptive mother is not bad for misjoinder. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 820 (820).

[3] Several transfers by widow to different persons — Reversioner can claim declaration or possession against all transferees in one suit. (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 318 (317)* (Vol 1) 1914 All 393 (394) : 36 All 406. (Suit for possession)* (1908) 33 Bom 293 (305) (Do.)*(1910) 4 Ind Cas 248 (249) (Cal). (Suit to set aside alienations.)

[4] Claims by heirs against different alienees can be joined— Separate and various defences do not affect— Difficulty can be met by framing separate issues. (Vol 5) 1918 Lah 184 (185) : 1918 Pun Re No 59*(Vol 3) 1916 Bom 310 (311) : 40 Bom 351*(11) 1911 Pun L R No. 76 p. 321 (323).

[5] Plaintiff alienated a portion of his moiety and brought a suit for contribution from the defendants as per agreement — Suit decreed by Munsif — Reversed by Sub-judge on the ground of misjoinder and invalidity of agreement — Parties liable to contribute, held, were proper parties to the suit. (1905) 15 Mad L Jour 24 (25).

[6] The impleading of creditors in a partition suit is not bad for misjoinder of parties or causes of action under O. 1 R. 3 when the plaintiffs question the binding nature of those debts. (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 332 (333) : 45 Mad 194*(Vol 18) 1931 Cal 594 (595, 596).

[7] When interests of different persons in an estate are opposed to one another except where they are joint, a person suing for his share therein cannot join all persons as defendants in one suit, unless they are in possession in virtue of the same transaction or the same series of transactions within the meaning of R. 3, O. 1. (Vol 6) 1919 Low Bur 121 (122).

9. "In the alternative".—[1] Joinder of causes of action—Suit for rent by cosharer landlord — Prayer for recovery of share of rent against tenants can be joined with prayer for alternative relief against cosharer landlords. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 903 (904) *(Vol 5) 1918 Cal 813 (814).

[2] Suit to recover amount of rent from either party against two sets of defendants — Held, that suit was not bad for misjoinder of parties and causes of action. (1907) 31 Bom 516 (522, 523).

[3] Suit against debtor — Liability of his transferee can be tried in the suit. (obiter). (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 135 (136).

[4] An assignee of a mortgage can rightly implead his assignor along with the mortgagors in his suit on the mortgage and is entitled to ask for the relief against his assignor if he failed to obtain a decree against the property. (1910) 7 Ind Cas 69 (69) (All) * (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 56 (58, 59) : 16 Luck 113.

[5] Plaintiff purchased land from B but was dispossessed of it by A who had obtained registration of his name — Suit by plaintiff for possession against A and in the alternative for a refund of the purchase-money paid by him to B is not bad for misjoinder of parties and causes of action. (1902) 29 Cal 257 (259).

[6] In a mortgage suit plaintiff claimed foreclosure against the mortgagor and two-thirds of the amount received by co-mortgagors — Plaintiff asked by District Judge to omit either claim in the plaint—Held the case is covered by O. 1 R. 3 and the plaintiff can put both claims together. (1911) 7 Nag L R 130 (132, 133).

[7] Where the defendant denied that any loan had been made to him by the agent of the plaintiff, the agent was impleaded as co-defendant and relief against him was prayed for in the alternative in respect of the sum admitted by the agent to have been lent—Held, claim is made within the meaning of O. 1 R. 3. (1906) 29 Mad 50 (51)* (Vol 20) 1933 All 147 (148, 149).

[8] Suit against B on mortgage—B denying plaintiff's title and also pleading discharge by payment to A — A may be impleaded as a claim of alternative relief against A is in proper form. (Vol 18) 1931 Nag 20 (23) : 26 Nag L R 359.

[9] Where the plaintiffs alleged that both 1st and 2nd defendants claimed a charge for the use of certain water and prayed the Court to determine which of the defendants was entitled to it, and to restrain the other

Court may give judgment for or against one or more of joint parties.

4. Judgment may be given without any amendment —

(a) for such one or more of the plaintiffs as may be found to be entitled to relief, for such relief as he or they may be entitled to;

(b) against such one or more of the defendants as may be found to be liable, according to their respective liabilities.

[1882—Ss. 26, 28; 1877—Ss. 26, 28.]

Defendant need not be interested in all the relief claimed.

5. It shall not be necessary that every defendant shall be interested as to all the relief claimed in any suit against him.

from interfering with plaintiff—Held, that the suit was not bad for mis-joinder of parties and causes of action. (1910) 7 Mad L Tim 16 (16).

10. Ancillary reliefs.—[1] This rule covers a case even where the relief against some of the defendants is merely ancillary to the relief claimed against the others. For a plaintiff can avail himself of O. 1 R. 3 if, while the case against the defendants is substantially the same, certain "ancillary" relief is necessary against some and not against others. (Vol 25) 1938 Rang 420 (422) : 1938 Rang L R 397.

11. Effect of multifariousness.—[1] Suit should not be dismissed for multifariousness—Plaintiff should be given opportunity to amend plaint and to elect. (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 367 (372) : 57 Mad 1031.

[2] Misjoinder of parties and causes of action permitted by a Court under O. 1, R. 3 should not be condemned in appeal if plaintiff has by that time lost his remedy. (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 337 (337) : 27 Oudh Cas 35.

Order 1 Rule 4 — Note 1.

[1] Where several persons in whom any right to relief is alleged to exist join together as plaintiffs in a suit, but it is found that only some of them are entitled to relief, a judgment may under this rule be given for such relief in favour of such persons. (Vol 14) 1927 Oudh 484 (485) : 3 Luck 241.

[2] Four members of an undivided family sued the widow of a deceased coparcener for possession of certain properties. The Court found that only one of these was entitled to relief. It was held that judgment was properly given in his favour without any amendment. (1905) 28 Mad 500 (503).

[But see (1885) 7 All 860 (862). (A and B claiming joint right against C—B was found to have no right at all—Held A could not be given relief without amendment.)]

[3] A and B sued C alleging that A alone was entitled to relief. B was added merely as a pro forma party. The Court found that B alone was entitled to relief. It was held that judgment could not be given in his favour without amendment. (Vol 16) 1929 Bom 51 (53).

[2] It is not necessary that every defendant should be interested as to all the reliefs claimed in the suit but it is necessary that there must be a cause of action on which all the defendants are more or less interested although the relief asked against them may vary. (1910) 34 Bom 358 (368).

[3] Sons of Hindu father suing their father and his creditor for declaration that debts incurred by father are tainted with immorality and are not binding on them—Suit is not bad for misjoinder of defendants and causes of action—Court may order separate trial of different issues affecting particular defendants. (Vol 25) 1938 Nag 461 (463) : 1 L R (1939) Nag 229.

[4] Two causes of action, one for specific performance, other for partition and possession—Question of joinder depends upon O. 1, Rr. 3 and 5 and also on O. 2, Rr. 3 and 4. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 681 (692) : 40 Mad 365 (F B).

Order 1 Rule 6 — Note 1.

[1] By virtue of this rule read with S. 43, Contract Act, plaintiff in enforcing a contract entered into with a partnership is not bound to implead all the members of a firm as defendants; but is entitled to sue as he chooses, one or more of them, for the performance of entire contract. (1898) 21 Mad 256 (257) * (1893) 17 Bom 6 (11).

[2] Suit against some of several persons jointly and severally liable for a single liability—All need not be added as defendants—Even "proper" parties may not be added if suit can be decided without them. (Vol 21) 1934 Pesh 94 (95).

[3] Plaintiff as payee of an order on its being dishonoured on presentation filed a suit in the Court at X, against the drawer who resided at Y and an agent of the firm on which it was drawn and who was residing at X—Held that the drawer and the firm ought not to have been joined as defendants in the same suit as the plaintiff had no cause of action against the drawee. (1878) 3 Bom 182 (183).

[5] In a suit brought by the holder of a bill of exchange, drawer and acceptor can be joined as co-defendants. (1877-78) 3 Cal 541 (541).

[6] Where the endorsee of a cheque sues the endorser for renewal of a lost cheque, the drawer must also be impleaded as the cheque cannot be renewed without his co-operation. (1878-80) 2 All 754 (755).

7. Where the plaintiff is in doubt as to the person from whom he is entitled to obtain redress, When plaintiff in doubt from whom redress is to be sought. he may join two or more defendants in order that the question as to which of the defendants is liable, and to what extent, may be determined as between all parties.

^a8. (1) Where there are numerous persons² having the same interest⁷ in one suit, one or One person may sue or defend on behalf of all in same interest. more of such persons may, with the permission of the Court,⁹ sue or be sued, or may defend, in such suit, on behalf of or for the benefit of all persons so interested. But the Court shall in such case give, at the plaintiff's expense, notice of the institution of the suit¹¹ to all such persons either by personal service or, where from the number of persons or any other cause such service is not reasonably practicable, by public advertisement, as the Court in each case may direct.

(2) Any person on whose behalf or for whose benefit a suit is instituted or defended under sub-rule (1) may apply to the Court to be made a party¹³ to such suit.

ORDER 1 RULE 8 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Applicability and scope.
2. "Numerous persons".
3. Clubs and associations.
4. Suit to set aside fraudulent transfers.
5. Suit by member of community in his own right.
6. Suit to establish or negative public right.
7. "Having the same interest".
8. Matters in respect of which representative suit can be brought.
9. Permission of Court.
10. May be sued.
11. Notice of institution of suit.
12. Title of suit.
13. Addition of parties.
14. Decree in representative suit.
15. Costs in representative suit.
16. Compromise of representative suit.
17. Withdrawal of representative suits—See O. 23 R. 1.
18. Abatement of suit or appeal.

19. Arbitration proceedings.

20. Revision.

1. Applicability and scope. — [1] Rule 8 forms exception to general principle that all persons interested in suit shall be parties thereto. (Vol 20) 1933 P C 183 (186); 60 Ind App 278; 56 Mad 657 (P C).

[2] Convenience, where community of interest exists, requires that a few out of a large number of persons should under proper conditions be allowed to represent the whole body. (Vol 20) 1933 P C 183 (185); 60 Ind App 278; 56 Mad 657 (P C) & (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 531 (536); I L R (1944) Mad 133. (Entire body of persons should not be deemed to be actually parties to suit).

[3] It is an enabling rule of convenience prescribing the conditions upon which such persons when not made parties to a suit may still be bound by the proceedings therein. (Vol 31) 1944 Sind 165 (167) : I L R (1944) Kar 62.

[4] Rule is enacted for benefit of defendants only to the extent of preventing multiplicity of suits. (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 44 (45).

[6] Bona fide litigation — Omission to follow procedure under O. 1 R. 8, is only technical irregularity. (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 369 (390) (F B).

[7] This rule is permissive and not prohibitive. It is dealing with procedure only and not affecting substantive rights. (1902) 23 Mad 29 (31).

[8] Reversioner suing to restrain alienation by limited owner can do so without making other reversioners parties and without following procedure in O. 1 Rule 8. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 385 (387).

[9] The procedure laid down in O. 1 R. 8 need not be followed in suits under S. 92, Civil P. C. (Vol 28) 1941 Bom 317 (319) : I L R (1941) Bom 556.

[10] Provisions of O. 1 R. 8 apply to petitions which can be heard and tried as suits. (Vol 23) 1936 Bom 250 (255) : 60 Bom 645.

[11] Application for probate by executor—Any beneficiary can intervene—Proceedings are in representative character—Death of executor—Beneficiaries can continue proceedings. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 114 (117) : 56 Mad 346.

[12] Suit in a representative capacity — Question as to, should be decided with reference to substance and not the form of pleadings. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 445 (446, 447).

[13] Defendant permitted to represent public—Written statement not specifically mentioning that he was appearing in representative capacity — Public cannot be said as not represented. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 608 (610).

2. "Numerous persons."—[1] Rule 8 only provides for case where numerous persons are interested in suit. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 65 (68) * (1885) 7 All 178 (182, 183) (FB). (Rule applies to cases where no individual right is interfered with.) * (Vol 33) 1946 Bom 203 (204). (Decision likely to affect large number — Rule 8 should be resorted to.) * (1921) 63 Ind Cas 963 (967) (Low Bur) * (Vol 7) 1920 Low Bur 151 (155). (O. 1, R. 8 provides remedy for cases in which it would be difficult to implead all persons it is sought to affect.)

[2] This rule contemplates the case of parties too numerous to be conveniently made parties to the suit. (1878-80) 2 Mad 328 (332).

[3] 100 is a sufficient number to apply R. 8. (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 44 (46).

[4] "Numerous persons" does not mean "persons capable of being ascertained". (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 749 (751) : 15 Lah 123.

[5] Satchasi sect of Chatra is a defined class of the general public and a suit by them is maintainable under this rule, whether all the members of such sect are or are not capable of being so accurately ascertained that notices could if required be served upon each and all of them. (1906) 33 Cal 905 (912, 913).

[6] Where certain persons of the Jain Setambari sect of Paresb Nath Hill brought a suit on behalf of their sect for setting aside a lease of temple lands without joining the Jain Digumbary sect who were also interested in Paresb Nath Hill, it was held that the suit was not bad under this rule, as there was nothing to show that the Jain Digumbary sect was also interested in like manner as the plaintiffs in the suit. (1894) 21 Cal 180 (189).

[7] Suit by a panchayat through its president is representative. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 196 (197).

[8] Inhabitants of group of villages restraining defendants from discharging rain water on plaintiffs' lands—Representative suit held quite in order. (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 261 (262, 263).

[9] A suit by certain persons on behalf of themselves and their co-villagers for a declaration that they had a prescriptive right to conserve water of a natural stream and for other reliefs was held maintainable. (1902) 29 Cal 100 (109, 110).

[10] Every member of a caste of Hindus is entitled to inspection of account books regarding management of caste property by its manager — Suit for declaration of such right in civil Courts is not barred — Such suit is representative. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 122 (125) : 56 Bom 242 (F B).

[11] Suit by some of the raiyats of a village on behalf of themselves and other raiyats against the proprietor of the village for a declaration of their general rights and for injunction is maintainable under this rule. (1895) 19 Bom 391 (398, 399).

[12] Religious endowment—Akhra community owning akhra for time immemorial has right to hold and manage and sue through panchayat. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 245 (248).

3. Clubs and associations. — [1] An officer of an unregistered or unincorporated body or society can file a suit on behalf of the body only with the special permission of the Court under the rule. (Vol 4) 1917 Low Bur 36 (37) * (1884) 6 All 284 (285). (Secretary of Association.) * (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 445 (447). (Secretary of Samaj.)

[2] Suit against association or unregistered body—Procedure laid down in O. 1, R. 8 not followed — Members not on record are not bound by decree in such suit. (Vol 27) 1940 Oudh 129 (130) : 15 Luck 253.

[3] Suit by panchayat—All members not on record — Provisions of O. 1, R. 8 not invoked—Suit must fail. (Vol 27) 1940 Sind 63 (64) : I L R (1940) Kar 190.

[4] Caste — Management vested in Managing Committee — President though authorised by resolution to file ejectment suits in his own name cannot do so except under O. 1, R. 8. (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 109 (110) : 46 Bom 132.

[5] A suit by a person, authorised by a resolution made at the meeting of the community to receive subscriptions from subscribers, for payment of the subscription is to be filed under this rule and necessary permission of the Court has to be obtained. (1898) 22 Bom 729 (730).

4. Suit to set aside fraudulent transfers. — [1] A suit by decree-holder for cancellation of sale deed on ground that it was executed with intent to defeat and delay creditors is one under S. 53, T. P. Act and must fail for want of Court's permission under O. 1, R. 8. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 789 (790) : I L R (1940) Mad 808.

[But see (Vol 33) 1946 Sind 73 (80) : I L R (1946) Kar 98. (Suit under O. 21, R. 63 by judgment-creditor alleging transfer to be void and in fraud of creditors — Suit need not be brought on behalf of all creditors—Order 1, R. 8 not applicable.)]

[3] All creditors interested made parties to suit under S. 53, T. P. Act—Leave of Court need not be applied for under this rule. (Vol 33) 1946 Mad 25 (30) : I L R (1946) Mad 486.

[4] Creditor proceeding under O. 21, R. 63 not knowing existence of other creditors is not bound to bring representative suit. (Vol 27) 1940 Oudh 200 (201) : 15 Luck 503.

[5] Objection as to non-joinder should be taken in trial Court—Omission cannot be repaired in appeal. (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 275 (275).

5. Suit by member of community in his own right. — [1] Rule is merely enabling — It does not force one to represent many if action is maintainable without joinder of others. (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 481 (482, 483) : 16 Pat 190.

[2] Rule is enabling — Plaintiff found entitled to relief should not be refused the same on the ground that others are also interested. (Vol 14) 1927 Pat 221 (222). (Especially when the suit was allowed to proceed as ordinary suit without objection by defendant.)

[3] The rule does not bar some members of a community from maintaining a suit in their own right. The rule is an enabling one. (1910) 32 All 234 (286)* (Vol 26) 1930 All 586 (588) : 1 L R (1939) All 754 * (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 76 (77)* (Vol 7) 1920 Low Bur 151 (155).

[5] Temple dedicated to use of particular class — Suit by member of class for injunction to restrain persons not members of class from entering temple and taking part in worship is competent. (Vol 7) 1920 Low Bur 151 (154, 155).

[6] An individual worshipper can sue anybody interfering with his right to worship in a Mahomedan mosque. (1913) 35 All 197 (199). (Though the Court might in its discretion refuse a declaration in the absence of all the parties.) * (1885) 7 All 178 (182) (F B) * (1893) 20 Cal 810 (816, 817). (Suit by a worshipper for the removal of mutwalli of a Mahomedan endowment.) * (Vol 9) 1922 Oudh 1 (2); 26 Oudh Cas 82.

[7] Beneficiary in a Mahomedan waqf can sue to set aside alienations by mutwalli without recourse to O. 1, R. 8. (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 475 (477) : 2 Pat 391.

[8] Mutwalli of a wakf in respect of a mosque need not obtain the permission of the Court to maintain a suit on behalf of the trust. (1921) 63 Ind Cas 171 (173) (All).

[9] Where some only of the total proprietary body appealed from adverse decision of trial Court in respect of a custom in the village affecting the whole proprietary body — Held, that the appeal was not incompetent. (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 502 (503) : 7 Lah 451.

[10] Plaintiff having no special interest — Permission of Court is necessary. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 345 (347, 348).

6. Suit to establish or negative public right. —

[1] A private individual cannot obtain a declaration that a right is a public one, but he can sue for damages for injury sustained by him in the exercise of his privileges connected with a public right. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 166 (167).

[2] Order 1, Rule 8 does not vest right of suit in any person — Public nuisance — Suit by private individual — Necessity to prove special damage is not obviated by bringing suit under O. 1, R. 8. (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 360 (364) : 1 L R (1942) 1 Cal 533. (1935) 62 Cal 692, overruled.)

[3] Interference with public right of irrigation — Suit by member of public in individual capacity — His half-hearted resort to O. 1, R. 8 would not prevent him from obtaining relief as member of public specially injured by interference. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 181 (184, 185) : 19 Pat 352.

[4] Section 91, Civil P. C., does not control or restrict R. 8 — It does not take away right of plaintiffs to sue which may exist independently of its provisions. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 1233 (1233).

[5] Suit for removal of obstruction to village pathway — Plaintiff not using S. 91 or proving special damage — He must show that he sues not on behalf of general public but on behalf of limited and defined class with which he has common interest — Path must be shown to be quasi-public. (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 449 (465, 466) : 19 Pat 208.

[6] Suit for declaration that a pathway is public and for injunction to remove obstruction is one under R. 8 — Court's permission obtained — Advocate-General's permission under S. 91, Civil P. C., is unnecessary. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 405 (406).

[7] Headman of community can sue on its behalf for infringement of the right of his community to pass through public street without special damage. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 593 (594, 595).

[8] Public thoroughfare — Encroachment on — Suit not framed under S. 91 or O. 1, R. 8 — People in immediate neighbourhood entitled to use thoroughfare can sue to remove obstruction without proving special damage. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 249 (249, 250).

[9] In a suit for a declaration that plaintiff is the owner of a piece of land free from any right of highway, it is not necessary for the plaintiff to proceed by way of O. 1, R. 8, Civil P. C. — But the decree in the suit would bind only the defendants to the suit — Where, however, the plaintiff chooses to bind the public and gives a public character to his suit he must sue under O. 1, R. 8 and must observe the conditions on which permission is given by the Court under that rule. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 230 (231).

7. "Having the same interest." — [1] Community of interest is the essence of representative suit. (Vol 13) 1926 Pat 321 (324) : 5 Pat 539.

[2] The plaintiff in the suit must have himself the same interest as the persons he seeks to represent. (1891) 14 Mad 57 (61) * (Vol 14) 1927 All 96 (97).

[3] The person suing on behalf of others must have interest common to himself and others — If this is not so, no member of the class is constructively a party to it. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 833 (834).

[4] R purchasing plot of land evicting several persons about 150 with aid of corporation and police — Six persons claiming to be representatives of entire body of occupants bringing suit against R and corporation obtaining permission to file plaint under O. 1, R. 8 — Two of the plaintiffs withdrawing from suit — Remaining plaintiffs applying for permission to continue suit — Main basis of suit was that all occupants were entitled to continue in possession of property until evicted in due course of law — Plaintiffs however putting varying legal claims in support of the position — Remaining plaintiffs held did not truly represent whole of occupants — Representative character depended upon their reducing themselves to level of those occupants who had weakest case to put forward. (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 428 (428, 429).

[5] Order 1, Rule 8, applies not only to concurrent interest but also to similar ones, though distinct. (1912) 1912 Mad IV N 105 (107). (In the event of a voter's death pending a suit for declaration, with sanction under O. 1, R. 8, that an elected member's election was void and for an injunction to restrain him from exercising his office, another voter can be brought on record, and continue the suit.)

[7] No rule as to how many necessary to represent a class. (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 302 (302).

[8] All the members of the body on whose behalf the suit is sought to be instituted need not be of the same opinion. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 985 (986) * (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 633 (634). (There need not be absolute unanimity among those represented.)

[9] Leave to file a suit may be granted on behalf of a whole community or body of persons though some persons object to it. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 1143 (1144).

[10] Mere fact that member of society objects to institution of suit does not show that he has not same interest as other members in suit or that it is not for his benefit as such member. (Vol 21) 1934 Rang 347 (348).

[11] Consultation with community need not be proved. (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 44 (46).

[12] Suit by some members of caste against others, relating to caste property — Rule 8 applies and consent of majority of caste members is not condition precedent to filing of suit. (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 682 (683, 684).

[13] Plaintiff alone can sue whether other persons having similar rights join or not. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 854 (856).

[14] Dissentient person should be made pro forma defendant. (Vol 21) 1934 Rang 347 (348, 349).

[15] Community divided into two sections M and S — Meeting of members of M section attended by only 60 out of 183 authorizing plaintiffs to sue S section — After institution 112 members consenting but remaining 71 supporting defendant — Suit on behalf of members not consenting is incompetent — Authority being lacking at time of suit it must fail — Subsequent consent is of no avail — Permission to amend cannot be granted. (Vol 3) 1916 Bom 261 (262) : 40 Bom 158.

[16] Suit by a plaintiff on behalf of a community for recovery of rent on behalf of village deity — Amount of rent disputed — Other members added as plaintiffs but plaint not amended — Newly joined plaintiffs siding with the defendant — There is no change in the constitution of the suit and the plaintiff does not lose his representative character. (Vol 15) 1928 Cal 741 (742).

[17] Representation on both sides may be allowed in same suit. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 542 (543).

[18] Trust property — Tambirans of mutt representing worshippers can sue to set aside alienation of mutt property made by Mahant and for delivery of possession to succeeding Mahant. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 464 (464) : 41 Mad 124.

[19] The worshippers of a temple can bring a suit under O. 1, R. 8 to declare that a permanent lease granted to the Archakas in possession of the property is invalid. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 665 (666) : 43 Mad 410.

[22] Management of village temple vesting in community of worshippers — They can sue under O. 1, R. 8. (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 276 (277).

[23] Suit for a declaratory decree — Plaintiffs were the hereditary gors (priests) — Defendants were the shevals (ministers) — Shevals issued rules prohibiting people from entering sacred chambers in the temple except on payment of certain fees — Held, the rules by the Shevals gave a common cause of action to all the gors (plaintiffs), and they were, therefore, entitled to sue jointly. (1891) 15 Bom 309 (315).

[24] Five men alleged to be managers of certain community sued in representative capacity under O. 1, R. 8 — Suit based on pro-note effected by these men and for community — Suit held maintainable. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 163 (163, 164).

[25] The owners of the taluk and the holders of subordinate tenures have the same interest. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 275 (282) : 59 Cal 961.

[26] One co-sharer can bring representative suit on behalf of another. (Vol 18) 1929 All 439 (440).

[27] One co-owner can maintain suit on behalf of all for recovery of land against trespassers. (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 26 (27).

[28] Without the leave of the Court obtained under this rule, a legatee cannot sue on behalf of himself and other legatees under a will for administration of testator's estate. (1885) 11 Cal 213 (218).

[29] Suit by individual tax-payers restraining municipality from misapplying its funds is maintainable. (1898) 22 Bom 646 (649, 650, 651).

[30] Revised assessment by Municipality — Suit for restraining Municipality for collecting revised taxes — Some assesseses cannot represent others. (Vol 20) 1933 Bom 175 (176) : 57 Bom 270.

[32] Debt due by whole village — Some of villagers can be sued as representing rest. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 161 (164) : 1 L R (1943) Mad 267.

[33] Order 1, R. 8, applies to defendants in a partition suit. (Vol 13) 1928 Lah 693 (694).

[34] Request for education of Hindu boys and girls not of any particular locality — Representative suit on behalf of boys and girls of Hindu community for declaration of trust in their favour is maintainable. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 236 (241) : 1 L R (1940) 1 Cal 14.

[35] A representative suit brought by a person on behalf of himself and another or others is different from a suit in a representative capacity, i. e., as executor, guardian, trustee, etc. A suit brought by a Hindu reversioner is really brought on behalf of the entire body of reversioners. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 479 (480) & (1912) 8 Nag L R 113 (121, 122). (Reversionary suit to set aside an alienation.)

[36] One of the several karnavans in a family having got a preferential right as to management — It does not make the right he possesses different to what the other members possess. (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 751 (754).

[37] Where subscribers as such, under the rules of the society had no control over the officers of the society a suit by some of the subscribers for removal of the office-bearers is not maintainable under this rule. (1909) 32 Mad 131 (134, 135).

[38] Suit under S. 14, Religious Endowments Act (1863), is representative suit. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 560 (562) : 41 Mad 237.

[39] Suit under S. 92 — Advocate General's sanction obtained — Procedure under O. 1, R. 8, need not be followed. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1070 (1070, 1072) & (1900) 23 Mad 99 (100).

[40] Suit to recover temple property — No proper trustee to the suit temple — Suit under O. 1, R. 8, for restoring property to proper trustee is not maintainable. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 614 (620).

[41] Where a case is not covered by S. 92, Civil P. C., the suit may be brought under O. 1, R. 8, although it relates to a public trust. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 305 (308, 309) & (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 179 (180, 181) & (1885) 11 Cal 33 (37) & (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 81 (81).

[42] Scheme of management can be claimed in representative capacity — Suit how framed illustrated. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 1143 (1144).

8. Matters in respect of which representative suit can be brought. — [1] Representative suit lies in respect of declaration and injunction but not in respect of actions of debt, money claims, or liabilities in contract or tort. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 755 (755, 756) : 1 L R (1938) Mad 1094.

[See also (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 247 (248). (Suit by co-sharer in fishery estate for declaration that principal defendants, namely, persons following trade of fishermen and others of their caste had no right in fishery — Relief against principal defendants only for damages for fish actually caught and for injunction restraining principal defendants from further trespass can be joined with former relief.)]

[2] No representative suit can lie when sole relief claimed is damages suffered. (Vol 17) 1930 Rang 177 (181) : 8 Rang 250. (By publication of a libel.)

[3] But if damages are coupled with other reliefs, then leave may be granted, provided the damages are not claimed in a representative capacity but by each individual. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 1143 (1144). & (Vol 26

O. 1 R. 8 (contd.)

1939 Mad 783 (788). (When a representative suit properly framed for other relief incidentally involves a claim for damages put forward by certain individuals among the plaintiffs, such a claim can be urged as ancillary to the main suit.)

[4] Under law an unincorporated body cannot be sued as such for recovery of a debt or on a contract. The procedure under O. 1, R. 8 is inapplicable to a case of this kind. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 530 (531).

[5] A suit for damages for breach of a contract of employment against an unregistered society whose property and funds are not vested in any individual but belongs to the members, through some of its members is maintainable. (Vol 32) 1945 Bom 465 (469).

9. Permission of Court. — [1] A suit in order to be representative may be brought in the manner provided by O. 1, R. 8. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 666 (666).

[2] No representative suit can be brought without permission of Court — Courts cannot go into merits of representative action unless permission is obtained. (Vol 16) 1929 All 806 (807).

[3] Where a suit is not properly a representative suit, a Court cannot adjudicate upon a public right claimed on behalf of a community. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 487 (488).

[4] Suit by decree-holder under O. 21, R. 63 and S. 53, T. P. Act, alleged to be on behalf of all creditors — Permission under O. 1, R. 8 not obtained — Suit is not representative. (Vol 30) 1943 Lah 96 (97).

[5] Judicial permission not obtained — Consequently notices not issued — Suit is not representative but one between named plaintiffs and named defendants only. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 366 (368) : 15 Lah 807.

[6] Provisions of R. 8 not called in aid, nor Court's permission taken — Decree binds only actual parties to suit. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 230 (231) * (Vol 27) 1940 Oudh 129 (131) : 15 Luck 253. (Suit against association — Procedure under O. 1, R. 8 not followed — Prejudice is obvious if members not on record are held bound by decree.) * (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 205 (208) : 7 Pat 197. (Decree can be passed only as against the defendants actually before the Court.)

[8] Before instituting a suit under O. 1, R. 8, leave of the Court must be obtained and the requirements of the rule must be complied with before the suit can be proceeded with and unless this is done the suit must be dismissed. But the Court has discretion to grant leave under O. 1, R. 8 and its provisions may be complied with subsequent to the filing of the suit and when that has been done the suit cannot be dismissed. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 809 (809, 810) : 44 Cal 258 * (1898) 22 All 269 (270) * (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 805 (819) : 47 Bom 809 * (1897) 21 Bom 784 (785, 786) (F B) * (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 161 (164) : 11 L R (1943) Mad 267. (Suit without permission — Permission obtained afterwards — Court does not act without jurisdiction within Civil P. C., S. 115.)

[9] The fact that leave had previously been refused does not affect the matter. (1902) 25 Mad 399 (401).

[10] Omission to apply for permission under this rule is not by itself ground for dismissing suit but if objection has been taken, it ought not to be allowed to proceed unless the plaint being amended and requisite leave being obtained. (1900) 23 Mad 29 (32).

[11] Plea as to absence of permission if not raised in trial Court cannot be raised in appeal. (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 76 (77).

[12] Permission once obtained under R. 8 in suit is good for appeal also. (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 273 (274) : 1919 Pun Re No. 46.

[13] Court should exercise a judicial discretion in granting permission to a person to sue in a representative capacity under this rule. (1890) 17 Cal 906 (910).

[14] Permission granted to sue under O. 1, R. 8 — Order cannot be reviewed by successor of Judge passing order. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 65 (66).

[17] Publication of notice — Permission should be inferred. (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 451 (452).

[18] Where an order referring to S. 80 old Code (O. 1, R. 8) directed that a proclamation be made "inviting all persons interested to come in and be made parties. . ." it was held, on the language of the order that permission was not granted. (1891) 14 Mad 57 (60, 61).

[19] Where plaintiffs sued for a declaration of their right to the regular offerings made out of the funds of a temple without the Court giving permission to any definitely named persons among those interested to represent the rest and where the notice issued by Court did not show who the persons were that had been selected to represent the remaining persons interested, it was held that the suit must fail by reason of defect of parties. (1890) 17 Cal 906 (911).

[20] Where the trial Judge suo motu acted under O. 1, R. 8 without any application being made by plaintiffs making out a case for adopting the procedure under O. 1, R. 8, it was held that the procedure adopted by trial Judge was irregular. (1932) 33 Pun L R 221 (222).

[21] Permission granted for representative suit — Some of several representatives not joining in the suit — Fresh permission is necessary. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 547 (548).

10. May be sued. — [1] The consent of the defendants on the record is not necessary to enable a Court to allow a plaintiff to sue persons as representing themselves and others, having the same interest in the subject-matter of the suit. defendants and case ought not to be remanded. (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 245 (250).

[4] Notice must show names of persons permitted to represent other persons interested. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 608 (611).

[5] Notices issued under O. 1, R. 8 are definite enough though a particular person is not directed by an express order to defend the suit. (1910) 6 Ind Cas 46 (47) (Cal).

[6] Defendant knowing about representative suit but not applying to be impleaded and decree passed — Fact of his name not being mentioned in notice does not make decree nullity. (Vol 29) 1942 Lah 136 (137).

[7] Suit instituted for self and Zamindar Sabha — Sabha consisting of 70 members — No notice issued to them or to members generally — Notice on eight named persons of which three not mentioned in proceedings — No mention about asking or giving of permission under O. 1, R. 8 — Notice published in English newspaper — Members not knowing English — Notice and its service held not proper — Irregularity vitiated whole proceedings. (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 749 (751, 752) : 15 Lah 123.

[8] Permission to plaintiffs under O. 1, R. 8 given after issue of notice of institution of suit by public advertisement — Order 1, R. 8 held sufficiently complied with. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 161 (164) : 1 I L R (1943) Mad 267.

12. Title of suit. — [1] Suit in representative capacity — It is not necessary to state in cause title of plaint, nature of representative capacity, although it is convenient place for statement. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 245 (247) : 46 Cal 877 & (1900) 23 Mad 29 (31). (Rule is permissive and not prohibitive.)

[See also (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 339 (339, 340). (Express mention as to litigating in representative capacity is necessary.)

[2] Suit for declaration that wakf was for benefit of Shia community — Cause title of plaint containing names of plaintiffs — Copy of plaint attached to notice under S. 80 — Subsequently plaintiff's application for issue of notices under O. 1, R. 8, stating suit to be on behalf of Shia community allowed — Plaint held contained sufficient indication of suit being representative — Failure to specify suit to be representative in plaint annexed to notice under S. 80 held not fatal defect — Statement in plaint that plaintiffs were entitled to "hissas" and "rewards" held did not alter character of suit. (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 343 (348) : 1 I L R (1942) 1 Cal 211.

[3] Defendant not objecting to frame of representative suit — Suit supported by large number of persons of locality to the knowledge of defendant — Amendment of plaint is not necessary. (Vol 18) 1931 Oudh 375 (377).

13. Addition of parties. — [1] Only representatives appointed by Court are parties to suit — Suit compromised by such representatives and compromise given effect to by Court — Others are not entitled to appeal from such decree. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 33 (34).

[2] Representative suit — Persons represented can apply to be made parties — But Court cannot compel plaintiff to add such persons as co-plaintiffs. (Vol 23) 1936 Bom 423 (431).

[3] A person claiming to be made a party to an administration suit under O. 1, R. 8 (2) must show that the conduct of the suit is not in proper hands, and that his interests shall be seriously affected to his prejudice. To state that he is coming in at his own risk, and that he is willing to bear all the costs does not cover the whole ground. (1910) 34 Bom 420 (421).

[4] Persons not among those appointed by Court to defend suit under O. 1, R. 8 nor impleaded as defendants under sub-r. (2) of R. 8 are not parties — Their absence from record is immaterial. (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 572 (578) : 1 I L R (1940) Lah 199.

[5] Where in a suit under this rule the plaintiffs on record neglect to execute the decree in their favour, the Court may add other persons as parties to enable them to execute the decree. (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 472 (473).

14. Decree in representative suit. — [1] Decree against managing committee of school is binding on school and can be executed against assets of school — Members paying debt are entitled to be indemnified out of assets of school. (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 329 (331, 332) : 60 Cal 794.

[2] Execution of decree for injunction in representative suit — Decree can be executed against all defendants and not merely chosen representatives. (Vol 29) 1942 Lah 136 (137, 138).

[3] In a suit where the defendants are sued in a representative capacity all that the plaintiff is entitled to against them is a declaration of his right as against the class whom the named defendants represent. He is not entitled to a personal decree against them, but is only entitled to be paid out of the funds or the property and assets belonging to the class and in which all the members of the class are interested. (Vol 29) 1942 Bom 136 (138) : 1 I L R (1942) Bom 504.

[4] Section 70, Contract Act, applies where "person" is large caste and sued in representative action but it is unfair to make personal decree against members of caste and plaintiff should be directed to proceed against property of caste. (Vol 4) 1917 Bom 141 (147) : 42 Bom 556.

[5] A decree in a suit where one person is allowed to represent another or others as defendant in a representative capacity binds the other only with respect to their property which he represents in law although the parties on record may be made personally liable. An injunction in cases falling under O. 1, R. 8, does not bind persons not parties on record. (1913) 36 Mad 414 417.

[6] Representative character of parties must be established before S. 11, Expl. VI can be applied. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 271 (274) : 59 Cal 636.

[7] Official Receiver is not privy of creditor — Creditors are not bound by decision in suit to which official receiver was party. (Vol 6) 1919 Sind 42 (45) : 12 Sind L R 61.

[8] Karnavan of a Malabar tarwad sued for redemption and obtained a decree. Before he had obtained the decree, the junior members not knowing the previous suit, filed another suit for redemption of the same property with the permission of the Court under O. 1, R. 8, Civil P. C. In the first suit, however, the Karnavan did not implead junior members and even disputed their title as members of his tarwad. Held, that the second suit was not barred under S. 11. (1910) 8 Ind Cas 129 (130) (Mad).

[9] Suit to which O. 1, R. 8 applies conducted without complying with conditions imposed by the rule — Benefit of S. 11, Expl. VI cannot be extended to decree passed in such suit. [10] Certain persons of Vaniya Caste instituting suit for recovery of damages — Neither permission was taken nor notices as required under O. 1, R. 8 issued — Suit held to be inter partes and hence decision in it cannot bind community. (Vol 20) 1933 P C 183 (188) : 60 Ind App 278 : 56 Mad 657 (P C).

[11] Previous suit even though intended to be of representative nature will not bar subsequent suit if provisions of O. 1, R. 8 were not complied with. (Vol 25), 1938 All 523 (524).

O. 1 R. 8 (contd.)

[12] Suit against association through one of its members without following procedure under O. 1, R. 8 — No personal relief claimed against that member — Decree cannot be converted into decree against member personally. (Vol 27) 1940 Oudh 129 (132); 15 Luck 253.

[13] If the alleged common right in a representative suit is negatived by the Court, the suit should be dismissed. In such a suit, a Court cannot declare the rights of individuals who are quite distinct in legal conception from the class of persons on whose behalf the suit is brought though it is open to pass a decree in favour of persons forming a small number out of a large class. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 628 (631, 632).

[14] Suit under O. 1, R. 8 — All parties including defendant 3 agreeing to decree being passed against defendants 1, 2 and 4 in their representative capacity — Fact that Court allowed defendant 3 to drop out cannot affect decree passed as agreed. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 161 (164) : I L R (1943) Mad 267.

[15] Representative suit under O. 1, R. 8 dismissed at instance of representative — Dismissal is not res judicata against representative not made party to suit. (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 24 (25, 26) : 1940 Rang L R 643.

[16] Order 1, R. 8, is merely an enabling rule and does not prevent a representative suit being brought in any other manner than the law permits. [18] Suit against manager of Hindu joint family on allegation of trespass — Defendant claiming property for his family — Suit binds other members. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 640 (644).

[19] A suit was brought against the Karnavan of a Malabar Tarwad in his representative capacity and the suit was decreed against the Karnavan after contest. Held, an Anandavan cannot avoid the decree by means of a suit, in the absence of allegations of fraud. (1911) 8 Ind Cas 435 (436) (Mad). ((1897) 20 Mad 129, followed)

[20] Where a karnavan is not sued as such or there is nothing on face of record to show that it was intended to implead him in his representative character the decree does not bind the tarwad. (1887) 10 Mad 322 (329, 330) * (1887) 10 Mad 79 (84).

15. Costs in representative suit.—[1] Representative action—Caution is necessary in giving leave under R. 8 and drawing up orders for costs — It should be clearly specified as to who is to bear costs. (Vol 4) 1917 Bom 141 (148) : 42 Bom 556.

[2] Suit in representative capacity dismissed — Costs cannot be ordered to be paid by person on whose behalf it has been brought. (Vol 22) 1935 Oudh 369 (370) : 11 Luck 150.

[3] Where a minor legatee by her next friend brought a representative suit without obtaining the requisite leave under this rule and adduced no evidence to show that the suit was for the benefit of minor, the next friend was held liable for costs personally. (1885) 11 Cal 213 (219).

16. Compromise of representative suit.—[1] Persons suing in a representative capacity with the leave of the Court can compromise so as to bind those whom they represent, provided the compromise was not unreasonable, fraudulent or dishonest. (1912) 24 Mad L Jour 192 (194, 195) * (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 161 (164, 165) : I L R (1943) Mad 267.

ORDER 1 RULE 9 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Applicability and scope.
2. Non-joinder of parties.
3. Mis-joinder of parties.
4. Mis-joinder of parties and causes of action — Multifariousness.
5. Mortgage suits—Non-joinder in—See O. 34, R. 1.
6. Arbitration proceedings.

1. Applicability and scope. — [1] Order 1, R. 9, has no application to a case where there is no party on one side present in Court at all. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 375 (376) : 9 Lah 588.

[2] Rule does not apply to appeal before Board when defect of nonjoinder was pointed out in trial Court. (Vol 19) 1931 P C 229 (231) (P C).

[3] Rule 9 is confined to cases where the Court can deal with the matter in controversy with regard to the rights and interests of the parties actually before it. (Vol 6) 1919 All 322 (323)* (1912) 16 Cal W N 639 (640).

[4] Non-joinder of parties to appeal making it impossible to deal with matter equitably and sufficiently—Non-joinder cannot be condoned. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 606 (607) : 1 Luck 580.

[5] Non-joinder — Rule can be applied at any stage of proceeding—Equitable relief in favour of plaintiff should be refused only when plaintiff's conduct disen-titles him to it and adding of party would unduly prejudice defendant. (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 520 (521, 522).

[6] Even though the Court has power to join, the Court cannot join a party, when the litigant, in whose interest the joinder is to be made, refuses to have the parties joined. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 5 (8) : I L R (1941) Nag 615.

[7] Where plaintiffs refuse to implead a party necessary to the adjudication of the suit in spite of Court's direction to do so, the Court can rightly dismiss the suit. (Vol 8) 1921 All 411 (413) * (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 187 (192) : 1915 Pun Re No. 3 * (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 664 (667). (Non-joinder of necessary party in spite of objection taken from start—Suit should be dismissed.)

[8] Where no issue on the question of non-joinder was framed and the plaintiff had no opportunity of adducing evidence on the plea of non-joinder and was not shown to have been directed by the Court to bring the necessary parties on the record, held that the Court should not have dismissed the suit for non-joinder. (1910) 1910 Pun L R No. 217, p. 663.

[9] Suit should not be dismissed on ground of non-joinder without allowing parties opportunity of amending plaint. If the plea of non-joinder is raised and the Court dismisses the suit on that ground its action is contrary to the provisions of O. 1, R. 9. (Vol 17) 1930 Rang 295 (296).

[10] Order 1, R. 9 has no retrospective effect. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 215 (216). (Section 31 of the 1882 Code did not apply to non-joinder.)

[11] Order 1, Rule 9, applies to cases where there may be multiplicity of suits. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 1050 (1051).

[12] Suit instituted against trustee—All trustees not made parties under O. 31, R. 2—No decree can be passed against any trustee — Order 1, R. 9 has no application. (Vol 21) 1934 All 1 (3) : 55 All 687.

2. Non-joinder of parties. — [1] The rule applies to non-joinder and therefore a failure to join a party does not per se entail the dismissal of the suit. (Vol 16) 1929 All 439 (440) * (1930) 1930 All L Jour 247 (248)* (1912) 9 All L Jour 410 (419) * (1909) 3 Ind Cas 291 (293) (Cal) * (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 187 (192) : 1915 Pun Re No. 3 * (Vol 8) 1921 Oudh 148 (149).

[2] Whether suit should be dismissed for non-joinder, being barred against party not joined, depends upon facts of each case. (Vol 26) 1939 All 235 (236).

1. Addition and substitution of plaintiff — Sub-rule (1).—[1] Where a suit is brought by a plaintiff who subsequently discovers that he cannot get all the reliefs he seeks, unless he joins other persons as co-plaintiffs or that some other person and not the original plaintiff is entitled to the relief, O. 1, R. 10 (1) permits the new party to be added or substituted. (1910) 12 Cal L Jour 537 (540, 541).

[2] To apply sub r. (1), it must be shown that there was mistake and that addition or substitution of new plaintiff is necessary. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 340 (342). (Addition or substitution of plaintiff should not be made without consent of existing plaintiffs.)

[3] No person can be added as plaintiff unless his presence is necessary. (1911) 11 Ind Cas 223 (225) (All). [4] A Court cannot under O. 1, R. 10 add persons as parties who are indirectly interested. (1910) 6 Ind Cas 36 (37) (All).

[5] Party not personally interested in suit cannot be joined as co-plaintiff. (Vol 17) 1930 Sind 73 (74).

[See (1889) 11 All 104 (107, 108). (Relation of defamed person cannot sue for defamation.)]

[6] Rule should not be utilized to give good cause of action to plaintiff on record by joining a person who has good cause of action. (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 424 (426) * (1911) 11 Ind Cas 223 (225) (All) * (1881) 6 Cal 370 (371) * (1876-78) 1 Mad 383 (384).

[7] Finding that plaintiff must fail — Court cannot import new co-plaintiff having different cause of action. (Vol 2) 1915 Low Bur 45 (46) : 8 Low Bur Rul 302.

[8] Substitute can only be added to enforce a single right pleaded in suit and not to bolster up suit by pleading his own individual right. (Vol 17) 1930 Sind 73 (74).

[9] Power to substitute plaintiff under O. 1 R. 10 is not excluded where person originally suing has no right to institute suit. (1907) 30 Mad 412 (420) * (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 180 (180) * (Vol 21) 1934 Nag 159 (160) : 31 Nag L R 9 * (Vol 8) 1921 Sind 59 (60) : 16 Sind L R 71.

[11] Suit for injunction and demolition of construction put by defendant — Plaintiff found to have no right to sue — Another person added as plaintiff — Discretion of Court held was properly exercised under O. 1, R. 10. (1912) 18 Ind Cas 350 (350, 351) (All).

[12] Plaintiff wrongly described as 'mandir' in plaint — Plaintiff held could be amended by striking out word 'mandir' and substituting word 'deity' for it. (Vol 24) 1937 Nag 173 (174) : I L R (1937) Nag 514

[13] Once all parties are before the Court, the Court can make the appropriate order and should give judgment in favour of all the persons interested whether they be joined as plaintiffs or defendants. [2] A plaintiff impleading a person as a party must state the facts on which he imputes a liability to the person so cited. (1912) 15 Oudh Cas 304 (308, 309).

[3] Application of plaintiff to implead another defendant on allegation found in written statement of defendant — Held he should be impleaded. (Vol 21) 1934 Oudh 347 (348).

[4] A Court may, in the exercise of its discretion, add a party to a suit upon his own application. (1886) 13 Cal 90 (95).

[5] Where a person applies to be made a party to a suit what the Court ought to see is whether there is anything which cannot be determined owing to his absence or whether he will be prejudiced by his not being joined as a party. (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 291 (293).

[6] A Court cannot pass a decree against a person, against whom the plaintiff does not seek relief, and who is joined as a defendant on his own application. His position and that of a person who is joined without any such application are very different, in that the former has to make out a prima facie case before the plaintiff can be asked to meet it. (Vol 7) 1920 Nag 216 (218) * (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 909 (909, 910).

[7] Application to be added as plaintiff.—Court cannot dismiss suit first and then dismiss application on ground that there was nothing pending before it to which party could be added. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 79 (81).

[8] Court can allow a party to be added on condition that he can only intervene at a particular stage in the suit and cannot question orders passed before he applied. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 580 (580): 58 Cal 801.

[9] Prayer to be made co-plaintiff.—On rejection applicant cannot ask the application to be treated as one under O. 22, R. 10. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 627 (628).

5. Proper and necessary parties.—[1] A person would be a necessary party if he ought to have been joined, that is to say, in whose absence no effective decree can be passed at all. [16] A suing B for money due — C claiming money as against A also made defendant — C cannot be transposed as plaintiff. (Vol 8) 1921 All 184 (185).

19. Transposition of plaintiff as defendant. — [1] Court can transfer a party from the category of plaintiffs to that of defendants. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 328 (328).

[2] Person purchasing right to recover certain amount instituting suit to recover it by adding seller as co-plaintiff — Seller claiming adversely to purchaser — Seller's name as co-plaintiff should be struck off and he should be transposed as defendant. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 69 (70).

[3] Suit for partnership accounts — Preliminary decree passed — Plaintiff wishing to withdraw from the suit but defendant desiring to continue — Plaintiff should be transferred as defendants and defendants as plaintiffs. (Vol 13) 1926 All 532 (533).

20. Misdescription of parties. — [1] Where there is a misdescription of the defendant in the cause title there is complete power in the Court to make the necessary correction without any regard to lapse of time. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 37 (38) : 3 Pat 230. [15] Party alleging non-joinder must show which of the parties are absent. (Vol 21) 1934 Pat 44 (45) * (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 414 (416).

[16] Plea of non-joinder of others of plaintiffs can be raised only by the defendants who have an interest in the subject-matter of the suit and not by those found subsequently not to have any interest therein. (Vol 1) 1914 Oudh 109 (111).

[17] An objection, which did not exist at or before the first hearing, can be taken if it is taken at the earliest opportunity after it came into existence. (1880-1881) 5 Bom 609 (613).

ORDER 2, RULE 1 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope.

2. "Subjects in dispute."

3. "As far as practicable."

1. Scope. — [1] Rule 1 refers to joinder of causes of action and relief and of parties. (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 187 (192) : 1915 Pun Re No 3.

[2] The object of the rule is that all matters in dispute between parties relating to the same transaction must be disposed of in the same suit. (1898) 25 Cal 371 (389) (F B) * (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 175 (176) * (1903) 26 Mad 760 (763).

[3] Where essential fact is suppressed and suit is not framed so as to afford ground for final decision later suit on same cause of action is repugnant to O. 2, R. 1. (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 114 (116).

[4] Plaintiff cannot set up one plea and on its failure set up another — If in doubt he should plead alternative cases. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 900 (900).

[5] For the effect of non-compliance with this rule see S. 11, Expl. IV and O. 2, R. 2.

2. "Subjects in dispute." — [1] Expression "subjects in dispute" means the right which one party claims against the other and not only the cause of action. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 234 (235) * (1903) 26 Mad 760 (766).

[See (1908) 31 Mad 385 (396). (Suit to establish claim as reversioner — That claim should be held as subject in dispute.)]

[2] It is not necessary that all the causes of action should be joined in the same suit, but the suit should include the whole claim arising out of the same cause of action, that is the cause of action for which the suit is brought. (1921) 59 Ind Cas 517 (519) (Cal) * (1883) 9 Cal 919 (920). (Overruled in (1888) 15 Cal 145 (F B) on another point.) * (1865) 2 Mad H C R 131 (142).

[4] Pending suit under S. 9, Specific Relief Act, plaintiff filing suit for cancellation of gift deed under which defendant claimed title — Held this was not splitting up of claim and second suit was not barred. (1904) 26 All 236 (237, 238).

2. (1) Every suit shall include the whole of the claim² which the plaintiff is entitled to make in respect of the cause of action;⁵ but a plaintiff may relinquish²⁰ any portion of his claim in order to bring the suit within the jurisdiction of any Court.

(2) Where a plaintiff omits to sue in respect of, or intentionally relinquishes, any portion of his claim,⁸ he shall not afterwards sue³³ in respect of the portion so omitted or relinquished.

(3) A person entitled to more than one relief in respect of the same cause of action may sue for all or any of such reliefs, but if he omits, except with the leave of the Court,²⁷ to sue for all such reliefs,²¹ he shall not afterwards sue³³ for any reliefs so omitted.

Explanation. — For the purposes of this rule an obligation and a collateral security⁶ for its performance and successive claims arising under the same obligation⁷ shall be deemed respectively to constitute but one cause of action.

Illustration.

A lets a house to B at a yearly rent of Rs. 1200. The rent for the whole of the years 1905, 1906 and 1907 is due and unpaid. A sues B in 1908 only for the rent due for 1906. A shall not afterwards sue B for the rent due for 1905 or 1907.

O. 2 R. 1 (contd.)

[5] A plaintiff can ordinarily only sue to establish his own rights. When suing for himself only, he has no right to obtain an adjudication as to the claims of others. (1905) 9 Cal W N 498 (499).

[6] A suit for partition should embrace the whole partible property belonging to the parties. (1909) 4 Ind Cas 812 (813, 814) (Upp Bur) (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 1076 (1077) & (1902) 25 Mad 367 (378, 379) : 29 Ind App 76 (P O).

[7] Suit for declaration of a charge for maintenance — Suit must be so framed as to enable ascertainment of actual extent of right (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 18 (19).

[8] Suit on mortgage — Mortgagee also acting as managing agent of mortgagor's business — Mortgagor cannot in mortgage suit claim account of the agency — If mortgagee however received lump sum of money mortgagor can claim credit for that sum. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 85 (85, 86).

3. "As far as practicable." — [1] It will not be practicable to join in one suit different grounds when evidence in support of one ground will be destructive of the other. (1908) 31 Mad 385 (396).

1. Scope and object.—[1] The defendant should not be twice vexed for one and the same cause. (Vol 18) 1931 P C 229 (230) (PC) & (1897) 19 All 379 (383) (FB).

[2] This rule does not vest any right in the defendants. (Vol 20) 1933 All 228 (229).

[3] The rule bars the splitting of claims and the splitting of remedies. (1901) 25 Bom 161 (167) & (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 126 (126) : 41 Cal 825 & (1910) 7 All L Jour 627 (629) & (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 309 (310).

[4] The rule has reference to the subject-matter of the claim and not to the persons against whom it may be made. (1884) 10 Cal 924 (927).

[5] Parties by agreement cannot override this rule. (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 121 (122) : 1914 Pun Re No. 4.

[6] The rule should be construed strictly. (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 126 (126) : 41 Cal 825 & (1886) 12 Cal 339 (345).

[7] Omission to object under this rule in the previous suit is not a bar to an objection in respect of the later suit. (Vol 29) 1942 Pesh 9 (10). (No estoppel against a statute.)

Cal 217. (Application for restoration of possession by way of restitution — No bar to second application for mesne profits.)

[8a] The rule does not apply after suit is filed. (Vol 30) 1943 Nag 293 (295) : I L R (1943) Nag 608.

[9] Rule 2 framed under Madras Agriculturists' Relief Act (4 [IV] of 1938) is not ultra vires of O. 2, R. 2. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 362 (363) : I L R (1942) Mad 647.

[10] For certain limitations to this rule, see O. 2, Rules 3, 4 and 5; for an exception to this rule, see O. 34, Rule 14.

2. Whole claim to be included in suit.—[1] Under sub-r. (1) every suit shall include the whole of the claim in respect of the cause of action. (1901) 25 Bom 161 (164, 165, 166, 167, 168) * (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 841 (843, 844) : 43 Cal 95*(1906) 30 Bom 156 (163) * (Vol 28) 1936 Lah 379 (380).

[2] Under sub-r. (3) the plaintiff may sue for one or more reliefs, with the leave of the Court to sue later on for the other reliefs. (1881) 5 Bom 463 (465).

3. Plaintiff must have been aware of the claim.—

[1] The plaintiff must have been aware, at the time of his first suit, of his right to the portion omitted by him or of the facts which would have entitled him to sue for it. (1896) 19 Mad 145 (148)(Vol 10) 1923 All 230 (230, 231)(1888) : 15 Cal 800 (808) : 15 Ind App 106 (P C).

[2] Actual knowledge, and not merely constructive knowledge, is necessary to bar a subsequent suit. (Vol 5) 1918 Nag 158 (159).

[3] The fact that the omission was due to oversight or accidental is no reason for allowing subsequent suit. (1867) 11 Moo Ind App 551 (605, 606) (P C) * (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 37 (38) * (1944) 1944 Oudh W N (H C) 23 (24, 25).

4. Court to have jurisdiction to try the claim.—

[1] In order that this rule may apply the Court which tried the former suit must have had jurisdiction to try the claim omitted. (Vol 27) 1940 P C 70 (74) : 67 Ind App 179 : I L R (1940) Kar P C 149 : I L R (1940) Lah 330 (P C).

[2-3] In respect of a claim not triable by the Revenue Court, but decided by it a later suit is not barred. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 325 (327) : 17 Luck 712* (1887) 9 All 23 (25)*(1898) 1898 Pun Re No. 30, p. 99 (100).

[4] Addition of claim offending against O. 2, Rr. 4 and 5 — Claim may be omitted. (1902) 24 All 553 (554, 555).

[5] Where the sanction of Government was necessary and suit was instituted without it, there is no bar. (1870) 5 Mad H C B 419 (422).

[7] Addition of relief depriving the Court of jurisdiction does not affect the applicability of the rule. (Vol 9) 1916 Low Bur 43 (44)*(Vol 18) 1931 Mad 705 (706, 707).

5. Cause of action. — [1] Cause of action means the facts which entitle the plaintiff to sue with reference to the subject-matter of the suit. (Vol 24) 1937 Rang 324 (329) * (Vol 29) 1942 All 410 (417) : I L R (1942) All 624 * (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 407 (410) * (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 76 (77) : 18 Pat 789 * (Vol 24) 1937 Rang 324 (329) * (Vol 22) 1935 All 81 (82).

[2] "Cause of action" in this rule means the cause of action for which the suit was brought. (1885) 8 Mad 520 (524) : 12 Ind App 116 (P C).

[3] Where the same evidence will sustain both suits, the cause of action is one. (Vol 27) 1940 Bom 20 (21) : I L R (1939) Bom 721 * (Vol 3) 1916 Bom 810 (810, 311) : 40 Bom 351 * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 524 (524, 525) : 28 Oudh Cas 82 * (1886) 9 Mad 279 (281).

[But see (1898) 16 All 165 (173) (F B).]

[4] The allegations in the two suits and not the facts found by the Court in the former suit decide whether the cause of action is the same. [See also (1888) 15 Cal 422 (431) : 15 Ind App 66 (P C).]

[6] Plaintiff cannot split up the parts constituting the same cause of action and file different suits in respect of them. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 53 (54) * (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 715 (717).

[See however (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 366 (368). (Even one different fact makes causes of action different.)]

6. Obligation and collateral security. — [1] An obligation and a collateral security for its performance constitute one cause of action. (1880) 2 All 838 (839).

[2] Except for the Explanation, the two would constitute distinct causes of action as they are under the English law. (1914) 41 Ind App 142 (148) (P C). (Case under Ceylon C. P. Code, S. 34, corresponding to O. 2, R. 2) * (Vol 9) 1922 P C 412 (413) : 4 Lah 32 : 50 Ind App 115 (P C).

7. Successive claims under the same obligation. —

[1] Successive claims arising under the same obligation constitute a single cause of action. (1873) 20 Suth W R 358 (361) * (1906) 8 Bom L R 547 (549).

[2] In the following cases it was held that the suit should include the whole claim :—

(a) Arrears of instalments under instalment bond. (1886) 9 Mad 279 (280, 281).

(b) Arrears of rent for successive years. (Vol 12) 1925 All 795 (796, 797) * (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 152 (153) : 46 Bom 229 * (1884) 8 Bom 164 (167) * (1895) 22 Cal 680 (691) * (1885) 12 Cal 50 (51). (Omission of rent for later years.) * (1910) 38 Mad 817 (818) * (1904) 27 Mad 116 (117, 118).

(d) Suits for profits. (1885) 7 All 761 (762, 763).

(e) Suits for annuity. (Vol 9) 1922 All 379 (380, 381) : 44 All 663.

[3] The rule does not prevent the plaintiff from taking any other remedy which he may have for recovery. (1898) 21 Mad 236 (237).

8. Portion of claim omitted from suit. — [1]

Omission to sue for the whole claim will bar a fresh suit in respect of the portion so omitted. (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 309 (310)(1901) 25 Bom 161 (167)(1905) 2 Cal L Jour 480 (484)*(Vol 20) 1933 Lah 412 (415).

[3] An action for breach of contract of sale of goods for non-acceptance of a portion of goods and refusal to pay for goods accepted should not be split up into a suit for price of goods and another for damages for non-acceptance. (1892) 19 Cal 372 (376) (FB).

[4] Prima facie each separate order and delivery of goods constitute separate cause of action. (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 145 (146): 1 Rang 694 * (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 544 (545).

[5] All the goods to be delivered under a single contract constitute only one cause of action. (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 249 (252): 2 Rang 66 * (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 145 (146): 1 Rang 694.

[6] Where the indent provides that each monthly shipment will be a separate contract, a separate cause of action will arise in respect of each monthly shipment. (1896) 19 Mad 304 (306)* (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 126 (127): 41 Cal 825.

10. Suits relating to different properties.—[1] Where the facts complained of are the same, there is only one cause of action though the reliefs sought may relate to different properties or different portions of a property. (Vol 29) 1942 All 122 (125, 126): 1 L R (1942) All 103* (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 407 (411)* (1867) 11 Moo Ind App 551 (605) (PC). 11. Suit for rent. — [1] A suit for rent must include the whole amount due to the plaintiff as rent.

[2] Though rent may be due under a particular muchiika where there are more than one, yet, non-payment of rent at a particular time is one cause of action. (1904) 27 Mad 116 (118).

12. Suit for damages for tort.—[1] In a suit for damages for tort the entire amount of damages has to be recovered in one suit. (Vol 18) 1931 All 670 (672).

13. Suit for demurrage. — [1] In a suit for demurrage omission to claim a portion of the relief will prevent a subsequent suit in respect of it. (1870) 14 Suth W R 253 (253).

14. Suit for accounts. — [1] A suit for accounts should include all items claimed. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 568 (570) * (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 321 (322).

[2] Several transactions, if they form one continuous course of dealing or form parts of one transaction, constitute one cause of action. (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 126 (127): 41 Cal 825. (Different contracts but forming one transaction.)

[3] Non-payment of court-fees or omission to mention the specific amount, defendant will be entitled to on taking of accounts, will not amount to a waiver of such amount. (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 247 (249).

15. Suits on mortgages.—[1] Mortgagor's suit for redemption must include the whole property of which recovery is sought. (1905) 28 Mad 406 (407, 408) * (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 63 (64).

[But see (1886) 9 Mad 92 (95)]

[3] The provisions of the Civil Procedure Code are not applicable to Village Munsif's Courts and hence this rule does not apply to a suit brought in such Courts. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 544 (546)* (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 99 (100). (But a similar provision is enacted in Madras Village Courts Act in Section 18).

ORDER 2, RULE 3 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Addition of unnecessary parties.
2. Alternative reliefs.
3. Applicability of the Rule.
4. Jurisdiction.
5. Misjoinder of defendants and causes of action.
6. Misjoinder of plaintiffs and causes of action.
7. One plaintiff, one defendant, several causes of action.
8. One plaintiff—Two or more defendants—Causes of action joint against all.
9. Procedure in cases of misjoinder.
- 9a. Revision.
10. Rule presupposes several causes of action.
11. Two or more plaintiffs—One defendant—Plaintiffs jointly interested in the cause of action.
12. Two or more plaintiffs — Two or more defendants.

1. Addition of unnecessary parties. — [1] Suit for pre-emption of several plots sold by different vendors—Vendee same—Joinder of vendors as defendants will not make suit bad for misjoinder as vendor is not necessary party to suit. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 156 (157) * (1910) 32 All 14 (18). (6 All 106, dissented from.)

2. Alternative reliefs. — [1] A plaintiff can join two reliefs in one suit and claim them alternatively. (1912) 8 Nag L R 7 (10) (Claim on an original contract and a claim on a substituted contract.) * (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 813 (814). (Suit for rent — Alternative claim for money decree against plaintiff's co-sharer.) * (1906) 4 Cal L Jour 367 (368). (A claim for easement can be joined in the alternative with a claim on proprietary right.) * (1941) 22 Pat L Tim 196 (199). (Suit for enforcement of the mortgage bond—Prayer in the alternative against the assignor of the bond — There are no distinct causes of action against the mortgagor and the assignor.)

[2] A party may join two or more alternative claims for relief based on inconsistent allegations but is not bound to do so unless such joinder is possible without confusion or embarrassment and without impleading others as parties. (1912) 17 Ind Cas 334 (337) (Oudh) * (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 280 (281). (Inconsistent reliefs are not necessarily to be rejected — Rescission and specific performance of contract in alternative can be claimed.)

[3] Suit by vendee of mortgagee rights against mortgagors—Vendee can implead his vendor as well and ask for relief in the alternative — Suit not barred by O. 1, R. 3—Nor can relief against vendor be said to be premature — Applicability of O. 2, R. 3, is doubtful. (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 56 (58) : 16 Luck 113.

3. Applicability of the Rule.—[1] Order 2, R. 3, which permits of joinder of causes of action must be so interpreted as not to clash with O. 1, R. 3. (1911) 7 Nag L R 130 (131).

[2] Order 2 R. 3 is subject to the provisions of O. 2 R. 6. (Vol 29) 1942 All 387 (389).

[3] Different causes of action against different defendants also can be joined if case can be brought within O. 1, R. 3. (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 66 (68) : 19 Sind L R 395.

[4] Joinder of parties and causes of action—Joint interest or same transaction is necessary. (Vol 6) 1919 Low Bur 121 (122).

[6] Order 2 R. 3 applies to notice under S. 163, U. P. Tenancy Act. (1946) 1946 All W R (Rev) 25 (26).

[7] Order 2, R. 3 is not applicable to a suit for arrears of rent under Agra Tenancy Act. A separate suit should be brought for the arrears of rent of separate holdings, though held by the same defendant. (1907) 29 All 18 (19).

4. Jurisdiction.—[1] Suit on different pro-notes by same defendant—Value of suit for purposes of jurisdiction is aggregate value of all causes of action comprised therein. (Vol 3) 1916 Lah 363 (363) : 1915 Pun Ra No. 100.

[2] Rule 3 is subject also to condition that Court has jurisdiction as to all causes of action involved. (Vol 29) 1942 All 387 (389) : I L R (1942) All 862.

5. Misjoinder of defendants and causes of action.—[1] Under O. 2, R. 3, a plaintiff cannot join in the same suit several causes of action against several defendants unless they are all jointly interested in each separate cause of action. (Vol 6) 1919 Low Bur 121 (122) * (1883) 5 All 163 (172) (F B) (Mahmood J. dissenting) * (1911) 35 Bom 297 (301)* (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 93 (95) : 27 Cri L Jour 1195*(Vol 27) 1940 Mad 903 (904). (Suit for injunction restraining mortgagee from selling mortgaged property and for scaling down mortgaged debt under Madras Agriculturists' Relief Act—Mortgaged property improperly sold — Purchaser cannot be impleaded on ground of fraud—Cause of action against him is entirely different.) (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 681 (692) : 40 Mad 365 (F B)* (Vol 6) 1919 Low Bur 51 (52).

[2] Mortgages of same property to same mortgagee.—Mortgagors different — One mortgage suit against both does not lie — Such mortgagors cannot be joined in one suit under O. 1 R. 3 or O. 2 R. 3. (Vol 24) 1937 Nag 99 (100) : I L R (1937) Nag 349.

[3] Suit for specific performance of contract by member of Hindu undivided family to sell his share—Joinder of other members as defendants amounts to misjoinder. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 681 (687) : 40 Mad 365 (F B).

[4] One joint suit against cashier for accounts and against Sadar Naib for negligence is bad. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 511 (511).

[5] Suit for declaration that sale of partnership is fraudulent and null and void as against plaintiff and for recovery of assets from purchasers and for account of partnership from other partners is bad for misjoinder. (Vol 1) 1914 Sind 70 (72) : 8 Sind L R 69.

[6] Suit for recovery of money from a person and for removal of trustee and for accounts is bad for misjoinder of causes of action. (1910) 4 Sind L R 152 (158).

[7] A suit seeking possession by redemption against one set of defendants and possession by ejectment against other defendants could not be allowed. (Vol 2) 1915 All 106 (106, 107).

[9] Where landlord sued to eject several tenants in possession of different parcels of land, making them all defendants in one and the same suit, and the litigation was conducted as though the defendants were a community with common interests, the procedure though highly irregular, nevertheless prevents the landlord from objecting to the use of evidence given in the case of some tenants as evidence in favour of all the defendants. (Vol 7) 1920 P C 67 (70) : 47 Ind App 76 : 43 Mad 567 (P C).

[10] Suit for possession against one set of defendants and for damages for dispossession against another set is not bad for misjoinder of causes of action. (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 280 (282) : 1919 Pun Re No 10.

6. Misjoinder of plaintiffs and causes of action.

[1] Two plaintiffs — Two causes of action — Defendants same — Joinder cannot be allowed. (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 411 (412, 413) * (Vol 12) 1925 Bom 342 (342). (Five persons making five contracts with the same defendant — One suit by all five on the contract is not maintainable.)

7. One plaintiff, one defendant, several causes of action. — [1] Under O. 2, R. 3 a plaintiff can combine in one suit against a defendant several causes of action. (Vol 3) 1916 Lah 363 (363) : 1915 Pun Re No. 100 * (Vol 6) 1919 All 79 (80) : 42 All 64. (Claim for declaration to half share in cultivated holding — Claim for mesne profits can be joined and decreed.) * (Vol 20) 1923 Cal 165 (168). (Claims for work done and reimbursement for expenses incurred for being ready for other promised work are maintainable.) * (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 343 (344). (Two causes of action against same defendant.) * (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 786 (788).

[2] A plaintiff can join a claim for a share of profits as co-sharer with a claim for arrears of revenue, etc., as lambardar in one suit. S. 108 of the Oudh Rent Act does not contain anything which would make this improper or unlawful and under O. 2, R. 3, read with S. 136 of the Oudh Rent Act, the plaintiff can unite in the same suit the two causes of action. (Vol 6) 1919 Oudh 181 (182) : 23 Oudh Cas 183.

[3] Person sued in different capacities is not same defendant. (Vol 6) 1919 Low Bur 51 (52) * (Vol 15) 1928 Cal 199 (200, 202) : 55 Cal 164. (Plaint should be treated as comprising two suits and they should be tried separately.) * (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 764 (769).

[4] Cause of action for personal decree upon promissory note is incompatible with cause of action upon mortgage. (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 315 (315).

[5] Different claims in one suit — More than one period of limitation can be applied. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 786 (787).

8. One plaintiff — Two or more defendants — Causes of action joint against all. — [1] Order 2 R. 3 allows a plaintiff to join several causes of action and subsequent causes of action arising therefrom against the same defendants. (1907) 17 Mad L Jour 515 (515, 516) * (Vol 10) 1923 All 306 (310).

[2] The word 'jointly' in O. 2, R. 3 shows that all the defendants in a suit must be jointly liable in respect of each and all of the causes of action, united against them by the plaintiff in the same suit. (1910) 34 Bom 358 (366).

[3] Question of multifariousness can only be decided on allegations made in plaint — Test is to see whether there is a common question to be tried between the parties on the facts disclosed in the plaint. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 381 (382, 383) * (1884) 6 All 106 (108).

[4] Suit for recovery of money against several persons alleged to have been benefited by loan — Suit is not bad for multifariousness. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 381 (383).

[5] Single suit by the sons on the death of their father for recovery of different pieces of property from different defendants claiming under different titles is not bad. (1907) 29 All 267 (272).

[6] One suit for contribution for satisfaction of two rent decrees satisfied at different times giving two separate causes of action can be brought. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 343 (344).

[7] Suit for declaration against mortgagor that plaintiff is entitled to mortgage money, and against other parties for declaration that plaintiff and not the other parties are entitled to mortgage moneys — Separate suits are not necessary. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 653 (655).

[8] Claims in one suit for possession of land in tenant's holding and also those encroached upon, are sustainable. (1910) 7 Ind Cas 86 (88) (Cal).

[9] Where an alienor alienates property to various alienees on different occasions a suit to set aside these alienations can be brought against any such alienee or all the alienees may be made co-defendants. (Vol 3) 1916 Bom 310 (311) : 40 Bom 351 * (Vol 28) 1941 All 209 (211) : 1 L R (1941) All 370.

[10] Suit by one co-owner against tenants, impleading the other co-owners as party defendants on the ground that they had collected the entire rent is not bad for multifariousness. (1909) 19 Mad L Jour 399 (400).

[11] The plaintiff is entitled to claim recovery of possession of the land as a whole, and all persons who oppose him, whatever be their rights, are proper parties to the suit. (1913) 18 Ind Cas 852 (853) (Cal) * (1902) 29 Cal 871 (880, 881).

[12] In a suit brought to set aside an order under O. 21, R. 51, all parties to the distribution ought to be made parties to the suit. (1886) 13 Cal 159 (161, 162).

[13] Suit for possession of immovable property — Part of property usufructually mortgaged by defendant 1 to defendant 2 — Plaintiff alleging that defendant 1 had no right to make such mortgage — Both defendants maintaining such title — Suit held was not bad for misjoinder. (1889) 11 All 33 (35).

[14] Hindu boy dying leaving as his heirs his mother and brothers — Property situate in several districts — Mother suing for declaration of title to her share in property impleading her sons and lessee of one of them — Allegation that plaintiff's right was prejudiced by lease of property — Held there was no misjoinder. (1913) 21 Ind Cas 438 (441, 442) (Cal).

9. Procedure in cases of misjoinder. — [1] The mere fact of misjoinder is not by itself sufficient to entitle the defendant to have the suit set aside. (Vol 24) 1937 P C 42 (45) : 16 Pat 149 (PC) * (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 517 (517).

[2] Misjoinder — Amendment of plaint should be allowed. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 681 (684) : 40 Mad 365 (FB).

[3] Plaintiff joining in one suit two independent claims — Court should not try suit in that form — It should ask plaintiff to elect to proceed with one of the claims. (Vol 23) 1936 Pat 142 (143) * (1906) 4 Cal L Jour 367 (368).

[4] Merits of case satisfactorily disposed of by trial Court — No objection to misjoinder can be given effect to in appeal. (Vol 24) 1937 P C 42 (45) : 16 Pat 149 (PC).

Only certain claims to be joined for recovery of immoveable property.

4. No cause of action shall, unless with the leave of the Court, be joined with a suit for the recovery of immoveable property, except —

(a) claims for mesne profits or arrears of rent in respect of the property claimed or any part thereof;

(b) claims for damages for breach of any contract under which the property or any part thereof is held; and

(c) claims in which the relief sought is based on the same cause of action:

Provided that nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prevent any party in a suit for foreclosure or redemption from asking to be put into possession of the mortgaged property.

[1882 — S. 44; Rule (a); 1877 — S. 44A; 1839 — S. 10: R. S. C., O. 18, R. 2.]

[5] Suit should not be dismissed for misjoinder in second appeal—Case should be remanded with direction that plaint be returned for amendment. (1909) 3 Sind L R 108 (113).

9a. Revision. — [1] Powers of revision can be exercised in cases where the lower Court passes orders as to misjoinder of causes of action. (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 174 (175) * (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 436 (436). (High Court can reverse an order directing the plaintiff to elect whether he will proceed with one or the other of the two causes of action joined in his plaint.) * (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 332 (333, 334): 45 Mad 194.

10. Rule pre-supposes several causes of action.—

[1] Though suit can be brought with respect to separate holdings consequent decrees must be moulded so as to apply distributively to separate holdings. (Vol 16) 1929 P C 171 (174): 56 Ind App 238 (PC).

[2] A suit by a Malabar stanom whose right to the office of stani arose in 1903, for a declaration that previous stani was not validly appointed in 1895, and for possession of the property is not bad for misjoinder of causes of action as the former relief is only ancillary to the latter main relief. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 217 (219, 220).

[3] In a suit for redemption the mortgagor can join to his claim, a claim for rent paid by him to mortgagee's use. (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 579 (579).

[4] Suit for accounts by one partner against others—Against one defendant, plaintiff asking relief only as regards sum thrown into business and got from previous business carried on by plaintiff and that defendant — Suit is not bad for misjoinder of causes of action. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 65 (66).

[5] Where each of three distinct agreements between the same parties and relating, to all intents and purposes, to one transaction contained a provision to refer to arbitration, the plaintiff may ask the Court in one application to take action with respect to all the agreements. (1911) 1911 Pun L R No. 85, page 352 (355): 1911 Pun Re No. 35.

[6] Where a Hindu brought suit for partition against his father, brother and others to whom it was alleged that father had improperly alienated a number of parcels of the said property at different times, held the proper order under O. 2, R. 3 would be to have separate trial for every alienation. (1885) 8 Mad 75 (76, 77).

[7] Joinder of several reliefs arising out of same cause of action is not joinder of several causes of action. (Vol 16) 1929 Bom 51 (53).

11. Two or more plaintiffs — One defendant — Plaintiffs jointly interested in the cause of action. —

[1] A plaint presented by two or more plaintiffs claiming different reliefs against the defendant is not improperly framed nor is it bad for misjoinder of causes of action. (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 256 (258).

[2] A single suit for maintenance brought by a patricide, his mother and brother is not bad for misjoinder of parties and causes of action. (1913) 18 Ind Cas 764 (765) (Cal).

[3] In a suit for possession on the ground that the defendant wrongfully encroached upon the disputed land, if a purchaser from a co-sharer joins the others as plaintiff the suit is not open to the objection of misjoinder of parties or of causes of action. (1912) 16 Ind Cas 623 (624) (Cal).

[4] Persons seeking individual reliefs — They can join in same suit if investigation is likely to be identical to a great extent if separate suits are brought. (Vol 15) 1928 Cal 92 (93).

[5] In a suit for declaration by several tenants against one landlord, that their holdings were fixed rate and that the decrees obtained by the landlord against them for rent were inoperative, there are as many causes of action as there are holdings and decrees. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 479 (480): 4 Pat L Jour 297.

[6] One of two widows of a Hindu and her adopted son suing as co-plaintiffs to recover whole family estate if adoption is held valid or in alternative one half of share for herself alone — Suit held not maintainable. (1883) 6 Mad 239 (242).

12. Two or more plaintiffs—Two or more defendants. — [1] Several plaintiffs deriving titles from different sources, some by purchase and some by inheritance, and having between them, the entire sixteen annas share in the property of which they were dispossessed by defendants and against whom they are jointly interested may bring one suit against defendants for possession of property. (1912) 16 Cal L Jour 1 (2).

[2] Where plaintiffs as heirs claimed possession of different portions of property in possession of different persons, who had also created mortgages over them, held it was proper to bring a separate suit against each usurper joining his mortgagee. (1901) 1901 All W N 115 (115).

ORDER 2, RULE 4 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope of rule.
2. Suit must be for recovery of immovable property.
3. Leave of Court.
4. Clause (a).
5. Clause (c).

1. Scope of rule. — [1] O. 2, R. 4 prohibits not the joinder of several causes of action entitling a plaintiff to the recovery of immovable property, but a joinder with such causes of action of causes of action of a different character except as excepted in the Rule. (1882) 5 Mad 161 (162, 163) * (1895) 17 All 274 (277) * (Vol 22) 1935 Pesh 161 (163). (Mortgagee of share in property purchasing share in execution of his decree—Suit by him for possession of share by partition—He can also claim rendition of account.)

[See also (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 674 (675). (A plaintiff may join as many causes of action as he pleases subject to provisions of O. 2, R. 4.)]

[2] Rule 4 is only permissive. (Vol 6) 1919 Nag 25 (26): 16 Nag L R 91.

5. No claim by or against an executor, administrator or heir, as such, shall be joined with claims by or against him personally, unless the last mentioned claims are alleged to arise with reference to the estate in respect of which the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued as executor, administrator or heir, or are such as he was entitled to, or liable for, jointly with the deceased person whom he represents.

[1882—S. 44, Rule (b); R. S. C., O. 18 R. 5.]

[3] Rule 4 has to be read with R. 3 of O. 2. (Vol 33) 1946 Cal 357 (364).

[4] Clause 14, Letters Patent (Bombay), should be construed consistently with the provisions of Rr. 3 and 4 of O. 2. (Vol 16) 1929 Bom 100 (103) : 53 Bom 25. (Two or more causes of action arising within the jurisdiction of High Court can be joined together without any leave of Court.)

2. Suit must be for recovery of immovable property. — [1] In order that R. 4 may apply, suit must be one for recovery of immovable property. (1903) 30 Cal 369 (384) (S B).

[2] Where one of the properties claimed in the suit is a mortgage-deed, the suit is not one to recover immovable property. (1912) 15 Cal L Jour 258 (262).

[3] Suit upon mortgage for recovery of money and claim for arrears of rent on lease of mortgaged property executed by mortgagor — Suit is not one for recovery of immovable property. (1891) 14 Mad 284 (286).

[4] Suit for recovery of land with claim for declaration of plaintiff's right of way — Right of way may be considered as immovable property. (1909) 9 Cal L Jour 336 (338, 339).

3. Leave of Court. — [1] Absence of leave under O. 2, R. 4 is not a ground on which a decree can be reversed or varied. (Vol 28) 1941 Bom 247 (250) : I L R (1941) Bom 361.

[2] Leave of the Court may not be express and no express application therefor is necessary. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 613 (615) : 3 Pat 244.

4. Clause (a). — [1] Rule 4 distinctly recognizes that cause of action for ejectment is distinct from cause of action for mesne profits. (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 233 (233) : 10 Pat 329.

[3] Claim for mesne profits is maintainable in absence of claim for recovery of possession. (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 233 (233) : 10 Pat 329.

5. Clause (c). — [1] The new clause (c) has been inserted in order to avoid the possibility of mistake and to make it clear that there is nothing irregular in seeking to recover in one suit immovable and moveable property if the cause of action is the same in both. (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 121 (123) : 1914 Pun Re No 4.

[2] Suit for possession and rents of immovable properties owing to dispossession by defendants—Case falls under cl. (c). (Vol 19) 1932 P C 216 (227) : 59 Ind App 331 : 59 Cal 1399 (P C).

[3] Administration suit—Claim to movable property as well as immovable property based on same cause of action — Two claims can be joined. (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 470 (471) : 51 Bom 800.

[4] Claim for administration and partition based on same cause of action — O. 2, R. 4 is not contravened. (Vol 32) 1945 Sind 11 (20) : I L R (1944) Kar 325.

[5] Suit for possession — Different claims made in consequence of separate orders in respect of different parcels of land — But all claims based on same cause of action — Suit is permissible without leave of Court. (Vol 22) 1935 Sind 129 (131).

[6] Suit to recover possession and mesne profits — Receiver taking possession of property in suit — Plaintiff amended so as to include claim for damages for period after Receiver took possession — Claim held fell within cl. (c) of R. 4. (Vol 33) 1946 Cal 357 (364).

[7] Claim for damages cannot be combined with suit for recovery of immovable property. (1907) 17 Mad L Jour 135 (139).

[8] Suit for specific performance of contract for sale of immovable property with prayer for recovery of possession — Strictly speaking, leave of Court is necessary, though in practice, such leave has not been insisted upon. (Vol 28) 1941 Bom 247 (250) : I L R (1941) Bom 361.

[See also (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 681 (692) : 40 Mad 365 (FB). (Two causes of action, one for specific performance, other for partition and possession — Question of joinder depends upon O. 1, Rr. 3 and 5 and also O. 2, Rr. 3 and 4) * (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 89 (90) : 5 Pat L Jour 314. (Suit for specific performance of contract of sale — Possession can also be claimed if agreed upon.)]

[9] Issue as to paramount title of persons other than mortgagees may be raised and tried in a redemption suit. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 613 (615) : 3 Pat 244.

Order 2, Rule 5—Note 1.

[1] The executors, administrators and heirs mentioned in this rule, while acquiring title from the deceased in the same manner as legatees and next-of-kin, they, in addition, represent him. This view is sanctioned by the concluding words of the rule. (1907) 31 Bom 105 (110, 111).

[2] It is contrary to the principles of O. 2, R. 5 to attach money in the hands of an executor, administrator or heir as such, in execution of a decree against them personally, though the executor is a legatee and the money in his hands is due to him personally as legatee. (Vol 4) 1917 Low Bur 17 (18).

[3] Promissory note in favour of A — Suit by only son for sum as surviving coparcener or in alternative as sole heir and legal representative of his father—Two claims cannot be joined. (Vol 22) 1935 Bom 343 (344) : 59 Bom 573.

[4] The word "heir" in this rule means an heir suing or being sued in a representative capacity who, represents the estate of a deceased person. (1896) 18 All 256 (259).

[5] Where A sued the executors of B for the property in their possession on the ground that A inherited the property from B, it was held that the claim of A is not as an heir but in his own and personal right. (1907) 31 Bom 105 (110, 111).

[6] The word "estate" in the rule means not only the "estate" rightly and properly held by executors but also the "estate" in its physical sense, so that a claim against an executor as such can be joined with a claim against him personally when both the claims arise in reference to the same estate. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 870 (873).

[7] The claim of a Hindu widow of a deceased undivided coparcener for maintenance against surviving coparceners is not against the estate of the deceased husband. (Vol 1) 1914 Bom 193 (195) : 38 Bom 120.

[8] Suit for construction of will and letters of administration—Claim for certain ornaments not belonging to the estate of the testator but of which possession was obtained by executors as such — Plaintiff need not be asked to elect. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 662 (663).

6. Where it appears to the Court that any causes of action joined in one suit cannot be conveniently tried or disposed of together, the Court may order separate trials or make such other order as may be expedient.

[1882—S. 45, para. 2 and Ss. 46, 47; R. C. S., O. 18 R. 1.]

7. All objections on the ground of misjoinder of causes of action shall be taken at the earliest possible opportunity and, in all cases where issues are settled, at or before such settlement, unless the ground of objection has subsequently arisen, and any such objection not so taken shall be deemed to have been waived.

[See S. 99, O. 1 Rr. 9 and 13.]

Provincial Amendments.

Rule 3—LAHORE

Add the following rule to Order 2 :—

"8. (1) Where an objection, duly taken, has been allowed by the Court, the plaintiff shall be permitted to select the cause of action with which he will proceed and shall, within a time to be fixed by the Court, amend the plaint by striking out the remaining causes of action.

(2) When the plaintiff has selected the cause of action with which he will proceed, the Court shall pass an order giving him time within which to submit amended plaints for the remaining causes of action and for making up the court-fees that may be necessary. Should the plaintiff not comply with the Court's order, the Court shall proceed as provided in R. 18 of O. 6 and as required by the provisions of the Court-fees Act." [12-5-1909]

N.W.F.P. (Peshawar)

Same as that of the Lahore High Court.

O. 2 R. 5 (contd.)

[9] Suit for dissolution of partnership and for accounts during the period of the existence of plaintiff's father's interest and his own and for a decree for amount found due — That is for two accounts one for the transactions of the partnership or partnerships between his father and defendants to which he was entitled as administrator of the father's estate, another for the transactions of the partnership of which he also claimed the dissolution between himself and the defendant to which he was personally entitled—Held joinder of claims did not offend against O. 2, R. 5. (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 436 (436).

[10] Administration suit and a suit for accounts of partnership between deceased and executor can be joined — Other partners are not necessary parties. (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 470 (472, 473) : 61 Bom 800.

Order 2 Rule 6 — Note 1.

[1] Order 2, R. 6 does not apply to cases of misjoinder of causes of action but to cases where several causes of action have been properly joined in one suit and the causes of action so joined cannot be conveniently tried together. (Vol 25) 1938 Rang 420 (422) : 1938 Rang L R 397 & (Vol 11) 1924 All 720 (721). (Under Agra Tenancy Act different suits must be filed in respect of different holdings.)

[But see (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 795 (795). (The rule as to separate trials applied as to a case of mis-joinder.)]

[2] The provisions of O. 2, R. 6 are meant to apply to cases in which questions arise as to the joinder or severance of several causes of action against the same defendant. (84) 8 Bom 616 (618) & (1904) 27 Mad 80 (83).

[4] Rule 6 is a rule of expediency and convenience. (Vol 26) 1939 Nag 256 (257) : I L R (1940) Nag 63.

[5] Where it appears to the Court that any causes of action cannot be conveniently tried or disposed of together, the Court may order separate trials. (Proceedings under S. 235, Companies Act, against certain persons—Matters alleged against some of them entirely different from those alleged against others — Claims against all cannot be tried jointly on principles underlying O. 2, R. 6.) & (1885) 8 Mad 75 (76). (Suit against several alienees.)

[6] Whether a trial would be convenient or not is a matter which has to be determined on the facts of each case and no hard and fast rule of an absolute character can be laid down. (Vol 26) 1939 Nag 256 (257) : I L R (1940) Nag 63.

[7] If facts alleged in the plaint arise out of facts that are common to both the causes of action joined in the suit, the Court should not exclude one of them on the ground that it would not be convenient to try those two causes of action together. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 49 (50) & (Vol 15) 1928 Cal 514 (516). (Plaintiff suing several defendants—Defendant 1 was sued for removal from office of shebait — Suit against others for possession of debutter property separately purchased—Plaintiff should not be compelled to bring separate suits.)

[8] In cases where the Court orders separate trials, it should deal with separate causes of action as sub-suits under the title and number of the principal suit from which they spring. (1884) 8 Bom 616 (619).

[See (Vol 28) 1941 All 209 (211); ILR (1941) All 370. (Under O. 2, R. 6, the plaintiff should be given an opportunity to amend his plaint, so that allegations against each set of defendants may be separately set out and issues as to each transaction may be framed, thus enabling the Court to try the suit in sections, each section forming part of the same proceeding.)]

[9] Order 2, R. 6, does not contemplate the filing of separate plaints by the plaintiff. (Vol 28) 1941 All 209 (211) : I L R (1941) All 370.

[10] Rule 6 is enabling rule — Fact that Court did not choose to avail of R. 6 is no ground for interference in second appeal. (Vol 28) 1914 Oudh 56 (58) : 16 Luck 113.

ORDER III.

RECOGNIZED AGENTS AND PLEADERS

1. Any appearance, application or act in or to any Court, required or authorized by law to be made or done by a party in such Court, may, except where otherwise expressly provided by any law for the time being in force, be made or done by the party in person, or by his recognized agent, or by a pleader^a [appearing, applying or acting, as the case may be], on his behalf:

Provided that any such appearance shall, if the Court so directs, be made by the party in person.

Order 3, Rule 1 — Note 1.

[1] Act in Court must be either by party himself or by authorized agent or by pleader authorized by proper vakalatnama. (Vol 21) 1934 Pat 290 (291).

[2] Application for stay of proceedings — Party can apply through pleader unless otherwise directed. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 205 (206) : 1 L R (1942) Nag 258.

[3] A lunatic who has not been so adjudged may appear either in person or through vakil. (1881) 7 Cal 242 (243, 244).

[4] Order 6, Rr. 14 and 15 are exceptions to O. 3 R. 1 — Applicability of O. 6, R. 14— Absence of principals of firm temporary—Munim gumashta orally authorised and instructed to do everything necessary in connexion with business and expressly authorised orally to take necessary steps in regard to pending arbitration to which firm was party — Application to set aside award signed and verified by Munim held competent. [See (Vol 13) 1926 All 729 (730).]

[12] For appearance by party it is enough if party is present in Court — Plaintiff appearing by pleader as well as in person — Pleader withdrawing on refusal of adjournment—Party must be deemed to have appeared. (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 123 (125, 126).

[13] A Court has power to direct a party in person under O. 3, R. 1 and on his failure to appear he may be declared ex parte under O. 9, R. 12 though his vakil may be present in Court. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1256 (1257) : 41 Mad 256.

[14] Except for very good reasons party should not be ordered to appear on application of other party under O. 3, R. 1—The fact that one party desires the presence of the opposite party for the purpose of examining him as a witness is no good reason — Proper procedure is under O. 16. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 821 (822).

[15] Party though minor or of unsound mind can be ordered to appear in person — Order to appear served on guardian is good and on failure order under O. 9, R. 12, can be passed. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 213 (214).

[17] Code empowering party to act through recognized agent — Court not requiring party to do same in person — Court cannot arbitrarily reject that act and mulct party in costs — High Court can interfere under S. 115 (c). (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 205 (207) : 1 L R (1942) Nag 258.

2. The recognized agents of parties by whom such appearances, applications and acts may Recognised agents. be made or done are—

- (a) persons holding powers-of-attorney, authorizing them to make and do such appearances, applications and acts on behalf of such parties;
- (b) persons carrying on trade or business for and in the names of parties not resident within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court within which limits the appearance, application or act is made or done, in matters connected with such trade or business only, where no other agent is expressly authorized to make and do such appearances, applications and acts.

Clause (a) shall be read as follows :

“Persons holding on behalf of such parties either (i) a general power-of-attorney, or (ii) in the case of proceedings in the High Court of Bombay an Attorney of such High Court or an Advocate, and in the case of proceedings in any district, any such attorney or any Advocate, or a Pleader to whom a sanad for that district has been issued, holding the requisite special power of attorney from parties not resident within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court within which limits the appearance, application or act is made or done, authorizing them or him to make and do such appearances, applications and acts on behalf of such parties.” [27-11-1936]

3. (1) Processes served on the recognized agent of a party shall be as effectual as if the same Service of process had been served on the party in person, unless the Court otherwise on recognized agent. directs.

(2) The provisions for the service of process on a party to a suit shall apply to the service of process on his recognized agent.

[5] When an agent files a suit with the knowledge and by the authority of the plaintiff, it is unimportant as to how the plaint was filed or signed. (Vol 14) 1927 All 514 (515).

[6] Filing of a plaint by one who is not a recognised agent, being purely a matter of technical objection not affecting the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court does not entitle a dismissal of the suit. (1871) 15 Suth W R 245 (245)* (Vol 26) 1939 Rang 162 (164).

[7] Plaint signed and verified by agent — Leave to sign and verify granted only subsequently — Defect is not fatal. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 660 (668, 669).

[8] A Mukhtearnamah in which the name of the Mukhtear is omitted by mistake may be amended by Court and it takes effect from the date the Mukhtearnamah was originally filed. An application for execution made by the Mukhtear is valid from its inception. (1910) 37 Cal 399 (405).

[9] A Munim engaged in the affairs of winding up of a firm is a recognised agent of the owner of that firm, and can maintain and defend a suit on behalf of the firm. (1872) 9 Bom H C R 427 (429).

[10] A gumasta of a firm whose business has ceased before the institution of the suit is not a recognised agent of the owner of the firm. (1870) 5 Beng L R App 11 (12).

[11] Person looking after the properties of judgment-debtor within the jurisdiction of the Court is not a recognised agent and deposit made by him does not comply with O. 21, R. 89. (Vol 18) 1931 All 449 (450).

[12] A Political Agent appointed by the Government to manage the estate of a minor chief is not a ‘recognised agent’ within the meaning of this section. (1887) 11 Bom 53 (56).

[13] Where agent’s authorisation extends not to any class of business but is restricted to the doing of all necessary acts in the accomplishment of one particular purpose, it is a ‘special power of attorney’. (Vol 3) 1916 Bom 155 (156): 41 Bom 40.

[14] Pardanashin lady executing power-of-attorney in favour of her husband — Powers relating to management of property and litigation but without explicit power to sell, mortgage or lease — Husband contracting to sell property — Purchaser suing for specific performance — Husband held not to have power to contract. (Vol 17) 1930 Pat 181 (186).

[15] Objection as to validity of power-of-attorney must be taken to have been waived if not raised in the trial Court. It cannot be raised in appeal. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 296 (296, 297).

[16] Agent authorised to prosecute claim has authority to file appeal. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 973 (973).

[17] Application presented by son without power-of-attorney — Judgment-debtor not objecting — Power subsequently put in within limitation — Judgment-debtor objecting — Application was held proper. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 478 (479).

[18] The term ‘resident’ in S. 37 of the old Code was construed liberally. And the term ‘non-resident’ was construed as covering every absence whether temporary or not. (1906) 28 All 135 (137) * (1904) 14 Mad L Jour 223 (225).

[4] It was held under the old Code that the acceptance of a vakalatnamah by a pleader should in all cases be unconditional. (1870) 14 Suth W R 7 (8).

[See (1893) 16 Mad 285 (286). (One of two vakils mentioned in the vakalat can accept.)]

4. Bombay Pleaders Act, 1920.—[1] Section 10 as also Form C of the Second Schedule of the Bombay Plea-

der's Act have been repealed by the Code of Civil Procedure Second Amendment Act of 1926.

5. Pleader.—[1] "Pleader" signifies all persons who are entitled to appear and plead. (Vol 27) 1940 Bom 272 (272); I L R (1940) Bom 510. (Pleader includes advocate enrolled on original side of High Court.) * (1887) 9 All 617 (621, 622). (A High Court advocate is entitled to do all that may be done by a pleader.) * (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 169 (171, 172). (Presentation of an application by pleader whose sanad has expired—Renewal of sanad subsequently—Presentation not valid.) * (Vol 18) 1926 Rang 215 (216); 4 Rang 249. (Pleader includes advocate).

6. Authority to abandon issue or claim.—[1] A counsel appearing in a case has an implied authority to press or withdraw an issue in the case. (Vol 26) 1939 Oudh 257 (262); 14 Luck 723* (1899) 22 Mad 538 (543, 544). (The act of the counsel will be binding upon the party).

[3] A counsel cannot admit the claim and consent to a decree unless he is expressly or impliedly authorised to do so by his client. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 477 (479). (It is duty of counsel to consult client before consenting to decree).

7. Power to make admissions.—[1] A counsel appearing in a case has implied authority to admit or deny document. (Vol 26) 1939 Oudh 257 (262); 14 Luck 723.

[2] Verbal admissions made by a pleader should be received with caution. (1907) 29 All 29 (32, 33)* (1871) 6 Mad H C R 127 (130). (Where statements are out of the ordinary scope of the vakil's authority).

[3] An admission by pleader on a question of fact will always bind the party. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 71 (73); 16 Lah 328. (Statement as to intention of party as regards a document is a statement of fact.) * (1841) 2 Moo Ind App 253 (259, 260) (P C). (Client need not be present at the time of admission.) * (Vol 18) 1931 All 415 (416). (Pleader's statement of fact cannot be contradicted by party's mere allegation to contrary.) * (Vol 21) 1934 Bom 186 (187). (Provided such admissions are made during the actual progress of litigation.) * (1868) 9 Suth W R 485 (486)* (Vol 3) 1916 Sind 45 (45); 9 Sind L R 220.

[4] Following are cases where admission by pleader will not bind the party:—

(a) Where the pleader has been mistaken or misled into making a statement. (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 238 (234).

(b) Admission on misapprehension of facts. (Vol 3) 1916 Lah 301 (302).

(c) Admissions against instructions. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 1031 (1032); 50 Mad 941.

(d) Admission made at a time when not engaged by client. (1832) 4 B & Ad 339 (340, 341); 110 E R 483.

(e) Admission of what is beyond the scope of the suit. (1865) 2 Mad H C R 423 (426).

(f) An erroneous admission by a pleader on a question of law. (Vol 16) 1929 Rang 55 (58); 6 Rang 691* (1900) 24 Bom 360 (363)* (1871) 16 Suth W R 246 (247)* (Vol 32) 1945 Lah 336 (336). (Question as to special custom is at least mixed question of law and fact).

[5] Party repudiating the admission by the pleader must do so at the earliest opportunity. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1031 (1032).

[6] Admission by pleader on question of law can be withdrawn in appeal. (Vol 31) 1944 Cal 391 (393).

8. Power to withdraw suits.—[1] Vakalatnama in general terms prima facie gives authority to a pleader to withdraw suit. (1912) 16 Cal W N 932 (933).

9. Power to compromise.—[1] Authority to compromise must be expressly given before a pleader can compromise on behalf of his client. (Vol 10) 1923 P C 98 (99) (P C) * (Vol 10) 1923 P C 13 (15) (P C) * (Vol 27) 1940 All 143 (144); I L R (1940) All 132. (Pleader given wide powers in vakalatnama in conducting suit on behalf of minor and authorised to compromise: Held, he was competent to compromise.) * (Vol 31) 1944 Bom 46 (48). (Counsel having power to compromise—He cannot compromise matter not subject of suit.) * (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 714 (716, 717); 55 Cal 113. (Suit involving only a point as to whether a property was joint or debuttar—Counsel compromising suit appointing attorneys for parties as receivers of one property and commissioners at partition—Receiver's appointment was a collateral matter and client's consent should be obtained.) * (1900) 27 Cal 420 (448, 449) (S B). (Compromise outside the scope of the particular case—Special authority from the client must be shown.) * (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 852 (858, 859); 50 Mad 786. (Matters outside the scope of suit cannot be compromised without express authority. But the suit in which there is instruction to appear can be compromised.) * (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 211 (212). (Court passing consent decree—Presumption is that it was satisfied as to the authority of pleader to compromise—Party attacking must rebut the presumption.) * (Vol 14) 1927 Oudh 222 (223). (Pleader deriving authority from agent who has no power to confess judgment on behalf of principal has no power to compromise.) * (Vol 14) 1927 Pat 199 (200); 6 Pat 217; 28 Cri L Jour 529. (Counsel should not prepare and sign a petition of compromise in which he was not engaged from the beginning and there were other lawyers.) * (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 454 (461). (Pleader's authority to compromise extends only to subject-matter of suit.) * (Vol 23) 1941 Sind 28 (29); I L R (1940) Kar 467. (Vakalatnama in Form IV, Sind Civil Courts Circulars authorising advocate to appear and act does not empower him to compromise.) * (Vol 23) 1936 Sind 59 (61); 29 Sind L R 437. (Mere written statement by pleaders that they have special power to compromise is not sufficient.) * (Vol 1) 1914 Sind 139 (139); 8 Sind L R 91. (Under Sind Civil Courts Circulars pleaders cannot compromise.)

[2] A compromise by pleader without authority becomes binding on the party if he rectifies it or acquiesces in it. (Vol 3) 1916 Sind 64 (64); 9 Sind L R 218.

[3] The terms authorising pleader to compromise should be strictly interpreted. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 656 (657); 41 Mad 233. (Does not give power to negotiate without reference to client.) * (Vol 26) 1939 Bom 490 (491) (Do.) * (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 169 (170) (Compromise acted upon and adopted cannot be questioned) * (1935) 62 Cal 642 (653, 654). (Authority to sign compromise petition includes authority to compromise.) * (Vol 17) 1930 Oudh 112 (113). Power to file compromise does not give power to make a compromise or sign it.) * (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 306 (328); 12 Pat 359 (Do.)

[4] Compromise entered into by pleader duly authorised binds the party unless there is fraud, collusion, mistake or misapprehension on the part of pleader. (1881) 6 Cal 687 (707).

10. Power to refer to arbitration.—[1] Pleader cannot refer matter to arbitration unless authorized specially in that behalf. (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 186 (187, 188.) * (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 232 (233) * (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 171 (172) * (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 333 (342).

[2] Pleader appearing for advocate of party has no power to refer suit to arbitration unless duly authorized as required by R. 4. (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 373 (374) : 13 Lah 775. * (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 563 (564). (One pleader appearing for another—Reference by him to arbitration without vakalatnama is invalid.)

[3] Pleader can apply for making reference. (Vol 3) 1916 Sind 79 (81) : 9 Sind L R 183.

[4] By vakalatnama pleader was authorized to appoint a panch or sarpanch or referee. He was also given the power to conduct the case in all sorts of ways with a power to compromise or withdraw the suit. Held, that the pleader had also the power to refer to arbitration. (Vol 30) 1948 Oudh 128 (129).

[2] Vakalatnama empowering pleader to do some particular acts and amongst other things to take whatever steps he thought necessary in the suit :—Held, that the powers included a power to file petition for a special oath also. (Vol 26) 1939 Pat 222 (224).

11. Delegation of authority. — [1] Under the new proviso to the rule, a pleader can delegate his authority to another pleader and request him to appear on his behalf. (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 373 (374) : 13 Lah 775 * (1887) 9 All 613 (616, 617). (Case decided before amendment of 1926.) * (Vol 16) 1929 Nag 109 (109). (Amended rule does not enable second grade pleader, appointed to conduct suit, to appoint another to file appeal in High Court.)

[3] Suit valued above Rs. 5000 — Power-of-attorney expressly authorising pleader P appearing in trial Court to file appeal or engage other lawyer for that purpose—P having no right to appear in High Court— Power-of-attorney held authorised filing of appeal in High Court — P held could appoint other lawyer to file appeal and appear in High Court. (Vol 35) 1946 Lah 263 (264).

[4] Pleader cannot completely delegate to his clerk the duties he owes to his client without being responsible for his defaults. (1912) 22 Mad L Jour 284 (294).

[5] Counsel's clerk — Presence of a counsel's clerk does not mean presence of the counsel. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 841 (842).

12. Control and conduct of case.—[1] A counsel appearing in a case has implied authority to examine a witness or call no witness and do such other acts which are required for the proper management and conduct of the suit. (Vol 26) 1939 Oudh 257 (262) : 14 Luck 723.

[2] Any act in exercise of authority to do which is best for the client will bind the party unless such an authority is excluded specifically and the limitation is made known to the other party. (1891) 13 All 272 (275) (F B).

[3] Bona fide acts of pleaders acting within the scope of their authority will bind the parties. A mere error of judgment on their part affords no grounds for avoiding such acts. (Vol 16) 1929 P C 33 (34) (PC) * (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 410 (411). (Advocate receiving costs under an order for amendment without realizing consequences of such acceptance.) * (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 222 (222). (Vakalat to execute decree gives implied authority to receive from judgment-debtor money out of Court — Entry of satisfaction to extent of money received therefore is legal).

[4] A vakil is not entitled to audience on the original side of the High Court. (1903) 30 Cal 986 (989).

13. Liability of pleaders for misconduct. — [1] For liability of pleader for misconduct, see Ss. 10 and 13, Legal Practitioners Act, 18 [XVIII] of 1879; Cls. 9 and 10, Letters Patent (Calcutta, Madras and Bombay), and Clauses 7 and 8 of Letters Patent (Allahabad, Lahore, Nagpur and Patna), and S. 10 of the Indian Bar Councils Act, 38 [XXXVIII] of 1926.

14. Privileges and rights of pleaders. — [1] A pleader cannot refuse a case where proper fee is paid, adequate instructions are given and the case is of a class which the lawyer is accustomed to take up. (Vol 17) 1930 All 262 (263) : 30 Cri L Jour 522 * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 672 (672) : 26 Cri L Jour 1272. (Grounds of partisanship with a party to the litigation is no excuse for rejecting brief.)

[See however (1908) 35 Cal 317 (319). (Cause for rejecting brief need not be given.)]

[2] In the conduct of the suit he is entitled to examine witnesses in his chamber before examining them in Court. (1912) 14 Ind Cas 763 (763) (Low Bur).

[3] A pleader is not liable for slander or libel in respect of words used by him in the course of a judicial enquiry. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 379 (380) : 50 Mad 667 : 28 Cri L Jour 313.

[4] Court has no power to cut short the arguments of a pleader unless they are irrelevant or involve repetitions. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 319 (319) : 29 Cri L Jour 279.

[5] Where the client discharges the solicitor the latter can hold the papers till his costs are paid or an undertaking is given that costs would be paid. (1902) 29 Cal 63 (65).

[6] Where the attorney himself withdraws expressly or by implication he has no such rights and he has to make over the papers to the attorney to whom the client wishes to go retaining his usual lien on such papers. (1902) 29 Cal 63 (66).

[7] Court will not grant party leave to change attorney until his costs are paid. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 53 (59) : 60 Cal 1273.

[See however (Vol 20) 1933 Bom 182 (183). (The attorney is not entitled to say that the client shall continue him till his costs are paid.)]

[8] The lien is an equitable one and can be claimed only against the client and not against third parties. (1898) 25 Cal 887 (889, 890). (Defendant cannot pay under compromise with plaintiff to the detriment of plaintiff's attorney's claim.) * (1881) 7 Cal 140 (144). (Defending counsel of minor can recover it from minor as necessities.)

[9] Fee can be recovered by way of quantum meruit under S. 70 of Contract Act. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 132 (135) : 53 Mad 309 * (1866) 6 Suth W R 108 (109). (Pleader engaged by several defendants in same interest can recover only reasonable fee and not separate fee from each.) * (1871) 6 Mad H C R 265 (266). (Cause of action arises only after complete discharge of duties).

[10] Where a pleader receives a fee to conduct a case, he is not bound to refund any portion of it if the case is compromised. (Vol 17) 1930 Bom 22 (23) : 54 Bom 1.

15. Duties.—[1] When a pleader accepts a brief it is his bounden duty to attend to his client's interest throughout the proceeding in the case. (Vol 9) 1922 Oudh 75 (75) : 25 Oudh Cas 40 * (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 97 (97). (If a pleader cannot appear to argue the case he must arrange for another to appear for him.)

[2] Having once undertaken the conduct of the case an attorney is bound to proceed with due diligence and honesty in prosecuting the claim of his client. (1902) 29 Cal 63 (67) * (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 320 (320) : 44 Mad 978. (Cannot refuse to take steps because his whole-fee is not paid.)

[3] Where the pleader is unable to attend when the case is called on, the brief should be returned in good time. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 634 (635).

[4] It is the duty of the pleader to make due enquiries of the clients and to act with such care and prudence that his good faith cannot be successfully questioned. (Vol 12) 1925 All 247 (249) : 26 Cri L Jour 776 : 47 All 377 (F B) * (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 219 (220, 221) : 29 Nag L R 295. (Pleader with defective power under O. 3, R. 4 acts without due care and caution.)

[6] Counsels should help and not hinder administration of justice. (Vol 22) 1935 All 117 (119) : 57 All 573. (Counsel sending threatening letter to defendant to withdraw a certain plea : Held, it amounted to contempt.)

[7] A pleader having once appeared for a client should not appear against him in another litigation arising out of the same dispute. (Vol 4) 1917 P C 80 (84) (P C) * (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 592 (598). (He is not debarred unless his services were sought and refused on insufficient grounds.)

[8] Pleader cannot use information received formerly by him in another suit, against the client in a subsequent suit. (1902) 26 Bom 423 (430) (F B) * (1888) 12 Bom 85 (88 to 91). (Possession of knowledge by pleader which might prejudice the client must be shown to exist to restrain him from appearing) * (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1201 (1205) : 48 Mad 676. (Even the suspicion that the information might be used should be avoided.)

[9] Pleaders owe a duty also to the Court and should co-operate with the Court in the orderly and pure administration of justice. (Vol 10) 1923 Cal 212 (215).

[10] Unwarranted or unfounded attacks against the Judge amounts to misconduct. (1907) 29 All 95 (108, 109) : 34 Ind App 41 (P C) * (Vol 11) 1924 All 253 (254) : 25 Cri L Jour 689 : 46 All 121 (F B).

[11] It is against professional etiquette that a counsel should hold a brief and conduct a case in which he is himself a witness and is personally interested. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1153 (1155) : 27 Cri L Jour 33.

16. "Until all proceedings in the suit are ended."

—[1] Vakalatnama filed in a suit remains in force in all the different stages of the case. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 721 (724) : 32 Cri L Jour 377 : 58 Cal 374 * (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 545 (547). (Appointment of pleader by guardian-ad-litem of minor—Minor's majority does not determine pleader's authority.)

[2] An appeal is a proceeding in a suit and the prosecution of a suit includes the prosecution of all the proceedings till a final decree is passed. (Vol 21) 1934

Provincial Amendments

ALLAHABAD

For sub-rule (1), substitute the following :

"1. (1) Every suit shall be instituted by presenting to the Court or such officer as it appoints in this behalf, a plaint, together with a true copy for service with the summons upon each defendant, unless the Court for good cause shown allows time for filing such copies.

(2) The court-fee chargeable for such service shall be paid in the case of suits when the plaint is filed and in the case of all other proceedings when the process is applied for."

Re-number the present sub-rule (2) as sub-rule (3). [24-7-1926].

NAGPUR

Substitute the following for sub-rule (1) :

"1. (1) Every suit shall be instituted by presenting to the Court or such officer as it appoints in this behalf a plaint, together with as many true copies on plain paper of the plaint as there are defendants, for service with the summons upon each defendant, unless the Court, for good cause shown allows time for filing such copies."

Add the following as sub-rule (2) and re-number the present sub-r. (2) as sub-r. (3) :

"(2) The court-fee chargeable for such service shall be paid in the case of suits when the plaint is filed, and in the case of all other proceedings when the process is applied for." [29-6-1943].

OUDH

To sub-r. (2) add the following words :

Summons to be either to settle issues or for final disposal.

5. The Court shall determine, at the time of issuing the summons, whether it shall be for the settlement of issues only, or for the final disposal of the suit; and the summons shall contain a direction accordingly:

Provided that, in every suit heard by a Court of Small Causes, the summons shall be for the final disposal of the suit.

[1882—S. 68; 1877—S. 68; 1859—S. 41.]

[1] The duty of the Court, on receiving the plaint, is to issue a summons on the defendant. (1887) 14 Cal 204 (217).

[2] Active part in not having summons served is necessary to be proved in order to constitute fraud in suppression of summons. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 291 (292).

[3] Though O. 5, R. 1 (2) refers in terms only to a defendant the same rule applies also to the plaintiff. If the pleader who appears in Court for a plaintiff says he has no instructions he should be held not to have appeared. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 842 (843).

[4] Onus of proving the service of summons on the defendant is on the plaintiff. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 801 (802): 52 Cal 453.

[5] There is no time limit within which a summons to appear has to be issued. Time is, however, fixed by the rules of the Court. (1880) 5 Cal 126 (127).

[6] A second summons ought not to be ordered to issue after the lapse of the period of limitation prescribed for a suit since the previous summons, unless the plaintiff has, in the meantime, done what he can to prosecute his suit with proper diligence. Equal strictness ought to be observed to the issue of first summons. (1880) 5 Cal 126 (127).

[7] For the meaning of "appearance", see O. 3, R. 1.

LAHORE

Add the following proviso :

"Provided that in any case if the plaintiff so wishes, the Court may serve the summons in the first instance by registered post (acknowledgment due) instead of in the mode of service laid down in this rule."

[As amended on 24-11-1927.]

N.-W. F. P.

Add the following proviso :

"Provided that in any case the Court in its discretion may attempt to serve the summons in the first instance by registered post instead of in the mode of service laid down in this rule : and provided always that should the defendant not appear in answer to the summons so issued, the Court shall have service effected in accordance with the provisions of this order."

PATNA

Add the following :

"Provided that in any case the Court may, of its own motion, or on the application of the plaintiff, send the summons to the defendant by post in addition to the mode of service laid down in this rule. An acknowledgment purporting to be signed by the defendant or an endorsement by postal servant that the defendant refused to take delivery may be deemed by the Court issuing the summons to be prima facie proof of service."

Service on several defendants.

11. Save as otherwise prescribed, where there are more defendants than one, service of the summons shall be made on each defendant.

[1882—S. 74, Para. 1; 1877—S. 74 ; 1859—S. 48.]

Service to be on defendant in person when practicable, or on his agent.

12. Wherever it is practicable, service shall be made on the defendant in person, unless he has an agent empowered to accept service, in which case service on such agent shall be sufficient.

[1882—S. 75 ; 1877—S. 75 ; 1859—S. 49.]

ORDER 5, RULE 10 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Mode of service.

2. Service by post.

1. Mode of service.— [1] There are three modes of serving a summons on a defendant (1) by delivery of a copy of the summons to defendant personally or to an agent and obtaining his signature in acknowledgment of service ; (2) by affixing a copy of the summons on the door of defendant's residence or place of business ; (3) and by effecting substituted service as laid down in O. 5, R. 20. Mere delivery of summons to a person who refused to accept it is not by itself sufficient. (Vol 5) 1918 Lah 59 (60) ; 1918 Pun Re No. 99.

2. Service by post.— [1] Service by registered post—Slight evidence will displace presumption of service raised by it. (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 568 (571) (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 377 (377) ; 46 Bom 130. (Defendant alleging non-service is entitled to re-trial.)

[2] Where summons sent by post was returned as "refused" by a person who was not shown to have been the defendant it was held that it was not a good service. (1894) 18 Bom 606 (607).

[3] Summons sent by registered post—Cover tendered by postal peon to right person—Acceptance refused—Inference is that there was sufficient service. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 538 (537, 538) (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 171 (172). (Person refusing to accept service—Proceedings can be taken ex parte without effecting substituted service) (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 439 (440). (Sending registered letter which party refuses to receive amounts to service.)

[4] Registered letter sent by post—Letter refused—Ignorance of its contents cannot be pleaded. (1871) 16 Suth W R 223 (223).

[5] Proviso by the Lahore High Court—Service by registered post—Defendant acknowledging such service but not appearing—Ex parte proceedings should not be taken but summons should be directed to be served by ordinary process. (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 379 (580) (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 376 (377).

[6] Proviso by Peshawar Court similar to that of Lahore High Court—Summons to defendant by registered post—Defendant absent—He should not be proceeded against ex parte—Order 9, R. 13 has no application to such ex parte decrees. (Vol 23) 1936 Pesh 199 (200).

[7] Proviso added by Lahore High Court—Court cannot compel plaintiff to deposit both process fee and postal charges and cannot dismiss suit for non-payment thereof. The mode of service is optional with plaintiff. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 157 (158).

[8] Before the new proviso added by the Lahore High Court it was held that refusal of a party to receive summons sent by registered post was not due service under the law then in force. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 233 (236).

Order 5, Rule 12—Note 1.

[1] As a general rule whenever practicable summons should be served on defendant personally unless he has an agent empowered to accept service in which case it would be enough if it is served upon him. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 181 (184) ; 43 Cal 447 (FB).

[2] Bailiff going to defendant's place of business with partners on three separate days—On each occasion bailiff told that defendant was not there—Bailiff eventually posting writ of summons upon premises—Held there was no sufficient service. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 181 (182) ; 43 Cal 447 (FB).

[3] Case remanded—Notice of date fixed for hearing served on counsel and not on defendant personally—Defendant absent on date and suit dismissed—Counsel not informing defendant—Absence held not intentional but bona fide. (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 114 (115).

[4] Service of notice upon chela is not sufficient. (Vol 7) 1920 Oudh 220 (220) ; 23 Oudh Cas 104.

13. (1) In a suit relating to any business or work against a person who does not reside within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court from which the summons is issued, service on any manager or agent, who, at the time of service, personally carries on such business or work for such person within such limits, shall be deemed good service.

(2) For the purpose of this rule the master of a ship shall be deemed to be the agent of the owner or charterer.

14. Where in a suit to obtain relief respecting, or compensation for wrong to, immovable property, service cannot be made on the defendant in person, and the defendant has no agent empowered to accept the service, it may be made on any agent of the defendant in charge of the property.

[1882—S. 77 ; 1877—S. 77 ; 1859—S. 61.]

15. Where in any suit the defendant cannot be found and has no agent empowered to accept service of the summons on his behalf, service may be made on any adult male member of the family of the defendant who is residing with him.

Explanation. — A servant is not a member of the family within the meaning of this rule.

[1882—S. 78 ; 1877—S. 78 ; 1859—S. 53.]

[5] In the case of pardanashin lady personal service is not possible and if she has no agent empowered to accept service, no adult member in her family, affixing a copy of the summons to the outer door would be sufficient service. (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 433 (433)* (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 600 (602)* (Vol 7) 1920 Oudh 221 (222).

[But see (Vol 22) 1935 All 660 (661, 662). (Order 5, Rule 15 (Allahabad)—Pardanashin lady is not person who cannot be personally served—Lady present in house — Merely serving summons intended for pardanashin lady on male member is not sufficient requirement of law.]

[6] Summons against defendant served upon his guardian—Guardian refusing to take summons—It cannot be taken to have been served properly upon defendant. (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 17 (19).

[7] Summons addressed to B can be refused by A—But if A poses as B and knows that it is intended for him, then it is sufficient notice if the summons is served on A. (Vol 13) 1926 Rang 73 (74) : 3 Rang 515.

[8] Suit to enforce mortgage of property belonging to firm consisting of minors and other persons carrying on business within jurisdiction of Court—Minors residing outside jurisdiction — Summons neither served upon minors nor upon their guardians personally but affixed on house in which business was carried on — Held that there was no service either personal or substituted upon minors. (1899) 26 Cal 267 (272).

[9] Service of summons—Proper inquiry and substantial effort to find out defendant should be made. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 181 (183) : 43 Cal 447 (FB)* (Vol 9) 1922 Cal 128 (128). (Sufficient attempt not made to serve defendant personally—Service on cousin).

[10] Suit against certain minors and other persons constituting a firm for enforcing equitable mortgage — Minors residing outside Court's jurisdiction— Summons affixed on house where business carried on and not served upon minors nor upon guardians— Held no service either personal or substituted was effected. (1899) 26 Cal 267 (273).

[11] Defendant living away from his brother—Summons served on brother without any attempt to serve it on defendant — Service is bad — Ex parte decree set aside. (1911) (1911) 1 Mad W N 186 (186).

Order 5, Rule 13—Note 1.

[1] Order 5, R. 13 applies only to suits against firms and not to suits brought against a person in individual capacity. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 376 (377) : 1 Pat 48.

[2] Business carried on in name of principal by agent —Service on agent is sufficient whether principal resides within local jurisdiction or not. (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 282 (284) : 10 Pat 441.

[3] To constitute service on an agent, there must be some person without the local jurisdiction who is carrying on business within the jurisdiction by an agent or the manager, and is sued on account of transaction in which such agent or manager has actually transacted business. (1879-80) 4 Bom 416 (423).

[4] Service on an agent of a foreign company carrying on business in India is service on the company if the agent has authority to enter into contracts. (Vol 18) 1926 Cal 1030 (1030).

Order 5, Rule 15—Note 1.

[1] 'Adult' under Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act (Bengal Act 1 [I] of 1895) means any person who is of such an age as to be capable and responsible for due communication of notice to the other members for whom it is intended. (1907) 34 Cal 787 (789).

[2] An officer employed in the Indian Marine Service is subject to the same rules regarding service of summons as any other person under O. 5, Rr. 27 and 28 and a notice served under the provisions of Rr. 15 and 16 is a sufficient service. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 845 (845, 846) : 42 Cal 67.

[3] Defendant prisoner of war in enemy occupied territory— R. 20 cannot be invoked—Court should see whether R. 15 can be applicable otherwise Soldiers Litigation Act (4 [IV] of 1925), Ss. 6 and 7 should be applied. (Vol 30) 1943 Lah 327 (329).

[4] Order 5, R. 15 should be strictly complied with—Enquiry as to defendant's whereabouts should not be confined to his son or relation but should also be made from the neighbours. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 638 (639).

[5] Service effected on son in father's absence— Son not residing with father — Summons is not duly served on father. (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 797 (798).

[6] In defendant's absence his father took the summons and made the endorsement that he had gone to another place. Held, that summons was not served, no attempt being made to make personal service nor it being shown that the defendant was avoiding service. (1911) 1911 Pun L R No. 136 page 509 (509).

[3] Peon affixing notice at entrance of party's house on being told that party was at his own "bari" some two or three miles off — Service is not valid. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 1004 (1005).

[4] Defendant being temporarily absent and there being time to serve him personally mere affixture held not sufficient. (Vol 18) 1931 Nag 119 (119) : 27 Nag L R 53.

[5] Service of summons personally not possible as defendants not found — No agent or other person to receive or such person refuses to receive — Then only summons may be affixed if defendant is not found after "due and reasonable diligence." (Vol 9) 1922 Nag 105 (108).

[6] Where a process-server visits the village no fewer than five times to serve the summons on the defendant it may be reasonably held that every effort was made to effect service upon the defendant and that he was evading service and it should be held that the process-server used all possible diligence. Fixing of summons to the house in such a case will be good service. (Vol 18) 1931 Nag 122 (123) : 27 Nag L R 50.

[7] A process-server, attempting on three different occasions to serve the summons personally on the defendant and having failed, is right in effecting substituted service. (1910) 7 All L Jour 286 (289).

[8] Process-server should take reasonable steps to discover whereabouts of defendant—Process-server going to defendant's house on several days and not finding defendant nor his agent or adult member of his family, posting summons on house—Summons held not duly served. (Vol 24) 1937 Rang 475 (476).

[9] Defendant temporarily away from home—Serving officer knowing it and yet doing nothing more than fixing summons to the outer door — Held no good service. (1902) 24 All 302 (304) *(1906) 2 Nag L R 63 (64).

[10] Process-server affixing copy of summons to door of defendant's house merely upon being told that he had gone out and was expected to return in the evening — Summons cannot be said to be properly served. (Vol 26) 1939 All 180 (181).

[11] Defendant having two residences — Plaintiff must enquire for defendant at both. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 301 (302) : 52 Cal 453.

[12] Service of notice of appeal — Copy of notice attached to outer door—Officer not shown to have carried out the requirements of the Code — Service held to be not proper in spite of the fact that officer's report contained following statement "the respondent not found; his adult undivided son having refused to receive copy of the notice, it was affixed to the front door." RULE 20A—OUDH

Insert the following:

"20A. (1) Where the defendant resides in British India outside the province of Oudh or within the limits of a headquarters town of a district in the province, a summons may be served on him by registered post, and in this case, where an acknowledgment purporting to be signed by the defendant or an endorsement by a postal servant that the defendant refused service has been received, the process shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been served.

(2) Where the registered address of the defendant or opposite party, as defined in O. 8, R. 11, is within the limits of a headquarters town or of a municipality of India (including Burma) or Ceylon, a notice, summons or other process may be served on him at that address by registered post and such service shall be deemed to be as effectual as if the notice or process had been personally served."

ORDER 5, RULE 20 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope.
2. "Court is satisfied."
3. Evasion of service.
4. Mode of effecting substituted service.
5. Return of substituted service.
6. "Shall fix such time."
7. Substituted service as effective as personal service.

1. Scope. — [1] One of the modes of service of summons is that known as substituted service as laid down in R. 20 of O. 5. (Vol 5) 1918 Lah 59 (60) : 1918 Pun Be No. 99.

[2] Unless all reasonable steps have been adopted, and the ordinary means of service have been tried, substituted service cannot be resorted to. (1929) 120 Ind Cas 594 (595) (Lah) * (1911) 38 Cal 394 (400) * (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 472 (472).

[3] Substituted service — Unbusinesslike and ridiculous use is prohibited, e.g. where service is made by affixing to the door of the Court-house by way of serving defendant admitted on all hands to be in Natal, South Africa. (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 553 (557) : 57 Cal 538.

[4] Defendant prisoner of war in enemy occupied territory — Rule 20 cannot be invoked. (Vol 30) 1943 Lah 327 (329).

[5] Substituted service to show cause why one should not be appointed guardian is improper — Service should be by ordinary notice. (Vol 17) 1930 All 609 (609, 610).

[6] Substituted service under this rule unlike the two other modes of service can only be taken by order of the Court to that effect. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 69 (70).

2. "Court is satisfied". — [1] The advisability of effecting service by substituted service is a matter primarily for trial Court and the Appellate Court has no jurisdiction to consider whether order of trial Court is based on sufficient grounds. It has only to see that order issued is according to law and whether trial Court was satisfied that conditions of O. 5, R. 20 were fulfilled. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 507 (507) * (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 288 (289) * (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 118 (118). (Appellate Court has only to see that rules of law are observed.)

[But see (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 169 (170). (Question as to advisability of effecting substituted service — Order on such point—Appellate Court can examine legality of such order.)]

[2] Party cognizant of proceeding against him is duly served when after failure to effect personal service, proclamation is published in newspapers. (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 397 (399).

[3] Plaintiff knowing whereabouts of defendant getting order for substituted service by practising fraud — There is no proper service. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 129 (129).

[4] Person refusing to accept service — Court is not bound to order substituted service — Proceedings can be taken ex parte. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 171 (172).

[5] Suit should not be dismissed for non-service of summons unless plaintiff is given opportunity of having recourse to substituted service. (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 420 (421).

[6] Substituted service cannot be invalidated by showing, that the Court's belief as to its necessity was erroneous. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 472 (473).

3. Evasion of service. — [1] Where the plaintiff knew all along that the defendant had left certain place two or three years before suit and he further knew that the defendant had left his brother in that place and was in communication with him it cannot be said that there has been an evasion of service by the defendant. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 191 (191).

[2] Mere temporary absence on the part of the defendant does not amount to evasion. (1906) 29 Mad 324 (324).

4. Mode of effecting substituted service. — [1] Copy attached to tree near house — Service is sufficient. (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 13 (15).

[2] Copy of plaint not affixed — Service is bad. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 376 (377).

5. Return of substituted service. — [1] Statement of process server that substituted service has been made — Ex parte decree passed — Presumption that substituted service has been actually effected can be rebutted. (Vol 22) 1935 Pesh 112 (113).

Service of summons where defendant resides within jurisdiction of another Court.

21. A summons may be sent by the Court by which it is issued, whether within or without the province, either by one of its officers or by post to any Court (not being the High Court) having jurisdiction in the place where the defendant resides.

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENTS

Rules 31 and 32 — ALLAHABAD

Insert the following as Rules 31 and 32 :—

"31. An application for the issue of a summons for a party or a witness shall be made in the form prescribed for the purpose. No other forms shall be received by the Court."

"32. Ordinarily every process, except those that are to be served on Europeans, shall be written in the Court Vernacular. But where a process is sent for execution to the Court of a district where a different language is in ordinary use, it shall be written in English and shall be accompanied by a letter in English requesting its execution.

In cases where the return of service is in a language different from that of the district from which it is issued, it shall be accompanied by an English translation."

Rule 31 — SIND

Add the following as Rule 31 :—

"31. If a summons issued to a defendant residing in British India is returned unserved, the Court may, while issuing a fresh summons for personal service or ordering substituted service of summons, also order that a copy of the summons addressed to the defendant at the place where he is residing be sent to him by registered post, if there is postal communication between such place and the place where the Court is situate."

ORDER VI.

"[The Committee have added a few rules relating to pleadings based upon the system of pleading introduced by the Judicature Acts in England which is generally admitted to be the best form of pleading in civil suits. In this country outside the Presidency towns the pleadings are seldom artistically drawn. They are neither concise nor precise but contain vague and general statements from which it is difficult to ascertain definitely the real question in controversy between the parties. The sole object of pleadings is thus frequently defeated, the issue is enlarged, the trial is delayed and much unnecessary expense is incurred by the parties who are also liable to be taken by surprise. They have further provided that the forms in the Schedule shall, when applicable, be used for all pleadings and when they are not applicable, forms of the like character shall be used. The rules prescribed by us will not prevent the pleader from exercising his discretion; for the amount of detail must necessarily vary with the nature of each suit. It is, however, made clear that there must be particularity sufficient to appraise the Court and the other party of the exact nature of the questions to be tried.

The Committee have also given a party who considers that his opponent's pleading does not give him the information to which he is entitled, the right to apply for further particulars so as to enable him to know what case he has to meet at the trial.

They have, however, endeavoured to modify the rigour of the rules by providing in accordance with Section 55 of the Indian Evidence Act that the Court may, notwithstanding the absence of any specific denial, require any fact to be proved by the party who relies upon it". — S. O. R.]

PLEADINGS GENERALLY.

Pleading. 1. "Pleading" shall mean plaint or written statement.

[Cf. Supreme Court of Judicature (Consolidation) Act, 1925, S. 225.]

Order 6, Rule 1 — Note 1.

[1] The provisions of O. 6 relating to amendment of pleadings apply to applications in forma pauperis under O. 33. (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 548 (549).

[2] Pauper application is not plaint within O. 6, R. 1 until admitted under O. 33, R. 8. (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 256 (258).

[3] Where pleadings in Courts raise an issue with reasonable clearness, the fact that party does not put the plea forward in a particular form is immaterial. (Vol 2)-1915 Mad 519 (526).

[4] Pleader's statement which is the basis of the trial must be considered to be explanatory of and supplementary to the pleadings of the plaintiff. (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 204 (206, 207).

2. Every pleading shall contain, and contain only, a statement in a concise form of the Pleading to state material facts on which the party pleading relies for his claim or facts and not evidence. defence, as the case may be, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved, and shall, when necessary, be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively. Dates, sums and numbers shall be expressed in figures.

[R. S. C., O. 19, R. 4. Cf. 1882—S. 114.]

ORDER 6, RULE 2 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Object of pleadings.
2. Pleadings must state facts and not law.
- 2a. Facts stated must be material facts.
3. Alternative and inconsistent allegations.
4. Pleadings should not state evidence.
5. Variance between pleading and proof.
6. Construction of pleadings. — See Note 1.

1. Object of pleading. — [1] Whatever system of pleading may exist, the sole object of it is that each side may be fully alive to the questions that are about to be argued, in order that they may have an opportunity of bringing forward such evidence as may be appropriate to the issue. (1895) 22 Cal 324 (331) : 22 Ind App 4 (P C) * (Vol 25) 1938 P C 121 (123) : 32 Sind L R 462 (P C) * (Vol 33) 1946 Cal 249 (257) : I L R (1944) 2 Cal 487. (Object of pleadings is to give fair notice to each party of what the opponent's case is.)

[2] The object of pleadings is to bring the parties to an issue and they must be looked at, only for the purpose of being informed of the allegations and contentions of the parties. They do not prove that those allegations and contentions are true. (1913) 25 Mad L Jour 329 (341) * (Vol 32) 1945 Cal 218 (232).

[3] A party who is purposely vague in his pleadings ought to be carefully examined and tied down to definite pleadings. (Vol 17) 1930 All 321 (322) * (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 457 (464) : 16 Luck 832. (Practice of introducing obscure pleading with view to take adversary by surprise deprecated.)

[4] Pleadings in Indian Courts must not be construed with the same strictness as those in English Courts. Allowance must be made for a very inaccurate mode of setting forth the claims of persons, and the answers of defences to them. A defendant should not be held to have admitted every allegation in the plaint which he has failed to traverse. (1884) 6 All 406 (413) * (1907) 5 Cal L Jour 25 (26).

2. Pleadings must state facts and not law. — [1] A pleading must state only facts and not law. (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 103 (108, 109) * (Vol 30) 1943 P C 147 (151) : I L R (1944) Kar P C 85 (P C). (Legal inferences to be drawn from facts need not be stated.) * (Vol 17) 1930 Bom 511 (512).

[2] Pleas should be definitely taken and the facts constituting them should be expressly stated. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 168 (172).

[3] It is for the Court to find and examine all pleas of law that apply to facts of the case. (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 206 (207) * (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 265 (265).

[4] Plea of law can be urged at any time before Court pronounces judgment. (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 265 (265).

2a. Facts stated must be material facts. — [1] It is absolutely essential that a pleading, not to be embarrassing to the opposite party should state all material facts which will put the opposite party on his guard and tell him what he will have to meet when the case comes on for trial. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 658 (659) * (Vol 4) 1917 Oudh 197 (198) * (Vol 26) 1939 Rang 189 (192) : 1939 Rang L R 1.

[2] Suit for recovery of deposit — Plaintiff's case prima facie within time — Defendant must plead that particular demand was made and refused beyond period of limitation. (Vol 21) 1934 All 11 (13).

[3] Alternative reliefs prayed — Facts entitling plaintiff to such reliefs must be stated. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 25 (25) : 57 Cal 796.

[4] Only where a right that could be decreed exists and is taken away by act of State, plea of act of State need be put forward. (Vol 11) 1924 P C 216 (217) : 48 Bom 613 : 51 Ind App 357 (P C).

[5] Suit for declaration and injunction — Allegation of disturbance of plaintiff's title should be stated. (1907) 17 Mad L Jour 421 (422).

[6] Matters in aggravation of damages must be specifically pleaded. (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 29 (31) : 28 Nag L R 320.

[7] Plaintiff suing on his title is bound to state the nature of deeds on which he relies in deducing his title. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 658 (659).

[8] It is absolutely necessary to plead estoppel if it is intended to rely upon it. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 917 (920) * (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 1052 (1052).

[9] Plaintiff should not be allowed to adduce any proof in support of an alleged fact which was neither mentioned in the plaint nor made the basis of claim. (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 102 (104) * (Vol 22) 1935 Pesh 132 (133). (Promissory note payable at specified place — Plaintiff not alleging presentment in plaint — He cannot be allowed to prove it.)

[10] Party need not plead that, which law presumes in his favour. (1943) 1943 Nag L Jour 148 (149). (Plaintiff claiming damages for use and occupation of place by defendant of which plaintiff claimed to be owner — Plaintiff need not state that defendant occupied place with his permission.)

[11] Particulars of claim given with reasonable precision — Suit should not fail by reason of incorrect description of any particular. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 940 (941).

3. Alternative and inconsistent allegations. —

[But see (1891) 14 Mad 172 (174).]

[2] Parties litigants cannot assume inconsistent positions in Court to the detriment of opponents; where they elect to adopt a certain course of action they will be confined to the course they have deliberately adopted. (1912) 16 Cal L Jour 404 (411) * (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 658 (660). (Inconsistent rights claimed alternatively may be permitted except when they are destructive of each other.) * (Vol 18) 1931 Nag 57 (60) : 26 Nag L R 367. (Two absolutely inconsistent facts, each of which is destructive of the other cannot be made.)

[3] If a person makes an alternative case, then, he must make all the necessary assertions to carry the relief and prove them. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 25 (25) : 57 Cal 796 * (Vol 1) 1914 All 271 (272) : 36 All 476.

[4] Whenever alternative cases are alleged, the facts belonging to them respectively should not be mixed up, but should be stated separately so as to show on what facts such alternative relief is claimed. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 98 (95).

3. The forms in Appendix A when applicable, and where they are not applicable forms of the Forms of pleading, like character, as nearly as may be, shall be used for all pleadings.

4. In all cases in which the party pleading relies on any misrepresentation, fraud,¹ breach of Particulars to be given trust,² wilful default,³ or undue influence,⁴ and in all other cases in which where necessary, particulars may be necessary⁵ beyond such as are exemplified in the forms aforesaid, particulars (with dates and items if necessary) shall be stated in the pleading.

[5] Suit for right of way—Relief based on ownership or, in the alternative, user—Defendant claiming ownership—Relief on the ground of user can be given. (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 199 (200) : 46 Bom 200.

[6] Alternative reliefs to file a ward or to proceed on merits of case can be joined. (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 65 (67) : 1917 Pun Re No. 12.

[7] Claim for maintenance by wife married in Gandharva form—Alternative plea, that even if marriage is invalid it has created right of maintenance in favour of plaintiffs, is tenable. (Vol 33) 1946 Pat 316 (325) : 25 Pat 58.

[8] Plaintiff alleged certain entry in survey record to be wrong—Plaintiff accepting it and claiming enhancement of rent on basis of entry—Plaint is not rendered invalid. (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 580 (582).

[9] A suit may be dismissed on the plaint, only when disrespect of the Court or obvious embarrassment to defendant will be caused by inconsistent allegations made in the course of the suit and not when they occur in the plaint only. (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 580 (580).

[10] Pleas of gift and of adverse possession in the alternative against donor, cannot be allowed. The party must stick to one. (1910) 12 Bom L R 169 (172).

[12] Rescission and specific performance of contract in alternative could be claimed. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 280 (281).

[13] In a suit by a member of a joint Hindu family, that an alienation by father does not affect his share, the purchaser may plead not only according to the recital of the sale-deed, that the property was the self-acquisition of the vendor but also in the alternative, that the sale was for purposes binding on the family. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 954 (955).

4. Pleadings should not state evidence. — [1] Pleadings should not lack in conciseness and they should state only material facts and not the evidence. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 458 (460, 461) : 58 Cal 418 * (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 658 (659) * (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 410 (412). (Evidence has no place in pleading.)

[12] A party who is not aware of fraud and does not set up the plea in pleadings, can do so as soon as he becomes aware of the fraud. (Vol 3) 1916 Oudh 148 (150) : 19 Oudh Cas 334.

[13] If party fails to ask for particulars at the proper time, he cannot afterwards be heard to say that he was taken by surprise. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 621 (621, 622).

[14] When plea of fraud was raised for the first time in appeal, it was held that the Court would not consider it, as it had neither been alleged nor proved on an issue. (1900) 23 Mad 227 (237) : 27 Ind App 17 (P C).

2. Breach of trust. — [1] Allegations of breach of trust ought to be particularized to a point at which trustee knows not merely generally, but in detail, what he has to meet. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 78 (79).

3. Wilful default. — [1] The general rule is that in every case an order charging wilful default must be based upon a charge of wilful default in the pleadings. But the case of a mortgagee in possession has always been an exception to that rule. (Vol 28) 1941 Bom 28 (29).

4. Undue influence and coercion. — [1] Detailed particulars of undue influence must be given in the pleadings. (Vol 15) 1928 Oudh 330 (332) * (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 1033 (1033). (Undue influence not pleaded—Question should not be gone into.) * (1908) 8 Cal L Jour 135 (142) * (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 48 (49) : 5 Pat L Jour 744.

[2] If there are facts on the record to justify the inference of undue influence, the Court has power to administer relief notwithstanding in artistic pleadings. All that the Court has to see is that the adversary of the party pleading undue influence is not taken by surprise (Vol 18) 1931 Nag 63 (64) : 27 Nag L R 19.

[3] Specific allegation of undue influence is unnecessary if there is already an allegation of fraud in the plaint. (Vol 3) 1916 Bom 275 (276, 277) * (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 726 (729) : 58 Mad 454.

[4] For establishing undue influence it must be proved that one person was in a position to dominate the will of and exercise his influence over another, and that the former did influence the latter. (Vol 11) 1924 Bom 457 (458).

[5] A mere suspicion or probability is not sufficient to prove coercion. (Vol 2) 1915 Bom 68 (70, 71) : 39 Bom 149.

5. Other cases in which particulars are necessary.—[1] A plea of a special nature must be distinctly pleaded and made the subject of a distinct issue. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 863 (865).

[2] When a customary right is claimed, it should be specifically pleaded and all the essential requisites to its validity and binding effect must be averred. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 569 (571).

[3] Suit based on one custom—Different custom cannot be set up at trial. (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 204 (208).

[4] If the plaintiff relies on special damage in a suit to establish a public right, he must allege special damage in the plaint, giving particulars and details of special damage accrued to him. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 543 (550).

[5] Immemorial user or lost grant must be pleaded to obtain relief—Inference of lost grant may be drawn by long user. (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 215 (217).

[6] Accounts between principal and agent settled wholly on agent's accounts—No accounts with principal—Particulars of misconduct should not be insisted upon from principal prior to inspection. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 284 (285, 286) : 55 Mad 704.

[7] Pleading must specifically mention all particulars of negligence alleged. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 17 (18).

[8] Plea under S. 53, T. P. Act, not specifically pleaded in written statement but raised in course of argument—Plea held could not be allowed. (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 457 (464) : 16 Luck 832.

[9] Suit for damages by purchaser for breach of contract of sale—It is not necessary for plaintiff to allege and prove that he was ready to perform his part of contract unless defendant puts him to its proof. (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 553 (553).

[10] In an action for "malicious prosecution", the plaintiff must aver in the plaint the charges made against him by the defendant. (1873) 10 Bom H C R 182 (185).

5. A further and better statement of the nature of the claim or defence, or further and better particulars of any matter stated in any pleading, may in all cases be ordered, upon such terms, as to costs and otherwise, as may be just.

Further and better statement, or particulars.

[R. S. C., O. 19, R. 7.]

6. Any condition precedent, the performance or occurrence of which is intended to be contested, shall be distinctly specified in his pleading by the plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be; and, subject thereto, an averment of the performance or occurrence of all conditions precedent necessary for the case of the plaintiff or defendant shall be implied in his pleading.

[R. S. C., O. 19, R. 14.]

7. No pleading shall, except by way of amendment, raise any new ground of claim or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading the same.

[11] In an action for malicious arrest it is immaterial under what section the arrest was made, if in fact the circumstances were such as to justify an arrest. (1913) 40 Cal 898 (924).

[12] Alternate claim should be specifically set forth. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 367 (368). (Suit for rent by cosharer landlord and in alternative for refund of excess collected by other cosharers is competent.)

[13] Plea of waiver must be specifically raised. (Vol 20) 1933 Bom 46 (48).

[14] Collision between motor and motor cycle—The plaintiff in framing his statement of claim should state out the circumstances of collision, so far as they are known to him with clearness and accuracy to enable his adversary to know the case he has to meet. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 543 (544).

[15] Defamation—Plaint must set out specific time, place and individuals to whom the words were spoken. (Vol 13) 1926 All 672 (673).

[16] Illegal consideration must be specifically pleaded. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 345 (346).

[17] In a suit for accounts against administrator filed on behalf of minors, the plaintiff should specify one or more acts of misconduct or should state some reasonable ground for supposing that the administrator is about to waste the estate of minor. (1873) 10 Bom H C R 414 (415).

Order 6, Rule 5—Note 1.

[1] The object of obtaining particulars is to enable the other party to know the case he has to meet and to prevent surprise at the trial. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 473 (476); 53 Mad 645.

[2] The particulars ordered to be furnished should be provided and there is no discretion in the matter. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 984 (986, 988).

[See (Vol 27) 1940 Nag 261 (262); I L R (1940) Nag 20. (Person bringing claim must be able to give necessary particulars without fishing about in his opponent's evidence).]

[3] Court should also see that the pleadings are clear so that each party may know the case he has to meet with. (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 457 (464); 16 Luck 832 (Vol 1) 1914 Oudh 52 (92). (Vague pleadings should be asked to be made specific).

[4] Plaint not specifying particulars — Defendant should ask for them—Suit should not be dismissed—But plaint should be allowed to be amended. (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 135 (135).

[5] Rule 5 does not permit submission of new material altogether based on entirely different cause of action. (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 795 (796).

[6] Better statement can be put in when it is ordered by the Court. (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 386 (388).

[7] Replication rejected by Court though cannot be treated as pleading can be placed on record and used to contradict statements by petitioner under S. 145, Evidence Act. (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 529 (530); 41 Cri L Jour 204.

[8] Objection to plaint on the ground of vagueness cannot be raised at appellate stage. (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 51 (54) : I L R (1937) 1 Cal 491 (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 678 (680).

[9] Court offering defendant opportunity to make detailed statement under O. 6, R 5 on payment of adjournment costs — Defendant refusing conditional offer — Formal amendment of plaint subsequently allowed — On such amendment held no case for further pleadings arose and Court rightly refused to accept defendant's belated statement. [10] Plaintiff after several chances failing to produce necessary particulars within time granted — Court can dismiss his suit—Appellate Court should be very slow to interfere with discretion of trial Court. (Vol 27) 1940 Nag 261 (262); I L R (1942) Nag 20.

Order 6, Rule 6 — Note 1.

[1] Order 6, R. 6 must be read with O. 8 R. 2. (Vol 31) 1944 Pat 77 (86); 22 Pat 513.

[2] A condition precedent must be specifically pleaded by defendant; otherwise its performance will be presumed. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 205 (206) (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 318 (319); 7 Lah 442. (Suit for damages for breach of contract—An averment that plaintiff was ready and willing to perform his part of the contract must be implied.) (Vol 31) 1944 Pat 77 (86); 22 Pat 513. (Landlord need not allege notice — Defendant tenant must plead want of notice.)

[But see (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 632 (635) : 60 Cal 733. (Notice under S. 54, Bengal Cess Act, 1880, is condition precedent to pay cess—Defendant failing to raise want of notice in written statement but raising it in course of argument—Plaintiff should prove notice).]

[3] Defence of non-registration of partnership not raised in pleadings—Question cannot be raised for first time in second appeal. (Vol 32) 1945 Pat 286 (287).

[4] Suit by seller against buyer for failure to take delivery of goods — Objection that plaint did not contain averment as to readiness and willingness — Objection held not fatal in the circumstances of the case. (Vol 24) 1937 Nag 345 (350) : I L R (1938) Nag 308.

ORDER 6, RULE 7 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Applicability and scope.
2. Inconsistent allegations.
3. New ground of claim.

1. Applicability and scope.—[1] Statement made by party on being questioned by Court before framing

8. Where a contract is alleged in any pleading, a bare denial of the same by the opposite party shall be construed only as a denial in fact of the express contract alleged or of the matters of fact from which the same may be implied, and not as a denial of the legality or sufficiency in law of such contract.

9. Wherever the contents of any document are material, it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof, unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.

[R. S. C., O. 19, R. 21.]

10. Wherever it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, it shall be sufficient to allege the same as a fact without setting out the circumstances from which the same is to be inferred.

11. Wherever it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter or thing, it shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of such notice, or the circumstances from which such notice is to be inferred, are material.

12. Whenever any contract or any relation between any persons is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to such letters, conversations or circumstances without setting them out in detail. And if in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from such circumstances, he may state the same in the alternative.

13. Neither party need in any pleading allege any matter of fact which the law presumes in his favour or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side unless issues is in nature of supplementary pleading for purposes of this rule. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 165 (166). (No plea inconsistent with even oral statement can be raised at later stage except by amendment.)* (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 204 (206, 207).

[2] Provisions of O. 6, R. 7 apply to minors also. (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 625 (626). (Guardian ad litem filing written statement — Minor attaining majority during pendency of suit cannot claim to file fresh written statement superseding the first filed by the guardian).

[3] Order 6, R. 7 does not contain a rule that inconsistent pleas can be permitted to be advanced. (Vol 30) 1943 Lah 159 (161, 162).

[4] The rules for the exercise of discretion in regard to amendments falling under O. 6, R. 7 may not be applicable when there is an application before the Court for permission to amend, still less when the Court has to consider whether it should of its own motion order amendment. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 984 (988).

2. Inconsistent allegations. — [1] Inconsistent case cannot be set up for first time in replication unless it is allowable by way of amendment. (Vol 30) 1943 Lah 159 (161)* (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 465 (468)* (Vol 19) 1932 Pat 332 (333). (Payment alleged at stage of making mortgage decree final).

[2] Pleadings contravening O. 6 R. 7 — Court should ignore them — Formal order rejecting such pleadings is not essential. (Vol 7) 1920 Nag 147 (148).

[3] Though alternative case may be allowed in a plaint a new case for the plaintiff cannot be made out for the plaintiff by the Court. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 105 (105).

3. New ground of claim. — [1] It is permissi exempli to admit a new head of claim without a proper amendment of pleadings. (Vol 23) 1936 PC 27 (29) (PC).

Order 6, Rule 8 — Note 1.

[1] Suit on unconditional acknowledgment — Plea of limitation or want of consideration should be specifically pleaded. (Vol 19) 1932 All 199 (202, 203) : 53 All 963.

[2] Suit on mortgage — Defendant denying consideration for mortgage — Plea of want of due attestation cannot be taken up during trial. (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 90 (92) : 47 Bom 137.

[3] From evidence Court noticing that consideration for suit transaction illegal — No objection raised by defendant — Still Court should look into facts and give proper decision. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 187 (189).

[4] Plea of want of consideration can be raised even when execution of the document is denied. (1911) 9 I C 469 (469) (Low Bur).

Order 6, Rule 10 — Note 1.

[1] Plea of insanity — Circumstances need not be pleaded — Evidence as to general insanity may be led to prove unfit mental condition at time of execution of deed. (Vol 25) 1938 Nag 204 (208).

[2] Mistaken bona fide belief and good faith must be alleged in pleading — They are not to be presumed. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 110 (113).

[3] Suit for damages against Election Officer for refusal to receive nomination paper — Malice must be alleged. (1907) 31 Bom 37 (45).

Order 6, R. 11 — Note 1.

[1] Notice under S. 107 of the Contract Act is to be pleaded and proved by plaintiff vendor. (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 162 (163).

Order 6, R. 13 — Note 1.

[1] Where it is incumbent upon a person to prove his title it is not necessary that the objection to sale deed by such person in favour of another should be the same has first been specifically denied (e. g., consideration for a bill of exchange where the plaintiff sues only on the bill and not for the consideration as a substantive ground of claim.)

14. Every pleading shall be signed by the party and his pleader (if any): Provided that Pleading to be signed. where a party pleading is, by reason of absence or for other good cause, unable to sign the pleading, it may be signed by any person duly authorized by him to sign the same or to sue or defend on his behalf.

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENT

Rule 14A—CALCUTTA

Insert the following :

"14A.—Every pleading when filed shall be accompanied by a statement in a prescribed form, signed as provided in Rule 14 of this Order, of the party's address for service. Such address may from time to time be changed by lodging in Court a form duly filled up and stating the new address of the party and accompanied by a verified petition. The address so given shall be called the registered address of the party and shall, until duly changed as aforesaid, be deemed to be the address of the party for the purpose of service of all processes in the suit or in any appeal from any decree or order therein made and for the purposes of execution, and shall hold good subject as aforesaid for a period of two years, after the final determination of the cause or matter. Service of any process may be effected upon a party at his registered address in like manner in all respects as though such party resided thereat."

15. (1) Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, every pleading shall be verified at the foot by the party or by one of the parties pleading or by some other person proved to the satisfaction of the Court to be acquainted with the fact of the case.

(2) The person verifying shall specify, by reference to the numbered paragraphs of the pleading, what he verifies of his own knowledge and what he verifies upon information received and believed to be true.

(3) The verification shall be signed by the person making it and shall state the date on which and the place at which it was signed.

ORDER 6, RULE 15—SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. Who can verify.
3. Mode of verification.
4. Effect of defective verification.
5. Omission to verify.
6. Objection to verification.
7. Effect of false verification.

1. Scope and object.—[1] The object of verification is to fix on the party verifying the responsibility for the statements which it contains and to afford a guarantee of his good faith. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 269 (274): 43 Cal 1001 (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 679 (680). (Plaintiff is responsible for statements in plaint.)

[2] Verification is merely a form of giving authenticity to the pleadings. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 269 (274): 43 Cal 1001.

[3] Court must see that plaints are properly verified. (Vol 1) 1914 Low Bur 198 (199).

[4] Verified plaint is not necessarily legal evidence of facts contained in it—Verification although coming within definition of "false evidence" is not evidence on which decree can be founded. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 269 (272, 274): 43 Cal 1001.

[5] In the case of pardanshin ladies, their pleadings will not be accepted as satisfactory proof of the contents unless and until it be affirmatively proved that the contents were fully understood by them. (Vol 3) 1916 P C 27 (34): 38 All 627: 43 Ind App 212: 19 Oudh Cas 192 (PC).

[6] Patna High Court Rules 3, 13 and 16—Word 'affidavit' includes both statements sworn to, and affirmed. There is nothing in the rules to show that O. 6, R. 15 has been made applicable to applications filed in the High Court. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 172 (173): 19 Pat 263: 42 Cri L Jour 399.

[7] Objections to petition for letters of administration should be verified. (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 273 (274).

2. Who can verify.—[1] Plaint verified by a person other than the plaintiff or his agent—His authority to verify must be proved by affidavit. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 773 (774).

[2] Plaint signed and verified by a person holding a general power of attorney was held to meet the requirements. (1880) 4 Bom 468 (470).

[3] In a suit by a manager of a Bank verification of plaint by manager, on behalf of Bank is valid in law. (1887) 9 All 188 (191).

[4] Where the Munim Gumasta of a firm was orally authorized to take all steps necessary in regard to arbitration then pending, it was held that proceedings signed and verified by him were valid. (Vol 80) 1943 Cal 13 (15).

[5] Verification of sale statement by karpardaz of decree-holder is sufficient. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 636 (637).

[6] Signature of the Administrator-General to a petition for letters of administration containing valuation of the assets and praying for remission of court-fee, is sufficient verification under the Administrator-General's Act (2 [II] of 1874). (1893) 20 Cal 879 (880).

[7] In a case where the plaintiff sets up gross fraud, it is imperative on the plaintiff to verify the plaint himself. (1882) 8 Cal 885 (888) (1887) 9 All 505 (507).

3. Mode of verification.—[1] In order to constitute proper verification, it is necessary for the person verifying, if all the facts are within his knowledge, to state distinctly that they are true to his knowledge, and if he has knowledge as to some and only information and belief as to others, to state to which he speaks from his knowledge and to which from his information and belief. (1893) 15 All 59 (61).

[2] Verification of paragraphs raising law points is not necessary. (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 328 (329).

[3] Mere omission to disclose source of information does not vitiate verification. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 632 (632).

4. Effect of defective verification.—[1] Defective verification does not affect the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court. (1896) 18 All 396 (400) (F B).

[2] Suit is not to be dismissed if the verification is defective—Opportunity must be given to amend it. (1898) 20 All 442 (445) (Vol 23) 1936 Bom 418 (420): I L R (1937) Bom 85 (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 385 (388).

[3] Verification of plaint amended being defective—Plaint will be deemed to be filed on the day of first presentation and not when verification was amended. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 376 (377): 54 Cal 380.

[4] Defect in verification is not a ground of interference in appeal under the provisions of S. 99—Appellate Court may return plaint to trial Court if it was not properly verified. (1896) 18 All 396 (399, 400) (SB).

[5] Application in forma pauperis—Under O. 33, R. 5, Court shall reject application if it is not framed and verified properly. (1912) 6 Low Bur Ral 117 (118).

5. Omission to verify.—[1] Omission to verify is a mere irregularity curable at later stage. (Vol 12) 1925 All 79 (80): 46 All 637.

[2] Want of verification is only an irregularity not affecting the merits of the case. (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 28 (29).

[3] Absence of signature, verification or presentation on part of some of plaintiffs does not affect jurisdiction of Court. (Vol 18) 1931 All 507 (512): 54 All 57 (S B).

[4] Unverified written statement taken on file—Objection cannot be entertained in appeal. (1907) 11 Cal W N 871 (872).

6. Objection to verification.—[1] Objection to verification should be taken at the earliest possible opportunity and if not so taken will be deemed to have been waived. (1875) 24 Suth W R 71 (71).

[2] It is not competent to a Court to raise any objection to the verification of the plaint by an agent

16. The Court may at any stage of the proceedings³ order to be struck out or amended any Striking out pleadings. matter in any pleading which may be unnecessary or scandalous⁴ or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial⁵ of the suit.

[R. S. C., O. 19 R. 27; Cf. 1882, S. 116; See O. 6 Rr. 2 and 17.]

17. The Court may at any stage of the proceedings¹³ allow either party to alter or amend his Amendment of pleadings. pleadings in such manner and on such terms as may be just,¹⁵ and all such amendments shall be made as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions in controversy¹¹ between the parties.

[Cf. 1882 and 1877—S. 53; 1859—S. 29; R. S. C., O. 28, R. 1. See Ss. 152, 153, O. 1, R. 10; O. 6, Rr. 2, 7, 16 and 18.]

when such verification has been expressly sanctioned by it at the commencement of the suit. (1869) 12 Suth W R 465 (466).

7. Effect of false verification — [1] Verification is matter of great importance — If declaration be false, offence of giving false evidence is committed. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 192 (194): 41 Cal 113 : 14 Cri L Jour 305 (S B) & (Vol 1) 1914 Low Bur 272 (273) : 7 Low Bur Rul 257.

[But see (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 639 (640) : 32 Cri L Jour 238. (Putting in the written statement which is not true, and omission to state something which ought to have been there, does not amount to an offence under S. 193 of the Penal Code.)

ORDER 6, RULE 16 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Appeal.
2. Applicability and scope.
3. "At any stage of the proceeding."
4. Pleas unnecessary or scandalous.
5. Power of Appellate Court to expunge.
6. Tending to prejudice, embarrass, or delay the fair trial.

1. Appeal. — [1] Order refusing to strike off pleadings is not appealable. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 64 (64).

2. Applicability and scope — [1] Jurisdiction should be exercised with great caution—Written statement should not be struck out unless it is clear beyond all reasonable doubt that allegations therein cannot be a defence to the action. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 860 (861).

[2] Court should not strike out pleadings unless it is necessary for the ends of justice. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 604 (605).

3. "At any stage of the proceeding." — [1] If trial Court is not moved under this rule at trial the party cannot contest in second appeal that trial was vitiated. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 814 (816).

[2] Valuation of relief can be allowed to be amended as it does not change the nature of the suit. (Vol 29) 1942 Bom 161 (174) : 1 L R (1942) Bom 357.

4. Pleas unnecessary or scandalous. — [1] Test for expunging statement from pleadings is to see whether the allegations are necessary for the formulation of the plaintiff's case either in the way of establishing a cause of action or relevant for the purposes of the decision of any of the issues, and also the question whether it is relevant to any issue or supports the cause of action, the test would be whether the statement could form part of the evidence-in-chief which the plaintiff would be bound to lead for obtaining the relief asked for. (Vol 31) 1944 Bom 197 (198).

[2] Passage in describing plaintiff's agent as "awara" held ought to have been struck out as unnecessary and scandalous. (Vol 33) 1946 All 204 (206) : 1 L R (1945) All 685.

[3] Allegations of dishonest conduct are scandalous and should never be made in pleadings if no relief is sought on that ground. (1909) 10 Cal L Jour 414 (419).

5. Power of Appellate Court to expunge.—[1]

High Court has power to expunge passages in lower Court's judgment — Power should be exercised only in extraordinary cases. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 223 (224). (Observation that "he did not care a brass farthing for Devasthanam" was not interfered with.)

[2] Memorandum of appeal containing allegations of partiality against the Judge whose decree was in question—Per Subramanna Ayyar J. — Appellate Court should order objectionable matter to be expunged and then admit appeal — Per Moore J. — Appellate Court should return memorandum of appeal and refuse to receive it until objectionable matters have been expunged. (1899) 22 Mad 155 (158, 161). (Appellate Court returning memorandum of appeal — Memorandum represented without amendment — Appeal rejected under S. 543 of 1882 Code — Objectionable portion separable from rest — Appeal against order rejecting appeal held lay to the High Court.)

6. Tending to prejudice, embarrass, or delay the fair trial. — [1] Court cannot indicate to parties how they should frame cases — Court has only to see that parties do not offend against rights of pleadings. (Vol 5) 1918 Oudh 463 (464) : 20 Oudh Cas 192.

[2] Failure to deliver particulars of defence attracts consequences of this rule. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 473 (478): 53 Mad 645.

[3] Part of plaint within jurisdiction and part outside—Court should ask plaintiff to delete part beyond jurisdiction or should dismiss it at once under O. 6, R. 16 and proceed with suit — It is incorrect to return plaint for presentation to proper Court. (Vol 29) 1942 All 130 (134) : 1 L R 1942 All 129.

[4] Suit for possession — Wakf set up in defence—Plaintiff denying genuineness of deed and pleading fraud and undue influence — Held Court could take action under this rule. (Vol 4) 1917 Oudh 389 (390).

[5] General charge of immorality cannot be permitted in a pleading. No Judge should allow a paragraph of such a nature to remain in record, e. g. that the father was extravagant or dissolute. (Vol 19) 1932 All 467 (467).

ORDER 6, RULE 17 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope.
2. Discretion of Court.
3. Introducing new case in the plaint.
4. Introducing new case in written statement.
5. Taking away right accrued by lapse of time.
6. Amendment not to be allowed when the disadvantage or injury caused cannot be compensated by costs.
7. Application not in good faith should be refused.
8. Addition or substitution of a new plea of fraud.
9. Addition of new reliefs or claims.
10. New ground of relief.

O. 6 R. 17 (contd.)

11. "As may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions in controversy."
12. Introduction of new cause of action.
13. "At any stage of the proceedings."
14. Opportunity to be given to the opposite party to amend his pleading.
15. "On such terms as may be just."
16. How amendments should be made.
17. Court not having jurisdiction over suit, if can allow amendment of plaint.
18. Extent of amendment.
19. Effect of amendment and limitation.
20. Appeal.
21. Revision.

1. Scope.—[1] The duty of the Court to make necessary amendments is only a rule of conduct, which is subject to the inherent power of the Court to prevent injustice and abuse of process of the Court. (Vol 1) 1914 Sind 40 (41) : 8 Sind L R 28.

[2] The provisions of this rule also apply to the trial of cases before the Sikh Gurdwara Tribunal under the Sikh Gurdwaras Act, 8 [VIII] of 1925. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 325 (327) : 9 Lah 649.

[3] This rule applies to cases before a Subordinate Judge deciding a dispute under the Madras District Municipal Election Rules. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 1043 (1043) (S B).

[4] Though the rule only refers to pleadings, the Court has also power to allow the amendment of applications, as this rule is not exhaustive of the powers of amendment. (Vol 25) 1938 Pat 209 (210).

[5] A petition in insolvency can be amended under this rule. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 53 (55) (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 202 (203).

[6] Where the suit itself is not validly instituted the defect cannot be cured by an amendment. (Vol 31) 1944 Bom 201 (202, 203) : I L R (1944) Bom 66.

[7] The rule has nothing to do with jurisdiction. It merely provides the modes in which the Court should exercise that jurisdiction. (Vol 33) 1946 Bom 361 (362, 363).

2. Discretion of Court.—[1] The amendment of pleadings is in the discretion of the Court. Party is not entitled as of right to amendment. (Vol 29) 1942 Pat 309 (309) (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 498 (502) : 16 Luck 812.

[2] This rule confers a very wide discretion on the Courts. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 811 (812) (Vol 13) 1926 All 672 (672) (1910) 37 Cal 399 (404) (Vol 17) 1930 Nag 295 (296) : 27 Nag L R 226 (Vol 3) 1916 Low Bur 71 (72) : 8 Low Bur 418 (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 270 (272) (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 484 (487) : 13 Luck 584.

[3] The discretion must not be used in an unjust or arbitrary manner. (1885) 7 All 79 (83) (F B) (Vol 27) 1940 Oudh 367 (369) : 16 Luck 65 (Vol 28) 1941 All 298 (300) : I L R (1941) All 558.

[4] In exercising the discretion it must be remembered that the rules of procedure are meant to facilitate administration of justice. (Vol 15) 1928 Oudh 305 (306) (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 271 (273, 274) (Vol 28) 1936 Pat 140 (142).

[5] Discretion should be used for avoiding multiplicity of suits. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 316 (316) (1898) 25 Cal 371 (390) (S B) (1886) 11 Moo Ind App 468 (486) (P C) (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 904 (907) : 45 Cal 305 (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 484 (487) : 13 Luck 584.

[6] Discretion should be used to further substantial justice. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 316 (316) (1857) 6 Moo Ind App 393 (411) (P C) (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 484 (487) : 13 Luck 584.

[7] For illustrations of cases fit for exercising discretion, see the following decisions: (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 181 (183) : I L R (1942) Nag 92. (Suit instituted wrongly in the name of deity when it should be in the name of the temple — Amendment should be allowed.) (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 276 (279). (Plaintiff under misapprehension as to his legal right to proceed against some of the properties by the right of subrogation.) (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 37 (42) : 1940 Rang L R 603. (Party having complete cause of action alleging it imperfectly — Party may be helped by amendment — But premature suit is incurable.) (Vol 27) 1940 Lah 256 (261) : I L R (1941) Lah 39. (Joint Hindu family partnership — Pro-note executed in favour of one member only — Suit by all members jointly — Amendment striking of names of members.) (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 182 (186) : 19 Nag L R 36. (Vakalatnama not bearing pleader's name.) (Vol 12) 1925 All 538 (539). (Wrong provision of law quoted in the plaint.) (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 367 (370). (Unauthorized mumin signing plaint — Plaintiff allowed to sign later.) (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 770 (771). (Sole proprietor filing suit in firm name — Objection to form of suit — Amendment to remedy the defect allowed.) (1874) 21 Suth W R 208 (209) (F B). (Omission of an alternative claim by mistake.) (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 317 (318). (Mistaken identity as to lands claimed in a pre-emption suit.) (Vol 5) 1918 Lah 6 (8). (Pleader making wrong statement as a result of mis-information.) (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 56 (59) : 1915 Pun Re No. 13. (Non-inclusion of certain property in the plaint.) (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 203 (205). (Bona fide mistake whether of law or fact — Following (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 249 : 2 Rang 66.) (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 399 (400). (Mortgage by cosharer — Partition and allotment of different property to mortgagor — Mortgagee proceeding against property originally mortgaged — Amendment.)

[8] The Court cannot amend the plaint itself; it can only allow an amendment. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 44 (44) (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 172 (173).

[9] The Court cannot compel party to change the character of a suit. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 42 (46) : 57 Cal 349 (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 172 (173) (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 645 (646).

3. Introducing new case in the plaint. — [1] Order 6, R. 17 places no restriction upon the exercise of discretion by Court in allowing amendment of plaint provided it is judiciously exercised. (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 241 (242) (1910) 13 Oudh Cas 152 (154) (Vol 32) 1945 Sind 128 (129, 130) : I L R (1945) Kar 84. (Discretion should be liberally exercised in favour of the plaintiff.)

[1a] The discretion should be exercised with due regard to the circumstances of each individual case and after careful study of its effect upon the position of the plaintiff and the defendant. (Vol 15) 1928 P C 208 (218, 219) : 52 Bom 597 : 55 Ind App 360 (P C).

[2] As a general rule the Court will not, in the exercise of such discretion, allow an amendment converting a suit of one character into a suit of another character. (Vol 30) 1943 Pat 206 (210) : 22 Pat 411 (423) (F B) (Vol 14) 1927 P C 18 (20) : 54 Ind App 55 : 6 Pat 323 (P C) (Vol 31) 1944 Cal 4 (8). (Plaint faintly disclosing suit as one for compensation for false and malicious prosecution. Held amendment did not change the character.)

[3] The Court cannot, by way of amendment, substitute one distinct cause of action for another, or change the subject-matter of the suit. (Vol 9) 1922 P C 249 (250, 251) : 48 Ind App 214 : 4 Upp Bur 30 : 48 Cal 832 (P C).

[4] Where the nature of the suit is not altered, and no prejudice or surprise is caused to the opposite party amendment will be allowed. (Vol 24) 1937 P C 42 (45, 46) : 16 Pat 149 (PC) * (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 485 (487) * (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 289 (291) : I L R (1942) Nag 478 * (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 37 (39) : 1940 Rang L R 603 * (Vol 27) 1940 Lah 256 (261) : I L R (1941) Lah 39.

[5] Amendment introducing new ground of claim or allegations inconsistent with facts found in the original plaint may be allowed where just and necessary. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 289 (292) : I L R (1942) Nag 478 * (1911) 11 Ind Cas 827 (828) (Low Bur) * (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 137 (138, 139) * (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 158 (159, 160) * (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 460 (460) * (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 265 (265, 266) * (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 280 (281, 282) * (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 244 (245). ((Vol 24) 1937 Lah 146, reversed.)

[6] In the following cases the amendments were not allowed on the ground that they would totally change the character of the suit :

[a] Suit for possession ; amendment into a suit for redemption. (Vol 7) 1920 Bom 64 (66) : 44 Bom 515.

[d] Suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts — Amendment to convert it into one for remuneration for services. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 294 (297, 299) * (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 38 (39).

[f] Suit against defendant as tenant ; conversion treating him as a trespasser and claiming ejection. (Vol 12) 1925 All 705 (706, 707).

[g] Suit for redemption ; amendment to make it a suit for avoidance of sale on payment of portion of consideration money. (1912) 14 Ind Cas 743 (744) (All).

[o] Suit on pro-note against a person who established plea of minority at the time of execution — Suit cannot be changed to one under S. 68, Contract Act at revisional stage. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 569 (571).

[p] Suit for ejectment cannot be converted into a suit for partition. (Vol 33) 1946 Mad 105 (106, 107).

4. Introducing new case in written statement.

— [1] An amendment of a written statement setting up a totally inconsistent case with the original case will not be allowed if it is unjust to the opposite side to allow it. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 811 (812) * (1909) 11 Bom L R 926 (936) * (Vol 22) 1935 Pat 463 (465) * (Vol 26) 1939 Oudh 245 (246) : 14 Luck 701 * (Vol 32) 1945 All 197 (200, 201) : I L R (1945) All 109.

[2] Where the proposed amendment will have the effect of displacing plaintiff's suit, Court will refuse the application to amend. (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 153 (163) : I L R (1942) 1 Cal 326 * (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 278 (279) * (Vol 21) 1934 All 11 (12).

[3] Plea of privilege sought to be introduced by amendment of written statement at the time of trial in a suit for libel was disallowed as unfair to the plaintiff. (1909) 36 Cal 883 (891).

[4] An amendment as a general rule should be refused when the plaintiff has called all his evidence and closed his case. (Vol 17) 1930 Rang 140 (142) : 7 Rang 800.

[5] Where amendment is allowed after plaintiff has closed his evidence and his case further evidence should be allowed to be called to meet the new case. (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 59 (61).

[6] Deliberate admission of a material fact will not be allowed to be denied by an amendment of the statement at a later stage. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 950 (960).

[7] Where the effect of the alternative plea was merely to put the plaintiff to the proof of a title which would justify his prayer for a relief amendment could be allowed. (1909) 13 Cal W N 805 (813).

[8] Where on the facts appearing in the plaintiff's evidence a new defence of law arises, it could be taken by way of amendment, even after the plaintiff has closed his case on the facts. (Vol 17) 1930 Rang 140 (142) : 7 Rang 800.

[9] The improbability or the unconvincing nature of the new defence raised is not a ground for refusing to allow the amendment by the inclusion of such defence. (Vol 22) 1935 Pat 463 (465).

[10] New defence which cuts at the root of the case should not be allowed without amendment of pleadings. (Vol 26) 1939 Sind 137 (142) : I L R (1939) Kar 330.

5. Taking away right accrued by lapse of time.

— [1] However negligent or careless the first omission may have been, and however late the proposed amendment, the amendment should be allowed if it can be made without injustice to the other side. (1883) 32 W R (Eng) 262 (263) * (1910) 12 Cal L Jour 423 (426) * (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 322 (323) * (Vol 14) 1927 Nag 310 (311) : 23 Nag L R 81 * (Vol 13) 1926 Oudh 508 (509) * (Vol 12) 1925 Sind 241 (241) : 19 Sind L R 12 * (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 485 (487).

[2] An amendment will work injustice to the opposite party where it takes away a right accrued by lapse of time. (Vol 28) 1941 All 49 (49) : I L R (1941) All 74 * (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 202 (203) * (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 669 (672) * (Vol 22) 1935 Pat 86 (88).

[7] Plaint framed with due diligence and care—Mistake as to appropriate remedy in the plaint due to the existence of conflicting judicial opinions or subsequent change in law—Amendment justified though fresh suit may be incompetent as barred by limitation. (1911) 21 Mad L Jour 475 (478)* (1894) 17 Mad 67 (68, 69).

[8] Existing right refers to a legal right which has accrued to the defendant and not a bare right to plead limitation. Therefore where no new cause of action is introduced or new relief is claimed the rule does not apply. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh. 161 (163) : 17 Luck 226* (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 158 (159)* (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 202 (203)* (Vol 26) 1939 Nag 23 (25)* (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 412 (412).

6. Amendment not to be allowed when the disadvantage or injury caused cannot be compensated by costs. — [1] There is no injustice in allowing an amendment if the other side can be compensated with costs. (1883) 32 W R (Ring) 262 (263).

[2] The test before allowing an amendment is to see whether it will place the other party at a disadvantage or cause injury and whether that can be compensated by costs. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 182 (183) * (1912) 16 Ind Cas 785 (786) (Cal) * (Vol 33) 1946 Mad 324 (325).

7. Application not in good faith should be refused. — [1] Court's discretion in allowing an amendment should be exercised only where the applicant has acted in good faith. (Vol 9) 1922 Cal 255 (256)* (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 322 (323, 324) * (Vol 17) 1930 Nag 295 (296) : 27 Nag L R 226 * (1911) 14 Cal L Jour 188 (207) * (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 367 (368) * (Vol 16) 1929 Rang 33 (34).

[4] An amendment which seeks to reargue the same questions and leads to further evidence, should not be allowed. (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 279 (281, 291) : 27 Sind L R 341 (F B).

8. Addition or substitution of a new plea of fraud.

— [1] One kind of fraud pleaded cannot be substituted by a distinct and new kind of fraud especially after the evidence has closed. (1887) 14 Ind App 111 (121) : 11 Bom 620 (P C).

[2] Where no fraud has at all been alleged in the original plaint, a new plea of fraud will not, except where strong grounds exist, be allowed to be raised by way of amendment. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 759 (760).

[3] Where the fraud is disclosed only in the pleadings of the defendant or on his cross-examination it can be added by way of amendment. (1898) 25 Cal 371 (388, 390) (S B).

[4] Before granting an amendment the Court must be satisfied about the truth and substantiality of the amendment and also about the reason for omission. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 883 (885).

[5] Where the omission to refer to fraud in the plaint was due to an oversight and the plaintiff intended from the very outset to allege fraud, the amendment should be allowed in the interests of justice. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 759 (760).

9. Addition of new reliefs or claims. — [1] Mere alteration in the relief claimed does not change the character of the suit, and such alteration will be allowed if it does not cause injustice to the other side. (1893) 20 Cal 805 (808) * (1895) 22 Cal 692 (710) (S B) * (Vol 20) 1933 Rang 247 (249) * (1905) 23 Mad 500 (501, 502) * (Vol 21) 1934 Rang 266 (267) * (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 160 (161).

[1a] Following are some of the cases where alteration of relief was allowed :—

[a] Suit for sale on mortgage — Amendment into a claim for money decree. (Vol 3) 1916 All 137 (138).

[b] Suit for partition — Amendment into one for joint possession. (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 357 (361).

[2] In the following instances amendments were refused as introducing a new and distinct cause of action.

(a) Suit for specific performance of contract alleged to have been entered failing — Amendment to set up an earlier and independent contract. (Vol 9) 1922 P C 249 (251) : 48 Ind App 214 : 4 Upp Bur Rul 30 : 48 Cal 332 (P C).

[See however (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 178 (182) : 2 Rang 661.]

(c) Claim based on negligence : amendment into claim based on nuisance. (1912) 38 Cal 797 (803, 804).

O. 6 R. 17 (contd.)

(d) Suit based on fraud and allegation of false claims by the defendant, into claim based upon an implied contract of indemnity. (1913) 1913 Mad W N 980 (981).

(e) Claim for declaration of ownership, into claim for specific performance of a contract. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 595 (597).

(f) Claim to establish title to an archaka office and for mesne profits of certain lands attached to the office, into an alternate claim for reasonable wages for having rendered archaka service. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 828 (829).

(g) Suit on the basis of a contract : amendment denying contract. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 973 (973).

(h) Suit for redemption into one for enforcing a right as owner. (Vol 16) 1929 Rang 179 (181) : 7 Rang 140 * (Vol 3) 1916 Low Bur 71 (72) : 8 Low Bur Rul 418 * (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 53 (55).

(i) Suit alleging right to sue on behalf of a certain committee : on failure addition of parties who had such rights. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 577 (577).

(j) Suit for specific performance, into one for possession. (Vol 27) 1940 Lah 225 (226).

(k) Amendment changing the whole character of a suit. (Vol 27) 1940 Lah 63 (64) : I L R (1940) Lah 593.

(l) Suit for setting aside rent sale — Amendment to declare that particular sections of Burma Land and Revenue Act were ultra vires. (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 97 (98) : 1941 Rang L R 7 (F B).

[3] Where an amendment is objected to on the ground that it would change the cause of action, the Court must look to the substantial nature of the claim and not to the formal manner in which it is inserted. (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 264 (267) : 21 Sind L R 336 * (Vol 25) 1938 Pat 400 (401).

[4] In the following cases the change was held not to affect the cause of action.

(a) Mere change in the date of the cause of action. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 128 (129) * (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 131 (133) * (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 385 (386).

(b) Correction of a clerical error. (Vol 9) 1922 All 81 (81).

(c) Amendments to support or amplify the cause of action in the suit. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 161 (163) : 17 Luck 226 * (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 9 (11) * (1881) 5 Bom 609 (613, 614) * (Vol 7) 1920 Low Bur 92 (93, 94) * (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 188 (188).

[6] Where a document taken in respect of an original liability is found inadmissible in evidence due to a technical defect, amendment of claim for relief basing it on the original liability is not a substitution by a distinct cause of action. (Vol 9) 1922 Lah 394 (394) * (Vol 18) 1931 Oudh 54 (56) * (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 168 (170, 172) * (Vol 22) 1935 All 353 (357) : 57 All 459 * (Vol 23) 1936 Rang 508 (509) : 14 Rang 383 * (Vol 25) 1938 Rang 461 (467) : 1938 Rang L R 521 * (Vol 25) 1938 Pat 205 (207) : 17 Pat 268 * (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 785 (787) (F B) * (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 656 (656) * (Vol 20) 1933 Bom 476 (477, 478) : 57 Bom 802.

[But see (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 351 (352).]

[7] Where subsequent to the institution of the suit events happen which give the plaintiff a new cause of action for the relief claimed or the right to a new or additional relief, he will be allowed to amend the plaint. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 6 (12) * (Vol 2) 1915 Sind 25 (27) : 9 Sind L R 61 * (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 168 (173) * (Vol 18) 1931 Nag 10 (12) : 26 Nag L R 348 * (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 220 (221) * (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 505 (509).

[See however (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 4 (5).]

[But see (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 562 (57).]

[8] Where the plaintiff is guilty of mala fides he should not be allowed to amend. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 121 (122).

[9] But where the cause of action is foreign to the original cause of action on which the suit was brought, the amendment cannot be allowed. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 533 (533).

[2] Amendment can be allowed before or at, or, after the trial, or before the final decree in the case. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 275 (279).

[3] Amendment can be allowed in appeal also. (Vol 30) 1943 Bom 407 (409) * (Vol 24) 1937 PC 42 (46) : 16 Pat 149 (PC).

[4] Amendment can be allowed in second appeal. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1142 (1145) * (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 157 (159) : 2 Lah 73 * (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 175 (176) * (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 545 (547).

[6] Amendment can be made even in an appeal before Privy Council. (Vol 12) 1925 P C 169 (170) : 47 All 459 (PC) * (1867) 11 Moo Ind App 468 (486) (PC).

[6a] Amendment can be allowed in a proper case at appellate stage in Federal Court. (Vol 32) 1945 F C 47 (59) : 1945 F C R 103 : ILR (1945) Kar F C 101 (FC).

[7] Court of Appeal may remand the case directing the lower Court to amend the plaint and proceed with the trial. (1901) 23 All 167 (173) * (1882) 6 Bom 670 (672) * (1889) 6 Bom 672 (673).

[9] Where the delay is such that it will cause injustice or injury to the opposite party if the leave to amend is granted, the application will be refused. (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 153 (163) : I L R (1942) 1 Cal 326 * (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 494 (496) : 19 Pat 507 * (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 92 (96) : 19 Pat 90 * (Vol 12) 1925 P C 169 (170) : 47 All 459 (PC) * (1887) 11 Bom 620 (633) : 14 Ind App 111 (PC).

[10] The Court will be disinclined to grant leave to amend in the following cases :—

(a) Where it introduces a totally new case. (f) Where the plaintiff had neglected several opportunities to apply for amendment. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 530 (532) (1909) 36 Cal 481 (487, 488) (SB) (1910) 8 Ind Cas 600 (601) : 3 Bur L Tim 16 (1910) 6 Ind Cas 542 (543) (All) (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 37 (38) (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 484 (487) (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 276 (294) : 1941 Rang L R 445 (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 97 (98) : 1941 Rang L R 7 (FB) (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 531 (532) : I L R (1940) Mad 929 (Vol 32) 1945 All 39 (40) (Vol 33) 1946 Cal 123 (125, 126).

14. Opportunity to be given to the opposite party to amend his pleading. — [1] Where a pleading is allowed to be amended, the opposite side must be allowed to meet the new case by filing additional statement or letting in further evidence. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 276 (279) (Vol 16) 1929 P C 306 (308) (PC).

[2] Additional contention not covered by pleading should first of all be decided as necessary and included by way of amendment to pleadings before Court can direct the other party to file an answer. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 903 (907).

[3] Plaintiff amended as a result of counter claim in the written statement — Amendment of written statement is not plaintiff's duty. (Vol 27) 1940 Bom 117 (118) : I L R (1940) Bom 10.

[4] Amendment would not be allowed without fresh notice to defendant who is absent. (Vol 33) 1946 Nag 60 (62) : I L R (1946) Nag 1.

15. "On such terms as may be just." —

[1] The terms to be imposed in granting an amendment of the pleadings are in the absolute discretion of the Judge. (1892) 2 Q B 817 (818, 819).

[2] An amendment will only be allowed on the terms that the cost of the application for and the costs occasioned by the amendment shall be paid in any event. (Vol 2) 1915 P C 172 (173) (PC).

[3] The terms should be such as will prevent the opposite party from being prejudiced by the amendment. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 737 (739, 740).

[4] An order for payment of costs against a pauper plaintiff is improper. (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 385 (385) : 47 Bom 104.

[5] A party who accepts costs cannot afterwards object to the order allowing it. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 1009 (1009) (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 410 (411) (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 554 (555, 556) : 61 Cal 433.

[6] An order for amendment on condition of payment of costs cannot be objected to after the acceptance of the sum awarded as costs. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 273 (277) : I L R (1942) Nag 294 (Vol 21) 1934 Nag 163 (163) : 30 Nag L R 347 (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 895 (896) (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 974 (975).

16. How amendments should be made. —

[1] The pleading should not be returned for amendment, but is to be kept on the Court's file with direction to the parties to amend, if necessary. (Vol 8) 1921 Sind 166 (168) : 17 Sind L R 223.

[See however (1913) 24 Mad L Jour 455 (456).]

[2] Where the Court has no pecuniary jurisdiction to entertain the suit, the Court should return the plaint to the plaintiff, who may delete certain reliefs and re-present it. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 559 (559, 560).

[3] The amendment need not be made on the plaint itself but may be made even on a separate sheet of paper. (1893) 1893 All W N 225 (225).

17. Court not having jurisdiction over suit, if can allow amendment of plaint. — [1] A Court is not competent to allow an amendment to bring a suit within its jurisdiction. (Vol 22) 1935 All 842 (843) (Vol 25) 1938 All 17 (18) : I L R (1938) All 40.

[2] Where plaint is presented to a Court having no jurisdiction it should be returned for presentation to the proper Court. The party can amend it and represent it to the same Court. (Vol 25) 1938 All 17 (18) : I L R (1938) All 40.

18. Extent of amendment. — [1] Amendment can be made only to the extent allowed by Court. Therefore, an unauthorised amendment is a nullity though not objected to either by the Court or the party. (1910) 1910 Pun Re No. 213 p. 615 (652).

[2] In order to avoid any doubt as to whether the amendments carried out were permitted it is usual and desirable to submit the proposed amendments in explicit form before the leave sought is granted. (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 37 (39) : 1940 Rang L R 603.

[3] A Court cannot allow an amendment to oust its own jurisdiction over the suit. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 400 (400).

19. Effect of amendment and limitation. — [1] Suit amended restricting the claim against some of the defendants only as the Court could not take cognisance against the others would not be deemed as commenced at all against such other defendants. (Vol 6) 1919 Low Bur 42 (43) : 9 Low Bur Rul 275.

[2] An amendment allowed under this rule relates back to the date of the suit as originally filed where no party is added. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 412 (412) (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 367 (368, 370) (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 153 (156) (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 219 (220) (1912) 37 Bom 340 (347) (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 263 (265) : 1914 Pun Re No. 62 (Vol 1) 1914 Nag 77 (78) : 10 Nag L R 32 (Vol 25) 1938 Pat 205 (208) : 17 Pat 268 (Vol 23) 1936 Rang 508 (509) : 14 Rang 383.

[See however (Vol 32) 1945 Oudh 135 (138).]

[3] Where in a suit relief is claimed in respect of certain properties only and by the amendment certain

18. If a party who has obtained an order for leave to amend does not amend accordingly within the time limited for that purpose by the order, or if no time is thereby limited then within fourteen days from the date of the order, he shall not be permitted to amend after the expiration of such limited time as aforesaid or of such fourteen days, as the case may be, unless the time is extended by the Court.

ORDER VII.

PLAINT

Particulars to be contained in plaint.

1. The plaint shall contain the following particulars :—

- (a) the name of the Court in which the suit is brought;
- (b) the name, description and place of residence of the plaintiff;
- (c) the name, description and place of residence of the defendant, so far as they can be ascertained;
- (d) where the plaintiff or the defendant is a minor or a person of unsound mind, a statement to that effect;

O. 6 R. 17 (contd.)

other properties are included, the amendment does not relate back in respect of the newly added properties. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 443 (444).

[4] Amendment adding a necessary party cannot relate back to the date of the filing of the suit. (Vol 24) 1937 Rang 124 (125).

[5] Where the suit as originally instituted was incompetent any subsequent amendment cannot relate back to the date of institution. (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 991 (992).

[6] Amendment under this rule can be allowed although at the time of the amendment the suit (if instituted then) would have been barred by limitation. (1895) 17 All 288 (291) * (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 33 (35) : I L R (1945) Mad 450 * (Vol 1) 1914 Nag 77 (78) : 10 Nag L R 32 * (1911) 7 Nag L R 33 (35) * (Vol 30) 1943 Bom 407 (409).

[7] Where the amendment is directed by the Court as the suit as filed was incompetent all previous orders made against the defendant stand vacated immediately. (Vol 21) 1934 Nag 169 (170).

20. Appeal.—[1] No appeal lies from an order granting or refusing an amendment under this rule. (1911) 1911 Pun L R No. 216 p. 826 (834) : 1911 Pun Re No. 96.

[See however (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 188 (189).]

[3] Objection not taken would be deemed as waived and cannot be raised at the stage of appeal. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 614 (615).

[4] Order refusing leave to amend a plaint is an interlocutory order and is not appealable under the Letters Patent as a "judgment". (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 350 (350).

[5] An order amending the title by omitting the word "summary" and transferring the case to the short cause list is not a "judgment" within Clause 15 of the Letters Patent. (Vol 12) 1925 Bom 159 (160).

[6] Where a plaint amended according to direction is returned as being beyond the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court, the order directing amendment can be challenged in appeal against order returning the plaint. (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 936 (937).

21. Revision.—[1] An order passed purely under O. 6, R. 17 is not open to revision. (Vol 23) 1936 All 686 (689) : I L R (1937) All 17 (FB). Order 6, Rule 18—Note 1.

[1] Failure to amend involves merely loss of right to amend. (Vol 23) 1936 Pesh 155 (157).

[2] The Court cannot reject a plaint or dismiss the suit under O. 6, R. 18 but must proceed to try the suit on the original plaint. (1913) 1913 Pun L R No. 169, p. 561 (562).

[3] Plaintiff moved an amendment which was granted but plaintiff did not amend the plaint accordingly. On a contention being raised later on that ground, held, that the application for amendment can be read as a part of the plaint and that the defendant not taking objection at first, waived the objection. (1911) 14 Cal L Jour 627 (630).

[4] Application for adding more defendants allowed — Amendment not embodied in original plaint till date of judgment — After delivery of judgment Judge directing officers of Court to carry out amendment — Order 6, R. 18 held sufficiently complied with. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 641 (645).

[5] Plaint in previous suit rejected as not amended within time allowed for amendment after it was returned — Such rejection is not bar to fresh suit on the same cause of action. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 83 (83).

[6] Order of amendment not under O. 6 but under general power of Court—Amendment made after fifteen days is not out of time. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 637 (638). (Case under Chota Nagpur Landlord and Tenant Procedure Act).

ORDER 7, RULE 1—SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope of the rule.
2. Name, description and place of residence.
3. Facts constituting the cause of action.
4. When cause of action arose.
5. Facts showing that the Court has jurisdiction.
6. Relief which the plaintiff claims.—See O. 7, R. 7.
7. Valuation of suit.

- (e) the facts constituting the cause of action and when it arose;
- (f) the facts showing that the Court has jurisdiction;
- (g) the relief which the plaintiff claims;
- (h) where the plaintiff has allowed a set-off or relinquished a portion of his claim, the amount so allowed or relinquished; and
- (i) a statement of the value of the subject-matter of the suit for the purposes of jurisdiction and of court-fees, so far as the case admits.

[1882—S. 50; 1877—S. 50; 1859—S. 26; See S. 26 and O. 6 R. 2.]

1. Scope of the rule. — [1] The provisions of O. 7, R. 1 are imperative. (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 183 (184)* (1896) 18 All 403 (406). (The word "must" in the old section was held to be most imperative.)

[2] All necessary facts mentioned — Form may be disregarded. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 806 (807) * (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 562 (563). (Court should not be bound by any technicalities with regard to form of statement of claim in plaint.) * (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 475 (476). (Plaint—Facts should be set forth.)

[3] Substance of plaint rather than its wording should be looked to. (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 179 (181)* (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 94 (95).

2. Name, description and place of residence.—

[1] Where plaint did not contain the ages of the defendants and the father's name of a defendant and when returned for amendment, it was not represented within the time allowed, an order rejecting the plaint was held reasonable. (1897) 7 Mad L Jour 81 (83).

[2] Failure to mention in the title of the plaint the capacity of the defendant but full description of it in the plaint does not justify dismissal of the suit. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 662 (663).

[3] 'The description of the defendant' includes all those titles by which the party is generally known and if the plaint does not contain those titles of the party, an objection being taken by such party, the plaint should be ordered to be amended. (1874) 12 Beng L R 443 (449) (PC).

[4] Omission to mention the titles of the defendant does not constitute such a misnaming as to justify the dismissal of plaint — A person is sufficiently named when he is called by names which are indisputably his. (1866) 3 Mad H C R 31 (32).

[5] The description of the plaintiff as residing at Road X in Calcutta or the description of a defendant as formerly of X in Calcutta, there being no allegation that the plaintiff has been unable to ascertain his residence, is not sufficient compliance with this rule. (1879) 4 Cal L Rep 366 (370, 371).

[6] That there was some error as to the description of defendant's place of abode in the plaint is no ground for dismissing the suit. (1871) 6 Beng L R (App) 84 (85).

[7] If the plaintiffs rely upon defendant's residence or place of business, as giving jurisdiction, this must be stated in body of plaint — It is not sufficient to state these in the cause title because the cause title is not covered by the verification of plaint. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 453 (461) : 58 Cal 418.

[8] Suit by shebait — Omission to describe plaintiff as a shebait is merely misdescription and can be cured by amendment. (Vol 18) 1926 Cal 417 (419).

[9] Suit by managing member on contract by previous manager—Plaintiff must be declared as such. (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 310 (311) : 1 Pat L Jour 468.

[But see (Vol 1) 1914 Oudh 353 (357). (Manager suing or sued—He may not be described as such.)]

3. Facts constituting the cause of action. —

[1] The plaint should contain in addition to other particulars, the facts constituting the cause of action and the time when it arose. (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 681 (682); 42 Cal 85 * (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 458 (460) : 58 Cal 418 * (Vol 5) 1918 Oudh 118 (119). (Plaintiff cannot rely on defendant's written statement.)

[2] Pro-note — Note payable at specified place — Plaint ought to contain a statement that note had been presented for payment — Plaintiff not alleging presentment in the plaint — He cannot be allowed to prove it. (Vol 22) 1935 Pesh 132 (133).

[3] In suits for damages for injury done, the nature of the injury ought to be set out. (1870) 13 Suth W R 248 (249).

[4] Where a plaint in a suit for damages for malicious prosecution does not contain an allegation that the prosecution was made without reasonable or probable cause, it should be rejected. (1873) 10 Bom H C R 182 (186).

[5] Where a suit is for recovery of money due in respect of past monetary dealings, the particulars of loans advanced should be given in the plaint. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 458 (460) : 58 Cal 418.

[6] If the plaintiff in a suit on a mortgage fails to prove the mortgage upon which he relied and which he alleged in the plaint, he cannot succeed upon the mere fact that the defendant admitted that he was a mortgagee of land — No other mortgage can be sought to be redeemed in that suit. (1896) 18 All 403 (406, 407).

[7] Unless the plaintiff in a suit for redemption of mortgage shows in his plaint that prima facie he had at the commencement of suit a title and a right to sue then subsisting, his plaint would not comply with the requirements of this rule. (1889) 11 All 438 (444) (FB).

[8] Suit for redemption—Decree for redemption cannot be passed unless all particulars of the mortgage are in plaint. (Vol 18) 1931 Oudh 378 (379) : 7 Luck 94.

[9] In a suit by sole surviving partner for the recovery of a partnership debt, the plaintiff ought to allege that the debt sought to be recovered was a partnership debt, that the deceased partner had died before the suit and that the plaintiff was suing as a sole surviving partner for his own benefit and that of the estate. (1887) 9 All 486 (492).

4. When cause of action arose.—[1] Under O. 7, R. 1 (e), Civil P. C., the plaint is to state when the cause of action arose. (Vol 3) 1916 Nag 34 (35) : 13 Nag L R 16. (In an action of ejectment, it is for the plaintiff to prove a title subsisting at the date of his suit.) * (1870) 13 Suth W R 248 (249).

[2] Plaintiff must state date on which cause of action is alleged to have arisen unless it is otherwise ascertainable from statement of facts constituting cause of action. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 259 (261) : 59 Cal 448.

[3] The plaintiff cannot be tied down to the date of the accrual of the cause of action mentioned in the plaint. The Court is entitled to determine the date on which the cause of action arose from the facts alleged and proved. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 516 (523) : 9 Lah 428.

[4] Burden of proving when cause of action arose, e. g., date of pro-note on which suit is based, is on plaintiff. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 742 (744).

5. Facts showing that the Court has jurisdiction.—[1] Court concluding that it has jurisdiction—

2. Where the plaintiff seeks the recovery of money, the plaint shall state the precise amount
In money suits. claimed :

But where the plaintiff sues for mesne profits, or for an amount which will be found due to him on taking unsettled accounts between him and the defendant, the plaint shall state approximately the amount sued for.

[1882—S. 50; 1877—S. 50; 1859—S. 26; See O. 20.]

LAHORE

In the second paragraph, after the word "defendant" insert "or for moveables in the possession of the defendant, or for debts of which the value he cannot, after the exercise of reasonable diligence, estimate" and after the word "amount" where it last occurs insert "or value". [12-5-1909.]

N.-W. F. P.

Same as that of Lahore above.

3. Where the subject-matter of the suit is immoveable property, the plaint shall contain a description of the property sufficient to identify it, and, in case such property can be identified by boundaries or numbers in a record of settlement of survey, the plaint shall specify such boundaries or numbers.

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENT

CALCUTTA

Add at the end the words "and where the area is mentioned, such description shall further state the area according to the notation used in the record of settlement or survey, with or without, at the option of the party, the same area in terms of the local measures."

4. Where the plaintiff sues in a representative character the plaint shall show not only that he has an actual existing interest in the subject-matter, but that he has taken the steps (if any) necessary to enable him to institute a suit concerning it.

[1882—S. 50, para. 4; See S. 92, O. 1 R. 8, O. 30, O. 31.]

O. 7 R. 1 (contd.)

Mere absence of assertion in plaint does not oust jurisdiction. (Vol 21) 1934 Pat 593 (594).

6. Relief which the plaintiff claims.—See O. 7, R. 7.

7. Valuation of suit.—[1] The valuation fixed is for the purpose of determining the Court which has jurisdiction to try the suit. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 998 (1002). 40 Mad 1 (FB).

[2] For purposes of O. 7, the aggregate of the claim put forward in the plaint is treated as one suit though there may be several causes of action. One plaint is only one suit. Jurisdiction depends on amount or value of the aggregate subject-matters at the date of institution. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 998 (1001) : 40 Mad 1 (FB).

[3] It is not contemplated by the rule that the subject-matter shall be given two values, one purely arbitrary and fanciful for purposes of jurisdiction and one in strict conformity to the real value for purposes of court-fees. In either case, valuation should conform to reality. If a plaint contains a valuation for purposes of jurisdiction, the same valuation would apply, if it were necessary to have a valuation for an ad valorem court-fee. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 591 (591).

[4] A suit for restitution of conjugal rights and possession of a wife is not one to which any special money value can be attached for purposes of jurisdiction. (1891) 18 Cal 378 (381).

Order 7, Rule 2 — Note 1.

[1] Where the mesne profits have accrued due before suit and the plaintiff is in a position to value it even approximately, he is bound to state the amount. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 858 (860).

[2] Mesne profits claimed from date of suit—Amount cannot be stated by plaintiff. (Vol 10) 1923 Rang 110 (113) : 4 Upp Bur Bul 140.

[3] Valuation will refer to profits before and after suit where both are claimed.—(Per Mullick J.) (Vol 13) 1926 Pat 218 (225, 228) : 5 Pat 361 (FB).

Order 7, Rule 3 — Note 1.

[1] Immoveable property — Discrepancy between two descriptions—Leading description should prevail. (Vol 31) 1944 Pat 254 (255) : 23 Pat 145.

Order 7, Rule 4 — Note 1.

[1] A plaintiff suing in a representative character must set it forth in the plaint and show that he is qualified to fill it. (1883) 7 Bom 467 (470, 471) (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 183 (184).

[2] Some persons coming forward with representative suit without proper representation of community—Court cannot adjudicate upon public right. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 487 (488).

[3] An executor derives his title and authority from the will of his testator and not from any grant of probate. He can institute a suit in the character of executor before he proves the will though he cannot obtain a decree before probate. (Vol 3) 1916 P C 202 (204) : 43 Ind App 113 (P C).

[4] So long as compliance with S. 187, Succession Act, 1865, is prior to decree, the fact that it is after institution of suit makes no difference and Court is competent to deal with the suit. (Vol 10) 1923 Cal 1 (5) : 50 Cal 49.

[5] Though it is not necessary to obtain probate or letters of administration in case of Muhammadans, still if the suit is for the recovery of a debt due to deceased, debtor can insist on probate or letters of administration. (1884) 8 Bom 241 (255).

[6] Application in forma pauperis to recover a debt dismissed for want of production of succession certificate — Held, the dismissal was wrong. (1893) 16 Mad 454 (455).

[7] A probate issued from a native Court is not sufficient for instituting a suit in British India. (1894) 17 Mad 14 (16).

[8] Since the passing of Act 7 [VII] of 1889 (now Act 39 [XXXIX] of 1925) all that can be insisted on by the defendant in a suit where the original plaintiff dies is

5. The plaint shall show that the defendant is or claims to be interested in the subject-matter, and that he is liable to be called upon to answer the plaintiff's demand.

[1882—S. 50, para. 5; Cf. 1877—S. 50, cl. 5.]

6. Where the suit is instituted after the expiration of the period prescribed by the law of limitation, the plaintiff shall show the ground upon which exemption from such law is claimed.

[1882—S. 50, para. 6; 1859—S. 26.]

that representation shall be complete before the decree. (1892) 16 Bom 519 (520).

[9] Plaintiff or defendant suing or sued in representative capacity — It is not necessary that the character in which they are sued must appear in the cause-title. (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 319 (321) ✕ (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 245 (247) : 46 Cal 877.

Order 7, Rule 5 — Note 1.

[1] The rule makes it obligatory that the plaintiff should show the interest of the defendant in the subject-matter of the suit and his liability to meet the plaintiff's demand. Where the plaint is defective by reason of its non-compliance with O. 7, R. 5, the Court is bound to call upon the plaintiff to disclose his cause of action correctly against each defendant. (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 191 (193).

[2] Suit against limited owner on simple money debt — No issue raised as to whether it was binding on estate — Whether decree-holder in execution of such decree can show that in fact it was binding on estate, depends on view taken by Court of frame of suit — Plaintiff should so frame his suit as to show clearly that he asks for decree against whole estate. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 185 (186, 187).

Order 7, Rule 6 — Note 1.

[1] It is the duty of the plaintiff to show grounds of exemption from the law of limitation in the plaint. (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 30 (31) ✕ (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 491 (492) ✕ (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 826 (828). (Documents relied on to save time filed in suit and defendant not prejudiced — High Court refused to interfere with decree in plaintiff's favour.) ✕ (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 545 (546) ✕ (Vol 1) 1914 Sind 70 (73) : 8 Sind L R 69.

[See also (Vol 6) 1919 All 227 (228). (Suit for redemption of mortgage alleged to have been executed between 60 years before suit — Plaintiff pleading the mortgage within time — Court declining to consider acknowledgments relied on by plaintiff on ground that they were not specially pleaded in plaint and dismissed suit — Held that it was not necessary for plaintiffs specially to plead that acknowledgments saved limitation.)]

[2] Exemption from limitation should be expressly pleaded. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 675 (677) ✕ (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 332 (333). (Ground saving limitation must be specifically stated.)

[3] Where the suit as laid down in the plaint was prima facie barred by limitation and where there is no reference in plaint to alleged acknowledgments of liability by defendant so as to make S. 19, Limitation Act, applicable to the case, plaintiffs are not entitled to rely upon a ground of exemption which was not contained in the plaint. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 702 (706) ✕ (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 753 (756). (Plea resting on acknowledgments cannot be taken for the first time at the stage of argument.) ✕ (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 337 (338) : 1914 Pun Re No. 83. (New grounds cannot be raised.) ✕ (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 806 (806). (Specific pleading of ground on which exemption from limitation is claimed, is necessary for admissibility into evidence, of acknowledgment under Limitation Act, S. 19.)

[4] Period of limitation expiring during Court holidays—Plaint presented on re-opening — Suit cannot be barred though plaint does not specifically mention ground of extension under S. 4, Limitation Act. (Vol 24) 1937 Pesh 41 (41) ✕ (Vol 7) 1920 Nag 200 (202) : 16 Nag L R 198.

[5] Suit filed in time in wrong Court—Return and representation to proper Court but beyond time—Benefit of S. 14, Limitation Act claimed—Non-mention of ground of exemption is not fatal to suit. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 591 (592) ✕ (1911) 9 Ind Cas 157 (158) (Mad). (Endorsement of Court as to dates of receipt and return is substantial compliance with provisions of Civil P. O., O. 7, R. 6.)

[6] It has been held in the undermentioned cases that it is enough if the plaint discloses the ground of exemption; and the plaintiff is not thereby precluded from taking another and an inconsistent ground (not disclosed in the plaint) to get over the bar of limitation. (1911) 13 Cal L Jour 139 (147) ✕ (Vol 9) 1922 Lah 230 (232) : 2 Lah 13 ✕ (Vol 8) 1921 Nag 1 (2) : 17 Nag L R 209 ✕ (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 111 (112). (Plaintiff is not precluded from relying on any other ground of exemption specially, when such ground is furnished by an Act of Legislature.)

[7] The undermentioned cases hold that a new ground of exemption from limitation not taken in the plaint cannot be allowed without amendment of plaint. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 874 (876) ✕ (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 395 (396).

[8] Ground of exemption not set up in Court below, cannot be set up in appeal. (Vol 9) 1922 Lah 39 (40) : 3 Lah 233 ✕ (Vol 31) 1944 Nag 37 (40) : ILR (1943) Nag 764. (Exemption from limitation not claimed in plaint — It cannot be claimed for the first time in second appeal.)

[9] The plaint must clearly show that the suit is filed within time; but no objection to the frame of suit can be entertained on further appeal, when the statements in the plaint, properly construed, indicate the time of accrual of the cause of action within the period of limitation. (1909) 1909 Pun L R No. 82. p. 297.

[10] An objection that plaintiff did not set out the ground of exemption from limitation, will not be allowed to be taken in revision in the High Court. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 845 (845).

[11] Rule 6 does not apply where claim is apparently not barred. (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 408 (410) : 1914 Pun Re No. 70 ✕ (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 20 (21) : 1 Lah 89.

[12] Debt — Acknowledgment of — Not pleaded in plaint — Setting it up in reply to defence of defendant is not barred. (Vol 9) 1922 Oudh 135 (137) : 25 Oudh Cas 89.

[13] Suit on mortgage brought in time — Mortgagee applying for personal decree — Ground of exemption stated in application under O. 34, R. 6 but not in plaint — Law is sufficiently complied with. (Vol 31) 1944 Mad 65 (67) : I L R (1944) Mad 572.

7. Every plaint shall state specifically the relief which the plaintiff claims either simply or in the alternative, and it shall not be necessary to ask for general or other relief which may always be given as the Court may think just to the same extent as if it had been asked for. And the same rule shall apply to any relief claimed by the defendant in his written statement.

[16] Onus is on plaintiff to show that acknowledgment was taken within period of limitation. (Vol 19) 1932 All 461 (464) : 54 All 506.

[17] This rule should be construed liberally—Amendment of plaint to state grounds of exemptions from law of limitation should be allowed. (Vol 5) 1918 Lah 220 (220) : 1918 Pun Re No. 102.

[18] Exemption of limitation not pleaded cannot be allowed—Oral statement by pleader that plaintiffs relied on debtor's admission before Debt Conciliation Board as saving limitation is not proper procedure—This technical defect can however be removed by allowing amendment. ORDER 7, RULE 7 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Relief.
2. General or other relief.
3. Alternative relief.
4. Events happening after suit.

1. Relief.—[1] The word "relief" is not synonymous with "cause of action." Relief means a remedy which a Court may afford in regard to some wrong or injury while a cause of action includes all reliefs covered by the facts on the strength of which a plaintiff comes to Court. (1883) 5 All 345 (359) (F B).

[2] Relief is to be gathered from allegations in plaint as a whole. (Vol 18) 1931 Nag 198 (200) : 27 Nag L R 299*(1911) 11 Ind Cas 882 (884) (Cal). (Plaint in form for confirmation of possession but in substance prayer for possession—Latter relief can be given.) * (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 94 (95).

[3] A plaintiff cannot be entitled to relief upon facts and documents not stated or referred to by him in the pleadings. (1867) 11 Moo Ind App 468 (474) (P C) * (Vol 27) 1940 P C 3 (7) : I L R (1940) Kar P C 15 (P C). (Relief claimed solely on ground that defendant worked coal under particular portion of land—Defendant found to have taken small quantity of coal from different portions—Plaint not amended to include relief in this respect—Claim not allowed.) * (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 74 (75). (Claim not set up in pleadings or even in grounds of first appeal—No relief.) * (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 42 (43) : 2 Pat L Jour 698. (Suit on usufructuary mortgage either for mortgage decree or for possession—Appellate Court granting usufruct for period of dispossession—Held, the relief not having been prayed for, could not be given.) * (1910) 5 Low Bur Rul 192 (194). (Decree cannot be given on a cause of action not put forth in the suit, which is based on a different cause of action.)

[See (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 543 (546). (Plaint not properly setting out relief prayed for but defendant aware of what is in issue—Court will grant relief for which party is entitled.)]

[4] But relief can be granted where the substantial matters which constitute the title of all the parties are touched in the issues and have been fully put in evidence. (1899) 21 All 53 (59) : 25 Ind App 195 (P C) * (Vol 28) 1941 P C 51 (55) (P C). (Suit not one for administration, subject-matter being only a portion of the estate of the deceased—Yet the shares of plaintiff's children were ascertained and declared.)

[5] Matter not strictly covered by pleadings and issues—In the absence of respondents, Privy Council will not determine it even though there was enough material on record to arrive at a decision. (Vol 28) 1941 P C 85 (88) : 69 Ind App 64 : I L R (1942) Bom 75 : I L R (1941) Kar P C 134 (P C) * (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 296 (299) (S B). (Plaintiff not proving facts constituting his cause of action. The suit should not be decreed on proof of different facts which the defendant had no opportunity to controvert.) * (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 195 (196). 3. Alternative relief.—[1] A person may rely upon one set of facts if he can succeed in proving them and he may rely upon another set of facts if he can succeed in proving them. (1887) 35 Ch D 492 (499)* (Vol 1) 1914 All 271 (272); 36 All 476. (Suits should not be dismissed as being for inconsistent relief).

[2] Plaintiff may from the beginning put forward an alternative case (1872) 9 Bom H C R 1 (6) (FB)* (Vol 4) 1917 Nag 31 (32). (Plaintiff is always entitled to lesser relief of same kind as he has asked for).

[3] It is open to a plaintiff to ask for relief in the alternative dependent upon what might be found by the Court to be true facts of the case (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 401 (403).

[4] In a suit on a negotiable instrument, relief on the strength of the original consideration could be granted if prayed for in the alternative (Vol 5) 1918 P C 146 (146); 46 Cal 663; 46 Ind App 33 (PC)* (1900) 24 Bom 360 (362)* (1878) 3 Cal 314 (315). (Insufficiently stamped pro-note).

[6] A prayer for alternative relief does not mean that his original relief is waived. (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 204 (206); 1915 Pun Re No 4.

[7] The fact that the pleadings subsequent to the filing of the plaint, and the evidence in the case, disclosed facts at variance with the plaint, does not disentitle the plaintiff to relief if both parties perfectly well understood the point in dispute. (Vol 1) 1914 All 479 (481).

[8] If a plaintiff asks for "the following reliefs and such other relief as the Court may find just and proper to grant" and follows this up with several prayers without any disjunctive adverb, the presumption is that they are intended to be cumulative and not alternative. (1910) 1910 Pun L R No. 213 p. 615 (652).

8. Where the plaintiff seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes of action founded upon separate and distinct grounds, they shall be stated as far as separate grounds. may be separately and distinctly.

[R. S. C., O. 20 R. 7; See O. 1, Rr. 1 to 7 and O. 2, Rr. 1 to 6.]

9. (1) The plaintiff shall endorse on the plaint, or annex thereto, a list of the documents (if any) which he has produced along with it; and, if the plaint is admitted, shall present as many copies on plain paper of the plaint as there are defendants, unless the Court by reason of the length of the plaint or the number of the defendants, or for any other sufficient reason, permits him to present a like number of concise statements of the nature of the claim made, or of the relief claimed in the suit, in which case he shall present such statements.

(2) Where the plaintiff sues, or the defendant or any of the defendants is sued, in a representative capacity, such statements shall show in what capacity the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued.

(3) The plaintiff may, by leave of the Court, amend such statements so as to make them correspond with the plaint.

(4) The chief ministerial officer of the Court shall sign such list and copies or statements if, on examination, he finds them to be correct.

ALLAHABAD

(a) For the semicolon after "it" in clause (1), substitute a full stop and delete the rest of this clause as well as clauses (2) and (3); and

(b) Re-number clause (4) as clause (2), deleting the words "or statements" therein.

[9] Claim for alternative reliefs—Decree not granting either relief but granting some other relief — Plaintiff can appeal. (Vol 33) 1946 Pat 231 (234) : 25 Pat 1.

4. Events happening after suit.—[1] The ordinary rule is that the rights of parties must be determined as at the date of the action and not on the basis of rights which accrued to them after the institution of the suit. (Vol 17) 1930 Nag 173 (173, 176) : 26 Nag L R 208* (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 716 (719) : 44 Cal 47.

[2] But where it is shown that the relief claimed has, by reason of subsequent change of circumstances, become inappropriate or that it is necessary to have the decision of the Court on the altered circumstances in order to shorten litigation or to do complete justice between the parties, the Court may depart from the ordinary rule. (1907) 6 Cal L Jour 74 (78)* (Vol 2) 1915 Lah 169 (169). (Suit for possession of entire property based on sale cancelled by both parties — Subsequent sale of part of property upon which claim is not based — Court can grant a decree for that part.)* (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 200 (207, 208). (Compromise of suit brought to knowledge of Court—Court is bound to raise and try issue regarding it.)* (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 412 (415). (Right to sue devolving jointly on two persons—Only one of them bringing action — Death of other person pendente lite before trial — Court cannot refuse decree to plaintiff under O. 1, R. 9)* (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 204 (207). (Relief refused on basis of subsequent events).

[See also (Vol 17) 1930 Bom 554 (557) : 54 Bom 902. (Events subsequent to filing of suit or appeal can be considered. This applies even to second appeal).]

[3] Suit premature but cause of action during pendency of suit — Held decree might be given. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 590 (591).

[4] Alteration in case law during pendency of appeal before High Court — Plaintiff placed in embarrassing position—Dismissal of suit entailing risk of injustice—Held amendment of plaint raising new issues and new arguments should be allowed. (Vol 28) 1941 P C 85 (88); I L R (1941) Kar P C 134 : I L R (1942) Bom 75 : 69 Ind App 64 (P C).

[5] Amendment in the light of subsequent event should not be allowed when the plaintiff's suit would be wholly displaced and the fresh suit will be barred by limitation. Nor should it be allowed in Appellate Court to deprive the successful party of his benefit under the decision by the trial Court. (Vol 31) 1944 Lah 319 (320, 321) : I L R (1944) Lah 443 (FB)* (Vol 32) 1945 Pat 87 (92) : 23 Pat 508. (Plaintiff's claim to certain property as her father's heir negated by trial Court — Pending appeal one of defendants dying and plaintiff becoming entitled to share in suit property as her heir—Plaintiff's fresh rights held could not be declared in suit as brought.)

[6] A plaintiff cannot rely upon the pleas in the written statement for making out a cause of action, but must show in his plaint, that a cause of action accrued to him prior to suit. (Vol 5) 1918 Oudh 118 (119).

Order 7, Rule 8 — Note 1.

[1] Either party to a litigation may in a proper case include in his pleadings two or more inconsistent sets of material facts and claim relief thereunder in the alternative, but whenever such alternative cases are alleged, the facts belonging to them respectively should not be mixed up but should be stated separately so as to show on what facts each alternative relief is claimed. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 93 (95).

[2] Plaintiff claiming property by ownership as successor to person in mahantship and in reply to defendant's written statement pleading that he was entitled, even if not owner, to its management. Case falls under O. 7, R. 8 as he has two distinct claims, founded on separate and distinct grounds. (Vol 16) 1929 Nag 347 (347).

[3] Where a plaintiff alleges fraud and also alleges other facts necessary to establish his title independently of the question of fraud, he is entitled to a decree on proof of the latter facts even if he fails to establish the allegation of fraud. (1911) 9 Ind Cas 429 (431) (Oudh).

[4] See also under O. 6, R. 2 and O. 7, R. 7.

Order 7, Rule 9 — Note 1.

[1] This rule relates to the procedure when a plaint is admitted. (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 80 (81). (Order "register" on plaint is not order of admission necessitating Court to grant time for payment of deficient court-fee.)

CALCUTTA

Cancel clause (1) and substitute therefor the following :

"(1) The plaintiff shall endorse on the plaint, or annex thereto, a list of the documents (if any) which he has produced along with it.

(1A) The plaintiff shall present with his plaint :

(i) as many copies on plain paper of the plaint as there are defendants, unless the Court by reason of the length of the plaint or the number of the defendants, or for any other sufficient reason, permits him to present a like number of concise statements of the nature of the claim made, or of the relief claimed in the suit, in which case he shall present such statements ;

(ii) draft forms of summons and fees for the service thereof." [As amended on 3-2-1933.]

MADRAS

After the word "and" occurring in clause (1) delete the comma and the five words following, viz., "if the plaint is admitted" and insert the expression "along with the plaint" after the words "shall present."

[R. O. C. No. 1810 of 1926.]

NAGPUR

Substitute the following for Rule 9.

"9. (1) The plaintiff shall endorse on the plaint or annex thereto a list of the documents (if any) which he has produced along with it.

(2) The chief ministerial officer of the Court shall sign such list and the copies of the plaint presented under Rule 1 of Order 4, if, on examination, he finds them to be correct." [29-6-1943]

UDDH

In sub-rule (1) for the words "and, if the plaint is admitted, shall present," substitute the words "and shall, at the same time, present." Also delete the words "unless the Court present such statements", as well as sub-rules (2) and (3), and re-number sub-rule (4) as sub-rule (2) deleting the words "or statements."

SIND

Substitute the following for sub-rule (1).

"9. (1) The plaintiff shall endorse on the plaint, or annex thereto, a list of the documents (if any) which he has produced along with it, and shall present along with the plaint as many copies of it on plain paper as there are defendants; on application made the Court may by reason of the length of the plaint or the number of the defendants, or for any other sufficient reason accept instead a like number of concise statements of the nature of the claim made, or of the relief claimed in the suit, presented along with the plaint."

"10. (1) The plaint shall at any stage of the suit be returned to be presented to the Court in Return of plaint. which the suit should have been instituted.

(2) On returning a plaint the Judge shall endorse thereon the date of its presentation and Procedure on returning plaint. return, the name of the party presenting it, and a brief statement of the reasons for returning it.

suit—Court should either proceed with suit or allow withdrawal. (1912) 1912 Pun W R No. 221 p. 585 (587) : 1912 Pun Re No. 96.

[2] Where a Court decides that it has no jurisdiction, it cannot proceed to decide any point other than that of jurisdiction and no finding by it that a certain amount was due by one party to the other could be treated as a finding on the merits in the Court to which the plaint had been ordered to be re-presented. (1912) 1912 Pun W R No. 221, p. 585 (587) : 1912 Pun Re No. 96.

[3] The provisions of R. 10 (1) of O. 7 are sufficiently wide to cover a case in which by operation of legislation the situation arises, even after a suit has been instituted, that it should have been instituted in another Court. (Vol 25) 1938 Oudh 224 (225).

[4] Jurisdiction—Aggregate claim must be regarded as one suit—Plaint containing several causes of action—There is only one suit and jurisdiction depends on value of aggregate subject-matter—Court cannot adjudicate upon portion and return other for adjudication by another Court. [5] Plaint containing a claim within jurisdiction and one outside jurisdiction—Portion relating to latter can be treated as a distinct plaint. (Vol 8) 1921 All 193 (193).

[6] Abandonment of claim pending suit is not retrospective so as to vitiate the original institution of the suit and attract the operation of O. 7 R. 10. (Vol 7) 1920 Nag 47 (49).

[7] Order returning plaint should be for presentation to proper Court and not for presentation to particular Court. (Vol 29) 1942 Rang 10 (10, 11).

[8] Return of plaint cannot be made on the ground that it would be more advantageous to one of the parties to do so. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 87 (88) * (1905) 32 Cal 146 (151).

[9] When a Court returned the plaint to be filed into another Court merely because it was of opinion that it was just possible that the case may be outside its jurisdiction, it was held that the Court had no jurisdiction to act under O. 7, R. 10 as it had come to no definite finding that it had no jurisdiction. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 248 (249).

[10] When a Court finds that it has no jurisdiction to entertain the suit it should return the plaint for presentation to proper Court under O. 7 R. 10 and not dismiss the suit. [11] Transfer of parties as plaintiffs raising value of subject-matter higher than Court's jurisdiction—Court should transfer parties and return the plaint. (Vol 13) 1926 Pat 28 (29).

[12] Suit for declaration that award is not binding on plaintiff falls under S. 42, Specific Relief Act and not under S. 14, Arbitration Act, (1899), and as such can be filed in Sub-Judge's Court and not in the District Judge's Court only. (Vol 9) 1922 Lah 26 (26).

[13] On correct valuation of plaint, suit beyond jurisdiction of Court—Court must return plaint for presentation to proper Court and should not ask plaintiff to amend valuation with a view to direct him to pay additional court-fee and then to return plaint. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 67 (69).

[14] Question of valuation and jurisdiction should be tried first—Court found to have no jurisdiction—Order requiring additional court-fee is wrong—Court must return plaint. (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 312 (313) : 29 Nag L R 367.

[15] Plaint on face of it triable by Court—Other side challenging allegations in plaint—Plaintiff sticking to his allegations—Court trying case and finding plaintiff's allegations to be false—Case is decided on merits and must be dismissed—No question of return of plaint under O. 7, R. 10 arises. (Vol 27) 1940 Nag 331 (333) : I L R (1941) Nag 96 * (Vol 25) 1938 All 39 (41, 42). (Court has to see plaint and determine if it has jurisdiction—On defence pleadings, Court coming to decision that it has no jurisdiction—Suit should be dismissed and not returned for proper presentation.) * (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 183 (184) : 13 Luck 18. (Jurisdiction found to be barred on findings arrived at by Court—Dismissal of suit is proper.)

[16] Suit ordinarily to be filed in Munsif's Court filed in Subordinate Judge's Court—Subordinate Judge having jurisdiction to entertain suit—Evidence closed and arguments being heard—Objection as to Court raised—Subordinate Judge should deliver judgment and not direct plaint to be returned to Munsif's Court. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 524 (525).

[17] Court holding plaintiff's case untrue—Procedure is to dismiss the suit and not return the plaint. (Vol 13) 1926 All 58 (59) : 48 All 168.

[18] Suit of small cause nature—Defendant pleading partnership—Small Cause Judge finding that there was partnership dismissing suit—Plaint need not have been returned. (Vol 16) 1929 All 907 (907).

[19] A suit was filed at C against defendant residing at D for rendition of accounts on allegation that there was contract between the parties that accounts should be rendered at C. Neither allegation as to agreement nor facts which gave plaintiff any right to relief claimed either at C or elsewhere were established on evidence. Held that Court at C was competent to dismiss the suit and need not return the plaint for presentation to some Court at B. (Vol 20) 1933 All 745 (746).

[20] Where some causes of action are within jurisdiction and some without, the Court can strike out from the plaint those that are outside the jurisdiction and retain the plaint. It cannot return plaint, for presentation to proper Court, comprising causes of action beyond its jurisdiction. (Vol 13) 1926 Bom 283 (283, 284).

[21] Return of plaint ordered—Plaintiff willing to drop part of his claim to bring the case within Court's jurisdiction—Court can allow plaintiff to do so. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 133 (134).

[22] Suit for partition—Preliminary decree passed—At final decree suit discovered to be under-valued and beyond pecuniary limits—Preliminary decree cannot be declared nullity and plaint cannot be returned for proper presentation. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 147 (147).

[23] When the landlord sues an occupancy tenant in a Civil Court for possession and declaration that the mortgage effected by him of his holding is invalid, the Court should not return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court. It can grant the declaratory relief though it cannot grant the possessory relief. (Vol 4) 1917 Oudh 49 (50).

O. 7 R. 10 (contd.)

[24] When a Court discovering that the subject-matter of the suit is beyond its jurisdiction it cannot allow withdrawal of the suit under O. 23, R. 1 but should return the plaint under O. 7, R. 10 for presentation to proper Court. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 1071 (1075) : 41 Mad 701.

[25] Plaint returned — Vakalatnama should also be returned with it. (Vol 10) 1928 Nag 182 (183) : 19 Nag L R 36.

[26] Suit under S. 92—Claim for possession included — Plaint should not be returned. (Vol 12) 1925 All 683 (684) : 47 All 770.

[27] Court directing plaint to be presented to proper Court can order plaintiff to pay costs of other side—But it cannot make payment of costs condition precedent to filing of suit in proper Court. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 35 (35).

[28] Plaint returned for presentation to proper Court can after amendment be represented to same Court. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 8 (9).

[29] Plaint filed in Court — Jurisdiction of Court to entertain it challenged — Application by plaintiff to amend plaint—Court holding that it has no jurisdiction should return original plaint for presentation to proper Court and not proposed amended plaint. (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 310 (314).

[30] Plaint may be returned at the instance of plaintiff. (Vol 16) 1929 Pat 722 (723).

[31] O. 7, R. 10 is mandatory. Where the Court finds that it has no jurisdiction it is bound to return the plaint for presentation to proper Court even though the plaintiff may not have asked for such return. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 688 (689)* (1887) 10 Mad 211 (212).

[32] Plaint cannot be returned for amendment — It should be kept on Court's file with direction to plaintiff to amend if necessary. (Vol 8) 1921 Sind 166 (168) : 17 Sind L R 223.

[33] Transfer of case is quite different from return of plaint for presentation to another Court. (Vol 3) 1916 Nag 31 (33) : 13 Nag L R 81.

[34] Order 7, Rr. 10 and 11 have nothing in common. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 480 (480, 481).

[35] There is nothing in the Punjab Courts Act to show that O. 7 R. 10 has been overridden or made of no effect in the Punjab (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 484 (486).

[36] Plaint filed in second Class Sub-Judge's Court—Court found case cognizable by Small Cause Court and returned it for presentation to proper Court. The latter Court held that suit was not triable by it and returned plaint to the appellant — The appellant in revision asked High Court to determine which Court had jurisdiction—Held the correct procedure would have been to make an application to District Judge under the provisions of O. 46, R. 7. (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 221 (221) : 30 Nag L R 133.

2. "At any stage of the suit".—[1] When it is discovered at any stage in the original proceedings that the suit ought to have been instituted in a different Court the plaint must be returned for presentation to that Court. (1910) 4 Sind L R 264 (266).

[2] The practice is to return plaint even in the course of the trial. (1884) 8 Bom 313 (317) (FB).

[3] Order returning plaint at stages of preliminary arguments when the suit has not proceeded very far is proper. (Vol 25) 1938 All 76 (78).

[4] Plaint can be returned for presentation to proper Court even after the trial is concluded if want of jurisdiction of trial Court was then noticed. (1884) 8 Bom 313 (317) (F B). ((1883) 7 Bom 487, overruled.)

[5] Court having jurisdiction originally discovering at the time of passing decree that it has no jurisdiction to pass it—Rule 10 does not apply. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 484 (486).

3. Return of plaint by or to Small Cause Court. —[1] A Small Cause Court, finding that a suit is not cognizable by it, should not dismiss the suit but should return the plaint under Rule 10 at any stage, for presentation to the proper Court. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 869 (870).

[2] Where the Provincial Small Cause Court decides that it has no jurisdiction, it is not competent for it to go into the merits of the case and give a decision on them. It should return the plaint for presentation to proper Court. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 679 (680).

[3] Valuation of suit inflated to give jurisdiction to Court on regular side—Plaint cannot be returned for presentation to Small Cause Court unless on taking evidence, amount actually recoverable is ascertained. (Vol 26) 1939 All 444 (445).

4. Return of plaint by Civil Court to Revenue Court and vice versa. — [1] For passing an order returning plaint to be presented to the proper Court, it is not necessary that both the Courts should have similar jurisdiction — Revenue Court having no jurisdiction can return plaint to a Civil Court. (Vol 21) 1934 Pat 234 (236).

[2] Where a Civil Court finds that a suit is triable only by a Revenue Court, and not by itself it should return the plaint to be presented to that Court. (1887) 10 Mad 211 (212).

[But see (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 334 (335).]

[3] When a plaint filed in Civil Court is returned to be presented to the Revenue Court the latter has no jurisdiction to return it to be presented to the Civil Court but is bound to entertain it. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 786 (786).

5. Return of applications. — [1] Application to stay suit—Rule does not apply. (Vol 21) 1934 Sind 95 (95).

[2] Order 7, R. 10 applies to paper on which suit is instituted and not to application made in course of suit — Order returning application for ascertainment of mesne profits for presentation to proper Court is not order returning plaint. (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 334 (335) : 2 Pat L Jour 394.

[3] An application to sue as a pauper is not a plaint. Where, therefore, a Court, regarding such application as a plaint directs it to be returned for presentation to the proper Court it acts without jurisdiction. (Vol 6) 1919 All 213 (214).

[4] Application to file award under Arbitration Act, S. 14 (2) — Court not having jurisdiction must return it for presenting it to proper Court. (Vol 32) 1945 Nag 214 (215) : 1 L R (1945) Nag 781.

[5] Where an insolvency petition is filed in a wrong Court, the proper procedure is to return it for presentation to proper Court and not to dismiss it. (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 851 (851).

6. Case in which suit should not have been instituted. —[1] Where instead of making an application a person wrongly institutes a suit the Court can return the plaint for presentation as an application in the Court having jurisdiction to accept it as an application. (Vol 7) 1920 Oudh 21 (23).

7. Court-fee. —[1] Plaint returned under R. 10—Plaintiff can pay deficient court-fees in a Court having jurisdiction to hear the case and can take advantage of previously paid court-fees. (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 257 (257) : 51 Bom 236* (1912) 35 Mad 567 (568) (F B).

[2] Plaint returned and then presented in proper Court—Court-fees Act amended in the meantime—Fees according to new Act must be paid. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 355 (356).

8. Limitation. —[1] Court found to have no jurisdiction to try suit — Plaint returned for presentation to proper Court—Suit instituted in proper Court is not continuation of the first—Date of institution of suit is date on which plaint is presented in proper Court. (Vol 16) 1929 PC 103 (107); 56 Ind App 128; 56 Cal 1048 (PC)* (Vol 15) 1928 Bom 421 (422); 52 Bom 548 * (Vol 30) 1943 Cal 450 (451)* (1912) 15 Cal L Jour 241 (245) * (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 394 (395) * (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 724 (728) (Obiter) * (1913) 24 Mad L Jour 658 (659).

[2] Relinquishment of portion of relief claimed in plaint does not make it a new one. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 685 (685).

[3] Court cannot return plaint merely on ground that list of documents relied upon is not mentioned — Only effect of not furnishing list is that plaintiff is not entitled to produce them later on — Plaint represented under such circumstances is to be deemed to be presented when it was first presented. (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 480 (480).

[4] Return of plaint — Time allowed to refile plaint in proper Court — Order allowing further time is nullity and will not save suit from bar of limitation. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 794 (795) * (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 495 (496).

[But see (1910) 6 Ind Cas 637 (637) (Cal). (Under S. 57, Civil P. C. (1882) O. 7, R. 10, Civil P. C. (1908)) a Court has discretion to grant reasonable time, within which to refile the returned plaint in proper Court. The suit filed on the last date of limitation and returned to be filed in proper Court is not barred by limitation if it is refiled within the time allowed by the Court.]

[5] Plaint returned for presentation to proper Court — Representation in proper Court — Plaintiff can claim exclusion of time during which prior proceeding was prosecuted. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 178 (179). (Period between date of presentation and return should be excluded.) * (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 914 (918); 60 Cal 1122. (Plaint ordered to be returned to be filed in proper Court — Time between date of order and date when plaint is ready for return should be excluded.) * (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 161 (163, 164); 16 Luck 402.

9. Chartered High Courts. — [1] Order 7, R. 10 does not apply to High Court. The High Court has inherent power to direct return of plaint where necessary. The High Court can, under its inherent powers direct in a suit which it has dismissed for want of jurisdiction that the plaint should be returned to plaintiff so that he may file it in the proper Court and thus avoid payment of court-fee twice over. (Vol 21) 1934 Rang 342 (343); 12 Rang 432.

[2] It is not imperative on the High Court to return the plaint for presentation to proper Court, in every case where defect of jurisdiction is discovered. (1888) 11 Mad 482 (485).

[3] Order of trial Court returning plaint for presentation to proper Court restored by High Court — High Court can return plaint to plaintiff or his counsel without waiting for return of file to trial Court. (Vol 33) 1946 Oudh 116 (118).

10. Appeal. — [1] Order returning plaint for presentation to proper Court is appealable. (Vol 6) 1919 All 82 (83); 42 All 74 * (Vol 30) 1943 Nag 293 (293); 1 L R (1943) Nag 603 * (Vol 25) 1938 Sind 124 (125, 126); 1 L R (1939) Kar 50.

[2] It is the substance and not the form of the order that has to be looked at. If the presentation was as a plaint, and not as an application to sue in 'forma pauperis' its dismissal would be appealable, and that fact would not be altered by the Judge, dismissing it, having wrongly treated it as an application to sue in 'forma pauperis'. (1933) 1933 Mad W N 197 (198).

[3] Suit filed in a Court not numbered — Plaint returned without notice to defendant and presented in B Court. Order returning plaint held not appealable and could be questioned in B Court. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 490 (490).

[4] An order returning an application for ascertainment of mesne profits, for presentation to the proper Court is not an order returning a plaint and is not appealable. (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 334 (335); 2 Pat L Jour 394.

[5] No appeal lies from order under O. 7, R. 10 in suits in revenue Court by virtue of Madras Estates Land Act (1 [I] of 1908), S. 192. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 191 (193); 41 Mad 554.

[6] Where a small cause Court returns a plaint under S. 23, Provincial Small Cause Courts Act to be presented to another Court and it is presented to an ordinary Civil Court, any order for the return of the plaint by the Civil Court afterwards is not an order under O. 7, R. 10 and therefore no appeal lies therefrom. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 83 (84).

[7] A plaintiff, whose plaint is returned for presentation to the proper Court and who accordingly presents the plaint to the proper Court, does not lose his right of appeal against the order returning the plaint simply on the ground that he chose to file his plaint in the latter Court. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 1062 (1063) 41 Mad 721 * (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 447 (448) * (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 18 (19) * (Vol 17) 1930 Nag 207 (208); 26 Nag I R 300.

[8] Only one appeal lies from an order passed under O. 7, R. 10 ordering return of plaint for presentation to the proper Court. (Vol 12) 1925 Bom 431 (431) * (Vol 5) 1918 All 415 (415) * (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 294 (295); 12 Lah 646 * (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 141 (141) * (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 574 (575) * (1913) 1913 Pun L R No. 101 p. 381 (382); 1912 Pun Re No. 119.

[9] Order returning memorandum of appeal for presentation to proper Court — Appeal does not lie — Revision is competent. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 120 (120).

[10] The Appellate Court has power to return the plaint for presentation to proper Court just as the Court of first instance might have done at an earlier stage. (1888) 11 Mad 482 (484)* (1877) 1 Bom 538 (543) * (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 310 (311).

[11] An Appellate Court setting aside the order of the lower Court returning plaint for presentation to proper Court cannot remand the case for restoration and disposal. It should leave the parties to take what steps they like in the first Court. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 1154 (1154, 1155) * (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 233 (233). (Appellate Court should return plaint for presentation to proper Court — Order of remand is a mere surplussage.) * (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 561 (562). (Plaint returned for presentation to proper Court after consideration of evidence — Remand by Appellate Court for appointment of experienced Commissioner to re-value properties is not competent.) * (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 370 (371) (Order 41, R. 23 refers to decree of lower Court on preliminary point against which appeal is preferred, and not the case of an order as distinguished from decree, under O. 7, R. 10.)

[12] Order under appeal — Remand — No second appeal lies against the remand order — Correctness of remand can be questioned in appeal from the decree if he is otherwise entitled to do so. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 900 (900, 901).

[13] Appeal wrongly filed without excuse was dismissed and not returned to be filed in the proper Court. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 335 (336).

[14] Plaint returned for presentation to proper Court — Plaintiff appealing — Appeal dismissed — Plaintiff can then present it to proper Court if in time. (Vol 12) 1925 Bom 418 (418).

11. Revision. — [1] Order directing plaint to be returned for presentation to proper Court — Order can be revised by High Court. (Vol 17) 1930 All 158 (160).

Rejection of plaint. 11. The plaint shall be rejected in the following cases :

- (a) where it does not disclose a cause of action² :
- (b) where the relief claimed is undervalued³ and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to correct the valuation within a time to be fixed by the Court, fails to do so :
- (c) where the relief claimed is properly valued, but the plaint is written upon paper insufficiently stamped⁴ and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to supply the requisite stamp-paper within a time to be fixed by the Court, fails to do so :
- (d) where the suit appears from the statement in the plaint to be barred by any law.⁶

CALCUTTA

Add the following as clause (e) :

"(e) Where any of the provisions of Rule 9 (1A) is not complied with and the plaintiff on being required by the Court to comply therewith within a time to be fixed by the Court, fails to do so." [25-7-1928.]

the judgment the Court returns the plaint, the High Court is justified in interfering in the interest of justice. (Vol 30) 1943 Cal 450 (451).

[3] Plaint returned by both Munsif and Small Cause Court — High Court in revision can make such order as would enable the plaintiff to have his action tried. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 368 (369).

[4] Return of appeal for presenting to a proper Court — Revision lies. (Vol 12) 1923 Lah 479 (480).

[5] Lower Court ordering return of plaint for want of jurisdiction — Order set aside on appeal — No revision lies from Appellate Court's order. (1913) 1913 Pun L R No. 101 p. 381 (383) : 1912 Pun Re No. 119 * (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 370 (371).

[6] Where a Munsiff rightly returns a plaint to be presented to Revenue Court and the plaintiff appeals, the only course open to the Appellate Court, if it holds that the Munsiff is right, is to dismiss the appeal. Dismissing such an appeal does not mean failure on its part to exercise its jurisdiction. (Vol 17) 1930 Oudh 2 (3) : 4 Luck 667.

[7] Order for presentation to proper Court confirmed on appeal — Appellate Court committing error in exercise of jurisdiction — High Court will not interfere in revision. (Vol 5) 1918 All 415 (415).

[8] An application for leave to sue as a pauper is not a plaint, and it only reaches the stage of a plaint when it is granted. Where, therefore, a Court, regarding such application as a plaint directs it to be returned for presentation to the proper Court it acts without jurisdiction and, although such an order is not appealable the High Court will interfere and set aside the order in revision. (Vol 6) 1919 All 213 (214).

[9] Revisional jurisdiction is peculiar to the High Court and there can be no question of returning civil revision petition for presentation as a civil revision petition or as an appeal to any other Court in the province. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 657 (658).

ORDER 7, RULE 11 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope.
2. Cause of action not disclosed.
3. Undervaluation of relief.
4. Insufficiency of stamp.
5. Insufficiency of stamp — Memo of appeal.
6. Barred by other law.
7. Other causes for rejection.
8. Suit in forma pauperis.
9. Rejection in part.
10. Stage at which plaint can be rejected.
11. Appeal.
12. Revision.
13. Review.

1. Scope. — [1] O. 7, Rr. 10 and 11 have nothing in common, former deals with return of plaint and latter deals with rejection of plaint when it is found defective. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 480 (480, 481).

[2] In case of defects of the plaint, the proper course is not to dismiss the suit but to reject the plaint. (1888) 15 Cal 533 (538) : 15 Ind App 119 (P C).

[3] A Court should reject the plaint on refusal of plaintiff to pay court-fee though the claim exceeds Court's jurisdiction. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 646 (647).

[4] O. 7, R. 11, does not refer to a plaint which bears no stamp. Such a plaint must be rejected in accordance with Ss. 4 and 6, Court-fees Act. (Vol 17) 1930 Nag 224 (225) : 26 Nag L R 183. (Memorandum of appeal filed with eight anna stamp — Memorandum must be rejected.)

[5] Section 149 does not control O. 7, R. 11. (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 377 (378) : 1917 Pun Re No. 27.

[6] In deciding an application under O. 7, R. 11, C. P. C., the Court is not entitled to go outside the pleadings. (1937) I L R (1937) 1 Cal 541 (549). (Judgment of a Court outside British India.) * (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 1 (2). (Plaint whether to be rejected depends upon plaint and not upon written statement.)

[7] Dismissal for default cannot be set aside on ground that plaint ought to have been rejected under O. 7, R. 11. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 271 (272) : 2 Pat 784.

[8] If the plaint is rejected under O. 7, R. 11, the plaintiff can bring a suit on the same subject-matter, provided he is not barred by lapse of time. (1870) 14 Suth W R 289 (290).

[9] Suit dismissed under O. 7, R. 11 (e) cannot be restored under inherent powers. (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 354 (355) : 2 Pat 504.

[10] Provisions of Order 7 apply mutatis mutandis to memoranda of appeals as well as to plaints by reason of S. 141. (Vol 26) 1939 Sind 221 (221) : I L R (1939) Kar 527.

2. Cause of action not disclosed. — [1] Cause of action means every fact which it would be necessary for the plaintiff to prove, if traversed, in order to support his right to judgment of the Court. It does not comprise of every piece of evidence which is necessary to prove each fact, but every fact which is necessary to prove. (Vol 19) 1932 All 543 (545) : 54 All 525.

[2] Plaint not disclosing cause of action — Plaint should be rejected and not dismissed. (Vol 30) 1943 Lah 121 (122) * (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 152 (154) : 46 Bom 229 * (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 290 (291).

[3] Dismissal of suit and rejection of plaint are not identical terms. In one case decree is passed, in the other case it is merely an appealable order. (Vol 19) 1932 All 543 (545) : 54 All 525.

[4] Cause of action exists or not is to be determined from plaint alone — If it exists evidence to prove or disprove it must be taken. (Vol 4) 1917 All 355 (356) : 39 All 516* (1913) 40 Cal 598 (609); 40 Ind App 56 (P. O.). (All statements in plaint are to be taken as true, for argument on preliminary issue as to whether plaint discloses a cause of action.)

[5] Onus is on defendant to prove non-disclosure of cause of action. (Vol 28) 1941 Bom 286 (287) : I L R (1941) Bom 521.

[6] Whether there appears to be a cause of action that is likely to succeed is not the question which Court should decide while rejecting the plaint — It is enough if it appears that the subject-matter alleged raises a fair question of claim or right for trial and determination between the plaintiff and the party made defendant. (1862-63) 1 Mad H C R 240 (243).

[7] In the following cases plaint was held to disclose cause of action:—(Vol 16) 1929 All 597 (598) : 51 All 895. (Person claiming damages from railway but omitting to give details of his claim — Omission is not sufficient to dismiss his claim.) * (Vol 4) 1917 All 355 (356, 357) : 39 All 516. (Plaintiff sued a Magistrate on the allegation that the latter took him into custody and brought a false charge against him. The trial Court dismissed the suit as barred by the Judicial Officer's Protection Act. Held, that the allegation in the plaint disclosed the cause of action to which the Act referred to, did not apply.) * (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 792 (792). (Suit to set aside decree on mortgage — Fraud regarding execution of mortgage alleged — Continuance of fraud in conduct of suit need not be alleged.) * (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 192 (193, 194). (Suit to recover bonus credited to plaintiff in two years and partly paid to the plaintiff is based either on a completed gift or on contract and therefore there is good cause of action.) * (1910) 7 Mad L Tim 113 (115). (Where an agreement was executed by 1st defendant in favour of plaintiff, 2nd defendant standing surety for the performance of the agreement and plaintiff sued thereon joining both as defendants, Held, that the plaint disclosed a cause of action against both the defendants.)

[8] No cause of action was disclosed in the plaints in the following instances: (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 158 (159, 160). (Denial of right of inheritance held did not furnish cause of action.) * (Vol 4) 1917 All 432 (432). (The mortgagee paid the Government revenue for two mortgagors out of three in separate possession. He sued all the three for the recovery of his money. Held, there was no cause of action against the third who had paid his revenue.) * (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 343 (344). (Teacher filing suit for damages for wrongful dismissal against President of managing committee of High School — President filing some extracts in support of his defence — Subsequent suit for defamation against President by teacher on ground that extracts filed in previous suit were defamatory — Secretary of managing committee and Head master also impleaded without allegation that they were concerned in publication of extracts — Plaint basing cause of action entirely on publication of extracts in Court by President in previous suit — Plaint held disclosed no cause of action against Secretary and Head master) * (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 128 (129) : 26 Oudh Cas 333. (Claim against Committee — Suit against Secretary alone is bad.)

3. Undervaluation of relief.—[1] Rule 11 covers cases where the Court has jurisdiction to try suit even if the relief claimed is undervalued. (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 257 (258) : 51 Bom 236.

[2] The proper course in a suit with an undervaluation is not to dismiss the suit but to return the plaint to be represented to the Court of competent jurisdiction when the proper valuation necessitates a change of

[3] Plaint alone is to be considered for valuation of suit. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 969 (969).

[4] Court-fees Act, S. 7 (IV) must be read with O. 7, R. 11 (b), Civil P. C. — Relief sought is to be valued by plaintiff. (Vol 23) 1936 Sind 25 (25) * (1890) 12 All 129 (147) (F B). (Sections 9, 10, 11 and 28 of the Court-fees Act, should be read together with O. 7, R. 11.) * (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 448 (451) : 61 Cal 796 (F B). (Rule controls Court-fees Act, S. 7, sub-s. (iv).) * (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 290 (290) : 5 Pat L Jour 394. (Reasonable value must be put on consequential relief prayed in declaratory suit — Court can fix it if plaintiff has failed to do it.) * (Vol 24) 1937 Sind 241 (241, 242) : 31 Sind L R 442 (F B). (Plaintiff cannot value injunction arbitrarily — Court can revise arbitrary valuation.) * (1937) 31 Sind L R 37 (40). (It is for the Court to see that proper court-fees are paid.)

[5] Rule 11 does not enlarge any taxing section. (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 686 (688).

[6] If a wrong or arbitrary valuation is made by a claimant of his claim the Court can compel him to correct it under O. 7, R. 11, Civil P. C., but does not afford any warrant for the Court itself to amend the valuation put by the claimant and thus enlarge the taxation of costs. (Vol 32) 1945 Oudh 177 (179) * (Vol 4) 1917 All 78 (79) : 39 All 723. (Suit for money on accounts — Ad valorem court-fee on amount which appeared due on face of account ordered to be paid — Held Court could not fix valuation — It should have ordered plaintiff to make fresh valuation.)

[7] Plaintiff can relinquish part of claim to bring it within court-fee paid — No application for amendment of plaint is necessary. (Vol 33) 1946 Mad 126 (127) * (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 716 (716).

[8] Words "properly valued" cover cases where proper valuation is arrived at by the Court in the course of the suit. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 685 (686).

[9] Value of property found for court-fees — Court is not precluded to find subsequently whether it has jurisdiction. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 503 (503).

[10] Tenant in house—Plaintiff suing for declaration of ownership of house on basis of will — Defendant though not in possession of house, obstructing plaintiff to realize rent from tenant — Trial Court holding that suit should be for possession called for ad valorem court-fee and on failure to pay it rejected the plaint — Held the order was wrong as suit for possession against defendant was not needed—Suit as presented held proper. (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 97 (98).

[11] Mortgage decree — Property sold not satisfying decree — Other properties attached — Declaratory suit by mortgagor's son that transaction was immoral and that joint Hindu family property could not be sold — Possession given to auction-purchaser during suit and not at its institution — Court asking plaintiff to convert suit into one for possession and pay full stamp on value of property sold — Plaintiff not doing so though time given — Plaintiff rejected — O. 7, R. 11, held properly applied. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 622 (623).

[12] Court-fees — Non-payment of — Amendment of plaint allowed — Plaintiff directed to give value of property and put in deficit court-fee — Non-compliance with order — Suit dismissed for default on refusing permission to withdraw under O. 23, R. 1, Civil P. C. — Proper order is rejection of plaint — Fresh suit is not barred by O. 23, R. 1, O. 9, R. 9, or O. 2, R. 2, Civil P. C. (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 764 (765, 766).

[13] Inquiry under S. 9, Court-fees Act — Plaintiff directed to pay additional court-fee — If he fails to do so suit should be dismissed under S. 10, Court-fees Act.

instead of rejecting plaint under O. 7, R. 11, Civil P. C. (Vol 1) 1914 Bom 117 (118).

[14] If a claim is advanced bona fide the fact that claim would lie only with regard to some of the properties of a value below the jurisdiction of the Court in which the suit is instituted, will not justify the Court in rejecting the plaint. (1912) 16 Ind Cas 612 (614) (Mad).

[15] Under-valuation of property in dispute — Plaintiff or appellant cannot be required to prove the correct valuation before plaint or memorandum can be registered. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 65 (67) : 57 Cal 587.

4. Insufficiency of stamp. — [1] Court has no jurisdiction to return plaint presented with insufficient stamp—It must fix time for making up deficiency and can reject plaint if deficiency is not made within the time fixed. (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 266 (266, 267). (Order declining to receive plaint with stamps of smaller denomination is unjust.) * (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 504 (505) * (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 221 (223). (Proceedings following admission of insufficiently stamped document are not void.) * (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 377 (378) : 1917 Pun Re No. 27 * (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 1002 (1003) * (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 304 (305) : 1 L R (1941) Nag 629. (Refusal to grant extension amounts to improper exercise of discretion.) * (Vol 17) 1930 Oudh 104 (105) : 5 Luck 474. (Reasonable time should be allowed.) * (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 550 (553, 554) : 16 Pat 600 (S B). (Conditions in cl. (c) are conjunctive and not disjunctive.) * (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 656 (659) : 4 Pat L Jour 703.

[But see (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 361 (364) (F B). (It is not incumbent on a Court of justice to allow the plaintiff an opportunity to make good the deficiency under O. 7, R. 11—(Vol 4) 1917 Lah 377 : 1917 Pun Re No. 27, dissented.)]

[2] Under O. 7, R. 11 (c) of the Civil P. C., a Court has power to extend the period originally fixed by it for the payment of the court-fees, even more than once. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 261 (261) * (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 221 (223) * (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 676 (677). (Court can extend time or accept fees beyond the time fixed but it cannot refuse to fix time under R. 11.) * (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 312 (312) * (Vol 14) 1927 Oudh 507 (507). (Delay of one day may be excused — Refusal to take the deficit court-fee for delay by one day is an abuse of the powers of the Court.)

[3] Once time is fixed, plaintiff cannot, as of right, claim extension which depends upon discretion of Court under Ss. 148 and 149 — Court acting under these sections must be presumed to have really exercised discretion. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 542 (543, 544) * (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 735 (736) : 41 Cal 1092. (Court not to give time only to suit plaintiff's convenience.) * (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 92 (93) : 1 Lah 234. (Bona fide mistake is good ground.) * (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 30 (31, 32). (Order 7, R. 11 does not compel Court to give time—Application showing no reason for grant of time but merely stating that applicant had not got amount of necessary court-fee without offering explanation—Refusal to grant time held justified.) * (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 26 (27) : 3 Pat L Jour 74. (Appellant deliberately paying insufficient court-fee — He cannot get time to make good deficiency.)

[4] Order 7, R. 11 is mandatory and the Court must reject a plaint written on insufficiently stamped paper, when the plaintiff on being required to supply the requisite stamp within a time fixed by the Court fails to do so. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 77 (78) : 44 Cal 352 * (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 268 (269) : 1914 Pun Re No. 35 * (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 344 (345). (Court dismissing suit noting while dismissing "Plaintiffs have not paid additional court-fees. Plaintiffs are absent"—Dismissal was under O. 7, R. 11 and not under O. 9, R. 8.) * (Vol 28) 1941 Sind 154 (158) : 1 L R (1941) Kar 102.

(Correct order to be passed is one rejecting plaint and not one dismissing suit.)

[5] The mandatory provision contained in O. 7, R. 11 is intended for cases where no other complications intervene and the Court has sufficient inherent power to depart from the normal procedure to suit the exigencies of the situations. (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 221 (223).

[6] Alternative reliefs—One relief claimed larger than the other — Court ordering court-fee on larger relief — Plaintiff applying for amendment to reduce claim of larger relief before expiry of time allowed to make good deficiency—Court not allowing amendment and rejecting plaint—Court held had power to allow abandonment of claim before rejecting plaint or to allow application therefor as amendment of pleadings under O. 6, R. 17. (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 562 (564, 565).

[7] Suit dismissed on merits — Order for additional court-fee and for rejection of plaint in case of non-payment is incompetent. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 326 (327).

[8] Court-fee stamps not available in treasury on the day of presentation of plaint and hence court-fee paid beyond time—Plaint must be deemed to have been presented within time. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 274 (275).

[9] Court-fees—Question should be decided at earliest opportunity — Court recording finding on all issues and while dismissing suit on merits requiring plaintiffs to make good deficiency in court-fees—Procedure is not proper. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 75 (76).

[10] Court may be deemed to have extended the time fixed for payment of deficient court-fee when it accepts it on a subsequent date. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 685 (685) * (1907) 34 Cal 20 (24) (F B).

[11] Dismissal of suit for non-payment of proper court-fee — Fresh suit is not barred under O. 9, R. 9, but case comes under O. 7, R. 11. (Vol 19) 1932 Pat 11 (12).

[12] Plaint rejected under O. 7, R. 11 — Application for restoration under S. 149 read with S. 151 accompanied with deposit of deficient court-fee may be treated as fresh plaint under O. 7, R. 13. (Vol 31) 1944 Oudh 327 (328) : 20 Luck 268.

[13] Deficit court-fee not paid due to treachery of pleader's clerk—Plaint rejected—Application to restore lies. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 435 (437, 438) : 4 Pat 180.

[14] Plaint insufficiently stamped filed on last day of period of limitation — Court allowing certain time for payment of deficit court-fee — Proper court-fee paid within time allowed but beyond period of limitation for suit — Suit is not time-barred. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 560 (562) * (Vol 1) 1914 All 216 (216) * (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 156 (157) * (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 550 (553) : 16 Pat 600 (S B) * (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 56 (56).

[15] Partition suit referred to arbitration — Decree drawn up in accordance with award — Failure of plaintiff to comply with order to deposit stamp duty — Suit cannot be dismissed merely by reason of non-deposit—Clause (c) does not apply to the case. (Vol 6) 1919 All 269 (270).

5. Insufficiency of stamp—Memo of appeal.—[1] Appeal memorandum insufficiently stamped should not be rejected without giving further time to make up the deficiency. (Vol 1) 1914 Bom 249 (250) : 33 Bom 41 * (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 108 (109) * (Vol 26) 1939 Pat 432 (432) * (Vol 26) 1939 Pat 137 (137) * (Vol 26) 1939 Pat 83 (85) : 17 Pat 687 * (Vol 26) 1939 Pat 432 (432).

[But see (Vol 17) 1930 Nag 224 (225) : 26 Nag L R 183. (Rule 11 does not refer to appeals) ✕ (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 316 (316, 317) (Do.)]

[2] Appeal on insufficiently stamped paper filed within limitation — Prayer along with appeal to grant time to make good deficiency — Appellate Court can grant time under S. 149 and O. 7, R. 11 (c) — Order dismissing appeal as time-barred, ignoring prayer is bad. (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 414 (416) : 13 Luck 397.

[3] Where an appellant deliberately and to suit his own convenience, pays on his appeal an insufficient court-fee, the Court is not bound to receive the appeal and give the appellant time to make good the deficiency — Thus inability to raise money is not sufficient reason for the exercise of discretion vested in Court under S. 149. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 659 (660) : 61 Cal 663 ✕ (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 482 (484) : 59 Cal 388.

[4] Appellant disputing order to make up deficiency in stamp on his appeal and not making up the deficiency till long after is not entitled to benefit of S. 149. (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 371 (372).

[5] Rejection of memorandum of appeal does not preclude presentation of fresh one — Fresh memo accepted after proper court-fee and admitted after hearing parties as to objection of limitation — Order is not without jurisdiction. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 482 (484) : 59 Cal 388.

[6] Appellate Court has also equal powers of rejecting the plaint, and also it can allow time for payment of deficit court-fee and reject the plaint with costs on failure to do so. (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 160 (161) : 1 L R (1942) Kar 424.

[7] Appeal memo rejected for non-payment of court-fees — Cross-objections must fail. (Vol 28) 1941 Bom 242 (244) : 1 L R (1941) Bom 477.

[8] Plaint rejected for under-valuation, plaintiff appealing putting same value on appeal as he puts on plaint — Appeal cannot be rejected as insufficiently stamped, without investigating true value of suit properties. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 427, (427).

[9] Appeal — Objection as to valuation of suit should not be entertained unless under-valuation has prejudicially affected — Duty of appellate Court is not to dismiss but to return for presentation to proper Court. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 590 (591).

[10] Proper court-fee must be paid on insufficiently stamped memorandum of appeal even after its dismissal under O. 41, R. 17 where order for payment of proper court-fee is prior to dismissal of appeal. (Vol 21) 1934 Oudh 396 (398).

[11] Order 7, R. 11 (c) contemplates cases in which court-fee on plaint or on memorandum of appeal itself is not paid — Appellate Court cannot reject memorandum of appeal properly stamped on ground that pauper applicant has not paid court-fee payable on plaint owing to dismissal of suit. (Vol 24) 1937 All 280 (281, 282) : 1 L R (1937) All 484.

6. Barred by other law. — [1] If from the allegations in the plaint, the suit appears to be barred by any law, the proper course is to reject the plaint under R. 11 (d) and not to dismiss the suit. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 755 (756).

[2] Though discretion is given to Court under O. 7, R. 11, the Court has no power to admit the plaint after period of limitation. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 426 (427).

[3] Suit barred by limitation — Party can ask Court to take plaint off the file. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 146 (146) : 59 Cal 150.

[4] Law under which and facts on which suit is barred must be stated. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 79 (80) ✕ (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 62 (63). (Plaint containing no statement showing suit barred — Rule 11 (d) does not apply.) ✕ (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 80 (80). [5] Pleadings and not the result of suit is to be seen for deciding limitation. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 1190 (1192) ✕ (Vol 14) 1927 Nag 10 (11, 12) : 22 Nag L R 147. (Form of suit will determine what article of Limitation Act should apply.)

[6] Suit in contravention of Bengal Tenancy Act, (8 [VIII] of 1885), S. 11, filed within three months of date of publication of Record of Rights should not be dismissed but taken as filed on day following expiration of such period — Plaint however should be returned or rejected under Civil P. C. (1908), O. 7, R. 11. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 755 (758).

7. Other causes for rejection. — [1] A Court cannot either dismiss a suit or reject a plaint merely because the plaint is defective in that, it does not comply with a provision of law. It should call on plaintiff to cure the defect and on his failure to do so, may proceed to decide the suit forthwith and dismiss it under O. 17, R. 3, or may reject the plaint under its inherent powers. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 82 (83). (Contravention of S. 148 (b) (2) of Bengal Tenancy Act.) ✕ (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1045 (1046). (Secretary of State impleaded in suit along with other defendants — No statement in plaint about issues of notice under S. 80 — Plaint is defective and is liable to be rejected as a whole — Secretary of State only pro forma defendant — His name may be ordered to be expunged from suit but only if such amendment is possible without material change in nature of suit.) ✕ (1911) 1911 Pun L R No. 132, p. 496. (The mere fact that there is a misjoinder of parties and of causes of action or non-joinder of parties does not justify a Court in rejecting the plaint.)

[2] This rule does not preclude amendment of plaint which under O. 6, R. 17, may be made at any stage. (Vol 26) 1939 Bom 354 (357).

[3] The only grounds on which a plaint can be rejected are set out in O. 7, R. 11. The punishment for non-production of a document sued on or on which the plaintiff relies is not the rejection of the plaint but that set out in O. 7, R. 18. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 645 (645).

[4] Where the suit is entirely frivolous and is based on inconsistent pleas, it might be dismissed without the framing at any issues whatsoever under O. 7, R. 11. (1942) 1942 Oudh W N (B R) 287 (288).

[5] Suit by minor's next friend not in best interests of minor can be dismissed. (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 413 (414).

[6] The Court cannot reject a plaint in which the plaintiffs sue for declaration of their right to the land in suit, without going into the question of possession of the plaintiffs and other merits of the case. (1910) 1910 Pun L R No. 129, page 353.

[7] If after a plaint has been formally admitted it is objected that the suit was not instituted with the consent and knowledge of the plaintiff the Court should raise a regular preliminary issue whether the plaint has been duly signed by and presented under the authority of the plaintiff and decide the same after recording evidence of both parties thereon. Where serious allegations of fraud are involved, such further evidence, as may be necessary may be called in. An order rejecting a plaint without holding such formal enquiry is bad and liable to be set aside on appeal. (1910) 4 Sind L.R. 35(36).

8. Suit in forma pauperis. — [1] Applications for leave to sue as pauper are not governed by O. 7, R. 11, Civil P. C. — Suit is not regarded as instituted until application is granted — O. 7, R. 11 only applies to regularly instituted suits. [2] Order for payment of deficit court-fee within given time — Application for pauperism made within time granted is maintainable. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 498 (499) ✕(Vol 20) 1933 Cal 238 (239).

[3] Pauper suit — Suit registered as ordinary suit — Plaintiff failing to pay deficit court-fee though given time to do so — But subsequently applying for permission to continue suit as pauper — Application should not be rejected merely on ground that suit has been registered as ordinary suit but should be considered on merits. (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 221 (222).

[4] Court ordering that if court-fee not paid by 9th December, suit should stand dismissed — Plaintiff defaulting but on 16th applying to sue as pauper — Application rejected without investigation — Between 9th and 16th December plaintiff making application for amending plaint — Suit held must be regarded as dismissed on 9th December — Court had no jurisdiction to entertain application to sue as pauper — Making of applications for amendment held immaterial. (Vol 29) 1942 Pat 302 (303).

[5] Application for leave to appeal as pauper — Dismissal of application leaves appeal intact — Appellate Court can grant time for payment of court-fees. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1039 (1039, 1040) : 40 Mad 687.

[6] Pauper application rejected and court-fee demanded — Revision filed against this order — Subsequently suit dismissed for not producing stay order — Revision from the original order is maintainable. (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 24 (26).

(Suit on pro-note executed by A, B, C and D — Court ordering that suit could not proceed against A on ground that pro-note was signed by him at place beyond that Court's jurisdiction — Order held was tantamount to rejection of plaint as regards A, and appeal was therefore competent — Even if no appeal lay, revision was competent as there was case decided.) ✕(Vol 2) 1915 Mad 483 (484) ✕(Vol 28) 1941 Pat 385 (389) : 20 Pat 417 : 42 Cri L Jour 375.

Order 7, Rule 14—Note 1.

[1] Order 7, Rule 14 makes a distinction between documents sued upon and documents relied on. In the case of the first, the plaintiff must produce either the original or a copy when the plaint is presented; of the second neither the production at the time of presentation of the plaint is required nor delivery of the document or the copy. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 416 (416).

Rules 19 to 25 — ALLAHABAD

Add the following Rules 19 to 25 :

"19. Every plaint or original petition shall be accompanied by a proceeding giving an address written in English in block letters at which service of notice, summons or other process may be made on the plaintiff or petitioner. Plaintiffs or petitioners subsequently added shall, immediately on being so added, file a proceeding of this nature.

20. An address for service filed under the preceding rule shall be within the local limits of the District Court within which the suit or petition is filed, or of the District Court within which the party ordinarily resides, if within the limits of the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh.

21. Where a plaintiff or petitioner fails to file an address for service, he shall be liable to have his suit dismissed or his petition rejected by the Court suo motu or any party may apply for an order to that effect, and the Court may make such order as it thinks just.

22. Where a party is not found at the address given by him for service and no agent or adult male member of his family on whom a notice or process can be served, is present, a copy of the notice or process shall be affixed to the outer door of the house. If on the date fixed such party is not present another date shall be fixed and a copy of the notice, summons or other process shall be sent to the registered address by registered post, and such service shall be deemed to be as effectual as if the notice or process had been personally served.

23. Where a party engages a pleader, notices or processes for service on him shall be served in the manner prescribed by O. 3, R. 5, unless the Court directs service at the address for service given by the party.

24. A party who desires to change the address for service given by him as aforesaid shall file a verified petition, and the Court may direct the amendment of the record accordingly. Notice of such petition shall be given

21. Where a plaintiff or petitioner fails to file an address for service, he shall be liable to have his suit dismissed or his petition rejected by the Court suo motu or any party may apply for an order to that effect, and the Court may make such order as it thinks just.

22. Where a party is not found at the address given by him for service and no agent or adult male member of his family on whom a notice, summons or other process can be served is present, a copy of the notice, summons or other process shall be affixed to the outer door of the house. If on the date fixed such party is not present another date shall be fixed and a copy of the notice, summons or other process shall be sent to the registered address by registered post, and such service shall be deemed to be as effectual as if the notice, summons or other process had been personally served.

23. Where a party engages a pleader, notices, summonses or other processes for service on him shall be served in the manner prescribed by Order 3, Rule 5, unless the Court directs service at the address for service given by the party.

24. A party who desires to change the address for service given by him as aforesaid shall file a verified petition, and the Court may direct the amendment of the record accordingly. Notice of such petition shall be given to such other parties to the suit as the Court may deem it necessary to inform, and may be either served upon the pleaders for such parties or be sent to them by registered post, as the Court thinks fit.

25. Nothing in these rules shall prevent the Court from directing the service of a notice, summons or other process in any other manner, if, for any reasons, it thinks fit to do so." [24-11-1927.]

Rules 19 to 23—NAGPUR

Add the following as Rules 19 to 23 :

"19. Every plaint or original petition shall be accompanied by a memorandum giving an address at which Registered address. service of process may be made on the plaintiff or the petitioner. The address shall be within the local limits of the Civil District in which the plaint or original petition is filed or, if an address within such Civil District cannot conveniently be given, within the local limits of the Civil District in which the party ordinarily resides. This address shall be called the "registered address" and it shall hold good throughout interlocutory proceedings and appeals and also for a further period of two years from the date of final decision and for all purposes including those of execution.

Registered address by a party subsequently added as plaintiff or petitioner. 20. Any party subsequently added as plaintiff or petitioner shall in like manner file a registered address at the time of applying or consenting to be joined as plaintiff or petitioner.

Consequence of non-filing of registered address. 21. (1) If the plaintiff or the petitioner fails to file a registered address as required by Rule 19 or 20, he shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to have his suit dismissed or his petition rejected.

An order under this rule may be passed by the Court suo motu or on the application of any party.

(2) Where a suit is dismissed or a petition rejected under sub-rule (1) the plaintiff or the petitioner may apply for an order to set the dismissal or the rejection aside and if he files a registered address and satisfies the Court that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from filing the registered address at the proper time, the Court shall set aside the dismissal or the rejection upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit or petition.

Affixing of process and its validity. 22. Where the plaintiff or the petitioner is not found at his registered address and no agent or adult male member of his family on whom a process can be served is present, a copy of the process shall be affixed to the outer door of the house and such service shall be deemed to be as effectual as if the process had been personally served.

Change of registered address. 23. A plaintiff or petitioner who wishes to change his registered address shall file a verified petition and the Court shall direct the amendment of the record accordingly. Notice of such petition shall be given to such other parties to the suit or proceedings as the Court may deem it necessary to inform." [29-6-1943.]

Rules 19 to 22 — N.-W.F.P.

Add the following as Rules 19 to 22:

"19 Every plaint or original petition shall be accompanied by a proceeding giving an address at which service of notice, summons or other process may be made on the plaintiff or petitioner. Plaintiffs or petitioners subsequently added shall immediately, on being so added, file a proceeding of this nature.

20. An address for service filed under the preceding rule shall be within the local limits of the District Court within which the suit or petition is filed or, of the District Court within which the party ordinarily resides, if within the limits of the North-West Frontier Province.

21. Where a plaintiff or petitioner fails to file an address for service he shall be liable to have his suit dismissed or his petition rejected by the Court suo motu or any party may apply for an order to that effect, and the Court may make such order as it thinks just.

22. A party who desires to change the address for service given by him as aforesaid shall file a verified petition, and the Court may direct the amendment of the record accordingly. Notice of such petition shall be given to such other parties to the suit as the Court may deem it necessary to inform, and may be either served upon the pleaders for such parties, or be sent to them by registered post, as the Court thinks fit."

Rules 19 to 27 — OUDH.

Add the following as Rules 19 to 27:

"19. Every plaint or original petition shall be accompanied by an address at which service of notice, summons or other process may be made on the plaintiff or petitioner. This address shall be called the "registered address," and service thereat shall be deemed to be sufficient service.

20. Any party subsequently added as plaintiff or petitioner shall, in like manner, file a registered address at the time of applying or consenting to be joined as plaintiff or petitioner.

21. A registered address shall be within the local limits of the District Court within which the suit or petition is filed, if the plaintiff or petitioner resides or carries on business within those limits.

22. If a plaintiff or petitioner fails to file a registered address as required above, he shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to have his suit dismissed or his petition rejected.

An order under this rule may be passed by the Court suo motu or on the application of any party.

23. Where the registered address of the plaintiff or petitioner is within the limits of a headquarters town or of a municipality of India (including Burma) or Ceylon, a notice, summons or other process may be served on him at that address by registered post and such service shall be deemed to be as effectual as if the notice or process had been personally served.

24. In all cases to which Rule 23 does not apply, where a plaintiff or petitioner is not found at his registered address and no agent or adult male member of his family on whom a notice or process can be served is present, a copy of the notice or process shall be affixed to the outer door of the house. If, on the date fixed, such plaintiff or petitioner is not present another date shall be fixed and a copy of the notice, summons or other process shall be sent to his registered address by registered post, and such service shall be deemed to be as effectual as if the notice or process had been personally served.

25. Whenever a plaintiff or petitioner has engaged a pleader to act for him, a notice or process of service on him shall be served in the manner prescribed by O. 3, R. 5, unless the Court directs service at his registered address:

Provided that, where a notice is served on pleader under the above rule, he shall be given sufficient time to communicate with his client and to receive instructions.

Explanation.—Where ten days' time has been allowed under this rule, this shall be deemed sufficient time within the meaning of this proviso in the absence of an application made within such ten days by the pleader concerned for further time.

26. A plaintiff or petitioner who wishes to change his registered address shall file a verified petition, and the Court shall direct the amendment of the record accordingly. Notice of such petition shall be given to such other parties to the suit or proceedings as the Court may deem it necessary to inform, and may be either served upon the pleaders for such parties or be sent to them by registered post, as the Court thinks fit.

27. Nothing in Rules 19 to 26 shall prevent the Court from directing the service of a notice or process in any other manner, if, for any reason, it thinks fit."

Rules 19 to 22—PATNA

Add the following as Rules 19 to 22 :

"19. Every plaint or original petition shall be accompanied by a statement giving an address at which service of notice, summons or other process may be made on the plaintiff or petitioner, and every plaintiff or petitioner subsequently added shall, immediately on being so added, file a similar statement.

20. An address for service filed under the preceding rule shall state the following particulars :—

- (1) the name of the street and number of the house (if in a town);
- (2) the name of the town or village;
- (3) the Post Office;
- (4) the district; and
- (5) the munsiff (if in Bihar and Orissa) or the District Court (if outside Bihar and Orissa).

21. Where a plaintiff or petitioner fails to file an address for service, he shall be liable to have his suit dismissed or his petition rejected by the Court suo motu, or any party may apply for an order to that effect, and the Court may make such order as it thinks just.

22. A party who desires to change the address for service given by him as aforesaid shall file a verified petition, and the Court may direct the amendment of the record accordingly. Notice of such petition shall be given to such other parties to the suit as the Court may deem it necessary to inform, and may be either served upon the pleaders for such parties or be sent to them by registered post, as the Court thinks fit."

Rules 19 to 25—SIND

Add the following as Rules 19 to 25 :

"19. Address to be filed with plaint. — Every plaint shall be accompanied by a memorandum in writing giving an address at which service of notice, or summons or other process may be made on the plaintiff. Plaintiffs subsequently added, shall immediately on being so added, file a memorandum in writing of this nature.

20. Nature of address to be filed. — An address for service filed under the preceding rule shall be within the local limits of the district Court within which the suit is filed, or if he cannot conveniently give an address as aforesaid, at a place where a party ordinarily resides.

21. Consequences of failing to file address. — Where a plaintiff fails to file an address for service, he shall be liable to have his suit dismissed by the Court suo motu or any party may apply for an order to that effect, and the Court may make such order as it thinks just.

22. Procedure when party not found at the place of address.—Where a party is not found at the address given by him for service and no agent or adult male member of his family on whom a notice or process can be served is present, a copy of the notice or process shall be affixed to the outer door of the house and such service shall be deemed to be as effectual as if the notice or process had been personally served.

23. Service of notice on pleaders. — Where a party engages a pleader, notice or process on him shall be served in the manner prescribed by O. 3, R. 5, unless the Court directs service at the address for service given by the party.

24. Change of address. — A party who desires to change the address for service given by him as aforesaid shall file a fresh memorandum in writing to this effect and the Court may direct the amendment of the record accordingly. Notice of such memorandum shall be given to all the other parties to the suit and may be served either upon the pleaders for such parties or be sent to them by registered post, as the Court thinks fit.

25. Rules not binding on Court.—Nothing in these rules shall prevent the Court from directing the service of a notice or process in any other manner, if, for any reasons, it thinks fit to do so."

ORDER VIII

WRITTEN STATEMENT AND SET-OFF

1. The defendant may, and, if so required by the Court, shall, at or before the first hearing or Written statement. within such time as the Court may permit, present a written statement of his defence.

[1882—S. 110 ; 1877—S. 110 ; 1859—S. 120.]

LAHORE

After the word "defence" place a semicolon and add the following :

"(1) and with such written statement or if there is no written statement, at the first hearing shall produce in Court all documents in his possession or power on which he bases his defence or any claim for set-off.

(2) Where he relies on any other documents as evidence in support of his defence or claim for set-off, he shall enter such documents in a list to be added or annexed to the written statement, or where there is no written statement, to be presented at the first hearing. If no such list is so annexed or presented, the defendant shall be allowed a further period of ten days to file this list of documents.

(3) A document which ought to be entered in the list referred to in sub-clause (2) but which has not been so entered, shall not, without the leave of the Court, be received in evidence on the defendant's behalf at the hearing of the suit.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall apply to documents produced for cross-examination of plaintiff's witnesses or handed to a witness merely to refresh his memory."

N.-W. F. P.

Add the following as sub-clause (2) :

"The defendant at the time of presenting a written statement shall, where he relies on any documents (whether in his possession or power or not), enter such documents in a list and produce those documents which are in his possession or power."

OUDH

Add the following as Rule 1 (2), and read the existing Rule 1 as Rule 1 (1) :

"1. (2) The defendant shall file with his written statement a list of all the documents on which he relies as evidence in support of his case, shall produce with the written statement such of the documents as are in his possession or power, and shall cause the others to be summoned on a date to be fixed by the Court for the purpose.

Explanation. — A certified copy of a public document is a document "in the power" of a party, but where a document is in the possession of a person other than the defendant, it will not be deemed to be "in the power" of the defendant."

2. The defendant must raise by his pleading all matters which show the suit not to be maintainable, or that the transaction is either void or voidable in point of law, and all such grounds of defence as, if not raised, would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the plaint, as, for instance, fraud, limitation, release, payment, performance, or facts showing illegality.

3. It shall not be sufficient for a defendant in his written statement to deny generally the Denial to be specific. grounds alleged by the plaintiff, but the defendant must deal specifically with each allegation of fact of which he does not admit the truth, except damages.

[R. S. C., O. 19, R. 17.]

4. Where a defendant denies an allegation of fact in the plaint, he must not do so evasively, Evasive denial. but answer the point of substance. Thus, if it is alleged that he received a certain sum of money, it shall not be sufficient to deny that he received that particular amount, but he must deny that he received that sum or any part thereof, or else set out how much he received. And if an allegation is made with diverse circumstances, it shall not be sufficient to deny it along with those circumstances.

[R. S. C., O. 19, R. 19.]

5. Every allegation of fact in the plaint, if not denied specifically or by necessary implication, Specific denial. or stated to be not admitted in the pleading of the defendant, shall be taken to be admitted² except as against a person under disability³:

Provided that the Court may in its discretion require any fact so admitted to be proved otherwise than by such admission.

[2] This rule and Rule 5 must be read together. This rule gives directions as to how denials are to be made. Rule 5 states the consequences of a defendant's failing to observe the directions of this rule. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 950 (957). (Defendant should specifically deny publication in a libel suit.)

[3] If a defendant puts the plaintiff to proof of a mortgage document set up by him he must be taken to be putting the plaintiff to proof of its execution. (Vol 7) 1920 Oudh 68 (69).

[4] In a money suit where the claim is for recovery of specific amount, the defendant must clearly state what amount has been paid off; if all the claim was discharged he must clearly state so. (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 411 (416). ("Accounts incorrect", is not a specific denial.)

[5] Where the plaintiffs are aware at every stage what the case of the defendants really was, want of precision in the defendants' written statement becomes an academic question. (Vol 32) 1945 Sind 177 (182):ILR (1945) Kar 224.

[2] Defendants' statement that they do not admit plaintiff's allegation as to the date of a certain event is not evasive denial or admission notwithstanding that defendants do not give their own date for the event. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 838 (839).

ORDER 8 RULE 5 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Applicability and scope.
2. Facts not denied will be taken as admitted.
3. "Except as against a person under disability."
4. Court may require the facts so admitted to be proved.
5. Rule does not apply where no statement is filed.

1. Applicability and scope.—[1] This rule states the consequences of a defendants' failing to conform to Rule 3. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 950 (957).

[2] The principle that non-admission in certain cases are equivalent to admissions does not apply where averments in plaint are vague and inconclusive. (Vol 24) 1937 Sind 11 (12) : 30 Sind L R 345.

[3] Principle may be applied to a judgment-debtor on whom notice of execution application containing allegation of fact has been served. (Vol 23) 1936 All 21 (32) : 58 All 313 (FB).

2. Facts not denied will be taken as admitted. —[1] Every allegation of fact if neither denied nor stated to be not admitted, is deemed to be admitted and the plaintiff is not obliged to prove such allegation. (Vol 14) 1927 All 225 (226, 227) * (Vol 3) 1916 Bom 103 (104) : 41 Bom 89 * (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 413 (413). (Allegation in the plaint that requirements as to notice, not denied—Notice admitted.)

[2] A judgment may be based on defendant's admissions in his pleadings. (1938) 1938 Oudh WN 1080 (1083).

[3] The traversal of statement in plaint is enough to put the plaintiff to the proof of it. (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 579 (579).

[4] Statements on certain point by plaintiff and defendant agreeing — That much part of plaintiff's claim should be deemed to be admitted. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 203 (205).

[5] Allegations in plaint not traversed in written statement cannot be denied afterwards. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 927 (927) : 42 Mad 315.

6. (1) Where in a suit for the recovery of money the defendant claims to set off against the plaintiff's demand any ascertained sum of money⁸ legally recoverable⁹ by him from the plaintiff, not exceeding the pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of the Court,¹¹ and both parties fill the same character¹⁰ as they fill in the plaintiff's suit, the defendant may, at the first hearing of the suit, but not afterwards unless permitted by the Court, present a written statement containing the particulars of the debt sought to be set-off.

(2) The written statement shall have the same effect as a plaint in a cross-suit so as to enable the Court to pronounce a final judgment in respect both of the original claim and of the set-off: but this shall not affect the lien, upon the amount decreed, of any pleader in respect of the costs payable to him under the decree.

(3) The rules relating to a written statement by a defendant apply to a written statement in answer to a claim of set-off.

O. 8 R. 5 (contd.)

[6] Defendants' statement that they do not admit plaintiff's allegation as to the date of a certain event is not evasive denial or admission notwithstanding that defendants do not give their own date for the event. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 838 (839).

[7] Recital in the statement that a certain allegation in the plaint is not admitted cannot be deemed to be an admission but amounts to a denial by implication. (Vol 20) 1933 All 521 (522): 55 All 700*(Vol 11) 1924 All 180 (182): 46 All 55.

[8] Fact explicitly relied on in the plaint—General denial in written statement is not enough. (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 114 (115).

[9] "Not known" does not amount to "not admitted." (Vol 18) 1931 All 423 (424).

[10] Failure to deny does not necessarily amount to admission. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 409 (410)*(Vol 1) 1914 Cal 842 (842).

[11] Statement in plaint that A had founded thakurbaris and had installed idols therein—Statement not challenged in written statement—Court can find that A was first founder shebait. (Vol 33) 1946 Pat 347 (351).

[12] Where execution of a pronote is denied but not the consideration, the question of consideration cannot be gone into. (1910) 5 Low Bur Rul 192.

[13] Mere denial of knowledge of mortgage amounts to admission of mortgage by implication. (Vol 21) 1934 Rang 278 (280).

[14] There is not a denial by necessary implication of statements in plaint when the language which can be looked to to find that denial is a statement which is in itself so inconsistent as not to be capable of admitting or denying anything. (Vol 27) 1940 Rang 190 (191): 41 Cri L Jour 899.

[15] Contention that allegation needs no reply is no denial by necessary implication. (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 49 (50): 1941 Rang L R 101.

[16] Defendant admitting to have executed bond for certain amount on certain date and admitting to have agreed to pay it on certain date—Case does not fall under this rule. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 95 (96).

[17] In suit for contribution of mesne profits plea of plaintiff's exclusive possession must be specifically pleaded. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 863 (865).

[18] Omission to deny allegation of title in plaint by defendant does not amount to constructive admission warranting decision in plaintiff's favour. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 178 (179).

[See (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 614 (614)].

3. "Except as against a person under disability."

—[1] Scope of the rule is only this, that the omission to deny an allegation of fact in the plaint is not to be taken as an admission in the case of minor defendants and the rule has nothing to do with the conduct of the suit afterwards. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 698 (698).

4. Court may require the facts so admitted to be proved.—[1] Pleadings in mofussil are not given strict construction. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 402 (402, 403).

[2] Court requiring proof must state points to be proved in the form of issues. (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 83 (84).

[3] Admission of execution of mortgage in pleadings—Court can still frame issue to see whether document is validly attested. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 469 (470).

[4] Fact admitted by defendant's muktakar may be required to be proved. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 744 (744).

[5] Appellate Court can decide point in issue in spite of failure of denial of specific points. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 842 (843).

[6] Appellate Court requiring clearer proof of attestation under S. 58, or O. 8, R. 5—Court must give opportunity to prove. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 717 (718).

[7] Discretion under the rule to be exercised when the Court suspects that the admission is made collusively or to avoid a rule of public policy. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 588 (589).

5. Rule does not apply where no statement is filed.—[1] Rule 8 does not apply to a case where the defendant had not put in a written statement. 14. Solicitor's lien for costs.
15. Suit for recovery of money.
16. Winding up proceedings.

Illustrations.

(a) A bequeaths Rs. 2,000 to B and appoints C his executor and residuary legatee. B dies and D takes out administration to B's effects. C pays Rs. 1,000 as surety for D; then D sues C for the legacy. C cannot set off the debt of Rs. 1,000 against the legacy, for neither C nor D fills the same character with respect to the legacy as they fill with respect to the payment of the Rs. 1,000.

(b) A dies intestate and in debt to B. C takes out administration to A's effects and B buys part of the effects from C. In a suit for the purchase-money by C against B, the latter cannot set off the debt against the price, for C fills two different characters, one as the vendor to B, in which he sues B, and the other as representative to A.

(c) A sues B on a bill of exchange. B alleges that A has wrongfully neglected to insure B's goods and is liable to him in compensation which he claims to set off. The amount not being ascertained cannot be set off.

(d) A sues B on a bill of exchange for Rs. 500. B holds a judgment against A for Rs. 1,000. The two claims being both definite pecuniary demands may be set off.

(e) A sues B for compensation on account of trespass. B holds a promissory note for Rs. 1,000 from A and claims to set off that amount against any sum that A may recover in the suit. B may do so, for, as soon as A recovers, both sums are definite pecuniary demands.

(f) A and B sue C for Rs. 1,000. C cannot set off a debt due to him by A alone.

(g) A sues B and C for Rs. 1,000. B cannot set off a debt due to him alone by A.

(h) A owes the partnership firm of B and C Rs. 1,000. B dies, leaving C surviving. A sues C for a debt of Rs. 1,500 due in his separate character. C may set off the debt of Rs. 1,000.

Provincial AmendmentPATNA

Add the following words to sub-rule (1) :

"and the provisions of O. 7, Rr. 14 to 18 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to a defendant claiming set-off as if he were a plaintiff".

O. 8, R. 6 (contd.)

1. Appeal.—[1] The valuation of a claim of set-off is the amount claimed by the defendant and an appeal relating to a claim of set-off will lie to the High Court where it exceeds Rs. 5000. (1888) 10 All 587 (594).

2. Applicability and scope. — [1] There are two kinds of set-off, (1) statutory and (2) equitable — Statutory set-off can be claimed as of right under O. 8, R. 6 — But this provision of law does not take away any rights of equitable set-off which parties can claim independently. (1910) 1910 Pun L R No. 145, p. 895 : 1910 Pun Re No. 77.

[2] Order 8, R. 6 is not exhaustive—Equitable set-off can be pleaded. (Vol 30) 1943 Pat 152 (159) : 22 Pat 5.

[3] Set-off under this rule has a wider meaning than English set-off but not as wide as counter-claim. (Vol 21) 1934 All 543 (546, 547) : 56 All 912.

[4] The principles upon which the Court would proceed under O. 21, Rr. 18 and 19 are substantially the same as under this rule. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 23 (24) : 57 Cal 855.

[5] Set-off is available to defendant only. (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 559 (560) : I L R (1942) 2 Cal 485 (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 258 (262).

[6] Plea of set-off cannot be raised without filing a written statement. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 242 (243).

[7] Where the defendant does not specifically plead a set-off in his written statement, the Court must decline to allow the same to be set up subsequently. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 431 (432).

[See however (1910) 32 All 525 (527). (Suit by principal against agent for accounts — Defendant need not plead a set-off.)]

[8] Plea of satisfaction is not a plea of set-off. (Vol 14) 1927 Nag 120 (120) (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 22 (25) : 2 Rang 349.

[9] Plaintiff's claim denied—Set-off is not merely defence to plaintiff's claim — Decree may be granted to defendant though plaintiff's suit is dismissed. (Vol 21) 1934 All 543 (546) : 56 All 912.

[10] Suit on subject-matter of set-off not entertainable by Court trying suit on grounds of jurisdiction —

Set-off can be entertained. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 617 (618).

[11] Defendant having first repudiated plaintiff's claim and stated in the statement that he would make a separate counter-claim is not estopped from claiming a set-off in the same suit. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 228 (229).

[12] Defendant's claim under this rule must be treated as a plaint and a decree must be granted. (Vol 21) 1934 All 543 (545) : 56 All 912.

[13] Order 20, R. 19 lays down the form in which a decree in a suit in which set-off is allowed should be drawn up. (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 261 (265) : 1917 Pun Re No. 62.

[14] Set-off not claimed in the suit cannot be claimed in the execution proceedings. (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 430 (435) : 27 Oudh Cas 248.

[15] In the case of a legal set-off the Court has no option to refuse to adjudicate upon the plea when raised. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 142 (143).

3. Ascertained sum of money. — [1] The words 'ascertained sum' mean a sum of money of which the amount is fixed and known admitted sum—It does not necessarily mean a sum admitted by the other side or decreed by the Court. (1910) 14 Cal W N 170 (173). (Ascertained sum is not only admitted sum.) (Vol 11) 1924 All 872 (873) : 46 All 922. (Sum can be "ascertained sum" though neither admitted by plaintiff nor decreed by Court.) (Vol 20) 1933 Rang 13 (14). (Counter-claim for sum by way of set-off not admitted is yet claim for ascertained sum.)

[2] Set-off can be successfully pleaded, even if no money is found due to the plaintiff. (1910) 7 All L Jour 105 (108, 109).

[3] The following have been held to be claims for ascertained sum :

(a) Orders awarding costs to both parties. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 454 (454, 455) (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 259 (260).

(b) Suit for rent — Defendant can claim set-off in respect of payments made on plaintiff's behalf qua property which he holds under law. (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 167 (168, 169).

(c) Rent suit—Defendant can claim set-off in respect of road cess paid erroneously by him. (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 180 (181, 182) : 18 Pat 723.

(e) Claim of a definite balance shown in account books. (Vol 11) 1924 All 872 (873) : 46 All 922.

[4] The following have been held to be not claims for ascertained sums:

(a) Unliquidated damages and mesne profits. (Vol 18) 1931 Nag 12 (13)* (Vol 16) 1929 All 52 (52). (Damages ascertainable only after protracted inquiry.) * (Vol 4) 1917 All 176 (176) : 39 All 362. (Unascertained damages.)

(b) Claim for accounts. (Vol 11) 1924 All 872 (873) : 46 All 922.

(c) Preliminary decree for sale directing account to be taken of what is due to mortgagee. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 23 (24) : 57 Cal 855.

(d) Interest on certain items at a rate fixed by the defendant and not admitted by the plaintiff. (1912) 1912 Pun L R No. 80, p. 254.

(e) Suit by tenants for mesne profits for period during which landlord was in wrongful possession—Rents due from tenants prior to landlord's wrongful possession cannot be set off. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 314 (314, 315).

(f) Claim depending upon taking accounts. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 819 (820, 821) : 42 Mad 873 * (Vol 27) 1940 Nag 177 (177) : ILR (1941) Nag 753* (Vol 6) 1919 Sind 88 (89) : 12 Sind L R 70.

(g) Suit for rent — Claim by defendant tenant for damages for dispossession. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 106 (107).

4. Counter-claim.—[1] A set-off and a counter-claim are essentially different. In one sense both are cross-actions but a set-off is also a ground of defence. If established it affords an answer to the plaintiff's claim either wholly or pro tanto for a set-off is really a debt claimed by a defendant against the plaintiff. A counter-claim, on the other hand, is really a weapon of offence and enables a defendant to enforce a claim against the plaintiff as effectually as in an independent action. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 617 (618).

[2] Order 8 makes no provision for counter-claims—It merely provides for set-off in suits for recovery of money. (Vol 9) 1922 Cal 1 (1).

[3] Counter-claim is allowed to be pleaded by the defendant at his option subject to certain rules in order to avoid multiplicity of proceedings between the parties. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 617 (618).

[5] Court can treat the counter-claim as a plaint in a cross-suit and hear the two together if the counter-claim is properly stamped. (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 277 (278, 279)* (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 27 (28) : 59 Cal 833* (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 116 (117). (Defendant failing to pay court-fee on counter-claim in trial Court — Filing of stamp paper in Appellate Court will not validate counter-claim—Separate suit must be filed on counter-claim.)* (Vol 21) 1934 Rang 160 (161). (Withdrawal of suit by plaintiff—Counter-claim can be proceeded with as suit.)* (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 346 (346) : 2 Rang 276.

[6] Counter-claim by person, not a defendant, is bad. (Vol 6) 1919 P C 129 (132) (PC).

[7] If a counter-claim is triable by the Court of Small Causes it cannot be agitated in the regular Court in which the suit is instituted. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 258 (261).

5. Court-fee. — [1] The word 'set-off' in Art. 1, Sch. I, Court-fees Act, includes also an equitable set-off and as such court-fee is payable on such set-off. (Vol 23) 1936 Nag 290 (291) : I L R (1937) Nag 481 * (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 203 (204).

[2] A plea of set-off cannot be entertained until the court-fee with respect to it has been paid by the defendant. (1912) 15 Ind Cas 526 (528) (Oudh)* (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 106 (107). (Failure to pay court-fee on counter-claim — Defendant is not entitled to any relief.)

[But see (Vol 26) 1939 Bom 386 (388). (Mere omission of defendant to pay court-fee does not affect his claim to set-off.)]

[3] In a partnership case a defendant may get a decree for whatever is found due to him without being called upon to pay the court-fee on what he alleges himself entitled to. (1911) 1911 Pun L R No. 163, p. 604.

[4] Court-fee is payable only on amount claimed in excess of that claimed by the plaintiff and if defendant wants a decree for that excess. (Vol 14) 1927 Nag 74 (75).

[5] Payment of further court-fee after decision is not permissible—Defendant claiming Rs. 325 as set-off but paying court-fee only on Rs. 50—Set-off to the extent of Rs. 50 only can be allowed. (Vol 30) 1943 Nag 314 (314, 315) : I L R (1944) Nag 260.

[6] Equitable set-off — Claim for damages by defendant—Plaintiff's claim and damages arising out of same contract—No separate court-fee is necessary. (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 73 (75).

6. Effect of not claiming set-off. — [1] Defendant who pleads set-off is bound by O. 2, R. 2 and must claim entire amount due — He cannot claim set-off in respect of portion only and subsequently sue for the balance. (Vol 29) 1942 Mad 580 (580, 581) : ILR (1942) Mad 886.

[But see (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 531 (532). (Suit upon mortgage — Mortgagor not counter-claiming amounts due from mortgagee—Later suit in respect of it is barred.)]

7. Equitable set-off. [1] The provisions of O. 8 R 6 which relate to a legal set-off and require that an ascertained sum of money should be legally recoverable by the defendant from the plaintiff do not apply to an equitable set-off. (Vol 32) 1945 Oudh 229 (230):20 Luck 245*(Vol 4) 1917 Lah 261 (264):1917 Pun Re No. 62.

[2] In cases of mutual debits and credits and in cases where cross demands arise out of the same transaction or are so connected in their nature and circumstances as to make it inequitable that plaintiff should recover and defendant driven to cross-suit, Courts of Equity allow a plea of set-off even though the amount may be unascertained. This set-off is known as equitable set-off and can be allowed apart from the provisions of O. 8 R. 6. (Vol 30) 1943 Oudh 17 (20):18 Luck 327 (Claim for damages.)* (Vol 17) 1930 All 875 (876) (Equitable set-off can be claimed independently of specific provisions of O. 8 R 6.)* (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 358 (359)* (Vol 10) 1923

Bom 113 (118)* (Vol 1) 1914 Lah 363 (365):1914 Pun Re No 82.

[3] Equitable set-off can be claimed only if cross demands arise out of same transaction. (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 155 (156)* (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 24 (25):47 Bom 182* (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 649 (650)* (1904) 8 Cal W N 174 (177)* (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 830 (831). [4] Equitable set-off was allowed in the following cases:

(a) If a washerman loses some of the articles given to him for washing his employer can equitably set-off the price of those articles when paying wages. (1910) 1910 Pun L R No. 145, p. 395: 1910 Pun Re No. 77.

(b) Servant is not deprived of entire wages earned by subsequent default—Master is entitled to claim damages by way of equitable set-off. (Vol 2) 1915 Low Bur 119 (119).

(c) Timber supplied by tenant—Agreement to deduct costs from rent brings the matter within same transaction in suit for arrears of rent. (Vol 21) 1934 All 115 (117).

(d) Where the defendant suffered loss due to plaintiff's negligence in not sticking to defendant's instructions the Court may recognise defendant's right to equitably set off the loss against plaintiff's claim. (1905) 27 All 145 (148).

(e) Suit for accounts by principal against agent's surety—Surety can claim set-off for arrears of pay due to agent. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 164 (165, 166).

(f) Cross-debts due to garnishee can be set off and equity arising from cross-debt can be set up without paying court-fee. (Vol 1) 1914 Bom 299 (299).

(g) Suit for accounts of joint family money-lending business—Defendants entitled to receive certain sum from plaintiff—Doctrine of equitable set-off was applied. (Vol 1) 1914 P C 153 (153, 155):17 Oudh Cas 85 (P C).

(h) Plaintiff who promised to supply 700 or 800 tons, supplied only 469 tons of coal and sued the defendant for the price. The defendants can claim set-off from the price, the damages for the breach of contract caused by not supplying the full stock promised. (1910) 37 Cal 334 (336, 337, 338).

(i) A's guardian during his minority mortgaging certain property to B and subsequently selling same to him along with other properties—In 1928 A becoming major and suing B to set aside sale—Suit decreed and A awarded mesne profits—Suit by B against A to enforce mortgage in 1936—A held could set off amount of mesne profits decreed to him in previous suit against B's claim. (Vol 29) 1942 Pat 247 (250).

(j) Suit for arrears of rent on basis of leases—Set-off arising under lease, though inadmissible under O. 8, R. 6, can be claimed. (Vol 23) 1936 All 522 (523).

[5] A claim to equitable set-off will not be available where it does not arise out of the same transaction and relates to a different transaction. (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 808 (809) (Step-mother suing on partnership agreement for maintenance allowance—Step-son claiming his share of sale proceeds of her deceased husband's property sold by her—No set-off can be claimed.) * (Vol 13) 1926 Oudh 301 (302). (Vendor cannot claim mesne profits in suit for refund of sale consideration by vendee against vendor on dispossession by vendor's relatives.)* (Vol 25) 1938 Pat 484 (485) (A purchasing property from B and again mortgaging it to him. In suit by third party it was established that B had only eight annas interest in property sold to A—Suit by B against A on his mortgage—A claiming reduction of his liability on ground that he had purchased only half of the property—Sale and mortgage being separate transactions B's claim held could not be reduced and being unliquidated was not allowable under O. 8, R. 6.]

[6] The equity of set-off may arise even where transactions are distinct if the one party has given credit to the other on the faith of goods deposited by the other party with him. (1912) 6 Sind L R 138 (139, 140).

[7] A set-off may be created by agreement and on this ground a claim may be set off which could not be allowed under the statutory law. Set-off on basis of an agreement cannot be allowed beyond the terms of an agreement. (Vol 30) 1943 Pat 152 (159):22 Pat 5.

8. Insolvency proceedings. — [1] This rule does not apply to matters arising in insolvency. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 266 (268).

[2] Section 47, Presidency Towns Insolvency Act, and S. 46, Provincial Insolvency Act, provide for set-off in case of mutual dealings between an insolvent and his creditors. There can be no set-off unless there are mutual dealings. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 266 (268). (Company owing money to surety in separate transaction—Money payable to company by surety as surety—Dealing held mutual and set off allowed.)

[3] Mutual credits which can be set-off include credits having a natural tendency to terminate in debts and not only those which must necessarily terminate in debts. (1910) 33 Mad 53 (54).

9. "Legally recoverable." — [1] Specified sums are not necessarily "ascertained sums of moneys legally recoverable" within O. 8, R. 6. (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 225 (228): 21 Sind L R 385.

[2] The following are held to be not "legally recoverable":

(a) Where the claim is based upon a document not receivable in evidence. (1870) 13 Suth W R 307 (309).

(b) Where the claim is based upon a decree incapable of execution. (1871) 16 Suth W R 308 (309, 310).

(c) Where the claim is barred by res judicata. (1871) 15 Suth W R 252 (252).

(d) Where plaintiff is not liable to the defendant in respect of the claim. (Vol 28) 1941 Cal 308 (310).

(e) Where the plaintiff is not bound by law to pay the claim. (1892) 15 Mad 29 (34).

[3] A barred debt is not legally recoverable and therefore in order to enable a defendant to claim a set-off under this rule the sum due to him must not have been time-barred on the date of the suit. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 258 (262)* (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 67 (68): 48 Cal 817* (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 916 (917). (Claim barred at date of filing written statement cannot be allowed to be set off.) * (1930) 31 Pun L R 107 (109)* (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 688 (688)* (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 819 (821): 42 Mad 873* (Vol 26) 1939 Pat 567 (567)* (Vol 26) 1939 Pat 142 (143, 144)* (Vol 23) 1936 Pesh 57 (60, 61).

[4] A claim which is barred by limitation according to the law of the place where the suit is brought but is subsisting according to the lex loci contractus is a legally recoverable claim. (1913) 35 All 238 (239, 240).

[5] In cases of equitable set-off where there is a fiduciary relationship as of trustee and cestui que trust or where there is accountability as between plaintiff and defendant, even barred debts can be set off. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 720 (725, 726): 39 Mad 365. (Trustee and cestui que trust.)* (1936) 164 Ind Cas 530 (532) (Cal). debt.) (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 649 (650) (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 633 (634).

[6] In a suit for rent by lessor the lessee cannot plead by way of equitable set-off an unliquidated claim for damages for wrongful obstruction to quiet enjoyment which was barred. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 258 (259) : 39 Mad 939.

[7] Ascertained sum barred by limitation — No equitable set-off can be claimed. (Vol 23) 1936 Nag 290 (290) : I L R (1937) Nag 481.

[8] The assignee of benefited ticket-holder can claim set-off against the assignee of stake-holder of a Malabar Chit Fund in a suit by latter against former. Such a set-off is admissible under S. 132, Transfer Property Act. (1912) 1912 Mad W N 1235 (1236, 1237).

[9] Plea of set-off — Money found due to defendant in excess of that due to plaintiff — Limitation in regard to recovery of balance must be determined with reference to date of written statement and not date of plaint — Court cannot pass decree for balance if defendant's claim is barred on date of written statement. (Vol 21) 1934 All 427 (428); 56 All 821 (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 445 (447).

10. Parties must fill the same character. —

[1] In order to entitle a defendant to plead a set-off it is necessary that the parties should fill the same character as they fill in the plaintiff's suit. (Vol 3) 1916 Bom 139 (140) : 41 Bom 163. (Plaintiff's claim for goods supplied—Set-off for wages can be allowed.) (Vol 1) 1914 Bom 238 (238, 239) : 39 Bom 131. (Plaintiff's claim as inamdar—Defendant's as pujari—No set-off.) 11. Pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of the Court. [1] For purposes of jurisdiction, the valuation of the entire sum claimed, and not the difference between the plaintiff's claim and the defendant's claim, is to be taken into account. (1893) 20 Cal 527 (532) (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 22 (25) : 2 Rang 349.

[2] Bengal Patni Regulation (8 [VIII] of 1819), S. 13 (3) and (4)—The darpatnidar made a deposit to save the patni from sale for arrears of rent and on the specific representation that the rent due from him had been paid in full and the deposit was made from private funds, took possession of the patni taluk. In the rent suit by the patnidar against the darpatnidar who was still in possession of the patni taluk it was found that the darpatnidar at the time of making the deposit was in arrears in respect of a portion of the rent : Held that the darpatnidar could not set off the amount of deposit against the claim for rent. (1913) 17 Cal L Jour 96 (101).

13. Separate and joint debts.—[1] Debt sought to be set off due jointly to defendant and another not party to suit—It cannot be pleaded by way of set off for defendant could not have sued plaintiff without making the other person party to suit. (1910) 14 Cal W N 786 (788).

14. Solicitor's lien for costs. — [1] Solicitor has lien over property recovered or proceeds of judgment obtained for client by his exertions—Bona fide compromise between parties—Court will not interfere for preserving solicitor's lien—But if it is collusive Court will interfere. (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 168 (172, 173) : 61 Cal 1005.

[2] Costs ordered to be paid by petitioning creditor to debtor when an adjudication in bankruptcy is set aside cannot be set off to the prejudice of the solicitor's lien against the debts due to the petitioning creditor. (Vol 17) 1930 Bom 516 (517) : 55 Bom 377.

[3] Costs allowed to plaintiff at preliminary stage—Ultimately larger sum found due from plaintiff—Solicitor's lien on costs cannot prevail. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 619 (622).

15. Suit for recovery of money.—[1] Suit on mortgage for payment of money and in default thereof for sale of the mortgaged property is a suit for recovery of money within the meaning of this rule. (Vol 20) 1933 Rang 13 (14).

[2] Set-off can be claimed in a suit on a negotiable instrument. (Vol 18) 1931 Nag 12 (13).

[3] A suit merely for the dissolution of partnership or for account is not a suit for money, but if there is also a prayer for the payment of such balance as might be found due to the plaintiff, the suit would be one for the payment of money. (1888) 10 All 587 (593).

16. Winding up proceedings. — [1] Where A is debtor to a company and B is surety for A and the company proceeds against them for the debt, each of them can claim to set off a debt due to him by the company, their liability being joint and several. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 266 (268).

[2] A liquidator in winding-up proceedings can set off even time-barred debts due to the company against the claims made against the company by the debtors, the reason being that this rule does not apply to set off in liquidation proceedings. (Vol 28) 1941 All 278 (279) : I L R (1941) All 415.

Defence or set-off founded on separate grounds.

7. Where the defendant relies upon several distinct grounds of defence or set-off founded upon separate and distinct facts, they shall be stated, as far as may be, separately and distinctly.

[R. S. C., O. 20 R. 7; See O. 7 R. 8.]

8. Any ground of defence which has arisen after the institution of the suit or the presentation of a written statement claiming a set-off may be raised by the defendant or plaintiff, as the case may be, in his written statement.

[R. S. C., O. 24 Rr. 1 and 2; See R. 9.]

9. No pleading subsequent to the written statement of a defendant other than by way of defence to a set-off shall be presented except by the leave of the Court and upon such terms as the Court thinks fit, but the Court may at any time require a written statement or additional written statement from any of the parties and fix a time for presenting the same.

Provincial Amendments

Rules 11 and 12—ALLAHABAD

Add the following Rules :

"11. Every party, whether original, added or substituted, who appears in any suit or other proceeding shall on or before the date fixed in the summons or notice served on him as the date of hearing file in Court a proceeding stating his address for service, written in English in block letters, and if he fails to do so he shall be liable to have his defence, if any, struck out and to be placed in the same position as if he had not defended. In this respect the Court may act suo motu or on the application of any party for an order to such effect, and the Court may make such order as it thinks just.

12. Rules 20, 22, 23, 24 and 25 of Order 7 shall apply, so far as may be, to addresses for service filed under the preceding rule."

Rules 11 and 12—BOMBAY

The following shall be added as Rules 11 and 12 :

"11. Every party, whether original, added or substituted, who appears in any suit or other proceeding shall on or before the date fixed in the summons or notice served on him as the date of hearing; file in Court, a memorandum in writing stating his address for service, and if he fails to do so, he shall be liable to have his defence, if any, struck out and to be placed in the same position as if he had not defended. In this respect the Court may act suo motu or on the application of any party for an order to such effect, and the Court may make such order as it thinks fit :

[1] Court's permission is necessary for filing pleadings in reply to defendant's written statement. (Vol 12) 1925 Bom 390 (392, 396).

[2] In suit for partition against coparceners and numerous transferees, their alleged titles were not mentioned nor was any relief with respect to them claimed—Defect was noticed late—Application for amendment was rejected and plaint also—It was held that amendment should have been allowed. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 984 (986).

[3] Where in a suit on guarantee, no plea was taken that there was any misrepresentation in obtaining the guarantee and no issue was framed but such misrepresentation was sought to be proved by defendant in evidence which was accepted by the two lower Courts, held, that the finding was unsustainable. The proper course was to have the written statement amended and to frame an issue and allow the defendant to adduce evidence. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 471 (471).

[4] Minor defendant is not entitled on attaining majority to put in additional written statement without leave of Court. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 117 (117)* (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 625 (626).

[5] Where more than a year after the settling of issues in a suit, when the case was completely ready for hearing, defendant applied to file a fresh written statement raising a completely new point, the Court would exercise a proper discretion in refusing to allow it. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 230 (233).

Order 8 Rule 10 — Note 1

[1] Rule 10 applies to default under R. 9 and not under R. 1 — Court has no jurisdiction to pronounce judgment under this rule against the defendant who has failed to file his written statement. (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 299 (300) : I L R (1945) Mad 866. (View of Seshagiri Iyer J. in (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1163 approved.)*(Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1163 (1164). (Per Seshagiri Iyer J.; *Ayling J. [2] Rule applies only if there is specific requirement by Court for written statement and not merely general direction in summons. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 567 (568).

[3] Held, dismissal under O. 8, R. 10 was not justified except in cases of written statements and set-off. (Vol 16) 1929 Bom 413 (413).

[4] Order requiring written statement must be unconditional—Order permitting written pleas to be filed, if any, is not absolute — Passing decree in such a case justifies interference under S. 115. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 1007 (1008).

[5] A defendant did not file his written statement on the date on which he was ordered to file it. The Munsif

Provided that this rule shall not apply to a defendant who has not filed a written statement but who is examined by the Court under Section 7 of the Dekkhan Agriculturists' Relief Act, 1879, or otherwise, or in any case where the Court permits the address for service to be given by a party on a date later than that specified in this rule.

Applicability of Br. 20 and 22-26 of O. 7 to addresses for service.

12. Rules 20, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26 of Order 7 shall apply, so far as may be, to addresses for service filed under the last preceding rule." [15-10-1930.]

Rules 11 and 12—LAHORE

Add the following Rules :

"11. Every party, whether original, added or substituted, who appears in any suit or other proceeding shall on or before the date fixed in the summons, notice or other process served on him as the date of hearing, file in Court a proceeding stating his address for service, and, if he fails to do so, he shall be liable to have his defence, if any, struck out and to be placed in the same position as if he had not defended. In this respect the Court may act suo motu or on the application of any party for an order to such effect and the Court may make such order as it thinks just.

12. Rules 20, 22, 23, 24 and 25 of Order 7 shall apply, so far as may be, to addresses for service filed under the preceding rule." [24-11-1927.]

Add the following as Rules 11 to 13 :

"11. Every defendant in a suit or opposite party in any proceedings, shall, on the first day of his appearance in Court, file a memorandum giving an address for service on him of any subsequent process. The address shall be within the local limits of the Civil District in which the suit or petition is filed or, if an address within the local limits of such Civil District cannot conveniently be given, within the local limits of the Civil District in which the party ordinarily resides. This address shall be called the "registered address" and it shall hold good throughout interlocutory proceedings and appeals and also for a further period of two years from the date of final decision and for all purposes including those of execution.

12. (1) If the defendant or the opposite party fails to file a registered address as required by Rule 11, he shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to have his defence struck out and to be placed in the same position as if he had made no defence.

An order under this rule may be passed by the Court suo motu or on the application of any party.

(2) Where the Court has struck out the defence under sub-r. (1) and has adjourned the hearing of the suit or the proceeding and where the defendant or the opposite party at or before such hearing appears and assigns sufficient cause for his failure to file the registered address he may upon such terms as the Court directs as to costs or otherwise be heard in answer to the suit or the proceeding as if the defence had not been struck out.

(3) Where the Court has struck out the defence under sub-r. (1) and has consequently passed a decree or order, the defendant or the opposite party, as the case may be, may apply to the Court by which the decree or order was passed for an order to set aside the decree or order; and if he files a registered address and satisfies the Court that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from filing the address, the Court shall make an order setting aside the decree or order as against him upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit or proceeding :

Provided that where the decree is of such a nature that it cannot be set aside as against such defendant or opposite party only it may be set aside as against all or any of the other defendants or opposite parties.

13. Rules 20, 22 and 23 of Order 7 shall apply, so far as may be, to addresses for service filed under Rule 11." [29-6-1943.]

Rules 11 and 12—N.-W.F.P.

Add the following Rules :

"11. Every party, whether original, added or substituted, who intends to appear and defend any suit or original petition shall, on or before the date fixed in the summons or notice served on him as the date of hearing, file in Court a proceeding stating his address for service, and if he fails to do so, he shall be liable to have his defence, if any, struck out and be placed in the same position as if he had not defended. In this respect the Court may act suo motu or on the application of any party for an order to such effect, and the Court may make such order as it thinks just.

12. Rules 20 and 22 of Order 7 shall apply, so far as may be, to addresses for service, filed under the preceding rule."

Rules 11 to 13—OUDH

Add the following Rules :

"11. Every defendant in a suit or opposite party in any proceeding shall, on the first day of his appearance in Court, file an address (to be called the "registered address") for service on him of any subsequent notice,

[1] Rule applies to corporations also. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 459 (460).

[2] Striking off defence for default is discretionary. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 459 (460).

[3] Provisions of R. 11 not complied with—No harm caused due to non-filing of address — Case going on normally — Address subsequently filed accepted as sufficient — Defence cannot be struck out — No ex parte decree can be passed. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 791 (792).

summons or other process; and, if he fails to do so, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to have his defence, or reply, if any, struck out, and to be placed in the same position as if he had made no defence or reply.

An order under this rule may be passed by the Court, suo motu or on the application of any party.

12. Rules 21, 23 and 25 to 27 of O. 7 shall apply, so far as may be, to addresses for service filed under the preceding rule, and R. 24 shall, in the same manner, apply, but as if the words at the beginning, "In all cases to which R. 23 does not apply" were omitted.

13. Nothing in Rr. 11 and 12 shall apply to the notice prescribed by O. 21, R. 22."

Rules 11 and 12—PATNA

Add the following Rules :

"11. Every party, whether original, added or substituted, who appears in any suit or other proceedings shall, at the time of entering appearance to the summons, notice or other process served on him, file in Court a statement stating his address for service and if he fails to do so he shall be liable to have his defence, if any, struck out and to be placed in the same position as if he had not defended. In this respect the Court may act suo motu or on the application of any party for an order to such effect and the Court may make such order as it thinks just.

12. Rules 20 and 22 of O. 7 shall apply, so far as may be, to addresses for service filed under the preceding rule."

Rules 11 and 12—SIND

Add the following Rules :

"11. Parties to file address. — Every party whether original, added or substituted, who appears in any suit or other proceeding shall, on or before the date fixed in the summons or notice served on him, as the date of hearing, file in Court, a memorandum in writing stating his address for service and if he fails to do so he shall be liable to have his defence, if any, struck out and to be placed in the same position as if he had not defended. In this respect the Court may act suo motu or on the application of any party for an order to such effect, and the Court may make such order as it thinks just :

Provided that this rule shall not apply to a defendant who has filed a written statement, but who is examined by the Court under S. 7 of the Dekkhan Agriculturists' Relief Act, 1879, or otherwise.

12. Applicability of Rules 20 and 22-26 of Order 7 to addresses for service.—Rules 20, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26 of O. 7 shall apply, so far as may be, to addresses for service filed under the last preceding rule."

Note.—Order 7 Rule 26 is now deleted by the Sind Court.

ORDER IX

APPEARANCE OF PARTIES AND CONSEQUENCE OF NON-APPEARANCE.

Parties to appear on day fixed in summons for defendant to appear and answer. 1. On the day fixed in the summons for the defendant to appear and answer, the parties shall be in attendance at the court-house in person or by their respective pleaders, and the suit shall then be heard unless the hearing is adjourned to a future day fixed by the Court.

Dismissal of suit where summons not served in consequence of plaintiff's failure to pay costs.

2. Where on the day so fixed it is found that the summons has not been served upon the defendant in consequence of the failure of the plaintiff to pay the court-fee or postal charges (if any) chargeable for such service, the Court may make an order that the suit be dismissed :

Provided that no such order shall be made although the summons has not been served upon the defendant, if on the day fixed for him to appear and answer he attends in person or by agent when he is allowed to appear by agent.

Provincial Amendment

ALLAHABAD

After the words, "for such service" insert the words "or that the plaintiff has failed to comply with the rules for filing the copy of the plaint for service on the defendant".

O. 9 General (contd.)

[3] Order refusing restoration of an application for setting aside dismissal of suit for non-appearance dismissed for default is not appealable. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 612 (613) : 2 Pat L Jour 720.

3. Applicability of order to proceedings under local and special Acts.—[1] Application under S. 84, Madras Hindu Religious Endowments Act of 1927 dismissed for default—Application can be restored under this order. (Vol 24) 1937 Mad 653 (653).

[2] Order of annulment under the Provincial Insolvency Act cannot be set aside under O. 9. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 942 (942) : 49 Mad 935.

[But see (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 58 (59). (Provisions of O. 9 may perhaps be held to be applicable to insolvency proceedings.)]

Order 9 Rule 1 — Note 1

[1] For applicability of this rule to Arakan Hills see the Arakan Hills Civil Justice Regulation (VIII of 1874) and the Arakan Hill Tracts Laws Regulation, 1916 (1 [I] of 1916), Sch. 1.

ORDER 9 RULE 2 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope of the rule.
2. "Defendant."
3. Dismissal for failure to pay court-fee or postal charges.
4. Plaintiff's remedy after dismissal.
5. Appeal.
6. Revision.

1. Scope of the rule.—[1] Failure of plaintiff to furnish correct addresses of defendants or to accompany process-server does not justify dismissal under R. 2. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 170 (170) & (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 655 (655). (Order 9 R. 5 applies to such case.)

[2] The failure contemplated by O. 9, R. 2 includes not merely an entire omission to pay the requisite court-fee but also failure to pay the same within time which the Court fixes for payment. (1911) 7 Nag L R 114 (116) & (1935) 158 Ind Cas 250 (250) (Pesh). (Court should fix the time within which process fee ought to be deposited—Omission is a material irregularity.)

[3] Default to pay damages for omission to get summonses served is failure to pay costs within the meaning of this rule. (Vol 14) 1927 All 464 (464).

[4] Order of dismissal on failure to pay process-fees on an application for restoration of suit dismissed for default falls under R. 9 and not under this rule. (Vol 23) 1936 All 737 (738, 739).

[5] An application under O. 34, R. 5 can be dismissed under this rule by virtue of S. 141, for non-payment of process fees. (Vol 24) 1937 Sind 273 (278) : 31 Sind L R 180.

2. "Defendant."—[1] The word 'defendant' does not include the guardian ad litem of a minor and therefore the suit cannot be dismissed on the ground of non-payment of process fee for issuing notice to him. (1911) 1911 Pun L R No. 211, p. 813 (815) : 1912 Pun Re No. 85.

[2] Two defendants minor—Plaintiff failing to file affidavit of service of summons against guardians—Dismissal of suit is bad—Suit should have proceeded against major defendants. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 820 (821) & (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 502 (503). (One of the defendants not properly served through negligence of plaintiff—Suit cannot be dismissed against the defendants properly served.)

[3] Summons served on wrong person—Such person appearing and denying liability—The suit should be dismissed with costs. (1890) 4 Bom 619 (623).

3. Dismissal for failure to pay court-fee or postal charges.—[1] The Court must fix a time for payment of process fee. Unless it so fixes it cannot dismiss the suit. (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 298 (299).

[2] Reasonable time and opportunity should be allowed to comply with the order. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 244 (245). (Two days time for payment of process fees when the party is absent, is not a reasonable time.) & (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 582 (583). (Non-payment of process-fee for fresh summons with the application is no ground.)

[3] Ignorance of party's agent as to the Court where the fee should be deposited is no excuse for non-compliance. (1869) 11 Suth W R 417 (418).

[4] Where a new defendant is added and there is failure to pay process fee on the part of plaintiff, the failure will entail dismissal of whole suit even against the original defendant unless he waives his objection. (1868-69) 5 Bom H C R (A C) 118 (121).

[See however (1880) 2 All 318 (319). (Dismissal should be only against the particular defendant.) & (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 422 (422) : 11 Pat 430.]

[5] Process fee not paid but defendant applying for time to file his statement—Suit cannot be dismissed under R. 2. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 372 (373) & (1891) 15 Bom 160 (162, 163) & (1870) 4 Beng L R App 75 (76). (Defendant's appearance by his counsel before the time fixed in summons—Court can order the case to be included in the general cause list immediately.)

[6] Court cannot require process fees to be paid before fixing the date for defendant's appearance. Failure to comply with such an order is no ground for dismissing the suit. (Vol 26) 1939 Pat 160 (160).

[7] Process fees insufficient for service on all defendants—Court pointing out deficiency and fixing date for disposal of suit—On fixed date Court dismissing suit for default in paying deficiency in process fee — Dismissal held justified — Plaintiff if wishing to issue notice to some of defendants held ought to have specified names of those defendants. (Vol 28) 1941 Pat 402 (402, 403).

4. Plaintiff's remedy after dismissal. — [1] On dismissal of suit under O. 9 R. 2 the plaintiff can apply under R. 4 for setting aside the order or may bring fresh suit. (1883) 9 Cal 163 (166).

5. Appeal. — [1] Suit dismissed for default under O. 9 R. 2 — Dismissal is not decree and no appeal from it lies. (Vol 3) 1916 All 326 (326) : 38 All 357 & (1883) 9 Cal 627 (628).

6. Revision. — [1] Order by Court to pay both process fees and postal charges — O. 5 R. 10 as amended in the Punjab leaving option of service of summons by ordinary way or by registered post — Dismissal of suit for failure to pay postal charges — Order was held revisable. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 157 (158).

[2] Payment of process fee by the date fixed but insufficient time to get summons served — Suit dismissed for non-service of summons — Order is revisable. (Vol 9) 1922 Lah 63 (63).

[3] Order under Rr. 2 and 8 when conditions are not satisfied is without jurisdiction — Revision lies. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 372 (373).

[4] Dismissal of Small Cause suit under the rule — Revision lies under S. 25, Provincial Small Cause Courts Act. (Vol 19) 1932 Oudh 106 (107).

ORDER 9 RULE 3 — SYNOPSIS

1. Where neither party appears.
2. Appearance — See O. 9 R. 9 and O. 3, R. 1.
3. "When the suit is called on for hearing."
4. The Court may order that the suit be dismissed.

1. Where neither party appears. — [1] Dismissal under this rule is justified only when neither party appears. Where the plaintiff appears the suit cannot be dismissed. (Vol 5) 1918 All 333 (335) : 40 All 590. (One plaintiff present as the general attorney of all the other plaintiffs.)

[2] Authorised agent with witness present in Court — Dismissal for non-appearance of pleader is illegal. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 504 (507).

[3] Fresh summons ordered by Court not issued due to plaintiff's failure to file copies of amended plaint — Non-appearance of parties on the day fixed — Case is governed by this rule. (Vol 21) 1934 Pat 18 (18, 19).

[4] Mere presence of pleaders without instructions when both the parties are absent is not an appearance and the suit can be dismissed under this rule. (1911) 9 Ind Cas 842 (844) (Cal) & (Vol 25) 1938 Cal 547 (548). (Plaintiff's pleader reporting no instructions — Defendant absent — Order of dismissal is one under this rule.)

[5] Plaintiff and some defendants absent while some defendants were present — Suit dismissed — Dismissal against absent defendants is under this rule. (Vol 7) 1920 Bom 54 (55) : 44 Bom 767.

2. Appearance — See Order 9 R. 9 and O. 3, R. 1.

3. "When the suit is called on for hearing."

— [1] The hearing referred to is the first hearing after the issue of summons to defendant and not necessarily a hearing of evidence. (Vol 6) 1919 Sind 189 (191) & (1869) 4 Mad H C R 56 (59) & (Vol 31) 1944 Nag 335 (336) : 1 L R (1944) Nag 408. (Suit stayed under S. 10 — Next date fixed for calling of suit is not date fixed for hearing.) & (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 62 (62). (Date fixed for settlement of issues is date fixed for hearing.)

[2] Hearing of suit after settlement of issues — Absence of parties and pleaders — Suit should be dismissed under this rule unless the Judge for reasons recorded otherwise directs. (1910) 8 Mad L Tim 450 (450).

[3] Disposal of routine matters within the power of an officer of the Court is not hearing and default then cannot entail dismissal. (Vol 25) 1938 Rang 860 (362). (Date fixed for filing list of witnesses — Failure to appear on the date cannot entail dismissal.)

[4] Where the case was transferred from one Court to other but no notice of the transfer was given to the plaintiff and where the suit was dismissed for absence of parties, and the application by plaintiff under O. 9 R. 4 was dismissed, held the order was illegal and the case should be restored under O. 9 R. 4. (1936) 38 Pun L R 1118 (1118, 1119).

[5] If the parties have no notice that their case would be heard in camp, the case cannot be dismissed for default of appearance. (1913) 1913 Pun L R No. 165, p. 556 (556).

[6] Failure to turn upon the day fixed for the consideration of application for amendment of issues — The suit cannot be dismissed. (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 96 (97) : 6 Pat L Jour 33. (It can only dismiss the application for amendment.) & (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 237 (237, 238).

[See (Vol 14) 1927 Sind 228 (229). (Date fixed for hearing of application in the suit — Whole suit cannot be dismissed.)]

[7] A suit cannot be dismissed for default unless and until a date was fixed for the appearance of the defendant and the plaintiff did not appear on that date. (Vol 30) 1943 Pesh 51 (51) & (Vol 14) 1927 All 439 (440) : 49 All 592. (No date fixed for defendant's appearance — R. 3 does not apply.) & (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 656 (656) & (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 69 (70) & (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 320 (321) & (Vol 29) 1942 Pat 56 (57, 58). (Date fixed for plaintiff to prove service only.)

[8] Dismissal of suit for default on the day of judgment is improper. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 888 (888).

[9] Day fixed for hearing preliminary issue — Parties absent — Suit cannot be dismissed though objection may be rejected. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 830 (831) & (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 196 (197). (Failure to appear on day of re-hearing fixed because Court had no time.) & (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 381 (382). (Parties agreeing to accept decision according to decision in another suit — Failure of parties to appear on adjourned date — Suit should not be dismissed.)

[10] After the passing of a preliminary decree the suit should not be dismissed for default of appearance. (Vol 20) 1933 Oudh 229 (230) : 8 Lack 496. (Dismissal set aside under S. 151 after two and a half years.) & (Vol 14) 1927 All 439 (441) : 49 All 592. (Mortgage suit.) & (Vol 25) 1938 Pesh 27 (27). (Partition suit.)

[See also (Vol 21) 1934 Oudh 209 (210). (Application for final decree cannot be dismissed under this rule.)]

4. The Court may order that suit be dismissed.

— [1] The Court has discretion in the matter of dismissing a suit under this rule. (Vol 23) 1936 Pat 437 (438). (On facts it was held discretion was exercised with material irregularity.) & (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 234 (236) : 29 Nag L R 326. (Failure of parties to turn up on date posted for defendant's evidence without sufficient cause — Court should proceed under this rule.)

[2] The case cannot be struck off under this rule but can only be dismissed. (1887) 10 Mad 270 (271).

4. Where a suit is dismissed under rule 2 or rule 3, the plaintiff may (subject to the law of limitation) bring a fresh suit; or he may apply for an order to set the dismissal aside, and if he satisfies the Court that there was sufficient cause for his not paying the court-fee and postal charges (if any) required within the time fixed before the issue of the summons, or for his non-appearance, as the case may be, the Court shall make an order setting aside the dismissal and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

[3] Suit struck off at the request of parties on the ground that it was settled out of Court—Dismissal is not under this rule. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 495 (496).

[4] Case adjourned to await result of appeal — Date fixed for hearing — Parties absent on the date — Order of dismissal is one coming under this section—Order can be set aside only under R. 4 and not by review. (1909) 1909 Pun Re No. 33, page 96.

ORDER 9 RULE 4—SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.
2. “Sufficient cause”.
3. Applicability of rule to miscellaneous proceedings.
4. Notice to defendant.
5. Appeal.
6. Limitation.

1. Scope. — [1] The two remedies prescribed by O. 9 R. 4 are not mutually exclusive. When a suit is dismissed under O. 9, R. 2 or R. 3 a fresh suit may be brought even though no application for restoration has been made under O. 9, R. 4 or even after an application under that rule has been dismissed. (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 262 (262) : 13 Luck 108 * (Vol 16) 1929 All 131 (131) : 50 All 837. (Application to restore suit, dismissed — Fresh suit can still be brought.) * (Vol 13) 1926 All 678 (678) * (1878-80) 2 All 318 (320). (Suit dismissed not on merits but on default to pay process—Fresh suit not barred.) * (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 108 (108) * (1883) 9 Cal 163 (166). (Order passed under O. 9, R. 2 or R. 3 not on merits is no bar.) * (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 262 (262, 263) : 13 Luck 108. (Application under S. 4, U. P. Encumbered Estates Act, dismissed for default—Application for restoration also dismissed for default—Applicant held not barred from making second application under Encumbered Estates Act.) * (Vol 4) 1917 Oudh 62 (63) : 20 Oudh Cas 66 * (Vol 21) 1934 Pesh 13 (13). (Suit dismissed — Application to restore again dismissed for default — Second application to restore is competent.) * (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 31 (31) (Do.) * (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 9 (11) : 15 Pat 716 (Do.).

[But see (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 220 (221). (Plaintiff dying pending suit — Suit dismissed as parties were absent—Fresh suit by successor of plaintiff on the same cause of action is barred.)]

[2] Shebait is only the representative of the idol, the idol is the real plaintiff. Hence a new shebait can apply for restoration of a suit under O. 9, R. 4, which has been filed by other persons as shebait. (Vol 25) 1938 Cal 547 (548).

[3] Restoration of entire suit after dismissal for default and on application of one or more of several plaintiffs is not improper. (Vol 17) 1930 All 168 (169).

[4] Where a suit is re-admitted after dismissal for default, it is deemed as filed on the date of the presentation of plaint and not the date of re-admission. (1909) 1909 Pun Re No. 31, p. 91.

[5] Restoration to file of suit dismissed for default — All interlocutory matters whether pending in trial Court or appellate Court are also restored unless order of restoration expressly mentions anything against this view. (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 49 (51) : 57 Mad 308.

[6] The Court when setting aside the dismissal order has no jurisdiction to pass an order as to costs at the same time under this rule. (1902) 26 Bom 201 (202).

[7] The Court which can under R. 4 set aside an order dismissing a suit for default is the Court which passed the order of dismissal and where the dismissal is set aside by a Judge having no jurisdiction, all subsequent proceedings in the suit are ultra vires and the decree must consequently be set aside. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 418 (419).

[8] Under O. 9 status quo ante is only restored. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 814 (815).

2. “Sufficient cause”. — [1] If sufficient cause is shown Court must restore case to file. (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 39 (40) : 28 Nag L R 295 * (Vol 5) 1918 All 176 (176). (Dismissal for default for second time is no ground to refuse restoration.) * (1903) 26 Mad 599 (603). (When sufficient cause is shown the Court has no discretion in the matter.)

[2] In the following cases there was held to be “sufficient cause.” (Vol 3) 1916 All 326 (327). (Date of hearing of appeal postponed—Order not communicated to any of the parties—Appeal dismissed for default—Held there was a sufficient cause for restoration.) * (1867) 3 Bom H C R 60 (62). (“Bona fide” mistake on plaintiff’s part, mistake not being unreasonable.) * (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 163 (163). (Pleadings or parties not getting information of Appellate Court’s order to appear before lower Court on certain date is sufficient cause for parties’ absence on such date.) * (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 34 (34). (Plaintiff ill—Counsel late only by few minutes—Fresh suit barred—Case was restored.) * (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 176 (176). (Mistake as to date of hearing due to misunderstanding.) * (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 70 (70, 71). (Plaintiff’s absence on adjourned date unintentional—Plaintiff applying to restore on same date.) * (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 882 (882). (Plaintiff absent being in jail — Mukhtyar through bona fide mistake not appearing in right Court — But applying for restoration as soon as mistake came to his notice.) * (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 911 (912). (Plaintiff stating on oath that process fee was paid but apparently mislaid in Court.) * (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 634 (634). (The plaintiff came from a long distance to attend the Court but not having found the name of his case in the cause list went to another Court thinking that his case might be before another Court, and not finding it either there returned to the first Court and found that his case had been dismissed under O. 9, R. 3 — Case held should be re-

5. ^a[(1) Where, after a summons has been issued to the defendant, or to one of several defendants, and returned unserved,¹ the plaintiff fails, for a period of three months² from the date of the return made to the Court by the officer ordinarily certifying to the Court returns made by the serving officers, to apply for the issue of a fresh summons the Court shall make an order that the suit be dismissed as against such defendant, unless the plaintiff has within the said period satisfied the Court that —

- (a) he has failed after using his best endeavours to discover the residence of the defendant who has not been served, or
- (b) such defendant is avoiding service of process, or
- (c) there is any other sufficient cause for extending the time, in which case the Court may extend the time for making such application for such period as it thinks fit.]

(2) In such case the plaintiff may (subject to the law of limitation) bring a fresh suit.

[3] The application for restoration need not be accompanied by an affidavit. (1901) 8 Bom L R 130 (131).

[4] An appeal was filed against an order dismissing an execution application for default on the ground that the appellant had gone to call his pleader and learnt on his return that the application was dismissed. No affidavit from the pleader was filed: Held that in the absence of an affidavit from the pleader the appeal must be dismissed. It was the duty of the appellant to file an application in the lower Court either soon after the ex parte order under appeal was passed against him, or on the following day to set aside the order. (1918) 19 Pun L R No 64, p. 236 (237).

[5] The dismissal of suits without considering whether payment of costs will not meet situation so far as the opposite side, if any, is concerned must be deprecated. The Court itself should be anxious to see that litigants obtain justice without being hampered by rules of procedure, unless such are imperative or there is contumacious obstruction or deliberate delay with a view deliberately to lengthen proceedings. (Vol 26) 1939 Lah 592 (592).

[6] If the claim in the suit dismissed in the absence of both parties is a substantial one and would be barred by limitation, it is a case where the Judge ought to use his inherent power and restore the suit despite the absence of sufficient cause for plaintiff's non-appearance. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 274 (275).

[7] Inherent power to set aside dismissal of suit cannot be used where a party allows his remedy to be time-barred with his eyes open. (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 274 (275).

3. Applicability of rule to miscellaneous proceedings.—[1] Application for adjudication dismissed for default—Application for restoration dismissed without its merits being gone into — Second application for restoration within limitation can be entertained. (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 39 (40) : 28 Nag L R 295 (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 116 (117).

[2] Suit dismissed under R. 3—Plaintiff applying to restore suit — Suit restored and date fixed for hearing — Notice must as of right be issued to defendant of this date. (Vol 20) 1933 All 522 (522) : 55 All 684 (Vol 32) 1945 Nag 185 (185) : I L R (1945) Nag 312.

5. Appeal.—[1] An order under O. 9, R. 4, is not appealable. (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 593 (593) (Vol 5) 1918 All 176 (177). (Appeal cannot be indirectly allowed by treating appeal as revision.) (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 125 (125) (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 164 (164) (1887) 10 Mad 270 (271). (Order restoring suit—No appeal lies.) (1911) 9 Ind Cas 238 (238) (Lah).

6. Limitation. — [1] Suit dismissed under O. 9, R. 2—If fresh suit under R. 4 is brought, S. 14, Limitation Act, would not be applicable. (Vol 16) 1929 Nag 219 (221) : 25 Nag L R 99.

[2] Time to file application under R. 4 cannot be extended under S. 5, Limitation Act. (Vol 16) 1929 All 127 (128) : 51 All 487 (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 556 (557).

ORDER 9, RULE 5 — SYNOPSIS

1. "Returned unserved."
2. "Period of three months."
3. Fresh summons when granted.
4. Failure to take fresh summons does not discharge defendant from liability.
5. Applicability of rule to appeals.

1. "Returned unserved." — [1] Order 9, R. 5 applies only when summons had been returned as unserved. (1941) 22 Pat L Tim 950 (951).

[2] Rule 5 does not apply where plaintiff fails to appear—Non-service on opposite party is no ground for setting aside order of dismissal for default. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 112 (112).

[3] Court cannot dismiss suit simply because summonses are not served—It should proceed under O. 9, R. 5. (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 533 (535) (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 420 (421).

[4] Where a date was fixed not for the defendant to appear but for the plaintiff to prove service and the plaintiff fails to appear on that date, held, dismissal of Procedure when only plaintiff appears.

When summons duly served.

When summons not duly served.

6. (1) Where the plaintiff appears and the defendant does not appear when the suit is called on for hearing, then —
- (a) if it is proved that the summons was duly served, the Court may proceed ex parte ;
- (b) if it is not proved that the summons was duly served, the Court shall direct a second summons to be issued and served on the defendant ;
- (c) if it is proved that the summons was served on the defendant, but not in sufficient time to enable him to appear and answer on the day fixed in the summons, the Court shall postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day to be fixed by the Court, and shall direct notice of such day to be given to the defendant.

(2) Where it is owing to the plaintiff's default that the summons was not duly served or was not served in sufficient time, the Court shall order the plaintiff to pay the costs occasioned by the postponement.

O. 9 R. 5 (contd.)

suit under O. 9, R. 3, is illegal — Proper course is to issue fresh summons. (Vol 29) 1942 Pat 56 (58).

[5] Fresh summons ordered to be issued along with amended plaint—Summons not issued on account of failure of plaintiff to file copies of amended plaint—Non-appearance of parties on day fixed—Case is governed by O. 9, R. 3 and not by O. 9, R. 5. (Vol 21) 1934 Pat 18 (19).

2. "Period of three months." — [1] Summons issued to defendant returned unserved—Dismissal of suit before expiry of three months is premature and irregular. (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 557 (558).

[2] Order 9, R. 5 is only an enabling provision created for a special purpose only and the Court can dismiss a suit for default within the period. (1910) 5 Ind Cas 537 (538) (Cal).

[3] Mere fact that Court can dispense with notice and can direct that final decree be passed does not invalidate order to issue notice and to dismiss application for final decree on default of decree-holders—Court should conform with O. 9, R. 5 if it issues notice — By force of S. 141, provisions of O. 17 and O. 9 apply to application for final decree under O. 34, R. 5. (Vol 13) 1931 Mad 795 (796, 797).

[4] Inherent power can be exercised only when powers expressly conferred are exhausted. (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 582 (583).

3. Fresh summons when granted. — [1] Plaintiff must apply for fresh summons within the period prescribed by this rule. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 507 (509). * (1901) 3 Bom L R 402 (404). (He should also satisfy that he used diligence.)

[2] An order staying proceedings under O. 9, R. 5, Civil P. C. is illegal where the report on the summons which was attempted to be served is that the defendant is absconding. Proper course is to order substituted service. (1936) 38 Pun L R No. 197 (197).

[3] Summons returned unserved as defendant could not be found—Case consigned to record room as defendants' correct address was not furnished by plaintiff—Application for fresh summons within 3 months — Order 9, R. 5 and not O. 9, R. 2 applies. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 655 (655).

4. Failure to take fresh summons does not discharge defendant from liability. — [1] When the records of suit were placed in the record-room, on account of a non-service of summons to one of the defendants, a subsequent suit against the same defendants on the same cause of action could not be filed as the previous suit must be held to be still pending. (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 211 (211).

[2] Contract Act (1872), Ss. 134 and 137 — Suit against principal debtor and surety—Omission to pursue suit against former—Surety is not discharged by dismissal of suit under O. 9, R. 5. (Vol 1) 1914 Bom 242 (242) : 39 Bom 52.

[But see (Vol 5) 1918 Upp Bur 1 (2) : 3 Upp Bur Rul 62.]

5. Applicability of rule to appeals.—[1] Order 9, R. 5 does not apply to appeals but only to suits. Order 41 contains specific rules covering corresponding cases that arise in appeal. (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 68 (70) : 50 Bom 815.

ORDER 9, RULE 6 — SYNOPSIS

1. Applicability and scope.

2. Ex parte decree.

1. Applicability and scope.—[1] Order 9, R. 6 contemplates a hearing of the suit on the day fixed in the summons for the defendants' appearance whereas O. 17, R. 2 contemplates hearing of the suit on some later date to which hearing may be adjourned, but in either case, the procedure contemplated is the same. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 485 (487, 488) : 1 Pat 188* (1885) 7 All 538 (541)* (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 799 (800)* (Vol 32) 1945 Sind 98 (102) : I L R (1945) Kar 1.

[2] If the defendant had already appeared in answer to summons but fails to appear at the adjourned hearing the case falls under O. 17, R. 2. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 360 (361) : 41 Cal 956* (1880) 2 All 67 (71) : 5 Ind App 283 (P C).

2. Ex parte decree. — [1] "Proceed ex parte" means "proceed to take and determine evidence in defendant's absence." (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 269 (274) : 43 Cal 1001 (F B)* (Vol 29) 1942 Bom 344 (344).

[2] Rule does not apply where plaintiff is absent. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 806 (807, 808).

[3] Even where a suit is ex parte plaintiff has to prove his case before he can obtain a decree. (Vol 16) 1929 All 612 (613)* (Vol 4) 1917 All 475 (476) : 39 All 143. (Absence of defendant on adjourned hearing.)* (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 269 (279) : 43 Cal 1001. (Except in suits on negotiable instruments governed by O. 37, R. 2.)* (1937) 1937 Oudh W N 620 (621)* (Vol 13) 1926 Oudh 192 (193).

[4] Defendant ex parte — Matters to be proved by evidence—Court must state that definitely, preferably in form of issues. (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 165 (166).

[5] Decree, merely because it is ex parte, cannot be passed on unreliable evidence. (Vol 4) 1917 Oudh 194 (196).

[6] Service by registered post — Defendant acknowledging such service — Ex parte proceedings should not be taken. (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 579 (580).

7. Where the Court has adjourned the hearing of the suit ex parte, and the defendant, at or before such hearing, appears and assigns good cause for his previous non-appearance, he may, upon such terms as the Court directs as to costs or otherwise, be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his appearance.

8. Where the defendant appears and the plaintiff does not appear when the suit is called on for hearing³ the Court shall make an order that the suit be dismissed,⁵ unless the defendant admits⁶ the claim, or part thereof, in which case the Court shall pass a decree against the defendant upon such admission, and where part only of the claim has been admitted, shall dismiss the suit so far as it relates to the remainder.

[1882—S. 102; 1877—Ss. 102, 103; 1859—S. 114.]

O. 9 R. 6 (contd.)

[7] Ex parte decree without notice of date of disposal is invalid. (Vol 4) 1917 All 125 (126).

[8] The plaintiff is not entitled to have the suit declared ex parte before it is proved that the summons was duly served. (1901) 23 All 99 (101).

[9] Party present should not be declared ex parte. The omission to make provision in O. 9, R. 13 regarding the non-filing of a written statement is a clear indication that the declaration of ex parte can be made only for non-appearance of defendant. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1183 (1164, 1165).

[10] If defendant absents himself on date fixed for arguments on preliminary issue, ex parte decree cannot be passed. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 224 (225).

[11] Claim alleged to be within time by part payment endorsed on bond — One defendant ex parte — Other contesting — Only 4 out of 8 witnesses allowed to be examined and account books not admitted — Whole evidence should have been allowed — Suit should have been decreed against absent defendant. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 217 (218).

[12] A decree passed against a defendant, summons to whom has been returned unserved, is in no sense an "ex parte" decree and it is liable to be set aside. The effect of an order discharging a decree on the ground that it was passed without service of summons on a defendant is that the entire decree is discharged, and the suit is revived for retrial. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 507 (509).

Order 9, Rule 7—Note 1.

[1] Until a suit is actually called on a party is entitled to appear and defend. (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 345 (345).

[2] Court has discretion to set aside order declaring proceedings ex parte against defendant — Court should however interpret rule liberally (Vol 18) 1931 Oudh 159 (160).

[3] "Defendant" includes plural—Court can proceed ex parte against absent defendants. (Vol 32) 1945 Sind 98 (104) : I L R (1945) Kar 1.

[4] Rule applies only to setting aside proceedings which have taken place during party's absence, but does not debar party from resuming appearance afterwards. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1274 (1275)* (Vol 31) 1944 Nag 77 (78) : I L R (1944) Nag 442* (Vol 18) 1931 Nag 122 (123) : 27 Nag L R 50. (Rule 7 does not debar party from appearing when case is still sub judice.)

[5] Ex parte order — A party against whom an ex parte order has been made and who desires to take part in the proceedings from the stage he appears, need not have the ex parte order passed against him set aside. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 211 (212)* (Vol 9) 1922 All 33 (34)* (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 181 (183, 184).

[6] Defaulting defendant cannot as of right by appearing at any time before judgment intervene in ex parte proceedings — He must show good cause. (Vol 16) 1929 Sind 46 (46, 48)* (Vol 10) 1923 Oudh 177 (178):

26 Oudh Cas 10 * (Vol 32) 1945 Sind 98 (99) : I L R (1945) Kar 1.

[7] Party filing a statement and absenting himself—He is not debarred from coming in at the stage at which the suit is. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 1197 (1197): 51 Mad 597.

[8] Civil Procedure Code does not in terms provide for application to set aside order declaring defendant ex parte. All that O. 9, R. 7 provides is that where the ex parte hearing of a suit has been adjourned, the defendant may at any time before the disposal of the suit appear and if he assigns good cause for his previous non-appearance he may be heard in answer to the suit, as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his appearance. It is only when a decree has been passed that an application to set aside that decree is contemplated in R. 13. (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 385 (385).

[9] Though the rule gives a discretion to the Court to impose conditions, failure to do so is not an improper or irregular exercise of discretion such as to justify interference in revision. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 213 (214, 215).

[10] Ex parte defendant appearing and not asking for re-hearing of prior proceedings — Court has no jurisdiction to order costs against him. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 616 (616).

[11] Refusal to set aside ex parte order can be challenged in appeal from the decree. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 645 (647) : 28 Oudh Cas 85.

ORDER 9, RULE 8 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope of the rule.
2. Appearance.
3. When the suit is called on for hearing.
4. More defendants than one.
5. "Shall make an order that the suit be dismissed."
6. Unless the defendant admits.
7. Effect of dismissal under O. 9, R. 8.
8. Review and revision.

1. Scope of the rule. — [1] Plaintiff adjudicated insolvent before hearing — Plaintiff absent at the hearing — Official Assignee not served — Dismissal of suit under O. 9, R. 8 is improper. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 76 (77, 78) : 53 Cal 844. (Dismissal can be set aside in appeal—Provision of O. 22, R. 8, should be applied.)

[2] Order of dismissal of suit for default under this rule when plaintiff dies is improper and nullity as the rules applicable to defaulters cannot be applied to dead persons. (1913) 35 All 331 (335, 336): 40 Ind App 150 (P.C)* (Vol 22) 1935 Nag 189 (190) : 31 Nag L R 374. (Legal representative need not file formal application under O. 9, R. 9 — Application by him to bring him on record falls under O. 22, R. 8.) * (Vol 17) 1930 Oudh 3 (5) : 5 Luck 241. (Plaintiff dying in course of suit — Portion of claim admitted — Order should be passed under O. 22, R. 8 and not under O. 9, R. 9.) * (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 114 (114).

O. 9 R. 8 (contd.)

2. Appearance. — [1] Word "appear" in O. 9, R. 8 means appearing in suit — Party present in precincts of Court or in court room, but not taking part in suit cannot be said to have "appeared." (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 419 (419) : 59 Cal 756.

[2] Suit called — Plaintiff's pleader engaged elsewhere — Court asking plaintiff to engage another pleader or proceed himself — Plaintiff doing neither — Suit dismissed—Application for restoration is one under O. 9, R. 9. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 425 (427) : 59 Cal 906 * (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 351 (351, 352) : 3 Pat L Jour 355.

[3] Where the clerk of the pleader is present in the Court when the case is called but the suit is dismissed before the clerk fetches the pleader from the Bar-room where he is at the time, dismissal is unjustifiable. (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 405 (406).

[4] Pleader's telling Court that he has no instructions tantamounts to default of appearance by the party. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 1000 (1001) * (1900) 22 All 66 (76) (F B) * (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 256 (257) : 3 Pat L Jour 481.

[See also (Vol 25) 1938 Cal 74 (75) : 1 L R (1938) 1 Cal 218. (Plaintiff when can be held to have not appeared stated.)]

[5] Application for adjournment rejected and suit dismissed on party's pleader stating that he had no further instructions — Dismissal is under R. 8 and so application under R. 9, is competent. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 246 (246) * (Vol 9) 1922 All 68 (68, 69) * (1899) 23 Bom 414 (427). (Suit can be treated ex parte.) * (1907) 34 Cal 403 (415) (F B) * (1910) 5 Ind Cas 499 (499) (Cal) * (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 156 (157).

See also Notes on O. 3, R. 1.

[6] Dismissal of suit for default — Order mentioning that plaintiff was present but that he subsequently went away — Order was held improper. (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 139 (140).

3. When the suit is called on for hearing. — [1] O. 9, R. 8 applies only when suit is called on for hearing and not when no date is fixed for next hearing. (Vol 22) 1935 Pesh 186 (186) * (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 374 (375).

[2] The reader of a Court when the presiding Judge is on leave is not competent to pass any order, e. g., giving a further date, which can be held to be binding on the parties and the fact that such order is signed by another Judge who is not seized of the case makes no difference. If the plaintiff fails to appear on such a date, the proper procedure for the Court is to fix a fresh date for his appearance. (1932) 33 Pun L R 804 (804).

[3] The hearing of suit means the hearing at which the Judge would be either taking evidence or hearing arguments or would have to consider questions relating to determination of suit which would enable him finally to come to an adjudication upon it. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 280 (281) * (Vol 6) 1919 Sind 89 (91) : 13 Sind L R 149. ('Hearing' is not necessarily equivalent to hearing of evidence.)

[4] Date fixed for filing list of witnesses is not date fixed for hearing. (Vol 25) 1938 Rang 360 (362).

[5] The date fixed for the settlement of issues is a date fixed for the hearing. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 62 (62) * (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 416 (416) * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 682 (682).

[6] Failure to amend plaint and to pay costs of adjournment does not justify dismissal of suit (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 571 (571) * (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 118 (118, 119) [Date fixed for payment of adjournment costs—Party ill and his pleader though present in case failing to hear case being called — Suit dismissed for default—Restoration of suit should be granted]

[7] Where suit was adjourned for appointment of guardian (and not for disposal of suit) it cannot be dismissed on ground of plaintiff's absence. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 714 (715) * (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 252 (254, 255) : 6 Pat L Jour 650.

[8] When the plaintiff absented himself owing to the arbitrator's application to the Court for an extension of time for filing the award and the Court dismissed the suit for default. Held, that the dismissal was harsh. (1910) 8 Ind Cas 224 (224) : 1910 Pun L R No. 29.

[9] A Court is not competent to dismiss for default a suit in which a Commissioner is appointed and has not made his report, as such suit cannot be heard until the Commissioner has finished work. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 204 (205). (No appeal lies against such order of dismissal but the High Court can set it aside in revision.) * (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 280 (281). (Date for report of commissioner as to market value for purposes of court-fees is not 'date for hearing'.) * (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 56 (57).

[10] Order 17, R. 2 only gives a judicial discretion to the Court to dismiss the suit under O. 9, on default of plaintiff to appear; hence a Court will not be justified in dismissing when plaintiff has prima facie proved his case. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 897 (897).

[11] A part-heard case was adjourned for further hearing and on the date fixed plaintiff being absent the suit was dismissed simply for the reason that the plaintiff did not appear. Held that as the case was part heard and there was reason to suppose that the plaintiff had not abandoned his claim, the Judge was not right in proceeding under Ch. VII. He should have adjudicated on the materials on the record and proceeded to hear the defendant, if necessary. (1909) 3 Ind Cas 683 (683, 684) : 5 Low Bur Rul 75.

[12] Plaintiff sued for the amount which he had paid to release certain property from wrongful attachment and secondly for damages on the ground of the illegality of the attachment. The trial Judge held that the plaintiff's first claim was unsustainable in law, and dismissed it with costs, directing that "the case will proceed on the question of damages for illegal attachment." The trial Judge refused the plaintiff's application, that a decree might be drawn up embodying the dismissal of his claim for the money paid. The claim for damages proceeded, and the trial Judge dismissed the whole case for default under this rule. Held that the case should go back to the Appellate Court to be heard upon the merits. (1910) 37 Cal 426 (437) : 37 Ind App 80 (P O).

[13] After decree there can be no dismissal of suit except on appeal, if any. (Vol 11) 1924 P C 198 (200) : 51 Ind App 321 : 4 Pat 61 (P C).

[14] Rules 8 and 9 do not apply to proceedings after preliminary decree and before final decree. (Vol 14) 1927 Oudh 49 (50) * (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 433 (434). (Dismissal after preliminary decree is revisable) * (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 200 (201, 202) : 28 Sind L R 167.

[See also (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 963 (964). (Dismissal of suit after preliminary decree — Plaintiff applying for restoration four years after dismissal — Restoration refused — Application to appoint Commissioner in pursuance of preliminary decree also refused — Refusal is proper.)]

[15] Court should proceed under O. 9, R. 8 and not under O. 17, R. 3 when before the hearing of a suit has commenced the plaintiff fails to appear on an adjourned date. (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 27 (28, 29) : 46 Bom 1026.

[16] Plaintiffs deliberately absent and courting dismissal rather than begin leading evidence before the written statement in another connected suit had been filed — Held that the plaintiffs did not show sufficient cause for their failure to enter an appearance. (Vol 10) 1923 All 153 (159).

O. 9 R. 8 (contd.)

[17] Where the parties had no proper notice that the case would be heard in camp and not at head-quarters, and suit was dismissed for default of appearance it was held that order of dismissal was wrong and must be set aside. (1913) 1913 Pun L R No. 165 p. 556 (556).

[18] Transferee Court issuing notice to plaintiff and his counsel to appear on certain day — Notice on plaintiff not served — Notice on counsel served but he refused to accept notice — Trial Court holding service on counsel good and dismissing suit — Procedure held to be unfair. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 91 (91).

[19] Parties not informed by Court — Neither parties nor pleader present on date of hearing — Suit dismissed for default — Held on revision, Court's refraining from serving notice on parties of change of Court, and date fixed, is not justifiable — Case remanded. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 560 (560, 561).

[20] Plaintiff not aware of date of hearing but not intending to prosecute suit — Dismissal of suit and refusal to restore suit are justified. (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 617 (618).

[21] Persistent absence of plaintiff cannot entail dismissal on merits — No order granting time to produce evidence or to perform any act — Though decree purports to be under O. 17, R. 3 it is really under O. 9, R. 8 and lower Appellate Court can hear appeal from an order refusing to restore suit. (1929) 27 All L Jour 391 (392).

[22] Legal practitioner's mistake about date — Court need not excuse default. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 682 (682).

[23] A suit or a petition should not be dismissed in the early part of the day owing to the temporary absence of the party or pleader and if the absence is explained, the suit or petition even if it had been dismissed, must be restored. (1911) 13 Ind Cas 468 (468) (Lah).

4. More defendants than one. — [1] The word "defendant" in R. 8 means the particular defendant with whose case the Court is dealing — Fresh suit against absentee defendants only is not barred. (Vol 13) 1926 All 169 (170) : 48 All 97 * (Vol 12) 1925 All 425 (426). (Suit against several defendants — One defendant only present — Plaintiff and other defendants absent — Suit dismissed for default — Plaintiff can bring fresh suit against absent defendants for whole amount if cause of action be joint and several.)

[2] Defendant applying for time, being not ready to proceed — Order dismissing suit is one under R. 8 and not under O. 9, R. 4. (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 335 (336) : 7 Pat 333.

5. "Shall make an order that the suit be dismissed." — [1] If on the date fixed for hearing, plaintiff is absent and defendant appears, the Court is bound under O. 9, R. 8 to dismiss the suit for default. It has no jurisdiction to record the defendant's statements and to decree the claim in part. (Vol 7) 1920 All 193 (193) * (Vol 2) 1915 All 139 (140) : 37 All 460.

[2] Where the Court dismisses a suit for default under this order, it cannot dismiss the suit and at the same time say that the order of dismissal will not prejudicially affect the interests of the minor. (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 103 (103) : 6 Pat L Jour 317.

[3] Where the plaintiff offers no evidence, the Court is bound to dismiss the suit for want of prosecution and the defendant is not entitled to let in evidence. But if the plaintiff has given evidence, the defendant is entitled to let in evidence though the Court did not believe the plaintiff's evidence. Thus, the defendant is entitled to, to avoid a remand. (1913) 40 Cal 119 (122).

6. Unless the defendant admits. — [1] For the purpose of O. 9, R. 8, it is the net amount for which defendant admits liability after deducting all payments alleged by him which has to be taken into account. (Vol 13) 1926 All 284 (284).

[2] Words "admits the claim, or part thereof" apply to a case where, on examining the plaintiff and the defendant's admission in the written statement it can be considered that he there and then, agreed to pay the money or to submit to the relief claimed in the plaint. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 732 (734, 735). ('Claim' means the claim as laid down in plaint.)

[3] "Claim" is not synonymous with amount sued for — Burden of proof on defendant — No admission of right sued for — Plaintiff is not entitled to decree in case under O. 9, R. 8. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 732 (734).

[4] Suit on bond — Plaintiff absent — Defendant admitting part of claim — Dismissal of other part of claim held to amount to decree — Plea of defendant held to fall under O. 9, R. 8. (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 732 (734).

[5] Plaintiff present all along except on one date — Defendant admitting part of the claim — Case should not be dismissed for default. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 712 (713) * (1909) 33 Bom 475 (477).

7. Effect of dismissal under O. 9, R. 8. — [1] Order under rule 8 does not operate as res judicata but bars suit on same cause of action (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 710 (710) * (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 791 (791, 792). (Bars fresh suit.) * (Vol 7) 1920 Nag 113 (114) (Does not operate as res judicata.) * (Vol 1) 1914 Nag 20 (21) : 10 Nag L R 39.

See also Notes on O. 9, R. 9.

[2] If the suit is dismissed as against some under O. 9, R. 8 and as against the rest under R. 8 of the same order, a subsequent suit on the same cause of action would be barred as against the former but not against the latter. (Vol 7) 1920 Bom 54 (55) : 44 Bom 767.

[3] Suit for injunction prohibiting defendant from removing fodder and for value of fodder removed — Application for permission to withdraw suit — Suit dismissed for default — Subsequent suit for recovery of money advanced as well as for damages for breach of contract held not barred. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 41 (42).

[4] Party pleading bar of O. 9 must prove that prior dismissal was under R. 8. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 986 (988).

8. Review and revision. — [1] Plaintiff absent — Dismissal — Remedy is either review or an application under R. 9 of O. 9 and revision. (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 395 (395).

[2] Dismissal of suit for default — Application for review is maintainable where no petition for restoration is filed. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 844 (844) * (1899) 26 Cal 598 (602). (Non-applying under O. 9, R. 9, to have the suit dismissed for default being restored, is no bar to an application for review of judgment.)

[But see (Vol 12) 1925 Bom 521 (521, 522) : 44 Bom 839. (Remedy by review is not competent.) * (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 99 (104, 118) : 11 L R (1941) 2 Cal 477. (Whether review under O. 47, R. 1 lies, is doubtful.)]

[3] Application for restoration made and dismissed as time barred — Application for review subsequent to such dismissal cannot be entertained. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 517 (518).

[4] Dismissal — No appeal lies — Question of jurisdiction involved — Appeal may be treated as revision petition. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 374 (375) * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 485 (485) : 23 Oudh Cas 124.

[5] Suit dismissed — Trial Judge has discretion to wait for pleader to appear — High Court cannot interfere with the discretion. (Vol 8) 1921 Sind 50 (50) : 15 Sind L R 172.

[6] Dismissal of a suit owing to plaintiff's inability to produce evidence in support of his case does not amount to a dismissal under O. 9, R. 8 and the plaintiff can either appeal against that order or apply for a review. (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 688 (688).

9. (1) Where a suit is wholly or partly dismissed under rule 8, the plaintiff shall be precluded from bringing a fresh suit in respect of the same cause of action. Decree against plaintiff by default bars fresh suit. But he may apply for an order to set the dismissal aside, and if he satisfies the Court that there was sufficient cause for his non-appearance when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall make an order setting aside the dismissal upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

(2) No order shall be made under this rule unless notice of the application has been served on the opposite party.

Provincial Amendments.

BOMBAY

Add the following as sub-rule (3) :

"(3) The provisions of Section 5 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, shall apply to applications under this rule." [21-12-1927.]

CALCUTTA

Re-number sub-rule (2) as sub-rule (3) and insert after the words "notice of the application" the words "with a copy thereof (or concise statements as the case may be)."

Insert the following as sub-rule (2) :

"The plaintiff shall, for service on the opposite parties, present along with his application under this rule either —

- (i) as many copies thereof on plaint paper as there are opposite parties, or,
- (ii) if the Court by reason of the length of the application or the number of opposite parties or for any other sufficient reason grants permission in this behalf, a like number of concise statements."

LAHORE

Add the following proviso to sub-rule (1) :

"Provided that the plaintiff shall not be precluded from bringing another suit for redemption of a mortgage, although a former suit may have been dismissed for default." [12-5-1909.]

N.-W.F.P.

Same proviso as that added by the Lahore High Court is added.

ORDER 9, RULE 9 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope.
2. Appearance.
3. Fresh suit barred.
4. Suit, meaning of.
5. Sufficient cause.
6. Restoration in favour of one of the plaintiffs — Effect.
7. Restoration under inherent powers of Court — See notes on S. 151.
8. Conditional order of restoration.
9. Appeal.
10. Revision.

1. Scope. — [1] Judgment given on merits — O. 9, R. 9 does not apply. (Vol 32) 1945 Oudh 177 (179) * (Vol 23) 1936 All 659 (660, 661). (Court dismissing suit in case where explanation to O. 17, R. 2 applies — It must be deemed to have decided suit on merits—Proper remedy is by way of appeal and not by application under O. 9, R. 9.)

[2] Order dismissing suit on an adjourned date "for default" or "for want of prosecution" is one under O. 17, R. 2, read with O. 9, R. 8 and can be restored under O. 9, R. 9. (Vol 24) 1937 Rang 437 (438).

[3] Order 9 does not apply where plaintiff has already appeared but has failed to appear at adjourned date. (Vol 22) 1935 All 210 (211).

[4] Plaintiff absent on adjourned hearing — Defendants present—Plaintiff's pleader applying for adjournment—Adjournment refused and suit dismissed—Order falls under R. 3 and not R. 2 of O. 17—Proper remedy is not an application under O. 9, R. 9. (Vol 20) 1933 All 41 (41).

[5] Application for postponement on ground of illness of plaintiff rejected—Suit dismissed — Application to set aside dismissal is to be disposed of under O. 9, R. 9 —Order 17, R. 3 is inapplicable. (Vol 5) 1913 Cal 330 (331).

[7] Suit dismissed for default — Application for restoration can be presented by pleader without fresh appointment. (Vol 25) 1938 Nag 272 (272) : I L R (1939) Nag 157.

[8] If a suit is dismissed for default but is subsequently restored on plaintiffs' application the restoration relates back to the date of the application. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 40 (42).

[9] Effect of restoration under R. 9 is to bring the suit back as regards parties, to the exact position in which it was when the suit was dismissed. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 814 (815).

[See also (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 379 (380) : 1916 Pun Re No. 115.]

2. Appearance.—[1] The term "appearance" has nowhere been defined in the Code and it must be understood in reference to the particular subject-matter to which it relates. (1907) 34 Cal 403 (415, 417) (F B). (Application by counsel or pleader who is instructed to apply only for an adjournment, which is refused—It is not an "appearance.")

[2] Mere presence of party in Court is sufficient to constitute appearance within the Order. (Vol 11) 1924, Nag 26 (27).

[3] A party may appear in two ways, either by person or pleader. If he is not appearing in person, the mere fact that he is standing in Court does not amount to an appearance. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 351 (352) : 3 Pat L Jour 355* (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 300 (301). (If a vakil who is authorised to appear for the appellant is absent the Court is bound to treat the appeal as one in which appellant is absent and dismiss it for default.)

[4] Suit called—Plaintiff's pleader engaged elsewhere—Court asking plaintiff to engage another pleader or proceed himself—Plaintiff doing neither—Suit dismissed—Application for restoration is one under O. 9, R. 9. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 425 (427) : 59 Cal 906.

[5] Plaintiff's petition for adjournment rejected—Plaintiff's pleader saying that he had no further instructions—Suit dismissed for default—Application for restoration of case under O. 9, R. 9 can be granted. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 418 (418, 419) : 59 Cal 756 * (Vol 25) 1938 Cal 74 (75) : I L R (1938) 1 Cal 213 * (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 728 (728, 729) * (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 974 (975) * (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 21 (22) : 47 Mad 819 (F B) * (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 16 (17).

[6] To constitute "appearance" within O. 9 by a pleader, it must be shown that the pleader is duly instructed and able to answer all material questions relating to the suit. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 831 (834) * (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 46 (47, 48) : 4 Rang 408. (Pleader present but only instructed to apply for an adjournment—There is no appearance within the Code.)

[7] Appearance by pleader—Dismissal in pleader's presence is not dismissal for default—Rule 9 does not apply. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 259 (259) * (Vol 20) 1933 All 539 (539, 540). (Case fixed for certain date—Plaintiff found absent—His pleader present and willing to argue case—Suit dismissed for default—Held dismissal was incorrect.)

[8] Order of dismissal in presence of one of the plaintiffs is not an order of dismissal for default but amounts to a decree. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 376 (377).

[9] One of several plaintiffs ordered to appear in person—Dismissal of suit for default held justified. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 36 (37) : 4 Pat L Jour 152.

3. Fresh suit barred.—[1] Dismissal of suit for default does not operate as res judicata in favour of the defendant; but this rule bars a subsequent suit on the same cause of action. (1910) 11 Cal L Jour 61 (66) * (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 791 (791, 792) * (Vol 3) 1916 Lah 273 (273, 274) : 1916 Pun Re No. 66. (Objection under R. 58 summarily dismissed—Suit filed but dismissed for default—Fresh attachment does not give fresh cause of action.) * (Vol 26) 1939 Nag 145 (146). (Previous suits alleging forcible and wrongful possession of a certain land and praying for ejectment dismissed under O. 9, R. 8—Subsequent suit alleging forcible and illegal possession and praying for possession is barred being based on same cause of action which is not a continuing one.) * (Vol 16) 1929 Pat 685 (688) : 9 Pat 447. (Cause of action in previous suit included in subsequent suit—Material facts giving occasion to suits same—Subsequent suit is brought on same cause of action as previous suit.)

[2] Subsequent suit in respect of the same cause of action is barred under O. 9, R. 9 though a different relief is claimed. (Vol 15) 1928 Rang 73 (75) : 5 Rang 785. (Suit for administration dismissed—Subsequent suit for partition of same property barred.) * (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 562 (563).

[3] Suit by voluntary liquidator of company against a person for recovery of money said to be due by him to company by reason of being a share-holder dismissed for default—Application by official liquidator for placing the same person on list of contributories of company is barred by provisions of O. 9, R. 9. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 43 (44) : 1 Lah 237.

[4] Causes of action different in previous and subsequent suits—Dismissal of previous suit does not bar subsequent suit. (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 99 (104, 111, 112) : I L R (1941) 2 Cal 477 * (Vol 10) 1923 All 409 (410) : 45 All 81 * (Vol 2) 1915 All 395 (395). (Suit for profits dismissed in default—Subsequent suit for next three years including items for first three years recovered in years in suit—Claim not barred as cause of action is different.) * (1886) 10 Bom 28 (30) * (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 407 (408). (Prior suit by tenant for possession of portion of tenure—Subsequent claim for abatement of rent in rent suit on ground of dispossession.) * (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 11 (11). (Previous suit in Munsif's Court for declaration that rent decree and execution sale were fraudulent—Subsequent suit in Subordinate Judge's Court for recovery of possession of holding on same declaration.) * (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 710 (712). (Suit for declaration that alienation in favour of defendant was invalid—Subsequent suit for partition and separate possession.) * (Vol 17) 1930 Oudh 510 (519) : 6 Luck 106 * (Vol 14) 1927 Pat 375 (376) : 7 Pat 28.

[5] Where there is even a slight discrepancy arising out of a single fact among many other facts common to the two causes of action, that single fact alone makes them different causes of action and the subsequent suit is not barred. (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 366 (368).

[6] Dismissal of suit for partition and separate enjoyment, for default—Subsequent suit for partition is not barred. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 1018 (1018) : 49 Mad 939 * (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 458 (459).

[7] Redemption suit dismissed for default—Second suit for redemption is not barred. (Vol 15) 1928 Bom 67 (68) : 52 Bom 111. (1888) 15 Cal 422, distinguished—Order 9, R. 9 does not override S. 60, T. P. Act.)

[8] A suit is not barred under this rule if the plaintiff in the subsequent suit was not a plaintiff in the previous suit. Order 9, R. 9 bars a fresh suit by the same plaintiff. (1910) 33 Mad 31 (32) * (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 99 (104) : I L R (1941) 2 Cal 477. (Previous suit by person not having power to do so—No bar to subsequent-suit.) * (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 365 (368) : 14 Lah 485.

[See also (Vol 16) 1929 All 861 (862). (Mortgagees fraudulently allowing suit to be dismissed for default—Attaching creditors are not bound by dismissal.)]

[9] Bar of suit by plaintiff under R. 9 operates only against defendants actually present. (Vol 1) 1914 Nag 20 (20) : 10 Nag L R 39.

[10] Dismissal of suit for non-payment of proper court-fee—Case comes under O. 7, R. 11—Fresh suit is not barred under O. 9, R. 9. (Vol 19) 1932 Pat 11 (12) * (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 764 (766). (Amendment of plaint allowed—Plaintiff directed to give value of property and put in deficit court-fee—Non-compliance with order—Suit dismissed for default on rejecting permission to withdraw under O. 23, R. 1—Proper order is rejection of plaint under O. 7, R. 11—Fresh suit is not barred by O. 9, R. 9 or O. 23, R. 1 or O. 2, R. 2.)

[11] Party pleading bar of O. 9 must prove that prior dismissal was under O. 9, R. 8. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 986 (988).

4. Suit, meaning of.—[1] It has been held in the undermentioned cases that the rule applies only to suits and not to applications such as applications for probate. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 1057 (1057) : 53 Cal 578 * (1910) 12 Cal L Jour 185 (191). (Dismissal does not bar subsequent applications for probate of the same will.) * (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 145 (145). (Application under S. 292, Succession Act, dismissed for default—Fresh application can be entertained.) * (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 861 (869) * (Vol 30) 1943 Pat 281 (281) : 22 Pat 273. (Application for probate of will dismissed for default—Order 9, R. 9 does not apply—Second application is not barred.)

[2] A contrary view is taken in the undermentioned cases: (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 863 (864) * (Vol 23) 1936

[4] Application under S. 47, Civil P. C. stands on the footing of a suit — Provisions of O. 9, R. 9 are applicable to an order dismissing for default such an application. (Vol 24) 1937 Oudh 337 (338) : 13 Luck 309.

[5] Application for adjudication as insolvent dismissed for default — Rule 9 does not bar second application. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 579 (580). (Section 10, Cl. (2), Provincial Insolvency Act implies that apart from annulment, a second petition lies.)

[6] Application under Bengal Tenancy Act, S. 158 is not a suit — Order 9, R. 9 does not apply. (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 381 (382, 384) : 2 Pat 192.

[7] Order 9, R. 9, Civil P. C., applies in terms only to suits and therefore is not applicable to petitions under S. 73, Madras Village Courts Act. Nor can S. 141, Civil P. C., be invoked to make O. 9, R. 9, applicable to those petitions. (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 107 (107, 108).

[8] Order 9, R. 9 has no application to civil revision petitions (Vol 32) 1945 Mad 103 (104).

[9] It has been held in the undermentioned decisions that where an application under O. 9, R. 9 is itself dismissed for default an application for restoration of such application lies. ORDER 9, RULE 10 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Applicability.

2. Appeal.

1. Applicability. — [1] The rule applies where one of two plaintiffs is absent. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 176 (177) : 48 Cal 57 ✱ (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 376 (376). (Order of dismissal in presence of one of several plaintiffs amounts to a decree.)

[2] One of several plaintiffs ordered to appear in person — Dismissal of suit for default as against him only held justified — Court had no jurisdiction to dismiss it as against other plaintiffs. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 36 (37) : 4 Pat L Jour 152.

[3] Representative suit on behalf of plaintiff and other members of community — Plaintiff dying — Other members are not plaintiffs eo nomine — Suit cannot be dismissed for their non-appearance. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 590 (591) : 54 Mad 770.

2. Appeal. — [1] Adjournment application of only attending plaintiff rejected and suit dismissed — Order amounted to a decree from which an appeal lies. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 376 (376).

Order 9, Rule 11 — Note 1.

[1] Failure to attend on hearing date — Order to proceed ex parte — Appearance at subsequent hearing — Party must be heard and ex parte decree should not be passed. (Vol 9) 1922 All 110 (111) ✱ (Vol 9) 1922 All 33 (34).

[2] 'Defendant' includes the plural. (Vol 32) 1945 Sind 98 (104) : 1 L R (1945) Kar 1.

[3] A party omitting to defend in trial, cannot be allowed to be heard for the first time in Letters Patent appeal. (Vol 13) 1926 All 427 (427).

[4] Proof of plaintiff's title to decree must be given for even an ex parte decree. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 647 (648).

[5] Ex parte defendant not wanting re-hearing of proceedings before his appearance — Court cannot grant costs against him. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 616 (616).

[6] Where in a suit on bonds one of the defendants alone contested and the suit was decreed ex parte, as against defendant 2, the suit was a non-contested one and judgment should have been entered in favour of the plaintiff for the amount claimed, and costs. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 217 (218).

12. Where a plaintiff or defendant, who has been ordered to appear in person, does not appear in person, or show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court for failing so to appear, he shall be subject to all the provisions of the foregoing rules applicable to plaintiffs and defendants, respectively, who do not appear.

Consequence of non-attendance, without sufficient cause shown, of party ordered to appear in person.

[1882—S. 107; 1877—S. 107; 1859—S. 117. See Ss. 132, 133; O. 3 R. 1; O. 5 R. 3; O. 10 R. 4 and O. 29 R. 3.]

Setting aside decrees ex parte.

13. In any case in which a decree is passed ex parte against a defendant, he may apply to the Court by which the decree was passed for an order to set it aside; and if he satisfies the Court that the summons was not duly served, or that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall make an order setting aside the decree as against him upon such terms as to costs, payment into Court or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit:

Provided that where the decree is of such a nature that it cannot be set aside as against such defendant only it may be set aside as against all or any of the other defendants also.

[1882—S. 108; 1877—Ss. 108, 109, 588; 1859—S. 119.]

Objects and Reasons

"Order 9 Rule 13. — The Committee have inserted words to make it clear that a decree can only be set aside in favour of a defendant against whom the decree has been passed ex parte. There is some conflict of judicial authority upon this point, and the Committee think that the matter should be set at rest in this sense."—S. O. R.

"Order 9 Rule 13. — We think it necessary to provide, specially for cases in which it may not be possible to set aside the decree as against the applicant only."—S. C. R.

Provincial Amendments.

ALLAHABAD

Add the following further proviso :

"Provided also that no such decree shall be set aside merely on the ground of irregularity in the service of summons, if the Court is satisfied that the defendant knew, or but for his wilful conduct would have known of the date of hearing in sufficient time to enable him to appear and answer the plaintiff's claim."

Order 9, Rule 12—Note 1.

[1] The Court can order a party to appear in person in the interest of justice even if not specifically empowered by the Code. (1912) 23 Mad L Jour 676 (677).

[2] Order 9, Rule 12 expressly covers case of party ordered to appear in person, but not so appearing. (Vol 19) 1932 All 595 (596).

[3] Where a party ordered to appear in person did not appear he may be declared ex parte though his vakil may be present in Court. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1256 (1257); 41 Mad 256 * (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 414 (414).

[4] Where the plaintiff's vakil asked for further processes against absent witnesses but was unable to say which of them were material, the proper course would have been to grant adjournment to produce evidence on this point, instead of dismissing the suit. (1872) 17 Suth W R 141 (143).

[5] Plaintiff ordered to appear in person—Non-appearance — He should be given opportunity to prove cause of non-appearance. (Vol 4) 1917 Oudh 127 (128).

[6] On the failure of one of several plaintiffs ordered to appear in person, suit should be dismissed as against him only. (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 36 (37); 4 Pat L Jour 152.

[7] Defendant summoned but absent — Suit can be heard ex parte. (1880) 5 Cal 353 (355).

[8] Defendant ordered to appear—Order striking out his defence for his persistent failure to attend is competent. (Vol 15) 1928 Oudh 262 (263) * (Vol 13) 1920 Lah 577 (578). (Failure of person ordered by Court to be added as plaintiff to appear, does not justify dismissal of original suit.) * (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 821 (822). (But order should be free from ambiguity—Ambiguous orders should be construed in favour of defendant.)

[9] When a defendant appears either in person or by pleader, his failure to put in written statement does not by itself authorize ex parte trial. (1865) 2 Mad H C R 311 (312).

[10] Ex parte order for disobedience of order to appear passed against minor or lunatic can be set aside by fresh guardian appointed. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 213 (215).

NAGPUR

(a) Re-number the existing rule as sub-rule (1).

(b) Substitute "there was sufficient cause for his failure to appear" for "he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing" occurring in sub-rule (1) so re-numbered.

(c) Add the following as an additional proviso and explanation to sub-rule (1) :—

"Provided also that no such decree shall be set aside merely on the ground of irregularity in service of summons, if the Court is satisfied that the defendant knew, or but for his wilful conduct would have known of the date of hearing in sufficient time to enable him to appear and answer the plaintiff's claim.

Explanation.—Where a summons has been served under Order 5, Rule 15, on an adult male member having an interest adverse to that of the defendant in the subject-matter of the suit, it shall not be deemed to have been duly served within the meaning of this sub-rule."

(d) Add the following as sub-rule (2) :

"(2) The provisions of Section 5 of the Indian Limitation Act, IX of 1908, shall apply to applications under sub-rule (1)."

[29-6-1943.]

N.-W.F.P.

Add the following as an additional proviso :

"Provided further that no decree passed ex parte shall be set aside merely on the ground of an irregularity in the service of summons, if the Court is satisfied for reasons to be recorded that the defendant had knowledge of the date of hearing in sufficient time to appear on that date and answer the claim."

ODDH

Between the words "was not duly served or that" and the words "he was prevented by any sufficient cause," insert the words "notwithstanding due service of the summons," and add the following further proviso :

"Provided also that no ex parte decree shall be set aside under this rule on the ground that the summons was not duly served, if the Court is satisfied that the defendant had information of the date of hearing sufficient to enable him to appear and answer the plaintiff's claim.

Explanation.—Where a summons has been served under Order 5, Rule 15 on an adult male member having an interest adverse to that of the defendant in the subject-matter of the suit, it shall not be deemed to have been duly served within the meaning of this rule."

SIND

Add the following further proviso :

"Provided also that a decree passed ex parte shall not in the absence of good cause be set aside on the ground merely of irregularity in the service of the summons unless upon the facts proved the Court is satisfied that the defendant did not have notice of the date of hearing in sufficient time to appear and answer the plaintiff's claim."

[2] Trial Court itself becoming different by reason of territorial re-adjustment — Application to Court seized of the matter is valid. (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 10 (12) : 40 Mad 1.

[3] High Court can, in second appeal, entertain an application for setting aside an ex parte decree passed by the trial Court. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 641 (641).

[4] An application under this rule is not bad merely because it omits to give the names of some of the decree-holders. (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 506 (507) : 62 Cal 1057.

12. Fresh vakalatnama, if necessary. — [1] Fresh vakalatnama to file application under the rule is not necessary in the case of a pleader who appeared in the suit. (Vol 28) 1941 Rang 314 (315) : 1941 Rang L R 254 * (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 207 (209) : 47 Bom 11 * (Vol 31) 1944 All 238 (239) : I L R (1944) All 592.

13. Who can apply to set aside. — [1] Any one of several defendants against whom the decree is ex parte can apply. (1904) 8 Cal W N 621 (625).

[2] The rule allows any defendant even if he is a contesting defendant to apply under this rule if his rights are adversely affected though the decree may not in terms have granted relief against him. (Vol 21) 1934 All 163 (164) : 56 All 578.

[3] A person, not a party to the suit is not entitled to apply under this rule. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 1015 (1015).

[4] A formal party against whom nothing is said in the operative portion of decree cannot apply under this rule. (1904) 1 All L Jour 470 (472).

[5] Person expressly exempted from the decree cannot apply under this rule. (1921) 61 Ind Cas 484 (485) (All).

[6] A person against whom the suit is dismissed cannot apply. (1911) 8 All L Jour 674 (677) * (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 227 (228).

[6a] Pending suit defendant's property coming under Court of Wards — Decree passed without impleading Court of Wards — Court of Wards can apply to set it aside. (Vol 31) 1944 Lah 397 (398).

[7] The Court cannot suo motu set aside an ex parte decree. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 372 (372).

14. Application by the legal representative of the defendant. — [1] A legal representative can apply under the rule to set aside an ex parte decree against a deceased defendant. (Vol 10) 1923 All 30 (30) * (1902) 29 Cal 33 (35) * (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 1204 (1205) : 38 Mad 442 * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 370 (371) : 27 Oudh Cas 299.

[2] Proceedings under this rule already initiated by the defendant, can be continued by his legal representative. (1907) 29 All 574 (575).

[3] Son in womb at the time of dismissal of suit cannot apply for restoration after his birth. (Vol 30) 1943 All 161 (162) : I L R (1943) All 66.

15. Grounds for setting aside an ex parte decree. — [1] The Court dealing with the application should satisfy itself about (a) absence of due service of summons, or (b) existence of sufficient cause preventing defendant's appearance. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 577 (577) * (Vol 22) 1935 All 565 (566).

[2] Where sufficient cause is shown to exist for the absence or there was no service of summons the Court cannot refuse to set aside the decree on any other ground. (1899) 26 Cal 267 (272) * (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 627 (628) : 52 Cal 179 * (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 75 (76). (Failure to take out witness summons is not a ground.)

[3] Unless summons were not duly served or sufficient cause existed for failure to appear the Court cannot set aside the decree on other grounds. (Ex parte decree passed as defendant was not ready — Decree cannot be set aside).

[4] Merits or demerits of case are not relevant for the question whether the ex parte decree should be set aside or not. (Vol 30) 1943 Sind 188 (189) : I L R (1943) Kar 255.

[5] The Court should decide upon evidence. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1264 (1265).

[6] In the absence of any other evidence the decision can be based upon proper affidavits. (1913) 1913 Mad W N 857 (858).

[7] Finding as to the facts alleged in the application should be definite. (Vol 13) 1926 Oudh 118 (119) * (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 621 (622) * (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 114 (114, 115). (Although recording of finding regarding presence of sufficient cause for interference under O. 9, R. 13 is not mandatory still it is most desirable that finding on facts should be given explicitly.)

[8] Under further proviso added by Allahabad High Court irregularity of service of summons is no ground where defendant is aware of hearing of suit. (Vol 20) 1933 All 165 (166).

16. Summons not duly served. — [1] Absence of due service of summons should be proved by the appli-

[2] Where the applicant establishes that the Court passed ex parte decree without proof of due service the decree should be set aside. (1901) 23 All 99 (100, 101).

[3] Want of due service is not proved by an assertion of the ignorance of defendant. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 558 (559)* (1928) 108 Ind Cas 753 (754) (Mad).

[4] The Court must decide the matter upon enquiry and upon evidence. (1911) 9 Ind Cas 31 (32) (All)* (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 27 (28)* (Vol 22) 1935 Pesh 137 (139).

[5] Where the summons is not served personally on the defendant but on his agent the burden of proof of showing that service on defendant personally was impracticable or that the defendant was carrying on business through such agent is on plaintiff. (1913) 14 Mad L Tim 535 (535).

[6] In each case the Court must see that the serving officer has used all due and reasonable diligence to find out the defendant before affixing the summons. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 327 (330, 333)* (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 233 (233)* (Vol 5) 1918 All 331 (331).

[7] A summons cannot be said to be duly served if it is a misleading document having no relevance to the real proceeding and having no reference to the order ultimately passed. (Vol 11) 1924 All 818 (823) : 46 All 864* (Vol 26) 1939 Rang 436 (440) : 1939 Rang L R 606.

[8] In the following cases it was held that there was no due service : —

(a) A summons served not on the defendant but upon his brother. (1911) 9 Ind Cas 763 (763) (Mad).

(b) Service on the karta of a joint family—No due service upon the other members. (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 17 (19).

(c) Summons intended for a pardanashin lady—Service on a male member when she was inside the house. (Vol 22) 1935 All 660 (662).

(d) Service by registered post the receipt of which is denied by the defendant. (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 377 (377) : 46 Bom 130* (Vol 23) 1936 Pesh 199 (200).

(e) Substituted service without anything on record to show that provisions of O. 5, Rr. 19 and 20 were complied with. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 191 (191)* (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 560 (560)* (Vol 27) 1940 Oudh 81 (82) : 15 Luck 150.

(f) Where order for substituted service resulted out of fraud or misrepresentation. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 745 (747)* (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 129 (129).

(g) Where time available after service is insufficient to appear and defend. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 435 (436)* (1905) 27 All 192 (193, 194)* (1911) 11 Ind Cas 433 (434) (Sind).

[9] The un rebutted oath of the applicant is sufficient proof of non-service. (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 336 (336).

[10] Though an affidavit of the officer serving summons is enough to prove service he should be examined in box when service is denied. (Vol 28) 1936 Mad 660 (661) : 59 Mad 1049.

[11] Appearance before the registration of suit for appointment of guardian ad litem does not dispense with the service of suit summons. (1913) 35 All 163 (163).

[12] Defendant's knowledge of the suit cannot cure the defect arising out of want of due service. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 181 (184) : 43 Cal 447 (S B)* (Vol 19) 1932 Pat 150 (152).

[13] Refusal to accept service is no ground for setting aside ex parte decree. (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 356 (357).

[14] Willful or careless default in appearance after due service is no ground for setting aside ex parte decree. (1913) 10 B ng L K 68 (70, 71)

[15] Irregularity in service can be waived by the defendant and there is a waiver when he accepts the summons. (Vol 1) 1914 Nag 73 (74) : 10 Nag L R 144.

[16] The summons referred to is the first summons issued to the defendant giving him notice of suit and not of any application made during the course of the suit. (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 13 (15).

17. Sufficient cause. — [1] Fraudulent suppression of summons from the knowledge of the defendant is sufficient cause. (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 204 (205) : 10 Pat 516 (F B).

[2] Record of finding as to the presence of parties though not mandatory is desirable. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 114 (115).

[3] Impression created by Court that the suit will not be proceeded with is sufficient cause. (Vol 31) 1944 Nag 181 (181) : I L R (1944) Nag 425.

[4] Where the party has by way of precaution engaged two pleaders, in the absence of any warning that they could not be depended upon, he has sufficient cause for not appearing. (Vol 31) 1944 Nag 317 (317) : I L R (1944) Nag 558.

[5] Defendant's failure to appear when suit was called on for hearing as he had been away to fetch his pleader from some other part of the Court—Held, there was sufficient cause. (Vol 31) 1944 Nag 103 (103) : I L R (1944) Nag 161.

18. Minor defendant. — [1] Ex parte decree against a minor properly represented is binding upon him. (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 700 (700).

[2] It is not necessary to serve the minor with notice of the intention of the Court to appoint a guardian ad litem. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 772 (773)* (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 545 (547).

[3] Mere non-appearance of the guardian or his failure to instruct properly is no ground for setting aside an ex parte decree against the minor. (1901) 5 Cal W N 58 (59)* (1907) 9 Bom L R 1099 (1101)* (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 961 (962)* (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 435 (436) : 38 Mad 1045.

[4] Irregularity in the appointment of the guardian is not a ground for setting aside the ex parte decree. (1912) 9 All L Jour 653 (659, 660)* (Vol 13) 1926 All 545 (545) : 49 All 123 (F B).

Also see O. 32, R. 3, Note 7.

[5] Guardian wrongfully or negligently allowing a claim against minor to be decreed ex parte—Decree can be set aside. (Vol 12) 1935 Mad 435 (436) : 58 Mad 1045.* (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 961 (962)* (Vol 21) 1934 Mad 428 (429) : 57 Mad 1069. (6 Cal L Rep 69, followed.) Also see O. 32, R. 3, Note 5.

[6] Guardian guilty of fraud or gross negligence—The ex parte decree can be impeached in a separate suit by the minor. (1895) 19 Bom 571 (576)* (Vol 5) 1918 Nag 187 (191)* (1900) 24 Bom 547 (552)* (1886) 12 Cal 69 (76).

Also see O. 32, R. 3, Note 5.

[7] Where the decree allowed to be passed ex parte prejudicially affects the minor it can be set aside. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 6 (7).

[8] Failure to apply under this rule is no bar to a separate suit by minor to impeach the decree. (Vol 2) 1915 All 62 (64) : 37 All 179.

19. Decree having been satisfied. — [1] Satisfaction of the decree does not disentitle the defendant from applying under this rule. (1899) 23 Bom 716 (718).

20. "Upon such terms as to costs," etc. — [1] The Court has unlimited discretion in fixing terms on which the ex parte decree will be set aside and so can order the deposit of the entire decretal amount. (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 50 (51)* (1903) 7 Cal W N 13.

[2] The Court may order the payment of costs as a term. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 660 (661) : 5 Pat L Jour 420* (1892) 1892 All W N 216 (217).

[3] The Court may order that a surety be furnished for the amount that may be found under the decree to be passed. (1899) 26 Cal 222 (223, 224).

[4] Security can be ordered to be paid in cash or property. (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 181 (181).

[5] Where the conditions are not strictly carried out the ex parte decree will remain valid. (Vol 9) 1922 Oudh 14 (15) * (Vol 13) 1926 Oudh 481 (482).

[6] The time fixed for payment of the costs or of the decree amount can be extended by the Court. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 638 (639) * (Vol 1) 1914 All 55 (56); 36 All 77.

[7] Very onerous terms should not be imposed on the applicant. (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 229 (229) * (Vol 20) 1933 All 601 (602).

[8] Pending the trial of an application under this rule, the Court cannot order the deposit of costs or to furnish security and dismiss the application for failure. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 585 (585) * (Vol 31) 1944 All 236 (237); I L R (1944) All 504.

21. Proviso to the rule. — [1] Where the suit as framed could have been maintained without impleading the ex parte defendants an order under this rule does not set aside the whole decree. (1907) 6 Cal L Jour 226 (229, 231) * (Vol 15) 1928 Cal 397 (398).

[2] Decree which is incapable of being set aside against particular defendants applying can be wholly set aside. (Vol 25) 1933 Lah 823 (824).

[3] The following are cases where a decree cannot be set aside as against particular defendants alone:—

[b] Where the decree proceeds on a ground common to all the defendants. (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 194 (195) * (Vol 1) 1914 Oudh 220 (220).

[c] Where the relief which the applicant is entitled to cannot effectively be given except by setting aside the decree against the other defendants also. (1907) 5 Cal L Jour 202 (203) * (1911) 33 All 264 (271); 33 Ind App 37 (P. O.). (Decree against several co-mortgagors.)

[d] When the suit would result in two inconsistent decrees if the ex parte decree be not set aside against the other defendants also. (1902) 24 All 383 (388) (F B) * (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 243 (243).

[4] Where the non-restoration of the suit in whole would result in inconsistent decrees being passed the suit should be restored in full even though it is ex parte against some and contested against the others. (1898) 25 Cal 155 (156, 157) * (1902) 24 All 383 (400) (F B).

[5] In the following cases it was held that the decree can be set aside only as against defendant applying:—

[a] Where the decree is not joint and indivisible. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 256 (257) * (1908) 31 Mad 454 (456, 457, 458) * (1902) 6 Cal W N 109 (110) * (1900) 4 Cal W N 456 (458) (S B).

[b] Where the decree is not based upon a ground common to all defendants. (1903) 26 Mad 604 (606) * (1907) 6 Cal L Jour 226 (232).

[c] Where each defendant has a distinct defence peculiar to himself alone. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 181 (182) * (1907) 6 Cal L Jour 226 (232).

[6] An Appellate Court reversing the decision as against the contesting defendant on the ground that he was not a necessary party should not remand the suit for fresh trial as against the defendants who remained ex parte. (Vol 23) 1936 Rang 2 (4).

[7] Where decree is ex parte against one of the co-defendants and the suit was dismissed as against others no decree can be passed against them in the re-trial. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 9 (10, 11).

[8] Where a suit is withdrawn as against one of the defendants and an ex parte decree is passed against the other, no decree can be passed in the retrial against the person against whom the suit is withdrawn. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 765 (766).

22. Effect of setting aside the ex parte decree.

— [1] On the setting aside of an ex parte decree, the parties are restored to their original position in the suit. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 883 (883) * (Vol 20) 1933 Pesh 24 (26) * (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 45 (46) * (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 969 (971).

[2] Where a decree is set aside the Court should decide the suit as it stood before the decree. (1907) 17 Mad L Jour 81 (82).

[3] The trial should commence de novo and the evidence that had been taken in the ex parte proceedings should not be used. (1912) 23 Mad L Jour 273 (275).

[4] Attachment ordered under the ex parte decree becomes null and void (1906) 29 Mad 175 (176). Also see S. 64, Note 7.

[5] Any sale that has taken place in pursuance of the ex parte decree becomes null and void. (1898) 25 Cal 175 (178) * (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 706 (707) * (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 564 (565).

[6] The Court can also order restitution except as against a stranger auction-purchaser. (1906) 3 Cal L Jour 181 (182).

[7] Ex parte final decree set aside does not vacate the preliminary decree (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 890 (891).

23 Ex parte decree against a firm. — [1] The rule applies to ex parte decrees against firms also. (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 99 (100); I L R (1942) Kar 220.

[2] Where service of summons has been made as indicated by O 30 the ex parte decree cannot be set aside on the motion of a partner who alleges that he has not been duly served. (Vol 11) 1924 Bom 366 (367); 47 Bom 778.

[3] If a partner who has been served under O. 30, is unavoidably absent he can apply under this rule when an ex parte decree is passed against the firm. (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 99 (100); I L R (1942) Kar 220.

[4] Where the applicant denies that he is a partner with other defendants, the Court can enquire into the matter and set aside the decree. (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 97 (98); I L R (1942) Kar 218 (S. 151, Civil P. C., applied.) * (1910) 8 Ind Cas 448 (449) (Low Bur).

[5] Where a suit against a firm through one of its partners is decreed ex parte against both, such decree if set aside must be done so against both. (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 823 (824).

24. Limitation. — [1] It is the duty of the Court to see whether the application is within the time prescribed. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 577 (577) * (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 890 (891) * (Vol 2) 1915 All 240 (241) * (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 69 (71, 72); 5 Pat L Jour 460.

[2] Under Art. 164 of Limitation Act the defendant can apply within thirty days from the date of the decree or, where the summons is not duly served, within thirty days from the date of his knowledge of the decrees. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 651 (652) * (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 522 (523) * (Vol 20) 1933 Pat 279 (279); 12 Pat 745 * (Vol 19) 1932 Oudh 326 (327).

[3] The Court has no power, inherent or otherwise, to enlarge the period of limitation. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 479 (480); 1 Pat 277 * (Vol 23) 1936 Rang 305 (305).

[4] Section 5 of the Limitation Act is not applicable to this rule unless the High Court under its rule-making powers extends its application. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad

No decree to be set aside without notice to opposite party.

14. No decree shall be set aside on any such application as aforesaid unless notice thereof has been served on the opposite party.

ORDER XI.

"The provisions in the Code as to discovery are based on the rules of English procedure, in force at the time when it was passed. Since then the English procedure has been amended and is now contained in O. XXXI. This order has in effect been adopted in the rules regulating the procedure on the original side of the High Courts of Calcutta and Bombay and has, it is believed, been found to work satisfactorily in practice. On the other hand, in mufassil Courts little use has yet been made of the machinery of discovery, and the Committee therefore think the rules of the Calcutta and Bombay High Courts on their original sides may be safely adopted without risk of disturbing a procedure with which the mufassil Courts have become familiarised. This will secure uniformity of practice and also the advantage of the commentary on the rules prescribed by the English decision."—S. O. R.

DISCOVERY AND INSPECTION

1. In any suit the plaintiff or defendant by leave of the Court may deliver interrogatories in writing for the examination of the opposite parties or any one or more of such parties, and such interrogatories when delivered shall have a note at the foot thereof stating which of such interrogatories each of such persons is required to answer: Provided that no party shall deliver more than one set of interrogatories to the same party without an

ORDER 11, RULE 1—SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope of the rule.
2. Interrogatories on questions of law.
3. "Opposite party."
4. Leave of Court.
5. Probate proceedings.
6. Revision.

1. Scope of the rule. — [1] A party may deliver interrogatories in order to ascertain nature of his opponent's case, or to support his own case, in order to narrow the points in issue, or to avoid proving admitted facts. But interrogatories cannot be directed to prove order for that purpose : Provided also that interrogatories which do not relate to any matters in question in the suit shall be deemed irrelevant, notwithstanding that they might be admissible on the oral cross-examination of a witness.

2. On an application for leave to deliver interrogatories, the particular interrogatories proposed to be delivered shall be submitted to the Court. In deciding upon such application, the Court shall take into account any offer, which may be made by the party sought to be interrogated to deliver particulars, or to make admissions, or to produce documents relating to the matters in question, or any of them, and leave shall be given as to such only of the interrogatories submitted as the Court shall consider necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

3. In adjusting the costs of the suit inquiry shall at the instance of any party be made into the propriety of exhibiting such interrogatories, and if it is the opinion of the taxing officer or of the Court, either with or without an application for inquiry, that such interrogatories have been exhibited unreasonably, vexatiously, or at improper length, the costs occasioned by the said interrogatories and the answers thereto shall be paid in any event by the party in fault.

4. Interrogatories shall be in Form No. 2 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

5. Where any party to a suit is a corporation or a body of persons, whether incorporated or not, empowered by law to sue or be sued, whether in its own name or in the name of any officer or other person, any opposite party may apply for an order allowing him to deliver interrogatories to any member or officer of such corporation or body, and an order may be made accordingly.

contents of documents held to be inadmissible in evidence. (Vol 21) 1934 Nag 181 (182).

[2] Interrogatories can be administered in same manner as in England or even for discovering the nature of the opponent's case. (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 767 (767) : 41 Cal 6.

[See however the following cases decided under the Code of 1882 which held that interrogatories could not be administered for the purpose of discovering the nature of the opponent's case : (1896) 23 Cal 117 (124) & (1890) 17 Cal 840 (848).

[3] Interrogatories for discovering other party's evidence cannot be allowed. (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 151 (153).

[4] Suit on promissory note—Plea of want of consideration — Application by defendant without letting in evidence to issue interrogatories to plaintiff must be dismissed. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 298 (299).

2. Interrogatories on questions of law.—[1] An interrogatory as to opinion of a party on what is really a question of law is not admissible. (1896) 23 Cal 117 (124).

3. "Opposite party." — [1] Interrogatories must not be administered to persons supporting the party administering them. (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 381 (381).

[2] The words "any party" and "any other party" in R. 12 contemplate opposite parties within the meaning of O. 11, R. 1. Consequently before a defendant can claim an order for discovery against co-defendant, there must be an issue raised between the defendants at that stage. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 72 (72, 73) : 58 Cal 1091.

[3] Plaintiff's father died during his minority and third defendant obtained letters of administration — Shortly after plaintiff became major—He and third defendant executed mortgages for alleged debts of deceased in favour of defendants 1 and 2—Plaintiff sought to set aside those mortgages—Plaintiff stated that he received no money from defendants 1 and 2 and third defendant was not paid anything in his presence—The Court holding third defendant as a "party opposite" allowed inspection against him on the application of two other co-defendants. (1893) 17 Bom 384 (389).

4. Leave of Court. — [1] It is duty of Court to determine whether to grant leave to interrogate, but not to determine at that stage what questions, the party should be compelled to answer. (1880) 5 Cal 707 (709).

[2] If an ex parte order is made giving leave to interrogate the other party has a right to get the order set aside, if improper. (1880) 5 Cal 707 (710).

5. Probate proceedings. — [1] Order 11 of the Code applies to proceedings in probate and a Court can on submission of interrogatories direct an enquiry. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 953 (953) : 43 Cal 300.

6. Revision. — [1] Refusal to issue interrogatories for examination of witnesses is no ground for revision. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 282 (283).

[2] Order declining to re-issue interrogatories—High Court cannot interfere under S. 44, Punjab Courts Act, but can do so under S. 107, Government of India Act, (1919). (Vol 24) 1937 Lah 28 (28).

Order 11, Rule 2 — Note 1.

1. Scope of the rule. — [1] Order 11 R. 2 does not apply to an order for production. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 582 (583).

[2] Interrogatories aimed at discovering nature of evidence should be disallowed—Inspection of documents can be obtained but not their particulars by way of interrogatories. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 658 (658).

[3] Documents held inadmissible — Interrogatories to prove contents—Procedure is bad. (Vol 21) 1934 Nag 181 (182).

6. Any objection to answering any interrogatory on the ground that it is scandalous or irrelevant or not exhibited bona fide for the purpose of the suit, or that the matters inquired into are not sufficiently material at that stage, or on any other ground, may be taken in the affidavit in answer.

7. Any interrogatories may be set aside on the ground that they have been exhibited unreasonably or vexatiously, or struck out on the ground that they are prolix, oppressive, unnecessary or scandalous; and any application for this purpose may be made within seven days after service of the interrogatories.

[R. S. C., O. 31, R. 7. (Annulled in 1917).]

8. Interrogatories shall be answered by affidavit to be filed within ten days, or within such other time as the Court may allow.

9. An affidavit in answer to interrogatories shall be in Form No. 3 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

10. No exceptions shall be taken to any affidavit in answer, but the sufficiency or otherwise of any such affidavit objected to as insufficient shall be determined by the Court.

[Cf. R. S. C., O. 31, R. 10. (Annulled in 1917).]

11. Where any person interrogated omits to answer, or answers insufficiently, the party interrogating may apply to the Court for an order requiring him to answer, or to answer further, as the case may be. And an order may be made requiring him to answer or answer further, either by affidavit or by viva voce examination, as the Court may direct.

12. Any party may, without filing any affidavit, apply to the Court for an order directing any other party to any suit to make discovery on oath of the documents which are or have been in his possession or power, relating to any matter in question therein. On the hearing of such application the Court may either refuse or adjourn the same, if satisfied that such discovery is not necessary, or not necessary at that stage of the suit, or make such order, either generally or limited to certain classes of documents, as may, in its discretion, be thought fit: Provided that discovery shall not be ordered when and so far as the Court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

13. The affidavit to be made by a party against whom such order as is mentioned in the last preceding rule has been made, shall specify which (if any) of the documents

ORDER 11, RULE 6 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope of the rule.

2. Objection to answering interrogatories.

1. Scope of the rule. — [1] An objection to the relevancy of interrogatories must be adjudicated upon by the Court. (Vol 5) 1918 All 303 (304, 305). (Court must decide the question before requiring party to answer or refuse.)

2. Objection to answering interrogatories. — [1] Assessee can refuse to answer interrogatories on statements made in income-tax proceedings. (Vol 21) 1934 Nag 181 (182).

[2] Defendant calling upon the plaintiff to answer an interrogatory as to how he estimated the amount of damages claimed — Held, plaintiff was not bound to answer as the interrogatory was premature and would cause the plaintiff to disclose his evidence. (1887) 14 Cal 703 (706).

[3] Objection as to prayer for discovery not taken in grounds of appeal in lower Appellate Court — It cannot be taken in second appeal. (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 865 (870).

Order 11 Rule 7 — Note 1.

1. Setting aside or striking out interrogatories. — [1] If the interrogatories are scandalous the Court may interfere at any stage. (1880) 5 Cal 707 (710).

[2] Interrogatories objected to as irrelevant — Court must decide the question before requiring party to answer or refuse. (Vol 5) 1918 All 303 (304, 305).

[3] Order disallowing interrogatories is not appealable — No revision lies — It can be challenged in appeal on final decision. (Vol 7) 1920 Sind 1 (1, 5): 14 Sind L R 28.

Order 11, Rule 8 — Note 1

1. Affidavit in answer through agent. — [1] Party ordered to answer interrogatories — No special direction to answer personally — Party can answer through recognized agent — Agent can swear affidavit. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 205 (206) : I L R (1942) Nag 258.

Order 11, Rule 11 — Note 1

1. Scope of the rule. — [1] The party interrogated might omit to answer the interrogatories to which he objects, at his peril. Then the interrogating party can apply to the Court requiring the other party to answer, or answer further either by affidavit or by viva voce examination. The more cautious course is to file an affidavit stating in it his objections. (1880) 5 Cal 707 (710).

[2] Order under R. 11 to make sufficient answers — Revision lies. (Vol 21) 1934 Nag 181 (182).

ORDER 11, RULES 12-13—SYNOPSIS

1. Scope of the rules.

2. Professional or legal privilege.

ments therein mentioned he objects to produce, and it shall be in Form No. 5 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

[1882—S. 129, para. 2; R. S. C., O. 31, R. 13.]

O. 11 Rr. 12–13 (contd.)

3. Documents relating solely to the case of the party producing them.
4. Documents incriminating party.
5. Production of public official documents.
6. Who may file affidavit?
7. "Opposite party."
8. Corporation.
9. Affidavit of documents, if conclusive — Further affidavit.
10. Effect of non-disclosure of documents.

1. Scope of the rules. — [1] The object of procedure under rules 12 and 13 is two fold: first to secure that all material documents are disclosed by putting the party upon oath; and secondly to put an end to a protracted inquiry as to the material documents actually in possession or under the control of the party. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 131 (135) : 5 Pat L Jour 550.

[2] Right to obtain discovery is not limited to those documents which may be held to be admissible in evidence when suit is ultimately tried. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 331 (333) : 1 L R (1940) 1 Cal 504.

[3] Affidavit of documents does not protect the party from an obligation to give inspection of other documents that may be proved to be in his possession. (1911) 38 Cal 428 (430, 431).

[4] Decision of case depending upon documentary evidence — In absence of application by parties under O. 11, R. 12, for discovery of documents Judge should himself make order to that effect under S. 30. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 331 (332) : 1 L R (1940) 1 Cal 504.

2. Professional or legal privilege. — [1] Affidavit not showing that documents were written for the purpose of being communicated to solicitor — No privilege can be claimed regarding them. (1885) 11 Cal 655 (658).

[2] Privilege claimed with reference to correspondence — Affidavit must show that every letter therein and not merely the correspondence in general contains instructions or confidential communications to the attorney regarding conduct of suit. (1886) 12 Cal 265 (266).

[3] Documents containing the purport of interviews with and of advice received from solicitors and counsel as to position with regard to the claim and the steps to be taken therefor are privileged; it is immaterial that such communications pass from agent to principal and vice versa, before or after communication with solicitors. However, the affidavit should discriminate between contents of different letters. (1891) 15 Bom 7 (10).

[4] No privilege can be claimed for statements in documents made by servants of a party. (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 367 (376).

3. Documents relating solely to the case of the party producing them. — [1] Order for discovery can be refused against defendant on ground that it may compel him to produce document relating solely to his title; but if such document has some bearing in support of plaintiff's claim, order for discovery can be refused. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 331 (333) : 1 L R (1940) 1 Cal 504.

[2] Discovery of title deeds cannot be ordered on mere fishing application — When application is well founded presumption arises from non-production. (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 426 (428) : 10 Pat 630.

4. Documents incriminating party. — [1] The objection by the person called on to make an affidavit of documents that the disclosure may tend to incriminate him cannot be taken in summons for discovery but that objection can only be taken in affidavit in answer. (1897) 2 Q B 124 (132, 133, 134)

5. Production of public official documents. — [1] State-papers — Privilege is founded upon concern for public interest, State-policy or security and is to be exercised no further — Fact that production of document might prejudice the Crown's case or assist that of the other side does not justify claim for privilege. (Vol 18) 1931 P C 254 (257, 258) (P O).

6. Who may file affidavit. — [1] When there are several plaintiffs all of them must join in the affidavit for discovery of documents unless some specific reasons are shown to the contrary. (1891) 15 Bom 7 (9). (Residence in England is not a sufficient reason.)

[2] Court may allow affidavit to be filed by agent of party — Discretion of Court must be exercised with special reference to facts of each case. (Vol 21) 1934 Pat 693 (694).

[3] Discovery of documents — It is attorney's duty to ascertain from client documents in latter's possession — When further documents are found to be in client's possession attorney must disclose these to opponents and allow inspection by them. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 267 (269).

7. "Opposite party." — [1] Words "any party" and "any other party" contemplate opposite parties. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 72 (72, 73) : 58 Cal 1091.

[2] Administration suit — Defendants inter se are not opposite parties without issues between them. (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 72 (73) : 58 Cal 1091.

[3] Father of plaintiff dying during his minority — The third defendant executed mortgages in favour of defendants 1 and 2 on behalf of himself and the minor for the alleged debts of his father — On attaining majority the minor sued to set aside these mortgages. Held, the third defendant was "opposite party" and defendants 1 and 2 could obtain an order for discovery of documents in his possession. (1893) 17 Bom 384 (387, 388).

8. Corporation. — [1] Discovery under R. 12 can be made even in cases against corporate bodies. (Vol 9) 1922 All 1 (5) : 44 All 202.

9. Affidavit of documents, if conclusive — Further affidavit. — [1] Affidavit of documents required from the party under R. 12 or R. 13 is in the ordinary circumstances to be taken as conclusive on the question of what documents are in his possession or power. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 131 (135) : 5 Pat L Jour 550* (1893) 17 Bom 384 (388). (Mere suspicion about the truth of the statement as to documents is not enough to negative the conclusiveness.)

[2] Affidavit of documents — No evidence to contradict or cross-examination is to be allowed. (Vol 31) 1944 Lah 209 (213, 214).

10. Effect of non-disclosure of documents. — [1] Procedure under O. 11, Rr. 12 and 13 not followed — No adverse inference can be drawn against party from non-production of his account books. (Vol 29) 1942 All 242 (247) : 1 L R (1942) All 247. (Following (Vol 2) 1915 P C 96 : 37 All 557 : 42 Ind App 202 (P C).)

[2] Order for discovery against a party — Party alleging that the documents have perished or been destroyed — In the absence of evidence of diligent search for them the presumption is that the documents if produced will be unfavourable to the party. (Vol 4) 1917 P C 1 (4) (P C).

14. It shall be lawful for the Court, at any time during the pendency of any suit, to order the production by any party thereto, upon oath, of such of the documents in his possession or power, relating to any matter in question in such suit, as the Court shall think right; and the Court may deal with such documents, when produced, in such manner as shall appear just.

15. Every party to a suit shall be entitled at any time to give notice to any other party, in whose pleadings or affidavits reference is made to any document, to produce such document for the inspection of the party giving such notice, or of his pleader, and to permit him or them to take copies thereof; and any party not complying with such notice shall not afterwards be at liberty to put any such document in evidence on his behalf in such suit unless he shall satisfy the Court that such document relates only to his own title, he being a defendant to the suit, or that he had some other cause or excuse which the Court shall deem sufficient for not complying with such notice, in which case the Court may allow the same to be put in evidence on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court shall think fit.

ORDER 11, RULE 14 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope of the Rule.
2. "Possession or power."
3. Relating to any matter in question in suit.
4. Revision.

1. Scope of the Rule. — [1] Order 11, Rule 14 refers to further orders on production, such as inspection. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 582 (583).

[2] Production of documents — Order for, must follow one under O. 11, R. 12. (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 337 (338).

[3] Inspection of documents should not be allowed to party who has not established his right thereto nor at a stage at which the exercise of that right is not proved to be legitimate. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 846 (846, 847) : 47 Mad 984.

[4] Order under R. 14 can be made before issues are framed. (1909) 10 Cal L Jour 407 (411).

[5] No order will be made under R. 14 against party unless he has directly or indirectly admitted the document to be in his possession or power. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 131 (135) : 5 Pat 550.

[6] Court should not delegate to a Commissioner the exercise of the power which it possesses under R. 14. (1909) 10 Cal L Jour 407 (412).

[7] Order for discovery — Documents produced are not exhibits of party producing them but of party at whose instance order was passed. (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 328 (330).

[8] Document produced in compliance with order for discovery if not properly proved is not piece of evidence in Court. (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 328 (330).

[9] Order for production must relate to documents in existence — Party cannot be asked to apply for and produce certified copies of income-tax returns. (Vol 28) (1941) Mad 709 (709, 710) : I L R (1941) Mad 716.

[10] Suit for accounts — Court has no jurisdiction under R. 14 to call upon defendant to show in detail the extent of his income, how it was realised and how spent. (1912) 14 Ind Cas 51 (52) (Cal).

[11] Suit by husband for restitution of conjugal rights relying upon correspondence between parties — Husband claiming privilege for some time but promising to produce it thereafter — Husband is entitled to no such privilege, and must produce it in time. (Vol 24) 1937 Sind 97 (97, 98).

2. "Possession or power." — [1] Court trying suit in which Secretary of State represented by Collector is party is not justified by terms of O. 11, R. 14 in requiring Collector to produce certain old palmash registers in original on ground that he is agent of Secretary of State — Collector cannot be deemed to be agent of Secretary of State for all purposes. (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 52 (52, 53).

3. Relating to any matter in question in suit. — [1] Order under R. 14 is limited only to such documents as relate to matters in question in suit. Hence Court must, before making order, determine for that purpose what are the matters in dispute. (1909) 10 Cal L Jour 407 (410, 411)* (1896) 23 Cal 117 (125)* (1912) 14 Ind Cas 51 (52) (Cal).

[2] Suit on a promote — Promisor putting in no defence — Promisee under this rule cannot be ordered to produce documents in the suit — Until it is known what the promisor's defence is and what the points in issue will be, it is impossible for Court to decide the matters in question in the suit. (Vol 24) 1937 Nag 136 (136, 137) : I L R (1937) Nag 266.

[3] Party cannot be asked to apply for and produce certified copies of income-tax returns as such returns are confidential documents under S. 54, Income-tax Act. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 709 (709, 710) : I L R (1941) Mad 716* (Vol 25) 1938 Rang 276 (277).

4. Revision. — [1] An order refusing to direct the production of documents is not revisable. (1886) 9 Mad 256 (257).

[2] Order for production of documents made without jurisdiction or under circumstances causing injury to one of the parties — High Court has power to set matters right under S. 15 of Statute 24 & 25 Vict., Ch. 104. (1909) 10 Cal L Jour 407 (413).

ORDER 11, RULE 15 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope of the Rule.
2. "At any time."
3. Documents referred to in the pleadings or affidavits.
4. Copies of documents produced, if can be taken.

1. Scope of the Rule. — [1] The object of Rules 15, 17 and 18 is that a party is not to have accounts sprung on him at any time, the contents of which he had no opportunity to acquaint himself beforehand. Rule 18 is not a pre-requisite to R. 15. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 234 (235).

[2] It is good cause for non-production of document that the document is not in the possession or power of the person called upon to produce it. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 131 (135) : 5 Pat L Jour 550.

16. Notice to any party to produce any documents referred to in his pleading or affidavits Notice to produce. shall be in Form No. 7 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

17. The party to whom such notice is given shall, within ten days from the receipt of such Time for inspection when notice given. notice, deliver to the party giving the same a notice stating a time within three days from the delivery thereof at which the documents, or such of them as he does not object to produce, may be inspected at the office of his pleader, or in the case of bankers' books or other books of account or books in constant use for the purposes of any trade or business, at their usual place of custody, and stating which (if any) of the documents he objects to produce, and on what ground. Such notice shall be in Form No. 8 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

18. (1) Where the party served with notice under rule 15 omits to give such notice of a Order for inspection. time for inspection or objects to give inspection, or offers inspection elsewhere than at the office of his pleader, the Court may, on the application of the party desiring it, make an order for inspection in such place and in such manner as it may think fit: Provided that the order shall not be made when and so far as the Court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

(2) Any application to inspect documents, except such as are referred to in the pleadings, particulars or affidavits of the party against whom the application is made or disclosed in his affidavit of documents, shall be founded upon an affidavit showing of what documents inspection is sought, that the party applying is entitled to inspect them, and that they are in the possession or power of the other party. The Court shall not make such order for inspection of such documents when and so far as the Court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

[1882—Ss. 133, 134; 1877—Ss. 133, 134; R. S. C., O 31; R. 18.]

[3] Plaintiff can inspect documents filed by the defendant material to the case, though enclosed in a sealed cover and defendant prays that they may be kept in the said sealed cover for the time being. (1911) 1911 Pun L R No. 256, p. 951 (954).

[4] Suit on pro-note.—Reference in plaint to certain account books proving transaction between parties.—Notice by defendant to produce account books for inspection.—Books necessary every day is not sufficient reason for not giving inspection. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 234 (235).

[5] Suit to recover moveables.—Plaintiff is not entitled to obtain search warrant from Court to recover papers from defendant's house and choose such out of them as may prove his case. (Vol 32) 1945 All 363 (367).

2. "At any time."—[1] Document referred to in plaint or affidavit.—Notice to inspect can be given even before filing written statement.—Documents relating to matter in question but not referred to in pleadings.—Inspection cannot be insisted prior to written statement. (Vol 31) 1944 Pat 177 (178): 22 Pat 644.

[2] Whether a party proceeds under O. 11, R. 15 or under O. 11, R. 18 (2) he must act promptly and delay in itself may be a good ground for refusing to grant time for the filing of written statement until after the inspection has been made. (Vol 25) 1938 Nag 239 (241): I L R (1940) Nag 331.

3. Documents referred to in the pleadings or affidavits.—[1] Documents sued upon and documents relied upon.—Inspection of latter cannot be claimed by defendant before he files his written statement. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 416 (416)* (Vol 25) 1938 Nag 239 (240): I L R (1940) Nag 331. (Inspection may be allowed in exceptional cases.—But then procedure in O. 11, R. 18 (2) must be observed.)

[2] Documents referred to in pleadings but not material.—Inspection cannot be claimed by defendants. (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 73 (73, 74): 46 Bom 866.

[3] Documents mentioned in list under O. 7, R. 14 (2)

— Documents referred to in plaint and forming material facts upon which plaintiff's claim was based.—Inspection of documents held should be allowed. (Vol 30) 1943 Lah 207 (208). (List of documents is part of plaint.) * (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 825 (826). (Do.)

[But see (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 416 (416)* (Vol 25) 1938 Nag 239 (241): I L R (1940) Nag 331. (Defendant, unless he proceeds under O. 11, R. 18 (2), cannot insist to inspect them before filing written statement.)]

4. Copies of documents produced, if can be taken. — [1] Inspection of documents.—Verbatim copies of documents may be taken.—Costs of inspection to be borne by the party inspecting though under exceptional circumstances such costs may be made costs in the cause. (1909) 11 Bom L R 402 (404, 405)* (1909) 10 Cal L Jour 407 (418). (For obtaining copies party must apply to Court for directions.)

Order 11, Rule 17 — Note 1.

1. Usual place of custody. — [1] In suit instituted in Bombay for breach of contract to give cotton in defendant's mill at Broach, plaintiff applied for inspection of defendant's account books in Bombay.—Defendant offered to give inspection at Broach.—Held, that latter place was the place where the books were kept and was the proper place for inspection. (1880-1881) 5 Bom 467 (469).

ORDER 11, RULE 18 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope of the Rule.
2. Discretion of Court.
3. Convenient place of inspection.

1. Scope of the Rule. — [1] One party alleging that other party has documents in his possession relative to matters in suit but disclosed by his affidavit.—Party should proceed under this rule and not by way of interrogatories. (1896) 23 Cal 118 (125).

[2] Documents referred to in pleadings but not

19. (1) Where inspection of any business books is applied for, the Court may, if it thinks fit, Verified copies. instead of ordering inspection of the original books, order a copy of any entries therein to be furnished and verified by the affidavit of some person who has examined the copy with the original entries, and such affidavit shall state whether or not there are in the original book any and what erasures, interlineations or alterations: Provided that, notwithstanding that such copy has been supplied, the Court may order inspection of the book from which the copy was made.

(2) Where on an application for an order for inspection privilege is claimed for any document, it shall be lawful for the Court to inspect the document for the purpose of deciding as to the validity of the claim of privilege.

(3) The Court may, on the application of any party to a suit at any time, and whether an affidavit of documents shall or shall not have already been ordered or made, make an order requiring any other party to state by affidavit whether any one or more specific documents, to be specified in the application, is or are, or has or have at any time been, in his possession or power; and, if not then in his possession, when he parted with the same and what has become thereof. Such application shall be made on an affidavit stating that in the belief of the deponent the party against whom the application is made has, or has at some time had, in his possession or power the document or documents specified in the application, and that they relate to the matters in question in the suit, or to some of them.

20. Where the party from whom discovery of any kind or inspection is sought objects to the Premature discovery. same, or any part thereof, the Court may, if satisfied that the right to the discovery or inspection sought depends on the determination of any issue or question in dispute in the suit, or that for any other reason it is desirable that any issue or question in dispute in the suit should be determined before deciding upon the right to the discovery or inspection, order that such issue or question be determined first, and reserve the question as to the discovery or inspection.

material—Inspection cannot be claimed by defendants (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 73 (73, 74) : 56 Bom 866.

[3] No party is entitled to inspection of documents not referred to in pleadings or affidavits without order under R. 18 (2). (1912) 14 Ind Cas 51 (52) (Cal) * (Vol 18) 1931 All 221 (222) : 53 All 442. (If Court is satisfied as to relevancy, affidavit is not necessary — Want of affidavit cannot invalidate order requiring defendant to produce document.) * (1887) 14 Cal 768 (777). (Application under R. 18 if not supported by an affidavit is bad.)

[4] No order under R. 18 could be made until questions raised under R. 20 had been determined. (1887) 14 Cal 768 (776, 777).

[5] Detailed application and detailed orders must be made under sub-r. (2). (Vol 4) 1917 Nag 176 (176).

[6] Absence of denial by the other party taken along with absence of proper affidavit does not justify penal action—Affidavit is generally conclusive—Notice under R. 18 to other side is necessary. (Vol 11) 1924 All 510 (511) : 46 All 470.

[7] A party cannot be compelled to show the account books to the opposite party, which contain trade secrets. (1911) 14 Ind Cas 371 (373) (Lah).

2. Discretion of Court.—[1] Fact that inspection is sought for before written statement is filed is no ground for refusing it. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 825 (828).

[2] Accounts between principal and agent settled wholly on agent's accounts — No accounts with principal — Particulars of misconduct should not be insisted upon from principal prior to inspection — Mere inability to particularize instances of fraud or error should be no ground for refusing application for inspection of accounts. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 284 (285, 286) : 55 Mad 704.

[3] Order to plaintiff to file affidavit within specified time and to give inspection forthwith—Word "forthwith" means within reasonable time. (Vol 25) 1938 Cal 353 (356) : 1 L R (1938) 2 Cal 14.

3. Convenient place of inspection. — Court is not proper place to offer inspection. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad. 234 (235).

Order 11 Rule 19—Note 1

1. Inspection by the Judge. — [1] Court has power to inspect State documents and official communications in spite of certificate from minister of state claiming protection — But the power must be so used as not to destroy the privilege in case in which it is found to exist. (Vol 18) 1931 P C 254 (259) (PC).

Order 11 Rule 20 — Note 1

[1] Object of O. 11, R. 20 is to give power to Court of raising and determining an issue for the exclusive purpose of deciding the right to discovery of evidence to be used at the trial and before hearing of the cause. (1882) 6 Bom 572 (578).

[2] The provisions of O. 11, R. 20 are not intended to come into operation until an application has been made under R. 18. (1887) 14 Cal 768 (776).

[3] Discovery precedes particulars when information required is solely within opponent's knowledge and inquiry is not for fishing out case. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 288 (289).

21. Where any party fails to comply with any order to answer interrogatories, or for Non-compliance with discovery or inspection of documents, he shall, if a plaintiff, be liable to order for discovery. have his suit dismissed for want of prosecution, and, if a defendant, to have his defence, if any, struck out, and to be placed in the same position as if he had not defended, and the party interrogating or seeking discovery or inspection may apply to the Court for an order to that effect, and an order may be made accordingly.

ORDER 11 RULE 21—SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope of the rule.
2. Committal for contempt.
3. Appeal.
4. Review.

1. Scope of the rule.—[1] Rule 21 requires that the documents must be referred to in pleadings or affidavits. (Vol 2) 1915 All 196 (196).

[2] Order under R. 21 can be passed only when there is a previous order under R. 11. (Vol 13) 1926 All 553 (553).

[3] Strict compliance with the terms of R. 18 (2) is necessary for an order under this rule. (1887) 14 Cal 768 (776, 777)* (Vol 13) 1926 Sind 272 (272) : 20 Sind L R 309.

[4] This rule requires to be worked with caution and should be made use of only as a last resort. (1898) 1898 Pun Re No. 58, p. 194. (Practice of English Courts stated.)*(Vol 12) 1925 Cal 166 (168). 2. Committal for contempt. — [1] The chartered High Courts have power to commit a party to a suit filed in such High Courts, who has failed to obey an order for discovery or inspection, for contempt of Court. (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 117 (118) : 55 Cal 1110.

3. Appeal.—[1] Order refusing to strike out defence under O. 11, R. 21, is appealable. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 426 (427).

[2] Order of dismissal wrongly passed under R. 21, without jurisdiction — It is decree and appeal lies. (Vol 16) 1929 All 83 (83, 84)* (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 316 (317). (Notwithstanding that judgment and decree are passed, in judging appealability Court should look to substance of order).

[3] Appellate Court holding that no appeal could lie from order under O. 11 R. 21 striking out defence as decree had been passed in suit — Appellate Court held should have treated appeal as one from decree. (1912) 14 Ind Cas 637 (638, 639) : 5 Bur L T 80.

4. Review.—[1] Dismissal of suit under—Setting aside dismissal under O. 9, R. 9 is wrong — Remedy is by appeal or review. (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 218 (218, 219) : 3 Rang 63.

[See however (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 158 (160). (Court cannot review the order under S. 151.)]

Order 11 Rule 22 — Note 1

1. Using answers to interrogatories at trial. —

[1] Answers to interrogatories are admissible against party but should be used with caution. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1108 (1107).

[2] Cross-interrogatories are administered under O. 11, R. 1—Answers may be admitted under S. 33, Evidence Act. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1103 (1108).

23. This Order shall apply to minor plaintiffs and defendants, and to the next friends and guardians for the suit of persons under disability.

ORDER XH.

ADMISSIONS

"The Committee think the practice of admissions may with advantage be extended to facts as well as to documents. The procedure is not compulsory, but its adoption would result in cheapening and expediting litigation, and it is hoped that its use will be encouraged by the Courts".—S. O. R.

Notice of admission of case.

1. Any party to a suit may give notice, by his pleading, or otherwise in writing, that he admits the truth of the whole or any part of the case of any other party.

[See S. 30, R. S. C., O. 32, R. 1.]

2. Either party may call upon the other party to admit any document, saving all just exceptions; and in case of refusal or neglect to admit, after such notice, the costs of proving any such document shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the suit may be, unless the Court otherwise directs; and no costs of proving any document shall be allowed unless such notice is given, except where the omission to give the notice is, in the opinion of the Court, a saving of expense.

3. A notice to admit document shall be in Form No. 9 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

[R. S. C., O. 32, R. 3.]

4. Any party may, by notice in writing, at any time not later than nine days before the day fixed for the hearing, call on any other party to admit, for the purposes of the suit only, any specific fact or facts mentioned in such notice. And in case of refusal or neglect to admit the same within six days after service of such notice, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Court, the costs of proving such fact or facts shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the suit may be, unless the Court otherwise directs: Provided that any admission made in pursuance of such notice is to be deemed to be made only for the purposes of the particular suit, and not as an admission to be used against the party on any other occasion or in favour of any person other than the party giving the notice: Provided also that the Court may at any time allow any party to amend or withdraw any admission so made on such terms as may be just.

[R. S. C., O. 32, R. 4.]

5. A notice to admit facts shall be in Form No. 10 in Appendix C, and admissions of facts shall be in Form No. 11 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.

[R. S. C., O. 32 R. 5.]

6. Any party may, at any stage of a suit, where admissions of fact have been made, either on the pleadings, or otherwise, apply to the Court for such judgment or order as upon such admissions he may be entitled to, without waiting for the determination of any other question between the parties: and the Court may upon such application make such order, or give such judgment, as the Court may think just.

[R. S. C., O. 32, R. 6.]

Re-number the existing Rule 6 as sub-rule 6 (1) and insert the following as sub-rules (2) and (3) :

"(2) The Court may also of its own motion make such order or give such judgment as it may consider just having due regard to the admissions made by the parties.

(3) Whenever an order or judgment is pronounced under the provisions of this rule a decree may be drawn up in accordance with such order or judgment and bearing the same date as the day on which the order or judgment was pronounced."

[R. O. C. No. 1729 of 1926.]

PATNA

Substitute the following for Rule 6 in Order 12 :

"6. Where admissions of fact have been made, either on the pleadings or otherwise, the Court may, at any stage of a suit, on the application of any party, or, of its own motion, without waiting for the determination of any other question between the parties, make such order or give such judgment, as it may think just."

7. An affidavit of the pleader or his clerk, of the due signature of any admissions made in Affidavit of signature. pursuance of any notice to admit documents or facts, shall be sufficient evidence of such admissions, if evidence thereof is required.

[R. S. C., O. 32, R. 7.]

8. Notice to produce documents shall be in Form No. 12 in Appendix C, with such variations Notice to produce as circumstances may require. An affidavit of the pleader, or his clerk, of the documents. service of any notice to produce, and of the time when it was served, with a copy of the notice to produce, shall in all cases be sufficient evidence of the service of the notice, and of the time when it was served.

[R. S. C., O. 32, R. 8.]

9. If a notice to admit or produce specifies documents which are not necessary, the costs Costs. occasioned thereby shall be borne by the party giving such notice.

[R. S. C., O. 32, R. 9.]

ORDER XIII.

PRODUCTION, IMPOUNDING AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

1. (1) The parties or their pleaders shall produce, at the first hearing of the suit, all the Documentary evidence to documentary evidence of every description in their possession or power, be produced at first hearing. on which they intend to rely, and which has not already been filed in Court, and all documents which the Court has ordered to be produced.

(2) The Court shall receive the documents so produced : Provided that they are accompanied by an accurate list thereof prepared in such form as the High Court directs.

N.-W.F.P.

Substitute the following :

"All documentary evidence shall be produced by the parties or their pleaders in the method and at the time prescribed in Orders 7 and 8 : provided that after the settlement of issues, the Court may fix a date, not being more than 30 days after such settlement, within which the parties may present supplementary list of documents on which they rely."

OUDH

Substitute the following :

"1. (1) The parties or their pleaders shall produce or cause to be produced, on the date fixed by the Court under Order 7, Rule 14, and Order 8, Rule 1 (2), or on any subsequent date which may be fixed by the Court for the purpose, all the documentary evidence of every description in their possession or power on which they intend to rely, and which has not already been filed in Court, and all documents which the Court has permitted or ordered to be produced.

(2) The parties or their pleaders may also file, with the permission of the Court, either on the date of hearing or any subsequent date to be fixed by the Court for the purpose, a supplementary list of further documents on which they intend to rely, and such documents shall be produced by them within the time fixed by the Court.

(3) The Court shall receive the documents so produced, provided that (whenever the documents are produced at any stage of the case) they are accompanied by an accurate list thereof prepared in such form as the Chief Court may direct.

Explanation.—A certified copy of a public document is a document "in the power" of a party, but where a document is in the possession of a person other than the plaintiff or defendant it will not be deemed to be "in the power" of the plaintiff or defendant."

Order 13, Rule 9— Note 1

[1] Where a suit has been withdrawn the document on which the suit is based does not become void or useless and must be returned. (1893) 1893 Bom P J 123 (123).

[2] The act of returning document is purely ministerial and no oath is required, if there is a proper application for return. (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 433 (433).

Provided that a document may be returned at any time earlier than that prescribed by this rule if the person applying therefor delivers to the proper officer a certified copy to be substituted for the original and undertakes to produce the original if required to do so :

Provided also that no document shall be returned which, by force of the decree, has become wholly void or useless.

(2) On the return of a document admitted in evidence, a receipt shall be given by the person receiving it.

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENTS

BOMBAY

Between the first and second proviso to sub-rule (1) the following proviso shall be inserted, namely :

"Provided also that a copy of the decree and of the judgment filed with the memorandum of appeal under Order 41 Rule 1, may be returned after the appeal has been disposed of by the Court." [14-12-1923.]

LAHORE

To sub-rule (1), the following further proviso was added :

"Provided further that the cost of such certified copy shall be recoverable as a fine from the party at whose instance the original document has been produced." [24-11-1927.]

MADRAS

Add the following as sub-rules (3), (4) and (5) :

"(3) Every application for return of a document under the first proviso to sub-rule (1) shall be made by a verified petition and shall set forth facts justifying the immediate return of the original.

(4) The Court may make such order as it thinks fit for the costs of any or all the parties to any application under sub-rule (1). The Court may further direct that any costs incurred in complying with or paid on application under sub-rule (1) or incurred in complying with the provisions of Rule 5 of this Order, shall be included as costs in the cause.

(5) Subject to the provisions of Rule 8 above, where a document is produced by a person who is not a party to the suit and such person applies for the return of the document as hereinbefore provided and undertakes to produce it whenever required to do so, the Court shall, except for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, require the party on whose behalf the document was produced, to substitute with the least possible delay a certified copy for the original, and shall thereupon cause the original document to be returned to the applicant and may further make such order as to costs and charges in this behalf as it thinks fit. If the copy is not so provided within the time fixed by the Court, the original document shall be returned to the applicant without further delay."

NAGPUR

Insert the following as sub-rule (2) and re-number the present sub-rule (2) as sub-rule (3) :

"Where the document has been produced by a person who is not a party to the suit, the Court may order and at the request of the person applying for the return of the document, shall order the party at whose instance the document was produced to pay the costs of preparing a certified copy." [29-6-1943.]

PATNA

Add the following as sub-rule (1a) :

"(1a) Where a document is produced by a person who is not a party in the proceeding, the Court may require the party on whose behalf the document is produced, to substitute a certified copy for the original as hereinbefore provided."

10. (1) The Court may of its own motion, and may in its discretion upon the application of any of the parties to a suit, send for, either from its own records or from any other Court, the record of any other suit or proceeding, and inspect the same.

Court may send for papers from its own records or from other Courts.

Order 13 Rule 10—SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. Discretion of Court.
3. "From any other Court."
4. Affidavit in support of application.

1. Scope and object.—[1] The Court is not bound to send for the whole of the record but only such of the documents that are specifically mentioned in the petition. (1864) 1864 Suth W R 272 (273).

[2] Mere summoning of document does not make it evidence in the case. It must be proved and brought on record like any other document before it can be used as evidence. (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 341 (343)* (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 119 (120)* (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 78 (79).

2. Discretion of Court. — [1] The Judge has the discretion to grant or refuse an application for sending for the records. (1867) 7 Suth W R 109 (109).

[2] On a proper application to send for a document the Court ought not to refuse such application. (1881) 7 Cal 560 (565). (That the document could not be produced before termination of trial is no ground for refusal.)

[3] The Court having granted an application should not omit to actually send for documents to be used by the party as evidence. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 78 (79).

[4] A Court is not bound to send for a document when the party neglects or fails to make an application. (1872) 18 Suth W R 13 (14).

[5] The party applying for summoning records must satisfy the Court that the documents could not be produced otherwise without unreasonable delay or expense. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 119 (120).

[6] Omission to exercise discretion in a proper case is good ground in appeal or revision where the party has been prejudiced thereby. (Vol 5) 1918 All 375 (376). (Application to send for patwari's record summarily rejected and suit dismissed—Suit held not properly tried.)

(2) Every application made under this rule shall (unless the Court otherwise directs) be supported by an affidavit showing how the record is material to the suit in which the application is made, and that the applicant cannot without unreasonable delay or expense obtain a duly authenticated copy of the record or of such portion thereof as the applicant requires, or that the production of the original is necessary for the purposes of justice.

(3) Nothing contained in this rule shall be deemed to enable the Court to use in evidence any document which under the law of evidence would be inadmissible in the suit.

11. The provisions herein contained as to documents shall, so far as may be, apply to all other material objects producible as evidence.

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENT

Rules 12 & 13—ALLAHABAD

Add the following to the end of Order 13 :

"12. Every document not written in the Court vernacular or in English, which is produced (a) with a plaint, or (b) at the first hearing, or (c) at any other time tendered in evidence in any suit, appeal, or proceeding, shall be accompanied by a correct translation of the document into the Court vernacular. If any such document is written in the Court vernacular but in characters other than the ordinary Persian or Nagri characters in use, it shall be accompanied by a correct transliteration of its contents into the Persian or Nagri character.

The person making the translation or transliteration shall give his name and address and verify that the translation or transliteration is correct. In case of a document written in a script or language not known to the translator or to the person making the transliteration, the person who reads out the original document for the benefit of the translator or the person making the transliteration shall also verify the translation and transliteration by giving his name and address and stating that he has correctly read out the original document.

13. When a document included in the list, prescribed by Rule 1, has been admitted in evidence, the Court shall, in addition to making the endorsement prescribed in Rule 4 (1), mark such document with serial figures in the case of documents admitted as evidence for a plaintiff, and with serial letters in the case of documents admitted as evidence for a defendant, and shall initial every such serial number or letter. When there are two or more parties defendants, the documents of the first party defendant may be marked A-1, A-2, A-3, etc., and those of the second party B-1, B-2, B-3, etc. When a number of documents of the same nature is admitted, as for example a series of receipts for rent, the whole series shall bear one figure or capital letter or letters and a small figure or small letter shall be added to distinguish each paper of the series."

ORDER XIV.

SETTLEMENT OF ISSUES AND DETERMINATION OF SUIT ON ISSUES OF LAW OR ON ISSUES AGREED UPON

1. (1) Issues arise when a material proposition of fact or law is affirmed by the one party and denied by the other.

(2) Material propositions are those propositions of law or fact which a plaintiff must allege in order to show a right to sue or a defendant must allege in order to constitute his defence.

(3) Each material proposition affirmed by one party and denied by the other shall form the subject of a distinct issue.

(4) Issues are of two kinds : (a) issues of fact, (b) issues of law.

(5) At the first hearing of the suit the Court shall, after reading the plaint and the written statements, if any, and after such examination of the parties as may appear necessary, ascertain upon what material propositions of fact or of law the parties are at variance, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues on which the right decision of the case appears to depend.

(6) Nothing in this rule requires the Court to frame and record issues where the defendant at the first hearing of the suit makes no defence.

3. "From any other Court." — [1] Court from which document is sent for need not necessarily be a Civil Court. (1874) 1874 Pun Re No. 32, p. 147 (147). (Record of a criminal case.)

[2] It is only from a Court that documents may be sent for under this rule. (1871) 15 Suth W R 150 (151). (Court of Wards is not a Court.) (1871) 15 Suth W R 173 (174). (A Kasee acting is not a Court.)

[3] The Court from which records are called for has no discretion to refuse. (1879) 4 Cal L R 36 (37).

4. Affidavit in support of application. — [1]

Affidavits under this rule must strictly satisfy the conditions laid down. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 119 (120).

[2] Where an application under this rule is unsupported by an affidavit, but the Court calls for documents of its own motion the fact that the application was unsupported by affidavit will not preclude the documents being used in evidence. (Vol 32) 1945 Pesh 9 (11, 12).

ORDER 14 RULE 1—SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. Omission to frame issue.
3. Wrong issue.
4. Abandonment of issue.

O. 14 R. 1. (contd.)

1. Scope and object. — [1] The sole object of pleadings is that each side may be fully alive to the questions that are about to be argued in order that they may have an opportunity of bringing forward such evidence as may be appropriate to the issues. (1895) 22 Cal 324 (331) : 22 Ind App 4 (PC).

[2] The object of framing issues is to direct the attention of the parties to the main questions of fact or law to be decided and the duty of framing and recording of the proper issues has been placed on the Court by the Code—It is expected that in framing such issues the Courts of law should exert themselves so as to make them sufficiently expressive of matters which they desire to consider under such issues. (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 338 (340).

[3] Court should frame proper issues from the pleadings in the case and evidence has to be led in respect of those issues — No evidence need be led regarding the points not covered by issues. (1921) 60 Ind Cas 751 (752) (Lah) * (Vol 10) 1923 All 167 (167). (Courts should not raise fancy points not raised by parties.) * (Vol 6) 1919 Pat 196 (198). (A Court is not justified in framing an issue on a question about which there is no dispute in the pleadings.)

[4] Issues merely signed by Judge without knowledge of pleadings are useless. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 78 (79).

[5] Under O. 14, R. 1, issues arise only when a material proposition of fact or law is affirmed by one party and denied by the other — Such affirmation or denial must be contained in the pleadings as defined in O. 6, R. 1 — Where there is no written statement the only issues would be those arising out of the plaint, which allegations are put in issue when not admitted. (Vol 23) 1936 Nag 177 (179).

[6] In framing issues, Court is by no means bound by the language of the plaint and written statement — Issues may be framed from statements of parties and their pleaders, when they come before the Judge. (1885) 11 Cal 407 (410) * (1878-79) 3 Bom 210 (213). (Even if the pleadings are bad, it is the duty of Judge to ascertain the points in dispute clearly and frame issues accordingly.) * (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 1157 (1160). (Issue may be framed on other matters than pleadings.)

[7] It is the duty of the Court primarily to frame necessary issue but the parties are entitled to be heard. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 169 (169).

[8] Issues should be exact. (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 156 (157).

[9] Order 14, R. 1 contemplates that issues may be settled whether there was a written statement or not though it is not obligatory on the Court to frame issues if the defendant makes no defence. (1907) 11 Cal W N 870 (872) * (1871) 15 Suth W R 145 (146). (Court not bound to frame and record issues when defendant is ex parte.)

[10] Issue not arising on pleadings — High Court will not order remand for trial thereof. (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 360 (361) * (1871) 15 Suth W R 145 (146). (Where the fact that plaintiff claims umamee title was not mentioned either in plaint or in course of any of the proceedings in trial Court or Appellate Court, a retrial of the case on that aspect of the case should not be ordered.)

[11] The Court is bound to limit its enquiry to the issues which alone are necessary in order to try the plaintiff's right to the special relief that he seeks even when a third party intervenes unless his intervention raises a new issue. (1871) 16 Suth W R 235 (237).

[12] Plea that plaintiff was not in possession not raised in written statement — No issue framed on that point — Court should not go into question of possession without calling upon parties to let in necessary evidence. (Vol 39) 1946 Mad 180 (181).

[13] Where the trial of a case had been vitiated for want of proper issues and the plaintiffs have been misled by conduct of defendants, the case should be remanded for retrial with proper issues. (Vol 18) 1931 All 625 (629).

[14] "First hearing of suit" in O. 14, R. 1 (5) would extend at least to period up to first hearing of suit referred to in O. 13, R. 1. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 261 (261).

2. Omission to frame issue. — [1] Failure to frame issue is not necessarily fatal to suit provided substantial justice is done. (Vol 28) 1941 Pesh 59 (60). (Defendant raising plea for applying S. 41, T. P. Act : Arguments addressed — No issue framed — Court is justified in applying principles of S. 41, T. P. Act: (Vol 26) 1939 Pesh 44 overruled.) * (Vol 13) 1926 Bom 384 (385) * (1869-70) 13 Moo Ind App 573 (582, 583, 584) (PC). (If there has been no failure of justice by an omission to frame issues, remand of the case for settlement of issues and for retrial would not be made.) * (1864-65) 2 Mad H C R 470 (472). (Per Innes J. — Where the defendant is not prejudiced by the absence of an issue, the suit need not be sent for retrial.)

[2] Issues necessary for right decision of a suit to be framed by Judge — Failure to frame an unnecessary issue is not error of law. (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 648 (648).

[3] A case should not be sent back to be retried after framing an issue, where in spite of the omission of an issue, the matter had been tried and determined and the plaintiff was fully informed by defendant's list of documents and cross-examination on his behalf. (1907) 29 All 184 (190, 191, 192, 195) : 34 Ind App 27 (PC).

[4] The mere fact that a particular issue was raised at a late stage of the suit will be immaterial if the parties had sufficient opportunity to adduce evidence and the Court was in a position to pronounce judgment on it. (1895) 22 Cal 324 (331) : 22 Ind App 4 (P.C.).

3. Wrong issue. — [1] Where wrong issues were framed and the suit was decided thereon, the decision will be set aside on appeal and the suit remanded for retrial after framing proper issues. (1872) 17 Suth W R 359 (359, 360) * (1890) 13 Mad 549 (551). (Inconsistent issues.)

[2] Where parties have not been misled, defect in form of issues is immaterial. (Vol 8) 1921 Sind 159 (164) : 16 Sind L R 207 (F B) * (Vol 29) 1942 Cal 338 (340). (Frame of issue defective — Parties going to trial knowing full well what question for decision was — Plaintiff given opportunity to meet point not covered by issue — Plaintiff not availing of opportunity — Plaintiff is precluded from contending that defect in issue prejudiced him.)

[3] The Court has power to consider the point whether an irregularity in the conduct of sale would invalidate it or not, even though that point was not raised in the pleadings. But in the absence of any allegation of consequent substantial injury, the framing of such issue would be improper. (1911) 21 Mad L Jour 1008 (1010).

4. Abandonment of issue. — [1] Courts are not bound to raise issues on questions of fact of their own motion, where parties do not ask for them. The omission to raise such issues implies an abandonment of such questions by the party interested. If the question is one purely of law, e.g., limitation or jurisdiction, it is incumbent on the Court to frame proper issues on such questions. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 698 (699).

[2] Duty of framing issues though lies on Court, parties should draw Court's attention to omission in framing issues—Person alleging that he is not necessary

2. Where issues both of law and of fact arise in the same suit, and the Court is of opinion Issues of law and of fact. that the case or any part thereof may be disposed of on the issues of law only, it shall try those issues first, and for that purpose may, if it thinks fit, postpone the settlement of the issues of fact until after the issues of law have been determined.

[1882—S. 146, cl. 6 ; 1877—S. 146, cl. 6 ; 1859—S. 139. Cf. R. S. C., O. 25, R. 2.]

- (a) allegations made on oath by the parties, or by any persons present on their behalf, or made by the pleaders of such parties ;
- (b) allegations made in the pleadings or in answers to interrogatories delivered in the suit ;
- (c) the contents of documents produced by either party.

party but not pressing issue to that effect when issues were being framed — That issue must be held to have been waived by him. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 329 (329, 330).

ORDER 14 RULE 2 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and applicability.

2. Revision.

1. Scope and applicability.— [1] Order 14, Rule 2 casts on the Court the duty of determining whether circumstances exist in each case for exercise of power conferred by it. (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 467 (467) * (Vol 20) 1933 All 753 (753, 754). (Where there are issues of law and fact, it is obligatory for Court to consider whether case can be disposed of on legal issue alone.) * (Vol 23) 1936 Pat 250 (253). (Order 14, R. 2 is mandatory — Only discretion left with the Court is to form and express opinion if case can be disposed of on issue of law only.)

[2] Order 14, R. 2 applies not only to cases in which issues of fact have not been settled but also to cases where issues of fact have been settled and the Judge commits no irregularity if he proceeds to determine the issues of law postponing the trial of the issues of fact. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 164 (165).

[3] Application made after date fixed for first hearing for trial of some of issues as issues of law without taking evidence — O. 14, R. 2 or O. 15 R. 3 has no application. (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 559 (560).

[4] The Court while striking issue regarding limitation should first ascertain what article the parties consider to be applicable to the suit as framed. If the application of a particular article raises a question of fact, an issue should be struck on those facts, and if there be no dispute on facts, the question may be decided at the initial stage of the case on purely legal arguments. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 982 (983) : 17 Lah 391.

[5] The questions whether the defendant has a right to challenge plaintiff's adoption in view of a previous decision, is purely a question of law and should be disposed of first under this rule. (1935) 18 Nag L Jour 339 (340).

[6] Trial of case piecemeal is undesirable. (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 87 (90).

[7] Decision on issues of fact cannot be postponed, where all issues are questions of fact, except on the ground of embarrassment. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 674 (676).

[8] It is desirable that subordinate Courts should decide all the issues in a case. Order proposing to try only some issues first and postpone trial of others was held to be not a proper order and was set aside in revision. (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 323 (323).

[9] Decision on certain questions first necessary — Suit should be set down for settlement of issues. (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 249 (251) : 47 Bom 509.

[10] Deciding issues of mixed questions of law and fact without evidence by treating them as involving only questions of law is irregular — Declaring custom invalid before it is proved is bad. (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 87 (90).

[11] Issue requiring evidence is not a preliminary issue. (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 344 (345) * (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 128 (129) : 56 Bom 224. (Preliminary issue of fact cannot be framed.)

[12] As a general rule subordinate Court ought not to dismiss action on preliminary issue. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 1 (3).

[13] Where the preliminary issue under this rule was a mixed question of law and fact, a question for the decision of which evidence was necessary, it was held that the Court should not refuse to frame all issues. Whether a preliminary issue falls under this rule or not is a matter which the Court must decide for itself after the issues have been framed. (1932) 1932 Mad WN 331 (332).

[14] Question whether Court should grant or reject prayer to try preliminary issue of law — Court should observe harmony between general principle that cases should not be tried piecemeal and the wholesome provisions of O. 14, R. 2. (Vol 23) 1936 Pat 250 (252).

[15] Preliminary issue decided by trial Court cannot be re-agitated by it at a later stage. (Vol 25) 1938 All 113 (114) : 1 L R (1938) All 198.

2. Revision. — [1] Order in which issues are to be tried is to be decided by trial Court and High Court will not interfere in revision. (Vol 20) 1933 All 749 (751).

Order 14 Rule 3 — Note 1

[1] It is absolutely necessary that the determination in a cause should be founded upon a case either to be found in the pleadings or involved in or consistent with the case thereby made. (1866-67) 11 Moo Ind App 7 (20) (PC).

[2] The sole guides to a Court in framing issues for trial in a case are not the pleadings of the parties. The Court should settle the issues on the pleadings and after hearing the pleaders. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 186 (187).

[3] Court may frame the issues from the oral examination of the parties or their pleaders notwithstanding any difference between such allegations of facts as are contained in those examinations and those contained in written statements. (1869) 12 Suth W R 512 (513).

[4] Court has no power to frame issue on point neither alleged by parties or their counsel nor contained in documents. (Vol 27) 1940 Nag 94 (95) * (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 805 (806). (The fact that the parties are ready with the evidence upon the issues not raised is no justification for raising or trying it.) * (1912) 1912 Mad WN 177 (178). (The Court should not decide a suit in a way which is not the case of either party and on a matter on which no issue is raised.) * (1911) 21 Mad L Jour 1008 (1009). (A Court is not justified in framing an

4. Where the Court is of opinion that the issues cannot be correctly framed without the examination of some person not before the Court or without the inspection of some document not produced in the suit, it may adjourn the framing of the issues to a future day, and may (subject to any law for the time being in force) compel the attendance of any person or the production of any document by the person in whose possession or power it is by summons or other process.

5. (1) The Court may at any time before passing a decree amend the issues or frame additional issues on such terms as it thinks fit, and all such amendments or additional issues as may be necessary for determining the matters in controversy between the parties shall be so made or framed.

(2) The Court may also, at any time before passing a decree, strike out any issues that appear to it to be wrongly framed or introduced.

[5] Though no specific issue on a particular point was framed, and that point appears to be present to the minds of the parties and if further materials which may have a bearing on the question were not placed before the Court, it could not be said that it was due to the absence of distinct issue. (1906) 29 Mad 72 (74).

Order 14, Rule 4 — Note 1.

[1] A party producing documents at the appellate stage in Court under O. 14, R. 4 for the purpose of framing proper issues at the instance of his adversary cannot insist on their being used in evidence under S. 163, Evidence Act, all at once. (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 60 (61).

ORDER 14, RULE 5 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope.

2. "At any time before passing a decree."

1. Scope. — [1] Even in the absence of O. 14, R. 5, every Court trying a civil cause has inherent power to take cognizance of questions which cut at the root of the subject-matter of controversy between the parties. (1912) 35 Mad 607 (612) : 39 Ind App 218 (PC).

[2] Fresh facts not covered by pleadings disclosed in evidence — For awarding relief on such facts amendment of pleadings and framing of issues are necessary. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 471 (471).

[3] Allowing additional issue does not give right to adduce fresh evidence. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 1196 (1198) : 39 Mad 456.

[4] Where the amendment of an issue is necessary for the purpose of more effectually putting in issue and trying the real question or questions in controversy as disclosed by pleadings on either side, such amendment can be made under the second portion of sub-rule (1). (1880) 5 Cal 64 (70, 71).

[5] Amendment of issue not prejudicing any party — Trial upon such amended issue cannot be declared improper. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 1157 (1160).

[6] Court has no power under this rule to frame new issues which will change the nature of the suit. (1889) 13 Bom 664 (668).

[7] Under O. 14, R. 5 one cause of action cannot be converted into a different one. Thus, a claimant as owner, cannot obtain relief on basis of contract of tenancy. (Vol 8) 1916 Pat 60 (51) : 2 Pat L Jour 69.

[8] Where no injustice would be done to either party the Court in the exercise of its discretion, under special circumstances may allow issues to be raised upon matters which do not come within the proper scope of the pleadings. (1880) 5 Cal 64 (70).

[9] Parties going to trial on issue as it stood — Issue tried — It cannot be vacated on ground of misapprehension. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 583 (587).

[10] Court can frame additional issues — But it should not go outside the statements of parties — Irregularity of framing additional issues at the end of trial is not cured by giving the parties opportunity to adduce additional evidence. (Vol 13) 1926 Bom 33 (37, 38).

[11] A plaintiff coming to Court with one case and hopelessly failing to prove it should not be permitted to succeed upon another and that directly in antagonism with primary allegations. (1883) 5 All 456 (459).

[12] Where the discretion exercised by Court in amending issues was not shown to have been abused or perverse, the trial of the case on amended issues should not be interfered with. (1911) 1911 Pun L R No. 51, p. 224 (225).

2. "At any time before passing a decree." —

[1] Under O. 14, R. 5 (1) Court has very wide powers to amend issues or frame additional issues at any time before passing of a decree. (Vol 17) 1930 Nag 225 (228) : 27 Nag L R 75.

[2] Court can amend issue even after case is closed and can give opportunity for additional evidence — Omission to frame specific issue is not bad if issues framed are wide enough. (Vol 1) 1914 Oudh 255 (257).

[3] A Court trying a suit on a mortgage can raise an issue as to the invalidity of the mortgage for want of proper attestation, even after the close of the arguments. (1912) 35 Mad 607 (612) : 39 Ind App 218 (PC).

[4] Special issue framed after evidence taken and arguments concluded — Decision thereon is not bad. (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 514 (524) : 2 Pat 52.

[5] After the plaintiff's case was closed, an issue on a new averment should not be allowed, when it necessitates the opening up of the whole case without any suggestion that the facts relied on had newly come to the knowledge and had excusably been unknown to the applicant. (1903) 27 Bom 485 (491, 492) : 30 Ind App 127 (PC).

[6] Though a Court has power of framing any fresh issues before the judgment is pronounced, it ought not to do so by allowing new pleas to be raised after the case is remanded by the Appellate Court. (1911) 10 Ind Cas 230 (231) (All).

Order 14, Rule 6 — Note 1.

[1] Where the parties agreed to refer issues of fact to a Commissioner and to abide by his findings, no appeal the same in the form of an issue, and enter into an agreement in writing that, upon the finding of the Court in the affirmative or the negative of such issue, —

- (a) a sum of money specified in the agreement or to be ascertained by the Court, or in such manner as the Court may direct, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them, or that one of them be declared entitled to some right or subject to some liability specified in the agreement;
- (b) some property specified in the agreement and in dispute in the suit shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them, or as that other may direct; or
- (c) one or more of the parties shall do or abstain from doing some particular act specified in the agreement and relating to the matter in dispute.

Court, if satisfied that agreement was executed in good faith, may pronounce judgment.

7. Where the Court is satisfied, after making such inquiry as it deems proper, —

- (a) that the agreement was duly executed by the parties,
- (b) that they have a substantial interest in the decision of such question as aforesaid, and
- (c) that the same is fit to be tried and decided, it shall proceed to record and try the issue and state its finding or decision thereon in the same manner as if the issue had been framed by the Court; and shall, upon the finding or decision on such issue, pronounce judgment according to the terms of the agreement; and, upon the judgment so pronounced, a decree shall follow.

ORDER X V.

DISPOSAL OF THE SUIT AT THE FIRST HEARING

1. Where at the first hearing of a suit it appears that the parties are not at issue on any question of law or of fact, the Court may at once pronounce judgment.

[1882—S. 152; 1877—S. 152; 1859—S. 144.]

2. Where there are more defendants than one, and any one of the defendants is not at issue with the plaintiff on any question of law or of fact, the Court may at once pronounce judgment for or against such defendant and the suit shall proceed only against the other defendants.

[1882—S. 153; 1877—S. 153.]

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENT

MADRAS

Re-number Rule 2 as sub-rule (1) of Rule 2 and insert the following as sub-rule (2) :

"(2) Whenever a judgment is pronounced under the provisions of this rule a decree may be drawn up in accordance with such judgment bearing the same date as the day on which the judgment was pronounced."

[R. O. C. No. 1729 of 1926.]

would lie against a decree passed on the report of the Commissioner. (1901) 29 Cal 306 (309, 310).

Order 14, Rule 7 — Note 1.

[1] Where adjustment of a suit is made contingent upon the findings of the Court on certain issues of fact or law, submitted to it by the parties, the adjustment becomes absolute upon the findings on such issues and the Court is bound to pronounce judgment according to the terms of the agreement. (1892) 16 Bom 202 (216).

[2] Where there are definite pleadings, and a definite issue on those pleadings is framed, the finding must be confined to matters raised in the issue. (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 179 (180).

Order 15, Rule 1 — Note 1.

[1] Where the defendant appears at the first hearing and confesses judgment, the Court may proceed to give judgment. (1869) 12 Suth W R 432 (435).

[2] Rule does not apply so as to enable the Court to assume that parties are not at issue, without complying with the provisions of O. 10, R. 1. (Vol 32) 1945 All 352 (353) : I L R (1945) All 499.

[3] Case cannot be disposed of prior to the date fixed for hearing. In such a case the decree is vitiated. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 459 (460).

Order 15, Rule 2 — Note 1.

[1] Where one of several defendants confesses judgment, and judgment is pronounced against him, further prosecution of the suit as against the other defendants is not barred. (1901) 25 Bom 378 (386).

3. (1) Where the parties are at issue on some question of law or of fact, and issues have been framed by the Court as hereinbefore provided, if the Court is satisfied that no further argument or evidence than the parties can at once adduce is required upon such of the issues as may be sufficient for the decision of the suit, and that no injustice will result from proceeding with the suit forthwith, the Court may proceed to determine such issues, and, if the finding thereon is sufficient for the decision, may pronounce judgment accordingly, whether the summons has been issued for the settlement of issues only or for the final disposal of the suit:

Provided that, where the summons has been issued for the settlement of issues only, the parties or their pleaders are present and none of them objects.

(2) Where the finding is not sufficient for the decision, the Court shall postpone the further hearing of the suit, and shall fix a day for the production of such further evidence, or for such further argument as the case requires.

[1882—S. 154; 1877—S. 154; 1859—S. 145.]

4. Where the summons has been issued for the final disposal of the suit and either party fails to produce evidence without sufficient cause to produce the evidence on which he relies, the Court may at once pronounce judgment, or may, if it thinks fit, after framing and recording issues, adjourn the suit for the production of such evidence as may be necessary for its decision upon such issues.

[1882—S. 155; 1877—S. 155; 1859—S. 145.]

ORDER XVI.

SUMMONING AND ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES

Summons to attend to give evidence or produce documents.

1. At any time after the suit is instituted, the parties may obtain, on application to the Court or to such officer as it appoints in this behalf, summonses to persons whose attendance is required either to give evidence or to produce documents.

[1882—S. 159; 1877—S. 159; 1859—S. 149. See Sections 30 to 32.]

Order 15, Rule 4 — Note 1.

[1] In a case in which the summons may have been issued for final disposal, if after the written statement is filed, the suit is found to involve issues of a less simple character than might have been anticipated at the outset, it is desirable in the interests of justice that the discretion given to the Court under O. 15, R. 4 should be so exercised as to ensure a fair trial and not to deny in effect the trial to the parties. (Vol 1) 1914 Bom 46 (47): 38 Bom 377.

[2] Adjournment granted conditionally on production of evidence — Condition not fulfilled — O. 15, R. 4 applies—Court can at once pronounce judgment—Suit cannot be dismissed for non-prosecution. (Vol 16) 1929 All 543 (543).

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENTS

ALLAHABAD

The following proviso shall be added :

"Provided that no party who has begun to call his witnesses shall be entitled to obtain process to enforce the attendance of any witness against whom process has not previously issued, or to call any witness not named in a list, which must be filed in Court before the hearing of evidence on his behalf has commenced, without an order of the Judge made in writing and stating the reasons therefor."

LAHORE

Add the following proviso :

"Provided that no party who has begun to call his witnesses shall be entitled to obtain process to enforce the attendance of any witness against whom process has not previously issued, or to produce any witness not named in a list, which must be filed in Court on or before the date on which the hearing of evidence on his behalf commences and before the actual commencement of the hearing of such evidence without an order of the Court made in writing and stating the reasons therefor." [15-10-1932.]

N.-W.F.P.

Substitute the following for Rule 1 :

"1. (1) On such date as the Court may appoint and not later than 30 days after the settlement of issues, the parties shall present in Court a list of witnesses whom they propose to call either to give evidence or to produce documents.

(2) They shall not be permitted to call witnesses other than those contained in the said list except with the permission of the Court and after showing good cause for the omission of the said witnesses from the list ; the Court granting such permission shall record reasons for so doing.

(3) On application to the Court or such officer as it appoints in this behalf, the parties may obtain summonses for persons whose attendance is required in Court."

OUDH

Substitute for Rule 1, the following :

"1. (1) The Court may, in any suit or class of suits require any party to file by a date to be fixed by the Court, a list of witnesses whom he proposes to produce ; and may, if necessary, direct that such list be kept in a sealed envelope for such time as the Court considers desirable.

Where such a list has been called for from any party, the latter shall not, except for special reasons, be permitted to summon or produce as witness, any person whose name has not been entered in the list.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (1) the parties may, after the suit is instituted, obtain, on application to the Court or to such officer as it appoints in this behalf, summonses to persons whose attendance is required either to give evidence or to produce documents."

Rule 1A—BOMBAY

The following shall be added as Rule 1A :

"1A. (1) The Court may, on the application of any party for a summons for the attendance of any person, permit that service of such summons shall be effected by such party.

(2) When the Court has directed service of the summons by the party applying for the same and such service is not effected, the Court may, if it is satisfied that reasonable diligence has been used by such party to effect such service, permit service to be effected by an officer of the Court." [9-8-1926.]

Rule 1A — SIND

Add the following as Rule 1A, after Rule 1 :

"1A. The Court may, on the application of any party for a summons for the attendance of any person as a witness, permit that service of such summons shall be effected by such party."

O. 16 R. 1 (contd.)

[6] Party can summon witnesses even after the time fixed by Court, but if witnesses are not served, Court should refuse adjournment. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 281 (281).

[7] Once a Court holds that a party is not to blame for non-attendance of his witnesses he ought to be given an opportunity of procuring the attendance of such witnesses. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 572 (572) * (1910) 8 Ind Cas 418 (419) (Oudh).

[8] Plaintiff not taking steps for one hearing — Suit adjourned—He has a right to get witnesses summoned again. (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 58 (59).

[9] Court cannot refuse to issue summons on ground that witness if produced would not support case of party summoning. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 572 (572) * (1905) 28 Mad 28 (36).

[10] A Court has no discretion to refuse to issue summons to witnesses on the ground that it is not possible to serve them in time. (1909) 5 Nag L R 181 (184).

[11] This rule does not take away the inherent power of the Court to refuse to summon witnesses in order to prevent an abuse of process of the Court. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 647 (649) * (1905) 28 Mad 28 (32, 36).

[12] There is no appeal against an order of a Judge refusing to grant an application for summonses. (1867) 7 Suth W R 147 (147).

[13] Application for summons refused—Appeal from decree in suit—Correctness of order refusing application can be questioned subject to provisions of S. 99. (1894) 16 All 218 (220) * (Vol 30) 1943 Oudh 91 (96) : 18 Luck 346. (The Appellate Court will not interfere unless it is shown that the trial Court did not exercise its discretion wisely) * (Vol 16) 1929 Pat 622 (623). (Refusal to summon witnesses — Refusal injuriously affecting decision—Decision can be set aside in appeal.)

[14] Lahore Amendment — Court has discretion to allow witnesses to be examined even if not mentioned in list if there are sufficient reasons for doing so. (Vol 28) 1941 Lah 38 (39).

[15] Witnesses present on date of hearing — Their names included in the original list — O. 16, R. 1, Proviso (local amendment), does not apply and the Court cannot refuse to examine them. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 317 (317) : 35 Cri L Jour 579.

[16] Proviso (Lahore) — Witnesses need not be named in lists filed originally—Plaintiff can file list till he actually commences to lead evidence. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 488 (489).

2. (1) The party applying for a summons shall, before the summons is granted and within a period to be fixed, pay into Court such a sum of money as appears to the Court to be sufficient to defray the travelling and other expenses of the person summoned in passing to and from the Court in which he is required to attend, and for one day's attendance.

(2) In determining the amount payable under this rule, the Court may, in the case of any person summoned to give evidence as an expert, allow reasonable remuneration for the time occupied both in giving evidence and in performing any work of an expert character necessary for the case.

(3) Where the Court is subordinate to a High Court, regard shall be had, in fixing the scale of such expenses, to any rules made in that behalf.

[1882—S. 160; 1877—S. 160; 1859—S. 151.]

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENTS

ALLAHABAD

To Rule 2, add :

"(4) This rule shall not apply, in cases to which Government is a party, in the case of witnesses who are Government servants whose salary exceeds Rs. 10 per mensem and who are summoned to give evidence in their public capacity at a Court situated more than five miles from their headquarters."

BOMBAY

Insert as proviso to sub-rule (1) :

"Provided that where Government or a public officer being a party to a suit or proceeding as such public officer supported by Government in the litigation, applies for a summons to any public officer to whom the Civil Service Regulations apply to give evidence of facts which have come to his knowledge, or of matters with which he has had to deal, as a public officer, or to produce any document from public records, the Government or the aforesaid officer shall not be required to pay any sum of money on account of the travelling and other expenses of such witness."

[21-10-1918.]

CALCUTTA

Cancel clauses (1) and (2) and substitute the following :

"(1) The Court shall fix in respect of each summons such a sum of money as appears to the Court to be sufficient to defray the travelling and other expenses of the persons summoned in passing to and from the Court in which he is required to attend, and for one day's attendance.

(2) In fixing such an amount the Court may, in the case of any person summoned to give evidence as an expert, allow reasonable remuneration for the time occupied both in giving evidence and in performing any work of an expert character necessary for the case."

[25-7-1928.]

LAHORE

Add the following exception to Rule 2 (1) :

"Exception.—When applying for a summons for any of its own officers, Government will be exempt from the operation of clause (1)."

[9-1-1919.]

NAGPUR

Add the following as an exception to Rule 2 (1) :

"Exception.—When applying for a summons for any of its own officers, Government and State Railway administrations will be exempt from the operation of sub-rule (1)."

[29-6-1943.]

PATNA

Add the following proviso to rule 2 (1) :

"Provided that the Secretary of State shall not be required to pay any expenses into Court under this rule when he is the party applying for the summons, and the person to be summoned is an officer serving under

Order 16, Rule 2 — Note 1.

[1] It is matter of course and common justice that a witness should be paid his expenses by the party at whose instance he had been summoned. (1879-80) 4 Bom 619 (621).

[2] Where a pleader is merely called to give evidence not on a question of law as an expert but merely to give evidence as to what occurred in a previous suit in which he was engaged as a pleader, no claim of special fees on account of status can be allowed. (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 116 (117) : 46 Bom 89.

[3] The assertion that a witness who has not made any claim to his expenses before giving his evidence could recover any sum due to him only by a suit is unwarranted. Witnesses in civil suits who have not been paid such reasonable sum for their expenses as the Court shall think fit, may apply to the Court at any time in person to enforce the payment of such sum as may be awarded to them. (1879-80) 4 Bom 619 (621).

[4] Witness does not lose his right to claim expenses because party at whose instance he was summoned did not examine him. (1904) 28 Bom 647 (649).

[5] Government servants — Salaries not deducted by Government—They are not entitled to include salaries in expenses when cited as witnesses. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 821 (822).

[6] Plaintiff repeatedly failing to pay process-fees for witnesses—Witnesses absent consequently — No good reason for plaintiff's act — Suit can be dismissed. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 457 (457, 458).

[7] Party filing list of witnesses and paying necessary expenses—Court's officers and not party are responsible for service and return of summons. (1871) 15 Suth W R 88 (89).

[8] Money paid to witness for batta and travelling expenses—Witness not attending Court though served —Money paid can be recovered by suit. (1907) 17 Mad L Jour 143 (143).

Government, who is summoned to give evidence of facts which have come to his knowledge, or of matters with which he has to deal, in his public capacity."

SIND

Insert the following as proviso to sub-rule (1) :

"Provided that where Government or a public officer being a party to a suit or proceeding as such public officer supported by Government in the litigation applies for a summons to any public officer to whom the Civil Service Regulations apply to give evidence of facts which have come to his knowledge, or of matters with which he has had to deal as a public officer, or to produce any document from public records, the Government or the aforesaid officer shall not be required to pay any sum of money on account of the travelling and other expenses of such witness."

Tender of expenses to witness. 3. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the person summoned, at the time of serving the summons, if it can be served personally.

[1882—S. 161; 1877—S. 161; 1859—S. 151.]

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENTSBOMBAY

Insert the proviso :

"Provided that where the witness is a public officer to whom the Civil Service Regulations apply and is summoned to give evidence of facts which have come to his notice or of facts with which he has had to deal, in his official capacity, or to produce a document from public records, the sum payable by the party obtaining the summons on account of his travelling and other expenses shall not be tendered to him." [21-10-1918.]

CALCUTTA

Substitute the following for Rule 3 :

"3. The sum so fixed shall be tendered to the person summoned, at the time of serving the summons, if it can be served personally." [25-7-1928.]

LAHORE

For Rule 3, substitute :

Tender of expenses to witness "3. (1) The sum paid into a Court shall, except in the case of a Government servant, be tendered to the person summoned, at the time of serving the summons if it can be served personally.

(2) When the person summoned is a Government servant, the sum so paid into Court shall be credited to Government.

Exception.—(1) In cases in which Government servants have to give evidence at a Court situate not more than five miles from their headquarters, actual travelling expenses incurred by them may, when the Court considers it necessary, be paid to them.

Exception.—(2) A Government servant, whose salary does not exceed Rs. 10 per mensem, may receive his expenses from the Court." [9-1-1919.]

MADRAS

The following shall be added as a separate paragraph :

"In the case of employees of the Central Government or a State Railway sums paid into Court as subsistence allowance or compensation shall be credited in the Treasury to the credit of the Central Government or State Railway as the case may be." [7-1-1942.]

NAGPUR

For Rule 3, substitute the following :

"3. (1) The sum so paid into Court shall, except in case of a Government servant or a State Railway employee be tendered to the person summoned, at the time of the serving the summons, if it can be served personally.

(2) When the person summoned is a Government servant, the sum so paid into Court shall be credited to Government, and when a State Railway employee, to the Railway which employs him.

Exception.—In case in which a Government servant or a State Railway employee has to give evidence at a Court situate not more than five miles from his headquarters, the actual travelling expenses incurred by him, may, when the Court considers it necessary, be paid to him." [29-6-1943.]

UDDH

Substitute the following for Rule 3 :

"3. (1) The sum so paid into Court shall, except in the case of an employee of the Central Government or a State Railway or any other commercial department of Government who is subject to the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (IV of 1936), be tendered to the person summoned at the time of serving the summons if it can be served personally.

(2) When the person summoned is an employee of the Central Government or a State Railway or any other commercial department of the Government, who is subject to the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (IV of 1936), the sum so paid into Court shall be credited in the treasury to the credit of the Government concerned, i. e., Central Railway or any other commercial department of Government as the case may be.

Exception.—In any case in which such a Government servant has to give evidence at a Court situate not more than five miles from his headquarters or while on leave has to give evidence at any place other than the place of his residence, actual travelling expenses incurred by him may, when the Court considers it necessary, be paid to him." [16-5-1941.]

PATNA

Add the following as proviso :

"Provided that when the person summoned is an officer of Government, who has been summoned to give evidence in a case to which Government is a party, of facts which have come to his knowledge, or of matters which he has had to deal, in his public capacity, then —

(i) if the officer's salary does not exceed Rs. 10 a month, the Court shall at the time of the service of the summons make payment to him of his expenses as determined by Rule 2 and recover the amount from the Treasury ;

(ii) if the officer's salary exceeds Rs. 10 a month, and the Court is situated not more than five miles from his headquarters, the Court may, at its discretion on his appearance, pay him the actual travelling expenses incurred;

(iii) if the officer's salary exceeds Rs. 10 a month and the Court is situated more than five miles from his headquarters, no payment shall be made to him by the Court. In such cases any expenses paid into Court under Rule 2 shall be credited to Government."

SIND

Insert the following as proviso :

"Provided that where the witness is a public officer to whom the Civil Service Regulations apply and is summoned to give evidence of facts which have come to his notice, or of facts with which he has had to deal in his official capacity, or to produce a document from the public records, the sum payable by the party obtaining the summons on account of his travelling and other expenses shall not be tendered to him."

4. (1) Where it appears to the Court or to such officer as it appoints in this behalf that the Procedure where insufficient sum paid in. sum paid into Court is not sufficient to cover such expenses or reasonable remuneration, the Court may direct such further sum to be paid to the person summoned as appears to be necessary on that account, and, in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the moveable property of the party obtaining the summons ; or the Court may discharge the person summoned, without requiring him to give evidence ; or may both order such levy and discharge such person as aforesaid.

(2) Where it is necessary to detain the person summoned for a longer period than one day, Expenses of witnesses detained more than one day. the Court may, from time to time, order the party at whose instance he was summoned to pay into Court such sum as is sufficient to defray the expenses of his detention for such further period, and, in default of such deposit being made, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the moveable property of such party ; or the Court may discharge the person summoned without requiring him to give evidence ; or may both order such levy and discharge such person as aforesaid.

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENT

ALLAHABAD

In sub-rule (1) substitute a colon for the full stop after the word "summons" and add the proviso :

"Provided that the Court need not examine the serving officer if the person has been summoned only to produce a document and has attended and admitted receipt of the summons but has failed to produce the document."

In sub-rule (2) :

(a) between the word "proclamation" and the word "requiring", insert the words, "or, if he is present, an order in writing to be signed by him";

(b) for the words "and a copy of such proclamation" substitute the words, "and a copy of the proclamation if issued".

In sub-rule (3) between the word "proclamation" and the words "or at any time afterwards" insert the words, "or an order in writing."

If witness appears, attachment may be withdrawn.

11. Where, at any time after the attachment of his property, such person appears and satisfies the Court,—

(a) that he did not, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with the summons or intentionally avoid service, and,

(b) where he has failed to attend at the time and place named in a proclamation issued under the last preceding rule, that he had no notice of such proclamation in time to attend, the Court shall direct that the property be released from attachment, and shall make such order as to the costs of the attachment as it thinks fit.

[1882—S. 169 ; 1877—S. 169 ; 1859—S. 160.]

12. The Court may, where such person does not appear, or appears but fails so to satisfy the Court, impose upon him such fine not exceeding five hundred rupees as it thinks fit, having regard to his condition in life and all the circumstances of the case, and may order his property, or any part thereof, to be attached and sold or, if already attached under rule 10, to be sold for the purpose of satisfying all costs of such attachment, together with the amount of the said fine, if any :

Provided that, if the person whose attendance is required pays into Court the costs and fine aforesaid, the Court shall order the property to be released from attachment.

Order 16, Rule 19 — Note 1.

[1] Plaintiff not residing within Court's jurisdiction nor within 200 miles from court-house — He cannot be compelled to appear in person as defendant's witness but should be examined on commission. (Vol 19) 1932 Nag 135 (136) : 28 Nag L R 146.

[2] The rule applies to persons who are ordered to attend in person to give evidence, including persons who may be parties, but are required to give evidence as witnesses. (Vol 9) 1922 Cal 42 (43).

[3] Rule 19 does not apply to summonses under S. 36, Presidency Towns Insolvency Act — Supposed debtor to insolvent's estate can be summoned even though he is beyond 200 miles. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 856 (859).

Order 16, Rule 20 — Note 1.

[1] Rule must be strictly construed. (1874) 22 Suth W R 270 (271).

[2] Party producing document under rule, but not exhibiting in evidence — Court cannot make order under R. 20 against him. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 145 (145).

[3] Rule applies only when party is present in Court and refuses to comply with order. (1911) 12 I C 719 (719) (Mad).

[4] Party who is not guilty of wilful default is not liable to be visited with consequences of this rule. (1866) 6 Suth W R 247 (248) * (1871) 15 Suth W R 269 (269) * (1873) 20 Suth W R 165 (166).

[5] Rule is permissive and not mandatory. (1866) 5 Suth W R 89 (89) * (1869) 11 Suth W R 5 (5).

[6] Order 16, Rule 20 does not give the Court an arbitrary power to dismiss a suit and give judgment against the party defaulting to appear wholly without reference to the state of evidence, still less without hearing the evidence. (1875) 24 Suth W R 314 (314, 315).

[But see (1876) 2 Cal 222 (225).]

[7] Decision pronouncing judgment under this rule is appealable order. (1866) 5 Suth W R 270 (270).

Order 16, Rule 21 — Note 1.

[1] Rule 21 applies only to case where party has been called by other party — Court has no power under it to allow travelling expenses of party giving evidence in support of his own case. (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 244 (244).

- (b) in the case of witnesses of a better class, such as zamindars, traders, pleaders, and persons of corresponding rank, from eight annas to two rupees a day, as the Court may direct; and
- (c) in the case of witnesses of superior rank, including officers of Government in receipt of a salary of not less than Rs. 200 a month, from three to five rupees a day.
- (2) If a witness demands any sum in excess of what has been paid to him, such sum shall be allowed if he satisfy the Court that he has actually and necessarily incurred the additional expense.

Illustration

A post office or railway employee summoned to give evidence is entitled to demand from the party, on whose behalf or at whose instance he is summoned, the travelling and other expenses allowed to witnesses of the class or rank to which he belongs and in addition the sum for which, he is liable as payment to the substitute officiating during his absence from duty. The sum so payable in respect of the substitute will be certified by the official superior of the witness on a slip which the witness will present to the Court from which the summons issued.

(3) If a witness be detained for a longer period than one day the expenses of his detention shall be allowed at such rate, not usually exceeding that payable under clause (1) of this rule as may seem to the Court to be reasonable and proper :

Provided that the Court may, for reasons stated in writing, allow expenses on a higher scale than that hereinbefore prescribed.

23. In cases to which Government is a party, Government servants whose salary exceeds Rs. 10 per mensem and all police constables whatever their salary may be who are summoned to give evidence in their official capacity at a Court situated more than five miles from their head-quarters, shall be given a certificate of attendance by the Court in lieu of travelling and other expenses."

ORDER XVII.

ADJOURNMENTS

Court may grant time and adjourn hearing. 1. (1) The Court may, if sufficient cause is shown, at any stage of the suit grant time to the parties or to any of them, and may from time to time adjourn the hearing of the suit.

(2) In every such case the Court shall fix a day for the further hearing of the suit, and Costs of adjournment. may make such order as it thinks fit with respect to the costs occasioned by the adjournment :

Provided that, when the hearing of evidence has once begun, the hearing of the suit shall be continued from day to day until all the witnesses in attendance have been examined, unless the Court finds the adjournment of the hearing beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENTS

ALLAHABAD

Add the following further proviso :

"Provided further that no such adjournment shall be granted for the purpose of calling a witness not previously summoned or named, nor shall any adjournment be utilised by any party for such purpose, unless the Judge has made an order in writing under the proviso to Order 16 Rule 1."

LAHORE

(1) Add the following at the beginning of sub-rule (1) :

"Subject to the provisions of Order 23 Rule 3."

(2) Add the following as sub-rule (3) :

"(3) Where sufficient cause is not shown for the grant of an adjournment under sub-rule (1), the Court shall proceed with the suit forthwith." [As amended on 21-7-1937.]

ORDER 17, RULE 1. — SYNOPSIS.

1. Applicability and scope.
2. Adjournment.
3. "Sufficient cause."
4. Costs of adjournment.

1. Applicability and scope. — [1] The Court has discretion to grant adjournment at any stage of the suit — Court can grant time for production of further evidence even during course of arguments. (Vol 3) 1916 Lah 175 (176).

[2] Adjournments made, not at the instance of the parties, but necessitated by the rules of the Court, which regulate the disposal of its own business, do not fall within the scope of O. 17, R. 1. (1898) 2 Cal W N 490 (491).

[But see (Vol 22) 1935 All 210 (211). (Rule 1 applies to adjournment made at party's instance as also by Court on its own motion)].

[3] It is the duty of Court to see that service of summons to witnesses is effected—Person applying to Court without delay for issue of summons and paying necessary fees but witnesses though served refusing to come to Court until served through their superiors—Adjournment prayed for is not one to which strict provisions of O. 17, R. 1 should be applied. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 620 (621).

[4] Hearing of suit is different from hearing of evidence. Court may adjourn the hearing of the suit and yet may, under O. 18, R. 2, refuse to accept documentary evidence which ought to have been but was not produced at the first hearing though such hearing resulted only in an adjournment. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 800 (801).

[5] When the hearing of a suit has once begun it must go on from day to day unless the trying Judge sees reasons to adjourn it. The District Judge has no power to order the adjournment of a suit which is part heard before Subordinate Judge. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 78 (78) * (1910) 8 Ind Cas 990 (991) (Rang). (A Court granting an adjournment beyond the following day is bound to record its reasons therefor.)

[6] Orders 9 and 17 apply to application for final decree under O. 34, R. 5, in view of S. 141. (Vol 24) 1937 Sind 273 (278) : 31 Sind L R 180.

[7] Order 17 does not apply to execution proceedings. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 418 (422) : 56 Mad 490 (F B). (Per Sundaram Chetty J.)

[8] An order of adjournment is not open to revision. (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 417 (418).

2. Adjournment. — [1] The granting of adjournment is a matter within the discretion of the Court to be exercised on the materials placed before it. (Vol 23) 1936 Pat 472 (474) : 15 Pat 561 (F B) * (Vol 22) 1935 All 476 (477). (Order of the lower Court deciding that there is sufficient cause to grant adjournment in its discretion is not appealable.) * (Vol 1) 1914 All 230 (232). (A Court of second appeal will not interfere with the exercise of such discretion.) * (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 879 (879). (What is sufficient cause is a question of fact — Second appeal does not lie.) * (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 486 (487). (It is in the discretion of the trial Court to allow a party to produce a witness for giving rebuttal evidence and to give adjournment for the purpose.) * (Vol 9) 1922 Nag 81 (81). (Adjournment is in the discretion of the Court of first instance.) * (Vol 4) 1917 Nag 48 (49). (Order refusing adjournment is not appealable — Appellate Court will not generally interfere with exercise of discretion refusing adjournment even in appeal from decree.) * (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 76 (78) : 5 Pat L Jour 390. (Non-compliance with a provision of law does not give a party an absolute right to insist an adjournment.)

[2] The discretion should be exercised judicially and reasonably, it not being subject to any definite rules. (Vol 1) 1914 Sind 105 (106, 107) : 8 Sing L R 275.

[3] Conduct of party should be scrutinised. (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 33 (33) : 1 Pat L Jour 173.

[3a] Court ought not to be too technical in the matter of adjournments. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 859 (860).

[4] Defendant summoning no evidence and applying for adjournment on pretext of illness — Court rejecting application on ground that defendant was shamming — Trial Court's discretion in refusing adjournment held properly exercised. (Vol 23) 1941 Sind 41 (44) : 1 L R (1941) Kar. 146.

[5] Application for adjournment should not be summarily disposed of. (Vol 15) 1928 Cal 102 (102).

[6] Refusal to postpone the hearing for an hour or two to give time for a party to appear can be hardly called proper. (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 165 (165).

[7] Date of hearing — Case not called until 2 p. m. — Six witnesses for plaintiff examined and 40 witnesses for defendant present — Defendant's advocate appearing in other Court and defendant applying for adjournment but Court refusing — Though defendant has not shown sufficient cause for not being ready with his case, Court should use its discretion in allowing adjournment. (Vol 16) 1929 Rang 215 (216).

[8] Suit by creditor — Debtor's objection that claim is fraudulent — C. I. D. officer appointed to investigate fraud — Date fixed for hearing adjourned and another date fixed — C. I. D. officer requesting postponement of case for two months — Postponement granted without any intimation to creditor's pleader — Procedure held not according to law. (Vol 23) 1936 Pat 472 (473) : 15 Pat 561 (F B).

[9] Adjournment should be asked for as early as possible. (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 236 (237).

[10] When a Court finds it necessary to adjourn a pending suit, it is part of the duty of the Court to see that the date fixed for the adjourned hearing is communicated to the parties concerned or to their pleaders or at any rate to such of them as are present or represented in Court when the adjournment takes place. (Vol 10) 1923 All 79 (80).

[11] Signatures of pleaders of both parties should be on order sheet. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 807 (809) : 4 Pat 440.

[12] Adjourned date need not be intimated to an absent party. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 113 (114) (S B).

3. "Sufficient cause." — [1] Question as to existence of sufficient cause for adjournment is one of fact. (Vol 22) 1935 All 476 (477).

[2] Plaintiff ready with witnesses several times but Court adjourning many times for want of time — Plaintiff failing on one occasion — Adjournment should be granted. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 944 (944).

[3] Witnesses served but absent as wrong date given in processes — It is good ground for adjournment. (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 336 (337).

[4] Summonses duly served but witnesses in question not presenting themselves before the Court at the hearing — Plaintiffs applying for adjournment to enable them to re-summon these witnesses but adjournment refused — Held the Court ought to have granted adjournment to re-summon the witnesses. (Vol 10) 1923 All 218 (219) : 45 All 407 * (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 176 (177).

[5] Plaintiff taking steps to secure attesting witness and not responsible for non-service — Adjournment should be granted for examining him. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 612 (613).

[6] Witnesses absent — Absence not due to delay in summoning — Adjournment should be granted. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 304 (304).

[6a] While it is desirable that trial of cases should be expedited no concession should be made to a party who does not exercise due diligence; it has to be remembered that witnesses are not always under the influence of the party by whom they are called and it may be necessary to secure the help of the Court in securing their attendance, and it is equally undesirable that cases should be expedited at the cost of substantial justice. (Vol 29) 1942 Lah 162 (163).

[7] Non-payment of process within time — Witness served in sufficient time to appear — Court should grant adjournment. (Vol 7) 1920 Nag 221 (222) : 16 Nag L R 1.

[8] The Court ought to grant adjournment if the witnesses fail to appear for non-service of summons due to vacation. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 833 (835) : 5 Pat L Jour 70.

[9] Adjournment cannot be refused on ground that witnesses would not be able to prove the facts in issue. (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 572 (572).

[10] Case set down for final hearing but further evidence required — Plaintiff not expected to come prepared at such hearing with evidence before he has seen defendant's written statement — Judge is bound to adjourn case. (1867) 7 Suth W R 84 (84).

[11] Case transferred without notice to defendant — Defendant should be granted adjournment if he pleads unpreparedness to go on. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 534 (534, 535).

[12] Hearing taken up on a date not fixed — Defendant praying for time — Court cannot pass ex parte decree. (Vol 16) 1929 Pat 609 (612) : 9 Pat 408.

2. Where, on any day to which the hearing of the suit is adjourned, the parties or any of them fail to appear, the Court may proceed to dispose of the suit in one of the modes directed in that behalf by Order IX or make such other order as it thinks fit.

[1882—S. 157, 1877—S. 157; 1859—S. 147.]

[13] Where there is a positive legal bar to a suit and where there are grounds for supposing that that bar may exist and where a decree (supposing such bar were to exist) would cause subsequent confusion and embarrassment the Court is justified in granting adjournment to enable the party to satisfy the Court on the point. (Vol 15) 1928 All 355 (356).

[14] Party undertaking to produce his own witnesses — Witnesses not produced — Court is not bound to give further time. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 641 (642).

[15] Order 17, Rule 1 (as amended) — Defendants aware of intended departure of witnesses — No steps taken to get them examined before they leave — Court can refuse to wait till their return. (Vol 19) 1932 Lah 591 (592); 13 Lah 458.

[16] Laches in paying process fees may be ground for refusing adjournment. (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 336 (337).

[17] Adjournment cannot be granted for the reason that compromise was suggested. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 401 (401).

[17a] Agreement in good faith between parties for an adjournment for a compromise — Adjournment should be granted. (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 256 (257).

[18] Parties cannot get adjournments on the ground that somebody else undertakes to keep the Court busy. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 774 (776); 51 Cal 70.

[19] Where a notice as to inspection and discovery of documents is adjourned to the hearing of the suit, though no judgment is given on the notice, the Court may proceed with the suit on the day fixed for hearing and refuse further adjournment especially where the nature of the case requires the avoidance of delay. (Vol 12) 1925 Bom 105 (108).

[20] Absence of due diligence — No adjournment can be granted. (Vol 10) 1928 Lah 548 (550); 4 Lah 258 (Vol 13) 1926 Oudh 75 (76). (Missing of a train is no good ground for absence.)

[21] Adjournment must be granted for attendance of witness who is ill even in spite of two previous adjournments. (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 501 (501).

[22] Absence of advocate owing to his attendance in another case is not sufficient ground for adjournment. (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 258 (258).

4. Costs of adjournment. — [1] The party who is ready to proceed with the suit should be awarded such costs as can reasonably be held to be occasioned by the adjournment and as might reasonably compensate him for the expense incurred by reason of the adjournment — The condition imposed should not be in the nature of a penalty or punishment to the party asking for adjournment. (Vol 38) 1946 Bom 113 (114) & (Vol 29) 1942 Lah 162 (163). (Costs should not be awarded against party not substantially at fault in matter of adjournment.) & (Vol 17) 1930 Oudh 171 (173); 4 Luck 529.

[2] Plaintiff failing to bring forward sufficient evidence to establish his case in an ex parte suit asking for adjournment to bring more evidence — Adjournment granted on condition that plaintiff bears the whole costs of the hearing. (1881) 7 Cal 177 (177).

[3] Costs occasioned by adjournment should be ordered to be paid and not costs of suit generally. (Vol 25) 1933 Mad 711 (711).

[4] Plaintiff allowed to sue as pauper — Costs can be made condition precedent for allowing him an adjournment. (Vol 15) 1928 Rang 306 (307); 6 Rang 561 & (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 437 (438). (Such condition can be enforced by dismissal of suit.)

[5] Payment of costs ordered before next hearing — Party not so paying has no right to be heard. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 786 (788).

[6] Adjournment granted subject to payment of adjournment costs within certain time — Costs not paid within time granted — Suit can be dismissed. (Vol 27) 1940 Nag 158 (159) & (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 111 (111, 112). (Appeal.) & (Vol 3) 1916 Lah 162 (163).

[7] Defendants granted adjournment on condition of paying costs — Default in paying — Defence can be struck off. (Vol 12) 1925 All 280 (281); 47 All 538.

[8] Unless payment of costs is made a condition precedent to the hearing of defendants' evidence the defence cannot be struck off. (1898) 21 Mad 403 (404).

[9] Court offering defendant opportunity to make detailed statement under O. 6, R. 5 on payment of adjournment costs — Defendant refusing conditional offer — Formal amendment of plaint subsequently allowed — On such amendment, held no case for further pleadings arose and Court rightly refused to accept defendant's belated statement. (Vol 24) 1937 Nag 376 (378); 1 I L R (1937) Nag 498.

[10] The dismissal of an application for adjournment granted with a direction to pay costs, because the applicant failed to pay costs fixed by the Court on the same day is wrong. The party should be given sufficient time to produce the money. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 570 (571).

[11] Where leave to sue in forma pauperis, is granted and thereafter the plaintiff applies for the amendment of the plaint it is not competent for the Court after allowing the amendment to direct him to pay the costs of the amendment and then dismiss the suit for default of payment of such costs. (Vol 9) 1922 Bom 385 (385); 47 Bom 104.

[12] Adjournment for good cause must be granted without costs. (Vol 2) 1915 Lah 476 (477).

[13] Pleader asked to admit genuineness of document is entitled to consult client — Pleader demanding short adjournment should not be burdened with costs. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 705 (706).

[14] Date fixed for scrutiny of processes is not one for hearing of case — Court cannot order defendant to pay costs for his failure to appear on that date. (Vol 29) 1942 Lah 162 (163).

[15] Suit dismissed for non-payment of adjournment costs — Appeal lies — Suit cannot be restored in inherent jurisdiction. (Vol 30) 1943 Nag 149 (150, 151); 1 I L R (1943) Nag 613.

[16] Order dismissing suit for non-payment of costs of adjournment falls under O. 17, R. 3 and not R. 1 — Dismissal bars second suit (Oudh amendment.) (Vol 31) 1944 Oudh 89 (40).

4. Remedy of party aggrieved.
5. Distinction between Rr. 2 and 3—See O. 17, R. 3.

1. Scope and applicability. — [1] Rule applies to cases in which a party having originally appeared fails to do so on the day to which the hearing is adjourned. (Vol 32) 1945 Sind 98 (102); 1 I L R (1945) Kar 1 &

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENTS

ALLAHABAD

Add the following :

"Where on any such day, the evidence, or a substantial portion of the evidence, of any party has already been recorded and such party fails to appear the Court may in its discretion proceed with the case as if such party were present, and may dispose of it on the merits.

Explanation. — No party shall be deemed to have failed to appear if he is either present or is represented in Court by an agent or pleader, though engaged only for the purpose of making an application." [28-5-1943.]

[4] Plaintiff directed to appear but instead of him, his vakil appearing on that date—It is no appearance by party. (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 414 (414).

[5] A party had summoned witnesses who did not appear in spite of the summons. Held, that this did not amount to default in appearance of the party within O. 17, R. 2. (1911) 33 All 690 (694).

[6] On the date fixed for final disposal plaintiff found absent—His pleader offered to argue only law points as he could not lead evidence in the absence of plaintiff. — Suit dismissed for default — Held dismissal was incorrect and that lower Court ought to have proceeded with case. (Vol 20) 1933 All 539 (539, 540).

[7] If the plaintiff appears with his witnesses, the Court must proceed with the case though his counsel, is absent. (1909) 33 Bom 475 (477).

[8] The mere fact that the defendant fails to appear when summoned as a witness by the plaintiff, will not entitle the Court to declare him ex parte, when his pleader is present. The practice of one party summoning his opponent as a witness is objectionable. (1909) 3 Ind Cas 45 (45) (Bom).

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENT

OUDH

Substitute the following :

"3. Where any party to a suit to whom time has been granted fails, without reasonable excuse, to produce his evidence, or to cause the attendance of his witnesses, or to comply with any previous order or to perform any other act necessary to the further progress of the suit for which time has been allowed, the Court may, notwithstanding such default, and whether such party is present or not, proceed to decide the suit on the merits."

O. 17 R. 2 (contd.)

is not appealable but is open to revision. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 433 (434).

[3] Adjournment granted conditionally on production of evidence—Condition not fulfilled—O. 15, R. 4 applies and decree is appealable even if suit is wrongly dismissed for default under O. 17, R. 2. (Vol 16) 1929 All 543 (543).

[4] Plaintiff's case closed—Case adjourned to next day for defendant's evidence—Plaintiff absent next day—Suit dismissed for default—No revision lies. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 433 (434).

[5] Wrong decision that O. 9, R. 13 did not apply—Revision lies. (Vol 12) 1925 All 267 (268): 47 All 140.

[6] Where the plaintiff has shown sufficient reason for his own absence, and where his presence is necessary he can ask for restoration. (1910) Mad L Tim 308 (309).

[7] Suit was dismissed for non-appearance of plaintiff on an adjourned date. Held that case should be restored under O. 9, R. 9 after showing sufficient cause for non-appearance. (1912) 34 All 426 (428)* (Vol 2) 1915 All 196 (196).

[8] The ex parte decree passed on an adjourned date of hearing under this rule after taking the evidence can be set aside under O. 9, R. 9 by application. (1909) 36 Cal 189 (192)* (1897) 19 All 355 (356).

[9] Court hours from 6 a. m. to noon—Court unable to attend during these hours—Case disposed of in absence of defendants after Court hours—Application for restoration should be granted. (Vol 20) 1933 All 652 (654).

[10] Two suits adjourned and parties asked to file list of witnesses before certain date—On date of hearing one suit dismissed "for default" and other dismissed "for want of prosecution" as list of witnesses not filed by plaintiff—Order of dismissal in each case being one under O. 17, R. 2 read with O. 9, R. 8, application for setting it aside and restoration of suit could be made under O. 9, R. 9. (Vol 24) 1937 Rang 437 (438).

[11] No evidence taken till date to which case was adjourned on defendant's application—Defendant absent on that date—Court after taking evidence for plaintiff decreed suit—It acted under this rule and defendant has right to apply under O. 9, R. 13. (Vol 17) 1930 Rang 270 (271): 8 Rang 168.

[12] Order under O. 17, R. 2—Proper procedure to set it aside is by application under O. 9, R. 13 and not by review application. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 116 (117): 60 Cal 1331.

[13] Right of having ex parte decree set aside is substantive—New explanation to rule by Allahabad High Court cannot therefore be retrospective. (Vol 15) 1928 All 760 (761).

[14] If a suit is dismissed for failure of the plaintiff to produce any evidence after an order refusing an adjournment, the order of dismissal is a decree and not an order. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 1052 (1053).

ORDER 17, RULE 3—SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope and applicability of the rule.
2. Execution proceedings.
3. Distinction between Rr. 2 and 3.
4. "To whom time has been granted".
5. Party deemed to have failed to do the act within time.
6. Other acts necessary for the progress of the suit.
7. Remedy against an order under this rule.

1. Scope and applicability of the rule.—[1] Order 17, Rule 3 can be applied only when the hearing has been adjourned at the instance of a party who subsequently makes the default. (Vol 15) 1928 Rang 191 (192): 6 Rang 323* (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 595 (597).

[2] R. 3 applies only where party to whom time has been granted fails to perform any act necessary for progress of suit. (Vol 20) 1933 All 907 (908)* (Vol 22) 1935 All 210 (212.) (Plaintiff asked to produce evidence applying for adjournment—Order dismissing suit is on merits and not for default.) * (Vol 8) 1921 Bom 458 (458): 45 Bom 1181. (Dismissal of suit for non-appearance of parties on the adjourned date—Adjournment on the motion of Court itself—Order comes under R. 2 and not this rule.)* (Vol 2) 1915 Mad-864 (865) * (1876-78) 1 Mad 287 (288). (Where issues were settled and the case had been adjourned for final disposal, an order of dismissal for the non-appearance of the plaintiff could not be properly made.)* (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 148 (148, 149): 51 Rang. 838. (Refusal of adjournment and dismissal of suit—Order is not one under O. 17, R. 3 but a decree.)

[3] Order 17, R. 3 is an enabling and not a mandatory rule. (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 344 (345): 1919 Pun Re No. 150* (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 560 (560.) (Garnishee denying debt—Still Court must investigate judgment-debtor's claim.)

[4] Powers under R. 3 should be used only in exceptional cases. Where defendant's absence is wilful and deliberate Rule 3 should be applied. (Vol 30) 1943 Sind 94 (95, 96) : I L R (1942) Kar 547.

[5] Facts of case coming both under R. 2 and R. 3—Court has to act only under R. 2. (Vol 6) 1919 Low Bur 139 (140) : 9 Low Bur 266.

[6] A decision passed "forthwith" under O. 17, R. 3 is one on the merits as gathered from available facts. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 708 (708) * (Vol 28) 1941 Bom 83 (85) : I L R (1941) Bom 150. (Case cannot be disposed of on merits in the absence of evidence.) * (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 26 (27) * (Vol 25) 1938 Sind 142 (143, 144) (Order of dismissal without reference to materials on record is against this rule.)

[7] Whatever evidence is available should be taken and considered before there can be an order of dismissal. (1911) 1 Mad VN 71 (71) * (Vol 6) 1919 All 252 (253) : 41 All 663. (Party unable to proceed with case—Court should dispose of case on materials before it.) * (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 109 (110). ("Notwithstanding such default" implies that the Court is to proceed, in spite of default, with disposal of suit on merits.)

[8] Where Court is not able to decide suit forthwith on the materials before it, it should not proceed under this rule. (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 344 (345) : 1919 Pun Re No. 150.

[9] Defendant's prayer for adjournment refused but time given to produce witnesses—Plaintiff's evidence recorded and without waiting up to day fixed for defendant's witness ex parte decree passed—Decree held to be illegal. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 251 (251.)

[10] Rule does not authorise dismissal summarily. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 404 (404). (Party paying process-fee is not responsible for non-appearance of witnesses.)

[11] Rule has application only after the institution of suit. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1045 (1046). (Plaint rejected because plaintiff did not file amended plaint as asked to do, O. 17, R. 3 does not apply.)

[12] Where in substance the order is one under R. 2 the mere remark of the Judge that it is under this rule will not make it so. (Vol 27) 1940 All 217 (218).

[13] Court deciding case either under O. 9 or O. 17 must specify the order. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 600 (601) : 4 Pat L Jour 277.

[14] Decree passed under O. 17, R. 3 cannot be regarded as ex parte decree—Defendant cannot apply for restoration under O. 9, R. 13. (Vol 26) 1939 All 642 (643).

[15] Rule 3 does not apply to proceedings under S. 36 (6) (a) of the Bengal Money Lenders Act of 1940. (Vol 30) 1943 Cal 152 (154) : I L R (1943) 1 Cal 386.

2. Execution proceedings. — [1] This rule does not apply to execution proceedings. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 418 (422) : 56 Mad 490 (F B). (Still Court has power to dismiss execution petition for non-payment of batta.) * (1893) 15 All 84 (94) (F B). ((1893) 15 All 49, overruled.)

3. Distinction between Rules 2 and 3. — [1] Rule 2 applies where adjournment is generally granted. This rule applies where it is granted for one of the special purposes mentioned in it. (Vol 30) 1943 Bom 321 (324) : I L R (1944) Bom 1 (F B). (General adjournment under O. 15, R. 3. This rule does not apply.) * (Vol 16) 1929 Rang 73 (74).

[2] Rule 3 and R. 2—Former rule applies to hearings adjourned at the instance of Court, while the latter applies to hearings adjourned at instance of a party. (Vol 1) 1914 Sind 92 (92) : 8 Sind L R 241 * (Vol 18) 1931 Bom 111 (113) * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 278 (280, 281).

[3] Rule 3 is not in terms confined to default of appearance as is R. 2. Rule 3 applies where party is present and default has been made in production of evidence or performance of an act necessary for the further progress of the suit. (Vol 28) 1941 Bom 83 (85) : I L R (1941) Bom 150 * (Vol 14) 1927 All 507 (507) * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 278 (280, 281) * (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 485 (487) : 1 Pat 188 * (Vol 17) 1930 Rang 270 (271) : 8 Rang 168 * (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 236 (238). (Dismissal wholesale is not proper if pleader is unprepared—Court should proceed to decide on merits.)

[4] Rule 2 deals with any kind of adjournment and gives power to dispose of suit under O. 9 where there is default in appearance. Rule 3 does not operate unless the hearing itself has commenced. (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 27 (28) : 46 Bom 1026.

[5] Where requisites of R. 2 are satisfied R. 3 should not be applied even though additional circumstances exist which satisfy the requisites of R. 3. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 143 (146, 147) : 41 Mad 286. (Neither defendants nor their vakil present on adjourned date — Vakil reporting he has "no instructions" beyond applying for adjournment — Decree passed is ex parte.)* (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 210 (211): 58 Mad 817* (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 530 (531). (Physical presence of pleader without instructions does not amount to appearance of parties.)

4. "To whom time has been granted". — [1] Where a party is merely ordered to be present at an adjourned hearing it does not amount to the granting of time for the purpose of doing any of the acts mentioned under the rule. (Vol 27) 1940 All 217 (218)* (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 388 (388). (Failure to comply with order by one of the plaintiffs to give evidence.)

[2] Adjournment under O. 15, R. 3 (2) for production of further evidence does not amount to granting of time under this rule. (Vol 30) 1943 Bom 321 (324): ILR (1944) Bom 1 (FB).

[3] Adjournment on the joint application of both the parties is not covered by this rule. (1887) 10 Mad 270 (271).

[But see (Vol 26) 1939 All 524 (525, 526). (Time granted on joint application — On failing to produce evidence or perform other acts necessary for progress of suit — Order 17, R. 3 still applies.)]

[4] Rule does not apply where time was granted to the opposite party and not to the party in default. (1884) 7 Mad 41 (42).

[5] Time must have been granted for doing what was not the duty of the Court itself to do. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 404 (404).

[6] Application for adjournment for getting transfer of suit — Adjournment refused and case posted for further evidence — No time granted under this rule. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 281 (281).

[7] Time granted under this rule — Date fixed on the request of parties falling on a holiday — Court can proceed under this rule. (1906) 1906 Pun Re No. 111, p. 426 (427, 428).

5. Party deemed to have failed to do the act within time. — [1] Refusal of application for issue of warrants for arrest against defaulting witness at an adjourned hearing — Pleader reporting no instructions — Dismissal is not under this rule. (1910) 5 Ind Cas 499 (499) (Cal).

[2] Parties failing to summon witness in time fails to do an act within time. (Vol 1) 1914 Low Bur 198 (199).

[3] Process-server being partly responsible for non-attendance of witness — Rule 3 should not be applied against plaintiff. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 272 (272)* (1911) 33 All 690 (694)* (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 296 (296)* (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 281 (281, 282). (Correct address and other particulars furnished correctly — Expenses also paid — Non-service of process — Party cannot be penalised — Refusal to pay illegal levy of warrant process — The rule will not apply.)

[4] Party acting with due diligence and paying process-fee in time — Witness not served — Any adjournment granted for want of service does not amount to time granted to party. (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 27 (28)* (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 304 (304). (Taking steps late but sufficient time available to get witnesses served — The party is not at fault.)

[5] Non-return of commission ordered is no failure on the part of a party. (Vol 14) 1927 All 749 (750)* (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 204 (205).

[6] When time is regarded as the essence of the default, the party should be given distinct notice of the time limit. (1890) 13 Mad 510 (511).

[7] In recording orders of dismissal for laches on the part of plaintiff, the Court should be careful to mention whether he is acting under R. 2 or R. 3. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 589 (590).

6. Other acts necessary for the progress of suit.

— [1] The act contemplated by this rule must be necessary to the further progress of the suit. (1898) 21 Mad 403 (404). (Cost ordered to be paid is not condition precedent to the hearing.)

[2] Production of stay order is not an "act" within the rule. (Vol 15) 1928 Nag 24 (26).

[3] Following are acts necessary to the further progress of the suit :—

(a) Taking further steps within time allowed where summons was returned unserved. (1912) 17 Ind Cas 294 (295) (All)* (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 33 (33): 1 Pat L Jour 173. (Process-fee not paid within time fixed or reasonable time — Court can refuse adjournment).

(b) Payment of costs under conditional order setting aside ex parte proceedings. (Vol 17) 1930 Oudh 351 (352)* (1911) 34 Mad 88 (90). (Failure to deposit security on application to set aside small cause decree).

(bb) Order dismissing suit for non-payment of costs of adjournment falls under O. 17, R. 3 — Dismissal bars second suit. (Vol 31) 1944 Oudh 39 (39).

[See also (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 1221 (1222). (Party not aware of order for costs — Hearing not conditional upon payment — Time should be allowed.)]

(c) Taking steps for preparation of Bench Copies and translation of vernacular documents. (Vol 6) 1919 Low Bur 139 (140): 9 Low Bur Rul 266.

[See however (1911) 1911 Mad W N 71 (71). (Failure of plaintiff to produce English translation of Gujarati accounts — Dismissal of suit improper.)]

(e) Defendant not filing written statement within time allowed. (1946) 1946 All W R (H C) 415 (416)* (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 1163 (1164)* (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 82 (83).

[4] Following acts are not necessary for the progress of the suit :—

(a) Amendment of plaint and payment of costs. (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 571 (571). (Dismissal for failure does not fall under this rule.)

(b) Non-production of document which ought to be produced in Court by the plaintiff when plaint is presented. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 608 (608).

(c) Failure to take oath affecting third person which is illegal on the day appointed. (Vol 12) 1925 All 604 (605).

(d) Failure to supply defendant with copies in a specific language. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 316 (317).

7. Remedy against an order under this rule. — [1] Dismissal under R. 3 is a decree and operates as res judicata to bar a fresh suit for the same relief. (1912) 1912 Pun L R No. 25, p. 86.

[2] Where the decision is not one properly within the rule it does not operate as res judicata. (1895) 18 Mad 466 (467, 468). (Dismissal for non-production of a certificate of a heirship is not a decision under this rule.)

ORDER XVIII.

HEARING OF THE SUIT AND EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

1. The plaintiff has the right to begin unless the defendant admits the facts alleged by the plaintiff and contends that either in point of law or on some additional facts alleged by the defendant the plaintiff is not entitled to any part of the relief which he seeks, in which case the defendant has the right to begin.

[1882—S. 179, Explan.; 1877—S. 179. See Ss. 30 and 31.]

2. (1) On the day fixed for the hearing of the suit or on any other day to which the hearing is adjourned; the party having the right to begin shall state his case and produce his evidence in support of the issues which he is bound to prove.

(2) The other party shall then state his case and produce his evidence (if any) and may then address the Court generally on the whole case.

(3) The party beginning may then reply generally on the whole case.

[1882—Ss. 179, 180; 1877—Ss. 179, 180.]

[3] The dismissal of suit or passing of decree being on merits, the only remedy of the aggrieved party will be by appeal or review. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 143 (145): 41 Mad 286 (F B) * (Vol 31) 1944 All 211 (212): I L R (1944) All 297. (Adjournment refused — Plaintiff not examining even witnesses in attendance — Suit dismissed — Dismissal order was on merits and so appealable.) * (Vol 12) 1925 All 252 (252). (Court wrongly acting under R. 3 instead of under R. 2 — Remedy is by appeal.) * (Vol 6) 1919 All 252 (253): 41 All 663. (Part heard suit dismissed on the plaintiff, declining to proceed further — Appeal lies against order of dismissal.) * (1912) 36 Bom 536 (538). (Party aggrieved by an order under the rule san appeal.) * (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 562 (562). (Decree itself should be appealed against and not an order refusing to set it aside.) * (Vol 4) 1917 Mad 659 (660). (Appeal only lies against an order expressly passed under this rule though erroneously.) * (1870) 6 Mad H C R 262 (264) * (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 278 (280) * (Vol 23) 1936 All 659 (660, 661). (Ex parte decree passed — Appeal lies.) * (1912) 9 All L Jour 763 (765, 766). (Proper remedy is to appeal from the ex parte decree.)

[See (Vol 22) 1935 All 398 (402). (Order of dismissal on merits—Same Court passing the order cannot restore it holding that there was no decision on merits.) * (1938) 1938 All W R (B R) 115 (116). (Plaintiff's suit dismissed under O. 17, R. 3 — Remedy is appeal and not review.)]

[4] An application to restore suit under O. 9, R. 9 does not lie where suit has been disposed of under this rule. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 16 (17).

[5] No revision lies against an order under this rule. (1912) 34 All 123 (126) * (Vol 20) 1933 All 118 (119, 120). (Suit restored held to be under O. 9, R. 9 and no revision was competent from order of restoration.) * (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 427 (428). (Restoration order set aside in appeal — No revision lies on the ground that the decree was on merits.)

[See (Vol 3) 1916 All 133 (139). (Refusal to give adjournment—Hearing denied — Default of party to serve notice or neglect to pay process fees through failure of Court officials — Revision lies.)]

[6] Suit decided under R. 3—R. 2 mentioned instead of R. 3 by mistake in judgment—Remedy is appeal and not re-hearing. (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 495 (495) * (Vol 3) 1916 Oudh 335 (336). (Remedy is appeal and not application under R. 18 of O. 9.)

[7] The substance of the order should be looked into to determine whether an order comes under this rule. In doubtful cases it should be treated as one under Rule 2. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 589 (590): 4 Pat L Jour 712 * (Vol 10) 1923 All 153 (155, 156) * (Vol 9) 1922 All 497 (499). (Defendant absent but pleader present — Decree is not ex parte — Appeal from decree—Appellate Court should examine suit on merits.) * (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 256 (257): 3 Pat L Jour 481. (Court's recording a decree as "on contest" does not make it so when it is in reality an ex parte decree.)

Order 18, Rule 1—Note 1.

[1] Where a defendant or a set of defendants support the plaintiff's case, wholly or in part, the former must immediately follow the plaintiff and call his or their witnesses and then only can the other set of defendants, who differ from the plaintiff be called upon to address the Court and produce their evidence. (1908) 32 Bom 599 (602).

[2] Applicant for mesne profits of property taken in execution of decree reversed on appeal, must begin. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 145 (148): 47 Mad 800.

[3] When a plaintiff asks for the confirmation of his title, the onus is on him to make out that title to the satisfaction of the Court. (1869) 3 Beng L R (A C) 70 (76).

[4] In a suit for restitution of conjugal rights, where marriage is admitted but coercion and non-consent were pleaded it is the defendant who ought to begin. (Vol 1) 1914 Low Bur 210 (212): 7 Low Bur Rul 347.

[5] Raising of a preliminary issue by defendant, which is really a demurrer, gives him a right to begin. (1888) 12 Bom 454 (459).

Order 18, Rule 2 — Note 1.

[1] New pleadings cannot be introduced by plaintiff without Court's permission. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 615 (615).

[2] 'The day fixed for the hearing of the suit' does not mean or include the day on which issues are framed. (Vol 12) 1925 All 98 (99).

[3] The trial Court cannot refuse to take evidence of the witnesses tendered by the defendant while the hearing of the case for the defence is still proceeding. It could not pronounce, without hearing the witnesses, whether their testimony would be useful or not. (1885) 9 Bom 146 (149, 150).

[4] The omission of a counsel either to argue a question of law or his abandoning a question of law is not sufficient to disentitle Court to go into the question. The case is different when a question of fact is concerned. (1907) 11 Cal W N 340 (342).

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENTS.

ALLAHABAD

For the present Rule 2 substitute the following :

"2. (1) On the day fixed for the hearing of the suit or on any other day to which the hearing is adjourned, the party having the right to begin shall state his case, indicating the relevancy of each of the documents produced by him, and the nature of the oral evidence which he proposes to adduce and shall then call his witnesses in support of the issues which he is bound to prove.

(2) The other party shall then state his case in the manner aforesaid and produce his evidence (if any)."

LAHORE

At the end of Rule 2 insert the following Explanations :

"Explanation I. — Nothing in this rule shall affect the jurisdiction of the Court, of its own accord or on the application of any party for reasons to be recorded in writing, to direct any party to examine any witness at any stage.

Explanation II.—The expression "witness" in Explanation I shall include any party as his own witness." [9-6-1942.]

MADRAS

At the end of Rule 2, insert the following "Explanation" :

"Explanation. — Nothing in this rule shall affect the jurisdiction of the Court, for reasons to be recorded in writing, to direct any party to examine any witness at any stage."

[R. O. C. No. 1729 of 1926.]

NAGPUR

Add the following as sub-rule (4) to Rule 2 :

"(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule the Court may order that the production of evidence or the address to the Court may be in any order which it may deem fit."

[29-6-1943.]

OUDH

For the present Rule 2 substitute the following :

"2. (1) On the day fixed for the hearing of the suit or on any other day to which the hearing is adjourned the party having the right to begin shall state his case, indicating the relevancy of each of the documents produced by him and the nature of the evidence which each of his witnesses is expected to give and shall then produce his evidence in support of the issues which he is bound to prove.

(2) The other party shall then state his case in the manner aforesaid and produce his evidence (if any)."

RULE 2A — CALCUTTA

Insert the following as Rule 2A :—

"2A. Notwithstanding anything contained in clauses (1) and (2) of Rule 2, the Court may for sufficient reason go on with the hearing, although the evidence of the party having the right to begin has not been concluded and may also allow either party to produce any witness at any stage of the suit."

(2) After both parties have produced their evidence, the party beginning may address the Court on the whole case; the other party may then address the Court on the whole case, and the party beginning may reply generally on the whole case, provided that in doing so he shall not without the leave of the Court, raise questions which should have been raised in the opening address."

ODDH

Same as that of the Allahabad High Court, above, except that sub-rule (2) is numbered as (3) and the following is inserted as sub-rule (2) :

"(2) The substance of the statement of the case provided for by Rules 2 and 3 (1) above shall be taken down by or under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge and shall form part of the proceedings."

4. The evidence of the witnesses in attendance shall be taken orally in open Court in the presence and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge.

[1882—S. 181; 1877—S. 181; 1859—S. 172.]

²5. In cases in which an appeal is allowed the evidence of each witness shall be taken down in writing, in the language of the Court, by or in the presence and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily in the form of question and answer, but in that of a narrative, and when completed, shall be read over in the presence of the Judge and of the witness, and the Judge shall, if necessary, correct the same, and shall sign it.

[1882—S. 182; 1877—S. 182; 1859—S. 172.]

[a] This rule does not apply to the Chief Court of Oudh while exercising its original civil jurisdiction; see Oudh Courts Act, 1925 (U. P. Act 4 [IV] of 1925), S. 16 (2).

Order 18, Rule 4 — Note 1.

[1] The rejection of evidence upon the supposition that it would go only to prove the same facts deposed to by the witnesses previously examined, which facts, if proved, would have put an end to the case, is wholly irregular and detrimental to justice. (1841) 2 Moo Ind App 424 (427) (PC).

[2] It is the bounden duty of the Court to receive all the evidence tendered unless the object of a party, in summoning a large number of witnesses clearly appears to be to impede the adjudication of the case, or otherwise obstruct the ends of justice. (1871) 6 Beng L R App 10 (10) * (1872) 17 Suth W R 172 (172) * (1881) 6 Cal 608 (611) (SB). (The plaintiff is entitled to call such witnesses in evidence as he wishes to in support of his claim.)

[3] Court has always the power to examine any of the parties to the suit and compel their attendance. (1868) 10 Suth W R 280 (282).

[4] Court has power, if necessary, to examine any other person, other than parties to the suit, as a witness. (1868) 10 Suth W R 280 (282).

[5] Witnesses must be examined by the Judge himself in open Court — Judge's failure to examine them himself and allowing them to be examined by some one else is an irregularity but is no good ground for reversing the decision in the case. (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 433 (439).

[6] The Appellate Court is authorized to remedy the error of the lower Court in refusing to examine witnesses tendered by a party. (1841) 2 Moo Ind App 424 (427) (PC).

[7] Parties if so minded may agree that evidence shall be taken in a particular way and that evidence in one suit shall be treated as evidence in another. But, that is not a matter which can be said to affect the jurisdiction of the Court. (1906) 30 Bom 109 (112).

ORDER 18, RULE 5 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope and applicability.
2. "Shall be read over."

1. Scope and applicability. — [1] Order 18, Rules 5 to 12 have no application to Courts constituted under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act or to Courts exercising the jurisdiction of the Court of Small Causes. (Vol 12) 1925 Nag 412 (413) : 26 Cr L Jour 1350.

[2] Rules 5 and 6 apply to Special Referees appointed by Original Side of High Court. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 737 (739) : 61 Cal 488.

[3] A note by Munsif in the record of deposition as to the age of a witness at variance with his statement, cannot be made the basis of a finding as to the age by the Appellate Court. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 502 (503).

2. "Shall be read over." — [1] Deposition not read over to witness cannot be basis of prosecution for perjury. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 705 (709) : 51 Cal 236. (Dissenting from obiter in (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 289.) * (1881) 6 Cal 762 (763) * (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 318 (319) : 1 Lah 361 * (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 192 (193) : 18 Cr L Jour 607.

[But see (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 39 (40) : 18 Nag L R 192.]

[2] Reading out the deposition to a witness in a room adjoining the Court hall and at a distance of 30 feet from the Judge's seat is a sufficient compliance with O. 18, R. 5. Such a deposition is admissible in evidence in prosecutions under S. 193, Penal Code. Irregularity in reading out the deposition goes to its weight not to its admissibility. (Vol 5) 1919 Mad 334 (334, 335) : 19 Cri L Jour 608.

[3] Reading over of the deposition by the witness himself is a sufficient compliance with the rule, depositions so read over prove themselves under S. 80, Evidence Act. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 514 (516) : 46 Cal 805 : 20 Cri L Jour 324.

[4] Provisions not complied with when evidence is dictated to typist and typed record revised and signed by Judge — It is not illegality, but mere irregularity. (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 78 (80) : 55 Cal 1084.

[5] Substantial compliance with O. 18, R. 5, is sufficient to raise presumption under Evidence Act (1872), S. 80. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 514 (516) : 46 Cal 895 : 20 Cri L Jour 324.

6. Where the evidence is taken down in a language different from that in which it is given, When deposition to and the witness does not understand the language in which it is taken be interpreted. down, the evidence as taken down in writing shall be interpreted to him in the language in which it is given.

[a] This rule does not apply to the Chief Court of Oudh while exercising its original civil jurisdiction; see the Oudh Courts Act, 1925 (U. P. Act 4 [IV] of 1925), S. 16 (2).

7. Evidence taken down under section 138 shall be in the form prescribed by rule 5 and shall Evidence under be read over and signed and, as occasion may require, interpreted and corrected Section 138. as if it were evidence taken down under that rule.

[1882—S. 185A (3).]

[a] This rule does not apply to the Chief Court of Oudh while exercising its original civil jurisdiction; see the Oudh Courts Act, 1925 (U. P. Act 4 [IV] of 1925), S. 16 (2).

8. Where the evidence is not taken down in writing by the Judge, he shall be bound, as the Memorandum when examination of each witness proceeds, to make a memorandum of the evidence not taken substance of what each witness deposes, and such memorandum shall be down by Judge. written and signed by the Judge and shall form part of the record.

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENT

ODUH

Add the following proviso :

"Provided that such memorandum shall not be necessary in the case of a Judge who has obtained the previous sanction of the Chief Court to dictate evidence in open Court."

9. Where English is not the language of the Court, but all the parties to the suit When evidence may who appear in person, and the pleaders of such as appear by pleaders, do be taken in English. not object to have such evidence as is given in English taken down in English, the Judge may so take it down.

ORDER XIX.

AFFIDAVITS

1. Any Court may at any time for sufficient reason order that any particular fact or Power to order any point facts may be proved by affidavit, or that the affidavit of any witness may be proved by affidavit. may be read at the hearing, on such conditions as the Court thinks reasonable :

Provided that where it appears to the Court that either party bona fide desires the production of a witness for cross-examination, and that such witness can be produced, an order shall not be made authorizing the evidence of such witness to be given by affidavit.

[1882—S. 194 ; 1877—S. 194 ; Cf. R. S. C., O. 37 R. 1. See Ss. 30, 189 and O. 11.]

O. 18 R. 18 (contd.)

[3] A witness cannot be contradicted by Judge from his personal knowledge from local inspection. (Vol 24) 1937 Pat 333 (334).

[4] Parties agreeing to accept opinion of Judge on certain point requiring spot inspection and leading no evidence — Opinion of Judge formed on spot inspection can be accepted in place of evidence. (Vol 28) 1941 Nag 292 (292) : I L R (1942) Nag 269 (Vol 5) 1918 Pat 633 (634). (At the instance of plaintiff, the Munsif held a local inspection, and in the course thereof at the instance of both the parties he examined a person whose statements he used as confirming his impression formed independently of them. Held, that it was not open to any of the parties afterwards to turn round and say that the Munsif ought not to have used those statements.)

[5] Result of local inspection need not be recorded. (Vol 12) 1925 Cal 170 (170).

[6] Omission to make note of local inspection is formal defect and does not vitiate judgment. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 738 (739, 740).

[7] Local inspection by Court — Omission to reduce to writing result of local investigation — Court not basing its judgment on the result of local investigation — Inspection carried only to ascertain if map put by plaintiff correctly depicted the locality—Held, defendant not prejudiced by Court not putting into writing results of local investigation. (1922) 65 Ind Cas 601 (602) (Cal).

[8] The result of inspection should be recorded in proceedings and not left for notice till judgment. (1910) 4 Sind L R 180 (184).

[9] It is not desirable to order scene before accident to be re-enacted in local inspection. (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 774 (774).

[10] The Judge should carry out the inspection at any stage before the arguments are heard—If it is to be made at the request of the parties, it should be made clear whether the parties have left the matter to be decided as he thinks proper from his inspection, or that he is merely inspecting under O. 18, R. 18—The parties must have an opportunity to urge their arguments on notes of inspection made by the Judge — It is desirable that the Judge does not record his opinions and inferences — If the Judge records his impressions the parties should have an opportunity to meet them in argument. (Vol 32) 1945 Bom 302 (305).

[11] There is no objection to a Judge viewing the place in dispute, in order to enable him to visualise the locality and to appreciate the evidence before him—But there is absolutely no warrant for the procedure whereby the Judge converts himself into an unofficial investigator and inquires of all and sundry regarding their views of the rights of the parties, with the object of founding a judgment on what he has heard. (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 61 (64).

ORDER 19 RULE 1 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Affidavit — Essentials of.

2. Proof by affidavit.

1. Affidavit — Essentials of. — [1] An affidavit is a declaration in writing sworn before a person having authority to administer an oath. (1910) 4 Sind L R 88 (92, 93). (Statement sworn before foreign Court duly authorised to administer oath would be admissible as an affidavit under O. 19.)

[2] Want of seal of Magistrate before whom affidavit is sworn does not make it bad. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah. 376 (377).

[3] Vakalats, affidavits and pleadings — No difference exists in respect of their being 'signed'—Person making affidavit instead of signing his name may affix stamp bearing his name. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 175 (176): 51 Mad 242.

2. Proof by affidavit.—[1] Affidavits cannot properly be acted upon unless both parties agree to have them treated as evidence. (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 927 (928) * (Vol 32) 1945 Bom 60 (63) : I L R (1944) Bom 558. (Proof by affidavit is in discretion of Court—Bona fide desire of parties to produce witness — Affidavit should not be allowed.)

[2] Affidavit uncontradicted is prima facie reliable. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 864 (865).

[3] Application to set aside dismissal for default — Affidavit can be used as evidence of facts alleged therein. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 350 (351) : 18 Luck 104.

[4] This rule enables a Court to order that any fact may be proved by affidavit. Therefore where, on the day of the first hearing of a suit the defendant does not appear though served, the execution of the document sued upon may be proved by affidavit without calling a witness. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 164 (165).

[5] Identifier voluntarily swearing false affidavit as evidence of fact of service of summons held guilty both under Ss. 193 and 199, Penal Code. (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 161 (161) : 6 Pat 760 : 29 Cri L Jour 111.

[6] Where the adverse party bona fide desires the production of the deponent for cross-examination the Court cannot under this rule order that the affidavit may be read at the hearing on proof of certain facts. (Vol 13) 1926 All 161 (163) * (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 381 (382). (Showing answers to interrogatories.)

[7] Any person acquainted with the facts of the case may give the affidavit. (Vol 1) 1914 All 197 (199) : 36 All 13 : 15 Cri L Jour 164 * (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 177 (178). (An affidavit as to what was argued in a case sworn by a person who did not know the language in which the argument was made, is worthless.)

[8] Proceedings under S. 201, C. P. Land Revenue Act (2 [II] of 1917)—Revenue Court is Court of civil judicature and can receive affidavit as evidence. (Vol 22) 1935 Nag 125 (125) : 36 Cri L Jour 765.

Power to order attendance of deponent for cross-examination.

2. (1) Upon any application evidence may be given by affidavit, but the Court may, at the instance of either party, order the attendance for cross-examination of the deponent.

(2) Such attendance shall be in Court, unless the deponent is exempted from personal appearance in Court, or the Court otherwise directs.

[1882—S. 195. Cf. R. S. C., O. 38 R. 1. See Ss. 132, 133 and O. 11.]

3. (1) Affidavits shall be confined to such facts as the deponent is able of his own knowledge to prove, except on interlocutory applications, on which statements of his belief may be admitted: provided that the grounds thereof are stated.

(2) The costs of every affidavit which shall unnecessarily set forth matters of hearsay or argumentative matter, or copies of or extracts from documents, shall (unless the Court otherwise directs) be paid by the party filing the same.

Provincial Amendments

Rules 4 to 15—ALLAHABAD

Add the following Rules:

"4. Affidavits shall be entitled, In the Court of _____ at _____ (naming such Court.) If the affidavit be in support of, or in opposition to, an application respecting any case in the Court, it shall also be entitled in such case. If there be no such case, it shall be entitled In the matter of the petition of _____.

5. Affidavits shall be divided into paragraphs, and every paragraph shall be numbered consecutively and as nearly as may be, shall be confined to a distinct portion of the subject.

6. Every person making any affidavit shall be described therein in such manner as shall serve to identify him clearly; and where necessary for this purpose, it shall contain the full name, the name of his father, of his caste or religious persuasion, his rank or degree in life, his profession, calling, occupation or trade, and the true place of his residence.

7. Unless it be otherwise provided, an affidavit may be made by any person having cognizance of the facts deposed to. Two or more persons may join in an affidavit; each shall depose separately to those facts which are within his own knowledge, and such facts shall be stated in separate paragraphs.

8. When the declarant in any affidavit speaks to any fact within his own knowledge, he must do so directly and positively, using the words "I affirm" or "I make oath and say."

9. Except in interlocutory proceedings, affidavits shall strictly be confined to such facts as the declarant is able of his own knowledge to prove. In interlocutory proceedings, when the particular fact is not within the declarant's own knowledge, but is stated from information obtained from others, the declarant shall use the expression "I am informed," and, if such be the case, "and verily believe it to be true," and shall state the name and address of, and sufficiently describe for the purposes of identification, the person or persons from whom he received such information. When the application or the opposition thereto rests on facts disclosed in documents or copies of documents produced from any Court of justice or other source, the declarant shall state what is the source from which they were produced, and his information and belief as to the truth of the facts disclosed in such documents.

[5] No affidavit is necessary to support application for substitution of shebait's widow as plaintiff where evidence shows that she joined in performance of sheba with her husband. (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 270 (272).

10. When any place is referred to in an affidavit, it shall be correctly described. When in an affidavit any person is referred to, such person, the correct name and address of such person, and such further description as may be sufficient for the purpose of the identification of such person, shall be given in the affidavit.

11. Every person making an affidavit for use in a Civil Court shall, if not personally known to the person before whom the affidavit is made, be identified to that person by some one known to him, and the person before whom the affidavit is made shall state at the foot of the affidavit the name, address, and description of him by whom the identification was made as well as the time and place of such identification.

11A. Such identification may be made by a person :

(a) personally acquainted with the person to be identified, or

(b) satisfied, from papers in that person's possession or otherwise, of his identity:

Provided that in case (b) the person so identifying shall sign on the petition or affidavit a declaration in the following form, after there has been affixed to such declaration in his presence the thumb impression of the person so identified :—

FORM

I (name, address and description), declare that the person verifying this petition (or making this affidavit) and alleging himself to be A. B. has satisfied me (here state by what means, e. g., from papers in his possession or otherwise) that he is A. B.

12. No verification of a petition and no affidavit purporting to have been made by a pardanashin woman who has not appeared unveiled before the person before whom the verification or affidavit was made, shall be used unless she has been identified in manner already specified and unless such petition, or affidavit be accompanied by an affidavit of identification of such woman made at the time by the person who identified her.

13. The person before whom any affidavit is about to be made shall, before the same is made, ask the person proposing to make such affidavit if he has read the affidavit and understands the contents thereof, and if the person proposing to make such affidavit states that he has not read the affidavit or appears not to understand the contents thereof, or appears to be illiterate, the person before whom the affidavit is about to be made shall read and explain, or cause some other competent person to read and explain in his presence, the affidavit to the person proposing to make the same, and when the person before whom the affidavit is about to be made is thus satisfied that the person proposing to make such affidavit understands the contents thereof, the affidavit may be made.

14. The person before whom an affidavit is made, shall certify at the foot of the affidavit the fact of the making of the affidavit before him and the time and place when and where it was made, and shall for the purpose of identification mark and initial any exhibits referred to in the affidavit.

15. If it be found necessary to correct any clerical error in any affidavit, such correction may be made in the presence of the person before whom the affidavit is about to be made, and before, but not after, the affidavit is made. Every correction so made shall be initialled by the person before whom the affidavit is made, and shall be made in such manner as not to render it impossible or difficult to read the original word or words, figure or figures, in respect of which the correction may have been made."

ORDER XX.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

[See S. 33.]

*1. The Court, after the case has been heard, shall pronounce judgment in open Court, either Judgment when pronounced. at once or on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties or their pleaders.

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENT

MADRAS

The existing Rule 1 is re-numbered as sub-rule (1) and the following is added as sub-rule (2) :

"(2) The judgment may be pronounced by dictation to a shorthand writer in open Court where the presiding Judge has been specially empowered in that behalf by the High Court." [R. O. C. No. 1529 of 1923.]

ORDER 20, RULE 1—SYNOPSIS.

1. "Pronounce in open Court."
2. Judgment—When may be pronounced.
3. Notice to the parties.
4. Effect of non-compliance.

1. "Pronounce in open Court."—[1] Pronouncing judgment in open Court — Rule should be complied with in all cases. (Vol 10) 1923 Pat 129 (130): 1 Pat 771.

[2] A judgment cannot be said to have not been pronounced within O. 20 R. 1, simply because it is not read out entirely by the Court. (1926) 94 Ind Cas 121 (121) (Nag).

[3] The judgment of one of the two Judges constituting a Division Bench of the High Court which heard an appeal written and signed by him after retirement is a good judgment if it is read out and delivered on his behalf by the other Judge. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 494 (495).

[4] A judgment written and signed by the Judge who heard the case does not become invalid merely because it was read out in open Court by his colleague, a Judge presiding in another Court, whom he requests to read out the judgment. Such a procedure is at the most a mere irregularity not affecting the merits of the case and is covered by S. 99. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 799 (799).

[5] Judgment written, signed by Judge at home and communicated to parties by clerk in absence of Judge

Power to pronounce judgment written by Judge's predecessor.

2. A Judge may pronounce a judgment written but not pronounced by his predecessor.

O. 20 R. 1 (contd.)

on account of illness—Case held should be remanded for fresh hearing—S. 99 did not apply to the case. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 164 (165).

[6] Invalid pronouncement — Decree following — Decree should not be violated. (Vol 12) 1925 All 293 (295) : 47 All 332.

2. Judgment—When may be pronounced.—[1] Completion of hearing includes hearing of arguments. (Vol 4) 1917 Nag 99 (101) : 14 Nag L R 71 * (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 655 (690). (All arguments must be heard.)

[2] Commencement to write judgment before hearing whole evidence and arguments is irregular. (Vol 20) 1933 All 196 (196).

See also Note 3.

3. Notice to the parties. — [1] When a Court does not pronounce judgment at once after the case has been heard, it should give notice to the parties of the day of delivery of judgment. (Vol 4) 1917 Low Bur 90 (90).

[2] Omission to give notice of the date on which judgment is to be pronounced is a serious irregularity if not an illegality. (1912) 12 Mad L Tim 332 (333).

[3] Posting of notice upon notice board announcing result of appeal is not sufficient compliance with R. 1. (Vol 8) 1921 Mad 690 (690, 691).

[4] Judgment not pronounced at once — Due notice of future day given but judgment not pronounced even on that day—Judgment written on a certain day but no notice of it given to parties or their pleaders — Record showing that judgment was not pronounced to parties or pleaders—Held that judgment was never pronounced in accordance with law. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 839 (839).

[5] Judgment delivered not in presence of, or without notice to, parties is not nullity. (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 12 (12) : 28 Nag L R 308.

[But see (Vol 12) 1925 All 293 (294) : 47 All 332. (Parties absent—No notice to parties—Judgment cannot be validly pronounced.)]

[6] Nothing on record to show that notice under R. 1 was not given—Parties must be presumed to have received notice. (Vol 7) 1920 Oudh 42 (42) : 22 Oudh Cas 379.

[7] Court not bound to communicate decision to party. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 742 (743).

[8] Trial Court delivering judgment without having previously fixed date for same—Defendant being absent, judgment was sent to his counsel on some later day — Held, that this later day must be regarded the date of pronouncing judgment and limitation for appeal ran from day on which counsel for defendant was informed of judgment. (Vol 25) 1938 Lah 707 (708).

[9] Delay in filing appeal caused by failure of Court to give notice of date of judgment — It amounts to sufficient cause. (Vol 4) 1917 Low Bur 90 (90) * (Vol 2) 1915 Low Bur 108 (109).

4. Effect of non-compliance. — [1] A judgment though pronounced, dated and signed in contravention of the specific provision of O. 20, Rr. 1 to 3 constitutes an irregularity waived by the parties not objecting at the time and does not afford any ground for the reversal of the decree based on the judgment. The mere fact that the Court acted in a manner contrary to that prescribed by the Code, does not necessarily show that what was done was a nullity. The effect depends upon the nature, scope and object of the particular provision which has been violated. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 597 (598, 599) : 46 Cal 978.

[2] Failure to comply with Rr. 1 and 7 is irregularity — Merits of decree in appeal are not affected thereby. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 895 (896). (Question of limitation for appeal—Non-compliance with provisions is not mere irregularity.)

[3] Dismissal of application as time-barred — Omission to sign order — Vernacular order repeating fact of dismissal and initialled is binding on parties — Subsequent application without appealing is not maintainable. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 763 (764).

[4] Where it appeared that the judgment of the lower Appellate Court did not comply with the requirements of the law, the Chief Court in second appeal set it aside and remanded the case for decision on its merits. (1919) 1919 Pun L R No. 35 p. 73.

[5] It is not legal for a Judge trying a civil suit to ask two members of the bar to act as assessors presumably to appraise the value of the evidence and to base his judgment on that opinion. (1913) 21 Ind Cas 427 (428) (All).

Order 20, Rule 2 — Note 1.

[1] Order 20, R. 2 does not apply to the original side of the High Court. (Vol 14) 1927 Bom 113 (114) : 51 Bom 267.

[2] The object of the Legislature in enacting this rule is that the judgment should be that of the Judge who heard the case though it may be delivered by another. (1885) 7 All 857 (859).

[3] A judgment written by one Judge and delivered by another, in the absence of the former is valid. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 171 (172).

[4] Judgment written by ex-Judge, after he has ceased to be Judge is valid — It can be pronounced by his successor-in-office. (Vol 23) 1936 Rang 147 (147) : 14 Rang 136 (F B) * (1913) 35 All 368 (369) * (Vol 7) 1920 All 332 (340) : 42 All 362 * (Vol 30) 1943 Pesh 11 (12) * (1911) 1911 Pun W R No. 13, p. 34.

[But see (Vol 11) 1924 Rang 358 (359, 360) : 4 Upp Bur Rul 171. (A judgment written by the predecessor after cessation of powers is a nullity.)]

[5] Judgment written and pronounced by Judge after transfer is valid. (Vol 3) 1916 Lah 78 (78) : 1916 Pun Re No. 80 * (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 578 (581) : 5 Pat L Jour 147.

[6] Judgment by retiring Judge held to be validly pronounced by his successor-in-office. (Vol 18) 1931 All 90 (91) : 53 All 133.

[7] Unless the parties affected by the decision are prejudiced and objection is taken promptly at the earliest opportunity, it would not be illegal, even if a judgment written by an officer who heard and recorded the evidence, is pronounced by the successor-in-office. (Vol 7) 1920 Pat 578 (581) : 5 Pat L Jour 147.

[8] The words "may pronounce" in O. 20, R. 2 are not mandatory and the successor-in-office of a Judge has an option to pronounce the judgment written out by his predecessor or his own judgment. Order 20, Rule 3 — Note 1.

[1] So long as the order has not been perfected the Judge has the power to reconsider the matter, but he will not do so if it would mean a reconsideration of the whole matter in controversy between the parties. (1909) 10 Cal L Jour 496 (498).

[2] The Judge deciding a case on the conclusion of all the evidence is not bound by the previous decision on certain issues of a Judge who has tried a part of the case. The prior decision can be reconsidered though given by consent. (Vol 5) 1918 Low Bur 7 (8).

[3] The jurisdiction of the Court to reconsider its order ceases once the judgment is signed except as provided by S. 152 or on review. (1913) 1913 Pun L R No. 254, p. 864* (Vol 20) 1933 Oudh 241 (242) : 8 Luck 502. (Order of Sub-Judge in appeal allowing plaintiff to amend plaint on payment of deficit court-fee and costs — Court has no power to further extend time.)* (1931) 8 Oudh W N 1238 (1239, 1240). (No clerical or arithmetical mistake — Judgment cannot be altered except by review.)* (Vol 26) 1939 Cal 782 (783). (Judgment setting aside ex parte decree delivered and signed — Finding that claim in that suit not proved to be true — Subsequent order restoring suit to file for retrial on merits is without jurisdiction.)* (Vol 20) 1933 Oudh 385 (386). (Order setting aside ex parte decree is judgment and cannot be set aside save under S. 152 or on review.)* (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 696 (697).

[4] Application dismissed with costs — Subsequent order as to taxation of costs under Oudh Rules, Chap. II, R. 97 was held not to contravene O. 20, R. 3. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 109 (110).

[5] Where judgment signed under O. 20, R. 3 directs the plaintiff to pay deficiency in court-fee within certain time and adds that in default the decree would be nullity, the Court has no jurisdiction to extend the time so fixed. (Vol 25) 1938 All 497 (501).

[6] Where a Judge pronounces a judgment but suspends the drawing up of the decree till a succession certificate is produced by the plaintiff, he cannot on plaintiff's failure to produce the certificate, cancel the judgment and deliver a different one inconsistent with the former. (1909) 31 All 153 (155).

[7] An accidental omission to sign an order is only an irregularity and an order in execution proceedings can be appealed against notwithstanding the irregularity, and it cannot be attacked in subsequent proceedings when it is not appealed against. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 763 (763).

[8] The words "after such revision as may be deemed necessary" in the rule as substituted by the High Court of Madras, do not authorise the Judge to revise the transcript and to substitute fresh words for the words originally dictated. They do not contemplate a revision of the effective part of the judgment, but should be of the nature referred to in S. 152 and one relating to clerical and arithmetical mistakes arising from an accidental slip or omission. (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 663 (664).

ORDER 20, RULE 4 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Personal knowledge.
2. Appreciation of evidence.
3. Contents of judgments.
4. Judgments of Small Cause Courts.
5. Other judgments.

1. Personal knowledge. — [1] A Judge cannot import his own private knowledge or opinion into a case but must decide it on the evidence before him. (1873) 3 Ind App 259 (286) (P O).

[2] A judgment based upon personal knowledge or opinion without any reference to the evidence in the case is not one in accordance with law and is liable to be set aside. (Vol 10) 1923 Cal 311 (312).

2. Appreciation of evidence. — [1] Conjecture is not a sound basis for judicial decision. (1913) 18 Cal L Jour 220 (222).

[2] The omission in a judgment to make any special reference to oral evidence is not itself sufficient to show that it was not considered. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 869 (869).

[3] Judge is not bound to refer in his judgment to each and every item of evidence relied on by parties. (Vol 18) 1931 All 210 (216).

*5. In suits in which issues have been framed, the Court shall state its finding or decision, with the reasons therefor, upon each separate issue, unless the finding upon any one or more of the issues is sufficient for the decision of the suit.

3. Contents of judgments. — [1] It is the duty of the lower Court to write their judgments without unnecessary prolixity and repetition of pleadings. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 305 (311).

[2] Judgment brief and unintelligible—Case must be remitted for a proper judgment. (Vol 9) 1922 Lah 122 (122).

[3] A Court's judgment based on a question neither raised in written statement nor included in any issue is bad. (1912) 15 Ind Cas 159 (160) (Cal).

[4] Judges, whatever reasons they may give in judgments, must make specific and precise statements of their findings. (Vol 4) 1917 All 212 (212).

[5] Court should not quote judgment of other Court or refer to opinion of other Court as its own—It should set out its appreciation of evidence. (Vol 4) 1917 Oudh 374 (374).

[6] "Petition is struck off," is not a legal disposal—Merits of the controversy must be judicially determined. (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 510 (511).

[7] Opinion on historical facts and persons not necessary for decision of suit should not be expressed in judgment. (Vol 32) 1945 All 54 (54); I L R (1945) All 3.

[8] A Judge is appointed to a judicial office for the purpose of advancing the interests of justice—It is a solemn trust and obligation which must be fulfilled most impartially. (Vol 33) 1946 Sind 39 (41); I L R (1945) Kar 354.

4. Judgments of Small Cause Courts. — [1] Judgment of Small Cause Court need not contain the reasons for the decision. (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 913 (913, 914) (1910) 4 Sind L R 17 (18) (Vol 4) 1917 Low Bur 34 (34) (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 360 (360). [2] Order 20, R. 4 (1) should be read with S. 25, Provincial Small Cause Courts Act—Small Cause Court is not bound to state reasons for the decision though it is done usually except in unimportant cases. Where a question of law is involved, it is desirable that the Judge should give reasons in support of his conclusion. Where the case involves complicated questions of fact; a brief statement of reasons for the decision and the process by which the Judge has reached the conclusion should be given to facilitate the work of High Court. (Vol 32) 1945 Nag 192 (194, 195); I L R (1945) Nag 475 (Vol 30) 1943 Bom 416 (417, 418) (Vol 10) 1923 Rang 252 (252); 1 Rang 274.

[3] Judgment must specifically state the points for determination and the decision on each of these points. (Vol 15) 1923 All 688 (688). (Statement "I disbelieve the defence. Claim proved and decreed with costs" held not enough.) (1922) 67 Ind Cas 851 (851) (Cal) (Vol 12) 1925 Oudh 283 (284) (Vol 19) 1932 Oudh 143 (144); 7 Luck 526 (1896) 6 Mad L Jour 50 (51) (1911) 7 Nag L R 146 (146, 147) (1928) 95 Ind Cas 584 (584) (Lah) (1910) 7 Mad L Tim 306 (306)

[4] Where the point for determination is obvious, the omission to state it in judgment, cannot be deemed to cause failure of justice. (Vol 4) 1917 Low Bur 34 (34, 35).

[5] Judgment of Small Cause Court must show that the Judge has applied his mind to the case and has recorded a decision on it. (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 486 (487) (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 62 (65) (Vol 17) 1930 All 832 (832) (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 257 (258).

[See also (Vol 20) 1933 All 339 (340).]

[6] Though evidence need not be recorded in extenso, Court should record summary of evidence on which it relies in its judgment. (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 308 (309).

[7] Points for determination must be stated in judgment and not after pleadings on record. (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 272 (272); 30 Nag L R 14.

[8] Judgment of Small Cause Court Judge though short must be intelligible—Order not showing what the suit or defence was held no judgment. (Vol 25) 1938 Oudh 225 (226); 14 Luck 211 (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 336 (340, 343); 55 Mad 671. (It is sufficient if it shows that Judge has grasped questions and that answers are not arbitrary.) (Vol 9) 1922 Pat 337 (337).

[9] Judgment jumbling up all points together and containing statement that "all issues are found in plaintiff's favour" does not comply with the rule. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1229 (1229).

[10] Judgment "consideration not proved, suit dismissed," held not valid judgment. (1913) 1913 Pun L R No 109, p. 393 (394).

[11] Judgment simply repeating arguments of counsel is unsatisfactory. (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 119 (120); 2 Lah 271.

5. Other judgments. — [1] Order 20, R. 4 (2) lays down that judgment should contain a concise statement of the case, the point for determination, the decision thereon and the reasons for such decision. (Vol 14) 1927 Lah 418 (419).

[2] Judgment need not discuss evidence. (Vol 20) 1933 Rang 174 (175).

[3] It is the duty of Judge to consider each objection whether of law or fact and to show in his judgment the nature of the objection and his grounds for allowing or dismissing it. (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 327 (327); 27 Sind L R 194.

[4] Ex parte decree—Judgment must comply with R. 4. (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 1221 (1221, 1222).

[5] To state merely that Judge is in agreement with finding of Court below is not sufficient. (Vol 25) 1933 Pat 69 (70).

[6] A Court in its judgment, stated that it adopted the reasons given in a judgment in a previous suit between the same parties; the evidence being almost the same, Held, this does not amount to using the previous judgment as evidence in the case and the judgment is one in accordance with law. (1912) 1912 Mad W N 900 (901).

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENT

Rule 7A—ALLAHABAD

Add the following new Rule 7A :

"7A. A Court, other than a Court subordinate to the District Court exercising insolvency jurisdiction, passing an order under S. 47 or S. 144, Civil P. C., or one against which an appeal is allowed by S. 104 or R. 1 of O. 43, or an order in any case, against which an appeal is allowed by law, shall draw up a formal order embodying its adjudication and the memorandum of costs incurred by the parties."

Procedure where Judge has vacated office before signing decree.

8. Where a Judge has vacated office after pronouncing judgment but without signing the decree, a decree drawn up in accordance with such judgment may be signed by his successor or, if the Court has ceased to exist, by the Judge of any Court to which such Court was subordinate.

9. Where the subject-matter of the suit is immoveable property, the decree shall contain a description of such property sufficient to identify the same, and where such property can be identified by boundaries or by numbers in a record of settlement or survey, the decree shall specify such boundaries or numbers.

[5] Judgment not awarding separate costs to defendants—Decree should not decree separate costs. (Vol 22) 1935 Pat 41 (41).

5. Set-off of costs.—[1] Costs not actually awarded—No set-off can be allowed. (1871) 16 Suth W R 308 (309).

[2] Costs awarded on the disposal of a preliminary point may be set off as against those awarded on the final decision of the suit. (1883) 9 Cal 797 (800, 801) : 10 Ind App 113 (P O).

ORDER 20, RULE 7—SYNOPSIS.

1. Applicability of rule.
2. Date of decree.
3. "Shall sign the decree."
4. Limitation. See S. 12 and Art. 182, Limitation Act.

1. Applicability of rule.—[1] Order 20, R. 7 does not apply to a Chartered High Court in the exercise of its ordinary or extraordinary original jurisdiction, but it does apply to the High Court in the exercise of its appellate jurisdiction. (Vol 28) 1941 Mad 929 (931) : 1 L R (1942) Mad 346 (F B).

[2] A decree of the High Court on its original side should bear the same date as the judgment and limitation should not be calculated from the date when the decree is signed by the Registrar. (1913) 25 Mad L Jour 560 (560).

2. Date of decree.—[1] A decree has to bear the same date as that of the order making it and not the date on which it is signed by the Court. [2] Decree operates from date of judgment although prepared subsequent to judgment. (Vol 29) 1942 Oudh 139 (141).

[3] Judgment given but passing of decree made conditional—Date when decree is passed must be considered as date of judgment and decree. (Vol 3) 1916 Sind 2 (3) : 9 Sind L R 193.

[4] Decree not drawn up on non-judicial stamp paper — Non-judicial stamp paper subsequently annexed and defaced and names of parties and cause title of case put down—Decree is in order with retrospective effect from date when it was drawn up and can be executed. (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 125 (126).

3. "Shall sign the decree." — [1] Decree signed — Presumption is that Judge has satisfied himself that it has been prepared in accordance with judgment. (Vol 20) 1933 Oudh 466 (467) : 9 Luck 90. (Court's proceedings are presumed to be legal and correct.)

4. Limitation.—See S. 12 and Art. 182, Limitation Act.

Order 20 Rule 9—Note 1.

[1] In suits relating to immovable property the decree should contain description of property sufficient to identify the same and where it can be identified by boundaries or survey numbers the decree should specify such boundaries or numbers. The reason is that otherwise the decree may in many cases become impossible of execution by reason of the indefiniteness of the property dealt with by it. (1876) 25 Suth W R 89 (40) * (1879) 4 Cal 69 (71, 72)*(Vol 31) 1944 Pat 254 (255) : 23 Pat 145. (The rule emphasises the fact that in the decree there should be a description of the immovable property sufficient to identify the same and if there be plot numbers, they should be given.)

[2] The Court can ascertain the subject upon which the decree operates from the acts and conduct of the parties. (1892) 19 Cal 312 (321, 322) * (1874) 22 Suth W R 330 (331) * (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 775 (775, 776) * (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 407 (409). (There is no error in leaving the ascertainment of boundaries to be decided in execution proceedings.)* (1871) 16 Suth W R 171 (172). (Boundaries described in plaint no longer in existence—Evidence may be taken to ascertain their former position.)

[3] Evidence cannot be taken in execution department to ascertain what is decreed. (1869) 12 Suth W R 99 (99).

10. Where the suit is for moveable property, and the decree is for the delivery of such property, the decree shall also state the amount of money to be paid as an alternative if delivery cannot be had.

11. (1) Where and in so far as a decree is for the payment of money,² the Court³ may for any sufficient reason⁵ at the time of passing the decree order that payment of the amount decreed shall be postponed or shall be made by instalments, with or without interest⁶ notwithstanding anything contained in the contract under which the money is payable.

(2) After the passing of any such decree the Court may, on the application of the judgment-debtor and with the consent of the decree-holder, order that payment of the amount decreed shall be postponed or shall be made by instalments on such terms as to the payment of interest, the attachment of the property of the judgment-debtor, or the taking of security from him⁸, or otherwise, as it thinks fit.

[4] Where the property was described in the plaint as follows. "Entire sixteen annas of kamat lands 45 bighas, 8 Ch. 3 dhurs in mouja Simaria Ghat T. No. 610 covered by Jamabandi No. 113, with all rights and interest therein, being plots Nos. . . ." and where the decree-holder sought to take possession of ten plots which were not mentioned by the numbers given in the plaint but formed part of sixteen annas kamat lands of Simaria Ghat Village, it was held that "sixteen annas kamat lands in village Simaria Ghat" was the leading description which must prevail over description by plot numbers which was incomplete, and therefore decree-holder was entitled to take possession of the ten plots not described by numbers. (Vol 31) 1944 Pat 254 (256): 23 Pat 145.

Order 20 Rule, 10—Note 1.

[1] Order 20, R. 10 does not mean that delivery of property must be decreed in every case. A person entitled to delivery of movable property from another is not bound to sue for delivery of the property itself. He may sue for value thereof. (Vol 11) 1924 Nag 176 (177, 178).

[2] Alternative decree for money in decree for return of movable property does not give the judgment-debtor an option to surrender property or to pay money decreed. It is only when after putting into force O. 21, R. 31, it is found impossible to obtain the property ordered to be delivered that the alternative amount in the decree comes into operation. (1903) 13 Mad L Jour 444 (444).

[3] Holders of a decree in terms of O. 20, R. 10 cannot execute the money portion of it without having recourse to the procedure prescribed by O. 21, R. 31. (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 652 (653) : 55 Cal 26 (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 39 (51) : 61 Cal 711.

[4] Money amount inserted in decree under O. 20, R. 10, as an alternative in case delivery cannot be had, is for the benefit of the decree-holder and not of defaulting judgment-debtor. Where the decree for the return of a letter did not state money amount to be paid in alternative if delivery could not be had, it was held that the executing Court could determine compensation payable in the alternative only after recourse to O. 21, R. 31 had proved fruitless in obtaining delivery. (Vol 30) 1943 Mad 716 (716, 717).

[5] Assessment of price under O. 20, R. 10 — Rate prevailing at time of suit should be applied. (Vol 32) 1945 Pesh 5 (5).

2. Decree must be for the payment of money.—

[1] Provisions of O. 20, R. 11 are intended to apply to what are commonly known as money-decrees, and not to decrees in which a sale is ordered of immovable property in pursuance of a contract specifically affecting the property. (1878-80) 2 All 130 (131, 132).

4. Order for payment by instalments. — [1] Small cause suit — Instalment decree passed on condition of the defendant executing the mortgage of a zamindari share in a certain village within a certain time is valid. (Vol 14) 1927 Oudh 236 (236).

5. Sufficient reason. — [1] The discretion under R. 11, O. 20 is to be judicially exercised on sufficient reason ; it should not be arbitrarily exercised. (1910) 6 Ind Cas 552 (552, 553) (Cal). (The spreading of a small amount over a long period of years is illegal.) * (Vol 21) 1934 Pesh 2 (3).

[2] In the absence of consent on the part of the plaintiff, the Court has no power to direct payment of decree amount by instalments where there are no sufficient reasons for doing so. (1880) 2 All 130 (132).

[3] The discretion to order payment of a decretal amount by instalments must never be exercised so as to constitute a virtual denial of the decree-holder's rights. (Vol 22) 1935 Rang 495 (495).

[4] Even a Small Cause Court, in granting instalments is required, under the provisions of O. 20, R. 11 to state its reason for granting the prayer. (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 559 (560).

[5] Decree for money passed against defendant, an influential person — Judge on defendant's request passing order in Chambers, directing payment by instalments without giving any reasons — Procedure and order held improper. (Vol 33) 1946 Sind 39 (39, 40, 42) : I L R (1945) Kar 354.

[6] Simply because instalment is prayed for and the claim is not contested, that does not entitle a debtor to get an instalment decree as a matter of course. In making order for instalment, condition of debtor, and other circumstances, like, date of loan, amount of instalment etc should be considered. Interest of creditor also should be guarded. (Vol 22) 1935 Cal 559 (560).

[7] Prompt payment of fair proportion of debt is not condition precedent — Bona fides of debtor is predominating factor — Each case depends on particular facts. (Val 20) 1933 Nag 330 (331).

[8] Where a defendant claims the assistance of the Court in the matter of fixing instalments for the payment of a decretal debt, the burden of proof lies heavily upon him to show that he is entitled to specially lenient treatment. The mala fide behaviour on part of defendant would disentitle him to lenient treatment. (1923) 71 Ind Cas 303 (304) (Pesh).

[9] Instalments—Means of livelihood should be kept intact if the decretal amount can be otherwise satisfied. (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 33 (33).

[10] Rule 11 is not controlled by Imperial Bank Act—Refusal to grant instalments in proper cases on grounds of postponement of realization of dues by Bank over six months would amount to failure of duty. (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 330 (332).

[11] The mere fact that the defendant is hard pressed is not by itself a sufficient reason to justify a decree for instalments spread over for many years. (1910) 6 Ind Cas 552 (553) (Cal).

[12] The chance that the plaintiff may succeed in another suit pending between him and the defendant and in that case the two decrees can be set off against each other is not sufficient cause for passing an order of postponing payment. (Vol 13) 1926 Lah 604 (605) : 7 Lah 393.

[13] Estate being with Court of Wards is no ground for instalment decree. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 256 (256).

[14] Court passing decree for Rs. 884 and ordering that defendant should pay in six-monthly instalments of Rs. 60 each and allowing no future interest — It is not proper exercise of discretion. (Vol 20) 1933 All 90 (90) : 54 All 539.

6. "With or without interest." — [1] Payment of money decree by instalments—Interest—Where the Court below exercised its discretion in giving from the institution of the suit a rate lower than that stipulated, held, that the lower Court had not acted illegally nor without jurisdiction and the High Court saw no reason to interfere in revision. [2] Mortgage decree with interest at contract rate till suit and at court rate till realization — Judge on application by defendant allowing instalment and ordering that decree should cease to bear interest — Order is without jurisdiction. (Vol 20) 1933 Rang 323 (324, 325).

7. Order for instalments after decree — Sub-rule (2). — [1] Under sub-rule (2) the Court may, after the passing of a decree in money suits, order that the amount be paid by instalments, provided that the decree-holder consents. (1880-81) 5 Bom 604 (608).

Decree for possession and mesne profits.

12. (1) Where a suit is for the recovery of possession of immoveable property and for rent or mesne profits, the Court may pass a decree —

- (a) for the possession of the property;
- (b) for the rent or mesne profits which have accrued on the property during a period prior to the institution of the suit or directing an inquiry as to such rent or mesne profits;
- (c) directing an inquiry as to rent or mesne profits from the institution of the suit until —
 - (i) the delivery of possession to the decree-holder,
 - (ii) the relinquishment of possession by the judgment-debtor with notice to the decree-holder through the Court, or
 - (iii) the expiration of three years from the date of the decree, whichever event first occurs

(2) Where an inquiry is directed under clause (b) or clause (c), a final decree in respect of the rent or mesne profits shall be passed in accordance with the result of such inquiry.

[3] When the not ordering the amount of the decree to be paid by instalments has arisen from any error or omission, or it is otherwise requisite for the ends of justice that such an order should be made, the Court passing the decree has power to review it, and to make an order for payment by instalments; but it cannot be done in other cases, unless the judgment-creditor consents. (1867-68) 4 Bom H C R 77 (78).

[4] Court can postpone payment of decretal amount with decree-holder's consent on taking security even though appeal is pending from the decree. (Vol 14) 1927 Mad 416 (420).

[5] Parties agreeing after the decree that payment be made by instalments—Order of the Court striking off execution proceedings on such compromise deemed to be an order under sub-rule (2). (1885) 11 Cal 143 (145) & (1889) 16 Cal 16 (18). (A mere order for stay for 15 days to enable judgment-debtor to pay is not an order under O. 20 R. 11 (2).)

[See also (Vol 22) 1935 Mad 17 (19, 20).]

[6] Unless the arrangement between the parties for instalments is recognized by the Court in some form, it will not, by itself, amount to a direction by the Court under O. 20, R. 11 (2). (1887) 14 Cal 348 (350).

[7] Compromise of parties after decree that decretal amount should be paid by instalments — Court accepting compromise and dismissing execution case — Order of Court comes within provisions of O. 20, R. 11 (2) — Court cannot, on default of payment of instalments, refuse to execute decree and drive parties to suit (Vol 24) 1937 Cal 236 (237) & (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 758 (759).

[8] A judgment-debtor directed to pay the decretal amount by instalments should deposit the instalment money in Court on the proper date; otherwise he is liable to pay interest till the instalment is paid. (1910) 14 Cal W N 146 (147).

8. Security under sub-rule (2). — [1] Security taken under sub-rule (2) can be exercised in execution — O. 34 R. 14 is no bar. (Vol 13) 1926 Mad 194 (197).

[2] Order under sub-rule (2) whereby the judgment-debtor was to execute a mortgage in favour of the decree-holder — Judgment-debtor subsequently adjudged insolvent — The adjudication does not affect decree-holder's right to have the mortgage executed in his favour. (Vol 12) 1925 Rang 189 (191) : 2 Rang 673.

9. Appeal. — [1] An order refusing payment of decree by instalments is not appealable. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 931 (931)* (1913) 7 Low Bur Rul 71 (72).

[3] Order directing payment in instalments or postponing payment is incorporated in the decree and therefore can be attacked in appeal against the decree. (Vol 20) 1933 Pesh 31 (33)* (1911) 15 Cal W N 1083 (1084)* (Vol 18) 1931 Rang 152 (152).

[4] Under sub-rule (2) as amended in Rangoon and Nagpur instalments may be ordered after notice to, and without the consent of, the decree-holder. The order, not being a consent order, is appealable as an order under S. 47. (Vol 16) 1929 Rang 191 (192) & (Vol 30) 1943 Nag 155 (156) : 1 L R (1943) Nag 456* (Vol 13) 1926 Rang 192 (192) : 4 Rang 247.

[5] Appeal against order of dismissal of application under O. 20, R. 11 as time barred is competent. (Vol 19) 1932 Rang 54 (55).

10. Limitation for an application under sub-rule (2). — [1] See A.I.R. Commentaries on the Limitation Act, 2nd (1942) Edition, Notes on Article 175.

ORDER 20, RULE 12 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope of the rule.
2. Rule applies only where specific interest in land is claimed.
3. Enquiry as to mesne profits — Nature of proceeding.
4. Mesne profits — Liability for.
5. Extent of liability.
6. Principles relating to assessment.
7. Deductions from gross profits.
8. Onus of proof.
9. Interest forming part of mesne profits.
10. Value of mesne profits, if affects jurisdiction.
11. Right to apply for ascertainment of mesne profits, when arises.
12. Decree silent as to future mesne profits.
13. Court-fees — See S. 11, Court-fees Act.
14. Notice of relinquishment—Clause (c).
15. Three years from date of decree.
16. Limitation—See Arts. 109 and 181, Limitation Act.
17. Appeal and revision.

1. Scope of the rule. — [1] Rule applies only where, and in so far as, a suit for recovery of possession and for rent or mesne profits has been actually filed. (Vol 33) 1946 Cal 357 (364).

O. 20 R. 12 (contd.)

[2] Rule does not apply to suit for mesne profits only. (1872) 9 Bom H C R 7 (9).

[3] Rule has no application to suit for damages which are not mesne profits. (Vol 22) 1935 All 186 (186, 187). (Prospective damages on tort must be given in decree itself and cannot be determined in execution — Order of Court in decree that it will be determined in execution does not give executing Court jurisdiction to determine it — O. 20, R. 12 has no application.) (1869) 1 N W P H C R 22 (23). (Suit for damages for obstruction in exercise of right of usucapio.)

[4] Rule has no applicability to suit for assessment and recovery of additional rent. (Vol 30) 1943 Cal 544 (552); 1 L R (1943) 2 Cal 245.

[5] Even when there is an alternative claim for possession and the statement of the claim for mesne profits is not clear, mesne profits could be decreed. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 562 (563).

[6] Order 20, R. 12 relates to a claim where the defendant is in wrongful possession of the disputed lands. (Vol 15) 1928 Pat 565 (566); 7 Pat 491. (Reversed in (Vol 18) 1931 P C 209 : 58 Ind App 299 : 11 Pat 22 (P C) on another point.)

[7] To determine applicability of O. 20 R. 12 to a suit averments in plaint are to be looked at — It is immaterial that decree in terms of prayers is not passed. (Vol 33) 1946 Sind 58 (60) : 1 L R (1945) Kar 318.

[8] Rule does not prohibit additional reliefs being asked for. (Vol 33) 1946 Cal 357 (363, 364).

[9] It is only by virtue of O. 20, R. 12 which is framed for shortening litigation that future mesne profits can be awarded, though they accrue subsequent to the institution of suit. (Vol 2) 1915 Cal 352 (353) : 43 Cal 650 * (Vol 8) 1921 Lah 85 (88) : 2 Lah 833* (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 30 (33, 37) : 53 Mad 838.

[10] Rule is a purely enabling provision and gives the Court a discretion to award future mesne profits which it is free to exercise or not according to the circumstances of the particular case. (1899) 21 All 425 (429) (F B) * (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 484 (487) : 41 Mad 188 (F B).

[See also (Vol 18) 1931 Oudh 181 (182) : 6 Luck 248. (Court is given discretion to direct inquiry in respect of future mesne profits.)]

[11] Rule being directory only does not compel plaintiff to claim future mesne profits in suit for possession. (Vol 18) 1931 All 429 (432) : 53 All 951 (S B).

[12] Plaintiff failing to obtain decree for possession — Claim for mesne profits should not ordinarily be allowed. (Vol 20) 1933 Cal 554 (553).

[13] Decree under O. 20, R. 12 — Decree may be partly final and partly preliminary, final as to possession and preliminary as to mesne profits. (Vol 33) 1946 Sind 58 (61) : 1 L R (1945) Kar 318. (Suit for possession and mesne profits — Suit compromised — Decree for possession and monthly sums on basis of half share in rents — Payments described as maintenance — For any sums drawn in excess of half share, property to be charged in favour of judgment-debtor — Decree held partly final and partly preliminary.) * (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 804 (804) * (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 767 (767). (Decree for possession and mesne profits can be executed piecemeal.)

[14] No claim for damages but relief confined only to recovery of fixed rent — Amount due definitely ascertained — Preliminary decree not necessary to ascertain amount freshly. (Vol 24) 1937 All 86 (39).

[15] It is competent to a Court without directing enquiry to pass decree finally determining amount of profits payable subsequent to suit, if it is made out that it is not necessary to make such an enquiry. (Vol 25) 1938 Mad 727 (729) : 1 L R (1938) Mad 1050.

[16] Inquiry as to mesne profits directed by preliminary decreed — Final decree should be passed in accordance with result of such inquiry. (Vol 13) 1926 Pat 218 (223) : 5 Pat 361 (F B) * (Vol 25) 1938 Bom 320 (321).

[17] More than one final decree can be passed where terms of decree passed are such as to call for that course. (Vol 33) 1946 Sind 58 (61) : 1 L R (1945) Kar 318.

[18] Decree directing delivery of possession and awarding mesne profits without directing enquiry is final and not preliminary. (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 1276 (1276).

[19] Ex parte decree directing ascertainment of mesne profits — Petition presented in Court that compromise has been effected regarding mesne profits — Omission of Court to prepare final decree — Decree-holder is not to suffer and can execute decree. (Vol 21) 1934 Pat 380 (381).

[20] It is only the person who is entitled to actual possession that can claim mesne profits. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 379 (380).

[21] Suit for possession and mesne profits — One of coparceners or co-owners can sue — Decree for possession of entire property and whole of mesne profits payable by trespasser can be passed. (Vol 29) 1942 All 358 (360) : 1 L R (1942) All 671* (Vol 14) 1927 Nag 9 (10).

[22] Order 20 R. 12 does not contemplate the determination of anything but the relation between the plaintiff and the defendant. There is nothing in this rule to suggest that it applies between co-defendants. (Vol 3) 1916 Cal 673 (674).

2. Rule applies only where specific interest in land is claimed. — [1] The provisions of O. 20, R. 12 are intended for and applicable to suits for land or property in which plaintiff has a specific interest and not to a suit for partition in which the plaintiff has no specific interest until decree. (1887) 14 Cal 493 (509) : 14 Ind App 37 (P C) * (1913) 9 Nag L R 145 (148). (Suit for partial partition by transferee of coparcener.)

[But see (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 868 (868).]

[2] Where the property is held in specific and distinct shares under an agreement, any disturbance in the enjoyment will give rise to a right to profits along with a claim for partition. (1888) 16 Cal 397 (413) : 16 Ind App 71 (P C).

[3] Hindu law — Suit for partition — Manager is liable to account for profits subsequent to suit — Such liability is not one for mesne profits. (Vol 10) 1923 Mad 147 (150) : 46 Mad 47.

[4] Though mesne profits for a period prior to partition are not ordinarily recoverable under Hindu law, yet a member who has been entirely excluded from enjoyment is entitled to them. (1895) 19 Bom 532 (536).

[See also (1882) 5 Mad 236 (238, 239) : 9 Ind App 125 (P C). (Mesne profits from time of exclusion of co-sharers were awarded.)]

[5] Mere attachment of land does not create any interest in land in person attaching it so as to give him right to sue for mesne profits. (Vol 28) 1941 Pesh 87 (88).

3. Enquiry as to mesne profits — Nature of proceeding. — [1] Assessment of mesne profits is proceeding in suit and not in execution. (Vol 18) 1931 All 538 (539) * (Vol 17) 1930 Cal 422 (424) : 57 Cal 148* (Vol 18) 1931 Pat 1 (4) * (Vol 3) 1916 Pat 10 (11) : 1 Pat L Jour 427* (Vol 25) 1938 Oudh 103 (105) * (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 60 (61) : 1 L R (1941) Kar 563* (1903) 25 All 385 (387).

[See also (1892) 14 All 531 (536). (Direction for assessment need not necessarily be contained in decree.)]

[2] Inquiry as to mesne profits is made in the course of proceeding which is in continuation of the original suit. (Vol 12) 1925 All 588 (589) : 47 All 543* (1900) 24 Bom 345 (349, 350) * (Vol 10) 1923 Bom 268 (269). (Application to ascertain mesne profits is not one under the Code or one in execution.) * (Vol 15) 1928 Bom 236 (237) : 52 Bom 360* (1912) 16 Cal L Jour 8 (5)* (1910) 5 Ind Cas 272 (273) (Cal)* (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 175 (175)* (1885) 8 Mad 137 (139). (Enquiry under this rule is a continuation of suit which results in a final decree.) * (1879) 4 Cal 629 (632)* (1887) 14 Cal 50 (53, 54)* (1892) 19 Cal 132 (136, 137) (F B)* (1912) 39 Cal 220 (225)* (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 742 (743)* (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 523 (523) : 39 Mad 488* (Vol 4) 1917 Pat 334 (335) : 2 Pat L Jour 394* (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 781 (782) : 4 Pat 57.

[But see (Vol 8) 1921 Bom 404 (404) : 45 Bom 819. (Application for ascertainment of mesne profits is one in execution.) * (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 526 (531, 532) : 37 Mad 186.]

[3] Application for ascertainment of mesne profits is not plaint — Verbal application is sufficient. (Vol 13) 1926 Pat 218 (227) : 5 Pat 361 (F B).

[4] Decree directing ascertainment of mesne profits in execution is not legal. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 742 (743)* (Vol 25) 1938 All 445 (446) : 1 L R (1938) All 658.

[5] Mesne profits to be determined in execution — Decree is wrong — But parties not appealing, decree is binding. (Vol 21) 1934 Cal 472 (474). (Dismissal of application in execution in default does not bar claim to mesne profits.)

[6] Court ordering profits to be ascertained in execution — Order though irregular is not without jurisdiction — Executing Court cannot go behind it but must ascertain the mesne profits. (Vol 16) 1929 Bom 217 (218, 219)* (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 90 (31) : 53 Mad 838.

[See also (1938) 67 Cal L Jour 473 (478). (Executing Court ascertaining mesne profits — It should make report to trial Court which should pass final decree.)

[7] Application for determination of mesne profits — Dismissal for failure to prosecute — Application does not become inoperative as Court is bound to pass decree. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 522 (524) * (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 124 (126, 127) : ILR (1940) Mad 372 (FB). (Appellate Court directing trial Court to inquire into mesne profits — Trial Court should fix date for appearance of parties — If decree-holder fails to appear Court should not pass final decree but adjourn matter sine die. (Vol 13) 1926 Pat 141 (142) : 5 Pat 223.

[8] Mesne profits awarded — Application for ascertainment filed — Amount claimed in excess of jurisdiction — Application dismissed in default — Second application to Court competent — Dismissal in default did not bar subsequent application. (Vol 7) 1920 Cal 458 (459).

[9] Preliminary decree — Further questions remaining to be decided — Further hearing of the suit should be adjourned to a definite date. (Vol 15) 1928 Mad 1165 (1168).

4. Mesne profits — Liability for. — [1] Mesne profits can be claimed only against person in actual possession. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 738 (740).

[2] Mesne profits are always recoverable from a person who has enjoyed them, even though he has been in bona fide possession without knowledge of defect of his title. (1867) 8 Suth W R 479 (480).

[3] In an action for mesne profits wrongful possession by defendant is the foundation of his liability. (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 107 (112) * (Vol 19) 1932 Cal 600 (616, 617) : 59 Cal 859 * (Vol 14) 1927 Cal 182 (189) : 53 Cal 992 * (Vol 20) 1933 Mad 825 (830) : 57 Mad 49. [4] Sale under Bengal Land Revenue Sales Act — Defaulter's possession after confirmation of sale is wrongful for purposes of mesne profits. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 805 (806).

[5] Possession of person against whom decree under S. 9, Specific Relief Act, has been passed is wrongful. (Vol 14) 1927 Nag 9 (10).

[6] Government making settlement ultra vires of its powers — Possession of person claiming under Government is wrongful — Government is liable for mesne profits to person dispossessed. (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 629 (637).

[7] Mesne profits are not to be granted if possession is not wrongful. (Vol 21) 1934 Lah 322 (323) * (1899) 9 Mad L Jour 163 (164).

[8] Acceptance of rent, though under mistake of law, disentitles owner from claiming mesne profits. (Vol 11) 1924 P C 213 (215) : 27 Oudh Cas 208 (P C).

[9] Possession under deed liable to be set aside on payment of certain sum is not unlawful. (Vol 5) 1918 P C 118 (120) : 45 Ind App 284 : 41 All 63 : 21 Oudh Cas 228 (P C) * (Vol 8) 1921 Nag 132 (132).

[10] Possession of transferee from widow is not wrongful until transfer is attacked. (Vol 8) 1921 Nag 133 (133).

[11] Possession of co-sharer of joint property in absence of proof of ouster or exclusion is not wrongful. (Vol 18) 1931 P C 209 (211) : 58 Ind App 299 : 11 Pat 22 (P C) * (Vol 20) 1933 Nag 316 (318) : 30 Nag L R 71 * (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 860 (862) * (Vol 1) 1914 Cal 209 (210).

[12] Mesne profits cannot be ordered against possessory mortgagee till mortgage subsists. (Vol 17) 1930 Rang 152 (152).

[13] No decree for mesne profits can be passed against person who is not in possession of property. (Vol 28) 1941 Pesh 87 (88) * (Vol 4) 1917 All 117 (118) * (Vol 4) 1917 Cal 107 (111).

[14] Transfer under deed obtained by undue influence and fraud — Possession of transferee is wrongful as between himself and person defrauded from date of possession under transfer. (Vol 19) 1932 P C 89 (91) : 59 Ind App 147 : 7 Luck 64 (PC).

5. Extent of liability. — [1] Defendant is answerable to mesne profits for the time he has been in possession. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 663 (664) * (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 167 (167)* (1868) 10 Suth W R 486 (486) * (1913) 9 Nag L R 145 (149). (As against a wrong-doer possession relates back to the time when the right to enter accrued.) * (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 102 (102) : 6 Pat L Jour 166.

[2] Defendant restrained from letting — Mesne profits can be awarded only till that period. (Vol 30) 1943 Cal 125 (127).

[3] Mesne profits cannot be claimed during period Court is in possession of suit land on plaintiff's behalf by operation of order under Criminal Procedure Code, S. 146. (Vol 11) 1924 Cal 1010 (1012) : 51 Cal 853.

[4] Defendant excluded from possession — He is not liable for mesne profits for period of exclusion. (1897) 24 Cal 413 (416)* (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 108 (105) : 18 Nag L R 195.

[5] Mesne profits ought not to be estimated for any period during which defendant was not active in keeping plaintiff out of possession. (Vol 8) 1921 Pat 102 (102) : 6 Pat L Jour 166.

[6] Preliminary decree granting mesne profits before suit — Exact date from which they were to be assessed not specified — Plaintiff is entitled to mesne profits for three years before suit. (Vol 25) 1938 Cal 563 (566).

O. 20 R. 12 (contd.)

[7] Suit to set aside deed on ground of fraud and undue influence — Plaintiff is entitled to mesne profits from date of defendant's possession and not from date of suit (Vol 19) 1932 P C 89 (91) : 59 Ind App 147 : 7 Luck 64 (P C).

[8] Suit to set aside sale by manager — Plaintiff is entitled to mesne profits only from date of plaint. (Vol 11) 1924 Mad 81 (83) : 46 Mad 815 * (Vol 4) 1917 All 479 (480, 481) : 39 All 61.

[9] Person in possession under voidable transaction — Suit to avoid transaction and get possession — Whether plaintiff can claim profits prior to date of suit depends upon circumstances of each case and conduct of plaintiff. (Vol 23) 1936 Mad 887 (898) : I L R (1937) Mad 66 * (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 178 (180).

[10] Suit by coparcener to set aside sale by manager of joint Hindu family — Decree conditional on payment of money to defendant — Plaintiff is entitled to mesne profits from date of deposit of money and not from date of suit. (Vol 30) 1943 Bom 278 (282, 288) * (1928) 1928 Mad W N 51 (52).

[11] Where plaintiff does not take steps to get possession as soon as he has become entitled, he can claim mesne profits only from date of filing suit. (Vol 11) 1924 Pat 780 (781).

[12] Husband of donee, who was plaintiff's natural guardian, obtaining possession by untrue representation in application for mutation of names that his wife had died childless — Mesne profits held rightly decreed from date of his wife's death, and not limited to three years before suit. (1906) 33 Cal 28 (28) : 32 Ind App 181 (PC).

6. Principles relating to assessment. — [1] Mesne profits are in the nature of damages which the Court may award according to the justice of the case. (1900) 27 Cal 951 (967) : 27 Ind App 110 (P C) * (Vol 8) 1921 Cal 863 (865) * (Vol 12) 1925 Mad 297 (297) * (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 55 (56).

[2] The essence of a claim for mesne profits is that it rests upon an agreement implied in law that when one person occupies property of another he must be deemed to have tacitly assented to the condition that he is liable for an occupation rent in respect of that occupation. (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 14 (17).

[3] Court may, having regard to circumstances of case, decline to award any mesne profits at all; or limit the period for which such profits are to be awarded; or give specific directions as to how the same should be calculated. (Vol 18) 1931 Mad 650 (651, 652) : 54 Mad 955 (F B) * (1866) 5 Suth W R 127 (128) (P C). (Court cannot give mesne profits more than claimed although greater amount may be proved.) * (1881) 6 Cal 472 (475). (Amount of mesne profits must be limited to the amount claimed in plaint.) * (1882) 8 Cal 295 (297). (Mesne profits cannot be limited to amount stated in plaint.) * (1883) 9 Cal 112 (115). (Plaintiff is not limited to the amount or rate stated in the plaint.) * (1880) 5 Cal 563 (565). (Decree silent as to date up to which profits are to be reckoned — Profits are to be reckoned only up to institution of suit.) * (1871) 6 Beng L R (App) 70 (72) (FB). (No evidence as to mesne profits given — Mesne profits not allowed.)

[4] Mesne profits should be calculated on the basis of what the trespasser actually received or might without wilful default have received. [8] The increased rent that is properly attributable to the improvements can be set off against the mesne profits. (Vol 9) 1922 P C 91 (92, 93) (P C).

8. Onus of proof.—[1] It is incumbent on plaintiff, in order to establish claim for mesne profits, that he was entitled to possession during period for which mesne profits are claimed and that he was wrongfully kept out of possession by defendant for such period. (1874) 21 Suth W R 276 (276, 277) * (1912) 16 Cal W N 288 (289).

[2] The burden of proving the amount of mesne profits actually received is on the person receiving them; but as regards the amount of profits which might with ordinary diligence have been received by the person in occupation, the burden lies on person claiming it. 9. Interest forming part of mesne profits.—

[1] A plaintiff is entitled to interest on mesne profits as interest is a part of mesne profits. [2] Co-sharer kept out of possession is entitled to claim from his co-tenant interest on mesne profits. (Vol 16) 1929 Nag 291 (294).

[3] It is a matter entirely for the discretion of the Court, whether or not to allow interest on mesne profits. (1884) 10 Cal 785 (791) : 11 Ind App 88 (PC) * (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 184 (186) * (Vol 24) 1937 P C 143 (145, 146) : 64 Ind App 240 : 16 Pat 382 : 31 Sind L R 360 (PC) * (1900) 22 All 262 (265) * (Vol 13) 1926 Cal 1233 (1235) * (1900) 27 Cal 951 (969, 970) : 27 Ind App 110 (PC) * (Vol 3) 1916 Mad 895 (896) * (Vol 19) 1931 Mad 513 (520). [8] When profits are earned or might have been earned by the wrongdoer yearly, interest on those profits must be calculated yearly and year by year. (Vol 25) 1938 Cal 563 (569) * (1903) 30 Cal 506 (507).

[9] Rate of interest depends on variety of circumstances, but in absence of special circumstances six per cent. is fair rate. 13. (1) Where a suit is for an account of any property and for its due administration under the decree of the Court, the Court shall, before passing the final decree, pass a preliminary decree, ordering such accounts and inquiries to be taken and made, and giving such other directions as it thinks fit.

(2) In the administration by the Court of the property of any deceased person, if such property proves to be insufficient for the payment in full of his debts and liabilities, the same rules shall be observed as to the respective rights of secured and unsecured creditors and as to debts and liabilities provable, and as to the valuation of annuities and future and contingent liabilities respectively, as may be in force for the time being, within the local limits of the Court in which the administration suit is pending with respect to the estates of persons adjudged or declared insolvent; and all persons who in any such case would be entitled to be paid out of such property, may come in under the preliminary decree, and make such claims against the same as they may respectively be entitled to by virtue of this Code.

[2] Appellate Court finding party entitled to possession must itself pass preliminary decree for possession with direction to inquire into mesne profits and not remand case. (Vol 9) 1922 Mad 112 (114) : 45 Mad 449.

[3] Appellate Court directing Court of first instance to inquire into mesne profits — Court of first instances should fix date for appearance of parties after receipt of record — If decree-holder fails to appear Court should not pass final decree but adjourn matter sine die. (Vol 27) 1940 Mad 124 (126, 127) : I L R (1940) Mad 372 (FB). (Case decided with reference to Madras amendment to this rule.)

[4] Joint and several decree for mesne profits against several defendants — Appeal for enhancement of mesne profits against some defendants only is not tenable. (Vol 19) 1932 Pat 327 (328) : 11 Pat 538.

[5] Decision as to maintainability of claim for mesne profits is not 'case decided' within S. 115. (Vol 19) 1932 Oudh 271 (272).

Order 20, Rule 13—Note 1.

[1] Debtor asking another to administer estate for liquidating his liabilities — Decree based on composition deed is not administration decree and binds only parties to it. (Vol 22) 1935 Pesh 63 (64.)

[2] Main purpose of suit to determine as to who is rightful heir of deceased — Such suit is not administration suit. (Vol 27) 1940 Lah 179 (180.)

[3] Administration suit — Creditor obtaining preliminary decree is entitled to order, against another decree-holder attaching property of deceased judgment-debtor, staying all proceedings taken by him and restraining him from executing his decree — Court is entitled to pass appropriate orders to safeguard interest of all creditors — Such orders cannot be strictly called injunction orders — Recourse to provisions of S. 151 is not necessary. (Vol 26) 1939 Mad 204 (207 208). (Although suit is filed only by one creditor, decree enures for benefit of all creditors of deceased — No creditor stands in better position than another unless he holds vested interest in property.

[4] Administration suit — Court can demand security for due performance of funeral rights and expenditure of money allotted for it. (Vol 1) 1914 Oudh 1 (17).

[5] In a suit for the administration of a Mahomedan estate, the Court is entitled to retain in its hands the amount of any debt ascertained or subject to account though time-barred, due to the estate from any heir and the person who seeks administration must prove such a debt. (1912) 6 Low Bur Ral 34 (37).

[6] Suit for administration — Court after preliminary decree making order determining dispute but refusing to frame final decree — Such order amounts to final decree to that extent and is appealable — Contents of final decree in such suit are nowhere stated — Form in Civil Procedure Code can be varied and adopted. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 879 (882, 883).

[7] Administration suit in Rangoon High Court — Change in form of preliminary decree was recommended. (Vol 12) 1925 P C 261 (262) (PC).

[8] Administration suit — Receiver appointed — Property does not automatically vest in him — Suit by one creditor — Decree is in favour of all — Another creditor obtaining separate decree and proceeding in execution — Court passing preliminary decree in administration suit may either stay execution proceedings or call them and include in administration proceedings. (Vol 30) 1943 Bom 273 (275, 276).

[9] In the administration of an estate under a decree of Court, the same rules have to be observed as to the respective rights of secured and unsecured creditors and as to debts and liabilities provable, as are in force in respect to estates of insolvents. When the administration is under a decree of the High Court under S. 49, Presidency Towns Insolvency Act, all debts due to the Crown shall be paid in priority to all other debts. (Vol 6) 1919 Cal 908 (912) : 45 Cal 653.

[10] Order 20, R. 13 does not apply where the Administrator-General has obtained letters of administration of the estate of a deceased insolvent. (Vol 1) 1914 Mad 281 (282) : 38 Mad 500.

[11] Preliminary decree reversed on ground of want of jurisdiction — Remedy is by revision. (Vol 26) 1939 Bom 485 (485) : I L R (1939) Bom 472.

ORDER 20, RULE 14 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Pre-emption.
2. Pre-emption under Mahomedan law.

(b) direct that on payment into Court⁶ of such purchase-money, together with the costs (if any) decreed against the plaintiff, on or before the day referred to in clause (a), the defendant shall deliver possession of the property to the plaintiff, whose title thereto shall be deemed to have accrued⁵ from the date of such payment, but that, if the purchase-money and the costs (if any) are not so paid, the suit shall be dismissed with costs.

(2) Where the Court has adjudicated upon rival claims to pre-emption, the decree shall direct, —

(a) if and in so far as the claims decreed are equal in degree, that the claim of each pre-emptor complying with the provisions of sub-rule (1) shall take effect in respect of a proportionate share of the property including any proportionate share in respect of which the claim of any pre-emptor failing to comply with the said provisions would, but for such default, have taken effect; and

(b) if and in so far as the claims decreed are different in degree, that the claim of the inferior pre-emptor shall not take effect unless and until the superior pre-emptor has failed to comply with the said provisions.

[1882—S. 214; 1877—S. 214.]

Objects and Reasons.

"These amendments [i. e., incorporated in sub-rule (2)] are based on the rulings contained in the decisions of the High Court of Allahabad in I. L. R. 6 All. 370, 455 and I. L. R. 11 All. 164.

Having regard to the opinion expressed in I. L. R. 24

Mad. 449 at page 463, we have thought it right to make it clear that title vests without an instrument of transfer. To require a transfer now might throw a cloud over numberless titles which rest on the assumption sanctioned by long practice that no instrument of transfer was necessary."—S. O. R.

O. 20 R. 14 (contd.)

3. Shall specify a day before which purchase money shall be paid.
4. Extension of time.
5. Plaintiff's title when accrues.
6. Payment into Court.
7. Tender of money if sufficient.
8. Right to rents and profits.
9. Set-off of costs against purchase-money.
- 9a. Rival pre-emptors.
10. Appeal.

1 Pre-emption. — [1] Acquiescence in mortgage by conditional sale is not relinquishment of right of pre-emption upon conditional sale becoming absolute. (1889) 11 All 164 (174).

[2] Where a co-proprietor does not part with his entire interest by an absolute sale, but merely creates a perpetual lease of it, the doctrine of pre-emption will not apply. (1888) 15 Cal 184 (186).

[3] The decree-holder in a pre-emption suit sold the property to a stranger subsequent to the date of the decree. By such transfer he is not debarred from obtaining possession of the property in execution of the decree. (1885) 7 All 107 (111, 112).

[4] Every suit for pre-emption must include whole of the property subject to pre-emption, conveyed by one transfer and when there are rival suits, Court should determine which should succeed, and if more than one suit succeed, what extent of the property transferred is to be decreed in such suit. (1884) 6 All 455 (456).

2. Pre-emption under Mahomedan law. — [1] Under Mahomedan law the rule is that if a sharer alienates his interest to a cosharer and a stranger, the purchasing sharer by joining an outsider in the purchase forfeits his rights as a sharer and another cosharer has a right of pre-emption. (1888) 15 Cal 224 (226).

[2] Under the doctrine of the Mahomedan law of pre-emption, if a plaintiff having a right to pre-empt joins with himself in a suit for pre-emption a stranger who has no such right, he forfeits his right to pre-empt. (1883) 5 All 197 (200, 201).

3. Shall specify a day before which purchase-money shall be paid. — [1] Date of payment of pre-emption money must be specified in the decree. (Vol 13) 1926 All 158 (158).

[2] Pre-emption decree is one for possession — Pre-emptor should pay incumbrances paid by vendee — (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 1 (1, 6).

4. Extension of time. — [1] Order 20, R. 14 is precise. The Court should state in the decree that if the pre-emptive price is not paid on or before the day fixed the suit shall stand dismissed with costs. (1896) 18 All 228 (226) (S B).

[2] When a decree is passed by a Court that the plaintiff should deposit the sum within a specified time, the Court has no power to extend the time for payment after the time mentioned in the decree has elapsed. (1891) 13 All 400 (408) * (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 359 (359). (Failure to deposit even costs in time cannot be excused.) * (Vol 26) 1939 Nag 107 (109) * (Vol 21) 1934 Oudh 17 (17, 18) : 9 Luck 215 * (1913) 18 Oudh Cas 5 (6) * (1910) 13 Oudh Cas 28 (30, 31).

[3] Pre-emption—Pre-emptor prevented from depositing money within time by reason of last day of period allowed to him being holiday—Deposit on next opening day of Court is sufficient. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 888 (889) * (Vol 11) 1924 All 218 (219): 46 All 228 (FB). (Overruling (Vol 9) 1922 All 278 and (Vol 5) 1918 All 13: 41 All 47.) * (1881) 3 All 850 (851) * (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 386 (387).

[4] The preferring of an appeal from a pre-emption decree does not extend time for paying pre-emptive price in Court. (Vol 20) 1933 All 113 (114) * (Vol 26) 1939 Nag 107 (109). (Mere fact that the plaintiff files an appeal and executes a security bond does not extend time.)

[5] In a pre-emption suit the appellate Court can on an application made within time fixed for payment of pre-emption money extend time fixed by trial Court for making deposit of purchase money. (Vol 27) 1940 Nag 202 (202, 203) : I.L.R. (1940) Nag 157 * (Vol 10) 1923 All 516 (517) : 45 All 456. (Time expiring in vacation—Deposit was allowed to be made on reopening day.) * (1878-80) 2 All 744 (745) * (1896) 18 All 228 (226) (SB).

O. 20 R. 14 (contd.)

[6] Plaintiff in pre-emption suit does not lose his right of pre-emption for failure to make deposit within time allowed by decree so long as he has a right to question the correctness of the amount made payable by the trial Court by means of an appeal against it. (Vol 19) 1932 Oudh 63 (66) : 7 Luck 550.

[7] Decree in pre-emption suit — Omission to state the effect on plaintiff's suit, of non-payment of purchase money within prescribed period — It was held that plaintiff could enforce his decree for pre-emption, only if pre-emptive price was deposited before the time given in the decree. (1892) 14 All 529 (531).

[8] In an appeal by the vendee, the pre-emptor was directed by the Appellate Court to pay into Court an extra sum within the time fixed by the original Court. The pre-emptor had twelve days after the date of this order within which the amount could be paid into Court, but he failed — Held, that the decree became final and that his suit must be dismissed. (Vol 5) 1918 Lah 165 (166).

5. Plaintiff's title when accrues. — [1] Pre-emptor depositing amount in Court becomes entitled to land from date of such payment. (Vol 20) 1933 Lah 791 (791, 792) * (Vol 16) 1929 All 237 (238). (Registration is not necessary.) * (Vol 29) 1942 Lah 243 (249) * (Vol 17) 1930 Lah 273 (276, 277) : 11 Lah 128 (F B). (1903 Pun Re No. 25, overruled.) * (Vol 12) 1925 Lah 202 (203) : 5 Lah 486.

[2] Decree of claim of pre-emption — Court should direct that on payment of purchase money, possession of property must be given by defendant — If property is in possession of mortgagees, pre-emptor merely pre-empt equity of redemption — On payment of money, he need not execute decree for possession. (Vol 22) 1935 Lah 523 (525) : 16 Lah 1065.

[3] Pre-emption decree for possession silent as to standing crops — The decree-holder is entitled to them on paying money into Court. (Vol 10) 1923 Nag 327 (329).

[4] Pre-emption — Possession with mortgagees — Deposit of price in Court will give complete title to pre-emptor — Not taking out execution for possession will not bar his rights. (Vol 10) 1923 All 507 (508) : 45 All 482.

6. Payment into Court. — [1] Pre-emption decree directing plaintiff to deposit money within certain period — Payment out of Court certified by vendee is enough. (Vol 8) 1921 All 159 (160).

[2] Failure to deposit money by mistake — Judgment-debtor can claim restitution of possession. (Vol 10) 1923 Lah 250 (251).

[3] A pre-emptor who has not deposited the full amount by mistake within time, will not be allowed to make up the deficiency, and the vendee may compel the pre-emptor to give up possession of the property if it had been taken possession of, by the latter in execution of his decree. Section 151, Civil P. C., is not applicable to such a case. (1913) 1913 Pun L R No. 141, p. 485 (487).

[4] Pre-emption — Decree for — Full amount not deposited — Suit stands dismissed. (Vol 11) 1924 Lah 384 (384).

[5] Pre-emption — Decree conditional on payment into Court of pre-emption money — Amount raised by mortgage of decreed property — There is sufficient compliance with terms of decree. (Vol 4) 1917 All 156 (157).

[6] Under O. 20, R. 14 the pre-emptor cannot enforce his decree without depositing not only the purchase money but also the costs (if any) decreed against him. (1884) 6 All 351 (353).

[7] No direction in decree to plaintiffs to pay costs — Costs awarded to defendant by separate order — Defendant cannot claim payment of costs within time allotted by decree. (Vol 11) 1924 Oudh 104 (105) : 26 Oudh Cas 345.

[8] Decree in pre-emption suit — Decree fixing price to be paid, and allowing costs to be deducted — Payment of decree amount after deducting costs — Appellate Court raising the price to be paid and reversing order as to costs — Payment of difference without costs previously recovered, is sufficient compliance with the appellate decree. (1910) 1910 Pun L R No. 193, p. 366 (368) : 1910 Pun Re No 56.

[9] A compromise decree having been given in a pre-emption suit requiring the plaintiff to hand over to the defendant certain land within a certain period, held that the decree could not, in the first place, be a decree in a pre-emption suit under R. 14, O. 20 and that the plaintiff's action in ceasing to cultivate the land before the expiration of the prescribed period with a view to giving possession to the defendant is a sufficient compliance with the decree, even if it was a decree in a pre-emption suit. (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 400 (401).

[10] Conditional pre-emption decree — Deposit by one co-plaintiff whose claim was dismissed, on behalf of both — Held successful plaintiff was rightly given credit for that amount. (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 121 (122).

7. Tender of money if sufficient. — [1] Money though tendered on the last day fixed was not deposited on that day but on the next reopening day as there were two holidays intervening, through a mistake of the Court or its officers — Held, that the tender within the specified time should be deemed as a due compliance with the terms of the decree and the pre-emptor is entitled to execute it. (Vol 3) 1916 Lah 77 (77, 78). (Following 1880 Pun Re No. 31.)

[2] Where an application for payment of pre-emption money was made on the last day and the Court permitted the money to be accepted, but the money could not be deposited until after the expiry of the period fixed owing to the laxity of Court — Held, that the deposit of money was good, as the party could not be prejudiced by an error of the Court. (Vol 2) 1915 Oudh 171 (172).

[3] Pre-emption — Decree — Tender of pre-emption money made in time but money not actually deposited, officer of Court being too busy — Tender is sufficient. (Vol 18) 1931 Lah 388 (389).

8. Right to rents and profits. — [1] Under a pre-emption decree the right to possession of the property and the consequential right to mesne profits accrue to the pre-emptor only from the date when he pays the amount of purchase price finally declared by the Court — Till then the original purchaser retains possession and is entitled to the rents and profits. (Vol 3) 1916 P C 179 (181) : 44 Cal 675 : 44 Ind App 80 (PC).

[2] Agra Pre-emption Act (11 of 1922), S. 24 — Vendee is entitled to rents and profits for period between sale and deposit of pre-emption money by pre-emptor. (Vol 31) 1944 All 255 (256) : I L R (1944) All 499.

9. Set-off of costs against purchase money. — [1] The rule makes no provision to meet cases where costs, instead of being awarded against the pre-emptor, are awarded in his favour by the decree. The rule does not authorize the pre-emptor decree-holder in depositing the purchase money to set off the amount due to him from the judgment-debtor for the costs. But under the doctrine of equitable set-off he is entitled to deduct the costs while depositing the purchase money. (1884) 6

15. Where a suit is for the dissolution of a partnership, or the taking of partnership accounts, the Court, before passing a final decree, may pass a preliminary decree declaring the proportionate shares of the parties, fixing the day on which the partnership shall stand dissolved or be deemed to have been dissolved, and directing such accounts to be taken, and other acts to be done, as it thinks fit.

[2] Decree in pre-emption suit not directing plaintiff to deposit defendant's costs — Plaintiff depositing pre-emption money within period fixed by Court after deducting costs awarded to him but without giving credit for defendant's costs—Plaintiff having complied with terms of decree is entitled to pre-emption — His right is not lost by his failure to give credit for defendant's costs. (Vol 26) 1939 All 228 (230) : 1 L R (1939) All 261. (Reversing (Vol 24) 1937 All 756.)

9a. Rival pre-emptors.—[1] (Per Sulaiman, J.)—Joint decree does not pass title to all joint decree-holders even if one pays amount—Rights of decree-holders will have to be determined in case dispute arises—(Boys, J., contra). (Vol 16) 1929 All 953 (954, 956) : 51 All 998.

10. Appeal.—[1] A plaintiff who has obtained a decree for pre-emption conditional on his paying a certain sum within a certain period, could after the period has expired, appeal against such decree, alleging that the decree does not contain a condition of the contract of which their right to pre-empt arose. (1894) 16 All 126 (128).

[2] Order refusing to extend time in pre-emption decree is not appealable. (Vol 7) 1920 Lah 88 (89).

[3] An order passed on an application for payment of the pre-emption money in compliance with a decree under O. 20, R. 14 is not appealable under S. 47 as it is not an order relating to execution, discharge or satisfaction. (1882) 4 All 420 (422).

[See (Vol 16) 1929 All 953 (954) : 51 All 998. (Deposit of the pre-emption money within time fixed by the Court is neither proceeding in execution of decree nor step-in-aid of it.)]

[4] A decree in a pre-emption suit, with a condition that unless the purchase money is paid within time fixed therefor the suit shall stand dismissed, is a complete decree and a subsequent order dismissing the suit is not a decree against which an appeal can be preferred. (Vol 7) 1920 Oudh 25 (26, 27) : 23 Oudh Cas 254. (Dissenting from (Vol 1) 1914 Oudh 147 : 17 Oudh Cas 14.)

ORDER 20, RULE 15 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope.

2. Accounts.

1. Scope.—[1] Court has discretion to pass a preliminary decree, but a preliminary decree ought not to be passed for determining points already agreed upon by the parties. (Vol 1) 1914 Oudh 399 (404) : 17 Oudh Cas 193.

[2] Preliminary decree directing taking of partnership account is one for payment of money. (Vol 16) 1929 Mad 641 (643) : 52 Mad 563 (F B).

[3] A firm is incapable of becoming, as a firm, a partner in another firm, but once a declaration of partners has been made under O. 30, R. 2 a suit for dissolution can proceed though the plaintiffs had in the first instance described themselves as a firm. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 78 (79).

[4] Fixing date of dissolution of partnership is matter of judicial and not arbitrary discretion — Ordinarily date of notice if any or of plaintiff should be the date and not the date of judgment. (Vol 5) 1918 Mad 264 (264).

[5] Preliminary decree for partition — Directions given to official commissioner are not decree and hence not appealable. (Vol 15) 1928 Sind 100 (101) : 23 Sind L R 87.

[6] Appointment of Official Receiver, if likely to prejudice the business, should not be made. (Vol 14) 1927 Rang 139 (139) : 5 Rang 99.

[7] Suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts — Court after passing preliminary decree but before final decree ordering commissioner to credit plaintiff with certain sum—Order is not supplementary preliminary decree but interlocutory order. (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 204 (208) : 19 Pat 1.

[8] Direction in final decree leaving distribution of assets undisposed of is in essence preliminary decree and decree is partly final and partly preliminary—Civil P. C., S. 2 (2). (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 528 (530, 531) : 53 Mad 378.

[9] Proceedings between preliminary decree and final decree are continuation of suit for carrying out directions in the preliminary decree. (Vol 17) 1930 Mad 528 (533) : 53 Mad 378.

2. Accounts.—[1] After passing the preliminary decree in a suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts, Court has jurisdiction to order that account should be taken on a certain basis because such order is about the mode of taking account. (Vol 27) 1940 Pat 204 (209) : 19 Pat 1.

[2] Personal representative of deceased partner is bound to give account of what has been received on behalf of partnership — Liability extends to assets received. (Vol 5) 1918 All 288 (289) : 40 All 446.

[3] For the purpose of working out a partnership decree each party to the action is bound to produce and discover all documents in his possession relating to the partnership. Accounts taken by a Commissioner appointed for that purpose, without production or discovery of partnership books and documents are not properly taken. (Vol 1) 1914 P C 33 (33) (P C).

[4] In a suit for dissolution of a partnership and for accounts, sufficient time should be given to the parties to produce accounts. A final decree should be passed on evidence by the Court. It will not do to pass an ex parte final decree on the mere statements of the plaintiffs. (Vol 5) 1918 Lah 166 (168, 169).

[5] A commissioner taking accounts has no power to decide questions relating to the terms of the partnership, its duration or the shares of the partners. (Vol 24) 1937 Bom 81 (89).

[6] It is no doubt desirable that the Court passing a preliminary decree for taking of accounts should decide who is to be the accounting party. But it is open to the Court to give instructions at any time to facilitate and regularise the taking of accounts. (Vol 23) 1936 Lah 78 (80).

16. In a suit for an account of pecuniary transactions between a principal and an agent, and Decree in suit for account between principal and agent. in any other suit not hereinbefore provided for, where it is necessary, in order to ascertain the amount of money due to or from any party, that an account should be taken, the Court shall, before passing its final decree, pass a preliminary decree directing such accounts to be taken as it thinks fit.

[1882—S. 215A.]

17. The Court may either by the decree directing an account to be taken or by any subsequent Special directions order give special directions with regard to the mode in which the account is as to accounts. to be taken or vouched and in particular may direct that in taking the account the books of account in which the accounts in question have been kept shall be taken as prima

ORDER 20 RULE 16 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope of the rule.

2. "Shall . . . pass a preliminary decree."

1. Scope of the rule.—[1] Rule 16 is not restricted to suit for account between principal and agent but it is wider. (Vol 8) 1921 Sind 42 (43) : 15 Sind L R 16.

[2] Suit for dissolution of partnership—Rendition of accounts can be directed only where that relief alone would enable claimant to satisfactorily assert his legal right. (Vol 6) 1919 Lah 217 (218).

[3] Rule 16 does not only apply to a suit for an account between principal and agent, but words used in the rule are wide and apply to all cases where Court, instead of settling account itself considers it necessary to stay its hand in order to ascertain amount of money due to or from any party by having an account taken before a commissioner. (Vol 24) 1937 All 276 (278)* (Vol 4) 1917 All 431 (431).

[4] Purpose of preliminary decree is merely to ascertain whether defendant is liable to account to plaintiff. Objection to particular item should be taken when question as to accounts is tried. (Vol 13) 1926 Nag 393 (396).

[5] Preliminary judgment need not be detailed and exhaustive. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 358 (359).

[6] Agreement by A to collect dues of C and pay to B — Suit by A for rendition of accounts is not incompetent. (Vol 16) 1929 Lah 182 (184).

2. "Shall . . . pass a preliminary decree."—[1] Relationship between plaintiff and defendant established which makes the latter accountable to the former. Court should pass preliminary decree directing an account to be taken of the transactions between parties. (1887) 14 Cal 147 (154)* (1905) 27 All 374 (377)* (1881) 7 Cal 654 (656).

[2] Defendant must be liable to account—Mere convenience cannot make party liable to account. (Vol 16) 1929 Cal 418 (421).

[3] It is not necessary to pass a preliminary decree directing accounts to be taken in every suit for accounts. Decree in suit for partition of property or separate possession of a share therein.

18. Where the Court passes a decree for the partition of property or for the separate possession of a share therein, then, —

(1) if and in so far as the decree relates to an estate assessed to the payment of revenue to the Government, the decree shall declare the rights of several parties interested in the property, but shall direct such partition or separation to be made by the Collector, or any gazetted subordinate of the Collector deputed by him in this behalf, in accordance with such declaration and with the provisions of section 54;

(2) if and in so far as such decree relates to any other immoveable property or to moveable property, the Court may, if the partition or separation cannot be conveniently made without further inquiry, pass a preliminary decree declaring the rights of the several parties interested in the property and giving such further directions as may be required.

ORDER 20 RULE 18 — SYNOPSIS.

1. Scope.
2. Preliminary decree.
3. Final decree.

1. Scope.—[1] This rule governs suit for partition of joint family property consisting of land assessed to revenue. (Vol 6) 1919 All 140 (142) : 41 All 207.

[2] In cases of partition of properties assessed to land revenue, the Court cannot pass a final decree but only a decree declaring the shares of the parties and directing the Revenue Courts to give effect to its decree. (Vol 1) 1914 Oudh 332 (333).

[3] Decree not containing directions as required under O. 20, R. 18 (1)—Decree not corrected—Plaintiff cannot ask Court to transfer proceedings to Collector. (Vol 22) 1935 Sind 192 (192).

[4] Order decreeing partition of property assessed to Government revenue and referring it to Collector to carry out partition—Subsequent application by parties to send decree and papers to Collector is not in execution. (Vol 26) 1939 Bom 454 (455).

[5] Order 20, R. 18 contemplates judicial and not mere ex parte declaration in absence of interested parties and therefore Court must see that all persons interested in partition are before it. (Vol 27) 1940 All 399 (400, 401). (Necessary parties not impleaded—Appellate Court should remand case for addition of necessary parties.)

[6] Suit for partition of undivided share in revenue-paying and other property—Preliminary decree decreeing suit for possession of plaintiff's share in certain properties—Form of decree held not proper—Decree held should have provided for further action by revenue authorities in respect of revenue-paying property and further directions in respect of other property. (Vol 28) 1941 Oudh 383 (385) : 16 Luck 765.

[7] Plaintiff's share specified but undivided—Receiver can be appointed of entire property until partition by Collector. (Vol 29) 1942 Sind 60 (62) : 1 L R (1941) Kar 563.

[8] The partition of the estate is to be effected by the Collector or by his subordinate in accordance with the provisions of S. 54 read with O. 20 R. 18. If the Collector is unable or declines to effect the partition by metes and bounds on that footing, then and then only will the Court appoint a Commissioner to partition the same by metes and bounds. (Vol 27) 1940 Cal 33 (39).

[9] Before a Court passes a preliminary decree for partition of moveables, it must determine whether they exist, if so, in whose possession, what their value is, and whether the jewels on the persons of the ladies of the family should be divided. (Vol 6) 1919 Oudh 208 (210).

[10] A preliminary decree for partition affects the severance of the members of a joint Hindu family and if a plaintiff in a partition suit dies issueless, after the passing of a preliminary decree, his proper legal representative is his widow. (Vol 2) 1915 Mad 1065 (1065).

[11] Courts can have regard to events occurring subsequent to date of institution of suit to settle rights between parties completely. (Vol 20) 1933 Sind 371 (374) : 27 Sind L R 411.

[12] Decree for partition of revenue paying lands—Application to send papers to Collector is not governed by Limitation Act, Art. 181 or 182. (Vol 32) 1945 Bom 338 (340, 341, 342) (F B).

[13] Decree covering agricultural and other land—Decree is final regarding former—Interim injunction as to it cannot be passed by Court. (Vol 12) 1925 Ind 357 (357).

2. Preliminary decree.—[1] A decree for joint possession cannot be construed as a preliminary decree for partition. (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 117 (119).

[2] Preliminary decree must not deal with matters proper for final decree. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 483 (433).

[3] The Court has no jurisdiction to dismiss the suit after a preliminary decree has been passed in a partition suit merely because there has been delay in producing the commissioner's fee. (Vol 12) 1925 Pat 433 (434) * (Vol 19) 1932 Mad 519 (522).

[4] After preliminary decree in partition suit, application for final decree is proper course and fresh suit for absolute partition does not lie. (Vol 16) 1929 Oudh 456 (457) : 5 Luck 280.

[5] After a preliminary decree, it is open to any party to a suit, to whose interest it is that further proceedings be taken, to initiate the supplementary proceedings; but in ordinary case it is the plaintiff who moves. (Vol 11) 1924 P C 193 (193) : 51 Ind App 321 : 4 Pat 61 (PC).

[6] Where a preliminary decree in a partition suit has either intentionally or inadvertently omitted to direct an enquiry into mesne profits, the final decree cannot award mesne profits or direct an enquiry regarding the same—The words "further directions" in O. 20, R. 13 do not authorise an order or inquiry into mesne profits after the preliminary decree. (Vol 6) 1919 Mad 993 (999, 1000) : 42 Mad 296* (1931) 1931 Mad W N 846 (347).

[7] A Court can pass a final decree for mesne profits in a partition suit although there has been no preli-

19. (1) Where the defendant has been allowed a set-off against the claim of the plaintiff, Decree when set-off is allowed. the decree shall state what amount is due to the plaintiff and what amount is due to the defendant, and shall be for the recovery of any sum which appears to be due to either party.

(2) Any decree passed in a suit in which a set-off is claimed shall be subject to the same Appeal from decree relating to set-off. provisions in respect of appeal to which it would have been subject if no set-off had been claimed.

(3) The provisions of this rule shall apply whether the set-off is admissible under rule 6 of Order VIII or otherwise.

[6] Partition suit—Compromise decree—Properties allotted to each share specified—Decree is final—Engrossment on stamp—No time-limit is prescribed. (Vol 32) 1945 Pat 482 (483, 483) ; 24 Pat 427.

[7] There is no reason why in a partition suit, where the claim is for a certain share in a joint property a final decree should not be passed in the first instance if the share can be ascertained without difficulty in execution. (1912) 1912 Pun L R No. 246, p. 773 (774).

ORDER 20, RULE 19—SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.

2. Sub-rule (3).

1. Scope.—[1] Order 20, R. 19 applies where the defendant has been allowed to set off a demand against the claim of the plaintiff. The rule does not apply where in determining the defendant's liability for mesne profits deductions for expenses of cultivation are made. (1876) 25 Suth W R 275 (275).

[2] Order 20, R. 19 prescribes the form of decree in a suit in which a set-off is allowed. Only one decree should be drawn up in a suit in which a set-off is claimed when all the matters in controversy between the parties had been decided. (Vol 4) 1917 Lah 261 (265) ; 1917 Pun Re No. 62.

[3] Defendant's claim under R. 6, O. 8 must be treated as plaint. Decree under O. 20, R. 19 (1) should be granted. (Vol 21) 1934 All 543 (545) ; 56 All 912.

[4] Claim barred by limitation cannot be pleaded as set-off. (Vol 7) 1920 Mad 819 (821) ; 42 Mad 873.

[5] A defendant in a suit to whom a smaller amount is due from the plaintiff as costs of the appeal is not entitled to execute his decree for costs against the plaintiff where a larger amount decreed by the lower Court remains unpaid to the latter by the former. (Vol 5) 1918 Cal 133 (134).

[6] The question whether or not an attorney's lien should be allowed to intercept a set-off between the parties is a matter of discretion. (Vol 19) 1932 Bom 619 (622).

2. Sub-rule (3).—[1] Equitable set-off in suit for accounts is governed not by O. 8, R. 6, but by O. 20, R. 19. (Vol 18) 1931 Cal 358 (359).

[2] Suit for arrears of rent on basis of lease—Set-off arising under lease, though inadmissible under O. 8, R. 6, can be claimed. (Vol 23) 1936 All 522 (523).

[3] Set-off may be purely defensive or may be by way of counter-claim—In case of defensive set-off, set-off claimed must be recoverable at date of plaintiff's suit—In case of counter-claim sum claimed by defendant must be legally recoverable when he files written statement claiming set-off—Indian Courts make distinction between defensive set-off and counter-claim. (Vol 23) 1936 Cal 277 (278, 279).

Certified copies of judgment and decree to be furnished.

20. Certified copies of the judgment and decree shall be furnished to the parties on application to the Court, and at their expense.

PROVINCIAL AMENDMENT

Rule 21 — ALLAHABAD

Add the following :

"21. (1) Every decree and order as defined in Section 2 other than a decree or order of a Court of Small Causes or of a Court in the exercise of the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, shall be drawn up in the Court vernacular, or in English, if the Court so orders. As soon as such decree or order has been drawn up, and before it is signed, the Munsarim shall cause a notice to be posted on the notice board stating that the decree or order has been drawn up, and that any party or the pleader of any party may, within six working days from the date of such notice, peruse the draft decree or order and may sign it, or may file with the Munsarim an objection to it on the ground that there is in the judgment a verbal error or some accidental defect not affecting a material part of the case, or that such decree or order is at variance with the judgment or contains some clerical or arithmetical error. Such objection shall state clearly, what is the error, defect, or variance alleged, and shall be signed and dated by the person making it. [As amended on 1-11-1941.]

(2) If any such objection be filed on or before the date specified in the notice, the Munsarim shall enter the case in the earliest weekly list practicable, and shall, on the date fixed, put up the objection together with the record before the Judge who pronounced the judgment, or, if such Judge has ceased to be the Judge of the Court, before the Judge then presiding.

(3) If no objection has been filed on or before the date specified in the notice, or if an objection has been filed and disallowed, the Munsarim shall date the decree as of the day on which the judgment was pronounced and shall lay it before the Judge for signature in accordance with the provisions of Rules 7 and 8.

(4) If an objection has been duly filed and has been allowed, the correction or alteration directed by the Judge shall be made. Every such correction or alteration in the judgment shall be made by the Judge in his own handwriting. A decree amended in accordance with the correction or alteration directed by the Judge shall be drawn up, and the Munsarim shall date the decree as of the day on which the judgment was pronounced and shall lay it before the Judge for signature in accordance with the provisions of Rules 7 and 8.

(5) When the Judge signs the decree, he shall make an autograph note stating the date on which the decree was signed."

Order 20 Rule 20—Note 1

[1] Proceedings arising out of an application to obtain a copy must be deemed to be pending before the Court which decided the case— Application to an official for a copy must be deemed to have been made to the Court. (Vol 15) 1928 Lah 759 (761) : 29 Cri L Jour 1028.

Overlooking of Precedents leads to Erroneous Decisions

"Ignorance of the Judge is the misfortune of the innocent." Latin Maxim.

(1943) 30 A. I. R. 1943 Privy Council 189 (191).— In an appeal from Allaha. bad the question for decision involved was as to the inherent power of the Court to grant restitution to the successful defendant. Their Lordships observed: "The decision of the Board in 46 I. A. 228 was not cited in either of the Courts in India The application now before the Board invoked the powers of the learned Subordinate Judge to assess the sum due by way of restitution by the method laid down in 46 I. A. 228 For this purpose the case must go back to the Court of the Subordinate Judge. . . ."

(1922) 9 A. I. R. 1922 Privy Council 11 (13) = 43 All. 469 (475) (PC). — Section 89, T.P. Act, 1882, ended after providing for the decree "and thereafter the defendants' right to redeem and the security shall both be extinguished." These words do not occur in either the foreclosure section of the Act of 1882 or the corresponding rule of O. 34, Civil P. C.

"The difficulty which had arisen as to these words in several cases, e.g., Vanmika-linga v. Chidambara, (1905) I. L. R. 29 Mad. 37 — which case, it may be mentioned, does not seem to have been brought to the notice of the Board in Het Ram's case, (1918) 45 I. A. 130—therefore no longer arises."

(1948) 35 A. I. R. 1948 Nagpur 382 (384) (DB). — "The decree [of the District Judge] was set aside and the decree of the trial Court was restored by Gruer J. in Second Appeal No. 108 of 1938 on 7-11-1940. It is against this decree that the present appeal has been filed If the above decision [namely, 1939 Rang. I. R. 358] had been placed before Gruer J. he would not have reached the conclusion he did."

(1947) 34 A. I. R. 1947 Bombay 430 (431).—Per Kania J. — "My attention has been drawn to two judgments in this connection. One is my own judgment in (1913) 45 Bom. L. R. 400 At that time my attention was not drawn to the judgment of the Appeal Court in (1938) 40 Bom. L. R. 676."

(1947) 34 A. I. R. 1947 Madras 405 (407) (DB). — "We now come to the first case referred to in the order of reference, namely, 1913-2 M. L. J. 180. There Horwill J. held that the right of a legal representative was merely to file a fresh application to sue in forma pauperis or institute a separate suit. No reference was made in the judgment to the decision in (1935) 58 Mad. 169 This decision is not only in conflict with the judgments in (1928) 51 Mad. 697 and (1935) 58 Mad. 169, but it ignores the fact. . . ."

(1947) 34 A. I. R. 1947 Oudh 180 (190) (FB).—Thomas C. J. — "The learned counsel for the plaintiffs respondents has strongly relied . . . upon my decision in A.I.R. 1936 Oudh 340 relying on 55 I. A. 189 wherein I held But now having regard to the argument advanced, and the fact that my attention was not drawn to the decision of their Lordships of the Privy Council in (1876) 4 I. A. 228, I entertain serious doubt as to the correctness of that decision. Nor was 4 I. A. 228 brought to the notice of Ashworth J. in (1926) 3 O. W. N. 321."

(1947) 34 A. I. R. 1947 Oudh 232 (233) (DB).—"No doubt in 1940 O. W. N. 561 a Bench of this Court entertained an application in revision against the order of a District Judge and set aside that order but the attention of the learned Judges does not seem to have been drawn to the Full Bench decision to which we have referred [namely, a decision of five Judges reported in (1929) 4 Luck. 589], nor was the point as to the maintainability of an application in revision considered."

(1945) 32 A. I. R. 1945 Lahore 260 (261) (FB). — Per Achhru Ram J. (in the Order of Reference) — "Ho (i. e., Patanjali Sastri, J. in A. I. R. 1942 Mad. 13) does not, however, appear to have noticed one of the Division Bench judgments of his own Court reported in A. I. R. 1920 Mad. 177 which also dealt with the same subject and took just the opposite view from that taken by him."

(1945) 32 A. I. R. 1945 Madras 139 (141) (FB). — "The decisions in which the contrary view has been expressed are: 45 Mad. 466, A. I. R. 1919 Mad. 220, A. I. R. 1928 Mad. 440 and 1941-2 M. L. J. 754." In the first of these cases "the Court did not, however, consider the case in 5 Mad. 141 In none of the other cases was any reason given for the view expressed and in no case was 5 Mad. 141 mentioned or considered We consider that 5 Mad. 141 should be followed."

(1949) 36 A. I. R. 1949 P. C. 156 (153). — Sir John Beaumont — "There have been no doubt, decisions in some High Courts in India which lend support to the view upon which the Judges acted. The cases are collected in Edn. 4 of Chitaley and Rao on the Code of Civil Procedure Vol I, page 1105."

(1949) 36 A. I. R. 1949 Allahabad 169 (169). — Per Harish Chandra J. — "... it may be that the reason why no provision has been made in the Code in respect of a minor defendant or a minor respondent attaining majority during the pendency of the suit is, as pointed out by Chitaley and Rao in their Commentary on the Code of Civil Procedure (4th (1944) Edn. O. 32, R. 12, Note 2) that while a plaintiff on becoming a major can elect . . . notwithstanding his becoming a major."

(1949) 36 A. I. R. 1949 East Punjab 254 (256). — Per Mahajan J. — "That the section (namely, T. P. (Cited with approval).

(1949) 36 A. I. R. 1949 East Punjab 213 (214). — Per Bhandari J. — "The law in regard to the execution of decrees has been stated with admirable clarity by the learned author of Chitaley's Commentaries on the Code of Civil Procedure. In Note 8 to s. 33, the learned author observes as follows: 'An executing Court cannot go the decree was a valid one.' Judged in the light of these principles, it seems to me that the decree-holder cannot ask for the execution of the decree etc."

(1949) 36 A. I. R. 1949 East Punjab 213 (217). — Per Bhandari J. — "In Chitaley's Commentary on the Law of Limitation, page 2132 (of 1st Edn.: now see (1942) 2nd Edn., page 2619) it is clearly stated that where a decree-holder recovers in execution money in excess of what is due to him" etc.

"The cases on this subject will be found collected in Chitaley's Code of Criminal Procedure, latest edition, at pages 2032 to 2034 [now see 3rd (1946) Edn., S. 400, Note 81. It is unnecessary to mention all of them." (page 80)

(1948) 35 A. I. R. 1948 Allahabad 19 (24, 25) (FB). — Per Raghubar Dayal J. — "Circumstances requiring remand of a case can be many and need not be exhaustively imagined at a time. A good number of such circumstances are noted under Note 20, O. 41, R. 23, Civil P. C., in Chitaley's Civil P. C. 4th (1941) Edn. I find that two other High Courts, the Madras High Court and the Lahore High Court, have given very wide powers to the appellate Court to remand the suits. These amendments are given in Chitaley's Code of Civil Procedure, 4th Edn."

(1947) 34 A. I. R. 1947 Bombay 345 (350) (SB). — Per Sen J. — "Chitaley in his Code of Criminal Procedure, 1941 edition, has pointed out at page 1204 that there is no specific provision enabling the Court to try the case where the accused pleads guilty and the Court does not accept the same and that in England where the Court does not think it expedient to act upon the accused's plea of guilty, the usual procedure is to advise him to withdraw his plea of guilty and to plead not guilty. Chitaley has further pointed out that in this country the general trend of opinion is that the accused may be treated in such cases as if he had pleaded not guilty, and that the trial may be proceeded with in the ordinary way and he has referred to several authorities in support of this view." (1945) 32 A. I. R. 1945 Calcutta 298 (299). — "The view that we are taking of sub-r. (2), R. 1 of O. 40 finds support from the decision of all the other High Courts and even from some earlier decisions of the Allahabad High Court itself. Those decisions are noted at the foot-note to para. 49 of Chitaley and Rao's Commentaries on the Code of Civil Procedure, vol. 3, page 2924." (Now see 4th Edn., page 2968.)

(1947) 34 A. I. R. 1947 Lahore 409 (409). — Per Bhandari J. — "In Chitaley's Commentary on S. 141, Civil P. O. [4th (1944) Edn. Note 2 p. 1174], the learned author observes that proceedings under the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890, have been held to be original matters of the nature contemplated by this section." [This view is approved.]

(1948) 35 A. I. R. 1948 Nagpur 210 (222) (DB). — Per Hidayatullah J. — "In my opinion, the matter is to be determined on a true construction of S. 91 (a), T. P. Act. As pointed out in Chitaley's Transfer of Property Act, [2nd (1942) Edn.], p. 1372, the two phrases in S. 91 (a) refer to different stages. . . . The passage in Chitaley can be quoted with advantage here: 'The property mortgaged is not the same thing . . . after deducting the mortgagee interest.'"

(1948) 35 A. I. R. 1948 Oudh 116 (125) (DB). — Per Kaul J. — "As pointed out by Chitaley in his Commentary on S. 151, Civil P. O., (Note 2) it has been held by the High Courts of Allahabad, Calcutta, Lahore, Madras, Patna, Rangoon and the Judicial Commissioner's Court of Oudh and Sind that there is no inherent power to set aside an ex parte decree, or restore a suit dismissed for default, except under the circumstances and conditions mentioned in O. 9, R. 13 and R. 9 respectively. The same remarks would apply to restoration of appeals under O. 41, R. 19, Civil P. O. I agree with the view thus stated."

(1948) 35 A. I. R. 1948 Patna 460 (462) (DB). — Per Meredith J. — "I will make two quotations from Chitaley and Anwar Rao's annotated edition of the Civil Procedure Code, 4th Edn., vol. III, because those learned commentators have, in my opinion, correctly summed up the position in language which cannot be bettered. At page 3099, with reference to O. 41, R. 4 they say: 'There is a conflict . . . that the former view is correct.' Then with regard to O. 41, R. 33, at page 3165 they say: 'The appellate Court can exercise . . . the words respondents or parties'. That is just the point which appeals to me."

(1947) 34 A. I. R. 1947 Allahabad 31 (32). — Yorke J. — "The general impression I derive from Art. 39, from the notes to Art. 39 in Chitaley's Commentary on Indian Limitation Act, vol. II [2nd (1942) Edn.] and the quotations from Salmond Torts which he reproduces . . . In the passage quoted from Salmond on Torts to immovable property is defined . . . [p. 1225] Another passage quoted in (runs as follows . . . [p. 1225] In the same section of his notes Chitaley quotes a Madras decision . . . It appears to me that the upshot of all these clearly is that the present suit is not a suit for compensation for trespass upon immovable property."

(1947) 34 A. I. R. 1947 Oudh 122 (125, 126). — Kidwai J. — "I have come to the conclusion that on both the points the decision must be in the appellant's favour . . . Chitaley in Note 43 to S. 60, T. P. Act [2nd (1942) Edn., p. 1067], summarises the law and the Note supports the case of the appellants."

(1947) 34 A. I. R. 1947 Oudh 98 (100). — Kaul J. — "As observed by Chitaley in his Note 114 on S. 11 [Civil P. O. 4th (1944) Edn.] an estoppel by consent decree can arise only when the question raised in the subsequent suit was present to the minds of the parties and was actually dealt with by the consent decree. The question in all such cases, the learned author says, would be whether the parties did intend that the question at issue should be finally settled between them by the consent decree and whether the consent decree did actually settle that question."

(1947) 34 A. I. R. 1947 Peshawar 15 (18) (DB). — "All the authorities bearing on the point were examined and the result of the examination was thus stated in the Indian Limitation Act by Chitaley etc., 2nd (1942) Edn. page 1387: 'It would seem to appear from an examination of cases . . . a fresh cause of action and time would run from that date.' It is obvious that according to this view a fresh invasion of title would constitute a new cause of action for a suit from which limitation should commence to run."
